GENESIS

Subject:
God Created, Satan Corrupted, Man Fell, and Jehovah Promised to Save

CHAPTER 1

I. God's Creation 1:1 — 2:25

A. God's Desire and Purpose 1:1 — 2:3

1. God's Original Creation 1:1

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

2. Judgment and Corruption 1:2a

2 But the earth became waste and emptiness, and darkness was on the surface of the deep,

3. God's Restoration and Further Creation 1:2b — 2:3

a. The Spirit, the Word, and the Light Coming, the First Day 1:2b-5 and the Spirit of God was brooding upon the surface of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light; and there was light.

4 And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

b. The Waters under the Expanse Separated from the Waters above the Expanse, the Second Day 1:6-8 6 And God said, Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the expanse and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse, and it was so.

8 And God called the expanse Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

c. The Earth Separated from the Seas and the Plant Life Generated, the Third Day 1:9-13

9 And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters He called Seas; and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth sprout grass, herbs yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit according to their kind with their seed in them upon the earth; and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, herbs yielding seed according to their kind, and trees bearing fruit with their seed in them according to their kind; and God saw that it was good.

13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

d. The Light-bearers Appearing,
1:14-19

14 And God said, Let there be light-bearers in the expanse of heaven to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years;

15 And let them be light-bearers in the expanse of heaven to give light on the earth; and it was so.

16 And God made the two great light-bearers, the greater light-bearer to rule the day and the lesser light-bearer to rule the night, and the stars.

17 And God set them in the expanse of heaven to give light on the earth

18 And to rule over the day and over the night and to separate the light from the darkness, and God saw that it was good.

19 And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

e. The Living Creatures in the Water and in the Air Generated, the Fifth Day

20 And God said, Let the waters swarm with swarms of living animals, and let birds fly above the earth in the open expanse of heaven.

21 And God created the great sea creatures and every living animal that moves, with which the waters swarmed, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind; and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.

23 And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

f. The Living Creatures on the Earth Generated, the Sixth Day
1:24-31

(1) The Animals of the Earth
vv. 24-25

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth living animals according to their kind, cattle and creeping things and animals of the earth according to their kind; and it was so.

25 And God made the animals of the earth according to their kind and the cattle according to their kind and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind, and God saw that it was good.

(2) Man
vv. 26-28

(a) The Conference of the Godhead
v. 26

26 And God said, Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of heaven and over the cattle and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

(b) Created by God Male and Female
v. 27

27 And God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

(c) Blessed by God to Be Fruitful
v. 28

28 And God blessed them; and God said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of heaven and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.

(3) Man and All Other Living Creatures Satisfied by God's Provision
vv. 29-30

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed that is on the surface of all the earth and every tree which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be for you as food.

30 And to every animal of the earth and to every bird of heaven and to everything that creeps upon the earth, in which is a living soul, I have given every green herb for food; and it was so.

(4) Everything Being Very Good to God
v. 31

31 And God saw everything that He had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

g. God Resting in Satisfaction,
the Seventh Day
2:1-3

1 Thus the heavens and the earth and all their host were finished.

2 And on the seventh day God finished His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

3 And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made.

B. God's Procedures to Fulfill His Purpose
2:4-25

1. The Background—
No Rain from Heaven, No Man on the Ground, No Life in the Field, Only a Mist from the Earth
vv. 4-6

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created. ¹When Jehovah God made earth and heaven,

5 And no plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up—for Jehovah God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to work the ground,

6 But a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground—

2. The First Step—Creating Man as a Vessel to Contain God as Life
v. 7

7 Jehovah God formed man with the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul.

3. The Second Step—Having Man Receive God as Life
vv. 8-17

a. Placing Man in Front of the Tree of Life
vv. 8-9

8 And Jehovah God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there He put the man whom He had formed.

9 And out of the ground Jehovah God caused to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, as well as the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

b. Putting Man in the Garden with Its River
vv. 10-15

10 And a river went forth from Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four branches.

11 The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one that goes around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one that goes around the whole land of Cush.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel; it is the one that goes east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 And Jehovah God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and to keep it.

c. Allowing Man to Have Free Choice
vv. 16-17

16 And Jehovah God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden you may eat freely, 17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, of it you shall not eat; for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

4. The Third Step—Working God into Man as Life to Be His Complement
vv. 18-25

a. Man, Typifying God, Needing to Have a Complement
vv. 18-20

18 And Jehovah God said, It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper as his counterpart.

19 And Jehovah God formed from the ground every animal of the field and every bird of heaven, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called any living animal, that was its name.

20 And the man gave names to all cattle and to the birds of heaven and to every animal of the field, but for Adam there was not found a helper as his counterpart.

b. Man Gaining a Complement in and by Life
vv. 21-25

21 And Jehovah God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh in its place.

22 And Jehovah God built the rib, which He had taken from the man, into a woman and brought her to the man.

23 And the man said,
This time this is bone of my bones
And flesh of my flesh;
This one shall be called Woman
Because out of Man this one was taken.

24 Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

25 And both the man and his wife were naked and were not ashamed before each other.

CHAPTER 3

II. Man's Fall through Satan's Corruption
3:1 — 11:32

A. The First Fall—from God's Presence to Man's Conscience
3:1-24

1. The Serpent's (Satan's) Temptation and Man's First Fall
vv. 1-7

1 Now the serpent was more crafty than every other animal of the field which Jehovah God had made. And he said to the woman, Did God really say, You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent, Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die!

5 For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will become like ¹God, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make oneself wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate.

7 And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

2. God Dealing with Man's First Fall
vv. 8-24

a. Seeking Man
vv. 8-13

8 And they heard the ¹sound of Jehovah God walking about in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah God among the trees of the garden.

9 And Jehovah God called to the man and said to him, Where are you?

10 And he said, I heard the sound of You in the garden, and I was afraid because I am naked; so I hid myself.

11 And He said, Who told you that you are naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.

13 And Jehovah God said to the woman, What is this that you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

b. Judging the Serpent
v. 14

14 And Jehovah God said to the serpent,

Because you have done this,
You are cursed more than all the cattle
And more than all the animals of the field:

Upon your stomach you will go,
And dust you will eat
All the days of your life.

c. The Promise regarding the Seed of the Woman
v. 15

15 And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman
And between your seed and her seed;
He will bruise you on the head,
But you will bruise him on the heel.

d. Disciplining Man through Suffering
vv. 16-19

16 To the woman He said,
I will greatly multiply
Your pain in your childbearing;
In pain you will bring forth children.
And your desire will be to your husband,
And he will rule over you.

17 And to Adam He said, Because you listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree concerning which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it;
Cursed is the ground because of
you;
In toil will you eat of it
All the days of your life.

18 And thorns and thistles it will bring forth for you,
And you will eat the herb of the field;

19 By the sweat of your face
You will eat bread
Until you return to the ground,
Because from it you were taken;
For dust you are,
And to dust you shall return.

e. Redemption Anticipated
vv. 20-21

20 And the man called his wife's name

8¹ Or, voice.

Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

21 And Jehovah God made for Adam and for his wife coats of skins and clothed them.

f. Closing the Way to the Tree of Life
vv. 22-24

22 And Jehovah God said, Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil; and now, lest he put forth his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat and live forever—

23 Therefore Jehovah God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to work the ground from which he was taken.

24 So He drove the man out, and at the east of the garden of Eden He placed the cherubim and a flaming sword which turned in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

B. The Second Fall—from Man's Conscience to Others' Control
4:1-26

1. The Background
vv. 1-2

1 And the man knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain and said, I have acquired a man, ¹Jehovah.

2 And again she gave birth to his brother Abel. And Abel was a tender of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

2. Man's Presumption, Anger, Murder, Lying, and Arrogance
vv. 3-9

3 And in the course of time Cain brought an offering to Jehovah from the fruit of the ground.

4 And Abel also brought an offering from the firstlings of his flock, that is, from their fat portions. And Jehovah had regard for Abel and for his offering.

5 But for Cain and for his offering He had no regard. And Cain became very angry, and his countenance fell.

6 And Jehovah said to Cain, Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?

7 If you do well, will not your countenance be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and his desire is for you, but you must rule over him.

8 And Cain said to Abel his brother, Let us go into the field. And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother and slew him.

9 Then Jehovah said to Cain, Where is Abel your brother? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?

3. God Dealing with Man's Second Fall—Cursing Man and Making Him a Fugitive and a Wanderer
vv. 10-15

10 And He said, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to Me from the ground.

11 And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

12 When you till the ground, it will no longer yield its strength to you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.

13 And Cain said to Jehovah, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Now You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground, and from Your face I will be hidden; and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.

15 And Jehovah said to him, Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold. And Jehovah put a mark on Cain, so that anyone who found him would not strike him.

4. Man Producing a Culture without God
vv. 16-24

16 And Cain went forth from the presence of Jehovah and dwelt in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch; and he built a city and called the name of the city after the name of his son Enoch.

18 And Irad was born to Enoch, and Irad begot Mehujael, and Mehujael begot Methushael, and Methushael begot Lamech.

19 And Lamech took two wives for himself: The name of the first was Adah, and the name of the second Zillah.

20 And Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and raise cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe.

22 And Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-cain, the forger of every cutting instrument of bronze and iron; and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said to his wives,
Adah and Zillah, listen to my voice;
O wives of Lamech, hearken to my speech;
For I have slain a man for wounding
me,
Even a young man for striking me.

24 If Cain is avenged sevenfold,
Then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.

5. The Way to Escape Man's Second Fall—Man Realizing His Fragility and Calling on the Name of Jehovah
vv. 25-26

25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she gave birth to a son and called his name Seth; for, she said, God has appointed me another seed instead of Abel, because Cain slew him.

26 And to Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh. At that time men began to call upon the name of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 5

C. The Generations of the Saved
Revealing the Ultimate Issue of Man's Fall and the Way to Escape It
5:1-32

1. The Ultimate Issue of Man's Fall—Death
vv. 1-27

1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. ¹When God created Adam, He made him in the likeness of God.

2 Male and female He created them, and He blessed them and called their name Adam, on the day when they were created.

3 And Adam lived one hundred thirty years and begot a son in his likeness according to his image, and he called his name Seth.

4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years, and he died.

6 And Seth lived one hundred five years and begot Enosh.

7 And Seth lived after he had begotten Enosh eight hundred seven years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, and he died.

9 And Enosh lived ninety years and begot Kenan.

10 And Enosh lived after he had begotten Kenan eight hundred fifteen years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

11 And all the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, and he died.

12 And Kenan lived seventy years and begot Mahalalel.

13 And Kenan lived after he had begotten Mahalalel eight hundred forty years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

14 And all the days of Kenan were nine hundred ten years, and he died.

15 And Mahalalel lived sixty-five years and begot Jared.

16 And Mahalalel lived after he had begotten Jared eight hundred thirty years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

17 And all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, and he died.

18 And Jared lived a hundred sixty-two years and begot Enoch.

19 And Jared lived after he had begotten Enoch eight hundred years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, and he died.

21 And Enoch lived sixty-five years and begot Methuselah.

2. The Way to Escape Death—Walking with God
vv. 22-24

22 And Enoch walked with God after he had begotten Methuselah three hundred years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.

24 And Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him.

25 And Methuselah lived one hundred eighty-seven years and begot Lamech.

26 And Methuselah lived after he had begotten Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, and he died.

3. The Family of Salvation Finding Comfort and Rest
vv. 28-32

28 And Lamech lived a hundred eighty-two years and begot a son.

29 And he called his name Noah, saying, This one will ¹give us rest from our work and from the toil of our hands, which come because of the ground which Jehovah has cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he had begotten Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah begot Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6

D. The Third Fall—
From Others' Control to Human Government
6:1—8:3

1. The Evil Spirits Mingling with Man and Man Becoming Flesh

1 And when men began to multiply on the surface of the ground, and daughters were born to them,

2 The sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair; and they took wives for themselves from all whom they chose.

3 And Jehovah said, My Spirit will not strive with man forever, for he indeed is flesh; so his days will be one hundred twenty years.

4 The ¹Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they gave birth to children to them; these were the mighty men who were of old the men of renown.

2. God Dealing with Man's Third Fall — Blotting Out Man from the Earth
6:5-7

5 And Jehovah saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every ¹imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And Jehovah repented that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him in His heart.

7 And Jehovah said, I will blot out the man whom I have created from the surface of the ground, from man to beast to creeping things to the birds of heaven; for I repent that I have made them.

3. The Way of Salvation from the Third Fall
6:8—8:3

a. Walking with God
6:8-10

8 But Noah found favor in the sight of Jehovah.

9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generations; and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begot three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

b. Building the Ark
6:11—7:16

(1) Receiving the Revelation
6:11-21

11 And the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth.

13 And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence because of them; and now I am about to destroy them with the earth.

14 Make yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make rooms in the ark and shall cover it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is how you shall make it: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

16 You shall make an opening for light for the ark, and you shall finish it up to a cubit from the top; and you shall put the entrance of the ark in its side; you shall make it with lower, second, and third stories

17 And now I am about to bring a flood of water upon the earth to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die.

18 But I will establish My covenant with you, and you shall come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.

19 And of every living thing, of all flesh, two of every kind you shall bring into the ark to preserve them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

20 Of the birds according to their kind and of the cattle according to their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind will come to you in order to stay them alive.

21 And for your part, take some of every kind of food that is edible, and gather it to yourself, and it will be for food for you and for them.

(2) Preparing the Ark
6:22

22 And Noah did this; according to all that God commanded him, so he did.

5¹ Or, purpose, desire.

CHAPTER 7

(3) Entering the Ark and Being Shut in the Ark by Jehovah
7:1-16

1 Then Jehovah said to Noah, Come into the ark, you and all your household, for you alone I have seen to be righteous before Me in this generation.

2 Of every clean animal you shall take with you seven pairs, a male and its female; and of the animals that are not clean two, a male and its female;

3 Also of the birds of heaven, seven pairs, male and female; to preserve their ¹offspring alive on the surface of all the earth.

4 For in seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights, and every living being that I have made I will blot out from the surface of the ground.

5 And Noah did according to all that Jehovah commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came upon the earth.

7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean animals and of animals that are not clean and of birds and of everything that creeps upon the ground, 9 Two by two they came into the ark to Noah, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And after the seven days the waters of the flood came upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that very day all the springs of the great deep burst open, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain fell upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 On that very same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them entered the ark, 14 They and every animal according to its kind and all the cattle according to their kind and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth according to its kind and every bird according to its kind—every bird, every winged creature.

15 And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two of all flesh in which was the breath of life.

16 And those who went in, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and Jehovah shut the door behind him.

c. Saved through Water

17 And the flood was on the earth forty days; and the waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark went about on the surface of the waters.

19 And when the waters had prevailed exceedingly upon the earth, all the high mountains that were under the entire heaven were covered.

20 The waters prevailed fifteen cubits higher once the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh that moved upon the earth expired: birds and cattle and animals and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth and all mankind.

22 Everything in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of all that was on the dry land, died.

23 Thus He blotted out every living being that was upon the surface of the 3¹ Lit., seed.

ground, from man to beast to creeping things to the birds of heaven. And they were blotted out from the earth, and only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth one hundred fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

1 And God remembered Noah and all the animals and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God made a wind pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

2 The springs of the deep and the windows of heaven were also stopped, and the rain from the heavens was restrained;

3 And the waters receded steadily from upon the earth. So at the end of one hundred fifty days the waters began to diminish.

E. Life in Resurrection 8:4—10:32

1. The Ark Resting upon the Mountains, Signifying Resurrection with Christ 8:4-5

4 And the ark came to rest in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters diminished steadily until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

2. The Raven Being Sent Forth, Signifying the Fleshly Ones Going Back to the World Judged by God 8:6-7

6 And at the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent out the raven; and it went out, going to and fro until the waters had dried up from the earth.

3. The Dove Being Sent Forth, Signifying the Spiritual Ones Staying with the Church and Caring for Life in the Spirit 8:8-12

8 And he sent out the dove from him to see if the waters had abated from the surface of the ground.

9 But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him to the ark; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. And he put out his hand and took her and brought her to himself into the ark.

10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark.

11 And the dove came to him toward evening time, and there in her beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had abated from the earth.

12 And he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, and she did not return to him again.

4. Going Forth from the Ark in Resurrection 8:13-19

13 And in the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the water was dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and saw that now the surface of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

15 And God spoke to Noah, saying,

16 Go forth from the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you;

17 Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and cattle and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth—that they may swarm on the earth and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth.

18 So Noah went forth, as well as his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.

19 Every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves upon the earth, went forth from the ark according to their families.

5. Making Burnt Offerings to Jehovah on an Altar, Signifying the Offering of Christ to God through the Cross
8:20-22

20 And Noah built an altar to Jehovah and took of every clean beast and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And Jehovah smelled the ¹satisfying fragrance; and Jehovah said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground on account of man, for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I ever again smite everything living as I have done.

22 Throughout all the days that earth remains,
Seed time and harvest, and cold and heat,
And summer and winter, and day and night
Shall not cease.

CHAPTER 9

6. Fulfilling God's Purpose to Express and Represent Him

1 And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the terror of you shall be upon every animal of the earth and upon every bird of heaven, on everything that creeps on the ground and on all the fish of the sea; into your hand they are delivered.

3 Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; just as I gave you the green herb, so I have given you everything.

4 But flesh with its life, that is, its blood, you shall not eat.

5 And indeed your lifeblood I will require; from every animal I will require it. And from every man, from every man's brother, I will require the life of man.

6 Whoever sheds man's blood,
By man shall his blood be shed,
For in the image of God
He made man.

7 And you, be fruitful and multiply, ¹Abound on the earth and multiply in it.

7. Living under God's Covenant
9:8-17

a. No More Judgment through Death's Waters
vv. 8-11

8 Then God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I Myself now establish My covenant with you and with your seed after you

10 And with every living animal that is with you: the birds, the cattle, and every animal of the earth with you, of all that came out of the ark, every animal of the earth.

11 And I establish My covenant with you, that never again will all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood, and never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.

b. The Rainbow as the Sign of God's Faithfulness in Keeping His Covenant
vv. 12-17

12 And God said, This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me 21¹ Or, soothing. 7¹ Lit., Swarm.

and you and every living animal that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I set My bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.

14 And when I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow is seen in the clouds, 15 I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living animal of all flesh, and never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow will be in the clouds, and I will look upon it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living animal of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

8. The Failure of the Leader and Deputy Authority
9:18-29

a. Caused by the Success of His Work
vv. 18-21

18 Now the sons of Noah who came forth from the ark were Shem and Ham and Japheth. And Ham was the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was spread over.

20 And Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank of the wine and became drunk. And he uncovered himself inside his tent.

b. Ham Exposing the Failure, and Shem and Japheth Covering the Failure
vv. 22-24

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father and told his two brothers outside.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders, and they walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father. And their faces were turned backward, so that they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine and learned what his youngest son had done to him.

c. Ham Receiving the Curse, and Shem and Japheth Receiving the Blessing
vv. 25-27

25 And he said,
Cursed be Canaan:
A servant of servants
Shall he be to his brothers.

26 And he said,
Blessed be Jehovah,
The God of Shem;
And let Canaan be his servant.

27 May God enlarge Japheth,
And let him dwell in the tents of Shem,
And let Canaan be his servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, and he died.

CHAPTER 10

9. The Nations Issuing Forth with Babel as the Consummation
10:1-32

1 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, of Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and 'Rodanim.

4' Some MSS read, Dodanim (cf. 1 Chron. 1:7).

5 From these the islands and coastal regions of the nations were separated into their lands, every one according to his tongue, according to their families, in their nations.

6 And the sons of Ham: Cush and Mizraim and Put and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush: Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begot Nimrod: He began to be a mighty one on the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before Jehovah; therefore it is said, Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before Jehovah.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 From that land he went into Assyria and built Nineveh and Rehoboth-ir and Calah 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah, that is, the great city.

13 And Mizraim begot the Ludim and the Anamim and the Lehabim and the Naphtuhim

14 And the Pathrusim and the Casluhim, from which came the Philistines, and the Caphtorim.

15 And Canaan begot Sidon his first-born and Heth

16 And the Jebusites and the Amorites and the Girgashites

17 And the Hivites and the Arkites and the Sinites

18 And the Arvadites and the Zemarites and the Hamathites, and afterward the families of the Canaanites were spread out.

19 And the territory of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza, and as you go toward Sodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, in their nations.

21 And also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the eldest brother of Japheth, children were born.

22 The sons of Shem: Elam and Asshur and Arpachshad and Lud and Aram.

23 And the sons of Aram: Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash.

24 And Arpachshad begot Shelah, and Shelah begot Eber.

25 And to Eber were born two sons: The name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begot Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah

27 And Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah

28 And Obal and Abimael and Sheba

29 And Ophir and Havilah and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go toward Sephar, the hill country of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations; and from these the nations were separated on the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER 11

F. The Fourth Fall—

From Human Government to Rebellion under Satan's Instigation
11:1-9

1. Building a City and a Tower to Rebel against God, to Renounce God, and to Make a Name for Themselves
vv. 1-4

1 And the whole earth had one language and the same speech.

2 And as they journeyed east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said to one another, Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and they had tar for mortar.

4 And they said, Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower whose top is in the heavens; and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered over the surface of the whole earth.

2. God Dealing with Man's Fourth Fall—Scattering Them in Living and Confounding Them in Language
vv. 5-9

5 And Jehovah came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men had built.

6 And Jehovah said, Behold, they are one people, and they all have one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and now nothing which they purpose to do will be kept from them.

7 Come, let Us go down and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So Jehovah scattered them from there over the surface of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.

9 Therefore its name was called Babel, because there Jehovah confounded the language of all the earth, and from there Jehovah scattered them over the surface of all the earth.

G. The Generations from Man's Salvation through Water to Jehovah's Calling 11:10-32

10 These are the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old when he begot Arpachshad, two years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he had begotten Arpachshad five hundred years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

12 And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and begot Shelah.

13 And Arpachshad lived after he had begotten Shelah four hundred three years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

14 And Shelah lived thirty years and begot Eber.

15 And Shelah lived after he had begotten Eber four hundred three years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived thirty-four years and begot Peleg.

17 And Eber lived after he had begotten Peleg four hundred thirty years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years and begot Reu.

19 And Peleg lived after he had begotten Reu two hundred nine years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived thirty-two years and begot Serug.

21 And Reu lived after he had begotten Serug two hundred seven years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years and begot Nahor.

23 And Serug lived after he had begotten Nahor two hundred years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived twenty-nine years and begot Terah.

25 And Nahor lived after he had begotten Terah one hundred nineteen years, and he begot more sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years and begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 Now these are the generations of Terah. Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And Haran begot Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

29 And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves: The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.

30 And Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son and Lot the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan, but when they came to Haran they settled there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred five years, and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

III. Jehovah's Calling 12:1—50:26

A. The First Aspect— The Experience of Abraham 12:1—25:18

1. God's Calling 12:1-7a

- 1 Now Jehovah said to Abram,
Go from your land
And from your relatives
And from your father's house
To the land that I will show you;
- 2 And I will make of you a great nation,
And I will bless you
And make your name great;
And you shall be a blessing.
- 3 And I will bless those who bless you,
And he who ¹curses you I will curse;
And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.
- 4 So Abram went as Jehovah had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he went out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the souls that they had acquired in Haran, and they went out to go to the land of Canaan. And they came to the land of Canaan.

6 And Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. And at that time the Canaanites were in the land.

7 And Jehovah appeared to Abram and said, 'To your seed I will give this land.

2. Living by Faith
12:7b - 14:24

a. A Life of the Altar and the Tent
12:7b-8

And there he built an altar to Jehovah who had appeared to him.

8 And he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to Jehovah and called upon the name of Jehovah.

b. The Trial of the Called 12:9 - 13:18

(1) Famine
12:9 - 13:4

9 And Abram journeyed onward, journeying toward the Negev.

10 And there was a famine in the land; and Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land.

11 And when he was about to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, I know indeed that you are a beautiful woman to look at;

12 And when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife,' and they will kill me; but they will keep you alive.

13 Now say you are my sister, that it may be well with me on account of you and ¹I may live because of you.

14 And it came about when Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

3¹ Lit., makes light of. 13¹ Lit., my soul.

15 And Pharaoh's officials saw her and praised her before Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he treated Abram well on account of her, and he had sheep and oxen and donkeys and male servants and female servants and female donkeys and camels.

17 And Jehovah struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

19 Why did you say, She is my sister, so that I took her to be my wife? Now then here is your wife; take her and go.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.

1 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negev.

2 And Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold.

3 And he continued on his journey from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

4 To the place of the altar, which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of Jehovah.

(2) The Brother's Striving 13:5-18

5 And Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks and herds and tents.

6 And the land could not support them that they might dwell together, for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And at that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelt in the land.

8 And Abram said to Lot, Let there please be no strife between me and you and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.

9 Is not the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw the entire plain of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere—this was before Jehovah had destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—like the garden of Jehovah, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar.

11 So Lot chose for himself the entire plain of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed east; and they separated themselves from each other.

12 Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

13 Now the men of Sodom were very wicked and sinful toward Jehovah.

14 And Jehovah said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, Now lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward;

15 For all the land that you see I will give to you and to your seed forever.

16 And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then your seed can also be numbered.

17 Rise up; walk through the land according to its length and its breadth, for I will give it to you.

18 And Abram moved his tent and came and dwelt by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and there he built an altar to Jehovah.

CHAPTER 14

c. The Victory of the Called 14:1-24

(1) The Brother Being Captured
vv. 1-12

1 And in the days of Amraphel the king of Shinar, Arioch the king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and Tidal the king of Goiim,

2 These kings made war with Bera the king of Sodom and with Birsha the king of Gomorrah, Shinab the king of Admah, and Shemeber the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

3 All these joined together in the valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea).

4 Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim and the Zuzim in Ham and the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim

6 And the Horites in Mount Seir as far as El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and struck all the country of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who dwelt in Hazazon-tamar.

8 And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah and the king of Admah and the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went forth and set the battle in array against them in the valley of Siddim, 9 Against Chedorlaomer the king of Elam and Tidal the king of Goiim and Amraphel the king of Shinar and Arioch the king of Ellasar, four kings against the five.

10 Now the valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled; and they fell there, but those who survived fled to the hill country.

11 And they took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food and went away.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, and his possessions and departed, for he was dwelling in Sodom.

(2) Fighting for the Brother
vv. 13-17

13 And one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew. Now he was dwelling by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner; and these were allies of Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother had been taken captive, he led out his trained men, born in his house, three hundred eighteen of them, and pursued as far as Dan.

15 And he divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them to Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the possessions and also brought back Lot his brother and his possessions as well as the women and the people.

17 And after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

(3) Ministered To by Melchisedec
vv. 18-20

18 And Melchizedek the king of Salem brought out bread and wine. Now he was priest of ¹God the Most High.

19 And he blessed him and said,
Blessed be Abram of God the Most High,
Possessor of heaven and earth;

18¹ Heb. El Elyon.

20 And blessed be God the Most High,
Who has delivered your enemies into your hand.
And ¹Abram gave him a tenth of all.

(4) Overcoming the Temptation of Earthly Substance
vv. 21-24

21 And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the ¹people, and take the possessions for yourself.

22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom,
I have lifted up my hand to Jehovah, God the Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not take a thread or a sandal thong or anything that is yours, lest you say, I have made Abram rich;

24 Except only that which the young men have eaten and the portion of the men who went with me—Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER 15

3. Knowing Grace for the Fulfillment of God's Purpose 15:1 — 17:27

a. God's Covenant with Abraham
15:1-21

(1) Concerning the Seed
vv. 1-6

1 After these things the word of Jehovah came to Abram in a vision, saying, Do not be afraid, Abram; I am your shield and your exceedingly great reward.

2 And Abram said, O Lord Jehovah, what will You give me, for I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Since You have given me no seed, therefore, a ¹servant in my house is my heir.

4 But then the word of Jehovah came to him, saying, This man shall not be your heir, but he who will come out from your own ¹body shall be your heir.

5 And He brought him outside and said, Look now toward the heavens, and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And He said to him, So shall your seed be.

6 And he believed Jehovah, and He accounted it to him as righteousness.

(2) Concerning the Land
vv. 7-21

7 Then He said to him, I am Jehovah who brought you out of Ur of the Chal-deans to give you this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, O Lord Jehovah, how will I know that I will inherit it?

9 And He said to him, Bring Me a three-year-old heifer and a three-year-old female goat and a three-year-old ram and a turtledove and a young pigeon.

10 And he brought Him all these and cut them in two in the middle and laid the half of each opposite the other, but the birds he did not cut in two.

11 And the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and, behold, a terror and great darkness fell upon him.

13 And He said to Abram, Know assuredly that your seed will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and they will serve them; and they will afflict them four hundred years.

14 But I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out with great possessions.

15 But as for you, you will go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried in a good old age.

16 And in the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.

20' Lit., he. 21' Lit., soul. 3' Lit., a son of my house. 4' Lit., inward parts.

17 And when the sun went down and it was dark, there came a smoking furnace and a torch of fire which passed between these pieces.

18 On that day Jehovah made a covenant with Abram, saying,

To your seed do I give this land,
From the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates:

19 The land of the Kenites and the Kenizzites and the Kadmonites

20 And the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Rephaim

21 And the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Girgashites and the Jebusites.

CHAPTER 16

b. The Two Women—An Allegory 16:1-16

1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children; and she had an Egyptian female servant, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said to Abram, Because Jehovah has prevented me from bearing, please go in to my female servant; perhaps I will ¹obtain children by her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

3 So after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her female servant, and gave her to Abram her husband to be a wife.

4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said to Abram, May the wrong done to me be upon you. I gave my female servant into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. May Jehovah judge between me and you.

6 And Abram said to Sarai, Your female servant is now in your hand; do to her what is good in your eyes. So Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from before her.

7 And the Angel of Jehovah found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur.

8 And He said, Hagar, Sarai's female servant, where did you come from and where are you going? And she said, I am fleeing from before my mistress Sarai.

9 And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands.

10 And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, I will greatly multiply your seed so that it will not be counted for multitude.

11 And the Angel of Jehovah said to her,

You have now conceived
And will bear a son,
And you shall call his name Ishmael, Because Jehovah has heard of your affliction.

12 And he will be a wild ass of a man;
His hand will be against everyone,
And everyone's hand, against him;
And he will settle down opposite all his brothers.

13 And she called the name of Jehovah who spoke to her, You are a ¹God who reveals Himself, for she said, Do I even remain here after He has revealed Himself to me?

14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; there it is, between Kadesh and Bered.

15 And Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

CHAPTER 17

c. God's Covenant Confirmed with Circumcision 17:1-14

1 And when Abram was ninety-nine

2¹ Lit., be built up. 13¹ Lit., God of seeing.

years old, Jehovah appeared to Abram and said to him,

I am the 'All-sufficient God;
Walk before Me, and be perfect.

2 And I will make My covenant between Me and you,
And I will multiply you exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for Me, this is My covenant with
you,
And you shall become the father of a multitude of nations.

5 Your name shall no longer be called Abram,
But your name shall be Abraham;
For I have made you the father of a multitude of nations.

6 And I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings will come forth from you.

7 And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your seed after you.

8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

9 And God said to Abraham, And as for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations.

10 This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

11 And you shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and you.

12 And he who is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he who is born in the house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your seed.

13 He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised; thus My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 But as for the uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that ¹person shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.

d. The Birth of Isaac Promised
17:15-27

15 And God said to Abraham, As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name shall be Sarah.

16 And I will bless her, and I will also give you a son by her. Indeed, I will bless her, and she will be a mother of nations; kings of peoples will come forth from her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face and laughed and said in his heart, Will a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? And will Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?

18 And Abraham said to God, Oh that Ishmael might live before You!

19 But God said, No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac; and I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you; indeed, I have blessed him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly: twelve princes will he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this appointed time next year.

22 And when He finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

and all who were born in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on the very same day, as God had said to him.

24 And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 On the very same day Abraham was circumcised as well as Ishmael his son.

27 And all the men of his house, those born in the house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

4. Living in Fellowship with God 18:1—24:67

a. Communion with God on the Human Level 18:1-22

1 And Jehovah appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre as he was sitting at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day.

2 And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and there were three men standing opposite him. And when he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them. And he bowed down to the earth

3 And said, My Lord, if I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass on from Your servant.

4 Please let a little water be fetched, and do wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

5 And let me fetch a morsel of bread that you may sustain yourselves. After that you may pass on, since you have come to your servant. So they said, Do as you have said.

6 And Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, Quickly prepare three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make cakes.

7 And Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it.

8 And he took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and set them before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

9 And they said to him, Where is Sarah your wife? And he said, There, in the tent.

10 And He said, I will certainly return to you according to the time of life, and then Sarah your wife shall have a son. And Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent, which was behind Him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah according to the manner of women.

12 And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I have become old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?

13 And Jehovah said to Abraham, Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I indeed bear a child, when I am old?

14 Is anything too marvelous for Jehovah? At the appointed time I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied it, saying, I did not laugh; for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

16 And the men rose up from there and looked down upon Sodom; and Abraham walked with them to send them away.

17 And Jehovah said, Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do, 18 Since Abraham will indeed become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him?

5¹ Lit., your heart.

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him to keep the way of Jehovah by doing righteousness and justice, that Jehovah may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken concerning him.

20 And Jehovah said, The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah, how great it is; and their sin, how very heavy it is!

21 I shall go down and see whether they have done altogether according to its outcry, which has come to Me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before Jehovah.

b. A Glorious Intercession

23 And Abraham came near and said, Will You indeed ¹destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will You indeed destroy and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it?

25 Far be it from You to do such a thing, to put to death the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked. Far be it from You! Shall the Judge of all the earth not do justly?

26 And Jehovah said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Now behold, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord, though I am but dust and ashes.

28 Suppose the fifty righteous are lacking five, will You destroy the whole city because of five? And He said, I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.

29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said, Suppose forty are found there? And He said, I will not do it because of forty.

30 And he said, Oh may the Lord not be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there? And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Now behold, I have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there? And He said, I will not destroy it because of twenty.

32 And he said, Oh let the Lord not be angry if I speak yet once more. Suppose ten are found there? And He said, I will not destroy it because of ten.

33 And Jehovah went away as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

CHAPTER 19

c. The Negative Record of Lot 19:1-38

(1) A Defeated Righteous Man and a Pillar of Salt
vv. 1-29

1 And the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And when Lot saw them, he rose up to meet them and bowed with his face to the ground.

2 And he said, Now, my lords, please turn aside here to your servant's house, and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you can rise up early and go on your way. But they said, No; we will spend the night in the square.

3 But he urged them strongly, and they turned aside to him and entered his house. And he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter;

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, Where are the men who came to you 23¹ Lit., sweep away. So also in v. 24.

tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out to them at the entrance and shut the door behind him.

7 And he said, Please, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.

8 I have here two daughters who have not known a man. Please, let me bring them out to you, and do to them as is fitting in your eyes; only do not do anything to these men, inasmuch as they have come under the ¹shelter of my roof.

9 But they said, Stand aside. Then they said, This one came here to sojourn, and already he is acting like a judge. Now we will treat you worse than we would have them. And they pressed hard against the man, against Lot, and came near in order to break down the door.

10 But the men stretched out their hand and brought Lot into the house to them and shut the door.

11 And they struck the men who were at the entrance of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves trying to find the entrance.

12 And the men said to Lot, Whom else do you have here? A son-in-law or your sons and your daughters or anyone you have in the city—bring them out of the place.

13 For we are about to destroy this place, because their outcry has become so great before Jehovah that Jehovah has sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, and said, Rise up; go forth from this place, for Jehovah will destroy the city. But it seemed to his sons-in-law as though he were joking.

15 And when the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, Rise up; take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be ¹destroyed in the iniquity of the city.

16 But he lingered; so the men seized his hand and the hand of his wife and the hand of his two daughters, Jehovah being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.

17 And when they had brought them outside, He said, Escape for your life. Do not look behind you, neither stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the hills, lest you be destroyed.

18 And Lot said to them, May it not be so, Lord;

19 Even though Your servant has found favor in Your sight, and You have magnified Your lovingkindness, which You have showed to me in preserving my ¹life; I cannot escape to the mountain, lest ²the disaster overtake me and I die.

20 Here, this city is nearby to flee to, and it is a little one. Please let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and ¹I shall live.

21 And He said to him, I now grant you this request also, that I will not overthrow the city concerning which you have spoken.

22 Hurry, escape there; for I cannot do anything until you arrive there. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun had risen over the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

24 Then Jehovah rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Jehovah out of heaven.

25 And He overthrew those cities and all the plain and all the inhabitants of the cities and what grew on the ground.

26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

8¹ Lit., shadow. 15¹ Lit., swept away. So also in v. 17. 19¹ Lit., soul. 19² Lit., the evil cling to me. 20¹ Lit., my soul.

27 And Abraham rose up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before Jehovah.

28 And he looked down upon Sodom and Gomorrah and upon all the land of the plain. And as he looked, there it was: the smoke of the land was going up like the smoke of a furnace.

29 And when God destroyed the cities of the plain, God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out from the middle of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities among which Lot dwelt.

(2) The Seed by Incest
vv. 30-38

30 Then Lot went up out of Zoar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters with him, for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave.

31 And the firstborn said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man on the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine; and let us lie with him, that we may preserve alive seed from our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in and lay with her father, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

34 And the next day the firstborn said to the younger, I have now lain with my father last night. Let us make him drink wine tonight also; and you go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve alive seed from our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also. And the younger one arose and lay with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

36 Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

37 And the firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-ammi; he is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

CHAPTER 20

d. A Hidden Weakness and a Shameful Intercession
20:1-18

1 And Abraham journeyed from there toward the region of the Negev and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur; then he sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. And Abimelech the king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, You are now about to die because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her, so he said, Lord, will You slay even a righteous nation?

5 Did he himself not say to me, She is my sister? And even she herself said, He is my brother. In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this.

6 And God said to him in the dream, Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also prevented you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

7 Now therefore return the man's wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.

8 And Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants and spoke all these things in their hearing. And the men were very afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What did you see, that you have done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I 'thought, Surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will slay me because of my wife.

12 But she is also truly my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And when God caused me to wander from my father's house, I said to her, This is your kindness which you must do to me: At every place where we go, say of me, He is my brother.

14 Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen and male servants and female servants, and gave them to Abraham; and he returned to him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, My land is now before you; dwell wherever it pleases you.

16 And to Sarah he said, I have now given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. It is now your 'vindication before all who are with you. And in every respect you have been cleared.

17 And Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his female servants, so that they bore children.

18 For Jehovah had completely shut up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

e. The Birth and Growth of Isaac 21:1-34

1 And Jehovah visited Sarah as he had said, and Jehovah did to Sarah as He had promised.

2 And Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised Isaac his son when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was a hundred years old when Isaac his son was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, God has made me laugh; everyone who hears will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

10 So she said to Abraham, Cast out this maidservant and her son, for the son of this maidservant shall not inherit with my son Isaac.

11 And the matter displeased Abraham greatly on account of his son.

12 And God said to Abraham, Do not be displeased on account of the boy and on account of your maidservant. Whatever Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, for in Isaac shall your seed be called.

13 And of the son of the maidservant I will also make a nation, because he is your seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning and took bread and a waterskin full of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and gave her the child and sent her away. And she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

11' Lit., said. 16' Lit., covering of the eyes.

15 When the water in the waterskin was finished, she cast the child under one of the bushes.

16 And she went and sat herself down opposite him, a fair distance away, about a bowshot away, for she said, Do not let me look upon the death of the child. And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the boy. And the Angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven and said to her, ¹What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

18 Rise up; lift up the boy, and hold him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the waterskin with water and gave the boy a drink.

20 And God was with the boy, and he grew. And he dwelt in the wilderness and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran. And his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 And at that time Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, God is with you in all that you do.

23 Now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity. According to the kindness that I have shown to you, you shall do to me and to the land in which you have sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I swear it.

25 And Abraham confronted Abimelech concerning the well of water which Abimelech's servants had taken by force.

26 And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing; and you did not tell me about it, nor have I even heard of it until today.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech. And the two of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs which you have set by yourselves?

30 And he said, These seven ewe lambs you shall take from my hand, that it may be a witness for me that I dug this well.

31 Therefore he called that place Beer-sheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.

32 So they made a covenant at Beer-sheba; and Abimelech rose up with Phicol the captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 And ¹Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and there he called on the name of Jehovah, the ²Eternal God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

CHAPTER 22

f. The Offering Up of Isaac 22:1-24

1 Now after these things God tested Abraham and said to him, Abraham. And he said, Here I am.

2 And He said, Take now your son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you.

3 And Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey and took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him.

4 On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from afar.

5 And Abraham said to his young men, Stay here with the donkey; and I and the boy will go over there, and we will worship and then return to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son. And he took in his hand the fire and the knife. And the two of them walked together.

7 And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, My father! And he said, Here I am, my son. And he said, The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, God Himself will ¹provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son. So the two of them walked on together.

9 And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood in order and bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar on top of the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.

11 And the Angel of Jehovah called to him from the heavens and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Here I am.

12 And he said, Do not stretch out your hand upon the boy, nor do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and there behind him was a ram, caught in the thicket by its horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering in place of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh, as it is said to this day, On the mount of Jehovah ¹it will be provided.

15 And the Angel of Jehovah called to Abraham a second time from the heavens

16 And said, By Myself I have sworn, declares Jehovah: Because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son, 17 I will surely bless you and will greatly multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens and like the sand which is on the seashore; and your seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.

18 And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.

19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham dwelt in Beer-sheba.

20 And after these things it was told Abraham, saying, Milcah has now also borne children to your brother Nahor:

21 Uz his firstborn and Buz his brother and Kemuel the father of Aram

22 And Chesed and Hazo and Pildash and Jidlaph and Bethuel;

23 And Bethuel begot Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah and Gaham and Tahash and Maacah.

CHAPTER 23

g. The Death and Burial of Sarah 23:1-20

1 And the life of Sarah was one hundred twenty-seven years. These were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. And 8¹ Or, see. 14¹ Or, He will be seen.

Abraham proceeded to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 Then Abraham rose up from before his dead wife and spoke to the children of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner among you. Give me the possession of a burial place among you that I may bury my dead wife out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

6 Hear us, my lord. You are a prince of God in our midst. In the choicest of our burial places bury your dead wife. None of us will withhold from you his burial place for burying your dead wife.

7 And Abraham rose up and bowed down to the people of the land, to the children of Heth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your desire that I should bury my dead wife out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me Ephron the son of Zohar

9 That he would give me the cave of Machpelah, which is his, and which is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your midst for the possession of a burial place.

10 Now Ephron was sitting in the midst of the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the children of Heth, in the hearing of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, 11 No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field and the cave that is in it, to you I give it. In the presence of the children of my people I give it to you; bury your dead wife.

12 And Abraham bowed down before the people of the land.

13 And he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, But if you will, please hear me; I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, that I may bury my dead wife there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

15 My lord, listen to me. A piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between me and you? Therefore bury your dead wife.

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the children of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current with the merchant.

17 So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah and which was before Mamre, the field and the cave which was in it and all the trees that were in the field, which were in all its territory, were assured

18 To Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, in the presence of all who went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field and the cave that is in it were assured to Abraham for the possession of a burial place from the children of Heth.

CHAPTER 24

h. The Marriage of Isaac 24:1-67

1 And Abraham was old, and advanced in age. And Jehovah had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his house, who ruled over all that he had, Put your hand under my thigh;

3 And I will make you swear by Jehovah, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am dwelling.

4 But you shall go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I then take your son back to the land from where you came?

6 And Abraham said to him, Be certain not to take my son back there.

7 Jehovah, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, To your seed I will give this land, He will send His angel before you; and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

8 And if the woman is not willing to follow you, you shall be free from this oath of mine; only you shall not take my son back there.

9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

10 And the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and departed, having all kinds of his master's good things in his hand. And he rose up and went to Aram-naharaim, to the city of Nahor.

11 And he made the camels to kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, at the time when women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, Please grant me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

13 I am standing here by the spring of water as the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

14 And may it be that the girl to whom I say, Please let down your pitcher that I may drink, and who says, Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink, may she be the one whom You have appointed for Your servant, for Isaac; and in this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.

15 But before he had finished speaking, there was Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, coming out with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the girl was very beautiful in appearance, a virgin, and no man had known her. And she went down to the spring and filled her pitcher and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, Please let me sip a little water from your pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord. And she hurried and lowered her pitcher on her hand and gave him a drink.

19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.

20 And she hurried and emptied her pitcher into the trough and ran again to the well to draw water, and she drew it for all his camels.

21 And the man gazed fixedly upon her in silence to know whether Jehovah had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had finished drinking, the man took a golden nose-ring weighing half a shekel and two bracelets for her hands weighing ten gold shekels, 23 And said, Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.

25 She also said to him, We have plenty of straw and fodder and also a place to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed and worshipped Jehovah.

27 And he said, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His lovingkindness and His faithfulness toward my master. As for me, Jehovah has led me in the way to the house of my master's brothers.

28 And the girl ran and told her mother's house about these things.

29 And Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban, and Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.

30 As soon as he had seen the ring and the bracelets upon his sister's hands, and had heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, This is what the man spoke to me, he went to the man. And there he was, standing by the camels at the spring.

31 And he said, Come in, O blessed of Jehovah! Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?

32 And the man came into the house, and Laban unloaded the camels. And he gave straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

33 And food was set before him to eat. But he said, I will not eat until I have told my business. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And Jehovah has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great. And He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

36 And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master after she had become old. And he has given all that he has to him.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell.

38 But you shall go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.

39 And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said to me, Jehovah, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and make your journey prosperous. And you shall take a wife for my son from my family, even from my father's house.

41 Then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my family. And if they do not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.

42 And I came today to the spring and said, O Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, if now You make my journey on which I go prosperous, 43 I am standing here by the spring of water, so let the maiden who comes out to draw water, to whom I will say, Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink, 44 And she will say to me, Drink, and I will also draw water for your camels—let her be the woman whom Jehovah has appointed for my master's son.

45 Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there came Rebekah, and her pitcher was on her shoulder. And she went down to the spring and drew water. And I said to her, Please let me drink.

46 And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder and said, Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink. So I drank, and she also gave the camels a drink.

47 And I asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the nose-ring upon her nose and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed and worshipped Jehovah and blessed Jehovah, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

49 And now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me so; but if not, tell me so, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The matter comes from Jehovah; we cannot speak to you bad or good.

51 Here is Rebekah before you: Take her, and go; and let her be the wife of your master's son, as Jehovah has spoken.

52 And when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed down to the earth to Jehovah.

53 And the servant brought forth silver jewelry and gold jewelry and clothing and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

54 And they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and spent the night. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the girl stay with us a few days, ten or so; after that she may go.

56 And he said to them, Do not delay me, since Jehovah has made my journey prosperous. Send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, Let us call the girl and ask ¹her.

58 And they called Rebekah and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse and Abraham's servant and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

May you, our sister, become Thousands of ten thousands,

And may your seed possess

The gate of those who hate ¹them.

61 And Rebekah arose with her maids, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. And the servant took Rebekah and went away.

62 Now Isaac had come from going to Beer-lahai-roi, for he was dwelling in the region of the Negev.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field toward evening. And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes; and when she saw Isaac, she sprang off the camel.

65 And she said to the servant, Who is this man who is walking in the field to meet us? And the servant said, It is my master. And she took her veil and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother. And he took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after the death of his mother.

CHAPTER 25

5. Having No Maturity in Life 25:1-18

1 And Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

2 And she bore him Zimran and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishbak and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were the Asshurim and the Letushim and the Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian: Ephah and Epher and Hanoch and Abida and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah.

57¹ Lit., from her mouth. 60¹ Or, him.

5 And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac.

6 But to the sons of the concubines that Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts. And he sent them away from Isaac his son, while he was still living, eastward to the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, one hundred seventy-five years.

8 And Abraham expired and died in a good old age, an old man and full of days, and he was gathered to his people.

9 And Isaac and Ishmael his sons buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which faces Mamre,

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the children of Heth; there Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

11 And after the death of Abraham, God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac dwelt by Beer-lahai-roi.

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's female servant, bore to Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar and Ad-beel and Mibsam

14 And Mishma and Dumah and Massa;

15 Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names by their villages and by their encampments, twelve princes according to their peoples.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, one hundred thirty-seven years. And he expired and died and was gathered to his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah to Shur, which faces Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. He settled down opposite all his brothers.

2. Living in the Natural Life like Jacob
25:27-28; 28:6-9

27 And when the boys grew up, Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a quiet man, dwelling in tents.

28 Now Isaac loved Esau because he had a taste for game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

- b. Being Forced to Leave the Loving Mother and the Father's Home
25:29-34; 27:5-26; 27:42—28:5

- (1) Supplanting the Birthright
25:29-34

29 And Jacob cooked a stew. And Esau came in from the field, and he was faint.

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Let me swallow down some of the red stew, that red stew there, for I am faint. Therefore his name was called Edom.

31 And Jacob said, 'First sell me your birthright.

32 And Esau said, I am now about to die, so of what use is this birthright to me?

33 And Jacob said, First swear to me. And he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob.

34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose up and went away. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

(The Experience of Isaac—cont'd)

3. Inheriting the Promise
Given to His Father

1 And there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Abimelech the king of the Philistines at Gerar.

2 And Jehovah appeared to him and said, Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land of which I will tell you.

3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and will bless you; for to you and to your seed I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

4 And I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and will give to your seed all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth will be blessed,

5 Because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.

4. Having Natural Weakness like Abraham
26:6-11

6 So Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, She is my sister, for he was afraid to say, My wife, thinking, The men of this place might slay me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful in appearance.

8 And when he had been there a long time, Abimelech the king of the Philistines looked out through his window and saw, and there was Isaac playfully caressing Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac and said, So she is indeed your wife. How then did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I thought I might die on account of her.

31' Lit., Today. So also in v. 33.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all the people, saying, He who touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

5. Reaping a Hundredfold and Becoming Great
26:12-14

12 And Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold. And Jehovah blessed him, 13 And the man became rich and continued to grow richer until he became very rich.

14 And he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.

6. Finding the Well of "Living Water"
26:15-22

15 Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father the Philistines had stopped up and filled with earth.

16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we.

17 So Isaac went away from there and camped in the valley of Gerar and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which had been dug in the days of Abraham his father, and which the Philistines had stopped up after the death of Abraham; and he called them by the same names which his father had given them.

19 And Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of flowing water.

20 And the shepherds of Gerar strove with Isaac's shepherds, saying, The water is ours. So he called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him.

21 And they dug another well; and they strove over that also, so he called the name of it Sitnah.

22 And he moved away from there and dug another well, but they did not strive over it, so he called the name of it Rehoboth; and he said, Now Jehovah has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land.

7. God Confirming His Promise to Him at Beer-sheba
26:23-35

23 And he went up from there to Beer-sheba.

24 And Jehovah appeared to him the same night and said, I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your seed for My servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he built an altar there and called upon the name of Jehovah and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 And Abimelech came to him from Gerar with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said to them, Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We see plainly that Jehovah is with you; so we say, Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you,

29 That you will not do us any harm, just as we have not touched you, and just as we have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of Jehovah.

30 And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

31 And they rose up early in the morning and swore to one another. And Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And the same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug and said to him, We have found water.

33 And he called it Shibah. Therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba to this day.

34 Now when Esau was forty years old, he took as wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

35 And they caused bitterness of spirit to Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

8. Not Having Much Maturity in Life 27:1-4, 27-41

1 Now when Isaac was old, and his eyes had become so dim that he could not see, he called Esau his older son and said to him, My son. And he said to him, Here I am.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, and I do not know the day of my death.

3 Now then, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me,

4 And prepare for me a tasty meal, such as I love, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die.

(The Experience of Jacob - cont'd)
(2) Supplanting the Father's Blessing
27:5-26

5 Now Rebekah had been listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game to bring it home,

6 Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, I just heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying,

7 Bring me game, and prepare for me a tasty meal so that I may eat it and bless you before Jehovah before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice, according to that which I command you.

9 Go now to the flock, and take two choice kids for me from there, and I will prepare them as a tasty meal for your father, such as he loves.

10 Then you shall bring it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.

12 Perhaps my father will feel me, and I will be as a 'deceiver in his sight, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said to him, Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me.

14 And he went and got them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared a tasty meal, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

16 And she put the skins of the kids on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

17 And she put the tasty meal and the bread that she had prepared into the hand of Jacob her son.

18 And he came to his father and said,

4¹ Lit., my soul. 12¹ Or, mocker.

My father. And he said, Here I am. Who are you, my son?

19 And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau your firstborn; I have done as you told me. Now rise up; sit up and eat some of my game, so that ¹you may bless me.

20 And Isaac said to his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because Jehovah your God put it in my way.

21 And Isaac said to Jacob, Please come near that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not.

22 And Jacob came near to Isaac his father. And he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are Esau's hands:

23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Are you really my son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's game, that ¹I may bless you. So he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 Then his father Isaac said to him, Please come near and kiss me, my son.

8. Not Having Much Maturity in Life

27 So he came near and kissed him; and when ¹Isaac smelled the smell of his garments, he blessed him and said,

See, the smell of my son—
Like the smell of a field
Which Jehovah has blessed.

28 And may God give you
Of the dew of heaven and of the fatness of the earth,
And an abundance of grain and new wine.

29 Let peoples serve you,
And nations bow down to you.
Be lord over your brothers,
And let your mother's sons bow down to you.
Cursed be those who curse you,
And blessed be those who bless
you.

30 And as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, when Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had prepared a tasty meal and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, Let my father rise up, and eat some of his son's game, that ¹you may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.

33 And Isaac trembled very greatly and said, Who was it then who hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate of it all before you came and blessed him? And blessed will he be.

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a very great and bitter cry and said to his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

35 And he said, Your brother came deceitfully and has taken away your blessing.

36 And ¹Esau said, Is he not rightly named Jacob, for he has supplanted me these two times? He took away my birthright, and behold now he has taken away my blessing. Then he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said to Esau, I have already made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given to him for servants; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. And what then shall I do for you, my son?

19¹ Lit., your soul. 25¹ Lit., my soul. 27¹ Lit., he. 31¹ Lit., your soul. 36¹ Lit., he.

38 And Esau said to his father, Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said to him,

Behold, ¹away from the fatness of the earth shall your dwelling be, And ¹away from the dew of heaven from above.

40 And by your sword shall you live, And you shall serve your brother. And when you ¹become restless, You shall break his yoke from off your neck.

41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will slay my brother Jacob.

(3) Being Instructed to Go Away by His Mother
27:42-46

42 And the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah, so she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him, Now your brother Esau is consoling himself concerning you by planning to kill you.

43 Therefore, my son, obey my voice now, and rise up; flee to Laban my brother at Haran, 44 And stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away, 45 Until your brother's anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send word and get you back from there. Why should I be bereaved of both of you in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth like these, from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?

CHAPTER 28

(4) Being Blessed and Sent Away
by His Father
28:1-5

1 And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him; and he charged him and said to him, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

2 Rise up, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father; and take from there a wife from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

3 And may the ¹All-sufficient God bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples.

4 And may He give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, that you may possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Aramaean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

2. Living in the Natural Life

6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Paddan-aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him, he charged him, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,

7 And that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan-aram.

8 So Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan ¹displeased Isaac his father.

39' Or, of the fatness...of the dew. 40' Or, have roved about. 3' Heb. El Shaddai.

8' Lit., were evil in the eyes of.

9 Then Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, and the sister of Nebaioth to be his wife, in addition to the wives that he had.

(The Experience of Jacob—cont'd)
c. The Dream at Bethel
28:10-22

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba and went toward Haran.

11 And he came to a certain place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and ¹put it under his head, and he lay down in that place.

12 And he dreamed: There was a ladder set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

13 And there was Jehovah, standing above it; and He said, I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie, I will give to you and to your seed.

14 And your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will cause you to return to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.

16 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, Surely Jehovah is in this place, and I did not know it.

17 And he was afraid and said, How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning and took the stone that he had put under his head, and he set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz previously.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go and will give me bread to eat and garments to put on,

21 So that I return to my father's house in peace, then Jehovah will be my God, 22 And this stone, which I have set up as a pillar, will be God's house; and of all that You give me I will surely give one tenth to You.

CHAPTER 29

d. Being Led in God's Sovereignty to Meet Rachel and Laban
29:1-14

1 Then Jacob ¹went on his journey and came to the land of the children of the east.

2 And he looked, and there in the field was a well, and there three flocks of sheep were lying beside it; for from that well they watered the flocks. And the stone on the mouth of the well was large.

3 And when all the flocks would gather there, they would roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep; then they would put the stone back on the mouth of the well in its place.

4 And Jacob said to them, My brothers, where are you from? And they said, We are from Haran.

5 And he said to them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We do know him.

6 And he said to them, Is it well with him? And they said, It is well, and here is his daughter Rachel coming with the sheep.

7 And he said, Look, it is still full day; and it is not time for the livestock to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go feed them.

11¹ Or, placed it as his pillow. 1¹ Lit., lifted up his feet.

8 And they said, We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep.

9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with the sheep which belonged to her father, for she was a shepherdess.

10 Now when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, Jacob drew near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's ¹relative and that he was Rebekah's son. And she ran and told her father.

13 And when Laban heard the news of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him. And he embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then ¹Jacob related to Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. And he stayed with him a month.

e. Being Cheated by Laban to Marry Laban's Two Daughters
29:15-30

15 And Laban said to Jacob, Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?

16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 And Leah's eyes were ¹dull, but Rachel was beautiful in form and beautiful in appearance.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel. And he said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man; stay with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but they seemed to him only a few days because of the love he had for her.

21 And Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.

23 But in the evening he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he went in to her.

24 And Laban gave Zilpah his female servant to his daughter Leah to be her female servant.

25 And in the morning there she was, Leah! And he said to Laban, What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?

26 And Laban said, It is not done in this way in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me for another seven years.

28 And Jacob did so and completed her week, and he gave him Rachel his daughter as a wife.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his female servant to be her female servant.

30 And he went in also to Rachel and also loved Rachel rather than Leah, and he served with ¹Laban for another seven years.

12¹ Lit., brother. So also in v. 15. 13¹ Lit., he. 17¹ Or, tender, weak. 30¹ Lit., him.

f. The Competition, Envy, and Wrestling between Jacob's Wives in Bearing Children
29:31—30:24

31 Now when Jehovah saw that Leah was hated, He opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben, for she said, Because Jehovah has looked upon my affliction, surely now my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, Because Jehovah has heard that I am hated, He has therefore given me this son also; so she called his name Simeon.

34 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons. Therefore his name was called Levi.

35 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, This time I will praise Jehovah. Therefore she called his name Judah. Then she ceased bearing.

CHAPTER 30

1 And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister and said to Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

2 And Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Here is my servant Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees and that I also may ¹have children through her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her female servant as a wife, and Jacob went in to her.

5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God has judged me, and has also heard my voice and given me a son; therefore she called his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's female servant conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, In wrestling with God, I have wrestled with my sister and have prevailed; so she called his name Naphtali.

9 Now when Leah saw that she ceased bearing, she took Zilpah her female servant and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's female servant bore Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, How fortunate! So she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's female servant bore Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I! For the daughters will call me blessed; so she called his name Asher.

14 And Reuben went out in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Please give me some of your son's mandrakes.

15 And she said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? And would you take away my son's mandrakes also? So Rachel said, Then he may lie with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes. So he lay with her that night.

17 And God gave heed to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God has given me my hire, because I gave my female servant to my husband; so she called his name Issachar.

3¹ Lit., be built up.

19 And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

20 And Leah said, God has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will 'dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons; so she called his name Zebulun.

21 And afterward she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.

22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God gave heed to her and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived and bore a son and said, God has taken away my reproach.

24 And she called his name Joseph, saying, May Jehovah add to me another son.

g. Being Squeezed by Laban and Tricking Him, but Being Blessed by God
30:25—31:16

25 And when Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own country.

26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, that I may go; for you indeed know my service by which I have served you.

27 And Laban said to him, If you please, I have divined that Jehovah has blessed me on account of you.

28 And he said, Name me your wages, and I will give it.

29 And 'Jacob said to him, You indeed know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me.

30 For you had little before I came, and it has spread into a multitude, and Jehovah has blessed you 'wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give you? And Jacob said, You shall not give me anything. Just do this one thing for me: Let me again feed your flock and keep it.

32 Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted animal, that is, every black animal among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such will be my wages.

33 So my righteousness will testify for me later, when you come concerning my wages, by what is before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the sheep, if found with me, will be counted stolen.

34 And Laban said, Fine; let it be according to your word.

35 But on that day he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the 'care of his sons;

36 And he set a distance of a three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 And Jacob took rods of fresh poplar and almond and plane trees and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, that is, in the watering places where the flocks came to drink; and they bred when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks bred before the rods; and the flocks brought forth young that were streaked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob separated the lambs and set the faces of the flock toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laban, and he put his own herds apart and did not put them with Laban's flock.

41 And whenever the stronger of the 20' Or, honor me. 29' Lit., he. 30' Lit., according to my foot. 35' Lit., hand.

flock were breeding, Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the flock in the troughs so that they might breed among the rods;

42 But when the flock was feebler, he did not put them in; so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man became spread out exceedingly, and had large flocks, and female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

CHAPTER 31

1 Now ¹Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that belonged to our father; and from what belonged to our father he has made all this ²wealth.

2 And Jacob saw Laban's countenance, and now it was not favorable toward him as previously.

3 And Jehovah said to Jacob, Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you.

4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field,

5 And he said to them, I see that your father's countenance is not favorable toward me as previously, but the God of my father has been with me.

6 And you yourselves know that with all my strength I have served your father.

7 And your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to harm me.

8 If he spoke in this way, The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flock bore speckled; and if he spoke in this way, The streaked shall be your wages, then all the flock bore streaked.

9 Thus God has ¹taken away your father's livestock and given them to me.

10 And at the time the flock was breeding, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream; and there were the male goats, leaping upon the flock—streaked, speckled, and spotted.

11 And the Angel of God said to me in the dream, Jacob; and I said, Here I am.

12 And He said, Lift up now your eyes, and see that all the male goats which leap upon the flock are streaked, speckled, and spotted; for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.

13 I am the ¹God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Rise up now; go out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Do we still have any portion or inheritance in our father's house?

15 Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us and has even entirely used up the money given for us.

16 Surely all the wealth which God has taken away from our father is ours and our children's. So do now whatever God has said to you.

h. Fleeing from Laban and Being Pursued by Him 31:17-55

17 Then Jacob rose up and set his sons and his wives upon the camels;

18 And he drove away all his livestock and all his property which he had acquired, the livestock in his possession which he had acquired in Paddan-aram, in order to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole the household idols that were her father's.

20 And Jacob ¹deceived Laban the Aramaean by not telling him that he was fleeing.

21 So he fled with all that he had, and he rose up and crossed over the River and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

¹ Lit., he. ¹ Or, glory. ⁹ Lit., rescued, or salvaged. So also in v. 16. ¹³ Heb. El Beth-el. ²⁰ Lit., stole the heart of. So also in v. 26.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob had fled.

23 And he took his brothers with him and pursued after him the distance of a seven days' journey; and he overtook him in the hill country of Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Aramaean in a dream of the night and said to him, Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.

25 And Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his brothers also pitched tents in the hill country of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What are you doing deceiving me and carrying away my daughters like captives of the sword?

27 Why did you flee secretly and steal away from me and not tell me, when I might have sent you away with joy and with songs, with tambourine and with lyre?

28 And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have acted foolishly.

29 It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Be careful that you do not speak to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though you had to go because you longed greatly for your father's house, why did you steal my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, for I ¹thought that you might take your daughters from me by force.

32 The one with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our brothers indicate what there is with me that is yours, and take it. Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent and into the two female servants' tent, but he did not find them. Then he went from Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the household idols and put them in the camel's saddle, and she sat upon them. And Laban rummaged through all the tent but did not find them.

35 And she said to her father, Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise up before you, for the manner of women is upon me. So he searched but did not find the household idols.

36 And Jacob became angry and contended with Laban; and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my transgression? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued me?

37 Although you have rummaged through all my possessions, what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers, that they may decide between the two of us.

38 These twenty years have I been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams of your flocks.

39 That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was: By day the dry heat consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

41 These twenty years have I been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the Dread of Isaac, had not been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last night.

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

44 So come now; let us make a covenant, I and you; and let it be a witness between me and you.

45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.

46 And Jacob said to his brothers, Gather stones. So they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there by the heap.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is witness between me and you today. Therefore its name was called Galeed 49 And Mizpah, because he said, Jehovah watch between me and you when we are absent from one another.

50 If you afflict my daughters, and if you take wives besides my daughters—even though no man is with us—see, God is witness between me and you.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Here is this heap, and here is the pillar which I have set between me and you.

52 This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you and that you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Dread of his father Isaac.

54 And Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and called his brothers to eat a meal, and they ate a meal and spent the night in the mountain.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them, and Laban departed and returned to his place.

CHAPTER 32

i. Fearing Esau 32:1-21

1 And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 And Jacob said when he saw them, This is God's camp. So he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, into the land of Seir, the field of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, I have sojourned with Laban and stayed until now;

5 And I have oxen and donkeys and flocks, and male servants and female servants; and I have sent to tell my lord this, that I may find favor in your sight.

6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to your brother Esau, and he also is coming to meet you; and four hundred men are with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him and the flocks and the herds and the camels into two camps;

8 And he said, If Esau comes to the one camp and attacks it, then the camp which is left will escape.

9 Then Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O Jehovah, who said to me, Return to your country and to your relatives, and I will do you good,

10 I am 'not worthy of all the loving-kindnesses and of all the faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant, for with my staff only I crossed over this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.

10¹ Lit., too small for.

11 Deliver me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I fear him, lest he come and attack me, even the mother with the children.

12 But You have said, I will surely do you good and make your seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he spent that night there. Then from what he had with him he took a present for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, 15 Thirty nursing camels and their young, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, Cross over before me, and put a space between each drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, To whom do you belong? And where are you going? And whose animals are these before you?

18 Then you will say, Your servant Jacob's; it is a present sent to my lord Esau; and now he also is behind us.

19 And he commanded also the second and the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, In this way you shall speak to Esau when you find him, 20 And you shall also say, Your servant Jacob is right behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.

21 So the present crossed over before him, and he himself spent that night in the camp.

2. Being Broken
32:22 — 34:31

a. Wrestling with God
32:22-32

22 And he rose up that night and took his two wives and his two female servants and his eleven children and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok.

23 And he took them and sent them over the stream and sent over what he had.

24 And Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until the break of dawn.

25 And when the ¹man saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with Him.

26 And the ¹man said, Let Me go, for the dawn is breaking. But ²Jacob said, I will not let You go unless You bless me.

27 And He said to him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And He said, Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked Him and said, Please tell me Your name. But He said, Why is it that you ask My name? And He blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, for, he said, I have seen God face to face, and yet my life has been preserved.

31 And the sun rose upon him as he crossed over Penuel, and he limped because of his hip.

32 Therefore the children of Israel do not eat the thigh muscle, which is upon the socket of the hip, to this day, because 25¹ Lit., he. 26¹ Lit., he. 26² Lit., he.

He touched the socket of Jacob's hip at the thigh muscle.

CHAPTER 33

b. Being Welcomed by Esau 33:1-16

1 And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and there was Esau coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and among Rachel and among the two female servants.

2 And he put the female servants and their children in front, and Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph last.

3 And he himself passed on before them and bowed down to the ground seven times until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children and said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children whom God has graciously given your servant.

6 Then the female servants came near, they and their children, and they bowed down.

7 And Leah also came near with her children, and they bowed down; and afterward Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed down.

8 And ¹Esau said, What do you mean by all this camp which I met? And he said, To find favor in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; let what you have be yours.

10 And Jacob said, No, please, if now I have found favor in your sight, then take my present from my hand; for I see your face as one sees the face of God, and you have received me favorably.

11 Please take my blessing which has been brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have all that I need. So he urged him, and he took it.

12 Then ¹Esau said, Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before you.

13 And he said to him, My lord knows that the children are frail and that the nursing flocks and herds are a concern to me; and if they overdrive them for one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord please pass on before his servant, and I will lead on slowly according to the pace of the ¹cattle which are before me and according to the pace of the children until I come to my lord at Seir.

15 So Esau said, Let me please leave with you some of the people who are with me. And he said, What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

c. Returning to Canaan but Only to Shechem 33:17-20

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth and built a house for himself and made booths for his livestock; therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

18 And Jacob came ¹safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram; and he camped before the city.

19 And he bought the piece of land where he had pitched his tent from the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred qesitahs.

20 And there he erected an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

8¹ Lit., he. 12¹ Lit., he. 14¹ Lit., property, possessions. 18¹ Or, in peace.

CHAPTER 34

d. Still Needing the Dealing in His Circumstances
34:1-31

1 And Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her and humbled her.

3 And his soul clung to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke 'affectionately to the girl.

4 And Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, Get me this young girl as a wife.

5 Now when Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, his sons were with his livestock in the field; so Jacob kept silent until they came in.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard of it. And the men were grieved and became very angry, because he had committed folly in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor spoke with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him as a wife.

9 And make marriages with us: Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

10 And you shall dwell with us, and the land will be before you; dwell and 'trade in it, and acquire holdings in it.

11 And Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, Let me find favor in your sight, and whatever you say to me I will give.

12 Impose upon me a very large bridal price and gift, and I will give whatever you say to me; but give me the girl as a wife.

13 Then the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully; and because he had defiled Dinah their sister they spoke,

14 And said to them, We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us.

15 Only on this condition will we consent to you: If you become like us, and every male among you is circumcised, 16 Then we will give our daughters to you, and will take your daughters for ourselves; and we will dwell with you and become one people.

17 But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go.

18 And their words seemed good to Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 And the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he delighted in Jacob's daughter. Now he was honored above all the house of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city and spoke with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are with us peacefully; therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it, for here the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters for ourselves as wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only on this condition will the men consent to us to dwell with us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Will not their livestock and their property and all their animals be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And all who went out of the gate of 3' Lit., to the heart of. 10' Or, move about. So also in v. 21.

his city listened to Hamor and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

25 Then on the third day, when they were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came upon the city ^{unawares}, and slew every male.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and they took Dinah out of Shechem's house and went away.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their flocks and their herds and their donkeys and whatever was in the city and whatever was in the field;

29 And they took captive and plundered all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives, and even all that was in the houses.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, You have brought trouble upon me by making me odious among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and I am few in number, and they will gather themselves together against me and strike me; and I will be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he treat our sister like a harlot?

CHAPTER 35

3. Being Transformed 35:1-29

a. Being Reminded by God at Bethel vv. 1-15

1 And God said to Jacob, Rise up, go up to Bethel, and dwell there; and make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau.

2 Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, Put away the foreign gods that are among you, and purify yourselves, and change your garments.

3 And let us rise up and go up to Bethel, that I may make an altar there to the God who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.

4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hand and the rings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak that was near Shechem.

5 And as they journeyed, the terror of God was upon the cities that were around them, so they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

6 And Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.

7 And he built an altar there and called the place El-bethel, because there God had revealed Himself to him when he fled from his brother.

8 And Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; so its name was called Allon-bacuth.

9 And God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram and blessed him.

10 And God said to him,
Your name is Jacob;
Your name shall no longer be called Jacob,
But Israel shall be your name.

Thus He called his name Israel.

11 And God said to him,
I am the ¹All-sufficient God:
Be fruitful and multiply;
A nation and a company of nations shall come from you,
And kings shall come forth from your loins.

25¹ Lit., secure. 11¹ Heb. El Shaddai.

12 And the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, I will give to you; And I will give the land to your seed after you.

13 Then God went up from him in the place where He had spoken with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured out a drink offering on it and poured oil on it.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

b. Deeper and More Personal Dealings
vv. 16-26

(1) The Death of Rachel
vv. 16-20

16 And they journeyed from Bethel. And while there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth; and she had hard labor.

17 And while she was in hardest labor, the midwife said to her, Do not be afraid, for now you have another son.

18 And as her soul was departing (for she died), she called his name Ben-oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 And Jacob set up a pillar on her grave; that is the pillar of Rachel's grave, which is there to this day.

(2) The Birthright Being Changed through the Defilement of Jacob's Concubine
vv. 21-26

21 And Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 And while Israel dwelt in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

23 The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's female servant: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's female servant: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

c. Entering into Full Fellowship
v. 27

27 And Jacob came to Isaac his father at Mamre, at Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

d. Released from the Tie with His Father
vv. 28-29

28 And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years.

29 And Isaac expired and died and was gathered to his people, an old man and full of days; and Esau and Jacob his sons buried him.

CHAPTER 36

(The Descendants of Esau
36:1-43)

1 Now these are the generations of Esau (that is, Edom).

2 Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And Basemath Ishmael's daughter, the sister of Nebaioth.

4 And Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel,

5 And Oholibamah bore Jeush and Jalam and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 And Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all ¹his household and his livestock and all his cattle and all his possessions which he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and he went into a land away from his brother Jacob.

7 For their property was too great for them to dwell together, and the land where they sojourned could not sustain them because of their livestock.

8 And Esau dwelt in Mount Seir; Esau is Edom.

9 And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in Mount Seir:

10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Esau's wife Adah, Reuel the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was a concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These are the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

13 And these are the sons of Reuel: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

14 And these were the sons of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: And she bore to Esau Jeush and Jalam and Korah.

15 These are the ¹clans of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Clan Teman, Clan Omar, Clan Zepho, Clan Kenaz, 16 Clan Korah, Clan Gatam, Clan Amalek; these are the clans of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Adah.

17 And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son: Clan Nahath, Clan Zerah, Clan Shammah, Clan Mizzah; these are the clans of Reuel in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

18 And these are the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Clan Jeush, Clan Jalam, Clan Korah. These are the clans of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their clans.

20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan and Shobal and Zibeon and Anah 21 And Dishon and Ezer and Dishan; these are the clans of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And these are the sons of Shobal: Alvan and Manahath and Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

24 And these are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness as he fed the donkeys of Zibeon his father.

25 And these are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan and Eshban and Ithran and Cheran.

27 These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan and Zaavan and Akan.

28 These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

29 These are the clans of the Horites: Clan Lotan, Clan Shobal, Clan Zibeon, Clan Anah, 30 Clan Dishon, Clan Ezer, Clan Dishan. These are the clans of the Horites, according to their clans in the land of Seir.

31 And these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king of the children of Israel reigned:

32 Now Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

6¹ Lit., the souls of his house. 15¹ Or, chiefs. So throughout this chapter.

33 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.

34 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

35 And Husham died; and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Avith.

36 And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

37 And Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the River reigned in his place.

38 And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.

39 And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

40 And these are the names of the clans of Esau, according to their families, according to their places, by their names: Clan Timna, Clan Alvah, Clan Jetheth,

41 Clan Oholibamah, Clan Elah, Clan Pinon,

42 Clan Kenaz, Clan Teman, Clan Mibzar,

43 Clan Magdiel, Clan Iram. These are the clans of Edom according to their habitations in the land of their possession. This is Esau the father of the Edomites.

CHAPTER 37

4. Being Matured 37:1—50:26

a. The Process of Maturity—
Dealings in the Last Stage
37:1-2a, 32-36; 42:1-5; 42:29—43:14

(1) Being Robbed of the Treasure of His Heart (Joseph) under God's Sovereign Hand
37:1-2a, 32-36

1 And Jacob dwelt in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob.

c. The Reigning Aspect of the Matured Israel as Seen in Joseph
37:2b-31; 38:1—41:57; 42:6-28; 43:15—
45:24; 47:11-27; 50:14-26

(1) Being a Shepherd and the Father's Beloved
37:2b-4

Joseph, when he was seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers while he was still a youth, with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a coat of many colors.

4 And when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

(2) Viewing His People as Sheaves of Life and as the Sun, the Moon, and the Stars of Light
37:5-11

5 Then Joseph had a dream; and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

6 And he said to them, Listen to this dream which I have had:

7 There we were, binding sheaves in the field, when suddenly my sheaf rose up and remained standing; and then your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf.

8 And his brothers said to him, Will you indeed reign over us and actually be a ruler among us? So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

9 And he had still another dream and told it to his brothers and said, Now I have had another dream: There were the sun and the moon and eleven stars, bowing down to me.

10 And he told it to his father and to his brothers; and his father rebuked him and said to him, What is this dream that you have had? Shall I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow down to the ground to you?

11 And his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the saying in his heart.

(3) Ministering to His Brothers according to the Father's Will 37:12-17

12 Then his brothers went to shepherd their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said to Joseph, Your brothers are now shepherding the flock in Shechem. Come, and I will send you to them. And he said to him, Here I am.

14 And he said to him, Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flock, and bring word back to me. So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 And a man found him; and there he was, wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What are you seeking?

16 And he said, I am seeking my brothers. Please tell me where they are shepherding the flock.

17 And the man said, They have moved on from here; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him from a distance and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to put him to death.

19 And they said one to another, Here comes this master of dreams.

20 Now then, come and let us slay him and throw him into one of the pits; and we will say, A ¹wild beast has devoured him; then we will see what will become of his dreams.

21 But when Reuben heard it, he tried to deliver him out of their hand and said, Let us not take his life.

22 And Reuben said to them, Shed no blood; throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him—that he might deliver him out of their hand to restore him to his father.

23 And when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his coat, the coat of many colors that was on him;

24 And they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 Then they sat down to eat food; and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and there was a caravan of Ishmaelites, coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing aromatic gum and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 Then Judah said to his brothers, What gain is there if we slay our brother and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let our hand not be on him; for he is our brother, our flesh. And his brothers listened to him.

28 So when some Midianite traders passed by, they pulled Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and they sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And these brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 And when Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes.

30 And he returned to his brothers and said, The boy is not there; so as for me, ¹what shall I do?

20¹ Lit., evil beast. So also in v. 33. 30¹ Lit., where shall I go?

31 Then they took Joseph's coat and slaughtered a male goat and dipped the coat in the blood.

32 And they sent the coat of many colors and had it brought to their father and said, We found this; please examine it, and see if it is your son's coat or not.

33 And he recognized it and said, It is my son's coat. A wild beast has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces.

34 And Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth upon his loins and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted and said, Surely I will go down to Sheol to my son, mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 Meanwhile the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

(The Reigning Aspect as Seen in Joseph—cont'd)

(5) Living as a Star of Light
38:1—39:12

(a) His Brother Judah Indulging in Lust
38:1-30

1 Now at that time Judah went down from his brothers and pitched his tent near a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there the daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua. And he took her and went in to her.

3 And she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 And yet again she bore a son and called his name Shelah, and ¹she was in Chezib when she bore him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Jehovah. And Jehovah put him to death.

8 And Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up seed to your brother.

9 But since Onan knew that the seed would not be his, whenever he went in to his brother's wife, he spilled it on the ground, so that he would not give seed to his brother.

10 But what he did was evil in the sight of Jehovah, so He put him to death also.

11 Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow in your father's house until Shelah my son grows up. For he ¹thought, He also may die, like his brothers. So Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 And in process of time Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died; and Judah was comforted and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told to Tamar, saying, Your father-in-law is now going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.

14 And she removed from herself her widow's garments and covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself and sat in the gate of Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah had grown up, and she had not been given to him as his wife.

15 And when Judah saw her, he thought

5¹ Others read, he. 11¹ Lit., said.

she was a harlot, for she had covered her face.

16 And he turned aside to her by the way and said, Come now, let me come in to you; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me, that you may come in to me?

17 And he said, I will send you a kid from the flock. And she said, Only if you give me a pledge until you send it.

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your seal and your cord and your staff that is in your hand. And he gave them to her and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away, and removed her veil from herself and put on her widow's garments.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand; but he did not find her.

21 Then he asked the men of her place, saying, Where is the prostitute who was by the road at Enaim? And they said, There has been no prostitute here.

22 And he returned to Judah and said, I did not find her; and also the men of the place said, There has been no prostitute here.

23 And Judah said, Let her ¹keep the things for herself, lest we ²become a laughing stock; you see, I sent her this kid, but you did not find her.

24 And about three months later it was told Judah, saying, Tamar your daughter-in-law has played the harlot; moreover, now she is pregnant by harlotry. And Judah said, Bring her out, and let her be burned.

25 As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, saying, I am pregnant by the man to whom these belong. And she said, Please note whose these are, the seal and the cords and the staff.

26 And Judah took note of them and said, She is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to my son Shelah. And he did not know her again anymore.

27 And at the time of her delivery, there were twins in her womb.

28 And while she was giving birth, one put out a hand; and the midwife took and tied on his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This one came out first.

29 But when he drew back his hand, his brother suddenly came out; and she said, What a breach you have made for yourself! Therefore his name was called Perez.

30 And afterward his brother came out, who had the scarlet thread on his hand; and his name was called Zerah.

CHAPTER 39

(b) Overcoming Lust and Shining in Darkness
39:1-12

1 Now Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him ¹from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there.

2 And Jehovah was with Joseph, and he became a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his Egyptian master.

3 And his master saw that Jehovah was with him and that Jehovah caused all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph found favor in his sight, and he ministered to him; and he made him overseer of his house and put all that he had in his ¹charge.

5 And from the time he made him overseer in his house and put him over all that he had, Jehovah blessed the Egyptian's house on account of Joseph; and the blessing of Jehovah was upon all that he had, in the house and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's charge; and with him there, ¹he was not concerned about anything except the food that he ate. And Joseph was handsome in form and handsome in appearance.

7 Now after these things his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph and said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, Behold, with me here, my master ¹is not concerned about anything in the house, and he has put everything he has in my charge.

9 There is no one greater in this house than I, and he has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great evil, and sin against God?

10 And although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not listen to her to lie beside her or be with her.

11 And one such day he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house were there in the house.

12 And she grabbed him by his garment, saying, Lie with me! But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and went outside.

(6) Being Delivered into the Prison of Death
39:13—41:13

13 And when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside,

14 She called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in a Hebrew man to us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I called out with a loud voice;

15 And when he heard that I lifted up my voice and called out, he left his garment beside me, and fled and went outside.

16 And she placed his garment beside her until his master came home.

17 And she spoke to him with these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me.

18 And when I lifted up my voice and called out, he left his garment beside me and fled outside.

19 And when his master heard the words of his wife that she had spoken to him, saying, This is the way your servant treated me; his anger burned.

20 And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined. But while he was there in the prison, 21 Jehovah was with Joseph; and He extended kindness to him and gave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer.

22 And the chief jailer put in Joseph's charge all the prisoners who were in the prison; and whatever was done there, he was the one to do it.

23 The chief jailer did not supervise anything that was in his charge, because Jehovah was with him; and whatever he did, Jehovah caused it to prosper.

CHAPTER 40

1 And after these things, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief of the cupbearers and the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in custody at the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined.

4 And the captain of the guard put 6¹ Lit., he did not know. 8¹ Lit., does not know.

Joseph in charge of them, and he ministered to them; and they were in custody for some time.

5 And the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, both of them had a dream, each man with his own dream in one night, and each dream with its own interpretation.

6 And Joseph came to them in the morning and looked at them, and they were troubled.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officials, who were with him in custody in his master's house, saying, Why are your faces so sad today?

8 And they said to him, We have had a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. And Joseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me.

9 And the chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph and said to him, In my dream there was a vine before me,

10 And on the vine were three branches. And as soon as it budded, its blossoms came out, and its clusters ripened into grapes.

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup in Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said to him, This is its interpretation: The three branches are three days.

13 Within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office, and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand according to your former custom when you were his cupbearer.

14 But remember my being with you when it is well with you, and please do me a kindness and make mention of me to Pharaoh and so have me brought out of this house.

15 For I was actually kidnapped out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also I have not done anything that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 Now when the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also saw this in my dream: There were three baskets of white bread on my head.

17 And in the uppermost basket there were all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days.

19 Within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from you.

20 And on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief of the cupbearers to his cupbearing, and he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand;

22 But the chief of the bakers he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet the chief of the cupbearers did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

CHAPTER 41

1 And at the end of two full years Pharaoh had a dream, and there he was, standing by the River.

2 And there came up out of the River seven cows, fine looking and fat fleshed; and they grazed in the reed grass.

3 Then there came up after them seven other cows out of the River, ugly looking and thin fleshed; and they stood beside the other cows on the bank of the River.

4 And the ugly looking and thin fleshed cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed a second time. And there were seven ears of grain, coming up on one stalk, fat and good.

6 Then there were seven ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, that sprouted after them.

7 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven fat and full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream.

8 And in the morning his spirit was troubled, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all her wise men; and Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my sins today.

10 Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and he put me in custody at the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker.

11 And we both had a dream in one night, I and he; each of us had a dream with its own interpretation.

12 And a young Hebrew man was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us; to each one he interpreted according to his dream.

13 And as he interpreted to us, so it happened; ¹Pharaoh restored me to my office, and he hanged the ²baker.

(7) Being Resurrected from the Prison of Death
41:14-39

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon; and he had shaved himself and changed his garments, and he came to Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have had a dream, but there is no one who can interpret it; and I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not of me; God ¹will give Pharaoh a favorable answer.

17 And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, In my dream, there I was, standing on the bank of the River.

18 And there came up out of the River seven cows, fat fleshed and fine looking; and they grazed in the reed grass.

19 Then there came up after them seven other cows, poor and very ugly looking and thin fleshed; I had never seen such in all the land of Egypt for ugliness.

20 And the thin and ugly looking cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

21 And when they had swallowed them, no one would have known that they had swallowed them, for they were still as ugly looking as at the beginning. Then I awoke.

22 And I saw this in my next dream: There were seven ears of grain, coming up on one stalk, full and good.

23 Then there were seven ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, that sprouted after them.

24 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. And I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.

25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, Pharaoh's dream is one dream; what God is about to do He has told Pharaoh.

26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ugly looking cows that came up after them are seven years, and so are the seven empty ears scorched by the east wind; they will be seven years of famine.

28 This matter is just as I have spoken to Pharaoh; what God is about to do He has shown to Pharaoh.

13¹ Lit., he. 13² Lit., him. 16¹ Lit., will answer Pharaoh with peace.

29 Seven years of great abundance are now about to come throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 Then seven years of famine will arise after them, and all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will consume the land.

31 And the abundance will be unknown in the land because of that famine which follows, for it will be very severe.

32 And as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, it means that the matter is determined by God, and God will quickly bring it about.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out for a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh take action to appoint overseers over the land and take a fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven years of abundance.

35 And let them gather all the food of these coming good years and lay up grain under Pharaoh's ¹authority for food in the cities, and let them keep it.

36 And let the food become a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine that will be in the land of Egypt, so that the land does not perish in the famine.

37 And the word seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, Can we find such a man like this, in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God let you know all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you.

(8) Being Enthroned with Authority and Receiving Glory and Gifts
41:40-44

40 You shall be over my household, and according to your word all my people shall be ruled; only in the throne will I be greater than you.

41 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph's hand, and clothed him in garments of fine linen, and put a gold chain around his neck.

43 And he made him ride in the chariot of his second-in-command, and they cried out before him, Bow the knee! And he set him over all the land of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh, yet ¹without your consent no man will lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.

(9) Becoming the Savior of the World,

41:45-46

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-paneah, and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, as his wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

46 Now Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and passed through all the land of Egypt.

(10) Supplying People with Food
41:47-57

47 And in the seven years of abundance the earth produced ¹copiously.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years which came upon the land of Egypt and put the food in the cities; he placed the food from the surrounding fields within each city.

49 And Joseph stored grain in great abundance like the sand of the sea until 35¹ Lit., hand. 44¹ Lit., apart from you. 47¹ Lit., handfuls.

he stopped measuring it; for it was beyond measure.

50 And before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, for, he said, God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's house.

52 And he called the name of the second Ephraim, for, he said, God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 And the seven years of plenty that came upon the land of Egypt came to an end.

54 And the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said. And there was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 So when all the land of Egypt became hungry, the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, you shall do.

56 And when the famine was over all the face of the earth, Joseph opened ¹all the storehouses of grain and sold grain to the Egyptians; and the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.

57 And all the earth came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

(2) Being Stricken with Famine and Forced to Send His Sons to Egypt to Buy Grain 42:1-5

1 Now when Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, Why do you keep looking at one another?

2 And he said, I have now heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there, and buy grain for us from there, that we may live and not die.

3 So Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he said, Perhaps harm may befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who also came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

(a) Being Wise in Dealing with His Brothers and Showing Them Love
42:6-28

6 Now Joseph was the governor over the land; it was he who sold grain to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

7 And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke harshly with them. And he said to them, Where have you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to buy grain for food.

8 And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them, and he said to them, You are spies; you have come to see the nakedness of the land.

10 And they said to him, No, my lord; rather your servants have come to buy grain for food.

11 We are all sons of one man. We are honest men; your servants have never been spies.

12 And he said to them, No; but you have come to see the nakedness of the land.

13 And they said, We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and at this moment the youngest is with our father today, and one is no more.

14 But Joseph said to them, It is just as I spoke to you, saying, You are spies.

15 By this you shall be tested: As Pharaoh lives, you shall not go away from this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

16 Send one of you to get your brother, while you remain bound, that your words may be tested whether there is truth in you. And if not, as Pharaoh lives, surely you are spies.

17 And he put them all together in custody three days.

18 And Joseph said to them on the third day, Do this and live, for I fear God.

19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers remain bound in your place of custody; and the rest of you go, carry grain for the famine of your households.

20 And bring your youngest brother to me, that your words may be verified; and you will not die. And they did so.

21 And they said one to another, We are indeed guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen; therefore this distress has come to us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not sin against the child? But you would not listen. So now also his blood is required.

23 And they did not know that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them.

24 And he turned away from them and wept. Then he returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from among them and bound him before their eyes.

25 Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain and to restore every man's silver pieces into his sack and to give them provisions for the way. And thus was it done for them.

26 And they loaded their grain upon their donkeys and departed from there.

27 And one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, and he saw his silver; there it was in the mouth of his sack.

28 And he said to his brothers, My silver has been returned; and here it is in my sack! And their heart ¹stopped, and they turned trembling to one another, saying, What is this that God has done to us?

29 And they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying, 30 The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us and ¹took us for spies on the land.

31 But we said to him, We are honest men; we have never been spies.

32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; the one is no more, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, By this will I know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for the famine of your households, and go.

34 And bring your youngest brother to me that I may know that you are not spies but are honest men. I will give you your brother, and you may trade in the land.

35 And when they emptied their sacks, there was each man's bundle of silver pieces, in his sack. And when they and their father saw their bundles of silver, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said to them, You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and you would take Benjamin; all these things are against me.

37 And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, You may put to death my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Put him in my hand, and I will return him to you.

38 But he said, My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. And if harm should befall him on the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to Sheol.

CHAPTER 43

(The Process of Maturity—cont'd)

(4) Being Stricken with Severe Famine and Sending His Youngest Son, Benjamin 43:1-14

1 Now the famine was severe in the land.

2 And when they had completely consumed the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, Go back; buy us a little food.

3 But Judah spoke to him, saying, The man solemnly warned us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

4 If you are willing to send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you grain for food;

5 But if you are not willing to send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

6 And Israel said, Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?

7 And they said, The man asked very carefully about us and about our relatives, saying, Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother? So we told him about these things. Could we possibly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said to Israel his father, Send the boy with me, and we will rise up and go, that we may live and not die, we and you and our little ones.

9 I myself will be surety for him; of my hand you may require him. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, then I shall bear the blame of sinning before you forever.

10 For if we had not delayed, by now we could have returned twice.

11 And their father Israel said to them, If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry a present down to the man—a little balm and a little honey, aromatic gum and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

12 And take double the silver in your hand, and carry back in your hand the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was a mistake.

13 Take your brother also, and rise up. Return to the man, 14 And may the ¹All-sufficient God grant you ²mercy before the man, that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am to be bereaved of my children, I shall be bereaved.

43:15—44:34

15 So the men took this present, and 14¹ Heb. El Shaddai. 14² Or, compassion.

they took double the silver in their hand and Benjamin; and they rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to him who was over his house, Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an ¹animal, and prepare it; for the men will eat with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph said, and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, It is because of the silver that was returned in our sacks the first time, that we are being brought in, that he may come out against us and fall upon us and take us as slaves with our donkeys.

19 And they came near to the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the door of the house,

20 And said, Please, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy grain for food;

21 And when we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and there was each man's silver, in the mouth of his sack, our silver in full weight. So we have brought it back in our hand.

22 And we have also brought down extra silver in our hand to buy grain for food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks.

23 And he said, Be at peace; do not fear. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; your silver came to me. Then he brought Simeon out to them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys fodder.

25 And they prepared the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they would eat a meal there.

26 And when Joseph came into the house, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house and bowed down to the ground to him.

27 And he asked them about their welfare and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?

28 And they said, Your servant our father is well; he is still alive. And they bowed and paid him homage.

29 And he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? And he said, God be gracious to you, my son.

30 And Joseph hurried—for his inward parts burned for his brother—and sought a place to weep. So he entered into his chamber and wept there.

31 Then he washed his face and came out, and he controlled himself and said, Serve the meal.

32 And they served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat a meal with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment.

34 And he had portions brought to them from before him; however Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank and were merry with him.

CHAPTER 44

1 And he commanded him who was over his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest with his silver for the grain. And he did so, according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 When they had just gone out of the city and were not yet far off, Joseph said to him who was over his house, Rise up, follow after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, Why have you repaid evil for good?

5 Is not this that from which my lord drinks, and which he indeed uses for divining? You have done wrong in so doing.

6 And he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

7 And they said to him, Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing.

8 See how we brought back to you the silver which we found in the mouth of our sacks from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house?

9 With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die; and we ourselves will become my lord's slaves.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according to your words: He with whom it is found will be my slave; and the rest of you will be blameless.

11 Then each man hurried and lowered his sack to the ground, and each man opened his sack.

12 And he searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they tore their garments, and each man loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there; and they fell to the ground before him.

15 And Joseph said to them, What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed divine?

16 And Judah said, What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Here we are, my lord's slaves, both we and the one in whose hand the cup has been found.

17 But he said, Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose hand the cup has been found, he will be my slave; but as for the rest of you, go up in peace to your father.

18 Then Judah came near to him and said, Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Do you have a father or a brother?

20 And we said to my lord, We have an old father and a young child of his old age; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.

21 And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.

22 And we said to my lord, The boy cannot leave his father; for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And you said to your servants, Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 And when we went up to your servant my father, we told him my lord's words.

25 And our father said, Return, buy us a little food.

26 But we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, we will go down; for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.

27 And your servant my father said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons;

28 And the one went away from me, and I said, Surely he has been torn to pieces; and I have not seen him to this day.

29 And if you take this one also from me and harm befalls him, you will bring down my gray hairs in misery to Sheol.

30 Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us, and his life being bound up in the boy's life, 31 When he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die; and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father in sorrow to Sheol.

32 For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you, then I shall bear the blame of sinning before my father forever.

33 Now therefore, please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers.

34 For how shall I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear to see the evil that would come on my father.

CHAPTER 45

(c) Revealing His Exaltation and Glory to His Repentant Brothers
45:1-15

1 Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who attended him; and he cried out, Have everyone go out from me. So there was no one standing with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it.

3 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph! Is my father still alive? But his brothers could not answer him, so troubled were they at his presence.

4 And Joseph said to his brothers, Please come closer to me. And they came closer. And he said, I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

5 And now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.

6 For the famine has been in the midst of the land these two years, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth and to keep you alive by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you who sent me here; but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

9 Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me; do not delay.

10 And you shall dwell in the land of Goshen and be near to me, you and your children and your children's children and your flocks and your herds and all that you have.

11 And there I will sustain you—for there are still five years of famine to come—so that you and your household and all that you have do not become impoverished.

12 And now your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that it is my own mouth that speaks to you.

13 And you must tell my father of all my glory in Egypt and of all that you have seen, and you must hurry and bring my father down here.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them, and after that his brothers talked with him.

(d) His Brothers Participating in the Enjoyment of His Reign
45:16-24

16 And when the ¹report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brothers have come, it was pleasing to Pharaoh and to his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to your brothers, Do this: Load your beasts, and depart; go to the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father and your households, and come to me; and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.

19 And you are commanded, Do this: Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives; and bring your father, and come.

20 And ¹do not be concerned for your possessions, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the sons of Israel did so, and Joseph gave them wagons according to the command of Pharaoh and gave them provisions for the way.

22 To each of them he gave changes of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.

23 And he sent to his father the following: ten donkeys loaded with the best of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provision for his father on the way.

24 So he sent his brothers away; and as they departed, he said to them, Do not quarrel on the way.

b. The Manifestation of Maturity
45:25 — 47:10; 47:28 — 50:13

(1) Assigning No Blame at Hearing That Joseph Was Still Alive
45:25-28

25 So they went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father.

26 And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt. And his heart became numb, for he did not believe them.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them; and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.

28 And Israel said, It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER 46

(2) Offering Sacrifices to God
at Beer-sheba
46:1-4

1 So Israel set out with all that he had and came to Beer-sheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

2 And God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night and said, Jacob, Jacob. And he said, Here I am.

3 And He said, I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.

4 I Myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I Myself will also surely bring you up again; and ¹Joseph's hand will close your eyes.

(3) Meeting Joseph Again
46:5-34

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their livestock and their possessions, which they had acquired 16¹ Lit., sound, voice. 20¹ Lit., let not your eye look with regret on your vessels. 4¹ Lit., Joseph will put his hand upon your eyes.

in the land of Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring with him came to Egypt.

7 His sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his offspring he brought with him to Egypt.

8 And these are the names of the children of Israel, who came to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Jacob's firstborn, Reuben.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch and Pallu and Hezron and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

11 And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah: Er and Onan and Shelah and Perez and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola and Puvah and Job and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered and Elon and Jahleel.

15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, along with his daughter Dinah. His sons and his daughters were thirty-three persons in all.

16 And the sons of Gad: Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Arodi and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher: Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriah, and Serah their sister; and the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and she bore these to Jacob, sixteen persons.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

20 And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath the daughter of Potiphera priest of On bore to him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin: Bela and Becher and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob, fourteen persons in all.

23 And the sons of Dan: Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel and Guni and Jezer and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob, seven persons in all.

26 All the persons who came with Jacob into Egypt, who came out of his loins, besides the wives of Jacob's sons, were sixty-six persons in all.

27 And the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two persons. All the persons of the house of Jacob, who came to Egypt, were seventy.

28 And he sent Judah before him to Joseph to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came to the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph made his chariot ready and went up to Goshen to meet Israel his father. And when he appeared before him, he fell on his neck and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said to Joseph, Let me die now since I have seen your face and know that you are still alive.

31 And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

32 And the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.

15' Lit., souls. So throughout this chapter.

33 And when Pharaoh calls you and says, What is your occupation?

34 You shall say, Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers; that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 47

(4) Blessing People All the Time
47:1-10; 47:28—49:28

(a) Blessing Pharaoh
47:1-10

1 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh and said, My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan; and now they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said to his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers.

4 And they said to Pharaoh, We have come to sojourn in the land because there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father and your brothers have come to you.

6 The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best of the land; let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know any capable men among them, make them overseers over my livestock.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the ¹years of your life?

9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The years of my sojourning are one hundred thirty years; few and evil have been the years of my life, and they have not attained to the years of the lives of my fathers during the days of their sojourning.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went forth from Pharaoh's presence.

(The Reigning Aspect as Seen
in Joseph—cont'd)
(12) Reigning
47:11-27; 50:14-26

11 And Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph sustained his father and his brothers and all his father's household with food according to the number of their little ones.

13 And there was no food in all the land, for the famine was so very severe that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

14 And Joseph ¹collected all the money that was to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when the money from the land of Egypt and from the land of Canaan had been spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph saying, Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money is gone.

16 And Joseph said, Bring your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, if your money is gone.

17 And they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses and for the flocks of sheep and for the herds of cattle and for the donkeys; and he ¹fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

8¹ Lit., the days of the years. So also in v. 9. 14¹ Lit., gleaned.

18 And when that year had ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, We cannot hide from my lord that our money has been spent, and the herds of cattle are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord except our bodies and our lands.

19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will become servants to Pharaoh. And give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate.

20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them; and the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to the cities from one end of the border of Egypt even to the other end.

22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had an assigned portion from Pharaoh, and they ¹lived off their portion which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.

23 Then Joseph said to the people, Now that I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh, here is seed for you that you may sow the land.

24 And when harvest comes, you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own as seed of the field and as food for you and for those of your households and as food for your little ones.

25 And they said, You have saved our lives. May we find favor in the sight of my lord and be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt that stands to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth; only the land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh's.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they acquired possessions in it and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.

(The Manifestation of Maturity—Blessing People All the Time—cont'd)
(b) Blessing Joseph's Sons
47:28—48:22

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. Thus the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years.

29 And the ¹time for Israel to die drew near. And he called his son Joseph and said to him, If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh and deal with me in kindness and truth; please do not bury me in Egypt.

30 But when I lie down with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial place. And he said, I will do as you have said.

31 And he said, Swear to me; and he swore to him. Then Israel bowed himself at the head of his bed.

CHAPTER 48

1 Now after these things Joseph was told, Your father is now sick. So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 And someone told Jacob and said, Your son Joseph is now coming to you. So Israel strengthened himself and sat up on his bed.

3 And Jacob said to Joseph, The ¹All-sufficient God appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me.

4 And He said to me, Behold, I am going to make you fruitful and multiply 17¹ Lit., guided (as a shepherd). 22¹ Lit., ate. 29¹ Lit., days. 3¹ Heb. El Shaddai.

you, and I will make of you a company of peoples and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession.

5 And now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, as Reuben and Simeon are.

6 And your offspring whom you beget after them will be yours; they will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died ¹to my sorrow in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

8 And when Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given to me here. And he said, Bring them to me, that I may bless them.

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, and he could not see. So ¹Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Israel said to Joseph, I never expected to see your face, and now God has let me see your seed also.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees and bowed himself with his face to the ground.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them near to him.

14 But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim's head—although he was the younger—and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, ¹guiding his hands with insight, even though Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 And he blessed Joseph and said,
The God before whom my fathers
Abraham and Isaac walked,
The God who has shepherded me
¹all my life to this day,

16 The Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys;
And may my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac;
And may they be a teeming multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head onto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head.

19 But his father refused and said, I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. However, his younger brother will become greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying,

By you Israel will bless, saying,
God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.

Thus he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said to Joseph, Now I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you again to the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover I have given to you one ¹portion more than your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

7¹ Or, by me. 10¹ Lit., he. 14¹ Or, crossing his hands. 15¹ Lit., since I was. 22¹ Or, mountain slope.

CHAPTER 49

(c) Blessing His Own Sons
49:1-28

1 And Jacob called to his sons and said, Gather yourselves together that I may tell you what will happen to you in the last days.

- 2 Assemble yourselves, and listen,
O sons of Jacob;
Yes, listen to Israel your father.
- 3 Reuben, you are my firstborn,
My might and the beginning of my strength,
Preeminent in dignity and preeminent in power.
- 4 ¹Boiling over like water, you will not have the preeminence,
Because you went up to your father's bed;
Then you defiled it—he went up to my couch.
- 5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; Weapons of violence are their swords.
- 6 Come not into their council, O my soul;
Be not united with their assembly,
O my glory;
For in their anger they slew men,
And in their self-will they hamstrung oxen.
- 7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
And their wrath, for it is cruel:
I will divide them in Jacob,
And scatter them in Israel.
- 8 Judah, your brothers will praise you;
Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies;
Your father's sons will bow down before you.
- 9 Judah is a young lion;
From the prey, my son, you have gone up.

He couches, he stretches out like a lion,
And like a lioness; who will rouse
him up?

- 10 The scepter will not depart from Judah,
Nor the ruler's staff from between his feet,
Until Shiloh comes,
And to Him shall be the obedience of the peoples.
- 11 Binding his foal to the vine,
And his donkey's colt to the choice vine,
He washes his garment in wine,
And his robe in the blood of grapes.
- 12 ¹Dark are his eyes with wine,
And white are his teeth with milk.
- 13 Zebulun will dwell at the shore of the sea,
And he will be a shore for ships,
And his flank will be toward Sidon.
- 14 Issachar is a strong donkey,
Couching between the sheepfolds.
- 15 And he saw a resting place that was good
And the land that was pleasant,
And he bowed his shoulder to bear,
And became a task worker to bring tribute.
- 16 Dan will judge his people,
As one of the tribes of Israel.
- 17 Dan will be a serpent in the way,
A viper on the path,
That bites the horse's heels,
So that his rider falls backward.
- 18 I have waited for Your salvation,
O Jehovah.
- 19 Gad, raiders will raid him,
But he will raid at ¹their heel.

4¹ Or, Ebullient; lit., Reckless. 12¹ Or, Red. 19¹ Following many ancient versions. The Hebrew text reads, the heel. From Asher...

- 20 Asher's food will be ¹rich,
And he will yield royal dainties.
- 21 Naphtali is a hind let loose;
He gives beautiful words.
- 22 Joseph is a fruitful bough,
A fruitful bough by a fountain;
His branches run over the wall.
- 23 The archers bitterly attacked him,
And shot at him and harassed him;
- 24 But his bow remained firm,
And the arms of his hands were ¹agile,
By the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob—
From there is the Shepherd, the stone of Israel—
- 25 From the God of your father, who will help you,
And from the ¹All-sufficient One,
who will bless you
With blessings of heaven above,
Blessings of the deep that lies beneath,
Blessings of the breasts and of the womb.
- 26 The blessings of your father surpass
The blessings of my ancestors
To the utmost bound of the 49:29—50:13

- 29 And he charged them and said to them, I am being gathered to my people.

Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought along with the field from Ephron the Hittite for the possession of a burial place—

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried
Leah—

32 The field and the cave that is in it, purchased from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had finished charging his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed and expired, and he was gathered to his people.

CHAPTER 50

1 Then Joseph fell upon his father's face and wept over him and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were spent for this, for this is the time to be spent for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

4 And when the days of weeping for him had passed, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying,
Now I am about to die; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there shall you bury me. Now therefore please let me go up and bury my father;
then I will return.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury your father, as he made you swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father; and all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him, the elders of his house and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 And all the house of Joseph and his brothers and his father's household; they left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen.

9 And chariots also went up with him, as well as horsemen; and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, and they lamented there with a very great and grievous lamentation; and he observed seven days of mourning for his father.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians. Therefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

12 And thus his sons did to him as he commanded them;

13 And his sons carried him into the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which Abraham had bought with the field for a possession of a burial place from Ephron the Hittite.

14 And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

15 And when Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, What if Joseph bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the evil which we did to him?

16 And they sent a message to Joseph, saying, Your father charged before he died, saying, 17 Thus shall you say to Joseph, Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong. So now please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

18 And his brothers also went and fell down before him and said, We are here as your servants.

19 And Joseph said to them, Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God?

20 Even though you intended evil against me, God intended it for good, to do as it is this day, to preserve alive a numerous people.

21 Now therefore do not be afraid; I will sustain you and your little ones. And he comforted them and spoke ¹kindly to them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's household; and Joseph lived one hundred ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation; the children of Machir the son of Manasseh were also born on Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am about to die, but God will surely visit you and bring you up out of this land to the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph made the children of Israel swear, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall bring my bones up from here.

26 And Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

Subject:

Christ Is the Redemption, Salvation, and Supply of God's People and the Means for Them to Worship and Serve God
So That in Him They May Be Built Up with God Together for Them and God to Meet, Communicate, and Dwell Mutually

CHAPTER 1

I. Enslaved 1:1-22

1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; each man came with his household:

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

5 And all the ¹persons who came forth from the loins of Jacob were seventy persons, but Joseph was already in Egypt.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation.

7 But the children of Israel were fruitful and increased abundantly and multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, and the land was filled with them.

8 And a new king rose up over Egypt, who did not know of Joseph.

9 And he said to his people, The people of the children of Israel are now more numerous and stronger than we.

10 Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply and, when some war occurs, they also join themselves to those who hate us and fight against us and go up from the land.

11 So they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built storage cities for Pharaoh, Pithom and Raamses.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread out so that they came to dread the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel serve with harshness, 14 And they made their lives bitter with hard labor in mortar and in brick and in all kinds of labor in the field; all their labor with which they made them serve was with harshness.

15 And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one whose name was Shiphrah and the other whose name was Puah;

16 And he said, When you act as midwives for the Hebrew women and see them on the birthstool, if it is a son, then you shall put him to death; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt had commanded them but let the male children live.

18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, Why have you done this thing and let the male children live?

19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like 5¹ Lit., souls. So throughout the book.

the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous: before the midwife comes to them, they give birth.

20 And God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very strong.

21 And because the midwives feared God, He established households for them.

22 And Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, Every son who is born¹ you shall cast into the River, but every daughter you shall let live.

CHAPTER 2

II. Redeemed and Saved 2:1 — 15:21

A. Preparation of the Savior 2:1-25

1 And a man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as wife.

2 And the woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him a papyrus basket and plastered it with tar and pitch; and she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the River.

4 And his sister stood at a distance to find out what would happen to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the River while her maidens walked alongside the River. And she saw the basket in the midst of the reeds and sent her female servant, and she brought it to her.

6 And she opened it and saw the child, and there was the boy, weeping. And she had compassion on him and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call a nurse from the Hebrew women for you that she may nurse the child for you?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the girl went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages. So the woman took the child and nursed him.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses and said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 And in those days, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his brothers and looked on their burdens; and he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brothers.

12 And he looked this way and that, and when he saw that there was no one there, he struck the Egyptian down and hid him in the sand.

13 And he went out the next day, and there were two Hebrew men struggling together; and he said to the one who was in the wrong, Why are you beating your companion?

14 And he said, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? Are you thinking to kill me as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses became frightened and said, Surely the matter is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard of this matter, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh to dwell in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses rose up and helped them and watered their flock.

22¹ A few ancient versions add, to the Hebrews.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, Why have you come back so quickly today?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and he even drew water for us as well and watered the flock.

20 And he said to his daughters, And where is he? Why did you leave the man? Invite him to eat a meal.

21 And Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.

23 And in the course of those many days the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel groaned because of the bondage. And they cried out, and their cry went up to God because of their bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God took notice of them.

CHAPTER 3

B. God's Calling of the Prepared One 3:1-22

1 Now Moses was shepherding the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the back of the wilderness and came to the mountain of God, to Horeb.

2 And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a thornbush. And when he looked, there was the thornbush, burning with fire; but the thornbush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I must turn aside now and see this great sight, why the thornbush does not burn up.

4 And when Jehovah saw that he had turned aside to look, God called to him out of the midst of the thornbush and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here I am.

5 And He said, Do not come near here. Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.

6 And He said, I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

7 And Jehovah said, I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.

8 And I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

9 And now the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.

10 So come now, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.

11 But Moses said to God, Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And He said, Surely I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will serve God upon this mountain.

13 Then Moses said to God, If I come to the children of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, and they say to me, What is His name? what shall I say to them?

14 And God said to Moses, ¹I AM WHO I AM. And He said, Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, I AM has sent me to you.

15 And God also said to Moses, Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial from generation to generation.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, I have surely visited you and seen what is being done to you in Egypt.

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall say to him, Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; and now let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God.

19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, not even when compelled by a mighty hand.

20 So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will perform in the midst of it, and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that when you go, you will not go empty-handed.

22 But every woman will ask of her neighbor and of any woman living in her house for articles of silver and articles of gold and clothing, and you will put them on your sons and on your daughters, and thus plunder the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 4

C. Three Subjective Signs of Being Called and Sent by God

4:1-9

1 Then Moses answered and said, What if they do not believe me or listen to my voice, but say, Jehovah has not appeared to you?

2 And Jehovah said to him, What is this in your hand? And he said, A staff.

3 And He said, Throw it on the ground. And he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses recoiled from it.

4 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand, and take it by its tail—so he stretched out his hand and seized it, and it became a staff in his hand—

5 That they may believe that Jehovah, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.

6 And Jehovah further said to him, Now put your hand into your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, there his hand was, leprous like snow.

7 And He said, Put your hand into your bosom again—so he put his hand into his bosom again, and when he took it out of his bosom, there it was, restored like the rest of his flesh—

8 And if they do not believe you or heed the first sign, then they may believe the next sign.

9 And if they will not believe even these two signs or listen to your voice, then you shall take some of the water of the River and pour it on the dry ground, and the water that you take out of the River will become blood upon the dry ground.

14¹ Or, I WILL BE WHO I WILL BE; or, I WILL BECOME WHO I WILL BECOME.

D. The Male Help and the Female Help to the Called One
4:10-31

10 And Moses said to Jehovah, Please, Lord, I am not a man of words, neither in the past, nor since You have spoken to Your servant, for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.

11 And Jehovah said to him, Who gave man a mouth? Or who makes him dumb or deaf or seeing or blind? Is it not I, Jehovah?

12 Now go therefore, and I will be with your mouth and will teach you what you shall speak.

13 And he said, Please, Lord, send word through someone else whom You will send.

14 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Moses, and He said, Is there not Aaron your brother the Levite? I know that he can certainly speak. And even now he is coming out to meet you; and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do.

16 And he shall speak for you to the people, and he shall be as a mouth for you, and you shall be as God to him.

17 And you shall take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs.

18 And Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law. And he said to him, Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see whether they are still alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And Jehovah said to Moses in Midian, Go, return to Egypt; for all the men who were seeking your ¹life have died.

20 So Moses took his wife and his sons, and mounted them upon a donkey, and returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in his hand.

21 And Jehovah said to Moses, When you go to return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart, and he will not let the people go.

22 Then you shall say to Pharaoh, Thus says Jehovah, Israel is My son, My firstborn.

23 And I said to you, Let My son go that he may serve Me; but you have refused to let him go. I will now slay your son, your firstborn.

24 And at the lodging place on the way, Jehovah came upon him and sought to put him to death.

25 Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin and cast it at ¹Moses' feet, and she said, You are indeed a bridegroom of blood to me!

26 So He let him alone. It was then that she said, A bridegroom of blood, because of the circumcision.

27 And Jehovah said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and came upon him at the mountain of God, and he kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of Jehovah with which He had sent him and all the signs with which He had charged him.

29 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron spoke all the words which Jehovah had spoken to Moses, and he performed the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed; and when they heard that Jehovah had visited the children of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, they bowed and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5

E. God's Demand and Pharaoh's Resistance
5:1—12:361. The First Conflict between Jehovah and Pharaoh for the Release of Israel
5:1-23

1 And afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, Let My people go that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.

2 But Pharaoh said, Who is Jehovah that I should listen to His voice to let Israel go? I do not know Jehovah, and I also will not let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God; otherwise He will fall upon us with pestilence or sword.

4 Then the king of Egypt said to them, Moses and Aaron, why are you trying to release the people from their work? Get back to your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Look, the people of the land are now many, yet you want them to cease from their burdens.

6 And the same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying,

7 You shall no longer give the people straw to make bricks as previously; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the quota of the bricks which they made previously, you shall still place upon them; you shall not diminish any of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry out, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let the work be laid more heavily upon such men, so that they do it and not pay attention to false words.

10 And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, Thus says Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 You go and get your own straw wherever you can find it, for none of your work will be reduced.

12 So the people scattered throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

13 And the taskmasters pressed them saying, Finish your work, the same daily assignment as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and told, Why have you not finished, both yesterday and today, the amount of bricks required of you previously?

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you treat your servants this way?

16 No straw is given to your servants, and they say to us, Make bricks. And now your servants are being beaten, but it is the fault of your own people.

17 But he said, Idle is what you are, idle; therefore you say, Let us go and sacrifice to Jehovah.

18 So go now and work; and no straw shall be given you, but you shall deliver the quota of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble, when it was said, You shall not diminish any of the daily assignment of your bricks.

20 And they came upon Moses and Aaron who were standing there to meet them when they came forth from Pharaoh.

21 And they said to them, Jehovah look upon you and judge, because you have made us odious in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants so as to put a sword in their hand to kill us.

22 Then Moses went back to Jehovah and said, Lord, why have You mistreated this people? Why is it that You sent me?

23 Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has mistreated this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all.

CHAPTER 6

2. God's Further Training of Moses 6:1—7:7

1 And Jehovah said to Moses, Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh; for because of a mighty hand he will let them go, and because of a mighty hand he will drive them out of his land.

2 And God spoke to Moses and said to him, I am Jehovah.

3 And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as the 'All-sufficient God; but by My name Jehovah I did not make Myself known to them.

4 And I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojournings, in which they sojourned.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians have enslaved; and I have remembered My covenant.

6 Therefore say to the children of Israel, I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great acts of judgment.

7 And I will take you to Myself as My people, and I will be your God; and you shall know that I am Jehovah your God, the One who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you to the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you as a possession. I am Jehovah.

9 And Moses spoke this to the children of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses on account of exasperation of spirit and harsh bondage.

10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

11 Go, speak to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spoke before Jehovah, saying, The children of Israel do not now listen to me. How then will Pharaoh listen to me, since I am of uncircumcised lips?

13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron and gave them a charge for the children of Israel and for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 These are the heads of their fathers' houses. The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jachin and Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon and Kohath and Merari; and the years of Levi's life were one hundred thirty-seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel; and the years of Kohath's life were one hundred thirty-three years.

19 And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations.

20 And Amram took Jochebed his father's sister for himself as wife, and she bore him Aaron and Moses; and the years of Amram's life were one hundred thirty-seven years.

3¹ Heb. El Shaddai.

21 And the sons of Izhar: Korah and Nepheg and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael and Elzaphan and Sithri.

23 And Aaron took Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, for himself as wife; and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah: Assir and Elkanah and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites.

25 And Eleazar, Aaron's son, took for himself one of the daughters of Putiel as wife, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their families.

26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies.

27 It was they who spoke to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt; it is the same Moses and Aaron.

28 And on the day when Jehovah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, I am Jehovah; speak to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, all that I speak to you.

30 But Moses said before Jehovah, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips. How then will Pharaoh listen to me?

CHAPTER 7

1 And Jehovah said to Moses, See, I have made you God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother will be your prophet.

2 You shall speak all that I command you, and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart and will multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will lay My hand upon Egypt and bring forth My armies, My people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment.

5 And the Egyptians will know that I am Jehovah, when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did so; as Jehovah commanded them, so did they do.

7 And Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

3. The Second Conflict, Exposing the True Nature of Egyptian Living 7:8-14

8 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, Perform a wonder; then you shall say to Aaron, Take your staff, and throw it down before Pharaoh, so that it becomes a serpent.

10 And Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and they did just as Jehovah had commanded; and Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers; and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same with their secret spells.

12 That is, each one threw down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

13 And Pharaoh's heart hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go.

4. The Third Conflict: The First Plague—Blood 7:15-25

15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he is going out to the water, and stand on the bank of the River to meet him. And you shall take in your hand the staff which was turned into a serpent.

16 And you shall say to him, Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, Let My people go that they may serve Me in the wilderness. But until this very moment you have not listened.

17 Thus says Jehovah, By this you will know that I am Jehovah. I am now going to strike the water which is in the River with the staff that is in my hand, and it will be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that are in the River will die, and the River will become foul, and the Egyptians will loathe drinking water from the River.

19 And Jehovah said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your staff, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their watercourses, and over their pools, and over all their reservoirs of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did just as Jehovah commanded; and he lifted up the staff and struck the water that was in the River in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants, and all the water that was in the River was turned to blood.

21 And the fish that were in the River died, and the River became foul, and the Egyptians could not drink water from the River; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret spells; and Pharaoh's heart hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this to heart.

24 And all the Egyptians dug around the River for water to drink, for they could not drink of the water of the River.

25 And seven days passed after Jehovah had struck the River.

CHAPTER 8

5. The Fourth Conflict: The Second Plague—Frogs 8:1-15

1 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus says Jehovah, Let My people go that they may serve Me.

2 But if you refuse to let them go, I am now going to smite all your territory with frogs.

3 And the River shall swarm with frogs, and they will go up from the river and come into your house and into your bed-chamber and upon your bed, and into the houses of your servants and upon your people, and into your ovens and into your kneading bowls.

4 And the frogs shall come up upon you and upon your people and upon all your servants.

5 And Jehovah said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the watercourses, and over the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did the same with their secret spells and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, Entreat Jehovah to take away the frogs from me and from my people, and I will let the people go to sacrifice to Jehovah.

9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, May it please you, and not me, as to the time. When shall I make entreaty for you and for your servants and for your people, to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses so that they remain in the River only?

10 And he said, Tomorrow. And he said, It will be according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like Jehovah our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from you and from your houses and from your servants and from your people; they shall remain in the River only.

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried out to Jehovah concerning the frogs which He had brought upon Pharaoh.

13 And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died in the houses, in the courts, and in the fields.

14 And they gathered them together, heap after heap, and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

6. The Fifth Conflict:
The Third Plague—Lice
8:16-19

16 And Jehovah said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch out your staff, and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and there were lice on man and on beast; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did the same with their secret spells, to try to bring forth lice, but they could not; so there were lice on man and on beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. But Pharaoh's heart hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

7. The Sixth Conflict:
The Fourth Plague—Flies
8:20-32

20 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and present yourself before Pharaoh as he is going out to the water, and say to him, Thus says Jehovah, Let My people go that they may serve Me.

21 For if you will not let My people go, then I will at once send swarms of flies against you and against your servants and against your people and against your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of flies, as well as the ground on which they are.

22 But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are staying, so that no swarms of flies will be there, so that you may know that I am Jehovah in the midst of the land.

23 And I will put redemption between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall occur.

24 And Jehovah did so; and heavy swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh and into his servants' houses, and throughout the land of Egypt the land was ruined because of the swarms of flies.

25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron and said, Go, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It would not be right to do so, for we will sacrifice to Jehovah our God what is an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice what is an abomination to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?

27 We must go a three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God just as He commands us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go that you may sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. Make entreaty for me.

29 And Moses said, I am now going out from you, and I will entreat Jehovah that the swarms of flies would depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully anymore by not letting the people go to sacrifice to Jehovah.

30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and entreated Jehovah.

31 And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses, and He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; not one remained.

32 However Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, and he did not let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

8. The Seventh Conflict: The Fifth Plague—Pestilence 9:1-7

1 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and speak to him, Thus says Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, Let My people go that they may serve Me.

2 For if you refuse to let them go and still retain them,

3 Then the hand of Jehovah is going to be on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very severe pestilence.

4 And Jehovah will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing will die of all that belongs to the children of Israel.

5 And Jehovah set an appointed time, saying, Tomorrow Jehovah will do this thing in the land.

6 And Jehovah did this thing on the next day; and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the children of Israel not one died.

7 And Pharaoh sent to inquire, and indeed there was not so much as one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he did not let the people go.

9. The Eighth Conflict: The Sixth Plague—Boils 9:8-12

8 Then Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, Take handfuls of ashes from a furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will become boils breaking out with sores on man and on beast throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 So they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it toward heaven, and it became boils breaking forth with sores on man and on beast.

11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians as well as on all the Egyptians.

12 And Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had spoken to Moses.

10. The Ninth Conflict: The Seventh Plague—Hail 9:13-35

13 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and present yourself before Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus says Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, Let My people go that they may serve Me.

14 For this time I am going to send all My plagues against 'you and on your servants and on your people, so that you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

15 For if by now I had stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, you would have been cut off from the earth.

¹⁴ Lit., your heart.

16 But indeed for this cause I have made you stand, to show you My power and to have My name proclaimed throughout all the earth.

17 You are still exalting yourself against My people by not letting them go.

18 Tomorrow about this time I am going to cause very heavy hail to fall, such as has never occurred in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now.

19 Now therefore send men and secure your livestock and all that you have in the field; every man and beast that is found in the field and is not brought home when the hail comes down shall die.

20 He who feared the word of Jehovah among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his livestock flee into the houses.

21 But he who did not pay attention to the word of Jehovah left his servants and his livestock in the field.

22 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand toward heaven that there may be hail throughout all the land of Egypt, upon man and upon beast and upon all the vegetation of the field in the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven; and Jehovah sent thunder and hail, and fire came down on the earth, and Jehovah rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was very heavy hail with fire flashing continually in the midst of the hail, such as had not occurred in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail struck everything that was in the field, both man and beast, throughout all the land of Egypt; and the hail struck all the vegetation of the field and shattered every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 And Pharaoh sent a messenger and called for Moses and Aaron; and he said to them, I have sinned this time; Jehovah is the righteous One, and I and my people are in the wrong.

28 Entreat Jehovah, for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said to him, As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to Jehovah; the thunder will cease, and there will not be any more hail, that you may know that the earth is Jehovah's.

30 But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear Jehovah God.

31 (Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bud.

32 But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they had not come up.)

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to Jehovah; and the thunder and hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the earth.

34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 So Pharaoh's heart hardened, and he did not let the children of Israel go, just as Jehovah had spoken through Moses.

CHAPTER 10

11. The tenth Conflict: The Eighth Plague—Locusts 10:1-20

1 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants that I may show these signs of Mine in the midst of them,

2 And that you may recount in the hearing of your son and your grandson how I made a mockery of Egypt and My signs which I have done among them, that you may know that I am Jehovah.

3 And Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh and said to him, Thus says Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go that they may serve Me.

4 For if you refuse to let My people go, then tomorrow I am going to bring swarming locusts into your territory,

5 And they will cover the ¹surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land; and they will eat the rest of what has escaped—what is left to you from the hail—and will eat up every tree of yours that is sprouting in the field.

6 And your houses will be filled with them, as well as the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians; something that neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen since the day that they came upon the earth until this day. Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go that they may serve Jehovah their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, Go, serve Jehovah your God. But who exactly are going?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old; we will go with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds, for we must hold Jehovah's feast.

10 And he said to them, Let Jehovah indeed be with you if I ever let you go with your little ones as well. See here, you are up to some evil.

11 No! Go now, but the men only, and serve Jehovah, since that is what you are requesting. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the swarming locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt and eat all the vegetation of the land, all that the hail has left.

13 So Moses stretched forth his staff over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah drove an east wind upon the land all that day and all night; when it was morning, the east wind had brought the swarming locusts.

14 And the swarming locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt in great mass. Before them there had never been so many swarming locusts as they, nor after them will there ever be so many.

15 And they covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was darkened. And they ate all the vegetation of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left, and nothing green remained on the trees or among the vegetation of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron and said, I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you.

17 Now therefore, please forgive my sin just this once, and entreat Jehovah your God that He would only remove this death from me.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh and entreated Jehovah.

19 And Jehovah changed the wind into a very strong west wind, and it took up the swarming locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not one locust was left in all the territory of Egypt.

20 But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

5¹ Lit., eye. So also in v. 15.

12. The Eleventh Conflict:
The Ninth Plague—Darkness
10:21-29

21 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand toward heaven that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even a darkness that can be felt.

22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was thick darkness throughout all the land of Egypt for three days.

23 They could not see one another, nor did anyone rise up from his place for three days, but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24 And Pharaoh called Moses and said, Go, serve Jehovah; only let your flocks and your herds be detained. Your little ones may also go with you.

25 And Moses said, You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings so that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God.

26 So our cattle also must go with us; not a hoof must be left behind, for we must take some of them to serve Jehovah our God, and we do not know with what we must serve Jehovah until we go there.

27 But Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said to him, Get away from me. Be sure that you do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die.

29 And Moses said, You have spoken correctly. I will never again see your face.

CHAPTER 11

13. The Twelfth and Final Conflict:
The Tenth Plague—
The Slaughter of the Firstborn
11:1—13:22

1 Then Jehovah said to Moses, One more plague will I bring upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; after that he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out from here completely.

2 Speak now in the hearing of the people that each man is to ask of his neighbor and each woman of her neighbor for articles of silver and articles of gold.

3 And Jehovah gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus says Jehovah, About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt,

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits upon his throne to the firstborn of the female slave who is behind the millstones, and all the firstborn of cattle.

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as has not been or ever will be again.

7 But a dog shall not bark at any of the children of Israel, at man or beast, that you may know that Jehovah makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these servants of yours shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, Get out, you and all the people who follow you; and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

9 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 Thus Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but Jehovah hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER 12

a. The Passover
12:1-36, 43-51

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This month will be the beginning of months for you; it shall be the first of the months of the year to you.

3 Speak to all the assembly of Israel, saying, On the tenth of this month each man shall take a lamb according to his fathers' house, a lamb for a household.

4 And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his neighbor next to his house shall take one according to the number of the persons in the houses; according to each man's eating you shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

6 And you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; and the whole congregation of the assembly of Israel shall kill it ⁶at twilight.

7 And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread with bitter herbs.

9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire—its head with its legs and with its inward parts.

10 And you shall not let any of it remain until the morning, but any of it that remains until the morning you shall burn with fire.

11 And this is how you shall eat it: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste. It is Jehovah's pass-over.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. Also against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments. I am Jehovah.

13 And the blood shall be a sign for you upon the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there will be no plague upon you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 And this day will be a memorial to you, and you shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah; throughout your generations as a perpetual statute you shall keep it as a feast.

15 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; on the first day you shall remove leaven out of your houses, for whoever eats anything leavened from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And on the first day you shall have a holy convocation, and on the seventh day a holy convocation. No work at all shall be done on them, except to prepare what every person will eat, that alone may be done by you.

17 And you shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt; therefore you shall keep this day throughout your generations as a perpetual statute.

18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month in the evening.

19 For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses. For whoever eats what is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the assembly of Israel, whether a sojourner or a native of the land.

20 You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your dwelling places you shall eat unleavened bread.

21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, Draw out and take lambs according to your families, and slaughter the passover.

22 And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and you shall apply some of the blood that is in the basin to the lintel and to the two doorposts; and none of you shall go outside the entrance of his house until the morning.

6¹ Lit., between the two evenings.

23 For Jehovah will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when He sees the blood upon the lintel and on the two doorposts, Jehovah will pass over the entrance and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to smite you.

24 And you shall observe this matter as a statute for you and for your sons in perpetuity.

25 And when you come to the land which Jehovah will give you, as He has promised, you shall observe this service.

26 And when your children say to you, What does this service mean to you?

27 You shall say, It is the passover sacrifice to Jehovah, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when He smote the Egyptians and delivered our houses. And the people bowed and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went and did so; just as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

29 And at midnight Jehovah struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no house where there was not someone dead.

31 And he called for Moses and Aaron in the night and said, Rise up, go out from the midst of my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve Jehovah, as you have said.

32 Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said; and go and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians urged the people, so as to hasten their departure out of the land, for they said, All of us will be dead.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading bowls being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses, and they asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold and clothing.

36 And Jehovah gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

b. Israel's Exodus from Egypt
12:37-42; 13:1-22

37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them, as well as flocks and herds, a very large number of livestock.

39 And they baked the dough which they brought out of Egypt into unleavened cakes, for it had not been leavened because they were driven out of Egypt and could not delay; nor had they prepared for themselves any provisions.

40 Now the time of the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt,¹ was four hundred thirty years.

41 And at the end of four hundred thirty years, on that very day, all the armies of Jehovah went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It was for Jehovah a night of watching, to bring them out from the land of Egypt. That same night is a night of watching to Jehovah for all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

⁴⁰ The Septuagint adds, and in Canaan.

a. The Passover (cont'd)
vv. 43-51

43 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, This is the statute of the passover: No foreigner shall eat of it.

44 However any man's servant who is bought for silver, when you have circumcised him, then he shall eat of it.

45 A sojourner and a hired servant shall not eat of it.

46 It shall be eaten in one house. You shall not take any of the flesh outside the house, nor shall you break any of its bones.

47 All the assembly of Israel shall keep it.

48 But if a stranger sojourns with you and will observe the Passover to Jehovah, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near to observe it; and he will be like one who is a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

49 One law shall be for the native and for the stranger who sojourns among you.

50 And all the children of Israel did so; just as Jehovah commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

51 And on that very day Jehovah brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

b. Israel's Exodus from Egypt (cont'd)
vv. 13:1-22

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify to Me all the firstborn: Whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast, it is Mine.

3 And Moses said to the people, Remember this day on which you came out from Egypt, from the slave house, for by strength of hand Jehovah brought you out from this place; and nothing leavened shall be eaten.

4 On this day in the month of Abib you are going out.

5 And when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall observe this service in this month:

6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to Jehovah.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days, and nothing leavened shall be seen among you, nor shall any leaven be seen among you in all your territory.

8 And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, It is because of what Jehovah did for me when I came out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a sign to you upon your hand and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of Jehovah may be in your mouth; for with a mighty hand Jehovah brought you out of Egypt.

10 You shall therefore keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year.

11 And when Jehovah brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, 12 You shall set apart to Jehovah everything that opens the womb and the first offspring of every beast which is yours; the males shall be Jehovah's.

13 And every first offspring of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you do not redeem it, you shall break its neck. And every firstborn male among your sons you shall redeem.

14 And when your son asks you in time to come, saying, What is this? you shall say to him, By strength of hand Jehovah brought us out from Egypt, from the slave house.

9' Or, teaching.

15 And when Pharaoh hardened himself against letting us go, Jehovah slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of beast. Therefore I am one who sacrifices to Jehovah all that open the womb that are males; and all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.

16 So it will be as a sign upon your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt.

17 Now when Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Perhaps the people will change their minds when they see war and return to Egypt.

18 Thus God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up arrayed for battle out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the children of Israel solemnly swear, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall bring my bones up from here with you.

20 And they journeyed from Succoth and encamped in Etham on the edge of the wilderness.

21 And Jehovah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them on the way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might go by day and by night.

22 Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night departed from before the people.

CHAPTER 14

F. Pharaoh's Last Struggle and Israel's Crossing of the Red Sea
14:1-31

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Tell the children of Israel to turn back and camp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. You shall camp before Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea.

3 And Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has hemmed them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue after them; and I will glorify Myself through Pharaoh and through all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am Jehovah. And they did so.

5 And when it was told to the king of Egypt that the people had fled, the heart of Pharaoh and his servants changed toward the people; and they said, What is this we have done, letting Israel go from serving us?

6 So he yoked his chariot and took his people with him.

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

8 And Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, so that he pursued after the children of Israel as the children of Israel were going out with a high hand.

9 And the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh and his horsemen and his army; and they overtook them as they encamped by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh approached, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and there the Egyptians were, marching after them; and they became very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah.

11 And they said to Moses, Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you done this to us, bringing us out of Egypt?

12 Is this not the very thing that we spoke to you about in Egypt, saying, Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.

13 But Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid; stand firm, and see the salvation of Jehovah, which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will see no more again forever.

14 Jehovah will fight for you, and you will be ¹still.

15 And Jehovah said to Moses, Why do you cry out to Me? Tell the children of Israel to move forward.

16 And you, lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground.

17 And I will now harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them; and I will glorify Myself through Pharaoh and through all his army, through his chariots and through his horsemen.

18 Then the Egyptians will know that I am Jehovah when I glorify Myself through Pharaoh, through his chariots and through his horsemen.

19 And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. And the cloud was there with the darkness, yet it gave light by night to them. Thus one did not come near the other all night.

21 And when Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, Jehovah caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night and made the sea dry land; and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

23 Then the Egyptians pursued; and all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen went in after them into the midst of the sea.

24 And at the morning watch Jehovah looked down upon the camp of the Egyptians in the pillar of fire and of cloud and threw the camp of the Egyptians into confusion.

25 And He caused their chariot wheels to swerve and made them drive with difficulty, so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from Israel, for Jehovah is fighting for them against the Egyptians.

26 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and over their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its ¹level when the morning appeared. And the Egyptians fled against it, and Jehovah overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And as the waters returned, they covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all the army of Pharaoh that went in after them into the sea; not even one of them was left.

29 But the children of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

30 Thus Jehovah saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore.

31 And when Israel saw the great power which Jehovah exercised against the Egyptians, the people feared Jehovah; and they believed in Jehovah and in His servant Moses.

14¹ Or, silent. 27¹ Lit., strength.

CHAPTER 15

G. The Praising of the Saved Ones
15:1-211. The Song of Moses
vv. 1-19

1 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to Jehovah and spoke, saying,

I will sing to Jehovah, for ¹He has triumphed gloriously;
The horse and its rider He has cast into the sea.

2 ¹Jah is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation;
This is my God, and I will praise Him;
My father's God, and I will exalt Him.

3 Jehovah is a man of war;
Jehovah is His name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has thrown into the sea;
And his choice officers have drowned in the Red Sea.

5 The deep waters cover them;
¹They went down into the depths like a stone.

6 Your right hand, O Jehovah, is glorious in power;
Your right hand, O Jehovah, dashed the enemy in pieces.

7 And in the greatness of Your excellence
You overthrew those who rose up against You.

You sent forth Your burning wrath;
It consumed them like stubble.

8 And with the blast of Your nostrils the waters were heaped up;
The flowing currents stood up like a heap;
The deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil;

My ¹desire will be satisfied upon them;

I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.

10 You blew with Your wind; the sea covered them;
¹They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like You, O Jehovah, among the gods?
Who is like You, splendid in holiness,
Awesome in praises, doing wonders?

12 You stretched out Your right hand;
The earth swallowed them.

13 In Your lovingkindness You have led the people whom You have redeemed;
You have guided them in Your strength to Your holy habitation.

14 The peoples heard; they trembled.
Pangs have seized the inhabitants of Philistia.

15 Then the chiefs of Edom are dismayed;
The mighty men of Moab, trembling has seized them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away.

16 Terror and dread have fallen upon them;
By the greatness of Your arm they have become as still as stone,
Until Your people passed over, O Jehovah,
Until the people whom You purchased passed over.

17 You will bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance,
The place, O Jehovah, which You have made for Your dwelling, 1¹ Or, He is highly exalted. So also in v. 21. 2¹ A shortened form of Jehovah. 9¹ Lit., soul.

The sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established.

18 Jehovah shall reign forever and ever.

19 For the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and with his horsemen went into the sea, and Jehovah brought back the waters of the sea upon them while the children of Israel walked on dry land through the midst of the sea.

2. The Song of Miriam
vv. 20-21

20 And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing.

21 And Miriam ¹responded to them, Sing to Jehovah, for He has triumphed gloriously;
The horse and its rider He has cast into the sea.

III. Led
15:22—18:27

A. Israel's Experience at Marah and Elim
15:22-27

22 Then Moses moved Israel onward from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter; therefore its name was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah showed him a tree; and he cast it into the waters, and the waters became sweet. There He made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there He tested them.

26 And He said, If you will listen carefully to the voice of Jehovah your God and do what is right in His eyes and give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am ¹Jehovah who heals you.

27 And they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER 16

B. The Experience of Manna—
The Heavenly Diet
16:1-36

1 And they journeyed from Elim, and all the assembly of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole assembly of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness.

3 And the children of Israel said to them, If only we had died by the hand of Jehovah in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots, when we ate bread to the full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole congregation with hunger.

4 Then Jehovah said to Moses, I will now rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether or not they will walk ¹in My law.

5 And on the sixth day when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, In the evening you will know that Jehovah has brought you out from the land of Egypt;

7 And in the morning you will see the glory of Jehovah, for He hears your 21¹ Or, sang to them. 26¹ Or, Jehovah your Healer. Heb. Jehovah Ropheka. 4¹ Or, according to My instruction.

murmurings against Jehovah. And what are we, that you murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This you will see when Jehovah gives you flesh to eat in the evening, and bread to the full in the morning; for Jehovah hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us but against Jehovah.

9 And Moses said to Aaron, Say to all the assembly of the children of Israel, Come near before Jehovah, for He has heard your murmurings.

10 And as Aaron spoke to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and there the glory of Jehovah appeared in the cloud.

11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, At twilight you will eat flesh, and in the morning you will be filled with bread; and you shall know that I am Jehovah your God.

13 And at evening quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

14 And when the layer of dew lifted, there upon the surface of the wilderness were fine round flakes, fine as the frost on the earth.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, What is it? For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, It is the bread which Jehovah has given you to eat.

16 This is what Jehovah has commanded, Gather of it, each one according to his eating; you shall take an omer a head, according to the number of your persons, each one for those who are in his tent.

17 And the children of Israel did so; and some gathered much, and some little.

18 And when they measured it with an omer, he who gathered much had no excess, and he who gathered little had no lack; each of them gathered according to his eating.

19 And Moses said to them, Let no man leave any of it until the morning.

20 But they did not listen to Moses, and some men left part of it until the morning; and it bred worms and stank. And Moses was indignant with them.

21 And they gathered it morning by morning, each one according to his eating; and when the sun became hot, it melted.

22 And on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one; and all the leaders of the assembly came and told Moses.

23 And he said to them, This is what Jehovah has spoken, Tomorrow is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy Sabbath to Jehovah. Bake what you will bake, and boil what you will boil, and all that is left over put aside for yourselves to be kept until the morning.

24 And they put it aside until the morning, as Moses commanded; and it did not stink, nor was there any worm in it.

25 And Moses said, Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to Jehovah; today you will not find it in the field.

26 Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath; on it there will be none.

27 And on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.

28 And Jehovah said to Moses, How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My ¹laws?

29 See, Jehovah has given you the Sabbath, therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Let each of you stay in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

28' Or, instructions.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called its name manna, and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers made with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is what Jehovah has commanded, Let an omerful of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omerful of manna in it, and place it before Jehovah, to be kept throughout your generations.

34 As Jehovah commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the testimony to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to inhabitable land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is a tenth of an ephah.

CHAPTER 17

C. The Living Water out of the Smitten Rock 17:1-7

1 And all the assembly of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin by their ¹stages according to the command of Jehovah and encamped in Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Therefore the people contended with Moses and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said to them, Why are you contending with me? Why do you test Jehovah?

3 So the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses and said, For what reason did you bring us up out of Egypt; to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?

4 So Moses cried out to Jehovah, saying, What shall I do with this people? A little more, and they will stone me.

5 And Jehovah said to Moses, Pass on before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the River, and go.

6 I will be standing before you there upon the rock in Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it so that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the contention of the children of Israel and because they tested Jehovah, saying, Is Jehovah among us, or not?

D. The Defeat of Amalek 17:8-16

8 Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Joshua, Choose men for us, and go out; fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And when Moses lifted his hand up, Israel prevailed; and when he let his hand down, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other side. So his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And Jehovah said to Moses, Write

this as a memorial in a book and recite it to Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi;

16 For he said, For there is a hand against the throne of Jah! Jehovah will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER 18

E. A Portrait of the Kingdom

1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, how Jehovah had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken Moses' wife Zipporah, after he had sent her away,

3 And her two sons, of whom the name of one was Gershom, for ¹Moses said, I have been a sojourner in a foreign land;

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer, for he said, The God of my father was my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5 So Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness where he was encamped, at the mount of God.

6 And he ¹sent word to Moses: I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her.

7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him; and each asked the other's welfare, and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and how Jehovah delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the good which Jehovah had done to Israel, in that He had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be Jehovah, who has delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all gods; indeed, ¹it was proven when they dealt proudly against the ²people.

12 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat food with Moses' father-in-law before God.

13 And on the following day Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening.

14 And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit by yourself, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?

15 Then Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

16 When they have a dispute, the matter comes to me; and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make known the statutes of God and His laws.

17 And Moses' father-in-law said to him, The thing that you are doing is not good.

18 You will surely wear yourself out, both you and this people who are with you, for the thing is too heavy for you; you cannot do it by yourself.

19 Listen now to my voice: I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You stand for the people before God, and you bring the matters to God.

20 And you shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they should walk and the work that they should do.

3¹ Lit., he. 6¹ Lit., said. 11¹ Lit., in the thing. 11² Lit., them.

21 You also should look for able men among all the people who fear God, men of truth, who hate unjust gain; and place them over them, as leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens.

22 And let them judge the people at all times; and let them bring every great matter to you, but every small matter let them judge themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you.

23 If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people also will go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people: leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all times; the hard cases they brought to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way to his own land.

CHAPTER 19

IV. Receiving Revelation

19:1 — 34:35

A. Brought into the Presence of God and into the Knowledge of Him

19:1-25

1 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 And when they had journeyed from Rephidim and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped in front of the mountain.

3 And Moses went up to God, and Jehovah called to him out of the mountain, saying, Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the children of Israel:

4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

5 Now therefore, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My personal treasure from among all peoples, for all the earth is Mine.

6 And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the children of Israel.

7 So Moses came and called for the elders of the people and set before them all these words which Jehovah had commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together and said, All that Jehovah has spoken we will do. And Moses brought back the words of the people to Jehovah.

9 And Jehovah said to Moses, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also believe you forever. Then Moses told the words of the people to Jehovah,

10 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow; and have them wash their garments, 11 And be ready for the third day; for the third day Jehovah will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

12 And you shall set limits for the people all around, saying, Be careful that you do not go up on the mountain or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

13 No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether beast or man, he shall not live. When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain.

14 And Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their garments.

15 And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not go near a woman.

16 And on the third day, when it was morning, there was thunder and lightning, and a thick cloud upon the mountain, and a very loud trumpet sound; and all the people who were in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the base of the mountain.

18 Now the whole of Mount Sinai smoked because Jehovah descended upon it in fire, and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace; and the whole mountain shook greatly.

19 And as the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and God answered him ¹in a voice.

20 And Jehovah came down upon Mount Sinai at the top of the mountain, and Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain; and Moses went up.

21 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Go down; charge the people not to break through to Jehovah to look, lest many of them perish.

22 And let the priests who come near to Jehovah also sanctify themselves, so that Jehovah does not break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said to Jehovah, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You charged us, saying, Set limits around the mountain, and sanctify it.

24 And Jehovah said to him, Go, get down; then you shall come up again, you and Aaron with you; but do not let the priests and the people force a way through to come up to Jehovah, so that He does not break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

CHAPTER 20

B. The Testimony of God (the Law) Revealing God to His People 20:1-17

1 And God spoke all these words, saying,

2 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the slave house;

3 You shall have no other gods ¹before Me.

4 You shall not make for yourself an ¹idol, nor the ²form of anything that is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water beneath the earth.

5 You shall not bow down to them, and you shall not serve them; for I, Jehovah your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

6 Yet showing lovingkindness to thousands of generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

7 You shall not ¹take the name of Jehovah your God in vain, for Jehovah will not hold guiltless him who takes His name in vain.

8 Remember the Sabbath day so as to sanctify it.

9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

10 But the seventh day is a Sabbath to Jehovah your God; you shall not do any work, you nor your son nor your daughter, your male servant nor your female servant, nor your cattle nor the sojourner with you, who is within your gates.

19¹ Or, in thunder. 3¹ Or, besides, in addition to. 4¹ Or, image. 4² Or, likeness. 7¹ Lit., lift up the name of Jehovah your God to vanity.

11 For in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day and sanctified it.

12 Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be extended upon the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.

13 You shall not kill.

14 You shall not commit adultery.

15 You shall not steal.

16 You shall not testify with false testimony against your neighbor.

17 You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that belongs to your neighbor.

C. The Negative Aspect of the Law 20:18-21

18 And all the people saw the thunder and the flashes of lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood at a distance.

19 And they said to Moses, You speak with us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak with us, so we do not die.

20 And Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid; for God has come in order to test you, and in order that the fear of Him may be before you, so that you do not sin.

21 And the people stood at a distance, and Moses drew near to the deep darkness where God was.

D. The Ordinances of the Law concerning the Worship of God 20:22-26

22 And Jehovah said to Moses, Thus shall you say to the children of Israel, You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven.

23 You shall not make other gods besides

Me; gods of silver or gods of gold, you shall not make for yourselves.

24 An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

25 And if you make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of hewn stones; for if you lift up your tool upon it, you have polluted it.

26 Neither shall you go up by steps to My altar, so that your nakedness may not be uncovered on it.

CHAPTER 21

E. The First Ordinance of the Law concerning Man's Relationship with Others 21:1-6

1 Now these are the ordinances which you shall set before them.

2 If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years; but in the seventh he shall go out free without payment to you.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 But if the servant plainly says, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free;

6 Then his master shall bring him to God and shall bring him to the door or to the doorpost, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him forever.

F. Sundry Ordinances of the Law 21:7—23:19

7 And if a man sells his daughter as a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants do.

8 If she displeases her master, who has designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed; he has no right to sell her to a foreign people, because he has dealt with her unfaithfully.

9 And if he designated her for his son, he shall deal with her according to the custom of daughters.

10 If he take another woman for himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, or her marital rights.

11 And if he does not do these three things for her, then shall she go out for nothing, without payment of silver.

12 He who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death.

13 But if he did not lie in wait for him, but God allowed him to fall into his hand, then I will appoint you a place where he may flee to.

14 And if a man acts presumptuously toward his neighbor, so as to slay him with guile, you shall take him even from My altar so that he may die.

15 And he who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

16 And he who kidnaps a man, whether he sells him or he is found in his possession, shall surely be put to death.

17 And he who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men contend and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist so that he does not die but remains in bed;

19 If he can rise up and walk around outside on his staff, then he who struck him shall be guiltless; he shall only pay for the loss of his time, until he has made sure he is completely healed.

20 And if a man strikes his male servant or his female servant with a rod, and the ¹servant dies under his hand, he shall surely be punished.

21 But if he survives a day or two, he shall not be punished; for he is his ¹property.

22 And if men struggle together, and they hit a pregnant woman, so that she has a miscarriage, but there is no further mishap, he shall surely be fined what the woman's husband shall impose upon him, and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 But if there is further mishap, then you shall give a ¹life for a life,

24 An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, 25 A burning for a burning, a wound for a wound, a stripe for a stripe.

26 And if a man strikes the eye of his male servant or the eye of his female servant and destroys it, he shall let that one go free on account of that one's eye.

27 And if he knocks out his male servant's tooth or his female servant's tooth, he shall let that one go free on account of that one's tooth.

28 And if an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be guiltless.

29 But if the ox was accustomed to goring previously, and its owner had been warned, but he would not keep it in, and it killed a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death.

30 If a ransom is imposed on the ¹owner, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is imposed upon him.

31 If either it gores a son or it gores a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.

32 If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, thirty shekels of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man opens a pit or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, 20¹ Lit., he. 21¹ Lit., money. 23¹ Lit., soul for a soul. 30¹ Lit., him.

34 The owner of the pit shall make restitution; he shall give silver to its owner, and the dead animal shall be his.

35 And if one man's ox injures another's so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal.

36 Or if it is known that the ox was accustomed to goring previously and its owner would not keep it in, he shall surely give restitution, an ox for an ox, and the dead animal shall become his.

CHAPTER 22

1 If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If the thief is found breaking in and is struck so that he dies, there shall be no bloodguiltiness for him;

3 Unless the sun has risen upon him, then there shall be bloodguiltiness for him. He shall indeed make restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If what he has stolen is actually found alive in his possession, whether an ox or a donkey or a sheep, he shall restore double.

5 If a man lets a field or vineyard be grazed, that is, he lets his animal loose, and it grazes in another man's field; from the best of his own field and from the best of his own vineyard he shall make restitution.

6 If fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or what is growing in the field is consumed, he who started the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 If a man gives to his neighbor silver or goods to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found, he shall restore double.

8 If the thief is not found, then the owner of the house shall come near to ¹God to determine whether or not he laid his hand on his neighbor's goods.

9 For every case of transgression, whether concerning an ox, concerning a donkey, concerning a sheep, concerning clothing, or concerning any lost item about which one says, This is it, the case of both parties shall come before God; he whom God declares guilty shall restore double to his neighbor.

10 If a man gives to his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any animal to keep, and it dies or is injured or driven away, with no man seeing it;

11 The oath of Jehovah shall be between them both, that he has not laid his hand on his neighbor's goods; and its owner shall accept it, and he shall not make restitution.

12 But if it was certainly stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner.

13 If it was torn in pieces, let him bring it as evidence; he shall not make restitution for that which was torn.

14 And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not with it, he shall make full restitution.

15 If its owner was with it, he shall not make restitution; if it was hired, ¹only the hiring fee is due.

16 And if a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged and lies with her, he shall surely pay a dowry for her to become his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay silver according to the dowry of virgins.

18 You shall not allow a sorceress to live.

19 Whoever lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.

20 He who sacrifices to any god, except to Jehovah only, shall be devoted to destruction.

21 And you shall not wrong a sojourner,

8¹ Or, the judges; Heb. elohim. So also in v. 9. 15¹ Lit., it came for its hire.

nor shall you oppress him; for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

22 You shall not afflict any widow or orphan.

23 If you afflict them at all and if they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And My anger will be kindled, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children orphans.

25 If you lend silver to My people, to the poor among you, you shall not be to him as a creditor; you shall not charge him interest.

26 If you ever take your neighbor's garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down.

27 For that is his only covering; it is his garment for his skin. On what shall he lie down? And when he cries to Me I will hear, for I am gracious.

28 You shall not revile God, nor curse a ruler of your people.

29 You shall not delay to offer the fullness of your harvest and of the ¹outflow of your presses. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

30 You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep. Seven days it shall be with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

31 And you shall be holy men to Me. And you shall not eat any flesh that is torn by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

CHAPTER 23

1 You shall not bear a false report; do not join your hand with a wicked man to be a malicious witness.

2 You shall not follow a multitude to do evil, nor shall you testify in a dispute to turn aside after a multitude to pervert justice,

3 Nor shall you be partial to a poor man in his dispute.

4 If you come upon your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him.

5 If you see the donkey of one who hates you lying down under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving it to him; you shall surely release it with him.

6 You shall not pervert the justice due to your needy in his dispute.

7 Keep far away from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and righteous; for I will not justify the wicked man.

8 And you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds those whose eyes are open and perverts the words of the righteous.

9 And you shall not oppress a sojourner, for you know the ¹feelings of a sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

10 And six years you shall sow your land and gather its produce;

11 But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the needy of your people may eat, and what they leave, the animals of the field may eat. You are to do the same with your vineyard and with your olivegrove.

12 Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall cease from work so that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your female servant and the sojourner may be refreshed.

13 Now concerning everything which I have said to you, take heed to yourselves; and do not mention the name of other gods, nor let their name be heard out of your mouth.

14 Three times a year you shall hold a feast to Me.

15 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread; as I commanded you, seven days you shall eat unleavened bread at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out from Egypt. And no one shall appear before Me empty.

16 And you shall keep the Feast of the Harvest, of the firstfruits of your labors from what you sow in the field, and the Feast of Ingathering, at the end of the year when you gather in your labors out of the field.

17 Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord Jehovah.

18 You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with anything leavened, nor shall the fat of My feast remain all night until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

G. The Angel of Jehovah for His People to Take Possession of the Promised Land
23:20-33

20 I am now sending an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

21 Be careful before Him, and ¹listen to His voice; do not rebel against Him, for He will not pardon your transgression; for My name is in Him.

22 But if you will indeed listen to His voice and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

23 For My Angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.

24 You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do according to their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them and break their pillars into pieces.

25 And you shall serve Jehovah your God, and He will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from your midst.

26 No one shall miscarry or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

27 I will send My terror before you and will throw into confusion all the people to whom you will come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

28 And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you.

29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the animals of the field multiply against you.

30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have become fruitful and inherit the land.

31 And I will set your border from the Red Sea even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out from before you.

32 You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me; for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.

CHAPTER 24

H. The Enactment of the Covenant
24:1-8

1 Then He said to Moses, Come up to Jehovah, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship at a distance.

2 And Moses alone shall come near to Jehovah, but they shall not come near, nor shall the people come up with him.

²¹ Or, obey. So also in v. 22.

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of Jehovah and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice and said, All the words which Jehovah has spoken we will do.

4 And Moses wrote down all the words of Jehovah, and he rose up early in the morning and built an altar at the base of the mountain and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of bulls to Jehovah.

6 And Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, All that Jehovah has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient.

8 So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people and said, Here is the blood of the covenant, which Jehovah has made with you in accordance with all these words.

I. The Vision of God
24:9-11

9 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up.

10 And they saw the God of Israel, and under His feet there was something like a ¹paved work of sapphire, even ²like heaven itself for clearness.

11 And He did not stretch out His hand upon the nobles of the children of Israel. And they beheld God and ate and drank.

J. Moses' Stay with God under His Glory
24:12-18

12 And Jehovah said to Moses, Come up to Me at the top of the mountain, and be there; and I will give you the tablets of stone with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.

13 And Moses rose up with Joshua his attendant, and Moses went up to the top of the mountain of God.

14 And he had said to the elders, Wait here for us until we return to you. Both Aaron and Hur are here with you; whoever has a cause, let him come near to them.

15 And Moses went up to the top of the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the glory of Jehovah settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the appearance of the glory of Jehovah was like consuming fire on the top of the mountain to the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses entered into the midst of the cloud and went up on the mountain; and Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER 25

K. The Vision of the Tabernacle and Its Furniture
25:1—30:38

1. Concerning the Materials and the Pattern
25:1-9

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Tell the children of Israel to take for Me a heave offering. From every man whose heart makes him willing you shall take My heave offering.

3 And this is the heave offering which you shall take from them: gold and silver and bronze, 10¹ Or, a work of transparent sapphire. 10² Or, like the substance of heaven.

4 And blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and porpoise skins, and acacia wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, 7 Onyx stones and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

8 And let them make a sanctuary for Me that I may dwell in their midst.

9 According to all that I show you, the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its ¹utensils, even so you shall make it.

2. The Ark of Testimony with the Expiatory Cover 25:10-22

10 And they shall make an ark of acacia wood: two and a half cubits shall be its length; and one and a half cubits, its width; and one and a half cubits, its height.

11 And you shall overlay it with pure gold; inside and outside you shall overlay it; and you shall make a rim of gold upon it all around.

12 And you shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them on its four feet; and two rings shall be on one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

13 And you shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

14 And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark with them.

15 The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

16 And you shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

17 And you shall make an expiation cover of pure gold: two and a half cubits shall be its length, and one and a half cubits, its width.

18 And you shall make two cherubim of gold; of beaten work you shall make them; at the two ends of the expiation cover.

19 And make one cherub at one end and one cherub at the other end; of one piece with the expiation cover you shall make the cherubim on its two ends.

20 And the cherubim shall spread out their wings above the cover, covering the expiation cover with their wings, with their faces toward one another; the faces of the cherubim shall be toward the expiation cover.

21 And you shall put the expiation cover on top of the Ark, and into the Ark you shall put the testimony that I shall give you.

22 And there I will meet with you, and I will speak with you from above the expiation cover, from between the two cherubim which are upon the Ark of the Testimony, of everything which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

3. The Table of the Bread of the Presence
25:23-30

23 And you shall make a table of acacia wood: two cubits shall be its length, and a cubit its width, and one and a half cubits its height.

24 And you shall overlay it with pure gold and make a rim of gold around it.

25 And you shall make a frame of a handbreadth around it; and you shall make a rim of gold for its frame around it.

26 And you shall make for it four rings of gold and put the rings on the four corners that are on its four feet.

27 The rings shall be close to the frame as holders for the poles to carry the table.

28 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be carried with them.

29 And you shall make its plates and its 9' Or, furnishings.

spoons and its pitchers and its bowls with which to pour out drink offerings; of pure gold you shall make them.

30 And you shall set the bread of the Presence upon the table before Me always.

4. The Lampstand
25:31-40

31 And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand with its base and its shaft shall be made of beaten work; its cups, its calyces, and its blossom buds shall be of one piece with it.

32 And there shall be six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand out of one of its sides, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side;

33 Three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a calyx and a blossom bud; and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a calyx and a blossom bud—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

34 And there shall be on the lampstand four cups made like almond blossoms, its calyces and its blossom buds;

35 And a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, and a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, and a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

36 Their calyces and their branches shall be of one piece with it; all of it one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And you shall make its lamps, seven; and set up its lamps to give light to the area in front of it.

38 And its tongs and its firepans shall be of pure gold.

39 It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these utensils.

40 And see that you make them according to their pattern, which was shown to you in the mountain.

CHAPTER 26

5. The Covering of the Tabernacle 26:1-14

1 Now the tabernacle you shall make with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet strands; you shall make them with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

2 The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits; all the curtains shall have the same measurement.

3 Five curtains shall be joined to one another; and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another.

4 And you shall make loops of blue strands on the edge of the one curtain at the end in the set; and likewise you shall make them in the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set.

5 You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.

6 And you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and join the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may become one.

7 And you shall make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; eleven curtains you shall make.

8 The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits; the eleven curtains shall have the same measurement.

9 And you shall join five of the curtains by themselves, and six of the curtains by themselves; and you shall double the sixth curtain over at the front of the tent.

10 And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outermost in the set, and fifty loops upon the edge of the curtain which is outermost in the second set.

11 And you shall make fifty clasps of bronze and put the clasps into the loops and join the tent together, so that it may become one.

12 And the overlapping part that is left over of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that is left over, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.

13 And the cubit on the one side and the cubit on the other side, of what is left over in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And you shall make a covering for the tent, of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of porpoise skins above it.

6. The Boards of the Tabernacle 26:15-30

15 And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and one and a half cubits, the width of each board.

17 Each board shall have two ¹tenons, parallel to each another; thus you shall do for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward.

19 And you shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under the ¹next board for its two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, twenty boards;

21 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board and two sockets under the next board.

22 And for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six boards.

23 And two boards you shall make for the corners of the tabernacle in the rear.

24 And they shall be double below, and at its top they shall be completely joined to a single ring; thus it shall be for both of them; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And there shall be eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board and two sockets under the next board.

26 And you shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

28 And the middle bar shall pass through in the center of the boards from end to end.

29 And you shall overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold as holders for the bars; and you shall overlay the bars with gold.

30 And you shall set up the tabernacle according to its plan, which you were shown in the mountain.

7. The Veil within the Tabernacle 26:31-35

31 And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet strands and fine twined linen; it shall be made with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

32 And you shall hang it upon four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, on four sockets of silver.

33 And you shall hang up the veil under the clasps and bring in the Ark of the Testimony there within the veil; and the veil shall make a separation for you between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies.

34 And you shall put the expiation

17¹ Lit., hands. So throughout the book. 19¹ Lit., one. So also in vv. 21, 25; 36:24, and 36:26.

cover upon the Ark of the Testimony in the 'Holy of Holies.

35 And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south; and the table you shall put on the north side.

8. The Screen for the Entrance of the Tent
26:36-37

36 And you shall make a screen for the entrance of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet strands and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer.

37 And for the screen you shall make five pillars of acacia and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

CHAPTER 27

9. The Altar of Burnt Offering
27:1-8

1 And you shall make the altar of acacia wood, a length of five cubits and a width of five cubits; the altar shall be square; and three cubits, its height.

2 And you shall make its horns upon its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.

3 And you shall make its pots to remove its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its firepans; all its utensils you shall make of bronze.

4 And you shall make a grating, a network of bronze for it; and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four ends.

5 And you shall put it below, under the ledge of the altar so that the net may reach halfway up the altar.

6 And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze.

7 And its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried.

8 You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown to you in the mountain, so shall they make it.

10. The Court of the Tabernacle
27:9-19

9 And you shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen, one hundred cubits long for one side;

10 And its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets shall be of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods shall be of silver.

11 And likewise on the north side, in length there shall be hangings a length of one hundred cubits, and its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods shall be of silver.

12 And for the width of the court on the west side there shall be hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets.

13 And the width of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 And there shall be fifteen cubits of hangings for the one side of the gate, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

15 And there shall be fifteen cubits of hangings for the other side, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 And for the gate of the court there shall be a screen of twenty cubits, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer; with their four pillars and their four sockets.

17 All the pillars around the court shall be connected with silver, with their hooks of silver and their sockets of bronze.

18 The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits; and the width, ¹fifty at each end; and the height, five cubits; of fine twined linen, and their sockets of bronze.

34¹ Or, the Holiest Place.

19 All the utensils of the tabernacle used in all its service and all its pegs and all the pegs of the court shall be of bronze.

11. The Lighting of the Lamps
27:20-21

20 And you shall command the children of Israel to bring to you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall set it in order from evening to morning before Jehovah; it shall be a perpetual statute to be observed throughout their generations by the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 28

12. The Garments for the Priesthood
28:1-43

1 And bring near to yourself Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serve Me as a priest—Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty.

3 And you shall speak to all who are wise in heart, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to sanctify him, that he may serve Me as a priest.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate and an ephod and a robe and a tunic of checkered work, a turban and a girding sash. So they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and for his sons that he may serve Me as a priest.

5 They therefore shall take the gold and the blue and the purple and the scarlet strands and the fine linen,

6 And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine twined linen, the work of a skillful workman.

7 It shall have two shoulder pieces joined to its two edges, so that it may be joined together.

8 And the skillfully woven band, which is on it ¹for its fastening, shall be like it in workmanship, of one piece with it; of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands and fine twined linen.

9 And you shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, 10 Six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones, according to the names of the sons of Israel; you shall make them enclosed in settings of gold.

12 And you shall put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before Jehovah on his two shoulders for a memorial.

13 And you shall make settings of gold,

14 And two chains of pure gold; you shall make them twisted, a cordage work, and you shall put the chains of cords on the settings.

15 And you shall make a breastplate of judgment, the work of a skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and of fine twined linen you shall make it.

16 It shall be square and doubled; a span its length and a span its width.

18¹ Lit., fifty with fifty. 8¹ Lit., of its ephod.

17 And you shall enclose in it enclosures of stones, four rows of stones: the first row shall be a row of a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald;

18 And the second row, a ¹carbuncle, a sapphire, and a diamond;

19 And the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

20 And the fourth row, a ¹chrysolite, and an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be set in gold in their enclosures.

21 And the stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names; they shall be like the engravings of a signet, each according to its name, for the twelve tribes.

22 And you shall make on the breastplate twisted chains, a cordage work of pure gold.

23 And you shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And you shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate.

25 And you shall put the two other ends of the two cords on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

26 And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them upon the two ends of the breastplate upon its edge, which is toward the ephod on the inside.

27 And you shall make two rings of gold and shall put them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod on the front of it, close to the place where it is joined, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue strands, that it may be upon the skillfully woven band of the ephod and that the breastplate may not come loose from the ephod.

29 So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart when he goes into the sanctuary, for a memorial before Jehovah continually.

30 And you shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart when he goes in before Jehovah, and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on his heart before Jehovah continually.

31 And you shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue strands.

32 And there shall be an opening for the head in its center; around its opening there shall be a binding edge of woven work, like the opening of a coat of mail, so that it will not be torn.

33 And you shall make on its hem pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet strands, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the sanctuary before Jehovah and when he comes out, so that he may not die.

36 And you shall make a ¹plate of pure gold and engrave upon it, like the engravings of a signet: ²HOLY TO JEHOVAH.

37 And you shall put it on a cord of blue strands, and it shall be on the turban; it shall be at the front of the turban.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel sanctify for all their holy gifts; and it shall always be on his forehead, that they may be accepted before Jehovah.

18¹ Or, turquoise. 20¹ Or, beryl. 36¹ Or, blossom. 36² Or, HOLINESS. So also in 39:30.

39 And you shall weave the tunic of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a girding sash, the work of an embroiderer.

40 And for Aaron's sons you shall make tunics, and you shall make for them girding sashes, and you shall make for them high hats, for glory and for beauty.

41 And you shall put them upon Aaron your brother and upon his sons with him, and you shall anoint them and ¹fill their hands and sanctify them, that they may serve Me as priests.

42 And you shall make them linen trousers to cover their naked flesh; they shall reach from the loins even to the thighs;

43 And they shall be upon Aaron and upon his sons when they go into the Tent of Meeting or when they come near to the altar to minister in the sanctuary, that they may not bear iniquity and die. It shall be a perpetual statute for him and for his seed after him.

CHAPTER 29

13. The Sanctification of Aaron and His Sons to Be the Priests 29:1-46

1 And this is what you shall do to them to sanctify them to serve Me as priests: take one bull ¹of the herd and two rams without blemish,

2 And unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mingled with oil and unleavened wafers anointed with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour.

3 And you shall put them into one basket and present them in the basket with the bull and the two rams.

4 And you shall bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water.

5 And you shall take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastplate, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod;

6 And you shall place the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban.

7 Then you shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him.

8 And you shall bring his sons near and put tunics on them.

9 And you shall gird them with girding sashes, Aaron and his sons, and bind high hats on them; and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute. So you shall fill the hands of Aaron and his sons.

10 And you shall present the bull before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.

11 And you shall slaughter the bull before Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

12 And you shall take some of the blood of the bull and put some of it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and all the rest of the blood you shall pour out at the base of the altar.

13 And you shall take all the fat that covers the inward parts and the appendage on the liver and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bull and its skin and its dung you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

15 And you shall also take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

16 And you shall slaughter the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it on and around the altar.

17 Then you shall cut the ram into its pieces and wash its inward parts and its legs, and put them with its pieces and its head.

41¹ Others translate, consecrate them. So throughout the book. 1¹ Lit., a son of the herd.

18 And you shall burn the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to Jehovah; it is a 'satisfying fragrance, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

19 And you shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

20 Then you shall slaughter the ram and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the lobe of the right ear of his sons and on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the rest of the blood on and around the altar.

21 And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons and on his sons' garments with him; and he and his garments shall be sanctified, as well as his sons and his sons' garments with him.

22 You shall also take the fat from the ram, that is, the fat tail and the fat that covers the inward parts, and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of the filling of hands),

23 And one loaf of bread and one cake of oiled bread and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before Jehovah;

24 And you shall put all these in the palms of Aaron and in the palms of his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah.

25 And you shall take them from their hands and burn them on the altar upon the burnt offering for a satisfying fragrance before Jehovah; it is an offering by fire to Jehovah.

26 And you shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of the filling of hands and wave it as a wave offering before Jehovah; and it shall be your portion.

27 And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering which was waved and which was heaved up from the ram of the filling of hands, from the one which is for Aaron and from the one which is for his sons.

28 And it shall become a perpetual statute for Aaron and his sons to be observed by the children of Israel; for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their heave offering to Jehovah.

29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall belong to his sons after him, for them to be anointed in them and to have their hands filled in them.

30 One of his sons who is the priest in his place shall put them on seven days when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the sanctuary.

31 And you shall take the ram of the filling of hands and boil its flesh in a holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

33 So they shall eat those things by which expiation was made, to fill their hands and to sanctify them; but a stranger shall not eat them, because they are holy.

34 And if any of the flesh of the filling of hands or any of the bread remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons according to all that I have commanded you; you shall fill their hands seven days.

36 And each day you shall ¹offer a bull as a sin offering for expiation, and you shall cleanse the altar when you make expiation for it; and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

18¹ Or, soothing. So also in vv. 25 and 41. 36¹ Lit., make a bull as sin (cf. 2 Cor. 5:21).

37 Seven days you shall make expiation for the altar and sanctify it, and the altar shall become most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

38 Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old each day continually.

39 The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight.

40 And with the one lamb a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; you shall offer it with the meal offering and its drink offering as in the morning, for a satisfying fragrance, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

42 It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before Jehovah, where I will meet with you to speak to you there.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel; and it shall be sanctified by My glory.

44 And I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar. Aaron also and his sons I will sanctify to serve Me as priests.

45 And I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, and I will be their God.

46 And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell in the midst of them; I am Jehovah their God.

2 Its length shall be a cubit and its width a cubit; it shall be square, and two cubits its height; its horns shall be of one piece with it.

3 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, its top and its sides around it and its horns; and you shall make a rim of gold around it.

4 And you shall make for it two golden rings under its rim; on its two sides, on its opposite sides you shall make them; and they shall be as holders for poles with which to carry it.

5 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

6 And you shall put it before the veil that is over the Ark of the Testimony, before the expiation cover that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.

7 And Aaron shall burn on it fragrant incense; every morning when he dresses the lamps he shall burn it.

8 And when Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before Jehovah throughout your generations.

9 You shall not offer any strange incense on it, or a burnt offering or a meal offering; and you shall not pour a drink offering on it.

10 And Aaron shall make expiation on its horns once a year; with the blood of the sin offering of expiation once a year he shall make expiation for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to Jehovah.

CHAPTER 30

14. The Golden Incense Altar 30:1-10

1 And you shall make an altar on which to burn incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

12¹ Lit., his soul.

15. The Expiation Silver 30:11-16

11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

12 When you take the sum of the children of Israel, according to those of them who are numbered, then every man shall give a ransom for 'himself to Jehovah, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when you number them.

13 This they shall give, everyone enrolled with those who are numbered, half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as a heave offering to Jehovah.

14 Everyone enrolled with those who are numbered, from twenty years old and over, shall give the heave offering of Jehovah.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than the half shekel, when you give the heave offering of Jehovah to make expiation for your souls.

16 And you shall take the expiation silver from the children of Israel and shall give it for the service of the Tent of Meeting, that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah to make expiation for your souls.

16. The Laver of Bronze 30:17-21

17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18 You shall also make a laver of bronze, with its base of bronze, for washing. And you shall put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it.

19 And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet with water from it;

20 When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they may not die; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn an offering by fire to Jehovah, 21 Then they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they may not die. And it shall be a perpetual statute to them, for him and for his seed throughout their generations.

17. The Holy Anointing Oil 30:22-33

22 Moreover Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

23 You also take the finest spices: of flowing myrrh five hundred shekels, and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, two hundred fifty shekels, and of fragrant calamus two hundred fifty shekels,

24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil.

25 And you shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded according to the perfumer's art; it shall be a holy anointing oil.

26 And with it you shall anoint the Tent of Meeting and the Ark of the Testimony, 27 And the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

28 And the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base.

29 Thus you shall sanctify them that they may be most holy; whatever touches them shall be holy.

30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and sanctify them that they may serve Me as priests.

31 And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

32 Upon the flesh of man it shall not be poured, nor shall you make any like it, according to its composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

33 Whoever compounds any like it or whoever puts any of it upon a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people.

18. The Incense 30:34-38

34 And Jehovah said to Moses, Take fragrant spices—stacte and onycha and galbanum—fragrant spices with pure frankincense; there shall be an equal part of each;

35 And you shall make of it incense, a perfume according to the perfumer's art, seasoned with salt, pure and holy.

36 And you shall beat some of it very fine, and put some of it before the testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you; it shall be to you most holy.

37 And the incense which you shall make, you shall not make for yourselves according to its composition; it shall be holy to you for Jehovah.

38 Whoever shall make any like it, to smell it, shall be cut off from his people.

CHAPTER 31

L. The Workers of the Tabernacle, the Furniture, and the Priestly Garment 31:1-11

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

3 And I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom and with understanding and with knowledge and with all kinds of workmanship,

4 To fashion skillful designs, to work in gold and in silver and in bronze,

5 And in the cutting of stones for setting and in the carving of wood, to work in all kinds of workmanship.

6 And now, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise in heart I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

7 The Tent of Meeting, and the Ark of the Testimony and the expiation cover that is on it, and all the utensils of the tent,

8 And the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,

9 And the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the laver and its base,

10 And the finely worked garments, both the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons for them to serve as priests, 11 And the anointing oil, and the incense of fragrant spices for the sanctuary. According to all that I have commanded you, they shall do.

M. The Sabbath in Relation to the Building Work of the Tabernacle 31:12-17

12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

13 Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, You shall surely keep My Sabbaths; for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am Jehovah who sanctifies you.

14 Therefore you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

15 Six days work shall be done, but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to Jehovah; whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death.

16 Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.

17 It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.

N. The Breaking of the Law 31:18—32:6

18 And when He had finished speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, He gave to Moses the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

1 And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered against Aaron and said to him, Come, make gods for us who will go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.

2 And Aaron said to them, Tear off the gold rings, which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.

3 And all the people tore off the golden rings which were in their ears and brought them to Aaron.

4 And he took the gold from their hand and fashioned it with an engraving tool and made it into a molten calf; and they said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!

5 And when Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; then Aaron made a proclamation and said, Tomorrow shall be a feast to Jehovah.

6 And they rose up early on the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.

O. The Dealing with the Idol and the Idolaters
32:7-29

7 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, Go, get down; for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.

8 They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten calf, and they have worshipped it and have sacrificed to it and said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!

9 And Jehovah said to Moses, I have seen this people, and there they are, a stiffnecked people.

10 Now therefore let Me alone, that My anger may burn against them, and I may consume them; and I will make you into a great nation.

11 And Moses ¹entreated Jehovah his God and said, Jehovah, why does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, With evil intent He brought them out, to slay them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Your burning anger, and repent of this evil against Your people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Yourself and said to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.

14 Thus Jehovah repented of the evil which He said He would do to His people.

15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets that were written on both of their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets.

17 And when Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, There is a sound of war in the camp.

18 But ¹Moses said,

It is not the sound of the cry of triumph,

Neither is it the sound of the cry of defeat;

But it is the sound of singing that I hear.

11¹ Lit., made Jehovah's face sweet, or pleasant. 18¹ Lit., he.

19 And as soon as he drew near to the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses' anger burned, and he threw the tablets out of his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and he burned it with fire and ground it to powder and scattered it upon the water and made the children of Israel drink it.

21 And Moses said to Aaron, What did this people do to you that you brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Do not let the anger of my lord burn. You know the people, that they are set on evil;

23 For they said to me, Make gods for us who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.

24 So I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them tear it off; so they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out.

25 And when Moses saw that the people were without restraint (for Aaron had let them be without restraint to be a derision among those who rise up against them), 26 Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, Whoever is for Jehovah, come to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him.

27 And he said to them, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, Let each man put his sword upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each man kill his brother, and each man his companion, and each man his neighbor.

28 And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses, and that day about three thousand men among the people fell.

29 And Moses said, 'Fill your hands today to Jehovah, for every man has been against his son and against his brother, that He may bestow upon you a blessing today.

P. A Companion of God

32:30—33:23

30 And on the next day Moses said to the people, You have sinned a great sin; and now I will go up to Jehovah; perhaps I can make expiation for your sin.

31 And Moses returned to Jehovah and said, Oh, this people have committed a great sin and have made gods of gold for themselves.

32 Yet now, if You will forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of Your book which You have written.

33 And Jehovah said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book.

34 And now go, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you. Now My Angel will go before you; nevertheless in the day when I ¹visit, I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And Jehovah struck the people because of what they did with the calf which Aaron had made.

CHAPTER 33

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, Depart; go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, To your seed I will give it.

2 And I will send an Angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, lest I consume you in the way, for you are a stiffnecked people.

4 And when the people heard this evil word, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.

5 Now Jehovah had said to Moses, Say to the children of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people; if I were to go up in your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Now therefore put off your ornaments from you, and I will ¹decide what to do to you.

6 Thus the children of Israel were stripped of their ornaments from Mount Horeb onward.

7 Now Moses would take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, some distance from the camp; and he called it the Tent of Meeting. And everyone who sought Jehovah went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp.

8 And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise up and stand, every man at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses, until he entered the tent.

9 And whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stay at the entrance of the tent, and Jehovah would speak with Moses.

10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise up and worship, every man at the entrance of his tent.

11 And Jehovah would speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his companion. And ¹Moses would return to the camp, but his attendant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart out of the tent.

12 And Moses said to Jehovah, See, You say to me, Bring up this people; but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, I know you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.

13 Now therefore if I have found favor in Your sight, please let me know now Your ways, that I may know You, so that I may continue to find favor in Your sight. Consider also that this nation is Your people.

14 And He said, My ¹presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.

15 And he said to Him, If Your presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here.

16 For how then shall it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we, I and Your people, are distinct from all the other people who are on the face of the earth?

17 And Jehovah said to Moses, I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name.

18 And he said, Please show me Your glory.

19 And He said, I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of Jehovah before you; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

20 But He said, You cannot see My face; for no man shall see Me and live.

21 Then Jehovah said, Here there is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon the rock;

22 And while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with My palm until I have passed by.

23 And I will take away My hand, and you will see My back; but My face shall not be seen.

5¹ Lit., know. 11¹ Lit., he. 14¹ Lit., face.

CHAPTER 34

Q. Moses' Stay with God
34:1-35

1 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I will write upon the tablets the words which were on the first tablets, which you shattered.

2 And be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me, on the top of the mountain.

3 And no one shall come up with you, nor let anyone be seen anywhere on the mountain, nor let the flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.

4 So ¹Moses cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, just as Jehovah had commanded him; and he took two tablets of stone in his hand.

5 And Jehovah descended in the cloud and took His place there with him and proclaimed the name of Jehovah.

6 Then Jehovah passed by before him and proclaimed, Jehovah, Jehovah, God compassionate and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth,

7 Keeping lovingkindness ¹for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; but He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and upon the grandchildren, to the third and fourth generations.

8 And Moses made haste and bowed to the ground and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found favor in Your sight, O Lord, let the Lord please go in our midst; although they are a stiffnecked people, You pardon our iniquity and our sin and take us for Your inheritance.

10 And He said, Now I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform wonders such as have not been produced in all the earth, nor among any of the nations; and all the people among whom you are shall see the work of Jehovah, for it is an awesome thing that I will perform with you.

11 Observe what I am commanding you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

12 Be careful that you do not make any covenant with the inhabitants of the land against which you are going, lest they become a snare in your midst.

13 But their altars you shall tear down, and their pillars you shall shatter, and their Asherahs you shall cut down

14 (For you shall not worship any other god; for Jehovah, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God),

15 Lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they play the harlot after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and someone invites you, and you eat of his sacrifice;

16 And you take some of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters play the harlot after their gods, and make your sons play the harlot after their gods.

17 You shall not make for yourself any molten gods.

18 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

19 All that opens the womb is Mine; even the first male produced by all your livestock, of cattle or sheep.

20 And the first offspring of a donkey

4¹ Lit., he. 7¹ Or, for the thousandth generation.

you shall redeem with a lamb; but if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem, and they shall not appear before Me empty.

21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall cease from labor. Even in plowing time and in harvest time you shall cease from labor.

22 And you shall keep the Feast of Weeks, that is, of the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

23 Three times a year all your males shall appear before the Lord Jehovah, the God of Israel.

24 For I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your borders, and no one shall covet your land when you go up to appear before Jehovah your God three times in the year.

25 You shall not slaughter the blood of My sacrifice with anything leavened, nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover remain all night until the morning.

26 The first of the firstfruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

27 And Jehovah said to Moses, Write these words, for according to the speaking of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.

28 And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread, and he did not drink water. And He wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten ¹commandments.

29 And when Moses came down from Mount Sinai—and the two tablets of the testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain—Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone by reason of ¹His speaking with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, at that time the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

31 So Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers in the assembly returned to him, and Moses spoke to them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them in commandment all that Jehovah had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

33 And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

34 But whenever Moses went in before Jehovah to speak with Him, he would remove the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the children of Israel what he was commanded, 35 The children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses put the veil back on his face until he went in to speak with Him.

CHAPTER 35

V. Building the Tabernacle 35:1—40:38

A. The Making of the Tabernacle with Its Furniture and the Garments for the Priests 35:1—39:31

1. A Word concerning the Sabbath 35:1-3

1 And Moses gathered all the assembly of the children of Israel and said to them, These are the words which Jehovah has commanded you to do.

2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to Jehovah; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

3 You shall kindle no fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day.

28' Lit., words. 29' Or, his (Moses') speaking with Him (Jehovah) (cf. Num. 7:89).

2. The Offering of the Materials and the Preparing of the Workers
35:4—36:7

4 And Moses spoke to all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, This is what Jehovah has commanded, saying,

5 Take from among yourselves a heave offering to Jehovah; whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, the heave offering of Jehovah: gold and silver and bronze,

6 And blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and porpoise skins, and acacia wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, 9 And onyx stones and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

10 And let every man who is wise in heart among you come and make all that Jehovah has commanded:

11 The tabernacle, its tent, and its covering, its clasps and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;

12 The Ark and its poles, the expiation cover, and the veil of the screen;

13 The table and its poles and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

14 And the lampstand for the light and its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light;

15 And the altar of incense and its poles, and the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance, at the entrance of the tabernacle;

16 The altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver and its base;

17 The hangings of the court, its pillars, and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;

18 The pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court, and their cords;

19 The finely worked garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons for them to serve as priests.

20 And all the assembly of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, everyone whose heart lifted him up and everyone whose spirit made him willing, and brought the heave offering of Jehovah for the work of the Tent of Meeting and for all its service and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, men together with women, as many as were of a willing heart, and brought nose rings and earrings and signet rings and pendants, all kinds of articles of gold; even every man who waved a wave offering of gold to Jehovah.

23 And every man with whom was found blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and porpoise skins, brought them.

24 Everyone who offered a heave offering of silver and bronze brought the heave offering of Jehovah; and every man with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service brought it.

25 And all the women who were wise in heart spun with their hands and brought what they had spun, the blue and the purple and the scarlet strands, and the fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart lifted them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair.

27 And the leaders brought the onyx stones and the stones for setting for the ephod and for the breastplate, 28 And the spices and the oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a free-will offering to Jehovah; every man and woman whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Jehovah had commanded through Moses to be done.

30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, See, Jehovah has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

31 And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, with understanding, and with knowledge, and with all kinds of workmanship;

32 Even to fashion skillful designs, to work in gold and in silver and in bronze, 33 And in the cutting of stones for setting, and in the carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship.

34 And He has put in his heart to teach, both he and Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all kinds of workmanship, of an ¹engraver and of a skillful workman and of an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet strands, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do all kinds of workmanship and of those who fashion skillful designs.

CHAPTER 36

1 And Bezalel and Oholiab and every man who is wise in heart in whom Jehovah has put wisdom and understanding to know how to do all the work for the service of the sanctuary shall work according to all that Jehovah has commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every man who is wise in heart in whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart lifted him up to come to the work to do it.

3 And they received from Moses every heave offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it. And they still kept bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men who did all the work of the sanctuary came, every man from his work which he was doing;

5 And they spoke to Moses, saying, The people are bringing much more than enough for the service of the work which Jehovah commanded us to do.

6 And Moses gave commandment; and a ¹proclamation was passed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the heave offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the ¹material they had was sufficient and more than enough for all the work, to do it.

3. The Curtains and Coverings of the Tabernacle 36:8-19

8 And all the wise in heart among those who did the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains, of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet strands, with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman. ¹Bezalel made them.

9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits; all the curtains had the same measurement.

10 And he joined five curtains to one another; and the other five curtains he joined to one another.

11 And he made loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain at the end in the set; likewise he made them in the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set.

12 He made fifty loops on the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite one another.

13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and joined the curtains to one another with the clasps; so the tabernacle became one.

14 And he made curtains of goats' hair

35¹ Or, craftsman. 6¹ Lit., a voice. 7¹ Lit., work. 8¹ Lit., He.

for a tent over the tabernacle; eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain, four cubits; the eleven curtains had the same measurement.

16 And he joined five of the curtains by themselves, and six of the curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the set, and fifty loops he made upon the edge of the curtain which was outermost in the second set.

18 And he made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together, that it might become one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent, of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of porpoise skins above it.

4. The Boards of the Tabernacle 36:20-34

20 And he made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up.

21 Ten cubits was the length of a board, and one and a half cubits, the width of each board.

22 Each board had two tenons fitted to one another; thus he did for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward.

24 And he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under the next board for its two tenons.

25 And for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards

26 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board and two sockets under the next board.

27 And for the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards he made for the corners of the tabernacle in the rear.

29 And they were double below, and at its top they were completely joined to a single ring; thus he did to both of them for the two corners.

30 And there were eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under every board.

31 And he made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to pass through in the center of the boards from end to end.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold and made their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

5. The Veil within the Tabernacle 36:35-36

35 And he made the veil of blue and purple and scarlet strands and fine twined linen; he made it with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

36 And he made for it four pillars of acacia and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold. And he cast for them four sockets of silver.

6. The Screen for the Entrance of the Tent 36:37-38

37 And he made a screen for the entrance of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet strands and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer, 38 And its five pillars with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their connecting rods with gold, and their five sockets were of bronze.

CHAPTER 37

7. The Ark of the Testimony
37:1-9

1 Next Bezalel made the Ark of acacia wood: two and a half cubits was its length; and one and a half cubits, its width; and one and a half cubits, its height.

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a rim of gold around it.

3 And he cast four rings of gold for it, on its four feet; and two rings were on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

4 And he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark to carry the Ark.

6 And he made an expiation cover of pure gold: two and a half cubits was its length, and one and a half cubits, its width.

7 And he made two cherubim of gold; of beaten work he made them, at the two ends of the expiation cover, 8 One cherub at the one end and one cherub at the other end; of one piece with the expiation cover he made the cherubim at its two ends.

9 And the cherubim spread out their wings above the cover, covering the expiation cover with their wings, with their faces toward one another; the faces of the cherubim were toward the expiation cover.

8. The Table of the Bread of the Presence
37:10-16

10 And he made the table of acacia wood: two cubits was its length, and a cubit its width, and one and a half cubits its height.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold and made a rim of gold around it.

12 And he made a frame of a hand-breadth around it, and he made a rim of gold for its frame around it.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold and put the rings on the four corners that were on its four feet.

14 The rings were close to the frame, holders for the poles to carry the table.

15 And he made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table and overlaid them with gold.

16 And he made the utensils which were to be upon the table: its plates and its spoons and its bowls and its pitchers with which to pour out drink offerings, of pure gold.

9. The Golden Lampstand
37:17-24

17 And he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand with its base and its shaft of beaten work; its cups, its calyxes, and its blossom buds were of one piece with it.

18 And there were six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand out of one of its sides, and three branches of the lampstand out of its other side;

19 Three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a calyx and a blossom bud; and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a calyx and a blossom bud—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

20 And on the lampstand were four cups made like almond blossoms, its calyxes and its blossom buds;

21 And a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, and a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, and a calyx under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it.

22 Their calyxes and their branches were of one piece with it; all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps, and its tongs, and its firepans, of pure gold.

24 He made it of a talent of pure gold, and all its utensils.

10. The Altar of Incense
37:25-28

25 And he made the altar of incense of acacia wood; a cubit was its length, and a cubit its width, square, and two cubits its height; its horns were of one piece with it.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides around it and its horns; and he made a rim of gold around it.

27 And he made for it two golden rings under its rim, on its two sides, on its opposite sides, as holders for poles with which to carry it.

28 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

11. The Holy Anointing Oil and the Pure Incense
37:29

29 And he made the holy anointing oil and the pure fragrant incense, the work of a perfumer.

CHAPTER 38

12. The Altar of Burnt Offering
38:1-7

1 And he made the altar of burnt offering, of acacia wood; five cubits was its length, and five cubits, its width, square; and three cubits, its height.

2 And he made its horns upon its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

3 And he made all the utensils of the altar: the pots and the shovels and the basins, the forks and the firepans; all its utensils he made of bronze.

4 And he made a grating of network of bronze, for the altar, under its ledge beneath, reaching halfway up.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grating of bronze, as holders for the poles.

6 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

7 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it; he made it hollow, with boards.

13. The Laver of Bronze
38:8

8 And he made the laver of bronze and its base of bronze, from the mirrors of the serving women who served at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

14. The Court of the Tabernacle
38:9-20

9 And he made the court. On the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, one hundred cubits;

10 Their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets were of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods were of silver.

11 And on the north side, one hundred cubits; their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets were of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods were of silver.

12 And on the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits, with their ten pillars and their ten sockets; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods were of silver.

13 And the width of the east side eastward was fifty cubits.

14 The hangings for the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets;

15 And so for the other side; on both sides of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three sockets.

16 All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting rods were of silver; and the overlaying of their capitals was of silver; and all the pillars of the court were connected with silver.

18 And the screen for the gate of the court was the work of an embroiderer, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine twined linen; and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the width was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

19 And their four pillars and their four sockets were of bronze; their hooks were of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their connecting rods were of silver.

20 And all the pegs of the tabernacle and of the court all around were of bronze.

15. Counting the Offered Materials 38:21-31

21 This is the sum of the things for the tabernacle, the Tabernacle of the Testimony, as they were counted according to the commandment of Moses for the service of the Levites by the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Jehovah commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Oholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skillful workman and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet strands and in fine linen.

24 All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the wave offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of those who were numbered of the assembly was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;

26 A beka a head, that is, half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone enrolled with those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men.

27 And the hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars and overlaid their capitals and made connecting rods for them.

29 And the bronze of the wave offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels.

30 And with it he made the sockets for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and the bronze altar and the bronze grating for it and all the utensils of the altar

31 And the sockets around the court and the sockets of the gate of the court and all the pegs of the tabernacle and all the pegs around the court.

CHAPTER 39

16. Making the Garments for the Priests 39:1-31

1 And from the blue and the purple and the scarlet strands, they made finely worked garments for ministering in the sanctuary, and made the holy garments for Aaron, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

2 And ¹Bezalel made the ephod of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine twined linen.

² Lit., he.

3 And they beat the gold into thin sheets and cut them into threads, to work into the blue and into the purple and into the scarlet strands and into the fine linen, the work of a skillful workman.

4 They made shoulder pieces for it, joined to it; at the two edges it was joined.

5 And the skillfully woven band, which was on it ¹for its fastening, was of one piece with it and like it in workmanship, of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and fine twined linen, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

6 And they made the onyx stones enclosed in settings of gold, engraved with the engravings of a signet according to the names of the sons of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

8 And he made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod, of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and of fine twined linen.

9 It was square; they made the breastplate doubled; a span in its length and a span in its width when doubled.

10 And they filled it with four rows of stones. The first row was a row of a sardius, a topaz, and an emerald;

11 And the second row, a ¹carbuncle, a sapphire, and a diamond;

12 And the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 And the fourth row, a ¹chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in settings of gold in their enclosures.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to their names like the engravings of a signet, each according to his name, for the twelve tribes.

15 And they made on the breastplate twisted chains, a cordage work of pure gold.

16 And they made two settings of gold and two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two other ends of the two cords they put on the two settings and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate on its edge, which was toward the ephod on the inside.

20 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod on the front of it, close to the place where it is joined, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.

21 And they bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue strands, that it might be upon the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue strands, 23 And the opening of the robe in its center like the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding edge around its opening so that it would not be torn.

24 And they made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet strands, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold and put the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe all around, between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and 5¹ Lit., of its ephod. 11¹ Or, turquoise. 13¹ Or, beryl.

a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around to minister in; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

27 And they made the tunics of fine linen of woven work for Aaron and for his sons,

28 And the turban of fine linen, and the headdresses of high hats of fine linen, and the linen trousers of fine twined linen, 29 And the girding sash of fine twined linen, and blue and purple and scarlet strands, the work of an embroiderer, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold and wrote an inscription upon it, like the engravings of a signet: HOLY TO JEHOVAH.

31 And they tied to it a cord of blue strands to fasten it on the turban above, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

B. The Work of the Tabernacle Presented to, Examined by,
and Blessed by Moses
39:32-43

32 Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished, and the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses; so they did.

33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets;

34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of porpoise skins, and the veil of the screen;

35 The Ark of the Testimony and its poles and the expiation cover;

36 The table, all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

37 The pure lampstand, its lamps, even the lamps set in order, and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

38 And the golden altar and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense and the screen for the entrance of the tent;

39 The bronze altar, and its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the laver and its base;

40 The hangings of the court, its pillars, and its sockets; and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting;

41 The finely worked garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons for them to serve as priests.

42 According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.

43 And Moses saw all the work; and there it was, they had done it; just as Jehovah had commanded, so they had done; and Moses blessed them.

CHAPTER 40

C. The Erecting of the Tabernacle
40:1-38

1. The Commandments of the Lord to Moses concerning the Raising Up of the Tabernacle
vv. 1-16

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 On the first day of the first month you shall raise up the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.

3 And you shall put the Ark of the Testimony there, and you shall screen the Ark with the veil.

4 And you shall bring in the table and arrange its setting, and you shall bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.

5 And you shall put the golden altar for incense before the Ark of the Testimony and set up the screen of the entrance to the tabernacle.

6 And you shall put the altar of burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting.

7 And you shall put the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water there.

8 And you shall set up the court all around and put up the screen of the gate of the court.

9 And you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and sanctify it and all its utensils; and it shall be holy.

10 And you shall anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and sanctify the altar; and the altar shall be most holy.

11 And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and sanctify it.

12 And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water.

13 And you shall put the holy garments upon Aaron, and you shall anoint him and sanctify him that he may serve Me as a priest.

14 You shall also bring his sons and put tunics upon them,

15 And you shall anoint them as you have anointed their father that they may serve Me as priests; and their anointing shall be to them for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus Moses did; according to all that Jehovah had commanded him, so he did.

2. The Erection of the Tabernacle vv. 17-33

17 And in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was raised up.

18 And Moses raised up the tabernacle and put down its sockets and set up its boards and put in its bars and raised up its pillars.

19 And he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it from above, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

20 Then he took the testimony and put it into the Ark, and he set the poles onto the Ark and put the expiation cover upon the Ark above it.

21 And he brought the Ark into the tabernacle and set up the veil for the screen and screened the Ark of the Testimony, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 Then he put the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the veil.

23 And he arranged the bread in order upon it before Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

24 Then he put the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle.

25 And he set up the lamps before Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

26 Then he put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil, 27 And he burnt fragrant incense on it, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

28 Then he set up the screen of the entrance to the tabernacle.

29 He also set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

30 And he set the laver between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water there for washing.

31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons would wash their hands and their feet with water from it;

32 Whenever they went into the Tent of Meeting and whenever they came near the altar, they washed; as Jehovah commanded Moses.

33 And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar, and put up the screen of the gate of the court.

So Moses finished the work.

3. The Glory of the Lord Filling the Tabernacle
vv. 34-35

34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Jehovah filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud settled on it, and the glory of Jehovah filled the tabernacle.

4. Moving with God's Dwelling Place
vv. 36-38

36 And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel set out on all their journeys;

37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of Jehovah was upon the tabernacle by day, and there was fire in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel on all their journeys.

Christ Is Everything in the Fellowship, Service, and Life of God's Redeemed

CHAPTER 1

I. Ordinances concerning Offerings 1:1 — 7:38

A. The Burnt Offering 1:1-17

1 Then Jehovah called to Moses and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When any one of you presents an offering to Jehovah, you shall present your offering from the cattle, of the herd or of the flock.

3 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall present it, a male without blemish; he shall present it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before Jehovah.

4 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him, to make expiation for him.

5 And he shall slaughter the young bull before Jehovah; and Aaron's sons the priests shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood on and around the altar that is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

6 And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange the wood in order on the fire.

8 Then Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar;

9 But its inward parts and its legs he shall wash with water. Then the priest shall burn the whole on the altar, as a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

10 And if his offering is from the flock, of the sheep or of the goats, for a burnt offering, he shall present it, a male without blemish.

11 And he shall slaughter it on the side of the altar northward before Jehovah, and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood on and around the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into its pieces with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar;

13 But the inward parts and the legs he shall wash with water. Then the priest shall present the whole and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

14 And if his offering to Jehovah is a burnt offering of birds, then he shall present his offering of turtledoves or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall present it at the altar and wring off its head and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.

16 And he shall take away its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar toward the east, in the place of the ashes.

17 Then he shall tear it open by its wings without dividing it, and the priest shall burn it on the altar on the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

CHAPTER 2

B. The Meal Offering
2:1-16

1 And when anyone presents an offering of a meal offering to Jehovah, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it.

2 Then he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests, and he shall take from it his handful of its fine flour and of its oil with all its frankincense. And the priest shall burn it as its memorial portion on the altar, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

3 And what is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'; it is a thing most holy of Jehovah's offerings by fire.

4 And when you present an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened cakes mingled with oil or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

5 And if your offering is a meal offering baked on a flat plate, it shall be of fine flour mingled with oil, unleavened.

6 You shall break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a meal offering.

7 And if your offering is a meal offering made in a pot, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And you shall bring to Jehovah the meal offering that is made of these things and present it to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.

9 And the priest shall take up from the meal offering its memorial portion and shall burn it on the altar, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

10 And that which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons'; it is a thing most holy of Jehovah's offerings by fire.

11 No meal offering that you present to Jehovah shall be made with leaven, for 1¹ Lit., a soul.

you shall not burn any leaven or any honey as an offering by fire to Jehovah.

12 You may present them to Jehovah, as an offering of firstfruits, but they shall not be offered up for a satisfying fragrance on the altar.

13 And every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt, and you shall not omit the salt of the covenant of your God from your meal offering; with all your offerings you shall present salt.

14 And if you present a meal offering of firstfruits to Jehovah, you shall present for the meal offering of your firstfruits new grain roasted with fire, crushed grain of the fresh ear.

15 And you shall put oil on it and place frankincense on it; it is a meal offering.

16 And the priest shall burn as its memorial portion, some of its crushed grain and some of its oil, with all its frankincense, as an offering by fire to Jehovah.

CHAPTER 3

C. The Peace Offering
3:1-17

1 And if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offerings, if he presents it from the herd, whether male or female, he shall present it without blemish before Jehovah.

2 And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood on and around the altar.

3 And he shall present from the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering by fire to Jehovah. The fat that covers the inward parts and all the fat that is on the inward parts,

4 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver with the kidneys, he shall remove.

5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire; it is an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah is from the flock, he shall present it, male or female, without blemish.

7 If he presents a lamb for his offering, then he shall present it before Jehovah.

8 And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood on and around the altar.

9 And he shall present from the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering by fire to Jehovah. Its fat, the entire fat tail which he shall remove close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the inward parts and all the fat that is on the inward parts,

10 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver with the kidneys, he shall remove.

11 And the priest shall burn it on the altar; it is the food of the offering by fire to Jehovah.

12 And if his offering is a goat, then he shall present it before Jehovah.

13 And he shall lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle its blood on and around the altar.

14 And he shall present from it his offering, as an offering by fire to Jehovah. The fat that covers the inward parts and all the fat that is on the inward parts,

15 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver with the kidneys, he shall remove.

16 And the priest shall burn them on the altar; it is the food of the offering by fire for a satisfying fragrance; all the fat is Jehovah's.

17 It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places that you shall not eat any fat or any blood.

CHAPTER 4

D. The Sin Offering 4:1-35

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If ¹anyone ²sins without intent, in any of the things which Jehovah has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them,

3 If the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him present a bull of the herd without blemish to Jehovah ¹for a sin offering for his sin that he committed.

4 And he shall bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before Jehovah, and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and slaughter the bull before Jehovah.

5 And the anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the Tent of Meeting,

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before Jehovah in front of the veil of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before Jehovah, which is in the Tent of Meeting; and all the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

8 And all the fat of the bull of the sin

² Lit., a soul. ² Or, errs, makes a mistake. ³ Or, concerning sin. So throughout the book.

offering he shall take off from it: the fat that covers the inward parts and all the fat that is upon the inward parts,

9 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage upon the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys,

10 As it is taken off from the ox of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.

11 And the skin of the bull and all its flesh with its head and with its legs, and the rest of its inward parts and its dung,

12 That is, all the rest of the bull he shall bring out to a clean place outside the camp, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

13 Now if the whole assembly of Israel errs, and the matter escapes the ¹notice of the congregation, and they have done any of the things which Jehovah commanded not to be done and become guilty;

14 And when the sin which they have committed becomes known, the congregation shall present a bull of the herd for a sin offering and bring it before the Tent of Meeting.

15 And the elders of the assembly shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before Jehovah, and one shall slaughter the bull before Jehovah.

16 And the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting, 17 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before Jehovah in front of the veil.

18 And some of the blood he shall put upon the horns of the altar which is before Jehovah, that is, in the Tent of Meeting; and all the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

19 And all its fat he shall take off from it and burn it on the altar.

20 Thus shall he do with the bull; just as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this. And the priest shall make expiation for them, and they will be forgiven.

21 And he shall bring out the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the congregation.

22 When a ruler sins and does without intent any one of all the things which Jehovah his God has commanded not to be done and becomes guilty, 23 If his sin in which he has sinned is made known to him, he shall bring for his offering a male goat, without blemish.

24 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering before Jehovah; it is a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And all its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall make expiation for him on account of his sin, and he will be forgiven.

27 And if any one of the common people sins without intent by doing any of the things which Jehovah has commanded not to be done and becomes guilty;

28 If his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring for his offering a female goat, without blemish, for his sin which he has committed.

29 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

13¹ Lit., eyes.

30 And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

31 And all its fat he shall remove, just as the fat is removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah. And the priest shall make expiation for him, and he will be forgiven.

32 And if he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring it, a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it for a sin offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

35 And all its fat he shall remove, just as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar upon Jehovah's offerings by fire. And the priest shall make expiation for him concerning his sin that he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

CHAPTER 5

E. The Trespass Offering 5:1—6:7

1 And if anyone sins in that he hears the voice of adjuration when he is a witness, whether he has seen or known about a matter, if he does not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether the carcass of an unclean animal or the carcass of unclean cattle or the carcass of unclean ¹swarming things, and it escapes his notice, and he is unclean, then he will be guilty.

3 Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness is with which he becomes unclean, and it escapes his notice, when he comes to know it, then he will be guilty.

4 Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man utters rashly with an oath, and it escapes his notice, when he comes to know it, then he shall be guilty in one of these things.

5 And when he is guilty in one of these things, he shall confess that in which he has sinned;

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering to Jehovah for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a sheep or a goat, as a sin offering; and the priest shall make expiation for him on account of his sin.

7 And if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall bring as his trespass offering to Jehovah for that in which he has sinned two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall present first that which is for the sin offering; and the ¹priest shall pinch off its head at the front of its neck but shall not sever it;

9 And he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second as a burnt offering according to the ordinance. And the priest shall make expiation for him on account of his sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

2¹ Or, creeping, crawling. 8¹ Lit., he.

11 But if he cannot afford two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, then he shall bring as his offering for that which he has sinned, the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it nor put any frankincense upon it, for it is a sin offering.

12 And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as its memorial portion and burn it on the altar, upon Jehovah's offerings by fire; it is a sin offering.

13 And the priest shall make expiation for him concerning his sin that he has committed in any of these things, and he will be forgiven. And the rest shall be the priest's, like the meal offering.

14 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

15 If anyone acts unfaithfully and sins without intent in the holy things of Jehovah, then he shall bring his trespass offering to Jehovah, a ram without blemish out of the flock according to your valuation in silver by shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering.

16 And he shall make restitution for the holy thing in which he has sinned, and he shall add to it a fifth part of it and give it to the priest. And the priest shall make expiation for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and he will be forgiven.

17 And if anyone sins and does any of the things which Jehovah has commanded not to be done, though he did not know, he is still guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish out of the flock according to your valuation for a trespass offering. And the priest shall make expiation for him concerning the matter in which he erred without intent and did not know, and he will be forgiven.

19 It is a trespass offering; he is certainly guilty before Jehovah.

CHAPTER 6

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 If anyone sins and acts unfaithfully against Jehovah and deceives his associate in regard to a deposit or a security, or by robbery, or has extorted from his associate,

3 Or has found a lost item and lied about it, if he has sworn falsely in any one of all these things a man may do and sins thereby;

4 Then if he has sinned and is guilty, he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he got by extortion, or the deposit which was entrusted to him, or the lost item which he found,

5 Or anything about which he has sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in full, and shall add to it a fifth part of it. He shall give it to the one to whom it belongs, on the day ¹he is found guilty.

6 And he shall bring to Jehovah his trespass offering, a ram without blemish out of the flock according to your valuation for a trespass offering; to the priest he shall bring it.

7 And the priest shall make expiation for him before Jehovah, and he will be forgiven for any of the things which he may have done so as to be guilty.

F. The Law of the Burnt Offering 6:8-13

8 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.

10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen trousers he shall put on his flesh; and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

⁵ Or, he presents his trespass offering.

11 Then he shall take off his garments and put on other garments and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

12 And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it must not go out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it and shall burn the fat of the peace offerings on it.

13 Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.

G. The Law of the Meal Offering 6:14-23

14 And this is the law of the meal offering: The sons of Aaron shall present it before Jehovah before the altar.

15 And one shall take up from it his handful of the fine flour of the meal offering and of its oil and all the frankincense which is on the meal offering, and he shall burn it on the altar for a satisfying fragrance as its memorial portion to Jehovah.

16 And what is left of it Aaron and his sons may eat; it shall be eaten without leaven in a holy place; in the court of the Tent of Meeting they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of My offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and like the trespass offering.

18 Every male among the children of Aaron shall eat of it; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations from Jehovah's offerings by fire; whoever touches them shall be holy.

19 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall present to Jehovah in the day when he is anointed: the tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a continual meal offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

21 On a flat plate it shall be prepared with oil; when it is mixed, you shall bring it; as a meal offering of baked pieces you shall present it as a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

22 And the priest anointed to be in his place from among his sons shall prepare it. It shall be a perpetual statute; it shall be wholly burned to Jehovah.

23 And every meal offering of the priest shall be wholly burned; it must not be eaten.

H. The Law of the Sin Offering 6:24-30

24 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

25 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered the sin offering shall be slaughtered before Jehovah; it is most holy.

26 The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten, in the court of the Tent of Meeting.

27 Whatever touches its flesh shall be holy. And when any of its blood splashes on a garment, you shall wash whatever was splashed in a holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured and rinsed in water.

29 Every male among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.

30 And any sin offering of which some of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make expiation in the Holy Place shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.

CHAPTER 7

I. The Law of the Trespass Offering 7:1-10

1 And this is the law of the trespass offering; it is most holy;

2 In the place where they slaughter the burnt offering they shall slaughter the trespass offering, and its blood he shall sprinkle on and around the altar.

3 And he shall present from it all its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the inward parts,

4 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage upon the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

5 And the priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering by fire to Jehovah; it is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests may eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

7 The trespass offering is like the sin offering; there is one law for them: The priest who makes expiation with it shall have it.

8 And the priest who presents anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has presented.

9 And every meal offering that is baked in an oven and everything that is made in a pot or on a flat plate shall belong to the priest who presents it.

10 And every other meal offering, mingled with oil or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron, to each alike.

J. The Law of the Peace Offering 7:11-38

11 Now this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one shall present to Jehovah:

12 If he presents it for a thanksgiving, then he shall present with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil and unleavened wafers anointed with oil and saturated cakes of fine flour mingled with oil.

13 With cakes of leavened bread he shall present his offering with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving.

14 And from it he shall present one out of each offering as a heave offering to Jehovah; it shall belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he presents his sacrifice, and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten,

17 But what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten at all on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither will it be reckoned to the one who presents it; it will be an abomination, and the person who eats of it shall bear his own iniquity.

19 And flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. And as for other flesh, anyone who is clean may eat such flesh.

20 But the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to Jehovah, with his uncleanness upon him, that person shall be cut off from his people.

21 And when anyone touches any unclean thing, the uncleanness of man or an unclean beast or any unclean abomination, and eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to Jehovah, that person shall be cut off from his people.

22 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18¹ Lit., soul. So throughout this chapter.

23 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, You shall not eat any fat of an ox or of a sheep or of a goat.

24 And the fat of an animal that dies and the fat of an animal which is torn by beasts may be put to any other use, but you shall by no means eat it.

25 For whoever eats the fat of a beast, from which someone presents an offering by fire to Jehovah, then the person who eats it shall be cut off from his people.

26 And you shall not eat any blood, either of bird or of beast, in any of your dwelling places.

27 Any person who eats any blood, that person shall be cut off from his people.

28 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

29 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, He who presents the sacrifice of his peace offerings to Jehovah shall bring his offering to Jehovah out of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

30 His own hands shall bring Jehovah's offerings by fire; the fat with the breast he shall bring, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before Jehovah.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar; but the breast shall be for Aaron and for his sons.

32 And the right thigh you shall give to the priest for a heave offering out of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 The one among the sons of Aaron who presents the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh as his portion.

34 For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering I have taken from the children of Israel out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons for a perpetual statute to be observed by the children of Israel.

35 This is the anointing portion of Aaron and the anointing portion of his sons, from

Jehovah's offerings by fire, in the day when he presented them to serve Jehovah as priests, 36 Which Jehovah commanded to be given them from the children of Israel in the day that He anointed them. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering and of the meal offering and of the sin offering and of the trespass offering and of the filling of hands and of the sacrifice of peace offerings, 38 Which Jehovah commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day that He commanded the children of Israel to present their offerings to Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER 8

II. Ordinances concerning Service 8:1 — 10:20

A. The Consecration of Aaron and His Sons 8:1-36

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing oil and the bull of the sin offering and the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather all the assembly at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

4 And Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him, and the assembly was gathered at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

5 And Moses said to the assembly, This is what Jehovah has commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons near and washed them with water.

7 And he put the tunic upon him and girded him with the girding sash and clothed him with the cloak and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and with it he bound it to him.

8 And he placed the breastplate upon him, and in the breastplate he put the Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he placed the turban on his head; and on the turban, on its front, he placed the golden plate, the holy crown; just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the laver and its base, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons near, and clothed them with tunics and girded them with girding sashes and bound high hats on them, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.

15 And he slaughtered it; and Moses took the blood and put some of it on and around the horns of the altar with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar and sanctified it, to make expiation for it.

16 And he took all the fat that was on the inward parts and the appendage of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.

17 But the bull and its skin and its flesh and its dung he burned with fire outside the camp, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

18 And he presented the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

19 And he slaughtered it, and Moses sprinkled the blood on and around the altar.

20 And he cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses burned the head and the pieces and the fat.

21 And the inward parts and the legs he washed with water, and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a satisfying fragrance; it was an offering by fire to Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 And he presented the other ram, the ram of the filling of hands, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

23 And he slaughtered it, and Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons near, and Moses put some of the blood on the lobe of their right ear and on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood on and around the altar.

25 And he took the fat and the fat tail and all the fat that was on the inward parts, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh;

26 And from the basket of unleavened bread that was before Jehovah, he took one unleavened cake and one cake of oiled bread and one wafer, and placed them on the fat portions and on the right thigh.

27 And he put all these in the palms of Aaron and in the palms of his sons, and he waved them as a wave offering before Jehovah.

28 And Moses took them from their palms and burned them on the altar upon the burnt offering. They were an offering of the filling of hands for a satisfying fragrance; it was an offering by fire to Jehovah.

29 And Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before Jehovah; it was Moses' portion of the ram of the filling of hands, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons and on his sons' garments with him; and he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

31 And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of the filling of hands, just as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And what is left of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire.

33 And you shall not go out from the entrance of the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your filling of hands is fulfilled, for it will take seven days to fill your hands.

34 As has been done this day, so Jehovah has commanded to do, to make expiation for you.

35 And at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting you shall stay day and night seven days, and keep the charge of Jehovah, that you may not die; for so I have been commanded.

36 And Aaron and his sons did all the things which Jehovah had commanded through Moses.

CHAPTER 9

B. The Initiation of the Priestly Service of Aaron and His Sons 9:1-21

1 Now on the eighth day Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said to Aaron, Take for yourself a calf of the herd for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and present them before Jehovah.

3 Then to the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, Take a male goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 And an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before Jehovah; and a meal offering mingled with oil; for today Jehovah will appear to you.

5 So they brought what Moses had commanded before the Tent of Meeting, and all the assembly came near and stood before Jehovah.

6 And Moses said, This is what Jehovah has commanded you to do. And the glory of Jehovah shall appear to you.

7 Then Moses said to Aaron, Come near to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make expiation for yourself and for the people; and make the offering of the people and make expiation for them; just as Jehovah has commanded.

8 So Aaron came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him, and he sprinkled it on and around the altar.

13 And they handed the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head; and he burned them on the altar.

14 And he washed the inward parts and the legs and burned them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 Then he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people and slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first.

16 And he presented the burnt offering and offered it according to the ordinance.

17 Then he presented the meal offering and filled his hand with some of it and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

18 Then he slaughtered the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him, which he sprinkled on and around the altar.

19 And the fat portions of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail, and the fat which covers the inward parts and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver—

20 These fat portions they then put on the breasts; and he burned the fat portions on the altar.

21 And the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before Jehovah, just as Moses had commanded.

C. The Issue of the Priestly Service 9:22-24

22 And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and he came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting. And they came out and blessed the people; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to all the people.

24 Then fire came forth from before Jehovah and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they gave a ringing shout and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

D. The Lesson and Regulations for the Priests 10:1-20

1. The Lesson of Nadab and Abihu 10:1-11

1 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer, and put fire in them and laid incense on it, and they presented strange fire before Jehovah, which He had not commanded them.

2 And fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed them, and they died before Jehovah.

3 Then Moses said to Aaron, This is what Jehovah spoke, saying,

In those who come near to Me I will be sanctified,
And before all the people I will be glorified.

And Aaron was silent.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, Come near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary to the outside of the camp.

5 So they came near and carried them in their tunics to the outside of the camp, just as Moses had said.

6 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, Do not dishevel the hair of your heads, and do not tear your garments, that you may not die and that He may not be angry with all the assembly. But let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, weep for the burning which Jehovah has kindled.

7 And you shall not go out from the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of Jehovah is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 Then Jehovah spoke to Aaron, saying,

9 Drink no wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the Tent of Meeting, that you may not die; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations,

10 Both to make a distinction between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;

11 And to teach the children of Israel all the statutes which Jehovah has spoken to them through Moses.

2. Regulations for the Priests 10:12-20

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons who were left, Take the meal offering which remains of Jehovah's offerings by fire, and eat it unleavened beside the altar; for it is most holy.

13 And you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due of Jehovah's offerings by fire; for so I have been commanded.

14 And the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering you shall eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your due and your sons' due out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The thigh of the heave offering and the breast of the wave offering they shall bring with the offerings by fire of the fat portions to wave as a wave offering before Jehovah, and it shall become a perpetual statute for you and for your sons with you, just as Jehovah has commanded.

16 Then Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering, but it had already been burned. So he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar the sons of Aaron who were left, saying,

17 Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary? For it is most holy, and He gave it to you to bear the iniquity of the assembly, to make expiation for them before Jehovah.

18 Now its blood was not brought inside, into the sanctuary; you should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, just as I commanded.

19 But Aaron spoke to Moses, See, today they have presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah, and such things as these have befallen me! And if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of Jehovah?

20 And when Moses heard that, it seemed good in his sight.

CHAPTER 11

III. Ordinances concerning Living 11:1 — 22:33

A. Discernment in Diet and Abstaining from Death 11:1-47

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, These are the animals which you may eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatever ¹has a divided hoof, that is, has its hoof split in two, and chews the cud among the beasts, that you may eat.

4 However these you shall not eat: of those that only chew the cud or of those that only have a divided hoof: the camel, for though it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

5 And the hyrax, for though it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

6 And the hare, for though it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof; it is unclean to you.

7 And the pig, for though it has a divided hoof, that is, it has its hoof split in 3¹ Lit., divides the hoof.

two, it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you.

8 You shall not eat of their flesh, nor shall you touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the water: anything in the water that has fins and scales, in the seas or in the rivers; these you may eat.

10 But anything that does not have fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, of anything that swarms in the waters and of any living animal which is in the waters, they are an abomination to you,

11 And they shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat of their flesh, and their carcasses you shall regard as an abomination.

12 Anything in the water that does not have fins or scales is an abomination to you.

13 And these you shall regard as an abomination among the birds; they shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the great vulture and the bearded vulture and the black vulture

14 And the kite and the falcon of every kind,

15 Every raven of every kind,

16 And the ostrich and the nighthawk and the sea gull and the hawk of every kind,

17 And the little owl and the cormorant and the great owl

18 And the screech owl and the pelican and the carrion vulture

19 And the stork; the heron of every kind and the hoopoe and the bat;

20 All ¹flying insects that go on all fours are an abomination to you.

21 Yet these you may eat of all flying insects that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth;

22 These of them you may eat: the swarming locust of every kind and the swallowing locust of every kind and the cricket of every kind and the grasshopper of every kind.

23 But all the other flying insects which have four feet are an abomination to you.

24 And by these you shall become unclean; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening, 25 And whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

26 For every beast which has a divided hoof but does not have its hoof split in two or chew the cud is unclean to you; everyone who touches them shall be unclean.

27 And whatever goes on its paws, among all beasts that go on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening.

28 And the one who carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

29 And these are unclean to you among the ¹swarming things that swarm on the earth: the weasel and the mouse and the great lizard of every kind,

30 And the gecko and the land crocodile and the lizard and the sand lizard and the chameleon.

31 These are unclean to you among all the swarming things; whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

32 And anything on which one of them may fall when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is any article of wood or clothing or skin or sackcloth; any article which is used for any work must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean.

33 And any earthen vessel into which 20¹ Lit., winged swarming things. So also in vv. 21 and 23. 29¹ Or, crawling things that crawl. So also in vv. 41-43.

any of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean, and the vessel you shall break.

34 Any food that could be eaten shall be unclean if water from such a vessel comes upon it, and any liquid that may be drunk shall be unclean if it was in any such vessel.

35 And everything on which part of their carcass falls shall be unclean—an oven or a stove shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean and shall continue to be unclean to you.

36 Nevertheless a spring or a cistern collecting water shall be clean, but whatever touches their carcass shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing, which is to be sown, it is clean.

38 But if water is put on the seed, and any part of their carcass fall on it, it is unclean to you.

39 And if any beast which you have for food dies, the one who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening.

40 And he who eats some of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; the one who carries its carcass shall also wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

41 Now every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatever goes on its stomach and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, even all the swarming things that swarm on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are an abomination.

43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any swarming thing that swarms, nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, and so become defiled by them.

44 For I am Jehovah your God. Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. And you shall not defile yourselves with any of the swarming things that move upon the earth.

45 For I am Jehovah, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God; you shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beast and of the bird, and of every living animal that moves in the waters, and of every creature that swarms upon the earth;

47 To make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.

CHAPTER 12

B. Uncleaness in Human Birth 12:1-8

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a woman conceives seed and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.

3 And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall remain in the blood of her purifying thirty-three days; she shall not touch any sanctified thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are fulfilled.

5 But if she bears a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her impurity; and she shall remain in the blood of her purifying sixty-six days.

6 And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a year old lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove for a sin offering to the priest to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

7 And he shall present it before Jehovah and make expiation for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law for her who bears a child, whether male or female.

8 And if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtle doves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. And the priest shall make expiation for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER 13

C. Uncleaness Issuing from within Man (Leprosy) 13:1-59

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 When a man has a swelling or an eruption or a bright spot on the skin of his body, and it becomes an infection of leprosy on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

3 And the priest shall look at the infection in the skin of the body; and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the appearance of the infection is deeper than the skin of his body, it is the infection of leprosy. When the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him unclean.

4 And if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the infection seven days.

5 And the priest shall look at him on the seventh day; and if in his eyes the infection remains, and the infection has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall isolate him seven more days.

6 And the priest shall look at him again on the seventh day; and if the infection has faded, and the infection has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

7 But if the scab spreads further on the skin after he has showed himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself again to the priest.

8 And the priest shall look; and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean, it is leprosy.

9 When the infection of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest;

10 And the priest shall look; and if there is a white swelling in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is living raw flesh in the swelling,

11 It is a chronic leprosy on the skin of his body; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

12 And if the leprosy breaks out further on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the infection, from his head even to his feet, as far as the priest can see,

13 Then the priest shall look; and if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him who has the infection clean. It has all turned white; he is clean.

14 But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall look at the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; it is leprosy.

16 But if the raw flesh again turns white, then he shall come to the priest.

17 And the priest shall look at him; and if the infection has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him who has the infection clean; he is clean.

18 And when the body has a boil on its skin, and it has healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white bright spot, then it shall be shown to the priest.

² Lit., flesh. So throughout this chapter.

20 And the priest shall look; and if its appearance is below the surface of the skin, and the hair on it has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the infection of leprosy; it has broken out in the boil.

21 But if the priest looks at it, and if there is no white hair in it, and it is not below the surface of the skin, but it has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days.

22 And if it spreads further in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection.

23 But if the bright spot remains in its place and does not spread, it is only the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or when the flesh has on its skin a burn by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white or white,

25 Then the priest shall look at it; and if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and its appearance is deeper than the skin, it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the infection of leprosy.

26 But if the priest looks at it, and if there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is not below the surface of the skin, but it has faded, then the priest shall isolate him seven days.

27 And the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. If it spreads further in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the infection of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot remains in its place, and it has not spread in the skin, but it has faded, it is the swelling from the burn; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is only the scar of the burning.

29 And if a man or woman has an infection on the head or on the beard, 30 Then the priest shall look at the infection; and if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and there is in it thin yellowish hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scale; it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the priest looks at the infection of the scale, and if its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the one who has the infection of the scale seven days.

32 And on the seventh day the priest shall look at the infection; and if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellowish hair in it, and the appearance of the scale is not deeper than the skin,

33 Then he shall be shaved, but the scale he shall not shave. And the priest shall isolate the one who has the scale seven days more.

34 And on the seventh day the priest shall look at the scale; and if the scale has not spread in the skin, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

35 But if the scale spreads further in the skin after his cleansing, 36 Then the priest shall look at him; and if the scale has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellowish hair; he is unclean.

37 But if in his eyes the scale has remained, and black hair has grown up in it, the scale is healed; he is clean. And the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 And when a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of their body, white bright spots, 39 Then the priest shall look; and if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

40 And if a man loses the hair of his head, he is bald; he is clean.

41 And if he loses hair from his forehead and his temples, he is bald on the forehead; he is clean.

42 But if on the bald head or the bald forehead there is a reddish white infection, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or on his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look at him; and if the swelling of the infection is reddish white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the body, 44 He is a leprous man; he is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his infection is on his head.

45 And as for the leper in whom the infection is, his clothes shall be torn, and the hair of his head shall be let loose, and he shall cover his upper lip and cry, Unclean, unclean!

46 He shall be unclean all the days during which the infection is in him; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

47 The garment also that the infection of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it is in warp or wool, of linen or of wool, whether in a skin or in anything made of skin, 49 If the infection is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warp or in the wool, or in anything of skin, it is the infection of leprosy and shall be shown to the priest.

50 And the priest shall look at the infection and isolate the article which has the infection for seven days.

51 Then he shall look at the infection on the seventh day. If the infection has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the wool, or in the skin, whatever the purpose the skin is used for, the infection is a malignant leprosy; it is unclean.

52 And he shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the wool, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin in which the infection occurs, for it is a malignant leprosy; it shall be burned in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and if the infection has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the wool, or in anything of skin,

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the infection is; and he shall isolate it for seven more days.

55 And after the article with the infection has been washed, the priest shall look at it, and if the infection has not changed its appearance, even though the infection has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it in the fire; it is a leprous decay, whether the bareness is on the inside or on the outside.

56 And if the priest looks, and if the infection has faded after it was washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment or out of the skin, whether from the warp or from the wool.

57 But if it appears again in the garment, whether in the warp or in the wool, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn the article that the infection is in, in the fire.

58 And the garment, whether the warp or the wool, or any article of skin, which you shall wash, if the infection has departed from them, shall be washed a second time and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the infection of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or in the wool, or anything of skin, for pronouncing it clean or for pronouncing it unclean.

CHAPTER 14

D. The Cleansing of the Leper 14:1-32

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper on the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the priest,

3 And the priest shall go forth outside the camp. Then the priest shall look, and if the infection of leprosy has been healed in the leper,

4 Then the priest shall command that two living clean birds and cedar wood and scarlet strands and hyssop be taken for the one who is to be cleansed.

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered in an earthen vessel over ¹running water.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it and the cedar wood and the scarlet strands and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the running water.

7 And he shall sprinkle it on the one who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times and shall pronounce him clean. Then he shall let the living bird go into the open field.

8 And the one who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and bathe in water, and he shall be clean. And after that he may come into the camp, but he shall dwell outside his tent seven days.

9 And on the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair; he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish and three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering mingled with oil and one log of oil.

11 And the priest who makes him clean shall set the man to be cleansed and those things before Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

12 And the priest shall take one of the male lambs and present it as a trespass offering and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah.

13 Then he shall slaughter the male lamb in the place where they slaughter the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary; for the trespass offering like the sin offering is the priest's; it is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of the priest's left hand, 16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in the palm of his left hand and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Jehovah.

17 And from the rest of the oil that is in the palm of his hand the priest shall put some on the lobe of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed and some on the thumb of his right hand and some on the big toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering.

18 And the rest of the oil that is in the palm of the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one who is to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make expiation for him before Jehovah.

19 And the priest shall offer the sin offering and make expiation for the one who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness, and afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make expiation for him, and he shall be clean.

⁵ Lit., living. So throughout the book.

21 But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a trespass offering to be waved to make expiation for him, and one-tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil,

22 And two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he can afford; and the one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23 And on the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, before Jehovah.

24 Then the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before Jehovah;

25 And he shall slaughter the lamb of the trespass offering. Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

26 And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of the priest's left hand, 27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in the palm of his left hand seven times before Jehovah.

28 And the priest shall put some of the oil that is in the palm of his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering.

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the palm of the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one who is to be cleansed, to make expiation for him before Jehovah.

30 And he shall offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he can afford, 31 Even such as he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering; and the priest shall make expiation for the one who is to be cleansed before Jehovah.

32 This is the law for the one in whom there is the infection of leprosy, who cannot afford what is prescribed for his cleansing.

E. The Leprosy in a House 14:33-57

33 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

34 When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put the infection of leprosy in a house in the land of your possession, 35 Then he to whom the house belongs shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seems to me that there is something like an infection in the house.

36 And the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes in to look at the infection, so that everything which is in the house does not become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to look at the house.

37 And he shall look at the infection; and if the infection is on the walls of the house with greenish or reddish depressions, and its appearance is deeper than the surface of the wall, 38 Then the priest shall come out of the house to the entrance of the house and shut up the house seven days.

39 And the priest shall return on the seventh day and inspect it. And if the infection has spread in the walls of the house, 40 Then the priest shall command that they take out the stones on which the infection is and throw them away outside the city into an unclean place.

41 And he shall have the house scraped inside all around, and they shall dump the plaster that they scrape off outside the city into an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other plaster and replaster the house.

43 And if the infection returns and breaks out in the house after he has taken out the stones and after he has scraped the house and after it has been replastered, 44 Then the priest shall come in and look; and if the infection has spread in the house, it is a malignant leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, its stones and its timber and all the plaster of the house, and he shall bring them outside the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, whoever goes into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening.

47 And whoever lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 But if on the other hand the priest comes in and looks, and if the infection has not spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the infection has been healed.

49 And he shall take two birds and cedar wood and scarlet strands and hyssop to purify the house, 50 And he shall slaughter one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.

51 And he shall take the cedar wood and the hyssop and the scarlet strands and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52 And he shall purify the house with the blood of the bird and with the running water and with the living bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the scarlet strands.

53 And he shall let the living bird go, outside the city into the open field. So he shall make expiation for the house, and it shall be clean.

54 This is the law for any kind of infection of leprosy and for a scale

55 And for the leprosy of a garment and for a house

56 And for a swelling and for an eruption and for a bright spot, 57 To teach when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.

CHAPTER 15

F. The Cleansing of the Discharges from the Body 15:1-33

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness of his discharge: Whether ¹there is a discharge from his body, or the discharge is blocked in his body, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed on which he who has the discharge lies shall be unclean, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.

5 And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

6 And whoever sits on anything on which he who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

7 And whoever touches the flesh of the one who has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

8 And if the one who has the discharge spits on someone who is clean, then he 3¹ Lit., his body runs with his discharge, or his body is stopped from his discharge.

who has been spat on shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

9 And every saddle on which the one who has the discharge rides shall be unclean.

10 And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening, and whoever carries those things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

11 And whomever the one who has the discharge touches without having rinsed his hands in water shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

12 And the earthen vessel that the one who has the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when one who has the discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count seven days for himself for his cleansing; then he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water, and he shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and come before Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

15 And the priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make expiation for him before Jehovah for his discharge.

16 And if any man's seed of copulation goes out from him, then he shall bathe his entire body in water and be unclean until the evening.

17 And any garment and any article made of skin on which the seed of copulation comes shall be washed with water and be unclean until the evening.

18 If there is a woman with whom a man lies and there is a discharge of seed of copulation, both of them shall bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

19 And if a woman has a discharge, and her discharge in her body is blood, she shall be in her impurity seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

20 And everything that she lies on in her impurity shall be unclean; everything also that she sits on shall be unclean.

21 And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

22 And whoever touches anything that she sits on shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

23 And if it is on the bed or on anything on which she sits, when anyone touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

24 And if any man actually lies with her and her impurity comes on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

25 And if a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days not at the time of her impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, during all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness she shall be as if in the days of her impurity; she is unclean.

26 Any bed on which she lies during all the days of her discharge shall be to her like the bed of her impurity; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity.

27 And whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

28 But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count seven days for herself; and afterward she shall be clean.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

30 And the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and the priest shall make expiation for her before Jehovah for the discharge of her uncleanness.

31 Thus you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness by their defiling My tabernacle that is in the midst of them.

32 This is the law for the one who has a discharge and for the one whose seed of copulation goes out from him and becomes unclean by it, 33 And for the one who is sick with her impurity, and for anyone who has a discharge, male or female, and for a man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

CHAPTER 16

G. The Expiation 16:1-34

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before Jehovah and died.

2 And Jehovah said to Moses, Tell Aaron your brother that he shall not enter at just any time into the Holy of Holies inside the veil before the expiation cover, which is upon the Ark, lest he die; for I will appear in the cloud over the expiation cover.

3 In this way Aaron shall come into the Holy of Holies: with a bull of the herd for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and linen trousers shall be upon his body, and he shall gird himself with the linen girdle and be attired with the linen turban; these are the holy garments. And he shall bathe his flesh in water and put them on.

5 And he shall take from the assembly of the children of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall present the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make expiation for himself and for his household.

7 And he shall take the two goats and set them before Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots on the two goats: one lot for Jehovah and the other lot for Azazel.

9 And Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot for Jehovah fell, and offer it as a sin offering.

10 But the goat on which the lot for Azazel fell shall be made to stand alive before Jehovah to make expiation over it, that it may be sent away ¹for Azazel into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall present the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make expiation for himself and for his household, and shall slaughter the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before Jehovah, with his hands full of finely ground sweet incense, and bring it inside the veil.

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before Jehovah, that the cloud of the incense may cover the expiation cover that is over the Testimony, so that he does not die.

14 And he shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger upon the expiation cover toward the east, and before the expiation cover he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 Then he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of 10¹ Or, to. So also in v. 26.

the bull, and sprinkle it upon the expiation cover and before the expiation cover.

16 And he shall make expiation for the Holy of Holies because of the uncleannesses of the children of Israel and because of their transgressions, for all their sins. And so he shall do for the Tent of Meeting, which dwells with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

17 And no one shall be in the Tent of Meeting when he goes in to make expiation in the Holy of Holies until he comes out and has made expiation for himself and for his household and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 Then he shall go out to the altar that is before Jehovah and make expiation for it, and he shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on and around the horns of the altar.

19 And he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times; thus he will cleanse it and sanctify it from the uncleannesses of the children of Israel.

20 And when he has finished making expiation for the Holy of Holies and the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat.

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness by means of the man who has been appointed.

22 Thus the goat shall bear away all their iniquities on itself to a solitary land, and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the Holy of Holies, and leave them there.

24 And he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and put on his garments. Then he shall come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make expiation for himself and for the people.

25 And the fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.

26 And he who lets the goat go for Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

27 And the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make expiation in the Holy of Holies, shall be carried forth outside the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins and their flesh and their dung.

28 And he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.

29 And this shall become a perpetual statute for you; in the seventh month on the tenth day of the month you shall afflict your souls and not do any work, neither the native nor the sojourner who sojourns among you.

30 For on this day expiation shall be made for you, in order to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before Jehovah.

31 It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you shall afflict your souls. It shall be a perpetual statute.

32 And the priest who is anointed and whose hands are filled to serve as a priest in his father's place shall make expiation; thus he shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments.

33 And he shall make expiation for the ¹holy sanctuary, and he shall make expiation for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar, and he shall make expiation for the priests and for all the people of the congregation.

33' Or, the sanctuary of the Holy of Holies.

34 And this shall become a perpetual statute for you, in order to make expiation for the children of Israel because of all their sins, once in the year. And just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so he did.

CHAPTER 17

H. Taking Care of the Sacrifices and of the Blood 17:1-16

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, This is what Jehovah has commanded, saying,

3 Anyone of the house of Israel who slaughters an ox or a sheep or a goat within the camp, or who slaughters it outside the camp,

4 And has not brought it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to present it as an offering to Jehovah before the tabernacle of Jehovah, that man shall be accounted as guilty of bloodshed. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 This is so that the children of Israel will bring their sacrifices which they sacrifice in the open field, that they will bring them to Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to the priest and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace offerings to Jehovah.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

7 And they shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat demons, to whom they prostitute themselves. This shall become a perpetual statute for them throughout their generations.

8 And you shall say to them, Anyone of the house of Israel or of the sojourners who sojourn among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

9 And does not bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to Jehovah, that man shall be cut off from his people.

10 And anyone of the house of Israel or of the sojourners who sojourn among them, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood and cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you to make expiation for your souls on the altar, for it is the blood, by reason of the life, that makes expiation.

12 Therefore I said to the children of Israel, No person among you shall eat blood, nor shall any sojourner who sojourns among you eat blood.

13 And anyone of the children of Israel or of the sojourners who sojourn among them, who in hunting takes an animal or bird that may be eaten, shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust.

14 For as to the life of all flesh, its blood is ¹⁴its very life; therefore I have said to the children of Israel, You shall not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.

15 And every person who eats that which dies of itself or is torn by beasts, whether he is a native or a sojourner, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean.

16 But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then he shall bear his iniquity.

¹⁴ Lit., with its life.

CHAPTER 18

I. The Holy Living of the Holy People
18:1—20:27

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, I am Jehovah your God.

3 You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, in which you dwelt; and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, nor shall you walk in their statutes.

4 You shall observe My ordinances, and you shall keep My statutes to walk in them; I am Jehovah your God.

5 So you shall keep My statutes and My ordinances, by which, if a man does them, he will live; I am Jehovah.

6 None of you shall approach to any of his close relatives to uncover their nakedness; I am Jehovah.

7 The nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother, you shall not uncover. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of your father's wife you shall not uncover; it is your father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter, or your mother's daughter, whether born at home or born abroad, their nakedness you shall not uncover.

10 The nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter, their nakedness you shall not uncover; for their nakedness is your own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten of your father—she is your sister—you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's flesh.

13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, for she is your mother's flesh.

14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother, that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.

15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness.

17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter; you shall not take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are her flesh; it is wickedness.

18 And you shall not take a woman as wife in addition to her sister, as a rival to uncover her nakedness while she is alive.

19 And you shall not approach to a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in her menstrual uncleanness.

20 And you shall not have sexual relations with the wife of your fellow countryman to become defiled with her.

21 And you shall not give any of your offspring to pass through the fire to Molech, and so profane the name of your God; I am Jehovah.

22 You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is an abomination.

23 And you shall not lie with any beast to defile yourself with it; neither shall any woman stand before a beast, to lie down with it; it is confusion.

24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these things, for by all these the nations which I am casting out before you have defiled themselves.

25 Because the land has become defiled, I visited its iniquity upon it, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

26 You therefore shall keep My statutes and My ordinances, and shall not do any of 6¹ Lit., flesh of his flesh. 21¹ Lit., seed. 25¹ Or, punished it for its iniquity.

these abominations, neither the native nor the sojourner who sojourns among you

27 (For the men of the land who were before you have done all these abominations, and the land has become defiled);

28 That the land does not vomit you out when you defile it, as it vomited out the nation which was before you.

29 For all who do any of these abominations, those persons who do them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore you shall keep My charge, so that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and you do not defile yourselves by them; I am Jehovah your God.

CHAPTER 19

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to all the assembly of the children of Israel, and say to them, You shall be holy, for I, Jehovah your God, am holy.

3 Each one of you shall fear his mother and his father, and you shall keep My Sabbaths; I am Jehovah your God.

4 Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves molten gods; I am Jehovah your God.

5 And when you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.

6 It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it, or on the next day, but what remains until the third day shall be burned with fire.

7 But if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination; it will not be accepted.

8 And whoever eats it will bear his own iniquity, because he has profaned what is holy to Jehovah; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest.

10 And you shall not glean your vineyard nor shall you gather the fallen fruit of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner; I am Jehovah your God.

11 You shall not steal; neither shall you deceive nor deal falsely with one another.

12 And you shall not swear falsely by My name, thus profaning the name of your God; I am Jehovah.

13 You shall not oppress your neighbor nor rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning.

14 You shall not curse the deaf nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God; I am Jehovah.

15 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; you shall not respect the person of the poor nor honor the person of the great, but in righteousness you shall judge your fellow countryman.

16 You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, nor shall you ¹profit by the blood of your neighbor; I am Jehovah.

17 You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you shall surely reprove your fellow countryman, so that you do not bring sin upon yourself because of him.

18 You shall not take vengeance nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am Jehovah.

19 You shall keep My statutes. You shall not let your cattle breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed, nor shall a garment made of two kinds of material come upon you.

20 And if a man lies down and has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave designated for another man, but not at all redeemed nor given her freedom, there shall be an inquiry; they shall not be put to death, because she was not freed.

16¹ Lit., stand against the blood.

21 And he shall bring his trespass offering to Jehovah, to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, a ram for a trespass offering.

22 And the priest shall make expiation for him before Jehovah with the ram of the trespass offering for his sin which he has committed; and the sin which he has committed will be forgiven him.

23 And when you come into the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as 'unharvestable. Three years it shall be 'unharvestable to you; it shall not be eaten.

24 But in the fourth year all their fruit shall be holy, for giving praise to Jehovah.

25 And in the fifth year you may eat of their fruit, that their produce may increase for you; I am Jehovah your God.

26 You shall not eat anything with blood, nor shall you practice divination or soothsaying.

27 You shall not round the corners of your heads, nor shall you mar the edges of your beard.

28 You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor inscribe any marks upon you; I am Jehovah.

29 Do not profane your daughter by making her a harlot, so that the land does not fall to harlotry, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 You shall keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am Jehovah.

31 Do not turn to mediums or to spiritists; do not seek after them to be defiled by them; I am Jehovah your God.

32 You shall rise up before the gray-headed and honor the face of the old man. And you shall fear your God; I am Jehovah.

33 And if a sojourner sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

34 The sojourner who sojourns with you shall be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

35 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, of weight, or of quantity.

36 You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin; I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 And you shall observe all My statutes and all My ordinances, and do them; I am Jehovah.

CHAPTER 20

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Moreover you shall say to the children of Israel, Anyone of the children of Israel or of the sojourners who sojourn in Israel who gives any of his 'offspring to Molech shall surely be put to death; the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 I will also set My face against that man and will cut him off from among his people because he has given one of his offspring to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary and profane My holy name.

4 And if the people of the land ever hide their eyes from that man when he gives some of his offspring to Molech, and do not put him to death,

5 Then I will set My face against that man and against his family, and I will cut off from among their people him and all who prostitute themselves after him, to prostitute themselves after Molech.

6 And the person who turns to mediums and to spiritists to prostitute himself 23¹ Lit., their uncircumcision... uncircumcisions. 2¹ Lit., seed. So also in vv. 3 and 4.

after them, I will even set My face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.

7 Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am Jehovah your God.

8 And you shall keep My statutes and do them; I am Jehovah who sanctifies you.

9 If there is anyone who curses his father or his mother, he shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother; his blood is upon him.

10 If there is a man who commits adultery with another man's wife, even one who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 If there is a man who lies with his father's wife, he has uncovered his father's nakedness. Both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12 If there is a man who lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have brought about confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 If there is a man who lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.

14 If there is a man who takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burnt with fire, both he and they, that there be no wickedness among you.

15 If there is a man who lies with a beast, he shall surely be put to death; and you shall slaughter the beast.

16 If there is a woman who approaches any beast to lie down with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast. They shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 If there is a man who takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and he sees her nakedness and she see his nakedness, it is a reproach, and they shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 If there is a man who lies with a woman having her sickness, and he uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood; and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister nor of your father's sister, for he has made naked his flesh; they shall bear their iniquity.

20 If there is a man who lies with his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 If there is a man who takes his brother's wife, it is impurity. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My ordinances, and do them, so that the land into which I am bringing you to dwell in does not vomit you out.

23 And you shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am about to send away before you. Because they did all these things, so I abhorred them.

24 But I have said to you, You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Jehovah your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

25 You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean beast and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean, and you shall not make your souls abominable by any beast or by any bird or by anything that creeps on the ground, which I have separated for you as unclean.

26 And you shall be holy to Me, because 6¹ Lit., soul.

I Jehovah am holy, and I have set you apart from the peoples to be Mine.

27 If there is a man or a woman who is a medium or a spiritist, they shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them with stones; their blood shall be upon them.

CHAPTER 21

J. The Holy Living for the Priesthood 21:1-15

1 And Jehovah said to Moses, Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, No one shall defile himself for a dead person among his people,

2 Except for his flesh who is near to him, for his mother and for his father and for his son and for his daughter and for his brother

3 And for his virgin sister, who is near to him, who has had no husband; for her he may defile himself.

4 He shall not defile himself, as a leader among his people, so as to profane himself.

5 They shall not make any baldness on their head or shave off the edges of their beard or make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy to their God, and they shall not profane the name of their God, for they present Jehovah's offerings by fire, the ¹food of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take a woman who is a harlot or profaned, nor shall they take a woman put away from her husband; for the ¹priest is holy to his God.

8 You shall sanctify him therefore, for he presents the food of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I Jehovah, who sanctifies you, am holy.

9 And the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself through prostitution, she profanes her father; she shall be burnt with fire.

10 And he who is the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has filled his hands to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of his head go loose nor tear his clothes.

11 Neither shall he approach any dead person nor defile himself even for his father or for his mother.

12 Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary nor profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him; I am Jehovah.

13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow or a divorced woman or a profaned woman, a harlot, these he shall not take; but rather a virgin of his own people he shall take as wife.

15 And he shall not profane his seed among his people, for I am Jehovah who sanctifies him.

K. Disqualifications from the Priesthood 21:16-24

16 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

17 Speak to Aaron, saying, No one of your seed throughout their generations who has a defect shall approach to present the food of his God.

18 For no one who has a defect shall approach: one who is blind or lame or with a disfigured nose or with an extended limb,

19 Or one who has a broken foot or a broken hand,

20 Or a hunchback or a dwarf, or one who has a defect in his eye or eczema or scale or crushed testicles.

21 No one of the seed of Aaron the priest who has a defect shall come near to present Jehovah's offerings by fire. He has a defect; he shall not come near to present the food of his God.

4¹ Or, husband. 6¹ Lit., bread. So throughout this chapter. 7¹ Lit., he.

22 He may eat the food of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy,

23 But he shall not go in unto the veil or come near to the altar, because he has a defect, so that he does not profane My holy places; for I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.

24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel.

L. Holiness in Enjoying the Holy Things 22:1-16

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Tell Aaron and his sons to ¹be careful with the holy things of the children of Israel, which they sanctify to Me, so that they do not profane My holy name; I am Jehovah.

3 Say to them, If anyone among all your seed throughout your generations who approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel sanctify to Jehovah, and his uncleanness is upon him, that ¹person shall be cut off from before Me; I am Jehovah.

4 No one of the seed of Aaron who is a leper or who has a discharge may eat of the holy things until he is clean. And whoever touches anything that is unclean because of contact with a ¹dead person, or a man whose seed of copulation has gone from him,

5 Or whoever touches any creeping thing by which he may be made unclean, or a man by whom he may be made unclean, whatever his uncleanness,

6 The person who touches any such thing shall be unclean until the evening and shall not eat of the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water.

7 And when the sun sets, he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because it is his ¹food.

8 He shall not eat an animal which has died or is torn by beasts to become unclean by it; I am Jehovah.

9 They shall therefore keep My charge, so that they do not bring sin upon themselves because of it and die by it because they profane it; I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.

10 No stranger may eat any holy thing; a sojourner with a priest or a hired servant shall not eat any holy thing.

11 But if a priest acquires anyone through a purchase with his money, that one may eat of it; and those who are born in his house may eat of his food.

12 And if a priest's daughter is married to a stranger, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things.

13 But if a priest's daughter becomes a widow or divorced and has no child, and she returns to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; but no stranger may eat of it.

14 And if a man eats the holy thing in ignorance, then he shall add one-fifth of its value to it and shall give the holy thing to the priest.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel that they offer to Jehovah, 16 And so cause them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt when they eat their holy things; for I am Jehovah who sanctifies them.

M. The Acceptable Way to Offer a Vow and a Freewill Offering 22:17-33

17 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18 Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel, and say to 2¹ Lit., separate themselves from. 3¹ Lit., soul. So throughout this chapter. 4¹ Lit., soul (i.e., of someone dead). 7¹ Lit., bread. So throughout this chapter.

them, When anyone of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel who presents his offering, whether it is any of their vows or any of their freewill offerings which they present to Jehovah for a burnt offering;

19 It shall be a male without blemish from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats, for you to be accepted.

20 But whatever has a blemish, you shall not present, for it will not be acceptable for you.

21 And whoever presents a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah to ¹make a special vow or for a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it.

22 You shall not present these to Jehovah: anything blind or injured or maimed or having a suppuration or eczema or scale; nor shall you make an offering by fire from them on the altar to Jehovah.

23 An ox or a lamb that has anything superfluous or lacking in its parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but it shall not be accepted for a vow.

24 And anything with its testicles bruised or crushed or broken or cut, you shall not present to Jehovah; you shall not do this in your land.

25 And from the hand of a foreigner you shall not present the food of your God from any of these, because their corruption is in them. There is a blemish in them; they shall not be accepted for you.

26 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

27 When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days ¹with its mother; and from the eighth day and onward it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering by fire to Jehovah.

28 But whether cow or sheep, you shall not slaughter both it and its young on one day.

29 And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Jehovah, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten; you shall leave none of it until the morning; I am Jehovah.

31 Therefore you shall keep My commandments and do them; I am Jehovah.

32 And you shall not profane My holy name, but I will be sanctified among the children of Israel; I am Jehovah who sanctifies you, 33 Who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Jehovah.

CHAPTER 23

IV. Ordinances concerning Feasts 23:1-44

A. The Weekly Feast—The Sabbath vv. 1-3

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, As to the appointed feasts of Jehovah, which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, these are My appointed feasts.

3 Six days work shall be done, but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work; it is a Sabbath to Jehovah in all your dwelling places.

B. The Annual Feasts vv. 4-44

1. The Feast of Passover vv. 4-5

4 These are the appointed feasts of Jehovah, even the holy convocations, which you shall proclaim at their appointed time:

21¹ Lit., be wonderful to make a vow. So also in 27:2. 27¹ Lit., under.

5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month ¹at twilight, is Jehovah's Passover,

2. The Feast of Unleavened Bread
vv. 6-8

6 And on the fifteenth day of this month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to Jehovah; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

7 On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor.

8 But you shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah seven days. On the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor.

3. The Feast of Firstfruits
vv. 9-14

9 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When you come into the land which I am giving you, and reap its harvest, then you shall bring the sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest;

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before Jehovah for your acceptance; on the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

13 And its meal offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering by fire to Jehovah for a satisfying fragrance. And its drink offering shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin.

14 And you shall eat no bread or parched grain or fresh ears until that same day, until you have brought the offering of your God. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

4. The Feast of Pentecost
vv. 15-22

15 And you shall count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath; from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering there shall be seven complete ¹Sabbaths.

16 You shall count fifty days until the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall present a new meal offering to Jehovah.

17 You shall bring out of your dwelling places two loaves as a wave offering; they shall be of two tenths of an ephah of fine flour, baked with leaven, as firstfruits to Jehovah.

18 And you shall present with the bread seven lambs, a year old without blemish, and one bull of the herd and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to Jehovah with their meal offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

19 And you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering and two male lambs, a year old, for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before Jehovah with the two lambs; they shall be holy to Jehovah for the priest.

21 And you shall make a proclamation on that same day; you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor. It shall be a perpetual statute in all your dwelling places throughout your generations.

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the corners of your field, nor shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner; I am Jehovah your God.

5¹ Lit., between the two evenings. 15¹ Or, weeks.

5. The Feast of the Blowing of Trumpets
vv. 23-25

23 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

24 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a complete rest, a memorial proclaimed by the blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.

25 You shall do no work of labor, but you shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah.

6. The Feast of Expiation
vv. 26-32

26 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

27 And on the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Expiation; you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall afflict your souls and present an offering by fire to Jehovah.

28 And you shall do no work on that same day, because it is a Day of Expiation, to make expiation on your behalf before Jehovah your God.

29 If there is any ¹person who does not afflict himself on that same day, he shall be cut off from his people.

30 And if any person does any work on that same day, I will destroy that person from among his people.

31 You shall do no work. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

32 It shall be to you a Sabbath of complete rest, and you shall afflict your souls; on the ninth day of the month in the evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your Sabbath.

7. The Feast of Tabernacles
vv. 33-44

33 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

34 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to Jehovah.

35 On the first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor.

36 Seven days you shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah. On the eighth day you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah. It is a solemn assembly; you shall do no work of labor.

37 These are the appointed feasts of Jehovah, which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, to present an offering by fire to Jehovah, burnt offerings and meal offerings, sacrifices of peace offerings, and drink offerings, each on its own day, 38 Besides the Sabbaths of Jehovah and besides your gifts and besides all your vows and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to Jehovah.

39 Then on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the feast of Jehovah seven days; on the first day shall be a complete rest, and on the eighth day shall be a complete rest.

40 And on the first day you shall take for yourselves the ¹product of stately trees, branches of palm trees and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God for seven days.

41 And you shall keep it as a feast to Jehovah seven days in the year. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month.

42 You shall dwell in booths seven days—all who are native in Israel shall dwell in booths—

43 So that your ¹descendants may know that I made the children of Israel to 29' Lit., soul. So also in v. 30. 40' Or, fruit. 43' Lit., generations.

dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

44 And Moses declared to the children of Israel the appointed feasts of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 24

V. Other Ordinances and Warnings 24:1 — 27:34

A. The Arrangement of the Lampstand and the Bread of the Presence 24:1-9

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel to bring to you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

3 Outside the veil of the testimony in the Tent of Meeting Aaron shall ¹set it in order from evening to morning before Jehovah continually. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

4 He shall keep the lamps in order on the pure lampstand before Jehovah continually.

5 And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

6 And you shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before Jehovah.

7 And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, so that it may be a memorial for the bread, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

8 Every Sabbath day he shall set it in order before Jehovah continually; it is an everlasting covenant for the children of Israel.

9 And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place, for it is most holy to him of Jehovah's offerings by fire, a perpetual statute.

B. The Death Judgment for Blaspheming the Holy Name 24:10-23

10 Now the son of an Israelite woman, who was also the son of an Egyptian man, went out among the children of Israel; and the son of the Israelite woman and a certain Israelite struggled together in the camp.

11 And the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed, and they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12 And they put him in custody so that it might be declared to them by the mouth of Jehovah.

13 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth the one who has cursed outside the camp; and let all who heard him lay their hands on his head, and let all the assembly stone him.

15 And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, Anyone who curses his God shall bear his sin.

16 And the one who blasphemes the name of Jehovah shall surely be put to death; all the assembly shall surely stone him. The sojourner as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

17 And anyone who ¹takes the life of any human being shall surely be put to death.

18 And the one who ¹takes the life of a beast shall make restitution for it, ²life for life.

19 And anyone who causes a blemish in his fellow countryman, as he has done, so shall it be done to him:

3¹ Or, tend it. So also in v. 4. 17¹ Lit., strikes any soul. 18¹ Lit., strikes the soul of a beast. 18² Lit., soul for soul.

20 A fracture for a fracture, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth; just as he has caused a blemish in a man, so it will be inflicted on him.

21 And one who kills a beast shall make restitution for it, but one who kills a human being shall be put to death.

22 You shall have one judgment for the sojourner as well as for the native, for I am Jehovah your God.

23 And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and they brought forth the one who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones. So the children of Israel did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 25

C. The Sabbatical Years 25:1-55

1. The Sabbath Year vv. 1-7

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When you come into the land which I am giving you, the land shall observe a Sabbath to Jehovah.

3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its produce;

4 But in the seventh year the land shall have a Sabbath of complete rest, a Sabbath to Jehovah; you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

5 The aftergrowth of your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your unpruned vine you shall not gather; the land shall have a year of complete rest.

6 And the Sabbath produce of the land shall be for food for you; for you and for your male slaves and for your female slaves, and for your hired servant and for your stranger, who sojourns with you,

7 And for your cattle and for the animals that are in your land, shall all its produce be for food.

2. The Jubilee (the Pentecostal Year) vv. 8-17

8 And you shall count off seven Sabbaths of years to yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of seven Sabbaths of years, that is, forty-nine years.

9 Then you shall sound aloud the ram's horn in the seventh month on the tenth day of the month; on the Day of Expiation you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land.

10 And you shall sanctify the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; and each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you shall return to his family.

11 The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; you shall not sow nor reap its aftergrowth nor gather from its unpruned vines.

12 For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat its produce out of the field.

13 In this year of jubilee each one of you shall return to his possession.

14 And if you sell anything to your fellow countryman or buy from the hand of your fellow countryman, you shall not wrong one another.

15 According to the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy from your fellow countryman; according to the number of crop years remaining he shall sell to you.

16 According to the extent of the years you shall increase its price, and according to the fewness of the years you shall diminish its price; for it is the number of crop years that he sells to you.

17 And you shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am Jehovah your God.

3. Regulations regarding the Sabbatical Years
vv. 18-55

18 Thus you shall observe My statutes, and you shall keep My ordinances and observe them, so that you dwell securely in the land.

19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat to be satisfied and dwell securely in it.

20 And if you should say, What shall we eat the seventh year if we do not sow or gather in our produce?

21 Then I will command My blessing for you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth produce for three years.

22 When you sow in the eighth year you will eat of the old produce until the ninth year; until its produce comes in, you shall eat the old produce.

23 And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity, because the land is Mine; for with Me you are strangers and sojourners.

24 And in all the land of your possession you shall provide for the redemption of the land.

25 If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his possession, then his redeemer, the nearest relative, shall come and redeem what his brother has sold.

26 But if a man does not have anyone to redeem it, but he obtains the means and finds it sufficient to redeem it, 27 Then let him calculate the years since its sale and restore the excess to the man to whom he sold it, and return to his possession.

28 But if ¹he has not found sufficient means to restore it for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hand of the one who has purchased it until the year of jubilee; and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return to his possession.

29 And if anyone sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it until the end of a year from its sale; for a full year he shall have the right of redemption.

30 But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall pass in perpetuity to the one who purchased it throughout his generations; it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall all around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country; they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 As for the cities of the Levites, that is, the houses of the cities of their possession, the Levites shall have the permanent right of redemption.

33 And what can be redeemed from the Levites, that is, a house that was sold in a city of his possession, shall go out in the jubilee, for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

35 And if your brother becomes poor, and he is unable to support himself as he lives beside you, then you shall support him, like a stranger and a sojourner, so that he may live beside you.

36 Do not take any interest or gain from him, but fear your God, so that your brother may live beside you.

37 You shall not give him your money at interest nor give him your food for gain.

38 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

39 And if your brother beside you becomes poor, and he sells himself to you, you shall not make him serve as a slave.

28¹ Lit., his hand.

40 He shall be beside you as a hired servant, as a sojourner; he shall serve beside you until the year of jubilee.

41 Then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and return to his own family, and he shall return to the possession of his forefathers.

42 For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves are sold.

43 You shall not rule over him with severity, but you shall fear your God.

44 And as for your male slaves and female slaves whom you may have, they shall come from the nations that are around you; from them you may buy male slaves and female slaves.

45 Moreover from the children of the strangers who sojourn among you, from them you may buy, and from their families who are with you, which they have begotten in your land; they also may be your possession.

46 And you shall make them an inheritance for your children after you, to receive as a possession; you may use them as permanent slaves. But you shall not rule over your brothers the children of Israel, one over another, with severity.

47 And if a stranger or sojourner with you can afford it, and your brother beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or sojourner with you, or to the descendants of the stranger's family;

48 After he has sold himself, he may be redeemed; one of his brothers may redeem him, 49 Or his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him, or any of his close relatives of his family may redeem him; or if he can afford it, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with the one who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him until the year of jubilee, and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years. The time he shall be with him shall be calculated like the time of a hired servant.

51 If there are still many years, in proportion to them he shall give back the amount for his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there are only a few years remaining until the year of jubilee, so he shall reckon with him. In proportion to his years he shall give back the amount for his redemption.

53 Like a servant hired year by year he shall be with him; he shall not rule with severity over him in your sight.

54 And if he is not redeemed by these means, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he and his children with him.

55 For the children of Israel are My servants; they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; I am Jehovah your God.

CHAPTER 26

D. The Word of Warning 26:1-46

1. Not to Make Idols, to Keep God's Sabbath, and to Reverence God's Sanctuary vv. 1-2

1 You shall not make for yourselves idols, nor shall you raise up for yourselves a graven image or a pillar, nor shall you place a stone figure in your land to bow down to it; for I am Jehovah your God.

2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary; I am Jehovah.

2. The Blessings upon Those Who Obey vv. 3-13

3 If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and do them,

4 Then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land will yield its produce, and the trees of the field will yield their fruit.

5 Indeed your threshing will overtake the vintage, and the vintage will overtake the sowing time. Thus you will eat your bread until satisfaction and dwell securely in your land.

6 And I will give you peace in the land, so that you will lie down and no one will make you afraid; and I will cause ¹wild beasts to cease out of the land, and no sword will pass through your land.

7 And you will chase your enemies, and they will fall by the sword before you.

8 And five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand; and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

9 And I will turn My face toward you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will establish My covenant with you.

10 And you will eat the old supply long stored and will have to clear out the old because of the new.

11 And I will set My tabernacle among you; and My soul will not abhor you.

12 And I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be My people.

13 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright.

3. The Chastisements upon Those Who Disobey
vv. 14-39

14 But if you will not listen to Me and will not do all these commandments,

15 And if you reject My statutes, and if your soul abhors My ordinances so that you will not do all My commandments, so as to break My covenant;

16 I also will do this to you: I will appoint sudden terror over you, even consumption and fever, that will cause the eyes to fail and make the soul to pine away; and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it.

17 And I will set My face against you, and you will be struck down before your enemies; and those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one pursues you.

18 And if after these things you will not listen to Me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze, 20 And your strength will be spent in vain, for your land will not yield its produce, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 And if you walk contrary to Me and will not listen to Me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 And I will send ¹wild animals among you, which will bereave you of your children and destroy your cattle and make you few in number, so that your roads will be deserted.

23 And if by these things you will not be corrected by Me, but walk contrary to Me, 24 Then I also will walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, I Myself, seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; and when you gather together within your cities, I will send pestilence among you, and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 When I ¹cut off your supply of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven; and they will return your bread by weight, and you will eat and not be satisfied.

27 And if in spite of this you will not listen to Me, but walk contrary to Me, 6¹ Lit., evil beasts. 22¹ Lit., animals of the field. 26¹ Lit., break your staff.

28 Then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I will chastise you, I Myself, seven times for your sins.

29 And you will eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you will eat.

30 And I will destroy your high places and cut down your altars to the sun and heap up your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols, and My soul will abhor you.

31 And I will make your cities a waste and will make your holy places desolate, and I will not smell the savor of your satisfying fragrances.

32 And I will make the land desolate, so that your enemies who dwell in it will be astonished at it.

33 You however I will scatter among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword after you; and your land will become a desolation, and your cities will become a waste.

34 Then the land will enjoy its Sabbaths during all the days of desolation while you are in your enemies' land; then the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.

35 During all the days of desolation it will have the rest, which it did not have on your Sabbaths when you were dwelling upon it.

36 And as for those who remain among you, I will send faintness into their heart in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a driven leaf will ¹put them to flight; and they will flee as one flees from the sword; and they will fall though no one pursues.

37 And they will stumble over one another, as if fleeing before the sword, though no one pursues; and you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

38 And you will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will consume you.

39 And those who are remaining among you will rot away because of their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also because of the iniquities of their fathers they will rot away with them.

4. The People's Repentance in Captivity and God's Remembrance
vv. 40-46

40 But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, in their unfaithfulness which they committed against Me, and also that they walked contrary to Me,

41 So that I also walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and then they accept the punishment of their iniquity;

42 Then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and I will remember also My covenant with Isaac and also My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

43 For the land will be abandoned by them and will enjoy its Sabbaths while it is desolate without them. And they will accept the punishment of their iniquity because, even because, they rejected My ordinances, and their soul abhorred My statutes.

44 And yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and to break My covenant with them; for I am Jehovah their God.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations so that I might be their God; I am Jehovah.

46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which Jehovah made between Himself and the children of Israel at Mount Sinai through Moses.

36' Lit., chase them.

CHAPTER 27

E. Devotions for a Vow
27:1-341. The Devotion of a Person to God
vv. 1-8

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When a man ¹makes a special vow, the persons shall be for Jehovah according to your valuation.

3 If your valuation is for the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 And if it is for a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And if it is for one aged from five years old even to twenty years old, then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it is for one aged from a month old even to five years old, then your valuation for the male shall be five shekels of silver, and for the female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it is for one aged from sixty years old and upward, if it is for a male, then your valuation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if it is for him who is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the means of the one who vowed, the priest shall value him.

2. The Devotion of an Animal to God
vv. 9-13

9 And if it is for an animal which may be presented to Jehovah as an offering, anything which may be given to Jehovah shall be holy.

10 He may not exchange it or substitute it, either a good one for a bad one or a bad one for a good one; but if he does indeed substitute animal for animal, then both it and its substitute shall be holy.

11 And if his vow is for any unclean animal, which may not be presented as an offering to Jehovah, then he shall set the animal before the priest, 12 And the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad; as you the priest value it, so it shall be.

13 But if he ever redeems it, then he shall add one-fifth of it to your valuation.

3. The Devotion of a House
vv. 14-15

14 And if anyone ¹consecrates his house to be holy to Jehovah, then the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad; just as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

15 And if the one who consecrated it redeems his house, then he shall add one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall become his.

4. The Devotion of a Field
vv. 16-25

16 And if a man consecrates to Jehovah part of a field of his possession, then your valuation shall be according to the ¹seed needed for it: a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he consecrates his field from the year of jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.

18 But if he consecrates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall calculate the money ¹for him according to the years which remain until the year of jubilee, and it shall be deducted from your valuation.

19 And if the one who consecrated the field ever redeems it, then he shall add 2¹ Lit., shall be wonderful to make a vow. 14¹ Or, dedicates. So throughout this chapter.

16¹ Lit., its seed. 18¹ Or, for it. So also in v. 23.

one-fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 But if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore.

21 But the field, when it goes out in the jubilee, shall be holy to Jehovah as a devoted field; its possession shall be the priest's.

22 And if he consecrates to Jehovah a field which he has bought that is not part of the field of his possession, 23 Then the priest shall calculate for him the amount of your valuation until the year of jubilee, and on that day he shall give your valuation as holy to Jehovah.

24 In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom he bought it, even to the one to whom the possession of the land belongs.

25 And every valuation of yours shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: The shekel shall be twenty gerahs.

5. The Regulations for Devotion vv. 26-34

26 However no one shall consecrate the firstborn among animals, which as a first-born belongs to Jehovah; whether it is an ox or a sheep, it is Jehovah's.

27 But if it is consecrated from among unclean animals, then he shall ransom it according to your valuation and shall add to it one-fifth of it. And if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

28 Nevertheless anything which someone devotes to Jehovah out of all that he has, whether a human or an animal or a field of his possession, it shall not be sold or redeemed. Every devoted thing is most holy to Jehovah.

29 No human beings who are devoted to destruction shall be ransomed; they shall surely be put to death.

30 And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is Jehovah's; it is holy to Jehovah.

31 And if anyone redeems any of his tithe, he shall add to it one-fifth of it.

32 And all the tithe of the herd or the flock, whatever passes under the shepherd's rod, the tenth one shall be holy to Jehovah.

33 He shall not search whether it is good or bad, nor shall he substitute it; but if he does substitute it at all, then both it and that for which it is substituted shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which Jehovah commanded Moses on Mount Sinai for the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 1

I. Organized
1:1 — 9:14

A. Being Numbered
1:1-54

1. By the Families and Their Leaders according to Age
vv. 1-46

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Take the sum of all the assembly of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, every male, head by head.

3 From twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go forth for military service in Israel, you and Aaron shall number them by their companies.

4 And with you there shall be a man from every tribe, each man the head of his fathers' household.

5 And these are the names of the men who shall stand with you. From Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 From Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 From Judah: Nahshon the son of Aminadab.

8 From Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar.

9 From Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon.

10 From the children of Joseph: from Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud; from Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 From Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni.

12 From Dan: Ahiezer the son of Amishaddai.

13 From Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran.

14 From Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

15 From Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These are the ones who were called from the assembly, the leaders of the tribes of their fathers; they were the heads of the thousands of Israel.

17 And Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name.

18 And on the first day of the second month they gathered all the assembly together; and they registered themselves by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names from twenty years old and upward, head by head.

19 As Jehovah commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

18' Lit., declared themselves as born.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

21 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben: forty-six thousand five hundred.

22 From the children of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, those who were numbered of them, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

23 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon: fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24 From the children of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

25 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad: forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

26 From the children of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

27 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah: seventy-four thousand six hundred.

28 From the children of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

29 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar: fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30 From the children of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

31 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun: fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 From the children of Joseph: from the children of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

33 Those who were numbered of them, from the tribe of Ephraim: forty thousand five hundred.

34 And from the children of Manasseh, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

35 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh: thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 From the children of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

37 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin: thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 From the children of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

39 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan: sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 From the children of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

41 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher: forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 From the children of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service;

43 Those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali: fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44 These were the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each one for his fathers' household.

45 So all who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' households, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go forth for military service in Israel, 46 Even all the numbered men were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

2. The Levites Not Numbered among the Army
vv. 47-54

47 But the Levites were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe.

48 For Jehovah had spoken to Moses, saying,

49 Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, nor shall you take the sum of them among the children of Israel;

50 But you, appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony and over all

2' Or, a distance from.

its furnishings and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; and they shall minister to it and shall encamp around the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle sets out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encamps, the Levites shall set it up. But the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall encamp, each one by his own camp and each one by his own standard, according to their companies.

53 But the Levites shall encamp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there be no wrath upon the assembly of the children of Israel. And the Levites shall keep the charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

54 Thus did the children of Israel do; according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so they did.

CHAPTER 2

B. Encamping in Array 2:1-34

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 The children of Israel shall encamp each by his own standard with the ensigns of their fathers' households; they shall encamp 'facing the Tent of Meeting on every side.

3 And those who encamp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, according to their companies; and the leader of the children of Judah: Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

4 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: seventy-four thousand six hundred.

5 And those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar; and the leader of the children of Issachar: Nethanel the son of Zuar;

6 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun; and the leader of the children of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon;

8 And his company, that is, his numbered men: fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

9 All who were numbered of the camp of Judah: one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their companies. They shall set out first.

10 On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their companies; and the leader of the children of Reuben: Elizur the son of Shedeur;

11 And his company, that is, his numbered men: forty-six thousand five hundred.

12 And those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon; and the leader of the children of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

13 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad; and the leader of the children of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Reuel;

15 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

16 All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben: one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty, according to their companies. And they shall set out second.

17 Then the Tent of Meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so shall they set out, every man in his place, by their standards.

18 On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their companies; and the leader of the children of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud;

19 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: forty thousand five hundred.

20 And next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh; and the leader of the children of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

21 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: thirty-two thousand two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin; and the leader of the children of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni;

23 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: thirty-five thousand four hundred.

24 All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim: one hundred eight thousand one hundred, according to their companies. And they shall set out third.

25 On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their companies; and the leader of the children of Dan: Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

26 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

27 And those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher; and the leader of the children of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ochran;

28 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: forty-one thousand five hundred.

29 Then the tribe of Naphtali; and the leader of the children of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan;

30 And his company, that is, those who were numbered of them: fifty-three thousand four hundred.

31 All who were numbered of the camp of Dan: one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last by their standards.

32 These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' households. All who were numbered in the camps according to their companies were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

34 Thus did the children of Israel do. According to all that Jehovah commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards and so they set out, every one by their families, according to their fathers' households.

CHAPTER 3

C. The Holy Service 3:1 — 4:49

1 Now these are the generations of Aaron and Moses ¹at the time when Jehovah spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar;

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whose hands were filled to serve as priests.

4 But Nadab and Abihu died before Jehovah when they offered strange fire before Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.

5 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister to him.

7 And they shall keep his charge and the charge of the whole assembly before the Tent of Meeting to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting and the charge of the children of Israel to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the children of Israel.

10 And you shall ¹appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood; but the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

11 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

12 As for Me, I have now taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the children of Israel. So the Levites shall be Mine.

13 For all the firstborn are Mine; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine; I am Jehovah.

14 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi by their fathers' households, by their families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the word of Jehovah, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon according to their families: Libni and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari according to their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall encamp behind the tabernacle on the west.

24 And the leader of the father's household of the Gershonites shall be Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle and the tent, its covering and the screen for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, 26 And the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the court, which is around the tabernacle and around the altar, and its cords for all its service.

27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites and the family of the Izharites and the family of the Hebronites and the family of the Uzzielites; these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall encamp on the side of the tabernacle to the south.

30 And the leader of the father's household of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the Ark and the table and the lampstand and the altars and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister and the screen and all its service.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be leader of the leaders of the Levites and have the oversight of those who keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these are the families of Merari.

34 And those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward: six thousand two hundred.

35 And the leader of the father's household of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They shall encamp on the side of the tabernacle to the north.

36 And the appointed charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its sockets and all its equipment and all the service pertaining to it, 37 And the pillars around the court and their sockets and their pegs and their cords.

38 And those who encamp before the tabernacle to the east, before the Tent of Meeting toward the sunrise, shall be Moses and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

39 All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of Jehovah, by their families, all the males from a month old and upward were twenty-two thousand.

40 And Jehovah said to Moses, Number all the firstborn males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And you shall take the Levites for Me—I am Jehovah—instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, just as Jehovah commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

44 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be Mine; I am Jehovah.

46 And for the redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel over and above the number of the Levites,

47 You shall take five shekels apiece per head; according to the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take them. (The shekel is twenty gerahs.)

48 And you shall give the money, by which the excess number of them is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons.

49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites;

50 From the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, a thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

51 And Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of Jehovah, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 4

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' households,

3 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, all who enter into the service to perform the skilled work in the Tent of Meeting.

4 This is the service of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting concerning the most holy things.

5 When the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons shall go in, and they shall take down the veil of the screen and cover the Ark of the Testimony with it,

6 And they shall put on it a covering of porpoise skin, and shall spread over it a cloth all of blue strands, and shall put in its poles.

7 And over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the plates and the spoons and the bowls and the pitchers of the drink offering; and the continual bread shall be on it.

8 And they shall spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover it with a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put in its poles.

9 And they shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lampstand of the light and its lamps and its tongs and its firepans and all its oil vessels with which they minister to it.

10 And they shall put it and all its utensils within a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put it on the carrying frame.

11 And over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put in its poles.

12 And they shall take all the utensils of ministry with which they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put them on the carrying frame.

13 And they shall remove the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

14 And they shall put upon it all its utensils with which they minister upon it, the firepans, the forks, and the shovels, and the basins—all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread over it a covering of porpoise skin, and put in its poles.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, whenever the camp sets out, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them; but they shall not touch the holy things, or they will die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

16 And the oversight of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light and the fragrant incense and the continual meal offering and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, the sanctuary and its furnishings.

17 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

18 Do not let the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites;

19 But do this to them that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each one of them to his service and to his burden;

20 But the ¹Kohathites shall not go in to see the sanctuary even for a moment; otherwise they will die.

21 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

22 Take the sum of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers' households, by their families;

23 From thirty years old and upward to fifty years old you shall number them, everyone who enters to carry out the service to do the work in the Tent of Meeting.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens:

25 They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of porpoise skin that is on top of it, and the screen for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, 26 And the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the gate of the court, which is around the tabernacle and around the altar, and their cords, and all the equipment for their service; and whatever is to be done with them, so shall they do.

27 All the service of the sons of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all their burden and in all their service; and you shall assign to them the charge of all they are to carry.

28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting, and their charge shall be ¹under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29 As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers' households;

30 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old you shall number them, everyone who enters into the service to do the work of the Tent of Meeting.

31 And this is the charge of what they are to carry, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the boards of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its sockets, 32 And the pillars around the court and their sockets and their pegs and their cords, with all their equipment and with all their service; and you shall assign by name the equipment they have been charged to carry.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

34 And Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the assembly numbered the sons of 20' Lit., they. 28' Lit., in the hand of. So also in v. 33.

the Kohathites by their families and by their fathers' households, 35 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service for work in the Tent of Meeting.

36 And those who were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred fifty.

37 These are those who were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

38 And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon by their families and by their fathers' households,

39 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service for work in the Tent of Meeting, 40 Even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers' households were two thousand six hundred thirty.

41 These were those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, everyone who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah.

42 And those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' households,

43 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service for work in the Tent of Meeting, 44 Even those who were numbered of them by their families were three thousand two hundred.

45 These were those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

46 All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' households,

47 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting, 48 Even those who were numbered of them were eight thousand five hundred eighty.

49 According to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses they were numbered, everyone according to his service and according to his burden; thus they were numbered by him, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

D. Dealing with Defilement 5:1-31

1. The Corporate Dealing vv. 1-4

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel that they send out of the camp every leper and everyone that has a discharge and everyone who is unclean because of a dead person.

3 You shall send out both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp, where I dwell in their midst.

4 And the children of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as Jehovah had spoken to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

2. The Individual Dealing vv. 5-10

5 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Speak to the children of Israel, When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit, so as to act unfaithfully toward Jehovah, and that person realizes his guilt,

7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have committed, and he shall make restitution according to its principal for his wrong and add to it one-fifth of it and give it to the one whom he has wronged.

8 But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution which is made for the wrong goes to Jehovah for the priest, in addition to the ram of the expiation, by which expiation is made for him.

9 And every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his.

10 And everyone's holy things shall be his; whatever anyone gives to the priest, it becomes his.

3. Dealing with a Wife over Whom Her Husband Was Jealous
vv. 11-31

11 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

12 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, If any man's wife goes astray and acts unfaithfully toward him,

13 And a man lies with her and has sexual relations, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and she is undetected, and she is defiled, and there is no witness against her since she was not caught in the act;

14 And a spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has defiled herself; or if a spirit of jealousy comes upon him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she has not defiled herself;

15 Then the man shall bring his wife to the priest and bring her offering for her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal. He shall pour no oil upon it nor put frankincense on it; for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near and set her before Jehovah.

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and the priest shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

18 And the priest shall set the woman before Jehovah and let the hair of the woman's head go loose and put the meal offering of remembrance in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy, and in the hand of the priest shall be the water of bitterness that brings the curse.

19 And the priest shall make her take an oath and shall say to the woman, If no man has lain with you and if you have not gone astray to uncleanness while under the authority of your husband, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings the curse.

20 But if you have gone astray while under the authority of your husband and if you have defiled yourself, and a man besides your husband has lain with you

21 Then the priest shall make the woman take an oath with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall say to the woman Jehovah make you a curse and an oath among your people, when Jehovah makes your thigh waste away and your womb swell;

22 And this water that brings the curse shall go into your bowels and make your womb swell and your thigh waste away. And the woman shall say, Amen, Amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall wash them off into the water of bitterness.

24 And he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse; and the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and become bitter.

25 And the priest shall take the meal offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and he shall wave the meal offering before Jehovah and bring it to the altar.

26 And the priest shall take a handful of the meal offering as its memorial portion and burn it upon the altar, and afterward he shall make the woman drink the water.

27 And when he has made her drink the water, then if she has defiled herself and has acted unfaithfully to her husband, the water that brings the curse will enter into her and become bitter, and her womb will swell, and her thigh will waste away; and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she will be immune and able to conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousy when a wife, while under the authority of her husband, goes astray and defiles herself, 30 Or when the spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he is jealous of his wife. He shall set the woman before Jehovah, and the priest shall apply to her all this law.

31 And the man shall be free from iniquity, but that woman shall bear her iniquity.

CHAPTER 6

E. To Be Sanctified—To Be a Nazarite 6:1-21

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When a man or a woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazarite, to separate himself to Jehovah,

3 He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar of wine or vinegar of strong drink, nor shall he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh or dried grapes.

4 All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grape vine, from the seeds even to the skin.

5 All the days of his vow of separation no razor shall pass over his head. He shall be holy until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to Jehovah; he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.

6 All the days that he separates himself to Jehovah he shall not come near a dead person.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy to Jehovah.

9 And if anyone dies very suddenly beside him so that he defiles the head of his separation, then he shall shave his head on the day he becomes clean; on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, 11 And the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make expiation for him because he sinned by reason of the dead person. And he shall sanctify his head that same day.

12 And he shall separate to Jehovah the days of his separation and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a trespass offering, but the former days shall be void because his separation was defiled.

13 Now this is the law of the Nazarite when the days of his separation are fulfilled: He shall be brought to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

14 And he shall present his offering to 6¹ Lit., soul. So also in v. 11. 7¹ Or, separation to his God.

Jehovah: one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one female lamb a year old without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for a peace offering,

15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal offering and their drink offerings.

16 And the priest shall present them before Jehovah, and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to Jehovah, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall also offer its meal offering and its drink offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and take the hair of the head of his separation and put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.

19 And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram and one unleavened cake out of the basket and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them into the hands of the Nazarite after he has shaved the head of his separation;

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before Jehovah. It is holy for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and thigh of the heave offering. And afterward the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who vows, that is, of his offering to Jehovah for his separation, in addition to what he can afford; according to his vow which he vows, so he must do according to the law of his separation.

F. Being Blessed by God
6:22-27

22 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

23 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, Thus you shall bless the children of Israel; you shall say to them,

24 Jehovah bless you and keep you;

25 Jehovah make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you;

26 Jehovah lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

27 So shall they put My name upon the children of Israel, that I Myself may bless them.

CHAPTER 7

G. Offerings by the Twelve Tribes for the Worship of God
7:1-89

1 And on the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it and all its furnishings and the altar and all its utensils, and had anointed them and sanctified them,

2 The leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households (they were the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who had been numbered) presented their offering.

3 And they brought their offering before Jehovah: six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders and an ox for each one; and they presented them before the tabernacle.

4 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

5 Take these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the Tent of Meeting; and you shall give them to the Levites, to each according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon according to their service;

8 And four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari according to their service, ¹under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But to the sons of Kohath he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonged to them; they bore this upon their shoulder.

10 And the leaders presented offerings for the dedication of the altar in the day that it was anointed; that is, the leaders presented their offering before the altar.

11 And Jehovah said to Moses, They shall present their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.

12 And he who presented his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Aminadab, of the tribe of Judah.

13 And his offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

14 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

15 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

16 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

17 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented.

19 He presented as his offering one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

20 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

21 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

22 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

23 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

24 On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the children of Zebulun—

25 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

26 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

27 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

28 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

29 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader of the children of Reuben—

31 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

32 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

33 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

34 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

35 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, 8¹ Lit., in the hand.

five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, leader of the children of Simeon—

37 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

38 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

39 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

40 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

41 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, leader of the children of Gad—

43 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

44 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

45 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

46 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

47 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, leader of the children of Ephraim—

49 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

50 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

51 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

52 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

53 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, leader of the children of Manasseh—

55 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

57 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

58 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

59 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, leader of the children of Benjamin—

61 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

63 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

64 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

65 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideon.

66 On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, leader of the children of Dan—

67 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

68 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

69 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

70 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

71 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

72 On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ocran, leader of the children of Asher—

73 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

75 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

76 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

77 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.

78 On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, leader of the children of Naphtali—

79 His offering was one silver plate; its weight was one hundred thirty shekels; one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering;

80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense;

81 One bull of the herd, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

82 One male of the goats for a sin offering;

83 And for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

84 This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the leaders of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden spoons;

85 Each silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels was two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary;

86 The twelve golden spoons, full of incense, weighing ten shekels each, according to the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the spoons was one hundred twenty shekels;

87 All the livestock for the burnt offering: twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male lambs a year old and their meal offering; and twelve males of the goats for a sin offering;

88 And all the livestock for the sacrifice of peace offerings: twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats, sixty male lambs a year old. This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.

89 And when Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the expiation cover that was upon the Ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim; and ¹he spoke to Him.

CHAPTER 8

H. Lighting the Lamps 8:1-4

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to Aaron and say to him, When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps will give light in front of the lampstand.

3 And Aaron did so; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 Now this was the workmanship of the lampstand, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers it was beaten work; according to the ¹pattern which Jehovah had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

1. The Presenting of the Levites (Serving Ones of the Priesthood) 8:5-26

1. Cleansing Them First vv. 5-8

5 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel and cleanse them.

7 And thus you shall do to them to cleanse them: Sprinkle the water of purification upon them, and let them pass a razor over all their flesh and wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.

8 Then let them take a bull of the herd and its meal offering, fine flour mingled with oil; and a second bull of the herd you shall take for a sin offering.

2. Presenting Them to God vv. 9-22

9 And you shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting, and gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel.

10 And you shall present the Levites before Jehovah, and the children of Israel shall lay their hands upon the Levites.

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before Jehovah as a wave offering from the children of Israel, that they may do the service of Jehovah.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to Jehovah to make expiation for the Levites.

13 And you shall set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to Jehovah.

14 Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be Mine.

15 Then after this the Levites may go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. So you shall cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering.

16 For they are wholly given to Me from among the children of Israel; I have taken them for Myself instead of everyone who opens the womb, the firstborn of all the children of Israel.

17 For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both human and animal. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the Tent of Meeting, and to make expiation for the children of Israel, that there may be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come near to the sanctuary.

89' Or, He (Jehovah) spoke to him (Moses). 4' Or, vision; thing seen.

20 Thus did Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly of the children of Israel do to the Levites; according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them.

21 And the Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes. Then Aaron offered them as a wave offering before Jehovah, and Aaron made expiation for them to cleanse them.

22 And after this the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron and before his sons; as Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

3. The Age for the Service of the Levites
vv. 23-26

23 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

24 This is what applies to the Levites: From twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to perform the service in the work of the Tent of Meeting.

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall ¹retire from the service in the work and shall serve no more.

26 But they may minister to their brothers in the Tent of Meeting, to keep the charge, but they themselves shall do no service. Thus you shall do with the Levites concerning their charges.

CHAPTER 9

J. Keeping the Passover 9:1-14

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel keep the passover at its appointed time.

3 On the fourteenth day of this month ¹at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances you shall keep it.

4 Thus Moses told the children of Israel to keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that Jehovah commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did.

6 And there were certain men who were unclean through contact with a ¹dead person, so that they could not keep the passover on that day; so they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said to him, Although we are unclean through contact with a dead person, why must we be kept from presenting the offering of Jehovah at its appointed time among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said to them, Stay here, so I may hear what Jehovah will command concerning you.

9 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Any one of you or your descendants who becomes unclean through contact with a ¹dead person or is on a distant journey shall still keep the passover to Jehovah.

11 In the second month on the fourteenth day at twilight they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall not leave any of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it; according to every statute of the passover they shall keep it.

25¹ Or, return. 3¹ Lit., between the two evenings. So also in vv. 5 and 11. 6¹ Lit., soul of a man. So also in v. 7. 10¹ Lit., soul.

13 But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, yet refrains from keeping the passover, that person shall be cut off from his people, because he did not present Jehovah's offering at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger sojourns with you and keeps the passover to Jehovah; according to the statute of the passover and according to its ordinance, so shall he do. You shall have one statute, both for the sojourner and for the native born in the land.

II. Journeying

9:15—20:29; 21:4-20; 33:1-49

A. The Guidance

9:15—10:10

1. By the Cloud

9:15-23

15 And on the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony; and in the evening it was like the appearance of fire over the tabernacle until morning.

16 So it was always; the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tent, then after that the children of Israel set out; and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel encamped.

18 At the commandment of Jehovah the children of Israel set out, and at the commandment of Jehovah they encamped; as long as the cloud settled upon the tabernacle, they remained encamped.

19 Even when the cloud extended its time over the tabernacle for many days, the children of Israel kept the charge of Jehovah and did not set out.

20 If sometimes the cloud was upon the tabernacle a few days, according to the commandment of Jehovah they remained encamped; then at the commandment of Jehovah they set out.

21 If sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning, when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they set out; or if it remained in the daytime and at night, when the cloud was taken up, they set out.

22 Whether it was two days or a month or a longer time that the cloud extended its time over the tabernacle and settled above it, the children of Israel remained encamped and did not set out; but when it was taken up, they set out.

23 At the commandment of Jehovah they encamped, and at the commandment of Jehovah they set out. They kept the charge of Jehovah according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

CHAPTER 10

2. By the Two Trumpets

10:1-10

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Make yourself two trumpets of silver; of beaten work you shall make them; and you shall use them for summoning the assembly and for the setting out of the camps.

3 And when they blow them, all the assembly shall gather themselves to you at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

4 But if they blow only one, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you.

5 And when you blow an alarm, the camps that are encamped on the east side shall set out.

6 And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are encamped on the south side shall set out. They shall blow an alarm for them to set out.

22¹ Lit., days.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; and this shall be for you a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

9 And when you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you may be remembered before Jehovah your God and be saved from your enemies.

10 Also on your days of rejoicing and at your appointed feasts and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a reminder on your behalf before your God; I am Jehovah your God.

B. Setting Out 10:11-36

1. The Guidance of the Cloud vv. 11-13

11 Now it was in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the Tabernacle of the Testimony.

12 And the children of Israel set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai. Then the cloud ¹settled down in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they set out for the first time according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

2. The Sequence of the Setting Out vv. 14-28

14 And the standard of the camp of the children of Judah set out first according to their companies; and over the ¹entire company was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who carried the tabernacle, set out.

18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their companies; and over the entire company was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites, who carried the holy things, set out; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set out according to their companies; and over the entire company was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideon.

25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan, which was the rear guard of all the camps, set out according to their companies; and over the entire company was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the company of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

12¹ Lit., tabernacled. 14¹ Lit., its company. So also in vv. 18, 22, and 25.

28 This was the order in which the children of Israel set out according to their companies, when they set out.

3. Trusting in Man
vv. 29-32

29 And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are setting out to the place concerning which Jehovah said, I will give it to you. Come with us, and we will treat you well, for Jehovah has promised good to Israel.

30 But he said to him, I will not go; but rather I will go to my own land and to my relatives.

31 So ¹Moses said, Please do not leave us, for you know where we can encamp in the wilderness, and you will be eyes for us.

32 And if you go with us, whatever good Jehovah does for us, we will do for you.

4. The Leading of the Ark
vv. 33-36

33 So they set out from the mountain of Jehovah three days' journey, with the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah setting out before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of Jehovah was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

35 And when the Ark set out, Moses said,

Rise up, O Jehovah, and let Your enemies be scattered;
And let those who hate You flee
before You.

36 And when it came to rest, he said,
Return, O ¹Jehovah, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel.

CHAPTER 11

C. Failures
11:1-14:45I. Murmuring Evil
11:1-3

1 And the people became like those who murmur about their misfortune in the ears of Jehovah; and when Jehovah heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of Jehovah burned among them and consumed some at the outskirts of the camp.

2 And the people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to Jehovah, and the fire abated.

3 And the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of Jehovah had burned among them.

2. Lusting
11:4-35

4 And the mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly; and the children of Israel also wept again and said, Who shall give us meat to eat?

5 We remember the fish which we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic;

6 But now ¹our appetite has gone; there is nothing at all but ²this manna to look at.

7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the appearance of bdellium.

8 The people went about and gathered it and ground it between two millstones or beat it in a mortar; then they boiled it in pots and made cakes of it; and its taste was like the taste of cakes baked in oil.

9 And when the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall with it.

10 And Moses heard the people weeping family by families, each at the entrance of his tent; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled greatly, and Moses was displeased.

31¹ Lit., he. 36¹ Or, Jehovah of the ten thousands. 6¹ Lit., our soul has dried up. 6² Lit., our eyes are to this manna.

11 And Moses said to Jehovah, Why have You treated Your servant badly, and why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You have put the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Did I conceive all this people? Or did I bring them forth, so that You should say to me, Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries the nursing child, to the land which You swore to give to their fathers?

13 From where should I get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me, saying, Give us meat, so that we may eat!

14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, for it is too heavy for me.

15 And if this is the way You deal with me, please kill me at once—if I have found favor in Your sight—and do not let me see my wretchedness.

16 So Jehovah said to Moses, Gather to Me seventy, each one from the elders of Israel, whom you know are the elders of the people and their officers, and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, and have them stand there with you.

17 Then I will come down and talk with you there, and I will take of the Spirit who is upon you and will put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you do not bear it alone.

18 And you shall say to the people, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept in the ears of Jehovah, saying, Who will give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt. Therefore Jehovah will give you meat, and you shall eat.

19 You shall eat not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

20 But a whole month, until it comes out from your nostrils, and becomes loathsome to you, because you have rejected Jehovah who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, Why did we ever come out of Egypt?

21 But Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand on foot; and You have said, I will give them meat so that they may eat a whole month.

22 Will flocks and herds be slain for them, to satisfy them? Or will all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to satisfy them?

23 And Jehovah said to Moses, Has Jehovah's hand become short? Now you will see whether My word will come to pass for you or not.

24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of Jehovah, and he gathered seventy, each one from the elders of the people, and set them around the tent.

25 And Jehovah came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and He took of the Spirit who was upon him, and put Him upon the seventy elders. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, but they did not do so again.

26 But two men had remained in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad. And the Spirit rested upon them. (Now they were among those who were registered, but they had not gone out to the tent.) And they prophesied in the camp.

27 And a certain young man ran and told Moses and said, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses, one of his chosen men, answered and said, My lord Moses, restrain them!

29 But Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? Oh that all Jehovah's people were prophets, that Jehovah would put His Spirit upon them!

30 And Moses returned to the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And a wind went forth from Jehovah and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth.

32 And the people rose up all that day and all the night and all the next day, and they gathered the quail. He who gathered least gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33 While the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of Jehovah was kindled against the people, and Jehovah struck the people with a very severe plague.

34 And the name of that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who lusted.

35 From Kibroth-hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth, and they remained at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12

3. Slandering 12:1-16

1 And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a Cushite woman).

2 And they said, Has Jehovah indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not also spoken through us? And Jehovah heard it.

3 Now the man Moses was very ¹meeek, more than anyone else who was on the surface of the earth.

4 And suddenly Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam, You three come out to the Tent of Meeting. So the three of them came out.

5 Then Jehovah came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam. And when they had both come forward,

6 He said, Hear now My words:

If there is a ¹prophet among you,
I, Jehovah, will make Myself known to him in a vision,
I will speak with him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so;
¹He is faithful in all My house.

8 With him I speak ¹face to face, even openly, and not in riddles;
And he beholds the form of Jehovah.

Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant, against Moses?

9 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against them, and He departed.

10 And when the cloud had departed from over the tent; there Miriam was, leprous, as white as snow. And Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, leprous.

11 And Aaron said to Moses, Oh, my lord, please do not lay this sin upon us that we have so foolishly committed.

12 Please do not let her be like one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb.

13 And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, Please heal her, O God, please.

14 And Jehovah said to Moses, If her father had just spat in her face, would she not bear her shame seven days? Let her be shut up outside the camp seven days, and after that she may be brought in again.

15 So Miriam was shut up outside the camp seven days, and the people did not set out until Miriam had been brought in again.

16 After that the people set out from Hazeroth and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

3¹ Or, humble. 6¹ Or, prophet of Jehovah among you, I will make Myself known....

7¹ Or, He is entrusted with all My house. 8¹ Lit., mouth to mouth.

CHAPTER 13

4. Not Believing in God
13:1 — 14:38a. God Commanding Moses to Send Twelve Men to Spy Out the Land of Canaan
13:1-20

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel; one man from each of their fathers' tribes you shall send, every one a leader among them.

3 So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran according to the commandment of Jehovah, all of them leading men among the children of Israel.

4 And these were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;

5 From the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

6 From the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

7 From the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

8 From the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

9 From the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

10 From the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

11 From the tribe of Joseph, that is, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

12 From the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

13 From the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

14 From the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

15 From the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua.

17 And when Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them, Go up this way into the Negev, and go up into the hill country;

18 And see what the land is like; and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many;

19 And whether the land in which they dwell is good or bad; and whether the cities that they live in are like camps or with fortifications;

20 And whether the land is fat or lean; whether there are trees in it or not. Therefore strengthen yourselves and bring some of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

b. The Twelve Men Going Up and Spying Out the Land
13:21-24

21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near the ¹entrance of Hamath.

22 And when they had gone up through the Negev, they came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 Then they came to the Valley of Eshcol, and from there they cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two of them. They also cut off some of the pomegranates and some of the figs.

c. The Twelve Men Returning
13:25 — 14:10

24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there.

21¹ Or, Lebo-hamath. So also in 34:8.

25 And they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.

26 And they proceeded to come to Moses and to Aaron and to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them and to the whole assembly, and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him and said, We came to the land into which you sent us; and it indeed flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

28 However, the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large; and we also saw the descendants of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the Negev, and the Hittites and the Jebusites and the Amorites dwell in the hill country, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the Jordan.

30 But Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men who went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we.

32 And they brought to the children of Israel an evil report of the land which they had spied out, saying, The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are men of great size.

33 And there we saw the Nephilim (the descendants of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.

CHAPTER 14

1 Then the whole assembly lifted up their voice and cried, and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron; and the whole assembly said to them, If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!

3 And why does Jehovah bring us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder. Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us appoint a captain, and let us return to Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the whole congregation of the assembly of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who spied out the land, tore their clothes;

7 And they spoke to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land through which we passed to spy out is an exceedingly good land.

8 If Jehovah is pleased with us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey.

9 Only do not rebel against Jehovah, nor should you fear the people of the land, for they are our bread. Their protection has been removed from them, and Jehovah is with us; do not fear them.

10 But the whole assembly said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of Jehovah appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the children of Israel.

d. God's Abhorring of the People of Israel
14:11-38

11 And Jehovah said to Moses, How long will this people despise Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them?

12 I will strike them with pestilence and disposses them, and I will make you into a nation greater and mightier than they.

13 But Moses said to Jehovah, Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your might You brought up this people from their midst, 14 And they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, Jehovah, are in the midst of this people; for You, O Jehovah, are seen eye to eye, and Your cloud stands over them, and You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now if You put this people to death as one man, then the nations that have heard the report about You will speak, saying, 16 Because Jehovah was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to give them, He has therefore slaughtered them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I pray, let the power of the Lord be great, just as You have spoken, saying, 18 Jehovah is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and the fourth generations.

19 Pardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Your lovingkindness, just as You have forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.

20 Then Jehovah said, I have pardoned them according to your word;

21 But as surely as I live, and as all the earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah,

22 None of those men who have seen My glory and My signs, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tried Me these ten times and have not listened to My voice, 23 Shall see the land which I swore to give to their fathers, nor shall any of those who despised Me see it.

24 Only My servant Caleb, because he had a different spirit and has fully followed Me, will I bring into the land which he entered; and his descendants shall take possession of it.

25 Now since the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valleys, turn tomorrow, and set out into the wilderness by the way that leads to the Red Sea.

26 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil assembly, which murmurs against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they are making against Me.

28 Say to them, As I live, declares Jehovah, just as you have spoken in My ears, so will I do to you.

29 Your corpses shall fall in this wilderness, and none of you who were numbered, according to the number you counted from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me,

30 Shall come into the land, in which I ¹swore to settle you, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, whom you said would become plunder, I will bring in, and they will know the land which you have rejected.

32 But as for you, your corpses shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall ¹wander in the wilderness forty years, and they shall suffer for your ²unfaithfulness until your corpses have been consumed in the wilderness.

34 According to the number of the days which you spied out the land, forty days, a year for every day, you shall bear your iniquities, forty years; and you shall know My ¹displeasure.

30' Lit., lifted up My hand. 33' Or, be shepherds. 33' Lit., fornications.

35 I, Jehovah, have spoken; surely I will do this to all this evil assembly who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made the whole assembly to murmur against him by bringing up an evil report against the land, 37 That is, those men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before Jehovah.

38 Only Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land.

5. Transgressing the Word of God
14:39-45

39 And when Moses spoke these words to all the children of Israel, the people mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning to go up to the top of the mountain, saying, Here we are; now we will go up to the place which Jehovah has spoken of, for we have sinned.

41 But Moses said, Why now do you continue to transgress the commandment of Jehovah? This will not succeed.

42 Do not go up—for Jehovah is not among you—so that you are not struck down before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword. Because you have turned back from following Jehovah, therefore Jehovah will not be with you.

44 But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain, even though neither the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah nor Moses had departed out of the midst of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt in that hill country came down and struck them and beat them back as far as Hormah.

CHAPTER 15

D. Ordinances

15:1-41

1. Concerning the Offerings vv. 1-31

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that you are to inhabit, which I am giving you,

3 And you make an offering by fire to Jehovah, a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to make a special vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed feasts, to make a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah, from the herd or from the flock,

4 The one who presents his offering shall present to Jehovah a meal offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with a fourth of a hin of oil.

5 And you shall prepare wine for the drink offering, a fourth of a hin, with the burnt offering or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

6 Or for a ram you shall prepare as a meal offering two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mingled with a third of a hin of oil;

7 And for the drink offering you shall present a third of a hin of wine, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

8 And when you prepare a herd animal for a burnt offering or for a sacrifice, to make a special vow or for peace offerings to Jehovah,

9 Then you shall offer with the herd

³⁴ Or, opposition.

animal a meal offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mingled with half a hin of oil;

10 And you shall present for the drink offering half a hin of wine, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

11 Thus shall it be done for each ox or for each ram or for each of the male lambs or goats.

12 According to the number that you prepare, so you shall do for every one according to their number.

13 All who are native shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

14 And if a stranger sojourns with you, or one who may be among you throughout your generations, and he wants to make an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah; just as you do, so he shall do.

15 For the congregation there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the sojourner be before Jehovah.

16 One law and one ordinance shall be for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you.

17 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

18 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land into which I am bringing you, 19 Whenever you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a heave offering to Jehovah.

20 From the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a heave offering; as the heave offering of the threshing floor, so shall you offer it up.

21 From the first of your dough you shall give to Jehovah a heave offering throughout your generations.

22 And if you sin unintentionally and do not observe all these commandments which Jehovah has spoken to Moses,

23 That is, everything that Jehovah has commanded you through Moses, from the day that Jehovah gave commandment and onward throughout your generations,

24 Then, if it was done unintentionally, ¹without the knowledge of the assembly, the whole assembly shall offer one bull of the herd for a burnt offering, for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah, with its meal offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make expiation for the whole assembly of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was unintentional, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to Jehovah, and their sin offering before Jehovah for their error.

26 And the whole assembly of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who sojourns among them; for all the people were involved unintentionally.

27 And if one person sins unintentionally, then he shall present a female goat a year old for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall make expiation before Jehovah for the person who sinned unintentionally, when he sins unintentionally, to make expiation for him; and he shall be forgiven.

29 You shall have one law for the one who does anything unintentionally, for one who is a native among the children of Israel and for the stranger who sojourns among them.

30 But the person who does anything with a high hand, whether a native or a sojourner, that one reviles Jehovah; and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he has despised the word of 24¹ Lit., away from the eyes.

Jehovah and has broken His commandment, that person shall be completely cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.

2. Concerning the Breaking of the Sabbath
vv. 32-36

32 Now while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.

33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron and to the whole assembly.

34 And they put him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

35 And Jehovah said to Moses, The man shall surely be put to death; the whole assembly shall stone him with stones outside the camp.

36 So the whole assembly brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death with stones, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

3. Concerning the People's Dress
vv. 37-41

37 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

38 Speak to the children of Israel and tell them to make for themselves fringes on the borders of their garments throughout their generations and to put on the fringe of each border a cord of blue.

39 And it shall be a fringe for you, so that when you see it you will remember all the commandments of Jehovah and do them; so that you do not seek after your own heart and your own eyes, according to which you committed fornication.

40 And that you shall remember and do all My commandments and be holy to your God.

41 I am Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Jehovah your God.

CHAPTER 16

I. Rebellion
A More Serious Failure
16:1 — 17:13

1. The Cause of the Rebellion and the Reaction of Moses 16:1-18

1 Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben, took men

2 And rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred fifty leaders of the assembly, who were summoned to the meeting, well-known men.

3 And they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much upon yourselves, for all the assembly are holy, every one of them, and Jehovah is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the congregation of Jehovah?

4 And when Moses heard this, he fell on his face.

5 And he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, In the morning Jehovah will make known who is His and who is holy, and will bring him near to Himself; even the one whom He will choose He will bring near to Himself.

6 Do this: Take censers for yourselves, Korah and all ⁶your company,

7 And put fire in them, and put incense on them before Jehovah tomorrow; and the man whom Jehovah chooses, he shall be holy. It is you who take too much upon yourselves, O sons of Levi!

8 And Moses said to Korah, Hear now, O sons of Levi:

9 Is it a small thing for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the assembly of Israel to bring you near to 6¹ Lit., his company.

Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of Jehovah and to stand before the assembly to minister to them?

10 Or that He has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? And do you seek the priesthood also?

11 Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against Jehovah; but Aaron, what is he that you murmur against him?

12 Then Moses sent word to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab; but they said, We will not come up!

13 Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to have us die in the wilderness, but must you also exercise leadership over us?

14 Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor have you given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!

15 Then Moses became very angry and said to Jehovah, Do not regard their offering. I have not taken a single donkey from them, nor have I done harm to any of them.

16 And Moses said to Korah, You and all your company be present before Jehovah, both you and they along with Aaron, tomorrow.

17 And let each of you take his censer and put incense on them, and each of you present his censer before Jehovah, two hundred fifty censers; you also and Aaron shall each present his censer.

18 So each took his censer and put fire on them and laid incense on them, and they stood at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron.

2. God's Judgment
16:19-50

19 Thus Korah gathered the whole assembly against them at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Jehovah appeared to the whole assembly.

20 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this assembly, so that I may consume them in a moment.

22 But they fell on their faces and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, will one man sin and You be angry with the whole assembly?

23 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

24 Speak to the assembly, saying, Get away from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spoke to the assembly, saying, Depart now from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing which belongs to them, or you will be swept away with all their sins.

27 So they got away from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood at the entrance of their tents, with their wives and their children and their little ones.

28 And Moses said, By this you shall know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these works, for it is ¹not of myself.

29 If these people die as all human beings die, or if what befalls all human beings befalls them, then Jehovah has not sent me.

30 But if Jehovah brings about a new thing, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they descend alive into Sheol, then you will understand that these men have despised Jehovah.

28¹ Lit., not from my heart.

31 And as soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them was split open.

32 So the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households and everyone who belonged to Korah and all their possessions.

33 So they and all that belonged to them descended alive into Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the congregation.

34 And all Israel who were around them fled at their outcry, for they said, The earth may swallow us up too!

35 And fire came forth from Jehovah and consumed the two hundred fifty men who presented the incense.

36 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

37 Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest to take the censers up out of the burning and scatter the fire about; for they are holy.

38 The censers of those who have sinned against their own ¹lives, let them be made into beaten plates for a covering of the altar, for they presented them before Jehovah and they became holy. So they shall be a sign to the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers which those who were burned had offered; and they beat them out as a covering of the altar, 40 As a reminder to the children of Israel that no stranger who is not of the seed of Aaron may come near to burn incense before Jehovah, so that he does not become like Korah and his company, just as Jehovah had spoken to him through Moses.

41 But on the next day the whole assembly of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying,

You have caused the people of Jehovah to die.

42 But when the assembly gathered against Moses and against Aaron, they looked toward the Tent of Meeting, and there the cloud was, covering it; and the glory of Jehovah appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of Meeting.

44 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

45 Get away from the midst this assembly that I might consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moses said to Aaron, Take the censer and put fire on it from the altar, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the assembly, and make expiation for them. For wrath has gone forth from Jehovah; the plague has begun.

47 And Aaron took it as Moses had said and ran into the midst of the assembly. And indeed the plague had begun among the people. So he put on the incense and made expiation for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped.

49 Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died on account of Korah.

50 So Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting when the plague had been stopped.

CHAPTER 17

3. God's Vindication 17:1-13

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and take from them rods, one for each father's house, twelve rods from all their leaders according to their fathers' houses;

38¹ Lit., souls.

you shall write everyone's name upon his rod.

3 And you shall write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi, for there shall be one rod for the head of each of their fathers' houses.

4 And you shall place them in the Tent of Meeting before the testimony, where I meet with you.

5 And the rod of the man whom I choose shall bud, and I will put a stop to the murmurings of the children of Israel against Me, which they murmur against you.

6 So Moses spoke to the children of Israel. And every one of their leaders gave him a rod, one rod for each leader according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods, with the rod of Aaron among their rods.

7 And Moses placed the rods before Jehovah in the Tent of the Testimony.

8 And on the next day Moses went into the Tent of the Testimony, and there was the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi: it had budded; it even put forth buds and produced blossoms and bore ripe almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the children of Israel, and they looked; and each one took his rod.

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony to be kept as a sign against the ¹rebels, so that you may put an end to their murmurings against Me, and they not die.

11 And Moses did so; just as Jehovah commanded him, so he did.

12 And the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Alas, we die out; we perish; all of us perish.

13 Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of Jehovah, dies. Are we to completely die out?

CHAPTER 18

F. The Levitical Service and the Aaronic Priesthood, with Their Reward
18:1-32

1. The Levitical Service and the Aaronic Priesthood
vv. 1-7

1 Then Jehovah said to Aaron, You and your sons and your father's household with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring near with you, so that they may be joined to you and minister to you, while you and your sons with you are before the Tent of the Testimony.

3 And they shall keep your charge and the charge of all the tent, but they shall not come near to the furnishings of the sanctuary and to the altar, so that they do not die, neither they nor you.

4 And they shall be joined to you and keep the charge of the Tent of Meeting for all the service of the tent, but a stranger shall not come near to you.

5 And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary and the charge of the altar, so that there may be no more wrath upon the children of Israel.

6 And I Myself have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel. They are a gift to you, given to Jehovah, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting.

7 But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and within the veil, and you shall carry out your service. I give you the priesthood as a service of gift, but the ¹unauthorized person who comes near shall be put to death.

10¹ Lit., children of rebellion. 7¹ Lit., stranger.

2. The Reward
vv. 8-32

a. To Aaron and His Sons as the Priests
vv. 8-20

8 Then Jehovah spoke to Aaron, And I Myself have given you charge of My heave offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel; I have given them to you because of the anointing, and to your sons, as a perpetual statute.

9 This shall be yours of the most holy things, kept from the fire. Every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs and every sin offering of theirs and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons.

10 As the most holy things you shall eat it; every male shall eat it; it shall be holy to you.

11 This also is yours, the heave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a perpetual statute; everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

12 All the ¹best of the oil, and all the ¹best of new wine and of the grain, their firstfruits that they give to Jehovah, I have given to you.

13 The firstfruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to Jehovah, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

14 Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours.

15 Everything that opens the womb of all flesh, which they present to Jehovah, whether human or animal, shall be yours; nevertheless the firstborn of human beings you shall surely redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.

16 And those who are to be redeemed from a month old you shall redeem, ac-ording to your estimation, for five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstborn of a cow or the firstborn of a sheep or the firstborn of a goat you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood upon the altar and burn their fat as an offering by fire for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

18 But their flesh shall be yours; like the breast of the wave offering and like the right thigh, it shall be yours.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to Jehovah, I have given to you and to your sons and your daughters with you, as a perpetual statute. It is a covenant of salt forever before Jehovah for you and for your ¹descendants with you.

20 And Jehovah said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

b. To the Levites as the Serving Ones in the Tent of Meeting
vv. 21-32

21 And to the children of Levi I have now given every tithe in Israel for an inheritance in return for their service which they carry out, the service of the Tent of Meeting.

22 From now on the children of Israel shall not come near the Tent of Meeting, so that they do not incur sin and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations. And among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

24 For the tithe of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave offering to Jehovah, I have given to the Levites for 12¹ Lit., fat. So throughout this chapter. 19¹ Lit., seed.

an inheritance; therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

26 Moreover you shall speak to the Levites and say to them, When you take from the children of Israel the tithe which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering from it for Jehovah, a tithe of the tithe.

27 And your heave offering shall be reckoned to you as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and the fullness of the wine press.

28 Thus you shall also offer a heave offering to Jehovah from all your tithes, which you receive from the children of Israel; and from it you shall give Jehovah's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts you shall offer every heave offering of Jehovah, from all the best of it, the sanctified portion of it from them.

30 Therefore you shall say to them, When you heave from it the best of it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as though it were the produce of the threshing floor and the produce of the wine press.

31 And you may eat it in every place, you and your households, for it is your reward in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting.

32 And you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, so that you do not die.

CHAPTER 19

G. The Water for Impurity 19:1-22

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

8¹ Lit., it. 11¹ Lit., soul.

2 This is the statute of the law which Jehovah has commanded, saying, Tell the children of Israel to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which is no blemish and upon which a yoke has never come.

3 And you shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and he shall bring it outside the camp, and one shall slaughter it in his presence.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle its blood toward the front of the Tent of Meeting seven times.

5 And the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its skin and its flesh and its blood, with its dung, shall be burned.

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet strands, and cast them into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp; but the priest shall be unclean until the evening.

8 And he who burns the ¹heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

9 And a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and place them outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the assembly of the children of Israel as water for impurity; it is a sin offering.

10 And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. And it shall be a perpetual statute to the children of Israel and to the stranger who sojourns among them.

11 One who touches the ¹dead body of any human being shall be unclean seven days.

12 He shall purify himself with it ¹on the third day and on the seventh day, and then he shall be clean; but if he does not purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he shall not be clean.

13 Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a human being who has died, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of Jehovah; and that person shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water for impurity was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is still on him.

14 This is the law when a man dies in a tent: Anyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel, which has no covering tied down on it, is unclean.

16 And whoever in the open field touches one who has been slain with a sword or a dead body or a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burning of the sin offering, and ¹running water shall be added to them in a vessel;

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent and on all the furnishings and on the persons who were there, or on the one who touched the bone or the one slain or the one who died or the grave.

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day, and on the seventh day he shall purify him. And he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water and shall be clean in the evening.

20 But the man who shall be unclean and does not purify himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Jehovah; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.

21 So it shall be a perpetual statute for them. And he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

22 And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening.

CHAPTER 20

H. Further Failures
20:1-13, 23-29; 21:4-9

1. The Result of Miriam's Failure 20:1

1 Then the children of Israel, the whole assembly, came to the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed at Kadesh; and Miriam died there and was buried there.

2. Contending for Water 20:2-13

2 And there was no water for the assembly, and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying, If only we had expired when our brothers expired before Jehovah!

4 Why then have you brought the congregation of Jehovah into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die there?

5 Why then did you bring us up out of Egypt, to bring us to this wretched place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, and there is not even water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from before the congregation to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and fell upon their faces, and the glory of Jehovah appeared to them.

12¹ Or, on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he does not purify himself the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean. 17¹ Lit., living.

7 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather the assembly, you and Aaron your brother, and speak to the rock before their eyes, so that it yields its water. Thus you shall bring forth water for them out of the rock and give the assembly and their livestock a drink.

9 And Moses took the rod from before Jehovah, as He had commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said to them, Listen now, you rebels: Shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?

11 Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock with his rod twice; and abundant water came forth, and the assembly and their livestock drank.

12 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, Because you did not believe in Me, to sanctify Me in the sight of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 These are the waters of Meribah, where the children of Israel contended with Jehovah, and He was sanctified among them.

I. Further Journeying
20:14-22; 21:10-20

1. From Kadesh to Mount Hor
20:14-22

14 Now Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: Thus says your brother Israel, You know all the hardship that has befallen us;

15 How our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians ill-treated us and our fathers;

16 And when we cried to Jehovah, He heard our voice and sent an Angel and brought us forth out of Egypt; and now we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border.

17 Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or through vineyard, nor will we drink water from any well; we will go along the King's Highway, not turning aside to the right or to the left, until we pass through your territory.

18 But Edom said to him, You shall not pass through ¹my territory, or else I will come out against you with the sword.

19 Then the children of Israel said to him, We will go up by the highway, and if I and my livestock drink some of your water, then I will pay its price. Allow me only this one thing, to pass through on ¹foot.

20 However he said, You shall not pass through. And Edom came out against him with a large number of people and with a mighty hand.

21 So Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory, and Israel turned away from him.

22 Now when they journeyed from Kadesh, the children of Israel, the whole assembly, came to Mount Hor.

(H. Further Failures—cont'd)
3. The Result of Aaron's Failure
20:23-29

23 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the waters of Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up Mount Hor;

26 And strip Aaron of his garments and put them upon Eleazar his son; so Aaron will be gathered to his people, and will die there.

18¹ Lit., me. 19¹ Lit., my feet.

27 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded, and they went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole assembly.

28 And when Moses had stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son, Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 And when the whole assembly saw that Aaron had expired, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

CHAPTER 21

III. Fighting

21:1-3; 21:21—32:42; 33:50—36:13

A. Defeating the King of Arad 21:1-3

1 And when the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who dwelt in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.

2 And Israel made a vow to Jehovah and said, If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 And Jehovah listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. Thus the name of the place was called Hormah.

(II. Journeying—cont'd)

(H. Further Failures—cont'd)

4. Speaking against God and Moses 21:4-9

4 Then they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and ¹the people became impatient on the way.

5 And the people spoke against God and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness?

For there is no food and there is no water; and our soul loathes this ¹light bread.

6 Then Jehovah sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.

7 And the people came to Moses and said, We have sinned, because we have spoken against Jehovah and against you; pray to Jehovah, that He may take away the serpents from us. So Moses prayed for the people.

8 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a ¹pole; and everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on the pole; and if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

(I. Further Journeying—cont'd)

2. Arriving at the Top of Pisgah 21:10-20

10 And the children of Israel journeyed and encamped at Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth and encamped at Iye-abarim in the wilderness which faces Moab toward the sunrise.

12 From there they journeyed and encamped in the valley of Zered.

13 From there they journeyed and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of Jehovah, Waheb in Suphah,

And the valleys of the Arnon,

15 And the slope of the valleys

That inclines toward the seat of Ar

And leans toward the border of Moab.

⁴ Lit., the soul of the people became short. ⁵ Or, contemptible, worthless. ⁸ Or, standard. So also in v. 9.

16 And from there they journeyed to Beer; that is the well where Jehovah said to Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song:
Spring up, O well! Sing to it!

18 The well, which the leaders sank,
Which the nobles of the people dug,
With the scepter, with their staffs.

And from the wilderness they journeyed to Mattanah;

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;

20 And from Bamoth to the valley that is in the ¹land of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down upon the desert.

(III. Fighting—cont'd)
B. Defeating Sihon
the King of the Amorites
21:21-32

21 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon the king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into field or into vineyard; we will not drink water from any well. We will go by the King's Highway, until we have passed through your territory.

23 But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. And Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities, and Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon and in all her villages.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

27 Therefore those who speak in proverbs say,

Come to Heshbon; let it be built,
And let the city of Sihon be established.

28 For fire has gone forth from Heshbon,
A flame from the city of Sihon;
It has consumed Ar of Moab,
¹And swallowed up the high places of the Arnon.

29 Woe to you, O Moab!
You have perished, O people of Chemosh;
He has given his sons as fugitives,
And his daughters have gone into captivity,
To an Amorite king, Sihon.

30 We have shot at them;
Heshbon is ruined as far as Dibon,
And we have laid waste as far as Nophah,
¹Fire spreads as far as Medeba.

31 Thus Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent some to spy out Jazer. And they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.

C. Defeating Og the King of Bashan
21:33-35

33 And they turned and went up on the way that leads to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.

20¹ Lit., field. 28¹ According to the Septuagint; the Hebrew text reads, The lords of the high places.... 30¹ According to the Septuagint; the Hebrew text reads, Which.

34 And Jehovah said to Moses, Do not fear him, for I have given him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon the king of the Amorites, who was dwelling at Heshbon.

35 So they struck him and his sons and all his people until there was no remnant left to him, and they possessed his land.

CHAPTER 22

D. The Harassment by Balak and Balaam 22:1—25:18

1. Balak's Evil Intention 22:1-40

1 And the children of Israel journeyed and encamped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho.

2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was very afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said to the elders of Midian, This multitude will now lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. Now Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

5 And he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, There is a people here who have come out from Egypt; now they cover the ¹surface of the land and have settled over against me.

6 Now, therefore, please come; curse this people for me, since they are mightier than I. Perhaps I may be able to strike them and drive them out of the land, for I know that whomever you bless is blessed and whomever you curse is cursed.

7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with fees for divination in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak.

8 And he said to them, Spend tonight here, and I will bring back word to you as Jehovah speaks to me. And the rulers of Moab stayed with Balaam.

9 And God came to Balaam and said, Who are these men with you?

10 And Balaam said to God, Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, has sent word to me, saying, 11 There is a people who came out of Egypt, and they cover the surface of the land. Now come; curse them for me; perhaps I will be able to fight against them and drive them out.

12 And God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.

13 So Balaam rose up in the morning and said to the rulers from Balak, Go to your land, for Jehovah has refused to let me go with you.

14 And the rulers of Moab rose up and went to Balak and said, Balaam refuses to come with us.

15 So Balak yet again sent rulers, more numerous and more honorable than these.

16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me, 17 For I will indeed honor you greatly; and whatever you say to me I will do. Please come therefore; curse this people for me.

18 And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, Even if Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of Jehovah my God, to do less or more.

19 Now you therefore please stay here tonight also, so that I may know what more Jehovah might speak to me.

⁵ Lit., eye. So also in v. 11.

20 And God came to Balaam at night and said to him, Since the men have come to call you, rise up; go with them, but only what I speak to you shall you do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the rulers of Moab.

22 And God's anger was kindled because he was going, and the Angel of Jehovah took His stand in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23 And when the donkey saw the Angel of Jehovah standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. And Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back into the way.

24 Then the Angel of Jehovah stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

25 And when the donkey saw the Angel of Jehovah, she pressed herself against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. So he struck her again.

26 And the Angel of Jehovah went further and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left.

27 And when the donkey saw the Angel of Jehovah, she lay down under Balaam. Then Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

28 And Jehovah opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?

29 And Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have mocked me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now.

30 And the donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been accustomed to do so to you? And he said, No.

31 Then Jehovah opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of Jehovah standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and he bowed his head and fell on his face.

32 And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I am here, having come out as an adversary, because your way was unrestrained before Me.

33 And the donkey saw Me and turned aside before Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, I would surely have killed you just now and let her live.

34 And Balaam said to the Angel of Jehovah, I have sinned, for I did not know that You were standing in the way against me. Now then, if it displeases You, I will turn back.

35 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Balaam, Go with the men; but you shall speak only the word that I shall speak to you. So Balaam went with the rulers from Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, at the farthest point of the border.

37 And Balak said to Balaam, Did I not send word urgently to you to call you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not indeed able to honor you?

38 And Balaam said to Balak, Here I am; I have come to you now. Am I able to speak anything at all? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.

40 And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent them to Balaam and to the rulers who were with him.

2. Balaam's Prophesying in Parables

22:41—24:25

a. The First Parable

22:41--23:12

41 And in the morning Balak took Balaam and brought him up to ¹Barnoth-baal, and he saw from there the edge of the people.

CHAPTER 23

1 Then Balaam said to Balak, Build me seven altars here, and have seven bulls and seven rams ready for me here.

2 And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken. And Balak and Balaam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

3 And Balaam said to Balak, Stand near your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps Jehovah will come to meet me; and whatever He shows me I will tell you. And he went to a bare height.

4 And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

5 And Jehovah put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, Return to Balak, and you shall speak this.

6 When he returned to him, there he was, standing beside his burnt offering, he and all the rulers of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable and said,

From Aram Balak brought me,

The king of Moab from the mountains of the East.

Come, curse Jacob for me;

And come, denounce Israel!

8 How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?

And how can I denounce whom Jehovah has not denounced?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him,

And from the hills I behold him.

Here is a people who live alone
And do not reckon themselves
among the nations.

10 Who can count the dust of Jacob,
Or number the fourth part of Israel?

Let ¹me die the death of the upright,
And let my latter end be like theirs!

11 And Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, but now you have altogether blessed them.

12 And he answered and said, Shall I not take care to speak what Jehovah puts in my mouth?

b. The Second Parable

23:13-26

13 And Balak said to him, Come now with me to another place from which you may see them. You will see only the outside edge of them and not see them all; then curse them for me from there.

14 So he took him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

15 And he said to Balak, Stand here near your burnt offering, while I meet Jehovah there.

16 And Jehovah met Balaam and put a word in his mouth and said, Return to Balak, and you shall speak this.

17 When he came to him, there he was, standing beside his burnt offering, and the rulers of Moab with him. And Balak said to him, What has Jehovah spoken?

18 And he took up his parable and said,
Arise, O Balak, and hear;

Listen to me, O son of Zippor:

19 God is not a man, that He should ¹lie,

Nor a son of man, that He should repent.

41' Or, the high places of Baal. 10' Lit., my soul. 19' Or, fail.

Has He said, and will He not do it?
Or has He spoken, and will He not establish it?

20 Now I have received a word to bless;
Since He has blessed, then I cannot reverse it.

21 He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob,
Nor has He seen trouble in Israel;
Jehovah their God is with them,
And the shout of a king is among them.

22 God is the One who brought them forth out of Egypt, ¹He has as it were the horns of the wild ox.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob,
Nor is there any divination against Israel.

Now it shall be said of Jacob
And of Israel, What has God wrought!

24 See, a people rises up like a lioness,
And like a lion they lift themselves up.
They shall not lie down until they eat the prey
And drink the blood of the slain.

25 And Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not tell you, saying, All that Jehovah speaks, that I must do?

c. The Third Parable
23:27—24:13

27 And Balak said to Balaam, Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.

28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which looks down upon the desert.

29 And Balaam said to Balak, Build me seven altars here, and have seven bulls and seven rams ready for me here.

30 And Balak did just as Balaam had said, and he offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

CHAPTER 24

1 And when Balaam saw that it pleased Jehovah to bless Israel, he did not go as at the other times to meet with enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes and saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he took up his parable and said,
Balaam the son of Beor declares,
And the man whose eye is ¹opened declares;

4 He declares, he who hears the words
of God,
Who sees the vision of the ¹All-sufficient One,
Falling down, but having his eyes
uncovered:

5 How fair are your tents, O Jacob,
Your tabernacles, O Israel!

6 Like ¹valleys they are spread forth,
Like gardens beside a river,
Like aloes which Jehovah has planted,
Like cedars beside water.

7 Water shall flow from his buckets,
And his seed shall be in many waters,
And his king shall be higher than Agag,
And his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God is the One who brought him
forth out of Egypt;
He has as it were the horns of the wild ox.

22¹ Or, He is for them like the horns of a wild ox. 3¹ Or, true. So also in v. 15. 4¹ Heb. Shaddai. So also in v. 16. 6¹ Or, palm trees.

He shall eat up the nations, his adversaries,
And shall break their bones in pieces,
And shatter them with his arrows.

9 He couches; he lies down like a lion
And like a lioness; who will rouse
him up?

Blessed is everyone who blesses you,
And cursed is everyone who curses you.

10 Then Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, but now you have altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee to your place! I said I would greatly honor you, but now
Jehovah has kept you away from honor.

12 And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,

13 Even if Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the word of Jehovah, to do either good or bad from my own heart? What Jehovah speaks, that I will speak.

d. The Fourth Parable
24:14-25

14 And now therefore, I am going to my people. Come, let me give you counsel as to what this people will do to your people in the last days.

15 And he took up his parable and said,
Balaam the son of Beor declares,
And the man whose eye is opened declares;

16 He declares, he who hears the words
of God
And obtains the knowledge of the Most High,
Who sees the vision of the
All-sufficient One,

Falling down, but having his eyes
uncovered:

17 I see Him, but not now;
I behold Him, but not near.
There shall come forth a Star out of Jacob,
And a Scepter shall rise out of Israel,
And He shall crush the corners of Moab,
And break down all the sons of Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be dispossessed, Seir, His enemies, shall also be dispossessed;
While Israel does valiantly.

19 And One from Jacob shall have dominion
And destroy the remnant from the ¹city.

20 And he looked on Amalek and took up his parable and said,

Amalek was the first of the nations,
But his latter end shall come to destruction.

21 And he looked on the Kenites and took up his parable and said,

Strong is your dwelling place,
And your nest is set in the rock.

22 Nevertheless Kain shall be burned Until Asshur carry you away captive.

23 And he took up his parable and said,
Alas, who shall live when God does this?

24 But ships shall come from the coast of Kittim,
And they shall afflict Asshur and shall afflict Eber;
And he also shall come to destruction.

25 And Balaam rose up and went back to his place, and Balak also went his way.

CHAPTER 25

3. Israel's Fall in Fornication and Idolatry
25:1-18

1 While Israel dwelt in Shittim, the people began to commit fornication with the daughters of Moab.

2 For they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel joined itself to Baal-peor, and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel.

4 And Jehovah said to Moses, Take all the leaders of the people and hang them up to Jehovah before the sun, so that the fierce anger of Jehovah may turn away from Israel.

5 And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Each of you slay his men who have joined themselves to Baal-peor.

6 Just then one of the children of Israel came and brought a Midianite woman to his brothers in the sight of Moses and in the sight of the whole assembly of the children of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

7 And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the assembly, and took a spear in his hand,

8 And went after the man of Israel into the tent and pierced both of them, the man of Israel and the woman through her stomach. So the plague among the children of Israel was stopped.

9 And those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

10 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with My jealousy among them, so that I did not consume the children of Israel in My jealousy.

12 Therefore say, I now give him My covenant of peace,

13 And it shall be to him and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was jealous for his God and made expiation for the children of Israel.

14 Now the name of the slain man of Israel, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a father's household among the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, head of the people of a father's household in Midian.

16 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

17 Harass the Midianites and strike them;

18 For they have harassed you with their deception with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.

CHAPTER 26

E. The Renumbering of the People
26:1-65

1 Now after the plague Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 Take the sum of the whole assembly of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' households, all who are able to go forth for military service in Israel.

3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

4 Take the sum of the people, from twenty years old and upward, as Jehovah commanded Moses. Now the children of Israel, who came forth out of the land of Egypt were:

5 Reuben, the firstborn of Israel; the sons of Reuben: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

6 Of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites, and those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty.

8 And the sons of Pallu: Eliab.

9 And the sons of Eliab: Nemuel and Dathan and Abiram. These are the Dathan and Abiram, who were called by the assembly, who contended against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they contended against Jehovah;

10 And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, when the fire consumed two hundred fifty men; and they became a sign.

11 But the sons of Korah did not die.

12 The sons of Simeon according to their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites;

13 Of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.

14 These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred.

15 The sons of Gad according to their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;

16 Of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites;

17 Of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites.

18 These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, forty thousand five hundred.

19 The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

20 And the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.

21 And the sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

22 These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them, seventy-six thousand five hundred.

23 The sons of Issachar according to their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites;

24 Of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites.

25 These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, sixty-four thousand three hundred.

26 The sons of Zebulun according to their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.

27 These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, sixty thousand five hundred.

28 The sons of Joseph according to their families: Manasseh and Ephraim.

29 The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir begat Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

30 These are the sons of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

31 And of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

32 And of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hopher, the family of the Hopherites.

33 Now Zelophehad the son of Hopher had no sons, but daughters, and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

35 These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

36 And these are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

37 These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph according to their families.

38 The sons of Benjamin according to their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites;

39 Of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

40 And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

41 These are the sons of Benjamin according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred.

42 These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan according to their families.

43 All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.

44 The sons of Asher according to their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites.

45 From the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites.

46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.

47 These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand four hundred.

48 The sons of Naphtali according to their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites;

49 Of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.

51 These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty.

52 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

53 To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 You shall increase the larger group's inheritance, and you shall reduce the smaller group's inheritance. Each shall be given their inheritance according to those who were numbered of them.

55 But the land shall be apportioned by lot; they shall inherit it according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

56 According to the lot their inheritance shall be apportioned among the larger and the smaller groups.

57 And these are those who were numbered of the Levites according to their families: of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of Levi: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. And Kohath begot Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and their sister Miriam.

60 And to Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before Jehovah.

62 And those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward, for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because no inheritance was given to them among the children of Israel.

63 These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

64 But among these there was not one of those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For Jehovah had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And not one of them was left, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

F. The Statute of Judgment for the Women's Inheriting of the Land 27:1-11

1. The Request of the Daughters of Zelophehad vv. 1-4

1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph came near. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and the whole assembly at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against Jehovah in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and he had no sons.

4 Why should our father's name be taken away from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers.

2. God's Statute of Judgment vv. 5-11

5 And Moses brought their case before Jehovah.

6 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak rightly. You shall surely give them the possession of an inheritance among their father's brothers; and you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.

8 And you shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

9 And if he does not have a daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

11 And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his relative nearest to him among his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be a statute of judgment for the children of Israel, as Jehovah commanded Moses.

G. The Death of Moses, and His Successor 27:12-23

1. The Death of Moses (The Result of Moses' Failure) vv. 12-14

12 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go up to this mountain of the Abarim and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.

13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother was gathered,

14 Because you rebelled against My word in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the assembly, and failed to sanctify Me at the waters before their eyes. (These are the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin.)

2. The Successor of Moses
vv. 15-23

15 And Moses spoke to Jehovah, saying,

16 Let Jehovah, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the assembly, 17 Who will go out before them and who will come in before them, and who will lead them out and who will bring them in; so that the assembly of Jehovah will not be like sheep which have no shepherd.

18 And Jehovah said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand upon him;

19 And set him before Eleazar the priest and before the whole assembly, and give him a charge in their sight.

20 And you shall put some of your honor upon him, so that the whole assembly of the children of Israel may obey him.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, and he shall inquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before Jehovah. At his word shall they go out and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the children of Israel with him, even the whole assembly.

22 And Moses did as Jehovah commanded him, and he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before the whole assembly.

23 And he laid his hands upon him and gave him a charge just as Jehovah had spoken through Moses.

CHAPTER 28

H. The Statutes

28:1 — 30:16

1. Concerning the Offerings

28:1 — 29:40

a. The Offerings by Fire, God's Satisfying Fragrance 28:1-2

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel and say to them, My offering, My food for My offerings by fire of a satisfying fragrance to Me, you shall be careful to present to Me at its appointed time.

b. A Continual Burnt Offering for Every Day 28:3-8

3 And you shall say to them, This is the offering by fire which you shall present to Jehovah: two male lambs a year old without blemish each day as a continual burnt offering.

4 One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer ¹at twilight;

5 Also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with the fourth of a hin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was set up on Mount Sinai for a satisfying fragrance, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

7 And its drink offering shall be the fourth of a hin for the one lamb; in the sanctuary you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to Jehovah.

8 And the other lamb you shall offer at twilight; you shall offer it with the meal offering and its drink offering as in the morning, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah.

⁴ Lit., between the two evenings. So also in v. 8.

c. A Burnt Offering for Every Sabbath
28:9-10

9 And on the Sabbath day two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, and its drink offering—

10 This is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

d. A Burnt Offering for the Beginning of Every Month
28:11-15

11 And at the beginnings of your months you shall present a burnt offering to Jehovah: two bulls of the herd and one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

12 And three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for each bull; and two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for the one ram;

13 And a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering for each lamb for a burnt offering, a satisfying fragrance, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, and a third of a hin for the ram, and a fourth of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year.

15 Also one male goat for a sin offering to Jehovah shall be offered in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

e. A Burnt Offering Following the Passover
28:16-25

16 And in the first month on the fourteenth day of the month shall be Jehovah's passover.

17 And on the fifteenth day of this month shall be a feast; seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten.

18 On the first day there shall be a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor;

19 But you shall present an offering by fire, a burnt offering to Jehovah: two bulls of the herd and one ram and seven male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish for you;

20 And you shall offer their meal offering of fine flour mingled with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for a bull and two-tenths for a ram;

21 You shall offer one-tenth for each lamb of the seven lambs;

22 And one male goat as a sin offering, to make expiation for you.

23 You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 In this way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

25 And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor.

f. A Burnt Offering for the Feast of Weeks
28:26-31

26 Also in the day of the firstfruits, when you present a new meal offering to Jehovah on your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor;

27 But you shall present a burnt offering for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah: two bulls of the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old;

28 And their meal offering of fine flour mingled with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for one ram,

29 One-tenth for each lamb of the seven lambs;

30 And one male goat, to make expiation for you.

31 Besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering, you shall offer them (they shall be without blemish for you) and their drink offerings.

CHAPTER 29

g. A Burnt Offering for the Day of the Blowing of Trumpets 29:1-6

1 Now in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor. It is a day of blowing of trumpets for you.

2 And you shall offer a burnt offering for a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah: one bull of the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

3 And their meal offering of fine flour mingled with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

4 And one-tenth for each lamb of the seven lambs;

5 And one male goat as a sin offering, to make expiation for you;

6 Besides the burnt offering of the new moon and its meal offering, and the continual burnt offering and its meal offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a satisfying fragrance, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

h. A Burnt Offering for the Day of Expiation 29:7-11

7 And on the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and you shall afflict your souls; you shall not do any work.

8 And you shall present a burnt offering to Jehovah for a satisfying fragrance: one bull of the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish for you;

9 And their meal offering of fine flour mingled with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

10 One-tenth for each lamb of the seven lambs;

11 One male goat as a sin offering; besides the sin offering of expiation and the continual burnt offering and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.

i. A Burnt Offering for the Feast of Tabernacles 29:12-38

12 And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no work of labor, and you shall hold a feast to Jehovah seven days.

13 And you shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah: thirteen bulls of the herd, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish;

14 And their meal offering of fine flour mingled with oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths of an ephah for each ram of the two rams,

15 And one-tenth of an ephah for each lamb of the fourteen lambs;

16 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

17 And on the second day: twelve bulls of the herd, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

18 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

19 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering, and their drink offerings.

20 And on the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

21 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

22 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering and its drink offering.

23 And on the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

24 Their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

25 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

26 And on the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

27 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

28 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering and its drink offering.

29 And on the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

30 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

31 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offerings.

32 And on the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish;

33 And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance;

34 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

35 On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly; you shall do no work of labor,

36 But you shall present a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a satisfying fragrance to Jehovah: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

37 Their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs by their number according to the ordinance;

38 And one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering and its drink offering.

j. All the Offerings for Every Day, for Every Sabbath,
for the Beginning of Every Month, and for All the Yearly Feasts
29:39-40

39 These you shall offer to Jehovah in your appointed feasts, besides your vows and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings and for your meal offerings and for your drink offerings and for your peace offerings.

40 And Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 30

2. Concerning Vows 30:1-16

1 And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is what Jehovah has commanded:

2 When a man vows a vow to Jehovah or swears an oath to bind himself by pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

3 But when a woman vows a vow to Jehovah or binds herself by pledge in her father's house in her youth,

4 And her father hears of her vow

² Lit., his soul. So throughout this chapter.

or her pledge by which she has bound herself, and her father is silent with respect to her; then all her vows will stand, and any pledge by which she has bound herself will stand.

5 But if her father disallows her on the day he hears, none of her vows or of her pledges by which she has bound herself will stand; and Jehovah will forgive her because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she gets married, while her vows are upon her or the rash utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself,

7 And her husband hears of it and is silent with respect to her on the day he hears it, then her vows will stand and her pledges by which she has bound herself will stand.

8 But if, on the day her husband hears of it, he disallows her, then he makes void her vow which is upon her and the rash utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself; and Jehovah will forgive her.

9 But the vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, everything by which she has bound herself, will stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house or bound herself by a pledge with an oath, 11 And her husband heard of it and was silent with respect to her and did not disallow her, then all her vows will stand and any pledge by which she has bound herself will stand.

12 But if her husband made them null and void on the day he heard of it, then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows or concerning the pledging of herself will not stand; her husband has made them void, and Jehovah will forgive her.

13 As for every vow and every binding oath to afflict herself, her husband may establish it or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband is completely silent with respect to her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows or all her pledges which are upon her; he has established them because he was silent with respect to her on the day he heard it.

15 But if he makes them null and void some time after he has heard of it, then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which Jehovah commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter while in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER 31

I. Overcoming the Midianites

31:1-54

1. The Commandment of Jehovah to Avenge the Sons of Israel on the Midianites
vv. 1-2

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Thoroughly avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites; afterward you will be gathered to your people.

2. The Strategy of Moses

vv. 3-6

3 And Moses spoke to the people, saying, Arm men from among you for the war, that they may come upon Midian to execute Jehovah's vengeance on Midian.

4 A thousand from each tribe, of all the tribes of Israel, you shall send to the war.

5 So out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand for each tribe were committed, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them, a thousand for each tribe, to the war, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest with them, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

3. The Victory of the Israelites over the Midianites
vv. 7-12

7 And they warred against Midian, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses; and they killed every male.

8 And they killed the kings of Midian in addition to the others slain among them: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian; also Balaam the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones, and all their cattle and all their livestock and all their goods they plundered.

10 And all their cities in which they had settled and all their encampments, they burned with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil and all the booty, both of man and of beast.

12 And they brought the captives and the booty and the spoil to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the assembly of the children of Israel, to the camp in the plains of Moab, which was beside the Jordan at Jericho.

4. The Purging and Purification of the Captives and the Spoil
vv. 13-24

13 And Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the assembly went out to meet them outside the camp.

14 And Moses became angry with the officers of the company, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from service in the war.

15 And Moses said to them, Have you kept all the women alive?

16 It was these who caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to act unfaithfully against Jehovah in the matter of Peor, so that the plague came upon the assembly of Jehovah.

16¹ Lit., to offer up unfaithfulness.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man by lying with him.

18 But all the little ones among the women, who have not known a male by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And you, encamp outside the camp seven days, everyone who has killed any person and everyone who has touched any slain; purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives.

20 And you shall purify for yourselves every garment and every article of skin and everything made of goats' hair and every article of wood.

21 And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to the battle, This is the statute of the law which Jehovah has commanded Moses:

22 Only the gold and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, 23 Everything that can go into the fire, you shall pass through the fire, and it will become clean; but it shall be purified with the water for impurity; and everything that cannot go into the fire you shall pass through the water.

24 And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean, and afterward you may come into the camp.

5. The Distribution of the Plunder, Both of Man and of Cattle
vv. 25-47

25 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

26 You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers' households of the assembly, take the sum of the booty that was captured, both of man and of beast, 27 And halve the booty between those skilled in war who went out to battle and the whole assembly.

28 And levy a tribute to Jehovah from the men of war who went out to battle: one ¹living thing out of five hundred, of the persons and of the cattle and of the donkeys and of the flock;

29 Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest, for Jehovah's heave offering.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, you shall take one seized out of fifty, of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, from all the beasts, and give them to the Levites, who keep the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as Jehovah commanded Moses.

32 Now the booty that was left from the spoil which the men of war took was six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep,

33 And seventy-two thousand cattle,

34 And sixty-one thousand donkeys,

35 And thirty-two thousand persons in all, the women who had not known lying with a male.

36 And the half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep.

37 And Jehovah's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy-five.

38 And the cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which Jehovah's tribute was seventy-two.

39 And the donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which Jehovah's tribute was sixty-one.

40 And the human beings were sixteen thousand, of whom Jehovah's tribute was thirty-two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, Jehovah's heave offering, to Eleazar the priest, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses had separated from the men who had gone to war—

43 That is, the assembly's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty-six thousand cattle,

45 And thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

46 And sixteen thousand persons—

47 Now Moses took from the children of Israel's half, one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

6. The Offering to Jehovah by the Officers of the Army
vv. 48-54

48 And the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, approached Moses.

49 And they said to Moses, Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are ¹under our charge, and not a man is missing from us;

50 And we have presented Jehovah's offering, what every man has obtained, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings and pendants, to make expiation for our souls before Jehovah.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all kinds of wrought articles.

52 And all the gold of the heave offering which they offered up to Jehovah, from the captains of thousands and from the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.

53 The men of war had taken booty, each for himself.

54 So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah.

28' Lit., soul. 49' Lit., in our hand.

CHAPTER 32

J. The Prearrangement of the Distribution of the Good Land
32:1-42; 33:50—36:13

1. Concerning the Land East of the Jordan
32:1-42

a. The Request of the Two Tribes, Reuben and Gad
vv. 1-5

1 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great abundance of livestock. And when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead, that the place was indeed a place for livestock,

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the assembly, saying,

3 Ataroth and Dibon and Jazer and Nimrah and Heshbon and Elealeh and Sebam and Nebo and Beon,

4 The land which Jehovah struck before the assembly of Israel, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.

5 And they said, If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not make us cross over the Jordan.

b. The Rebuking and Warning of Moses
vv. 6-15

6 And Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brothers go to war, while you stay here?

7 Now why would you discourage the heart of the children of Israel from crossing over into the land which Jehovah has given them?

8 Your fathers did this when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 When they went up to the valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel from going into the land which Jehovah had given them.

10 And Jehovah's anger was kindled in that day, and He swore, saying,

11 Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not fully followed Me;

12 Except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, because they have fully followed Jehovah.

13 And Jehovah's anger was kindled against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the whole generation which had done evil in the sight of Jehovah was consumed.

14 And now you have risen up in your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to further increase the burning anger of Jehovah toward Israel.

15 For if you turn away from following Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy this entire people.

c. The Promise of the Two Tribes
vv. 16-19

16 And they came near to him and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock and cities for our little ones;

17 But we ourselves will be armed and ready to go before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return to our houses until each one of the children of Israel has inherited his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and further on, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan eastward.

d. The Permission of Moses
vv. 20-42

20 And Moses said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves before Jehovah for war,

21 And all of your armed men will cross over the Jordan before Jehovah until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, 22 And the land is subdued before Jehovah, then afterward you shall return and be free of obligation toward Jehovah and toward Israel; and this land shall be yours for a possession before Jehovah.

23 But if you will not do so, then you have sinned against Jehovah; and know that your sin will find you out.

24 Build for yourselves cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do what has proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, Your servants will do as my lord commands.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our livestock, and all our cattle will be there in the cities of Gilead;

27 But your servants will cross over, everyone who is armed for war before Jehovah to battle, as my lord says.

28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel.

29 And Moses said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, everyone who is armed to battle before Jehovah, and the land is subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as a possession.

30 But if they do not cross over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As Jehovah has said to your servants, so will we do.

32 We will cross over armed before Jehovah into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance will remain with us beyond the Jordan.

33 And Moses gave to them, to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og the king of Bashan, the land according to its cities with their territories, the cities of the surrounding land.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer

35 And Atroth-shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah

36 And Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim

38 And Nebo and Baal-meon—their names to be changed—and Sibmah, and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40 And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he dwelt in it.

41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its villages and called them Havvoth-jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath and its towns, and called it Nobah after his own name.

CHAPTER 33

(II. Journeying—cont'd)

J. The Stations of the Journey
33:1-49

1 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, when they went forth out of the land of Egypt by their companies under the ¹direction of Moses and Aaron.

2 And Moses wrote down the places that they went out from for their journeys according to the commandment of Jehovah; and these are their ¹stages according to the places they went out from.

3 Now they journeyed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians,

4 While the Egyptians were burying those whom Jehovah had struck down among them, all their firstborn; on their gods Jehovah also executed judgments.

5 And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses and encamped at Succoth.

6 And they journeyed from Succoth and encamped at Etham, which is at the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they journeyed from Etham and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which faces Baal-zephon; and they encamped before Migdol.

8 And they journeyed from ¹Pi-hahiroth and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and they went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham and encamped at Marah.

9 And they journeyed from Marah and came to Elim. And in Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they encamped there.

10 And they journeyed from Elim and encamped by the Red Sea.

11 And they journeyed from the Red Sea and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.

12 And they journeyed from the wilderness of Sin and encamped at Dophkah.

13 And they journeyed from Dophkah and encamped at Alush.

14 And they journeyed from Alush and encamped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink there.

15 And they journeyed from Rephidim and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai.

16 And they journeyed from the wilderness of Sinai and encamped at Kibroth-hattaavah.

17 And they journeyed from Kibroth-hattaavah and encamped at Hazeroth.

18 And they journeyed from Hazeroth and encamped at Rithmah.

19 And they journeyed from Rithmah and encamped at Rimmon-perez.

20 And they journeyed from Rimmon-perez and encamped at Libnah.

21 And they journeyed from Libnah and encamped at Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah and encamped at Kehelathah.

23 And they journeyed from Kehelathah and encamped at Mount Shepher.

24 And they journeyed from Mount Shepher and encamped at Haradah.

25 And they journeyed from Haradah and encamped at Makheloth.

26 And they journeyed from Makheloth and encamped at Tahath.

27 And they journeyed from Tahath and encamped at Terah.

28 And they journeyed from Terah and encamped at Mithkah.

29 And they journeyed from Mithkah and encamped at Hashmonah.

30 And they journeyed from Hashmonah and encamped at Moseroth.

31 And they journeyed from Moseroth and encamped at Bene-jaakan.

32 And they journeyed from Bene-jaakan and encamped at Hor-haggidgad.

33 And they journeyed from Hor-haggidgad and encamped at Jotbathah.

1¹ Lit., hand. 2¹ Lit., journeys. 8¹ According to many manuscripts and some ancient versions. The Hebrew text reads, before Hahiroth.

34 And they journeyed from Jotbathah and encamped at Abronah.

35 And they journeyed from Abronah and encamped at Ezion-geber.

36 And they journeyed from Ezion-geber and encamped in the wilderness of Zin, that is, Kadesh.

37 And they journeyed from Kadesh and encamped in Mount Hor at the edge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up onto Mount Hor at the commandment of Jehovah and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.

39 And Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

40 And the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who was dwelling in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

41 And they journeyed from Mount Hor and encamped at Zalmonah.

42 And they journeyed from Zalmonah and encamped at Punon.

43 And they journeyed from Punon and encamped at Oboth.

44 And they journeyed from Oboth and encamped at Iye-abarim on the border of Moab.

45 And they journeyed from Iyim and encamped at Dibon-gad.

46 And they journeyed from Dibon-gad and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.

47 And they journeyed from Almon-diblathaim and encamped in the mountains of the Abarim before Nebo.

48 And they journeyed from the mountains of the Abarim and encamped in the plains of Moab beside the Jordan at Jericho.

49 And they encamped beside the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.

(III. Fighting—cont'd)

(J. The Prearrangement of the Distribution of the Good Land—cont'd)

2. The Statutes for Inheriting the Good Land
33:50-56

50 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

51 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

52 You shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and you shall destroy all their figured stones and destroy all their molten images and demolish all their high places;

53 And you shall take possession of the land and dwell in it, for to you I have given the land to possess it.

54 And you shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the larger you shall give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give a smaller inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to anyone, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those whom you let remain of them will become as splinters in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will trouble you in the land in which you are dwelling.

56 And just as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you.

CHAPTER 34

3. The Boundaries of the Good Land and Its Distributors 34:1-29

a. The Boundaries of the Good Land
vv. 1-15

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan according to its borders.

3 And your southern section shall be from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern border shall begin from the end of the Salt Sea on the east.

4 And your border shall turn about south to the ascent of Akrabbim and pass on to Zin, and it shall go out to the south of Kadesh-barnea, even going out to Hazar-addar; then it shall pass on to Azmon.

5 Then the border shall turn from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and it shall go out to the sea.

6 And for the western border you shall have the Great Sea and its coast; this shall be your western border.

7 And this shall be your northern border: From the Great Sea you shall mark out a line for yourselves to Mount Hor.

8 From Mount Hor you shall mark out a line to the entrance of Hamath; and the border shall go out to Zedad;

9 And the border shall go out to Ziphron, and it shall go out to Hazar-enan. This shall be your northern border.

10 And you shall mark out your eastern border from Hazar-enan to Shepham;

11 And the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and reach the slope on the east of the Sea of Chinnereth;

12 And the border shall go down to the Jordan, and it shall go out to the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders all around.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall inherit by lot, which Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.

14 For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their fathers' households and the tribe of the children of Gad according to their fathers' households and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.

15 The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.

b. The Distributors of the Good Land
vv. 16-29

16 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

18 And you shall take one leader from each tribe to divide the land for inheritance.

19 And these are the names of the men: For the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20 And for the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.

21 For the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 And for the tribe of the children of Dan, a leader, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23 For the children of Joseph: For the tribe of the children of Manasseh, a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24 And for the tribe of the children of Ephraim, a leader, Kemuel the son of Shiptan.

25 And for the tribe of the children of Zebulun, a leader, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26 And for the tribe of the children of Issachar, a leader, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27 And for the tribe of the children of Asher, a leader, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28 And for the tribe of the children of Naphtali, a leader, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

29 These are those whom Jehovah commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35

4. The Cities Given to the Levites and the Cities of Refuge

35:1-34

a. The Cities Given to the Levites vv. 1-8

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel to give to the Levites some of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and you shall give to the Levites pasture lands around their cities.

3 And the cities shall be for them to dwell in, and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their livestock and for all their animals.

4 And the pasture lands of the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be from the city wall and outward, a thousand cubits all around.

5 And you shall measure from the outside of the city on the east side two thousand cubits and on the south side two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the center. This shall be their pasture lands for the cities.

6 And the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to; and besides them you shall give forty-two cities.

7 All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, them and their pasture lands.

8 And concerning the cities which you shall give from the possession of the children of Israel, from the larger tribe you shall take a larger number, and from the smaller tribe you shall take a smaller number; each one, according to its inheritance which they will inherit, shall give some of its cities to the Levites.

b. The Cities of Refuge

vv. 9-34

9 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, 11 Then you shall designate for yourselves cities to be your cities of refuge, so that the manslayer who kills any person unintentionally may flee there.

12 And the cities shall be for you as a refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer may not die ¹unless he stands before the assembly for judgment.

13 And the cities which you shall give shall be your six cities of refuge.

14 You shall give three cities across the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge.

15 For the children of Israel and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, these six cities shall be for refuge, so that anyone who kills a person unintentionally may flee there.

16 But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, and he died, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he struck him with a stone in hand, by which one could die, and he did die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he struck him with a wooden object in hand, by which one could die, and he did die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death; when he encounters him, he shall put him to death.

¹² Lit., until.

20 And if he pushed him out of hatred or threw something upon him while lying in wait, and he died, 21 Or in enmity struck him with his hand, and he died, the one who struck him shall surely be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he encounters him.

22 But if he pushed him suddenly without enmity, or threw upon him anything without lying in wait,

23 Or came upon him with any stone, by which someone could die, without seeing him and dropped it upon him, and he died, when he was not his enemy and did not seek his harm,

24 Then the assembly shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances.

25 And the assembly shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the assembly shall return him to his city of refuge to which he had fled; and he shall dwell in it until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the boundary of his city of refuge to which he has fled,

27 And the avenger of blood finds him outside the boundary of his city of refuge and the avenger of blood slays the manslayer, he shall not have guilt for blood, 28 Because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; but after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return to the land of his possession.

29 And these things shall be for a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoever kills a person, the murderer shall be slain ¹upon the testimony of witnesses; but one witness shall not testify against any person so that he die.

31 Moreover you shall not take a ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall surely be put to death.

32 And you shall not take a ransom for one who has fled to his city of refuge, so that he may return to live in the land before the death of the high priest.

33 Thus you shall not pollute the land in which you are, for blood pollutes the land. And no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

34 And you shall not defile the land in which you are dwelling, in the midst of which I tabernacle; for I Jehovah tabernacle in the midst of the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 36

5. A Further Statute concerning the Females among Israel Inheriting the Good Land 36:1-13

1 And the heads of the fathers' households of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' households of the children of Israel;

2 And they said, Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

3 But if they ¹are married to one of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so it will be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the jubilee of the children of Israel takes place, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of Jehovah, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph speaks correctly.

6 This is what Jehovah commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be married to whom they think best; only into the family of the tribe of their father they shall marry.

7 So an inheritance of the children of Israel shall not go around from tribe to tribe, for each one of the children of Israel shall cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall marry into one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that each one of the children of Israel may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9 So an inheritance shall not go around from one tribe to another tribe, for each one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall cling to his own inheritance.

10 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad did;

11 That is, Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah and Noah, the daughters of Zelophedad, got married to their uncles' sons.

12 They married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the ordinances which Jehovah commanded through Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Subject:

Christ Is the Instructor and Leader of the People of God
That They May Be Able to Enter into the Heavenly Territory and Participate in His Riches

CHAPTER 1

I. The Review of the Past 1:1 — 4:43

A. The Journey from the Mount of God to the Entry of the Holy Land 1:1-4

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea by the way that leads to Mount Seir.

3 And in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded him for them,

4 After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.

B. God's Charge to the Children of Israel to Enter the Good Land 1:5-8

5 Across the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses set himself to expound this law, saying,

6 Jehovah our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, You have dwelt long enough at this mountain.

7 Turn and set out, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all their neighboring peoples in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland, and in the Negev and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 See, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land which Jehovah swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to them and to their seed after them.

C. The Appointing of Offices 1:9-18

9 And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you alone.

10 Jehovah your God has multiplied you, and now today you are as the stars of heaven in multitude.

11 Jehovah, the God of your fathers, add to you a thousandfold ones like you and bless you as He has promised you!

12 How can I alone bear the trouble and burden of you and your strife?

13 ¹Choose for yourselves men who are wise and prudent and well-attested, according to your tribes, and I will make them your leaders.

14 And you answered me and said, The thing that you have said to do is good.

15 So I took the leaders of your tribes, men who were wise and well-attested, and I made them leaders over you, captains over thousands and captains over hundreds and 13¹ Lit., Give.

captains over fifties and captains over tens and officials for your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the cases between your brothers, and ¹judge righteously between a man and his brother or the sojourner with him.

17 You shall not respect persons in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not fear the face of man, for judgment is God's. And the case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me; and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

D. The Failure at Kadesh-barnea
1:19-46

19 And we set out from Horeb, and we went through all that great and awesome wilderness, which you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as Jehovah our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said to you, You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Jehovah our God is giving us.

21 See, Jehovah your God has set the land before you; go up, possess it, as Jehovah the God of your fathers has spoken to you. Do not fear, neither be ¹dismayed.

22 Then all of you came near to me and said, Let us send men before us that they may search out the land for us and bring back to us word concerning the way by which we should go up and the cities into which we should go.

23 And the thing pleased me, so I took twelve men from among you, one for each tribe.

24 And they turned and went up into the hill country, and they came to the Valley of Eshcol; and they ¹spied out the ²land.

25 And in their hands they took some of the fruit of the land, and they brought it down to us. And they brought word back to us and said, It is a good land which Jehovah our God is giving us.

26 Yet you would not go up. Rather you rebelled against the word of Jehovah your God;

27 And you murmured in your tents and said, Because Jehovah hates us, He has brought us out from the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites in order to destroy us.

28 Where shall we go up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, The people are greater and taller than we; the cities are big and fortified up to heaven; and furthermore we have seen the children of the Anakim there.

29 Then I said to you, Do not be terrified, neither be afraid of them.

30 Jehovah your God, who goes before you, He will fight for you according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, 31 And in the wilderness, where you have seen that Jehovah your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.

32 Yet in spite of this word you did not believe in Jehovah your God, 33 Who went before you in the way, to seek out for you a place for you to camp, in the fire by night to show you by which way you should go and in the cloud by day.

34 And Jehovah heard the voice of your words, and He became furious and swore, saying,

35 Not one of these men, this evil generation, shall by any means see the good land which I have sworn to give to your fathers,

36 Except Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

16¹ Or, administer righteousness as judges.

24¹ Lit., tread with the foot. 24² Lit., it.

21¹ Lit., broken up with fear; shattered.

he shall see it. And to him I will give the land on which he has trodden, and to his children, because he has fully followed Jehovah.

37 With me also Jehovah was angry on your account, saying, You also shall not enter there;

38 Joshua the son of Nun, who ¹attends to you, he shall enter there. Strengthen him, for it is he who will cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover your little ones, who you said would be prey, and your children, who this day do not know good and evil, they shall enter there. And to them I will give it, and they will possess it.

40 But as for you, turn and set out into the wilderness by the way that leads to the Red Sea.

41 Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against Jehovah; we ourselves will go up and fight according to all that Jehovah our God has commanded us. And you girded yourselves, every man with his weapons of war, and thought it a light thing to go up to the hill country.

42 And Jehovah said to me, Say to them, You shall not go up and fight, for I am not among you, so that you are not struck down before your enemies.

43 So I spoke to you, but you did not listen; rather, you rebelled against the word of Jehovah and went up presumptuously to the hill country.

44 And the Amorites who dwell in that hill country came out against you and chased you as bees do; and they beat you back in Seir as far as Hormah.

45 And you returned and wept before Jehovah; but Jehovah did not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

46 So you remained in Kadesh for many days, as many days as you remained.

CHAPTER 2

E. The Wandering from Kadesh-barnea to the Crossing Over of the Brook Zered
2:1-23

1 And we turned and set out for the wilderness by the way that leads to the Red Sea, as Jehovah spoke to me; and we circled Mount Seir for many days.

2 Then Jehovah spoke to me, saying,

3 You have circled this mountain long enough; turn northward,

4 And command the people, saying, You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you. Take careful heed to yourselves therefore;

5 Do not engage them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even ¹as much as a footstep; for I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

6 You shall buy food from them with money, that you may eat; and you shall also obtain water from them with money, that you may drink.

7 For Jehovah your God has blessed you in all ¹your doings; He knows your journeying through this great wilderness. These forty years Jehovah your God has been with you; you have not lacked a thing.

8 So we passed on from our brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, away from the way of the Arabah, away from Elath and from Ezion-geber; and we turned and passed on by the way that leads to the wilderness of Moab.

9 And Jehovah said to me, Do not harass Moab, nor engage them in battle, for I will not give you any of their land as a possession; for to the children of Lot I have given Ar as a possession.

10 (The Emim dwelt there before that, a people great and numerous and as tall as the Anakim; 38¹ Lit., stands before you. 5¹ Lit., to the treading of the sole of the foot. 7¹ Lit., the work of your hand.

11 They were considered Rephaim, as were the Anakim, but the Moabites called them Emim.

12 The Horites also dwelt in Seir before that, but the children of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them; and they dwelt there in their place, as Israel did with the land of their possession, which Jehovah gave to them.)

13 Now rise up and cross over the brook Zered. And we crossed over the brook Zered.

14 And the time that we spent in going from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war was consumed from the midst of the camp, as Jehovah had sworn to them.

15 Moreover the hand of Jehovah was against them to purge them from the midst of the camp until they were consumed.

16 So when all the men of war were consumed from the midst of the people and dead,

17 Then Jehovah spoke to me, saying,

18 You are to pass through the territory of Moab, through Ar, today.

19 And when you come near to the children of Ammon, do not harass them, nor engage them, for I will not give any of the land of the children of Ammon to you as a possession; for I have given it to the children of Lot as a possession.

20 (It was also considered a land of Rephaim; Rephaim formerly dwelt in it. But the Ammonites call them Zamzumim, 21 A people great and numerous and as tall as the Anakim. Yet Jehovah destroyed them from before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt there in their place;

22 As He did for the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them. And they dispossessed them and have dwelt there in their place to this day.

23 And the Avvim, who dwell in the villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and dwelt there in their place.)

F. The Defeating of King Sihon and King Og, and the Taking Possession of Their Lands East of Jordan
2:24—3:22

24 Rise up; set out and cross over the valley of the Arnon. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, the king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess it, and engage him in battle.

25 Today I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples under all heaven, who will hear the report of you and will tremble and quake because of you.

26 Then I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon the king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through your land. Only on the road I will go; I will not turn to the right or to the left.

28 You will sell me food for money, that I may eat; and you will give me water for money, that I may drink; only let me pass through on foot—

29 As the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites, who dwell in Ar, did for me—until I cross over the Jordan into the land which Jehovah our God is giving us.

30 But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let us pass through ¹his land, for Jehovah your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate for the purpose of delivering him into your hand, as he is today.

31 And Jehovah said to me, See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his land up before you. Begin to possess it that you may ¹occupy his land.

30¹ Lit., him. 31¹ Lit., possess.

32 Then Sihon came out to meet us, he and all his people, for battle at Jahaz.

33 And Jehovah our God delivered him up before us, and we slew him and his sons and all his people.

34 And we captured all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every city—men, women, and children; we left no survivors.

35 We took only the cattle as our plunder, as well as the spoil of the cities which we captured.

36 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and from the city which is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a town too high for us; Jehovah our God delivered them all up before us.

37 But you did not go near the land of the children of Ammon, all along the river Jabbok, nor the cities of the hill country, nor any place that Jehovah our God commanded us not to.

CHAPTER 3

1 Then we turned and went up on the way that leads to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.

2 But Jehovah said to me, Do not fear him, for I have given him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon the king of the Amorites, who was dwelling in Heshbon.

3 And Jehovah our God also gave Og the king of Bashan, as well as all his people, into our hand; and we slew them until there was no survivor ¹left.

4 And we captured all his cities at that time; there was not a town that we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All of these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural villages.

6 And we utterly destroyed them as we had done to Sihon the king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every city—men, women, and children.

7 But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities we took as our plunder.

8 So at that time we took the land from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were across the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon

9 (The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir), 10 All the cities of the Plateau and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 (For only Og the king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. His bedstead, a bedstead of iron, is indeed now in Rabbah of the children of Ammon. Its length is nine cubits and its width four cubits, according to the cubit of a man.)

12 So we possessed this land at that time. From Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh, all the region of Argob. (All that portion of Bashan is called the land of the Rephaim.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; and he called ¹it, that is, Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.)

15 And to Machir I gave Gilead.

16 And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave the region from Gilead even as far as the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley being the border, as far as the river Jabbok, the border of the children of Ammon;

34¹ Lit., devoted (in this case, unto destruction). So throughout the book. 3¹ Lit., left to him. 14¹ Lit., them.

17 And the Arabah, with the Jordan as a border, from Chinnereth even as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

18 And I charged you at that time, saying, Jehovah your God has given you this land that you may possess it; all the men of valor shall cross over armed before you brothers, the children of Israel.

19 Only your wives and your little ones and your livestock—I know that you have vast livestock—shall remain in your cities, which I have given you,

20 Until Jehovah gives rest to your brothers as He has to you, and they also possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving them across the Jordan, and you return, each man to his possession which I have given you.

21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Yours are the eyes that have seen all that Jehovah your God has done to these two kings; so will Jehovah your God do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross over.

22 Do not fear them, for it is Jehovah your God who is fighting for you.

G. Moses Prohibited from Entering the Good Land and Joshua Assigned to Lead the People into the Good Land
3:23-29

23 And I pleaded with Jehovah at that time, saying,

24 O Lord Jehovah, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do things like what You have done and things like Your mighty deeds?

25 Let me please cross over and see the good land that is across the Jordan, this fine hill country and Lebanon.

26 But Jehovah was infuriated with me on your account and did not listen to me. And Jehovah said to me, 'Enough! Speak no more to Me about this matter.

27 Go up to the top of Pisgah; and lift up your eyes to the west and to the north and to the south and to the east; and see it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and strengthen and encourage him, for it is he who will cross over before this people and cause them to inherit the land which you will see.

29 And we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4

H. Moses' Hearty Advice to the Children of Israel
4:1-40

1 And now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I am teaching you to do, in order that you may live and go in and possess the land which Jehovah, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

2 You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor shall you take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I am commanding you.

3 Yours are the eyes that have seen that which Jehovah has done in Baal-peor; for all the men who went after Baal-peor, Jehovah your God has destroyed from your midst.

4 But you who joined yourselves to Jehovah your God are alive, all of you, today.

5 See, I have taught you statutes and judgments, as Jehovah my God commanded me, so that you would do them within the land which you are going in to possess.

26¹ Lit., Enough for you.

6 Keep and do them therefore; for this will be your wisdom and prudence in the sight of the peoples who hear all these statutes and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and prudent people.

7 For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as Jehovah our God is whenever we call upon Him?

8 And what great nation is there that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law which I am setting before you today?

9 But ¹be careful and guard your soul diligently, so that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen and they do not depart from your heart all the days of your life; rather, make them known to your children and to your grandchildren.

10 Especially do not forget the day when you stood before Jehovah your God at Horeb, when Jehovah said to me, Gather the people to Me, and I will let them hear My words, so that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they live upon the earth and may teach their children as much.

11 And you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain; and the mountain was burning with fire up into the heart of heaven, with darkness, cloud, and deep darkness there.

12 And Jehovah spoke to you from the midst of the fire. The sound of words could you hear, but no form could you see; there was only a voice.

13 And He declared to you His covenant, which He commanded you to do, ten words; and He wrote them upon two tablets of stone.

14 And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments for you to do in the land which you are about to cross over into to possess.

15 So take careful heed to your souls, for you did not see any form at all on the day when Jehovah spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire,

16 So that you do not spoil yourselves and make for yourselves an idol, a form of any image, a figure of male or female,

17 A figure of any animal which is on the earth, a figure of any winged bird which flies in the sky,

18 A figure of anything that crawls on the ground, a figure of any fish that is in the water under the earth;

19 And take heed that, when you lift up your eyes to the sky and see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, you are not drawn away in worship to them and that you do not serve them, which Jehovah your God has assigned to all the peoples under all heaven.

20 But Jehovah has taken you and brought you forth from the iron furnace, from Egypt, that you would be to Him a people for His inheritance, as you are this day.

21 But Jehovah was angry with me on your account and swore that I would not cross over the Jordan and that I would not enter the good land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22 For I am to die in this land; I am not to cross over the Jordan. But you are crossing over and you will possess this good land.

23 Take heed to yourselves that you do not forget the covenant of Jehovah your God, which He has made with you, and make for yourselves an idol, the form of anything, which Jehovah your God has forbidden you to make.

24 For Jehovah your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

25 When you have brought forth children and grandchildren and have languished in the land, and you have spoiled 9¹ Or, take heed to your self.

yourselves by making an idol, the form of anything, and have done that which is evil in the sight of Jehovah your God so as to anger Him;

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that surely you will soon perish from off the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess; you will not extend your days upon it, but you will be utterly destroyed.

27 And Jehovah will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations to which Jehovah will drive you.

28 And there you will serve gods which are the work of human hands, mere wood and stone, which do not see nor hear nor eat nor smell.

29 And from there you will seek Jehovah your God, and you will find Him if you search for Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

30 When you are in distress and all these things happen to you, when you are in the last days, you will return to Jehovah your God and listen to His voice.

31 For Jehovah your God is a compassionate God; He will not fail you nor let you perish nor forget the covenant with your fathers which He swore to them.

32 For ask now regarding the former days, which were before you, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, Has anything as great as this ever happened, or has anything like this ever been heard of?

33 Has a people ever heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and lived?

34 Has God ever ventured to go and take to Himself a nation from the midst of another nation by trials, by signs and wonders, and by war and a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, like all that Jehovah your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 You were shown these things that you might know that it is Jehovah who is God; there is no other besides Him.

36 From heaven He let you hear His voice that He might discipline you, and upon the earth He showed you His great fire, and His words you heard from the midst of the fire.

37 And because He loved your fathers, He chose their seed after them and brought you out by His presence, by His great power, from Egypt, 38 Driving out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as it is today.

39 Know therefore today and bring it to heart that Jehovah is God in heaven above and upon the earth below; there is no other.

40 Therefore keep His statutes and His commandments, which I am commanding you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, so that you may extend your days upon the land which Jehovah your God is giving you ¹forever.

I. Moses Setting Apart Three Cities of Refuge East of Jordan
4:41-43

41 Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan toward the rising of the sun,

42 That the manslayer might flee there, who slays his neighbor without intent and did not hate him previously, and in fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

43 Bezer in the wilderness, in the land of the Plateau, belonging to the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, belonging to the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, belonging to the Manassites.

40¹ Lit., all the days.

II. The Rehearsal of the Law
4:44—26:19

A. The Rehearsing of the Ten Commandments
4:44—5:31

44 And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel;

45 These are the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel when they had gone out from Egypt, 46 Across the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel slew when they had gone out from Egypt.

47 And they possessed his land and the land of Og the king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were across the Jordan toward the rising of the sun,

48 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even unto Mount ¹Sirion, that is, Hermon, 49 And all the Arabah across the Jordan on the east even to the sea of the Arabah at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5

1 And Moses called all Israel and said to them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the judgments which I am speaking in your hearing today, and learn them and keep them, so that you may do them.

2 Jehovah our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

3 Not with our fathers did Jehovah make this covenant, but with us, we who are all here alive today.

4 Face to face Jehovah spoke with you on the mountain from the midst of the fire—

5 I was standing between Jehovah and you at that time to declare to you the word of Jehovah, for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up to the mountain—saying,

6 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the slave house;

7 You shall have no other gods ¹before Me.

8 You shall not make for yourself an ¹idol, the ²form of anything that is in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the water beneath the earth.

9 You shall not bow down to them, and you shall not serve them; for I, Jehovah your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

10 Yet showing lovingkindness to thousands of generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

11 You shall not take the name of Jehovah your God in vain, for Jehovah will not hold guiltless him who takes His name in vain.

12 Keep the Sabbath day so as to sanctify it, as Jehovah your God has commanded you.

13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work,

14 But the seventh day is a Sabbath to Jehovah your God; you shall not do any work, you nor your son nor your daughter nor your male servant nor your female servant nor your ox nor your donkey nor any of your cattle nor the sojourner with you who is within your gates, so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as you do.

15 And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and that Jehovah your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; hence, Jehovah your God commanded you to hold the Sabbath day.

16 Honor your father and your mother, as Jehovah your God has commanded you, that your days may be extended and that it may be well with you upon the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.

17 You shall not kill;

18 Neither shall you commit adultery;

19 Neither shall you steal;

20 Neither shall you testify as a vain witness against your neighbor;

21 Neither shall you desire your neighbor's wife, nor shall you covet your neighbor's house, his field, or his male servant or his female servant, his ox or his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

22 These words Jehovah spoke to all your congregation on the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the deep darkness, with a great voice; and He added no more. And He wrote them upon two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

23 And when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain burned with fire, you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders, 24 And said, Jehovah our God has just shown us His glory and His greatness, and His voice we have heard from the midst of the fire; today we have seen that God speaks with man and yet he lives.

25 Therefore why should we die now? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of Jehovah our God any longer, we will die.

26 For who is there among all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and has lived?

27 You go near and hear all that Jehovah

.....

28' Lit., voice.

our God says; then you will speak to us all that Jehovah our God speaks to you, and we will hear and do.

28 And Jehovah heard the ¹sound of your words while you spoke to me; and Jehovah said to me, I have heard the ¹sound of the words of this people which they have spoken to you; they have done well in all that they have spoken.

29 Oh that this heart of theirs would be in them always to fear Me and keep all My commandments so that it may go well with them and with their children forever!

30 Go, say to them, Return to your tents.

31 But you, stand here by Me that I may speak to you the whole commandment, and the statutes and the judgments, which you will teach them to do in the land which I am giving them to possess.

B. The General Advices and Warnings 5:32—13:18

1. Keeping the Commandments, Statutes, and Judgments of God 5:32—6:3

32 Keep them therefore so that you may do them, even as Jehovah your God has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left.

33 You shall walk in all the way that Jehovah your God has commanded you, so that you may live and that it may go well with you and that you may extend your days in the land which you will possess.

CHAPTER 6

1 Now this is the commandment, the statutes and the judgments, which Jehovah your God has commanded me to teach you, that you may do them in the land into which you are crossing over to possess;

2 That you may fear Jehovah your God and keep all His statutes and His commandments, which I am commanding you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life; and that your days may be extended.

3 Therefore hear, O Israel, and be certain to do it, that it may go well with you and that you may be greatly increased, in a land flowing with milk and honey, even as Jehovah, the God of your fathers, promised you.

2. Loving Jehovah Their God, and Keeping, Teaching, and Writing His Words
6:4-9

4 Hear, O Israel, ¹Jehovah is our God; Jehovah is one.

5 And you shall love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

6 And these words, which I command you today, shall be upon your heart;

7 And you shall ¹repeat them to your children, and speak about them when you sit in your house and when you journey on the way, and when you lie down and when you rise up;

8 And you shall bind them on your hand as a sign, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes;

9 And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

3. Remembering Jehovah, Fearing Him, Serving Him, and Not Going after Other Gods
6:10-15

10 And when Jehovah your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you great and fine cities that you did not build,

11 And houses full of every good thing that you did not fill, and hewn cisterns that you did not hew, vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant, and you have eaten and are satisfied;

12 Be careful that you do not forget Jehovah who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the slave house.

13 It is Jehovah your God whom you shall fear, and Him whom you shall serve; and it is by His name only that you shall swear.

14 You shall not go after other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who surround you—

15 For Jehovah your God is a jealous God in the midst of you. Otherwise the anger of Jehovah your God will be kindled against you, and He will destroy you from off the face of the earth.

4. Not Testing Jehovah Their God, Diligently Keeping His Commandments,
Testimonies, and Statutes, and Doing That Which Is Right and Good in His Sight
6:16-19

16 You shall not test Jehovah your God, as you tested Him at Massah.

17 You shall diligently keep the commandments of Jehovah your God and His testimonies and His statutes, which He has commanded you.

18 And you shall do that which is right and good in the sight of Jehovah so that it may go well with you and you may enter and possess the good land, concerning which Jehovah swore to your fathers 19 To drive out all your enemies from before you, as Jehovah has spoken.

5. Telling Their Sons about the Significance of the Testimonies, Statutes, and Judgments
6:20-25

20 When your son asks you ¹in the future, saying, What is the significance of 4¹ Or, Jehovah our God is one Jehovah. 7¹ Or, teach them diligently to your children.

20¹ Lit., tomorrow.

the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments that Jehovah our God commanded you?

21 Then you will say to your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And Jehovah put forth before our eyes great and grievous signs and wonders in Egypt against Pharaoh and all his house.

23 Then He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, that He might give us the land which He swore to our fathers.

24 And Jehovah commanded us to do all these statutes so that we would fear Jehovah our God for our good ¹always and He would preserve us alive, as we are this day.

25 And it will be righteousness to us if we are certain to do all this commandment before Jehovah our God, as He commanded us.

CHAPTER 7

6. Dealing with All the Nations around Them 7:1-8

1 When Jehovah your God brings you into the land which you are about to enter to possess, and clears away many nations from before you—the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, the Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and mightier than you—

2 And Jehovah your God delivers them up before you and you defeat them, you shall utterly destroy them; you shall make no covenant with them, nor shall you show them any favor.

3 And you shall not make marriage alliances with them: Your daughters you shall not give to their sons, and their daughters you shall not take for your sons;

4 For they will draw your sons away from following after Me to serve other gods, and the anger of Jehovah will burn against you and He will quickly destroy you.

5 But you shall deal with them in this way: Their altars you shall tear down, their pillars you shall shatter, their Asherahs you shall hew down, and their idols you shall burn with fire.

6 For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God; it is you whom Jehovah your God has chosen from among all the peoples which are upon the face of the earth to be a people for His personal treasure.

7 It was not because you were more numerous than all the peoples that Jehovah has set His affection on you and has chosen you, for you were the fewest of all the peoples;

8 Rather, because Jehovah loved you and because He would keep the oath which He swore to your fathers, Jehovah has brought you out with a mighty hand and ransomed you from the slave house, from the hand of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.

7. Knowing Jehovah Their God 7:9-15

9 Know therefore that it is Jehovah your God who is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and lovingkindness to the thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments,

10 But repays ¹directly those who hate Him by destroying them. He will not be slow toward him who hates Him; He will repay him ¹directly.

11 Therefore you shall keep the commandment, and the statutes and the judgments, which I am commanding you today to do.

12 And it will be that because you listen to these judgments, and keep them and do them, Jehovah your God will keep with you the covenant and the lovingkindness which He swore to your fathers.

24' Lit., all the days. 10' Lit., to his face.

13 And He will love you and bless you and multiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your fresh oil, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock, on the land which He swore to your fathers to give you.

14 You will be more blessed than all other peoples; there will not be any barren male or female among you or among your animals.

15 And Jehovah will remove every sickness from you, and none of the evil illnesses of Egypt, which you know about, will He put upon you; but He will give them to all who hate you.

8. Not Being Afraid of the Nations but Remembering What Jehovah Their God Did and Will Do
7:16-26

16 And you shall devour all the peoples which Jehovah your God is giving you; your eye shall not pity them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

17 If you say in your heart, These nations are greater than I, how will I be able to dispossess them?

18 You shall not be afraid of them; you must remember what Jehovah your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt, 19 The great trials that your eyes saw, and the signs and the wonders, and the mighty hand and the outstretched arm with which Jehovah your God brought you out; so will Jehovah your God do to all the peoples whom you are afraid of.

20 Furthermore, Jehovah your God will send the hornet among them until those who are left and those who hide themselves from you are destroyed.

21 You shall not be terrified of them, for Jehovah your God is in your midst, a great and awesome God.

22 And Jehovah your God will clear away these nations from before you little by little; you shall not devour all of them immediately, lest the beasts of the field multiply against you.

23 But Jehovah your God will deliver them up before you and rout them utterly until they are destroyed.

24 And He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under heaven; no man will be able to stand against you until you destroy them.

25 The idols of their gods you shall burn with fire; you shall not desire the silver or gold upon them, nor take it for yourself, lest you be ensnared by it; for it is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

26 And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, lest you become a ¹cursed thing like it; you shall utterly detest it and utterly abhor it, for it is a ¹cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8

9. Remembering Why Jehovah Humbled and Tested Them in the Wilderness

1 The whole commandment which I am commanding you today, you shall keep and do, so that you may live and multiply, and enter and possess the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers.

2 And you shall remember all the way that Jehovah your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness in order to humble you and test you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

3 And He humbled you and let you go hungry and fed you the manna, which you had never known nor your fathers had ever known, so that He might make you know that man lives not by bread alone, but that man lives by everything that proceeds out from the mouth of Jehovah.

4 Your clothing did not wear out from upon you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

5 Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so Jehovah your God was disciplining you;

10. Keeping the Commandments of Jehovah Their God in Order to Be Brought into a Good Land
8:6-10

6 Therefore keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, walking in His ways and fearing Him.

7 For Jehovah your God is bringing you to a good land, a land of waterbrooks, of springs and of ¹fountains, flowing forth in valleys and in mountains;

8 A land of wheat and barley and vines and fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive trees with oil and of honey;

9 A land in which you will eat bread without scarcity; you will not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and from whose mountains you can mine copper.

10 And you shall eat and be satisfied, and you shall bless Jehovah your God for the good land which He has given you.

11. Not Forgetting Jehovah Their God by Not Keeping His Commandments, Judgments, and Statutes
8:11-20

11 Be careful lest you forget Jehovah your God by not keeping His commandments and His judgments and His statutes, which I am commanding you today;

12 Lest when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built fine houses and dwell in them,

13 And your herd and your flock have multiplied, and your silver and your gold have multiplied, and all that you have has multiplied,

14 Your heart be lifted up and you forget Jehovah your God, He who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the slave house;

15 Who led you through the great and awesome wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water; who brought forth water for you out of flint rock;

16 Who fed you manna in the wilderness, which your fathers had never known, that He might humble you and that He might test you in order to do good for you in the ¹end;

17 And you say in your heart, My strength and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.

18 But you shall remember Jehovah your God, for it is He who gives you strength to gain wealth, so that He may establish His covenant, which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.

19 And if you forget Jehovah your God at all and go after other gods and serve them and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish.

20 Like the nations which Jehovah is about to destroy before your face, so you will perish, because you would not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.

CHAPTER 9

12. Knowing That Jehovah Their God
Will Drive Out the Nations from before Them, Not because of the Uprightness of Their Heart but because of the Wickedness of the Nations
9:1-7

1 Hear, O Israel! You are about to cross over the Jordan this day in order to enter in and dispossess nations greater and ⁷ Or, deep waters. ¹⁶ Lit., your end.

mightier than you, cities that are big and fortified up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakim, whom you know about and of whom you have heard it said, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Know therefore today that Jehovah your God is the One crossing over before you as a consuming fire; it is He who will destroy them, and it is He who will subdue them before you, so that you may dispossess them and destroy them quickly, as Jehovah has said to you.

4 Do not say in your heart when Jehovah your God drives them out from before you, Because of my righteousness, Jehovah has brought me in to possess this land. Rather, it is because of the wickedness of these nations that Jehovah is about to dispossess them from before you.

5 It is not because of your righteousness nor because of the uprightness of your heart that you are entering in to possess their land, but Jehovah your God is about to dispossess them from before you because of the wickedness of these nations and so that Jehovah may establish the word that He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

6 Know therefore that it is not because of your righteousness that Jehovah your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

7 Remember; do not forget that you made Jehovah your God furious in the wilderness; from the day that you came forth from the land of Egypt up until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Jehovah.

13. Moses Rehearsing the Story of the Rebellion of the Children of Israel at the Mount of God
9:8—10:11

8 And especially at Horeb you made Jehovah furious, and Jehovah was angry enough with you to destroy you.

9 When I went up to the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the Tablets of the Covenant which Jehovah made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I did not eat food nor drink water.

10 And Jehovah gave me the two tablets of stone, written with the finger of God; and on them was what was according to all the words which Jehovah had spoken with you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

11 And at the end of forty days and forty nights, Jehovah gave me the two tablets of stone, the Tablets of the Covenant.

12 Then Jehovah said to me, Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people, whom you have brought out of Egypt, have spoiled themselves; they have turned aside quickly from the way that I commanded them; they have made for themselves a molten image.

13 Then Jehovah spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and indeed they are a stiff-necked people.

14 Let Me alone that I may destroy them and blot their name out from under heaven, and I will make of you a nation mightier and more numerous than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire, and the two Tablets of the Covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I saw that you had indeed sinned against Jehovah your God; you had made for yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way that Jehovah had commanded you.

17 And I took hold of the two tablets and cast them out of my two hands and shattered them before your eyes.

18 Then I threw myself down before Jehovah as at the beginning, forty days and forty nights; I did not eat food nor drink water, because of all your sin which you had sinned by doing that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah so as to anger Him.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and the burning wrath with which Jehovah was angry enough against you to destroy you. But Jehovah listened to me in that instance as well.

20 And Jehovah was very angry with Aaron, enough to destroy him. But I prayed also for Aaron at that time.

21 Then I took your sin that you had made, the calf, and I burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it thoroughly until it was as fine as dust; and I cast the dust of it into the brook that came down from the mountain.

22 And at Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you made Jehovah furious.

23 And when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you, you rebelled at the word of Jehovah your God and did not believe Him and did not listen to His voice.

24 You have been rebellious against Jehovah since the day I came to know you.

25 So I threw myself down before Jehovah for the forty days and the forty nights; I threw myself down thus, for Jehovah had said He would destroy you.

26 And I prayed to Jehovah and said, O Lord Jehovah, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance, whom You have ransomed with Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people and at their wickedness and at their sin;

28 Lest the inhabitants of the land from which You have brought us out say,

Because Jehovah was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.

29 But they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You have brought out with Your great strength and with Your outstretched arm.

CHAPTER 10

1 At that time Jehovah said to me, Cut for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones, and come up to Me on the mountain; and make yourself an ark of wood.

2 And I will write upon the tablets the words which were on the first tablets, which you shattered; and you shall place them in the ark.

3 So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut two tablets of stone like the first ones; and I went up to the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

4 And He wrote upon the tablets as He had done the first writing, the ten words, which Jehovah spoke to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly; and Jehovah gave them to me.

5 Then I turned and came down from the mountain, and I placed the tablets in the ark that I had made. And there they have been, as Jehovah commanded me.

6 (And the children of Israel set out from ¹Beeroth Bene-jaakan for Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazer his son served as priest in his place.

7 From there they set out for Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of waterbrooks.

8 At that time Jehovah separated the tribe of Levi to bear the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, to stand before Jehovah to minister to Him and bless in His name until this day.

6¹ Or, the wells of the children of Jaakan.

9 Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; Jehovah is his inheritance, as Jehovah your God promised him.)

10 And I stayed on the mountain, as I had the first time, forty days and forty nights. And Jehovah listened to me in that instance as well; Jehovah would not destroy you.

11 And Jehovah said to me, Arise, take up the journey before the people so that they may enter and possess the land which I have sworn to their fathers to give them.

14. Moses Charging the Children of Israel concerning Nine Matters
10:12-22

12 And now, O Israel, what does Jehovah your God ask of you except that you fear Jehovah your God so that you would walk in all His ways and love Him and serve Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul;

13 So that you would keep the commandments of Jehovah and His statutes, which I am commanding you today, for your good.

14 Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens belong to Jehovah your God, the earth and all that is in it.

15 But on your fathers Jehovah set His affection to love them and to choose their seed after them, that is, you above all the peoples, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise then the foreskin of your heart, and do not be stiff-necked any longer;

17 For it is Jehovah your God who is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who does not regard persons and does not take bribes;

18 He executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and He loves the sojourner, giving him food and clothing.

19 Therefore love the sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.

20 You shall fear Jehovah your God; Him shall you serve and to Him shall you hold fast and by His name shall you swear.

21 He is your praise and He is your God, who has done these great and awesome things for you, which your eyes have seen.

22 Your fathers went down into Egypt as seventy souls; and now Jehovah your God has made you as the stars of heaven in multitude.

CHAPTER 11

15. Loving Jehovah Their God as Witnesses of What He Had Done
11:1-7

1 Therefore you shall love Jehovah your God and keep His charge and His statutes and His judgments and His commandments always.

2 And realize today that I am speaking not with your sons, who do not know and who have not seen the discipline of Jehovah your God, His greatness, His mighty hand and His outstretched arm;

3 And His signs and works, which He did in the midst of Egypt against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and against all his land;

4 And what He did to Egypt's forces, to their horses and to their chariots, when He caused the water of the Red Sea to flow over them while they were pursuing you; and Jehovah made them perish to this day;

5 And what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place;

6 And what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up and their households and their tents and all their substance that went with them, from the midst of all Israel.

7 But it is your eyes that have seen all the great work of Jehovah which He did.

16. The Children of Israel to Receive Blessings by Keeping Moses' Words of Advice and Warning
11:8-25

8 Therefore you shall keep the whole commandment which I am commanding you today so that you may be strong and that you may go in and possess the land into which you are crossing over to possess,

9 And so that you may extend your days upon the ground which Jehovah swore to your fathers, to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 For the land which you are entering in to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you came forth, where you used to sow your seed and water by foot as in a vegetable garden.

11 But the land into which you are crossing over to possess is a land of mountains and valleys; by virtue of heaven's rain, it drinks in water.

12 It is a land which Jehovah your God 'cares for; always the eyes of Jehovah your God are upon it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.

13 And if you are certain to listen to my commandments, which I am commanding you today, to love Jehovah your God and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 I will give rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the late rain, so that you may gather your grain and your new wine and your fresh oil.

15 And I will put grass in your field for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

16 Be careful lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and bow down to them,

17 And the anger of Jehovah burn against you and He shut up heaven, so that there is no rain and the earth does not yield its produce and you perish quickly from off the good land which Jehovah is giving you.

18 Therefore you shall lay these words of mine on your heart and on your soul; and you shall bind them on your hand as a sign, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes;

19 And you shall teach them to your children, speaking about them when you sit in your house and when you journey on the way, and when you lie down and when you rise up;

20 And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates;

21 That your days may be multiplied, as well as the days of your children, upon the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the days of heaven are above the earth.

22 For if you are certain to keep all this commandment which I am commanding you to do, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all His ways and hold fast to Him, 23 Jehovah will dispossess all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than you.

24 Every place on which the sole of your foot treads will be yours; from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the farthest sea will be your territory.

25 No man will be able to stand against you; Jehovah your God will put the dread and fear of you upon all the land on which you tread, as He has spoken to you.

17. Moses Setting a Blessing and a Curse before the Children of Israel
11:26-32

26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:

12¹ Lit., seeks after.

27 The blessing, if you listen to the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I am commanding you today;

28 And the curse, if you do not listen to the commandments of Jehovah your God and you turn aside from the way which I am commanding you today, to go after other gods whom you have not known.

29 And when Jehovah your God brings you into the land which you are entering to possess, you shall put the blessing upon Mount Gerizim and the curse upon Mount Ebal.

30 Indeed they are across the Jordan beyond the ¹western road in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the Arabah before Gilgal beside the terebinths of Moreh.

31 For you are about to cross over the Jordan to enter and possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you; and you will possess it and dwell in it.

32 Therefore be certain to do all the statutes and judgments that I am setting before you today.

CHAPTER 12

18. Moses Charging the Children of Israel concerning the Way to Worship God
12:1-32

1 These are the statutes and the judgments that you shall be certain to do in the land which Jehovah, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth.

2 You shall completely destroy all the places where the nations whom you will dispossess have served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every flourishing tree.

3 And you shall tear down their altars and crush their pillars; and their Asherahs you shall burn with fire, and the idols of their gods you shall cut down; and you shall destroy their name from that place.

4 You shall not do so to Jehovah your God.

5 But to the place which Jehovah your God will choose out of all your tribes to put His name, to His habitation, shall you seek, and there shall you go.

6 And there you shall bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices and your tithes and the heave offering of your hand and your vows and your freewill offerings and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock;

7 And there you shall eat before Jehovah your God, and you and your households shall rejoice in all ¹your undertakings, in which Jehovah your God has blessed you.

8 You shall not do according to all that we do here today, each man doing all that is right in his own eyes;

9 For until now you have not come to the rest and to the inheritance that Jehovah your God is giving you.

10 But when you cross over the Jordan and dwell in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and when He gives you rest from all your enemies surrounding you so that you dwell securely;

11 Then to the place where Jehovah your God will choose to cause His name to dwell, there you shall bring all that I am commanding you, your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the heave offering of your hand and all your choice vows which you vow to Jehovah.

12 And you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, you and your sons and daughters, and your male servants and female servants, and the Levite who is within 30¹ Lit., road of the going down of the sun. throughout the book.

7¹ Lit., the putting forth of your hand. So your gates, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

13 Be careful that you do not offer up your burnt offerings in every place that you see;

14 But in the place which Jehovah will choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer up your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I am commanding you.

15 Yet you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates, in all that your soul desires, according to the blessing of Jehovah your God which He has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat it, as the gazelle and the deer.

16 However, you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out upon the earth like water.

17 You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or of your new wine or of your fresh oil, nor the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, or any of your vows which you vow or of your freewill offerings or of the heave offering of your hand;

18 But you shall eat them before Jehovah your God in the place which Jehovah your God will choose, you and your son and daughter, and your male servant and female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates; and you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God in all your undertakings.

19 Be careful that you do not forsake the Levite all your days upon the earth.

20 When Jehovah your God enlarges your territory, as He has promised you, and you say, I will eat meat, because your soul desires to eat meat, you may eat meat according to all that your soul desires.

21 If the place where Jehovah your God will choose to put His name is too far away from you, you may slaughter from your herd and from your flock, which Jehovah has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates according to all that your soul desires;

22 Indeed, as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you may eat it; the unclean and the clean may eat it alike.

23 But ¹make sure that you do not eat the blood; for the blood is the ²life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh.

24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out upon the earth like water.

25 You shall not eat it, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, when you do what is right in the sight of Jehovah.

26 But you shall take your holy things which you have and your vows, and go to the place which Jehovah will choose;

27 And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of Jehovah your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of Jehovah your God, and you shall eat the flesh.

28 Keep and listen to all these words which I am commanding you so that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, for you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of Jehovah your God.

29 When Jehovah your God cuts off the nations before you, which you are entering to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land, 30 Be careful that you are not ensnared in following them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not seek after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods, so that I also may do likewise?

31 You shall not do so for Jehovah your God, for every abomination to Jehovah, 23¹ Lit., be strong. 23² Lit., soul, living being.

which He hates, they have done to their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burned with fire to their gods.

32 The whole thing that I am commanding you, you shall be certain to do; you shall not add to it, nor shall you take away from it.

CHAPTER 13

19. Moses Charging the Children of Israel concerning Apostasy 13:1-18

1 If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams stands up in your midst and gives you a sign or wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder occurs, about which he spoke to you, saying, Let us go after other gods whom you have not known, and let us serve them;

3 You shall not listen to the words of that prophet or to that dreamer of dreams; for Jehovah your God is testing you in order to know whether you love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 You shall follow Jehovah your God; and you shall fear Him, keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and hold fast to Him.

5 But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has ¹advocated ²apostasy from Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and ransomed you from the slave house, in order to force you out of the way in which Jehovah your God has commanded you to walk. Thus you shall ³utterly remove the evil from your midst.

6 If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is like your own soul to you entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods (which neither you nor your fathers have known,

7 Of the gods of the peoples who are surrounding you, those who are near you or those who are far from you, from one end of the earth to the other);

8 You shall not yield to him nor listen to him, nor shall your eye pity him; neither shall you spare him nor conceal him;

9 But you must slay him; your hand shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

10 And you shall stone him with stones so that he dies, because he sought to force you away from Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the slave house.

11 And all Israel will hear and will fear and will never do anything like this evil thing in your midst again.

12 If you hear in one of your cities, which Jehovah your God is giving you to dwell in, someone saying that

13 Some ¹worthless men have gone out from your midst and have forced the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods (which you have not known);

14 Then you shall investigate and examine carefully and inquire thoroughly. And if indeed the thing is true and certain—this abomination has been done in your midst—

15 You must slay the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it and all that is in it and its animals with the edge of the sword.

16 And all its spoil you shall gather at the middle of its open square, and you shall burn the city and all its spoil with fire ¹wholly to Jehovah your God. And it shall be a mound only forever; it shall not be built again.

17 And nothing of ¹what has been cursed shall cling to your hand, in order that Jehovah may turn from His burning anger and show you tenderness and be compassionate to you and multiply you as He swore to your fathers, 18 When you listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and keep all His commandments, which I am commanding you today, and do what is right in the sight of Jehovah your God.

CHAPTER 14

C. The Rehearsing of the General Statutes and Judgments 14:1—26:19

1. Concerning Being Jehovah's Personal Treasure 14:1-2

1 You are the children of Jehovah your God; you shall not cut yourselves nor ¹shave your forehead for the dead.

2 For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God, and Jehovah has chosen you to be a people for His personal treasure, from among all the peoples which are upon the face of the earth.

2. Concerning the Holy Diet 14:3-21

3 You shall not eat any abominable thing.

4 These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat;

5 The deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, the mountain sheep.

6 And every animal that ¹has a divided hoof, that is, has its hoof split in two, and that chews the cud among the animals, that you may eat.

7 However, these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud or of those that ¹have a cleft hoof: the camel, the hare, and the hyrax; because although they chew the cud, they do not have a divided hoof; they are unclean to you.

8 And the pig, because although it has a divided hoof, it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you. You shall not eat of their flesh, nor shall you touch their carcasses.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the water: Anything that has fins and scales you may eat, 10 But anything that does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean to you.

11 You may eat any clean bird.

12 But these are what you shall not eat: the great vulture, the bearded vulture, and the black vulture;

13 The kite, the falcon, and the kite of every kind;

14 And all ravens of every kind;

15 The ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, and the hawk of every kind;

16 The little owl, the great owl, the white owl,

17 The pelican, the carrion vulture, the cormorant,

18 The stork, the heron of every kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

19 And all ¹flying insects are unclean to you; they shall not be eaten.

20 You may eat any clean flying animal.

21 You shall not eat any carcass; to the sojourner who is within your gates you may give it that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

17¹ Lit., the devoted thing (in this case, unto destruction). 1¹ Lit., make a baldness between your eyes. 6¹ Lit., divides the hoof and cleaves the cleft of its two hooves. 7¹ Lit., divide the cleft hoof. 19¹ Lit., winged swarming things.

3. Concerning the Worship of God
14:22-27; 15:19-23; 16:1-17, 21-22;
17:2-7; 23:21-23; 26:1-11

- a. By Giving the Tithes of All the Produce of Both Their Cattle and Their Crop
14:22-27

22 You must give a tenth of all the produce of your seed, which the field brings forth, year by year.

23 And you shall eat before Jehovah your God, in the place where He will choose to cause His name to dwell, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your fresh oil and the firstborn of your herd and flock, that you may learn to fear Jehovah your God always.

24 But if the way is so far away from you that you are not able to carry your tithe, because the place where Jehovah your God will choose to set His name is too far away from you when Jehovah your God has blessed you, 25 Then you shall exchange it for money and bind up the money in your hand, and you shall go to the place which Jehovah your God will choose.

26 And you shall exchange the money for anything that your soul desires, for oxen, for sheep, for wine, for strong drink, or for anything that your soul would like; and you and your household shall eat there before Jehovah your God and rejoice.

27 But you shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

4. Concerning Aid to the Needy
14:28—15:18; 23:15-16, 19-20; 24:6, 10-15, 17-22; 26:12-15

- a. The Aid by the Tithes at the End of Every Three Years
14:28-29; 26:12-15

28 At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your produce for that year and lay it within your gates;

29 And the Levite shall come—for he has no portion nor inheritance with you—as well as the sojourner and the orphan and the widow who are within your gates; and they shall eat and be satisfied, so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

CHAPTER 15

- b. The Release at the End of Every Seven Years
15:1-6

1 At the end of every seven years you shall issue a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every ¹creditor shall release from his hand that which he has lent to his neighbor; he shall not exact it from his neighbor or his brother, for Jehovah's release has been proclaimed.

3 From the foreigner you may exact the debt; but whatever of yours your brother has, your hand shall release.

4 However, there shall not be any needy among you (for Jehovah will surely bless you in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess),

5 But only if you carefully listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and are certain to do all this commandment which I am commanding you today.

6 For Jehovah your God will bless you as He has promised you. And you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; and you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

- c. The Lending to the Poor Brothers
15:7-11

7 If among you there is a needy one amidst your brothers within any of your gates in your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart and you shall not close up your hand from your needy brother;

² Lit., owner of a debt.

8 But you must open your hand to him, and you must lend enough for his need in whatever he lacks.

9 Be careful that there is not within your heart a ¹base thought ²like this: The seventh year, the year of release, is near; and your eye be evil against your needy brother and you do not give him anything, and he cry against you to Jehovah, and it become sin to you.

10 You must give to him, and your heart shall not be displeased when you give to him; for on account of this matter Jehovah your God will bless you in all your work and in all your undertakings.

11 For the needy will not cease being in the land; therefore I am commanding you, saying, You must open your hand to your brother, to the poor one with you and to the needy one with you in your land.

d. The Freeing of a Hebrew Male Servant or a Female Servant
15:12-18

12 If your brother, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you, he shall serve you six years; but in the seventh year you shall set him ¹free.

13 And when you set him free, you shall not send him away empty-handed;

14 You must ¹supply him richly from your flock and from your threshing floor and from your winepress; as Jehovah your God has blessed you, so shall you give to him.

15 And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and that Jehovah your God ransomed you; therefore I am commanding you this thing today.

16 And if he says to you, I will not go forth from you, because he loves you and your household, for it goes well with him to be with you;

17 Then you shall take an awl and run it through his ear and into the door, and he shall be your servant forever; and thus also shall you do to your female servant.

18 You shall not view it as a hardship when you set him free; for he served you for six years, saving you double the wages of a hired hand, and Jehovah your God will bless you in all that you do.

(3. Concerning the Worship of God—cont'd)
b. By Offering the Firstborn Males of the Herd and of the Flock
15:19-23

19 All firstborn males that are brought forth in your herd and in your flock you shall sanctify to Jehovah your God; you shall not do work with your firstborn ox, nor shall you shear your firstborn sheep.

20 You and your household shall eat it before Jehovah your God year by year in the place which Jehovah will choose.

21 And if there is a blemish in it, lameness or blindness, any serious blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to Jehovah your God.

22 You shall eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it, as the gazelle and the deer.

23 However, you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out upon the earth like water.

CHAPTER 16

c. By Keeping the Three Main Annual Festivals—
the Feast of Unleavened Bread,
the Feast of Weeks,
and the Feast of Tabernacles
16:1-17

1 Observe the month of Abib, and hold the Passover to Jehovah your God; for in the month of Abib Jehovah your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

2 And you shall sacrifice the passover to Jehovah your God, from the flock and from the herd, in the place where Jehovah will choose to cause His name to dwell.

3 You shall not eat anything leavened with it; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, that is, the bread of affliction (for in alarmed haste you came out of the land of Egypt); in order that you may remember the day of your coming out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life.

4 And leaven shall not be seen with you in all your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the flesh which you sacrifice in the evening on the first day remain until morning.

5 You may not sacrifice the passover within any of your gates, which Jehovah your God is giving you;

6 Rather, in the place where Jehovah your God will choose to cause His name to dwell, you shall sacrifice the passover in the evening, as the sun sets, at the time that you came out of Egypt.

7 And you shall cook and eat it in the place which Jehovah your God will choose, and you shall turn in the morning and go to your tents.

8 Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. And on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to Jehovah your God; you shall not do any work.

9 You shall count off for yourself seven weeks. You shall begin to count the seven weeks from the time that you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain.

10 And you shall hold the Feast of Weeks to Jehovah your God according to the sufficiency of the freewill offering of your hand, which you will give, as Jehovah your God blesses you.

11 And you and your son and daughter, and your male servant and female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates and the sojourner and the orphan and the widow who are in your midst shall rejoice before Jehovah your God in the place where Jehovah your God will choose to cause His name to dwell.

12 And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you shall keep and do these statutes.

13 You shall hold the Feast of ¹Tabernacles for seven days after your ingathering from your threshing floor and your winepress.

14 And you and your son and daughter, and your male servant and female servant, and the Levite and the sojourner and the orphan and the widow who are within your gates shall rejoice in your feast.

15 You shall keep the feast to Jehovah your God for seven days in the place which Jehovah will choose, for Jehovah your God will bless you in all your produce and in all your undertakings; therefore you shall be nothing but joyful.

16 Three times a year all your males shall appear before Jehovah your God in the place which He will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before Jehovah empty-handed;

17 Each man shall give ¹as he is able to give, according to the blessing of Jehovah your God, which He has given you.

5. Concerning the Government among the People

16:18-20; 17:8-20; 19:15-21; 21:1-9, 18-23; 22:13-30; 24:1-4, 7, 16; 25:1-3, 5-10, 11-16

a. The Appointing of Judges and Officers 16:18-20

18 You shall appoint for yourself judges and officers ¹in all your cities which Jehovah your God is giving you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment.

13' Lit., Booths. So also in v. 16. 17' Lit., according to the gift of his hand. 18' Lit., within all your gates.

19 You shall not distort justice; you shall not respect persons, nor shall you take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

20 Righteousness, and only righteousness, shall you pursue, in order that you may live and possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.

(3. Concerning the Worship of God—cont'd)

d. By Not Having Any Mixture of Idolatry
16:21-22

21 You shall not plant for yourself an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of Jehovah your God, which you will make for yourself;

22 Nor shall you erect for yourself a pillar, something which Jehovah your God hates.

CHAPTER 17

e. By Not Sacrificing Anything to Jehovah in Which There Is a Blemish
17:1

1 You shall not sacrifice to Jehovah your God any ox or sheep in which there is a blemish, anything seriously wrong, for that is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

f. By Stoning to Death Those Who Transgressed God's Covenant and Served Other Gods
17:2-7

2 If there is found in your midst, within any of your gates which Jehovah your God is giving you, a man or a woman who does what is evil in the sight of Jehovah your God by transgressing His covenant,

3 And has gone and served other gods, and bowed down to them, that is, to the sun or the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded you to do;

4 And it is told to you and you hear of it; then you shall investigate thoroughly. And if indeed the thing is true and certain—this abomination has been done in Israel—

5 Then you shall bring out that man or that woman who has done this evil thing, to your gates, that very man or woman, and you shall stone them with stones so that they die.

6 At the ¹word of two witnesses or three witnesses shall he who is to die be put to death; he shall not be put to death at the ¹word of only one witness.

7 The hand of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst.

(5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)
b. The Judgment of a Complicated Civil Suit
17:8-13

8 If a case is too complicated for you to judge ¹between one kind of homicide and another, or between one kind of civil suit and another, or between one kind of assault and another, being disputed cases within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which Jehovah your God will choose;

9 And you shall come to ¹the Levitical priests and to the judge who is presiding in those days and investigate the matter; and they shall declare to you the sentence of judgment.

10 And you shall do according to the word of the sentence that they declare to you from that place which Jehovah will choose; and you shall be certain to do according to all that they instruct you.

6¹ Lit., mouth. 8¹ Lit., between blood and blood, and between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke. 9¹ Lit., the priests the Levites.

11 You shall do according to the word of the instruction with which they instruct you and according to the judgment which they speak to you; you shall not turn aside to the right or to the left from the sentence that they declare to you.

12 And the man who acts presumptuously by not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before Jehovah your God, or to the judge, that man shall die. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from Israel.

13 And all the people will hear and will fear, and they will not act presumptuously anymore.

c. The Setting of a King over the People
17:14-20

14 When you enter the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, and you possess it and dwell in it, and you say, I will set a king over me like all the nations which surround me;

15 You must set a king over you whom Jehovah your God will choose; from among your brothers you shall set a king over you; you may not put a foreigner, who is not your brother, over you.

16 However, he shall not amass horses to himself, and he shall not turn the people back to Egypt so that he may amass horses, since Jehovah has said to you, You shall never again return that way.

17 And he shall not amass wives to himself, so that his heart does not turn aside; nor shall he amass silver and gold to himself in great amounts.

18 And when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write out for himself a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the Levitical priests.

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, in order that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God by keeping all the words of this law and these statutes and doing them, 20 So that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers and he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right or to the left; that he and his sons may extend their days over their kingdom in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER 18

6. Concerning the Supply of the Levitical Priests and the Whole Tribe of Levi 18:1-8

1 The Levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat Jehovah's offerings by fire and His inheritance.

2 Thus they shall have no inheritance in the midst of their brothers; Jehovah is their inheritance, as He has promised them.

3 And this shall be the priests' rightful due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether an ox or a sheep: They shall give the priest the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the stomach.

4 You shall give him the first fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your fresh oil, and the first shearing of your sheep;

5 For Jehovah your God has chosen him and his sons out of all your tribes to stand and minister in Jehovah's name always.

6 And if a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he sojourns, and comes according to all his soul's desire to the place which Jehovah will choose,

7 He shall minister in the name of Jehovah his God, like all his brothers, the Levites, who stand there before Jehovah.

8 They shall eat equal portions, besides the ¹proceeds from the sale of his father's estate.

7. Concerning the Prohibitions against Contacting Evil Spirits or the Spirits of the Dead
18:9-14

9 When you enter the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, you shall not learn to do things according to the abominations of those nations.

10 There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through fire; anyone who performs divination, practices soothsaying, or interprets omens; or anyone who employs sorcery

11 Or casts spells; or anyone who consults a spirit of the dead or a familiar spirit or inquires of the dead;

12 For everyone who does these things is an abomination to Jehovah; and on account of these abominations Jehovah your God is dispossessing them from before you.

13 You shall be ¹blameless toward Jehovah your God.

14 For these nations whom you are dispossessing listen to those who practice soothsaying and to those who perform divination, but Jehovah your God has not allowed you to do so.

8. Concerning Jehovah God's Raising Up of a Prophet
(the Coming Christ) like Moses for the Children of Israel
18:15-19

15 A Prophet will Jehovah your God raise up for you from your midst, from among your brothers, like me; you shall listen to Him.

16 This is according to all that you asked of Jehovah your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear any more of the voice of Jehovah my God, and let me not see this great fire any longer, lest I die.

17 And Jehovah said to me, They have done well in what they have spoken.

18 A Prophet will I raise up for them from the midst of their brothers like you; and I will put My words in His mouth, and He will speak to them all that I command Him.

19 And the man who will not listen to My words which He will speak in My name, I Myself will require it from him.

9. Concerning the False Prophet
18:20-22

20 But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in My name, which I did not command him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.

21 And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word that Jehovah has not spoken?

22 When a prophet speaks in the name of Jehovah and the thing does not happen nor come about, that is the thing which Jehovah has not spoken. The prophet has spoken presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him.

CHAPTER 19

10. Concerning the Setting Apart of the Cities of Refuge
19:1-13

1 When Jehovah your God cuts off the nations whose land Jehovah your God is giving you and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,

2 You shall set apart three cities for yourself in the midst of your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.

3 You shall survey the ¹distances for yourself and divide into three parts the 8¹ The exact meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. 13¹ Lit., perfect, complete, sound.

3¹ Lit., road. So also in v. 6.

territory of your land, which Jehovah your God will give you as an inheritance, so that every manslayer may flee there.

4 And this shall be the case of the manslayer who flees there and lives: He who slays his neighbor without intent and did not hate him previously—

5 As when a man goes with his neighbor into the forest to cut wood, and his hand goes to cut the tree with an axe, and the iron axehead slips off the handle and hits his neighbor so that he dies—he shall flee to one of these cities and live;

6 Lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart ¹rages, and he overtake him because the distance is long and ²slay him; though he is not worthy of death, for he did not hate him previously.

7 Therefore I am commanding you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for yourself.

8 And if Jehovah your God enlarges your territory, as He swore to your fathers, and gives you all the land which He promised to give to your fathers;

9 If you are certain to do all this commandment which I am commanding you today, to love Jehovah your God and to walk in His ways always; then you shall add three more cities for yourself, besides these three,

10 That innocent blood may not be shed in the midst of your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and guilt for blood be upon you.

11 But if a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him, and he rises up against him and slays him so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities;

12 Then the elders of his city shall send men and take him from there and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, so that he may die.

13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from Israel that it may go well with you.

11. Concerning the Moving of the Neighbor's Boundary Marker
19:14

14 You shall not move your neighbor's boundary marker, which your ancestors have set, in your inheritance, which you will inherit in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.

(5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)
d. The Judgment of Any Iniquity or Any Sin
19:15-21

15 One witness only shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity or for any sin ¹which he has committed; at the ²word of two witnesses or at the word of three witnesses shall a matter be established.

16 If a malicious witness rises up against a man to testify against him of ¹wrong-doing, 17 The two men who have the dispute shall stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges who are servicing in those days.

18 And the judges shall investigate thoroughly; and if indeed the witness is a false witness, if he has testified falsely against his brother, 19 You shall do to him as he intended to do to his brother. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst.

20 And those who remain will hear and will fear and will never again do anything like this evil thing in your midst.

21 And your eye shall not pity: a ¹life for a life, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot.

6¹ Lit., is hot. 6² Lit., slay him as regards the soul. So also in v. 11. 15¹ Lit., in any sin which he has sinned. 15² Lit., mouth (twice). 16¹ Lit., a turning aside. 21¹ Lit., soul for soul.

CHAPTER 20

12. Concerning the Children of Israel Going Forth into Battle against Their Enemies
20:1-20

1 When you go forth into battle against your enemies, and you see horse and chariot, a people more numerous than you, you shall not fear them; for Jehovah your God is with you, He who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when you draw near to the battle, the priest shall approach and speak to the people,

3 And he shall say to them, Hear, O Israel! You are drawing near to the battle against your enemies today. Do not let your heart ¹fail; do not be afraid nor alarmed nor terrified of them.

4 For it is Jehovah your God who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 And the officers shall speak to the people, saying, Is there any man who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.

6 Is there any man who has planted a vineyard and has not ¹partaken of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man partake of it.

7 Is there any man who has gotten engaged to a woman and has not taken her to himself? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her to himself.

8 And the officers shall speak further to the people and say, Is there any man who is afraid and whose heart fails? Let him go and return to his house, so that the heart of his brothers does not melt like his heart.

9 And when the officers have finished speaking to the people, they shall appoint commanders of the armies at the head of the people.

10 When you draw near to a city to fight against it, you shall proclaim peace to it.

11 And if it responds with peace to you and opens its gates to you, all the people found within it shall become your forced labor; and they shall serve you.

12 But if it does not make peace with you, but rather engages in battle with you, you shall besiege it.

13 And when Jehovah your God delivers it into your hand, you shall slay every male in it with the edge of the sword.

14 But the women and the little ones and the beasts and all that is in the city, that is, all its spoil, you shall take as your plunder; and you shall enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which Jehovah your God has given you.

15 Thus shall you do to all the cities that are very far from you, which are not among the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these peoples which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, you shall not allow ¹anything that breathes to live;

17 But you must utterly destroy them: the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, just as Jehovah your God has commanded you, 18 So that they do not teach you to do according to all their abominations which they do for their gods and you sin against Jehovah your God.

19 When you besiege a city for many days, battling against it to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by putting an axe to them; for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man, that it should be besieged by you?

20 However, a tree that you know is not a tree for food, you shall destroy and cut down, so that you may build a siegework against the city, which engages you in battle, until it falls.

CHAPTER 21

- (5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)
 e. The Judgment of One Who Murdered a Man, the Slain One Being Found Lying in the Field in the Good Land 21:1-9

1 If a slain man is found lying in the field in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess, it not being known who slew him,

2 Then your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance to the cities that surround the slain man.

3 And the city that is nearest the slain man, that is, the elders of that city, shall take a heifer of the herd which has not been worked and has not drawn the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a river valley that flows continually, which has not been plowed or sown, and break the neck of the heifer there in the river valley.

5 And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall draw near; for Jehovah your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of Jehovah, and by their word shall every dispute and every assault be settled.

6 And all the elders of that city that is nearest the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the river valley.

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it done.

8 ¹Cover Your people Israel, whom You have ransomed, O Jehovah, and do not set the guilt of innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel. And the guilt of the blood shall be covered from them.

9 Thus you shall utterly remove the guilt of the innocent blood from your midst, for you do what is right in the sight of Jehovah.

13. Concerning Marrying a Beautiful Woman among the Captives
 21:10-14

10 When you go out to fight against your enemies and Jehovah your God delivers them into your hands and you take them captive,

11 And you see a beautiful woman among the captives and desire her and would take her to yourself as a wife;

12 You shall bring her within your house, and she shall shave her head, trim her nails, 13 And take her clothes of captivity away from her. And she shall dwell in your house and mourn her father and mother for a full month. And afterward you shall go in unto her and be her husband, and she shall be a wife to you.

14 And if after a time you do not delight in her, you shall let her go ¹wherever she wishes. But you must not sell her for money; you shall not deal with her as a slave, because you have humbled her.

14. Concerning the Right of the Firstborn Son
 21:15-17

15 If a man has two wives, one beloved and the other despised, and both the beloved and the despised have borne him sons; and if the firstborn son is of the despised woman;

16 Then in the day when he gives what he has to his sons as his inheritance, he may not make the son of the beloved woman the firstborn instead of the son of the despised one, who is the firstborn.

17 But he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the despised woman, 8¹ Or, Be expiated toward. 14¹ Lit., according to her soul.

giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his.

(5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)

f. The Judgment on a Stubborn and Rebellious Son 21:18-21

18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, one who does not listen to the voice of his father nor to the voice of his mother; and though they chastise him, he does not listen to them;

19 Then his father and mother shall seize him and bring him forth to the elders of his city and to the gate of his place.

20 And they shall say to the elders of his city, This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he does not listen to our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

21 Then all the men of his city shall stone him with stones so that he dies. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst, and all Israel will hear and will fear.

g. The Hanging of a Criminal on a Tree
21:22-23

22 And if in a man there is a sin, a cause worthy of death, and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree;

23 His corpse shall not remain overnight on the tree, but you must bury him on that day. For he who is hanged is ¹accursed of God, and you shall not defile your land, which Jehovah your God gives you as an inheritance.

CHAPTER 22

15. Concerning Taking Care of Others' Interests
22:1-4, 8

1 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep straying and neglect them; you must return them to your brother.

2 And if your brother is not nearby you, or if you do not know who he is, you shall bring it to your house. And it shall be with you until your brother demands it; then you shall return it to him.

3 And thus shall you do with his donkey; and thus shall you do with his clothing; and thus shall you do with any of your brother's lost things, which he has lost and you have found. You may not neglect them.

4 You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen by the way and neglect them; you must lift them up with him.

16. Concerning the Mixtures of Any Kind
22:5, 9-12

5 A woman shall not put on a man's belongings, nor shall a man wear a woman's garment; for everyone who does these things is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

17. Sparing the Producing Animals
22:6-7; 25:4

6 If you happen to come upon a bird's nest in the way, in any tree or on the ground, and in it are young birds or eggs, and the mother sitting upon the young birds or upon the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young.

7 You must let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself, that it may go well with you and that you may extend your days.

15. Concerning Taking Care of Others' Interests (cont'd)
22:8

8 When you build a new house, you shall make a low wall around the edge of your roof so that you do not put the guilt of blood on your house if someone falls from it.

²³ Lit., the curse of God.

16. Concerning the Mixtures of Any Kind (cont'd)
22:9-12

9 You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the ¹full produce, the seed which you sow, ²be forfeited to the sanctuary, as well as the increase of the vineyard.

10 You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

11 You shall not wear clothing of mixed materials, of wool and linen together.

12 You shall make twisted cords upon the four ¹corners of your garment with which you cover yourself.

(5. Concerning the Government
among the People—cont'd)
h. Judgments on Matters Related to Marriage
22:13-30

13 If a man takes a wife and goes in unto her, and later ¹despises her,

14 And charges her with shameful deeds and spreads an evil report about her, and says, I took this woman, and when I drew near to her, I did not find her to be a virgin;

15 Then the girl's father and her mother shall take and bring forth the evidence of the girl's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

16 And the girl's father shall say to the elders, I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, but he despised her;

17 And now he charges her with shameful deeds, saying, I did not find your daughter to be a virgin. But this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 Then the elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him;

19 And they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give it to the girl's father, for he spread an evil report against a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he may not send her away all his days.

20 But if this claim is true—the girl was not found to be a virgin—

21 They shall bring the girl out to the entrance of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones so that she dies; for she has done folly in Israel by committing fornication in her father's house. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst.

22 If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, both of them shall die, the man who was lying with the woman and the woman. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from Israel.

23 If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a man, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her;

24 You shall bring both of them out to the gate of that city and stone them with stones so that they die, the girl because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he humbled his neighbor's wife. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst.

25 But if the man finds the engaged girl in the field, and the man overpowers her and lies with her, only the man who was lying with her shall die.

26 But to the girl you shall not do anything; there is no sin worthy of death with the girl; for as it is when a man rises up against his neighbor and ¹slays him, so is this matter.

27 For he found her in the field; the engaged girl cried out and there was no one to save her.

28 If a man finds a girl who is a virgin and is not engaged, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are found;

29 The man who was lying with her

9¹ Lit., fullness. 9² Lit., be sanctified.

26¹ Lit., slays him as regards the soul.

12¹ Or, borders; lit., wings. 13¹ Or, hates.

shall give fifty shekels of silver to the girl's father. And she shall be his wife, because he humbled her; he may not send her away all his days.

30 A man shall not take his father's wife, so that he does not uncover the skirt of his father's garment.

CHAPTER 23

18. Concerning the Losing of the Right to Enter the Congregation of Jehovah 23:1-8

1 He who has been wounded in the testicles or has the male organ cut off shall not enter the congregation of Jehovah.

2 An illegitimate child shall not enter the congregation of Jehovah; even to the tenth generation, no descendant of his shall enter the congregation of Jehovah.

3 An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter the congregation of Jehovah; even to the tenth generation, no descendant of theirs shall enter the congregation of Jehovah forever;

4 Because they did not come to meet you with bread and water in the way when you were coming out of Egypt, and because they hired Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia against you, to curse you.

5 But Jehovah your God would not listen to Balaam, and Jehovah your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, for Jehovah your God loved you.

6 You shall not seek peace with them nor prosperity with them all your days forever.

7 You shall not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, for you were a sojourner in his land.

8 The children of the third generation who have been begotten of them may enter the congregation of Jehovah.

19. Concerning Keeping the Camp Clean 23:9-14

9 When you as a camp go forth against your enemies, you shall keep yourself from every evil thing.

10 If there is among you a man who becomes unclean because of an accident in the night, he shall go outside the camp; he shall not enter into the midst of the camp.

11 But when evening approaches, he shall bathe in water; and when the sun goes down, he shall enter into the midst of the camp.

12 And you shall have an assigned place outside the camp, and there you shall go out;

13 And you shall have a spade among your tools, and when you relieve yourself outside the camp, you shall dig with it and turn to cover your excrement.

14 For Jehovah your God walks in the midst of your camp to rescue you and deliver up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, and He must not see any ¹indecent thing among you, lest He turn back from going after you.

(4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd) e. Taking Care of an Escaped Slave 23:15-16

15 You shall not deliver to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you;

16 He shall dwell with you, even in your midst, in the place which he chooses ¹among your towns, wherever he pleases; you shall not oppress him.

20. Concerning a Harlot and a Dog 23:17-18

17 There shall not be a cult prostitute among the daughters of Israel, nor shall there be a cult prostitute among the sons of Israel.

14' Lit., the nakedness of anything. 16' Lit., within one of your gates.

18 You shall not bring the payment for a harlot or the price for a dog into the house of Jehovah your God for any vow, for both of them are an abomination to Jehovah your God.

- (4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd)
f. Not Making a Brother Pay Interest
23:19-20

19 You shall not make your brother pay interest, interest on money, interest on food, interest on anything on which one pays interest.

20 You may make a foreigner pay interest; but you shall not make your brother pay interest, in order that Jehovah your God may bless you in all your undertakings upon the land which you are entering to possess.

- (3. Concerning the Worship of God—cont'd)
g. By Keeping a Vow to Jehovah
23:21-23

21 When you vow a vow to Jehovah your God, you shall not delay in paying it; for Jehovah your God would certainly require it of you, and it will become sin in you.

22 But if you refrain from vowing, it will not become sin in you.

23 What proceeds out of your lips you shall keep and do, as you have vowed to Jehovah your God voluntarily, which you have promised with your mouth.

21. Concerning the Neighbor's Produce
23:24-25

24 When you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat grapes as your soul desires, until you are satisfied; but you shall not put any into a vessel of yours.

25 When you go into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck some ears with your hand; but you shall not wield a sickle upon your neighbor's standing grain.

CHAPTER 24

- (5. Concerning the Government
among the People—cont'd)

- i. The Judgment concerning Divorce
24:1-4

1 When a man takes a woman and marries her, if she does not find favor in his sight, because he has found ¹some indecency in her; and he writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her away from his house;

2 And she goes forth from his house and goes to be another man's;

3 And the latter husband despises her and writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her away from his house; or if the latter husband, who has taken her as his wife, dies;

4 Then the former husband, who sent her away, may not return to take her again to be his wife after she has been defiled. For that is an abomination before Jehovah, and you shall not cause the land to sin, which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22. Concerning a Man Taking a New Wife
24:5

5 When a man takes a new wife, he shall not go out with the army, nor shall he be charged with any duty; he shall be free at home for one year, and he shall make his wife happy, whom he has taken.

- (4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd)
g. Taking a Handmill or an Upper Millstone as a Pledge
24:6

6 One shall not take a handmill or an upper millstone as a pledge, for he takes the ¹livelihood as a pledge.

- (5. Concerning the Government
among the People—cont'd)
j. The Judgment on Kidnapping
24:7

7 If a man is found kidnapping someone from among his brothers of the children of Israel, and deals with him as a slave or sells him; then that kidnapper shall die. Thus you shall utterly remove the evil from your midst.

23. Concerning a Case of Leprosy
24:8-9

8 Be careful in a ¹case of leprosy to carefully keep and do all that the Levitical priests instruct you; as I commanded them, so shall you be certain to do.

9 Remember what Jehovah your God did to Miriam on the way when you came out of Egypt.

- (4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd)
h. Concerning Taking a Pledge from the Borrower
24:10-13

10 When you lend anything to your neighbor, you shall not enter his house in order to take his pledge.

11 You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you are lending shall bring the pledge out to you.

12 And if he is a poor man, you shall not sleep with his pledge;

13 You must return his pledge to him when the sun goes down, so that he may sleep in his mantle and bless you; and it will be righteousness to you before Jehovah your God.

- i. Concerning the Wages Given to the Poor Hired Servant
24:14-15

14 You shall not oppress a poor and needy hired servant among your brothers or among the sojourners with you, who are in your land within your gates.

15 On the day he earns it, you shall give him his wages, and the sun shall not go down upon it (for he is poor and ¹his life depends on it); lest he cry against you to Jehovah and it become sin in you.

- (5. Concerning the Government
among the People—cont'd)
k. Judgments on Fathers and on Their Children
24:16

16 Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers; every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

- (4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd)
j. In Remembering the Need of a Sojourner, an Orphan, or a Widow 24:17-22

17 You shall not distort justice due a sojourner or an orphan, nor shall you take a widow's garment as a pledge.

18 But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and that Jehovah your God ransomed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

19 When you reap your harvest in your field and you forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not turn back to gather it; it shall be for the sojourner, the orphan, and the widow, in order that Jehovah your God may bless you in all your undertakings.

20 When you beat down the fruit of your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs afterward; it shall be for the sojourner, the orphan, and the widow.

21 When you cut the grapes from your vineyard, you shall not glean afterward; it shall be for the sojourner, the orphan, and the widow.

22 And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

8¹ Lit., stroke. 15¹ Lit., he lifts up his soul to it.

CHAPTER 25

(5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)

- l. The Judgment on a Dispute Brought before the Children of Israel
25:1-3

1 If there is a dispute between men, and they approach the court, and the judges judge them, they shall justify the righteous and condemn the wicked.

2 And if the wicked man is 'worthy of beating, the judge shall make him lie down and have him beaten before him as is sufficient for his wickedness, by number.

3 Forty blows he may give him; he shall not exceed, lest, in exceeding, he beat him beyond these with many blows and your brother be degraded before your eyes.

17. Sparing the Producing Animals (cont'd)
25:4

4 You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out grain.

(5. Concerning the Government among the People—cont'd)

- m. The Judgment over a Brother Who Was Not Willing to Do the Duty of a Husband's Brother 25:5-10

5 If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies, and he has no son, the wife of the deceased man shall not become the wife of a stranger outside the family; her husband's brother shall go in unto her and take her as his wife, and he shall do the duty of a husband's brother for her.

6 And the firstborn whom she bears shall 'assume the name of his deceased brother, so that his name is not blotted out of Israel.

7 And if the man does not desire to take his brother's wife, his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name in Israel to his brother; he is not willing to do the duty of a husband's brother for me.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. And if he persists and says, I do not desire to take her;

9 Then his brother's wife shall draw near to him in the sight of the elders and remove his sandal from off his foot, and she shall spit in his face and respond and say, Thus shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him whose sandal has been removed.

- n. The Judgment of a Wife Who Helps a Fighting Husband Immorally 25:11-12

11 When two men fight together, a man and his brother, and the wife of the one comes near to rescue her husband from the hand of him who is beating him, and she puts forth her hand and takes hold of his private parts;

12 Then you shall cut off her hand; your eye shall not pity her.

- o. Concerning Weights and Measures
25:13-16

13 You shall not have in your bag 'differing weights, one heavy and one light.

14 You shall not have in your house differing 'measures, one large and one small.

15 A full and righteous weight you shall have, and a full and righteous measure you shall have, in order that your days may be extended upon the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.

16 For everyone who does these things, everyone who does unrighteousness, is an abomination to Jehovah your God.

2' Lit., a son of beating. 6' Lit., stand up upon. 13' Lit., stone and stone, great and small. 14' Lit., ephah and ephah, great and small.

24. Not Forgetting to Blot Out the Memory of Amalek
25:17-19

17 Remember what Amalek did to you on the way when you came out of Egypt, 18 That he met you on the way and struck you at the rear, struck all those who were worn out at your rear, when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God.

19 Therefore when Jehovah your God gives you rest from all your enemies surrounding you, in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; you shall not forget.

CHAPTER 26

(3. Concerning the Worship of God—cont'd)

h. By Offering Some of the First of All the Fruit of the Good Land after Entering It and Possessing It as an Inheritance 26:1-11

1 And when you enter the land which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it,

2 You shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground which you shall bring from your land, which Jehovah your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place where Jehovah your God will choose to cause His name to dwell.

3 And you shall go to the priest who is servng in those days and say to him, I declare to Jehovah your God today that I have entered the land which Jehovah swore to our fathers to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket from your hand and place it before the altar of Jehovah your God.

5 And you shall respond and say before Jehovah your God, A ¹perishing Aramaean was my father; and he went down to Egypt and sojourned there, few in number; and he became there a great and mighty and numerous nation.

6 And the Egyptians ill-treated us and afflicted us and put hard work upon us;

7 But we cried out to Jehovah, the God of our fathers, and Jehovah heard our voice, and saw our affliction and our labor and our oppression.

8 And Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and by great terror and by signs and wonders.

9 And He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 And now I have just brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which You, O Jehovah, have given me. And you shall place it before Jehovah your God and bow down before Jehovah your God.

11 And you and the Levite and the sojourner in your midst shall rejoice in all the good which Jehovah your God has given to you and to your household.

(4. Concerning Aid to the Needy—cont'd)

a. The Aid by the Tithes at the End of Every Three Years (cont'd) 26:12-15

12 When you have finished giving all the tithes of your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the sojourner, the orphan, and the widow, that they may eat within your gates and be satisfied.

13 And you shall say before Jehovah your God, I have removed what is holy from out of my house, and I have also given it to the Levite and the sojourner, to the orphan and the widow, according to Your whole commandment, which You have commanded me; I have not transgressed any of Your commandments and I have not forgotten them.

5¹ Or, wandering.

14 I have not eaten any of it in my sorrow; nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor have I given any of it to the dead. I have listened to the voice of Jehovah my God; I have done according to all that You have commanded me.

15 Look down from ¹Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the ground which You have given us, as You swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

25. A Concluding Word
26:16-19

16 This day Jehovah your God is commanding you to do these statutes and judgments; therefore you shall keep them and do them with all your heart and with all your soul.

17 It is Jehovah whom you have today declared to be your God and that you will walk in His ways and keep His statutes and His commandments and His judgments, and will listen to His voice.

18 And it is Jehovah who has today declared you to be a people for His personal treasure, even as He promised you; and that you will keep all His commandments;

19 And that He will set you high above all the nations which He has made, for praise and for a name and for honor; and that you will be a holy people to Jehovah your God, as He has spoken.

CHAPTER 27

III. A Warning 27:1 — 28:68

A. Moses, with the Elders of Israel, Commanding the People to Keep the Whole Commandment and to Declare the Curses in the Good Land 27:1-26

1 And Moses, with the elders of Israel, commanded the people, saying, Keep the whole commandment which I am commanding you today.

2 And in the day when you cross over the Jordan into the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, you shall erect for yourself large stones; and you shall coat them with plaster.

3 And you shall write upon them all the words of this law when you cross over, in order that you may enter the land which Jehovah your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Jehovah, the God of your fathers, promised to you.

4 And when you cross over the Jordan, you shall erect these stones, concerning which I am commanding you today, on Mount Ebal; and you shall coat them with plaster.

5 And you shall build there an altar to Jehovah your God, an altar of stones; you shall not use an iron tool upon them;

6 With unhewn stones you shall build the altar of Jehovah your God. Then you shall offer up burnt offerings upon it to Jehovah your God;

7 And you shall sacrifice peace offerings and eat there, and you shall rejoice before Jehovah your God.

8 Then you shall write upon the stones all the words of this law very clearly.

9 And Moses, with the Levitical priests, spoke to all Israel, saying, Be silent and hear, O Israel; this day you have become the people of Jehovah your God.

10 Therefore you shall listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, and do His commandments and His statutes, which I am commanding you today.

11 And Moses commanded the people on that day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you cross over the Jordan: Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Joseph and Benjamin;

¹⁵ Or, the habitation of Your holiness.

13 And these shall stand upon Mount Ebal for cursing: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 And the Levites shall respond and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15 Cursed is the man who makes an idol or a molten image, an abomination to Jehovah, the work of the craftsman's hands, and puts it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 Cursed is he who dishonors his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen.

17 Cursed is he who moves his neighbor's boundary marker. And all the people shall say, Amen.

18 Cursed is he who leads astray a blind man on the way. And all the people shall say, Amen.

19 Cursed is he who distorts justice due a sojourner, an orphan, or a widow. And all the people shall say, Amen.

20 Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, for he uncovers the skirt of his father's garment. And all the people shall say, Amen.

21 Cursed is he who lies with any animal. And all the people shall say, Amen.

22 Cursed is he who lies with his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter. And all the people shall say, Amen.

23 Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen.

24 Cursed is he who slays his neighbor secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen.

25 Cursed is he who takes payment to slay someone of innocent blood. And all the people shall say, Amen.

26 Cursed is he who does not confirm the words of this law by doing them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAPTER 28

B. The Blessings That Would Overtake Them for Their Diligence in Listening to Jehovah and Doing His Commandments
28:1-14

1 And if you listen diligently to the voice of Jehovah your God and are certain to do all His commandments, which I am commanding you today, Jehovah your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth;

2 And all these blessings will come upon you and overtake you if you listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.

3 Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground and the fruit of your animals, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock.

5 Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

6 Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

7 Jehovah will cause your enemies, who rise up against you, to be struck down before you; on one road they will come out against you, but on seven roads they will flee before you.

8 Jehovah will command the blessing upon you in your storehouses and in all your undertakings; and He will bless you in the land which Jehovah your God is giving you.

9 Jehovah will establish you as a holy people to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of Jehovah your God and walk in His ways.

10 And all the peoples of the earth will see that 'you are called by Jehovah's name, and they will be afraid of you.

11 And Jehovah will give you an excess of prosperity in the fruit of your womb

10' Lit., Jehovah's name is called over you.

and in the fruit of your animals and in the fruit of your ground, upon the ground which Jehovah swore to your fathers to give you.

12 Jehovah will open up to you His good treasury, the heavens, to give rain for your land in its season and to bless all your undertakings. And you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow.

13 And Jehovah will make you the head and not the tail, and you will tend only upward, and you will not tend downward, if you will listen to the commandments of Jehovah your God, which I am commanding you today to keep and to do.

14 And you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I am commanding you today, to the right or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

C. The Curses That Would Overtake Them for Their Failing to Listen to Jehovah and Do His Commandments
28:15-68

15 But if you do not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and are not certain to do all His commandments and His statutes, which I am commanding you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you.

16 Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock.

19 Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

20 Jehovah will send to you cursing, discomfiture, and rebuke in all your undertakings which you do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the evil of your practices through which you have abandoned Me.

21 Jehovah will make a plague cling to you until He has consumed you from off the land which you are entering to possess.

22 Jehovah will strike you with consuming disease and fever and inflammation, and with burning heat and ¹drought, and with blight and mildew; and these will pursue you until you perish.

23 And your heaven, which is above your head, will be brass, and the land, which is under you, iron.

24 Jehovah will make the rain of your land powder and dust; from heaven it will come down upon you until you are destroyed.

25 Jehovah will cause you to be struck down before your enemies; on one road you will go out against them, but on seven roads you will flee before them. And you will be a source of shuddering to all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And your corpse will become food for all the birds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth; and no one will frighten them away.

27 Jehovah will strike you with the boils of Egypt, tumors, scabs, and itching, of which you cannot be healed.

28 Jehovah will strike you with madness, blindness, and bewilderment of heart;

29 And you will be groping at noonday just as the blind man gropes in darkness; and you will not succeed in your ventures, but will only be oppressed and plundered always; and no one will save you.

30 You will get engaged to a woman, but another man will ravish her; you will build a house, but you will not dwell in it; you will plant a vineyard, but you will not ¹partake of it.

31 Your ox will be slaughtered in your 22¹ Some read, sword. 30¹ Lit., bring it into common use.

sight, but you will not eat of it; your donkey will be torn away from before you, but it will not be returned to you; your sheep will be given to your enemies, but no one will rescue them for you.

32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another people while your eyes look on and fail from longing after them all the day, but ¹you will be powerless.

33 A people whom you have not known will eat the fruit of your ground and all your hard-earned produce, and you will be only oppressed and crushed always.

34 And you will go mad because of the sight before your eyes which you will see.

35 Jehovah will strike you on the knees and legs with terrible boils, of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

36 Jehovah will bring you and your king, whom you will have set over you, to a nation which you and your fathers have not known; and there you will serve other gods, mere wood and stone.

37 And you will become a source of horror, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples to whom Jehovah will drive you.

38 You will put out much seed in the field, but you will harvest little; for the locust will consume it.

39 You will plant vineyards and dress them, but you will not drink the wine nor gather the grapes; for the worm will devour them.

40 You will have olive trees in all your territory, but you will not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives will drop off.

41 You will beget sons and daughters, but they will not remain with you; for they will go into captivity.

42 The locust will take possession of all your trees and the fruit of your ground.

43 The sojourner who is in your midst will rise above you higher and higher, but you will go down lower and lower.

44 He will lend to you, and you will not lend to him; he will be the head and you will be the tail.

45 And all these curses will come upon you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes, which He commanded you;

46 And they will be with you and with your seed as a sign and wonder forever.

47 Because you did not serve Jehovah your God with rejoicing and gladness of heart on account of the abundance of all things, 48 You will serve your enemies, whom Jehovah will send out against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in lack of all things; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

49 Jehovah will bring against you a nation from far away, from the end of the earth, like the eagle that swoops down, a nation whose tongue you will not understand,

50 A nation of fierce countenance, who will not regard an old man's person nor show favor to the young man.

51 And they will eat the fruit of your animals and the fruit of your ground until you are destroyed; they will not leave for you grain, new wine, or fresh oil, the offspring of your cattle or the young of your flock, until they cause you to perish.

52 And they will besiege you in all your ¹towns until your high and fortified walls, in which you trusted, come down throughout all your land; and they will besiege you in all your ¹towns throughout all your land, which Jehovah your God has given you.

53 And you will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and daughters whom Jehovah your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies will distress you.

32¹ Lit., it will not be in the strength of your hand. 52¹ Lit., gates. So also in vv. 55 and 57.

54 The man who is delicately bred and luxurious among you, 'he will begrudge his brother, the wife of his bosom, and the remnant of his children whom he has left,

55 Not giving to one of them any of the flesh of his children whom he will eat; because nothing is left with him in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies will distress you in all your towns.

56 The delicately bred and luxurious woman among you, who does not venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground because of her luxuriousness and delicacy, 'she will begrudge the husband of her bosom and her son and daughter

57 The child who comes forth from her and her children whom she will bear; for she will eat them secretly for lack of all things in the siege and distress with which your enemy will distress you in your towns.

58 If you are not certain to do all the words of this law written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and awesome name—Jehovah your God—59 Jehovah will make your plagues and the plagues of your seed extraordinary, great and persistent plagues, and malignant and persistent sicknesses.

60 And He will put upon you again all the illnesses of Egypt, which you were afraid of, and they will cling to you.

61 Also, every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, Jehovah will raise up upon you until you are destroyed.

62 And you will be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven in multitude; for you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.

63 And as Jehovah exulted over you to do you good and to multiply you, so will Jehovah exult over you to make you perish and to destroy you; and you will be torn off the land which you are entering to possess.

64 And Jehovah will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you will serve other gods whom you and your fathers have not known, mere wood and stone.

65 And among those nations you will have no rest, nor will there be a resting place for the sole of your foot; but Jehovah will give you there a quivering heart and eyes failing with longing and a languishing soul.

66 And your life will be hung in suspense before you, and you will dread night and day; and you will have no assurance of your life.

67 In the morning you will say, Oh, that it were evening! and in the evening you will say, Oh, that it were morning! because of your heart's dread with which you will dread and because of the sight before your eyes which you will see.

68 And Jehovah will bring you back to Egypt in ships, by the way concerning which I said to you, You shall never again see it. And there you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies, as male slaves and as female slaves, but no one will buy you.

CHAPTER 29

IV. The Enactment of the Covenant 29:1 — 30:20

A. The Introductory Word 29:1-17

1. Based upon the Experiences of the Past vv. 1-8; 16-17

1 These are the words of the covenant which Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant that He made with them at Horeb.

2 And Moses called to all Israel and said to them, You have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in the land of 54' Lit., his eye will be evil toward. 56' Lit., her eye will be evil toward.

Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land,

3 The great trials which your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders.

4 But Jehovah has not given you a heart to understand and eyes to see and ears to hear until this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothing did not wear out from upon you, nor did your sandal wear out from upon your foot;

6 You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you might know that I am Jehovah your God.

7 And when you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us in battle, and we slew them;

8 And we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites.

2. The Objects and the Purpose of the Enactment of the Covenant
vv. 9-15

9 Therefore keep the words of this covenant and do them in order that you may ¹prosper in all that you do.

10 You are standing today, all of you, before Jehovah your God, ¹your leaders of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, every man of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and the sojourner with you, who is in the midst of your camp, from the man who chops your wood to the man who draws your water,

12 In order to ¹enter into a covenant with Jehovah your God and into His oath, which Jehovah your God is making with you today,

13 So that He may establish you today as His people and that He may be your God, even as He has spoken to you and even as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 However not with you alone do I make this covenant and this oath;

15 But I make it with him who is here today standing with us before Jehovah our God and with him who is not here with us today.

1. Based upon the Experiences of the Past (cont'd)
vv. 16-17

16 For you know that we dwelt in the land of Egypt and that we passed through the midst of the nations whom you passed through,

17 And you saw their detestable images and their idols, mere wood and stone, silver and gold, which were with them.

B. The Contents of the Covenant
29:18—30:10

18 Beware that there is not among you any man or woman or family or tribe whose heart turns away, even today, from Jehovah our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations; that there is not among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood;

19 And that when he hears the words of this ¹oath, he blesses himself in his heart, saying, I will have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart; to the ruin of the moist with the dry.

20 Jehovah will not be willing to pardon him; but rather the anger of Jehovah and His jealousy will fume against that man, and all the oath that is written in this book will settle on him, and Jehovah will blot out his name from under heaven.

21 And Jehovah will separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel according 9¹ Or, manage prudently all that you do. 10¹ According to the reading of the Septuagint. The Hebrew text reads, your leaders, your tribes. 12¹ Lit., cross over. 19¹ Or, curse. So also in vv. 20 and 21.

to all the oaths of the covenant written in this book of the law.

22 And the following generation, your children who will rise up after you and the foreigner who will come from a distant land, will say, when they see the plagues of that land and its diseases with which Jehovah has made it sick;

23 And that all its land is sulphur and salt, a burning waste; that it is not sown, nor does it sprout, nor does any vegetation come up in it; that it is like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which Jehovah overthrew in His anger and burning wrath—

24 Indeed all the nations will say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land? Why the burning of this great anger?

25 And they will say, It is because they forsook the covenant of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out from the land of Egypt;

26 And they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, gods whom they had not known and He had not allotted to them.

27 And the anger of Jehovah burned against this land, bringing upon it all the curses written in this book;

28 And Jehovah plucked them off their land in anger and in burning wrath and in great indignation, and sent them to another land, as they are this day.

29 The things that are hidden belong to Jehovah our God; but the things that are revealed, to us and our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER 30

1 And when all these things come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you; and you bring them to heart while among the nations to whom Jehovah your God will drive you;

2 And you and your children return to Jehovah your God and listen to His voice, according to all that I am commanding you today, with all your heart and with all your soul;

3 Then Jehovah your God will turn your captivity and be compassionate to you, and He will turn and gather you from all the peoples among whom Jehovah your God has scattered you.

4 If any of you have been driven out to the ends of heaven, from there will Jehovah your God gather you and from there will He take you.

5 And Jehovah your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you will possess it; and He will do good for you and will multiply you more than He did your fathers.

6 And Jehovah your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your seed, so that you will love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live.

7 And Jehovah your God will put all these ¹oaths upon your enemies and upon them who hate you and who have persecuted you.

8 And you will turn and listen to the voice of Jehovah, and you will do all His commandments, which I am commanding you today.

9 And Jehovah your God will give you an excess of prosperity in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your womb and in the fruit of your animals and in the fruit of your ground, for Jehovah will again exult over you for good as He exulted over your fathers;

10 If you listen to the voice of Jehovah your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes written in this book of the law; if you turn back to Jehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

7¹ Or, curses.

C. The Concluding Word
30:11-20

11 For this commandment which I am commanding you today, it is not too ¹difficult for you, nor is it distant.

12 It is not in heaven that you should say, Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us to make us hear it and do it?

13 Nor is it across the sea that you should say, Who will go across the sea for us and bring it to us to make us hear it and do it?

14 But the word is very near to you, even in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.

15 See, I have put before you today life and good, and death and evil.

16 ¹*If you obey the commandments of Jehovah your God*, which I am commanding you today, to love Jehovah your God and walk in His ways and keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, then you will live and multiply, and Jehovah your God will bless you in the land which you are entering to possess.

17 But if your heart turns and you do not listen, but rather you are drawn away in worship to other gods and serve them, 18 I declare to you today that you shall surely perish; your days will not be extended upon the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to go and possess.

19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today: I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse; therefore choose life that you and your seed may live,

20 In loving Jehovah your God by listening to His voice and holding fast to Him; for ¹He is your life and the length of your days, that you may dwell upon the land which Jehovah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

CHAPTER 31

V. The Final Exhortations and Charges
31:1-29

A. Moses' Exhortation to the People
vv. 1-6

1 When Moses ¹finished speaking these words to all Israel,

2 He said to them, I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I can no longer go out and come in, and Jehovah has said to me, You shall not cross over this Jordan.

3 It is Jehovah your God who is crossing over before you; it is He who will destroy these nations from before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua is the one who is crossing over before you, as Jehovah has spoken.

4 And Jehovah will do to them even as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land when He destroyed them.

5 And Jehovah will deliver them up before you, and you will do to them according to the whole commandment, which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong and take courage; do not fear, neither be terrified of them, for it is Jehovah your God who goes with you; He will not fail you nor forsake you.

B. Moses' Exhortation to Joshua
vv. 7-8

7 And Moses called Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and take courage, for you will go with this people into the land which Jehovah swore to their fathers to give them; and you will cause them to inherit it.

8 But it is Jehovah who is going before

11¹ Or, extraordinary; wonderful. 16¹ The supplied words are from the Septuagint and do not appear in the Hebrew text. 20¹ Or, that. 1¹ According to some manuscripts and ancient versions. Other manuscripts read, went and spoke.

you. He will be with you; He will not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear, neither be dismayed.

C. Moses' Exhortation to the Priests, the Sons of Levi, and the Elders of Israel
vv. 9-13

9 And Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bear the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, and to all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time of the year of release, at the Feast of ¹Tabernacles, 11 When all Israel comes to appear before Jehovah your God in the place which He will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather the people, the men, the women, and the little ones, and the sojourner with you, who is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn to fear Jehovah your God and be certain to do all the words of this law, 13 And that their children, who have not known these things, may hear and learn to fear Jehovah your God all the days that you live upon the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.

D. Jehovah's Command to Moses to Write a Song
vv. 14-23

14 And Jehovah said to Moses, Now your days draw near for you to die. Call Joshua and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting that I may charge him. So Moses went with Joshua, and they presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

15 And Jehovah appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance of the tent.

16 And Jehovah said to Moses, You are now about to lie down with your fathers; and this people will rise up and go as harlots after the strange gods of the land, into the midst of which they are entering; and they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I made with them.

17 And My anger will burn against them in that day, and I will forsake them and hide My face from them; and they will be devoured, and many evils and troubles will befall them, so that they will say in that day, Is it not because our God is not in our midst that these evils have befallen us?

18 And I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they have done, for they turned to other gods.

19 And now write for yourselves this song and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouth that I may have this song as a witness against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the land which I swore to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, and they will eat and become satisfied and grow fat, and they will turn to other gods and serve them and despise Me and break My covenant.

21 And when many evils and troubles befall them, this song will respond as a witness before them, because it will not be forgotten in the mouth of their seed; for I know their intention, which they are making even today before I bring them into the land which I have sworn to them.

22 So Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the children of Israel.

23 And He charged Joshua the son of Nun and said, Be strong and take courage, for you will bring the children of Israel into the land which I have sworn to them; and I will be with you.

¹⁰ Lit., Booths.

E. Moses' Completion of the Writing, and His Charges to the Levites and to All the Elders of Israel
vv. 24-29

24 And when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book until they were completed,

25 Moses charged the Levites who bear the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, saying, 26 Take this book of the law and place it at the side of the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah your God, that it may be there as a witness against you.

27 For I know your rebelliousness and your stiff neck: See, while I am yet here alive with you today, you have been rebelling against Jehovah; so how much more after my death!

28 Gather to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak in their hearing these words and that I may call heaven and earth to witness against them;

29 For I know that after my death you will utterly spoil yourselves and turn away from the way that I have commanded you; and evil will come upon you in the last days, for you will do what is evil in the sight of Jehovah so as to provoke Him to anger by your undertakings.

VI. The Song of Moses
31:30—32:47

A. The Contents of the Song
31:30—32:43

30 And Moses spoke in the hearing of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song until they were completed.

CHAPTER 32

1 Give ear, O heaven, and let me speak;
And let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

2 Let my teaching drop like the rain;
Let my speech distill like the dew,
Like raindrops upon tender grass,
And like abundant showers upon herbage.

3 For the name of Jehovah will I declare.
Ascribe greatness to our God!

4 The Rock—perfect is His work,
For all His ways are justice:
A God of faithfulness and without injustice;
Righteous and upright is He.

5 Corruptly have they dealt with Him—their blemish is not His sons—
A twisted and crooked generation are they.

6 Do you repay Jehovah with this,
Foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your Father who bought
you?
Was it not He who made you and established you?

7 Remember the days of long ago;
Consider the years of generation upon generation;
Ask your father, and he will inform
you;
Your elders, and they will tell you.

8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance,
When He divided the sons of ^lman,
He set the borders of the peoples
According to the number of Israel's children.

9 For Jehovah's portion is His people;
Jacob is the allotment of His inheritance.

10 He found him in a land of wilderness,
And in a howling desert waste;
He encircled him, cared for him
with all attention;

8' Or, Adam.

He guarded him like the pupil of His eye.

- 11 As the eagle rouses his nest,
Hovers over his young,
Spreads his wings, takes them,
And bears them up upon his pinions;
- 12 So Jehovah alone led him,
And there was no strange god with Him.
- 13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth,
And he ate the produce of the field;
And He made him suck honey out of a crag,
And oil out of flint rock:
- 14 Curd of cows and milk of sheep,
With fat of lambs,
And rams, the offspring of Bashan,
and goats,
With the ¹choicest wheat;
And the blood of the grape you drank as fermenting wine.
- 15 But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked—
You have become fat, you have grown thick, you have gorged yourself—
And forsook God, who made him,
And treated the Rock of his salvation disdainfully.
- 16 They made Him jealous with strange gods;
With abominations they provoked
Him to anger.
- 17 They sacrificed to demons, to those who were no god,
To gods they did not know,
To new ones who had recently come up,
Before whom your fathers had not shuddered.
- 18 You have neglected the Rock who begot you

And have forgotten the God who travailed with you.

- 19 And Jehovah saw and held them in contempt,
Because of anger provoked by His sons and daughters.
- 20 And He said, I will hide My face from them;
I will see what their latter end will be.
For they are a generation of perversions,
Children in whom is no
faithfulness.
- 21 They have made Me jealous with a non-God;
They have provoked Me to anger with their vanities.
Hence I will make them jealous with a non-people;
With a foolish nation I will provoke them to anger.
- 22 For a fire is kindled in My anger
And burns unto nethermost Sheol.
And it devours the earth and its produce
And sets ablaze the foundations of the mountains.
- 23 I will heap evils on them;
I will use up My arrows against them.
- 24 They shall be sucked up by famine,
And eaten up by fire bolt
And bitter destruction;
And I will send the teeth of beasts against them,
With the venom of those that crawl in the dust.
- 25 The sword shall bereave outside,
And inside, terror;
Taking both the young man and the virgin,
The suckling with the gray-haired
man.

14¹ Lit., the kidney-fat of wheat.

- 26 I would have said, I will scatter them,
- I will cause the memory of them to cease from among men;
- 27 Except I dreaded the vexation from the enemy;
Lest their adversaries misjudge;
Lest they say, Our hand is exalted,
And it is not Jehovah who has wrought all this.
- 28 For they are a nation destitute of counsel,
And there is no understanding in them.
- 29 If they had been wise, they would have comprehended this,
They would have perceived their latter end.
- 30 How shall one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Were it not that their Rock sold them,
And Jehovah delivered them up?
- 31 For their rock is not like our Rock;
And of this our enemies are judges.
- 32 For their vine is from Sodom's vine,
And from Gomorrah's fields;
Their grapes are the grapes of poison;
Clusters of bitterness have they.
- 33 Their wine is the venom of serpents
And the cruel poison of cobras.
- 34 Is this not laid up in store with Me,
Sealed up in My treasuries?
- 35 Vengeance is Mine and so is retribution,
For the time when their foot slips;
Because the day of their calamity has drawn near,
And the things destined to happen to them hasten.
- 36 For Jehovah will ¹execute judgment for His people,
And He will have compassion on His servants,
When He sees that their ²support is gone,
And that neither fettered nor free remain.
- 37 And He will say, Where are their gods,
The rock they sought refuge in,
- 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices,
And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them rise up and help you;
¹Let them be a shelter over you.
- 39 See now that I, I am He,
And there is no god with Me.
It is I who kill, and I make alive;
I wound, and it is I who heal;
And there is no one who can deliver from My hand.
- 40 For I lift up My hand to heaven
And say, As I live forever:
- 41 If I sharpen My flashing sword,
And My hand takes hold of judgment,
I will repay My adversaries with vengeance,
And those who hate Me will I recompense.
- 42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword will devour flesh—
With the blood of the slain and of the captives,
The flesh of the long-haired ¹leaders of the enemy.
- 43 Shout joyously, you nations, for His people,
Because He will avenge the blood of His servants,

36¹ Or, judge His people. 36² Lit., hand. 38¹ According to the reading of the Septuagint and the other ancient versions. The Hebrew text reads, Let there be a shelter over you.

42¹ Or, heads.

And He will repay His adversaries with vengeance
And will cover the guilt of His land and of His people.

B. The Word of Moses and Joshua to the People
32:44-47

44 And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel.

46 And he said to them, Set your heart on all these words which I am testifying to you today. You shall command them to your children that they may be certain to do all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a matter too vain for you, because it is your life; and by this matter you will extend your days upon the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.

VII. The Death of Moses, and His Successor
32:48-52; 34:1-12

A. The Death of Moses
32:48-52; 34:1-8

48 And Jehovah spoke to Moses that same day, saying,

49 Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, which faces Jericho, and see the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel as a possession;

50 And die in the mountain to which you are going up, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor and was gathered to his people;

51 Because ¹you were unfaithful to Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ¹you did not sanctify Me among the children of Israel.

52 But from a distance you shall see the land, yet you shall not go there into the land which I am giving to the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 33

VIII. The Blessing of Moses
33:1-29

A. The Introductory Word
vv. 1-5

1 And this is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said,

Jehovah came from Sinai,
And He dawned upon them from Seir;

He shined forth from Mount Paran,
And He approached from the myriads of holy ones;
From His right hand a fiery law went out to them.

3 Indeed, He loves the ¹people.

²All His saints were in Your hand,
And they ³sat down at Your feet;
Everyone receives of Your words.

4 Moses commanded us a law,
A possession of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And He was King in Jeshurun,
When the heads of the people gathered themselves,
The tribes of Israel together.

B. The Blessing
vv. 6-25

6 May Reuben live and not die,
Nor his men be few.

7 And this is the blessing concerning Judah; and he said,

51¹ Plural in Hebrew. 3¹ Lit., peoples. 3² Or, All their saints are in Your hand. 3³ Or, followed in Your steps.

- Hear, O Jehovah, the voice of Judah,
 And bring him to his people.
 With his hands he contended for
 them;
 And may You be a help against his adversaries.
- 8 And concerning Levi he said,
 May Your Thummim and Urim be with ¹Your faithful man, Whom You tested at Massah,
With whom You contended at the waters of Meribah—
- 9 He who said of his father and mother,
 I do not regard him;
 And his brothers he did not acknowledge,
 And his children he did not recognize;
 For they have kept Your speaking
 And have guarded Your covenant.
- 10 They shall show Jacob Your judgments,
 And Israel Your law;
 They shall put incense before Your nostrils
 And whole burnt offerings upon
 Your altar.
- 11 Bless, O Jehovah, his ¹might,
 And the work of his hands accept;
 Wound thoroughly the loins of those who rise up against him
 And of those who hate him, that they may not rise up again.
- 12 Concerning Benjamin he said,
 The beloved of Jehovah shall ¹dwell securely beside Him;
Jehovah shall cover over him all the day,
 And He shall ¹dwell between his shoulders.
- 13 And concerning Joseph he said,
 May his land be blessed of Jehovah
 With the choicest things of heaven, with the dew
- And with the deep waters that couch beneath;
- 14 With the choicest of the crops of the sun,
 And with the choicest of the yield of the moons;
- 15 With the top of the ancient mountains,
 And with the choicest things of the eternal hills;
- 16 With the choicest things of the earth, and the fullness thereof,
 And the favor of Him who dwelt in the thornbush.
 May they come upon the head of Joseph,
 And upon the top of the head of him who is separated among his brothers.
- 17 Like his firstborn ox, he has majesty;
 And his horns are the horns of the wild ox;
 With them he shall drive peoples
 To the ends of the earth together.
 Those are the ten thousands of Ephraim;
 And those the thousands of Manasseh.
- 18 And concerning Zebulun he said,
 Rejoice, Zebulun, for your going forth,
 And Issachar, for your tents!
- 19 They shall call peoples to the mountain;
 There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness;
 For they shall suck the abundance of the seas
 And the hidden treasures of the sand.
- 20 And concerning Gad he said,
 Blessed be He who enlarges Gad.
 He dwells as a lioness,
 And tears off the arm, yea, even the top of the head.

8¹ Or, the man of Your lovingkindness. 11¹ Or, substance. 12¹ Or, tabernacle.

- 21 And he provided the first part for himself,
For there the portion of a ¹lawgiver is reserved;
And he came with the heads of the people;
He executed the righteousness of
Jehovah
And His judgments with Israel.
- 22 And concerning Dan he said,
Dan is a lion's whelp
That leaps forth from Bashan.
- 23 And concerning Naphtali he said,
O Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
And full of the blessing of Jehovah:
Possess the sea and the south.
- 24 And concerning Asher he said,
Blessed be Asher above the sons.
May he be the one favored of his brothers,
And the one dipping his foot in oil.
- 25 Your doorbolts shall be iron and copper;
And as your days are, so shall your ¹strength be.

C. The Concluding Word
vv. 26-29

- 26 There is no one like the God of Jeshurun,
Who rides through the heavens as your help
And in His majesty through the skies.
- 27 The God of old is your habitation,
And underneath are eternal arms.
And He drove out the enemy before
you
And said, Destroy!
- 28 So Israel dwelt securely,
The fountain of Jacob in solitude,

On a land of grain and new wine;
And the heavens over him drop their dew.

- 29 Happy are you, O Israel; who is like
you?
A people saved by Jehovah,
The shield of your help
And He who is the sword of your majesty!
So your enemies shall come cringing
to you,
And you shall tread upon their high places.

CHAPTER 34

(VII. The Death of Moses, and His Successor—cont'd)
A. The Death of Moses (cont'd)
34:1-8

1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which faces Jericho. And Jehovah showed him all the land: Gilead as far as Dan;

2 And all of Naphtali; and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh; and all the land of Judah as far as the sea beyond it;

3 And the Negev; and the Plain, that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.

4 And Jehovah said to him, This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, To your seed I will give it. I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you will not go over there.

5 So Moses the servant of Jehovah died there in the land of Moab according to the word of Jehovah.

6 And He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-peor; but no man knows his burial site to this day.

7 And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eye

21¹ Or, commander. 25¹ The exact meaning of this Hebrew word is uncertain.

was not dim, nor had his freshness left him.

8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; thus, the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were completed.

B. The Successor of Moses
34:9-12

9 And Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him; and the children of Israel listened to him and did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

10 And there has not arisen a prophet since then in Israel like Moses, whom Jehovah knew face to face,

11 For all the signs and the wonders which Jehovah sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land, 12 And for all the mighty ¹power and for all the great terror which Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

JOSHUA

Subject:

Israel's Occupying and Possessing the Good Land for the Carrying Out of God's Economy

CHAPTER 1

I. Entering into the Good Land

1:1 — 5:15

A. God's Commission

1:1-18

1. God's Charge, Promise, and Encouragement to Joshua

vv. 1-9

1 After the death of Moses the servant of Jehovah, Jehovah spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' attendant, saying,

2 Moses My servant is dead; now then arise, and cross over this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land which I am giving to them, to the children of Israel.

3 Every place on which the sole of your foot treads I have given to you, as I promised Moses.

4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun will be your territory.

5 No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I will be with you; I will not fail you nor forsake you.

6 Be strong and take courage, for you will cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give to them.

7 Only be strong and very courageous, being certain to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you. Do not turn away from it to the right or to the left, that you may have success wherever you go.

8 This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall muse upon it day and night so that you may be certain to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous and then you will have success.

9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and take courage; do not be afraid or dismayed. For Jehovah your God is with you wherever you go.

2. Joshua's Charge to the People

vv. 10-15

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Go through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare provisions for yourselves, for in three days you are to cross this Jordan to enter and possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.

12 And to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua spoke, saying, 13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, saying, Jehovah your God has given you rest and will give you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses has given you beyond the Jordan; but you yourselves shall cross over in battle array before your brothers, all the mighty men of valor; and you shall help them,

15 Until Jehovah gives rest to your brothers as He has to you, and they also possess the land which Jehovah your God is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and you will possess that which Moses the servant of Jehovah has given you beyond the Jordan toward the rising of the sun.

3. The People's Response to Joshua
vv. 16-18

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17 As in all things we listened to Moses, so we will listen to you. Only may Jehovah your God be with you, as He was with Moses.

18 Any man who rebels against your command or does not listen to your words in all that you command him, let him be put to death. Only be strong and take courage.

CHAPTER 2

B. Spying Out the Land 2:1-24

1. Joshua's Sending of the Two Spies v. 1a

1 Then Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent out from Shittim two men as spies, saying, Go, view the land, especially Jericho.

2. Jehovah's Providing of Rahab the Harlot vv. 1b-22

And they went and entered the house of a woman who was a harlot, whose name was Rahab; and they lay down there.

2 And the king of Jericho was told, saying, There are some men who have now come here tonight from the children of Israel to search out the land.

3 Then the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, Bring out the men who have come to you and who entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land.

4 And the woman took the two men and hid them. And she said, Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

5 And when it was time to shut the gate at dark, the men went out; I do not know where the men have gone. Pursue quickly after them, for you can overtake them.

6 But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them among stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof.

7 So the men pursued after them on the way toward the Jordan as far as the fords. And as soon as those who pursued after them went out, the gate was shut.

8 And before the ¹spies lay down, she went up to them on the roof;

9 And she said to the men, I know that Jehovah has given you the land, and that the dread of you has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt before you.

10 For we have heard how Jehovah dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you ¹utterly destroyed.

11 When we heard, our hearts melted; and there no longer remained any spirit in any man because of you; for Jehovah your God, He is God in heaven above and upon earth beneath.

12 So now, swear to me by Jehovah, I beg you, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house; and give me some token of trust,

13 That you will preserve my father and my mother and my brothers and my 8¹ Lit., they. 10¹ Lit., devoted, i.e., to destruction. So throughout the book.

sisters and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men said to her, Our life ¹for yours! If you do not utter anything of this matter concerning us, then when Jehovah gives the land to us, we will deal kindly and faithfully with you.

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the wall of the city and she dwelt on the wall.

16 And she said to them, Go to the mountain, so that your pursuers do not come upon you; and hide yourselves there for three days, until your pursuers return; then afterward you can go on your way.

17 And the men said to her, We will be ¹released from this oath to you that you made us swear, 18 Unless, when we enter the land, you tie this line of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and gather your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father's house to you in your house.

19 And anyone who goes forth from the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be upon his own head, and we will be innocent. And whoever is with you in the house, his blood will be upon our heads if a hand should come upon him.

20 But if you utter anything of this matter concerning us, we will be released from this oath to you that you made us swear.

21 And she said, According to your words, so shall it be. Then she sent them away, and they left. And she tied the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they left and came to the mountain, and they remained there for three days, until their pursuers returned. And although their pursuers searched the entire way, they could not find them.

3. The Two Spies' Return and Report vv. 23-24

23 Then the two men returned and came ~~down~~ from the mountain, and they crossed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun. And they related to him all that had happened to them.

24 And they said to Joshua, Jehovah has indeed given all the land into our hand; moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt before us.

CHAPTER 3

C. Crossing the River Jordan 3:1 — 4:24

1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning; and they set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel; and they stayed there overnight, before they crossed over.

2 And at the end of three days the officers went through the midst of the camp,

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When you see the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah your God and the Levitical priests bearing it, you shall set out from your place and go after it.

4 But there shall be a space between you and it of about two thousand cubits by measure. Do not come near it, so that you may know the way by which you must go; for you have not passed this way before.

5 And Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow Jehovah will do wondrous things in your midst.

6 Then Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and cross over before the people. And they took up the Ark of the Covenant and went before the people.

7 And Jehovah said to Joshua, On this day I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, I will be with you.

14¹ Lit., instead of yours for death. 17¹ Or, innocent of. So also in v. 20.

8 And you shall command the priests who carry the Ark of the Covenant, saying, When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.

9 Then Joshua said to the children of Israel, Come here and hear the words of Jehovah your God.

10 And Joshua said, By this you will know that the living God is in your midst, and that He will most certainly dispossess before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Gergashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites.

11 The Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth is now crossing over before you into the Jordan.

12 Therefore now take twelve men for yourselves out of the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.

13 And when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the Ark of Jehovah, the Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of the Jordan; the waters of the Jordan, the waters that flow down from upstream, will be cut off, and they will stand in a heap.

14 And so it happened that when the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant were before the people.

15 And when those who carried the Ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who carried the Ark dipped into the edge of the water (now the Jordan overflowed all its banks throughout all the days of the harvest), 16 The waters that flowed down from upstream stood and rose up in a heap a great distance away, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that flowed down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people crossed over from opposite Jericho.

17 And the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel was crossing over on dry ground, until all the nation had completely crossed over the Jordan.

CHAPTER 4

1 And when all the nation had completely crossed over the Jordan, Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 Take for yourselves twelve men from among the people, one man from each tribe;

3 And command them, saying, Take up for yourselves from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones; and bring them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you lodge tonight.

4 So Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from among the children of Israel, one man from each tribe.

5 And Joshua said to them, Pass on before the Ark of Jehovah your God into the middle of the Jordan, and every one of you lift up one stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel,

6 That this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, saying, What do these stones mean to you?

7 You shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah; when it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. Thus these stones will be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.

8 And the children of Israel did as Joshua commanded and took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, as Jehovah told Joshua to do, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel. And they brought them over with them to the place where they were to lodge, and they laid them down there.

9 Then Joshua erected twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.

10 And the priests who carried the Ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed over.

11 And when all the people had completely crossed over, the Ark of Jehovah with the priests crossed over before the people.

12 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the children of Israel, as Moses had told them to do;

13 About forty thousand equipped for war crossed over before Jehovah into the plains of Jericho for battle.

14 On that day Jehovah magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel, and they revered him as they had revered Moses all the days of his life.

15 Then Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests who carry the Ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan.

17 And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, Come up out of the Jordan.

18 And when the priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah came up out from the middle of the Jordan, when the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up onto the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and went over all its banks as before.

19 And the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal, at the eastern edge of Jericho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua erected in Gilgal.

21 And he spoke to the children of Israel, saying, When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What do these stones mean?

22 You shall let your children know, saying, On dry ground Israel crossed over this Jordan.

23 For Jehovah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you crossed over, as Jehovah your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we crossed over;

24 That all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of Jehovah, that it is mighty; that you may fear Jehovah your God always.

CHAPTER 5

D. The Preparation before the Attack 5:1-15

1. The Reaction of the Kings of the Amorites and the Canaanites v. 1

1 Now when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the children of Israel until ¹they crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them because of the children of Israel.

2. The Circumcision of the New Israel vv. 2-9

2 At that time Jehovah said to Joshua, Make knives of flint, and circumcise again the children of Israel a second time.

3 And Joshua made knives of flint and circumcised the children of Israel at Gibeath-haaraloth.

4 And this is the reason Joshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Egypt.

5 Although all the people who came out were circumcised, all the people who were born in the wilderness on the way, after the ¹others had come out of Egypt, had not been circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel went for forty years through the wilderness until all the nation, the men of war who had come out of Egypt, were consumed, because they did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, they to whom Jehovah swore that they would not see the land that Jehovah had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom He had raised up in place of them, these Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way.

8 And when they had finished circumcising the whole nation, they remained in their place at the camp until they recovered.

9 Then Jehovah said to Joshua, Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. So the name of that place has been called Gilgal to this day.

3. The Keeping of the Passover
v. 10

10 And the children of Israel camped in Gilgal; and they held the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening on the plains of Jericho.

4. The Eating of the Produce of the Promised Land
vv. 11-12

11 And on the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain.

12 And the manna ceased on that day, when they ate of the produce of the land; and there was no longer manna for the children of Israel, but they ate of the yield of the land of Canaan that year.

5. The Vision Seen by Joshua
vv. 13-15

13 Now once, when Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked; and behold, there was a man standing opposite him, and His sword was drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said to Him, Are You for us or for our adversaries?

14 And He said, Neither, but ¹as the Captain of Jehovah's army have I now come. Then Joshua fell to the ground upon his face and worshipped. And he said to Him, What does my Lord speak to His servant?

15 And the Captain of Jehovah's army said to Joshua, Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER 6

II. Taking Possession of the Good Land
6:1 — 12:24

A. The Destruction of Jericho
6:1-27

1 Now Jericho was shut up so tight because of the children of Israel that no one went out and no one went in.

2 And Jehovah said to Joshua, See, I have given Jericho and its king and the mighty men of valor into your hand.

5¹ Lit., they. 14¹ Or, I am the Captain of Jehovah's army; I have come now.

3 And you shall circle the city, all the men of valor, going around the city one time. Thus shall you do for six days.

4 And seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark. Then on the seventh day you shall circle the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.

5 And when they give off the blast of the ram's horn and you hear the trumpet sound, all the people shall shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city will fall down ¹flat, and the people shall go up, each straight ahead.

6 So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the Ark of Jehovah.

7 And he said to the people, Pass on and circle the city, and let the armed men pass on before the Ark of Jehovah.

8 Then when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before Jehovah passed on and blew the trumpets; and the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah went after them.

9 And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets; and the rearguard went after the Ark, the trumpets continually blowing.

10 And Joshua commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, nor let a word go forth from your mouth, until the day I say to you, Shout! Then you shall shout.

11 So he had the Ark of Jehovah circle the city, going around it one time. And they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the Ark of Jehovah.

13 And the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns went before the Ark of Jehovah, continually blowing the trumpets; and the armed men went before them, and the rearguard went after the Ark of Jehovah, the trumpets continually blowing.

14 And they circled the city on the second day one time and returned to the camp. This they did for six days.

15 Then on the seventh day they rose early, at the break of dawn, and circled the city in the same manner seven times. Only on that day did they circle the city seven times.

16 And at the seventh time the priests blew the trumpets, and Joshua said to the people, Shout! For Jehovah has given you the city.

17 And the city shall be devoted to Jehovah for destruction, it and all that is in it. Only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all who are with her in her house, because she hid the messengers we sent.

18 But as for you, keep yourselves from what has been devoted to destruction, lest you devote yourselves to destruction by taking of what has been devoted and you make the camp of Israel something devoted to destruction and bring trouble to it.

19 But all the silver and the gold and the vessels of bronze and iron, these are holy to Jehovah; they shall come into the treasury of Jehovah.

20 So the people shouted and the trumpets were blown; and when the people heard the trumpet sound, the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat. And the people went up into the city, each straight ahead, and they captured the city.

21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city with the edge of the sword: both men and women, young and old, and oxen and sheep and donkeys.

⁵ Lit., underneath itself. So also in v. 20.

22 And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, Go to the house of the harlot, and bring out from there the woman and all that belongs to her, as you swore to her.

23 And the young men who had been spies went and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all that belonged to her; all her family they brought out and set outside the camp of Israel.

24 And they burned the city with fire and all that was in it; but the silver and the gold and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put in the treasury of the house of Jehovah.

25 And Joshua preserved Rahab the harlot and her father's house and all that belonged to her, and she has dwelt within Israel to this day; for she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy out Jericho.

26 Then at that time Joshua charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man before Jehovah who rises up to rebuild this city Jericho! At the cost of his firstborn son shall he lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son shall he set up its gates.

27 So Jehovah was with Joshua, and reports of him were in all the land.

CHAPTER 7

B. The Destruction of Ai 7:1—8:35

1. The Defeat at Ai 7:1-26

1 But the children of Israel acted unfaithfully in that which was devoted to destruction, for Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of that which was devoted to destruction; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, east of Bethel; and he spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the land. So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, Not all the people need go up; let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people labor there, for the ¹enemies are few.

4 So about three thousand men from the people went up there, but they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai struck some of them, about thirty-six men; and they pursued them from before the gate unto Shebarim and struck them on the slope. And the heart of the people melted and became like water.

6 And Joshua rent his clothes and fell to the ground upon his face before the Ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Ah, Lord Jehovah! Why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all? To give us over into the hand of the Amorites and cause us to perish? If only we had been content to dwell across the Jordan!

8 Oh, Lord, what can I say after Israel has turned its back before its enemies?

9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great name?

10 Then Jehovah said to Joshua, Rise up! Why have you fallen upon your face?

11 Israel has sinned. Indeed they have trespassed My covenant, which I commanded them; indeed they have taken of that which was devoted to destruction;

3¹ Lit., they.

indeed they have stolen; indeed they have been deceptive; indeed they have put it among their goods.

12 Thus the children of Israel are not able to stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, for they have become something devoted to destruction. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy that which was devoted to destruction from among you.

13 Rise up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, There is something devoted to destruction among you, O Israel; you will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove that which was devoted to destruction from among you.

14 Therefore in the morning you shall be brought near by your tribes; and the tribe which Jehovah takes shall draw near family by family; and the family which Jehovah takes shall draw near house by house; and the house which Jehovah takes shall draw near warrior by warrior.

15 And he who is taken with that which was devoted to destruction shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has trespassed the covenant of Jehovah and because he has committed folly in Israel.

16 So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel near by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17 And he brought the family of Judah near, and the family of the Zerahites was taken. And he brought the family of the Zerahites near warrior by warrior, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he brought the ¹house of Zabdi near warrior by warrior, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said to Achan, My son, give glory to Jehovah the God of Israel, and ¹make confession to Him. And tell me what you have done; do not hide anything from me.

20 Then Achan answered Joshua and said, It is true; I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel; and this is what I did:

21 When I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle of Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. And now they are hidden in the earth in my tent, with the silver under it.

22 And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. And there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

23 And they took the ¹things from within the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and spread them out before Jehovah.

24 Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan the son of Zerah and the silver and the mantle and the wedge of gold, and his sons and his daughters and his oxen and his donkeys and his sheep and his tent and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? Jehovah will trouble you this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire when they had stoned them with stones.

26 Then they erected over him a great heap of stones, which is there to this day; and Jehovah turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place is called the Valley of Achor to this day.

CHAPTER 8

2. The Victory over Ai 8:1-29

1 Then Jehovah said to Joshua, Do not be afraid or dismayed. Take all the people of war with you, and rise and go up to Ai.

18¹ Lit., his house. 19¹ Or, give praise. 23¹ Lit., them.

See, I have given the king of Ai and his people and his city and his land into your hand.

2 And you shall do to Ai and to its king as you did to Jericho and to its king; except its spoil and its cattle you shall take for your plunder. Set an ambush for the city behind it.

3 So Joshua rose up with all the people of war to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty men of valor, and sent them out by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, See, you shall lie in ambush for the city behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, and all of you be ready.

5 And I and all the people who are with me will draw near to the city. Then when they come forth to meet us, as it was the first time, we will flee before them.

6 And they will come out after us until we have drawn them out from the city, for they will say, They are fleeing before us as they did the first time. Thus we will flee before them.

7 Then you shall rise up from the ambush and take possession of the city, for Jehovah your God will give it into your hand.

8 And when you capture the city, you shall set the city on fire. You shall do according to the word of Jehovah. See, I have commanded you.

9 Then Joshua sent them forth; and they went to the place of ambush, and they stayed between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai. And Joshua spent that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose early in the morning and mustered the people; and he and the elders of Israel went up before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near and came before the city. And they camped to the north of Ai, so that the valley was between them and Ai.

12 Now he had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

13 So they set the people, the whole camp, which was north of the city, and the rearguard to the west of the city. And Joshua went into the valley that night.

14 Now when the king of Ai saw this, the men of the city hurried and rose up early and went to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people, at the assigned place, facing the Arabah; for he did not know that there was an ambush set for him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them, and they fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 Then all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua and thus were drawn out of the city.

17 And not a man was left in Ai or in Bethel who did not go forth after Israel, but they abandoned the city, leaving it open, and pursued after Israel.

18 Then Jehovah said to Joshua, Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush rose up quickly from their place and ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and captured it; and they hurried and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai turned to see behind them, they looked, and there it was—the smoke of the city going up to heaven; and they had no way to flee this way or that way when the people who had fled into the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city was rising, they turned and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the others came out from the city to meet them, so that they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them, so that no one was left to survive or escape.

23 But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

24 And when Israel had finished slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they had pursued them, and all of them had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

25 And all those who fell that day, both of men and of women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.

26 And Joshua did not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for themselves as plunder, according to the word of Jehovah, which He commanded Joshua.

28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever; it is a desolation to this day.

29 And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening time. And when the sun set, Joshua commanded, and they took his corpse down from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the city gate, and they erected over him a great heap of stones, which is there to this day.

3. Joshua's Recording and Reading of the Law to the People of Israel
8:30-35

30 Then Joshua built an altar to Jehovah the God of Israel on Mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of unhewn stones upon which no one had lifted up an iron tool. And they offered upon it burnt offerings to Jehovah, and they sacrificed peace offerings.

32 And there he wrote upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel and their elders and their officers and their judges stood on either side of the Ark in front of the Levitical priests who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, both sojourner and native alike: half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had first commanded, to bless the people of Israel.

34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that was written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read before all the congregation of Israel and the women and the little ones and the sojourners who went among them.

CHAPTER 9

C. The Saving of Gibeon 9:1-27

1 And when all the kings who were across the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland and on all the shore of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, heard of this,

2 They gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and Israel with one accord.

3 But the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

4 And so they too acted craftily. And they went out as though they were envoys; and they took old sacks upon their donkeys, and old torn up and bound up wineskins,

5 And old patched sandals on their feet, and old garments upon themselves; and all the bread of their provisions was dry and had become moldy.

6 And they went to Joshua at the camp of Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, From a faraway land we have come; now therefore make a covenant with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Perhaps you dwell among us. How then can we make a covenant with you?

8 And they said to Joshua, We will be your servants. And Joshua said to them, Who are you, and where are you coming from?

9 And they said to him, From a very far land your servants have come because of the name of Jehovah your God, for we have heard reports of Him and all that He did in Egypt

10 And all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were across the Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon and to Og the king of Bashan, who was in Ash-taroth.

11 So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land spoke to us, saying, Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them; and you shall say to them, We will be your servants; make then a covenant with us.

12 This bread of ours was hot when we took it for our provisions from our houses on the day we went forth to come to you; and here it now is: it is dry and has become moldy.

13 And these wineskins, which we filled, were new; and here they are: they are torn up. And these clothes and sandals of ours have become old because of the very long journey.

14 And the men took some of their provisions, but they did not ask for the counsel of Jehovah.

15 And Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly swore an oath to them.

16 Then at the end of three days, after they had made the covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon and Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.

18 And the children of Israel did not strike them, for the leaders of the assembly had sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel; and all the assembly murmured against the leaders.

19 Then all the leaders said to all the assembly, We have sworn to them by Jehovah the God of Israel; therefore now we cannot touch them.

20 This we will do with them and let them live, so that wrath does not come upon us because of the oath that we swore to them.

21 And the leaders said to them, Let them live. So they became woodcutters and drawers of water for all the assembly, as the leaders had said concerning them.

22 Then Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; when you dwell among us?

23 Now therefore you shall be cursed; and there shall never fail to be slaves from among you, woodcutters and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua and said, Because it had been told to your servants for certain that Jehovah your God had commanded Moses His servant to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. Therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and we did this thing.

25 And now here we are in your hand: Do as it seems good and upright in your sight to do to us.

26 And he did so to them and delivered them from the hand of the children of Israel, and they did not slay them.

27 And that day Joshua made them woodcutters and drawers of water for the assembly and for the altar of Jehovah, as they are to this day, in the place that He would choose.

CHAPTER 10

D. The Destruction of All the Rest of the Nations in the Hill Country and the Lowland West of the Jordan and on All the Shore of the Great Sea
10:1—12:24

1. The Destruction of Jerusalem, Hebron,
Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon
10:1-27

1 And when Adoni-zedek the king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it (as he had done to Jericho and its king, so did he do to Ai and its king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

2 They were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai and all its men were mighty men.

3 So Adoni-zedek the king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham the king of Hebron and Piram the king of Jarmuth and Japhia the king of Lachish and Debir the king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up to me and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for they have made peace with Joshua and the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their camps; and they camped against Gibeon and fought against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, Do not let your hand fail your servants. Come up to us quickly; and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who inhabit the hill country are gathered against us.

7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the mighty men of valor.

8 And Jehovah said to Joshua, Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand. No man among them will stand before you.

9 So Joshua came upon them suddenly, for he journeyed from Gilgal all night long.

10 And Jehovah threw them into a panic before Israel, and He struck them with a great stroke at Gibeon; and He pursued them on the way toward the ascent of Beth-horon; and He struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

11 And while they fled from before Israel, when they were on the descent of Beth-horon, Jehovah sent large stones upon them from heaven as far as Azekah, and they died. There were more who died because of the hailstones than the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 Then Joshua spoke to Jehovah on the day when Jehovah delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel,

Sun, be still over Gibeon;
And you, Moon, over the valley of Ajalon!

13 And the sun was still,
And the moon stayed,
Until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies.

Is it not written in the book of Jashar? And the sun stayed in the middle of the heavens, and it did not hurry to set for about a whole day.

14 And there was never a day like that day, before it or after it, when Jehovah listened to the voice of a man; for Jehovah fought for Israel.

15 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

16 And these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told to Joshua, saying, The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll large stones over the mouth of the cave, and station men by it in order to keep them.

19 But you, do not stay here; pursue after your enemies, and attack them from behind. Do not allow them to go to their cities, for Jehovah your God has given them into your hand.

20 And when Joshua and the children of Israel finished striking them with a very great stroke until they were consumed, though there were some survivors of them who survived and went into the fortified cities, 21 All the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one spoke against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me.

23 And they did so; and they brought those kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they brought out those five kings to Joshua, Joshua called for all the men of Israel; and he said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, Come near; put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near and put their feet upon their necks.

25 And Joshua said to them, Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and take courage, for thus will Jehovah do to all your enemies against whom you fight.

26 And Joshua struck them after that and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees; and they hung upon the trees until evening.

27 And when the sun set, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden; and they put large stones over the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

2. The Destruction of the Thirty-one Kings of the Thirty-one Nations in the Hill Country and the Lowland West of the Jordan and of Heshbon under King Sihon and Bashan under King Og East of the Jordan
10:28—12:24

28 And Joshua captured Makkedah on that day, and he struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He utterly destroyed them and every soul that was in it; he left no survivors. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah, and he fought with Libnah.

30 And Jehovah delivered it also with its king into the hand of Israel. And he struck it with the edge of the sword, as well as every soul that was in it; he left no survivors in it. And he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, and he camped against it and fought against it.

32 And Jehovah delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he captured it on the second day and struck it with the edge of the sword as well as every soul that was in it, just as he had done to Libnah.

33 Then Horam the king of Gezer came up to help Lachish, and Joshua struck him and his people, so that he left him no survivor.

34 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon, and they camped against it and fought against it.

35 And they captured it on that day and struck it with the edge of the sword; and every soul that was in it he utterly destroyed on that day, just as he had done to Lachish.

36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And they captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword as well as its king and all its cities and every soul that was in it. He left no survivor, just as he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it and every soul that was in it.

38 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to Debir, and he fought against it.

39 And he captured it and its king and all its cities; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed every soul that was in it; he left no survivor. As he had done to Hebron, and as he had done to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and its king.

40 Thus Joshua struck the whole land: the hill country and the Negev and the lowland and the slopes and all their kings; he left no survivor but utterly destroyed everything that breathed, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded.

41 And Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea even unto Gaza, and all the land of Goshen even unto Gibeon.

42 Now all these kings and their lands Joshua took at one time, for Jehovah the God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

1 And when Jabin the king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Jobab the king of ¹Madon and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph

2 And to the kings who were on the north in the hill country and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth and in the lowland and in the highland of Dor on the west;

3 To the Canaanites on the east and on the west; and the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country; and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

4 And they went out, they and all their camps with them, a people as great as the sand on the seashore in number, and very many horses and chariots.

5 And all these kings met together, and they came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight with Israel.

6 Then Jehovah said to Joshua, Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow at this time I will deliver all of them up slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.

7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him went against them at the waters of Merom suddenly, and they fell on them.

8 And Jehovah delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them and pursued them to Great Sidon and to Misrephoth-maim and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward. And they struck them until no survivor was left to them.

9 So Joshua did to them according to what Jehovah had spoken to him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

10 Then Joshua returned at that time and took Hazor, and he struck its king with the sword; for Hazor had formerly been the head of all these kingdoms.

11 And they struck every soul that was in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it; nothing that breathed was left. And he burned Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of these kings with all their kings, Joshua took; and he struck them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded.

13 However as for all the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them except Hazor alone; Joshua burned it.

14 And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the children of Israel took as their plunder; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them; they left nothing that breathed.

15 As Jehovah had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hill country and all the Negev and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland;

17 From Mount Halak, which goes up to Seir, unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings and struck them and put them to death.

18 Joshua made war with all these kings a long time.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; they took all in battle.

20 For it was of Jehovah to harden their heart to meet Israel in battle so that He might utterly destroy them and that they might not receive mercy but be destroyed as Jehovah commanded Moses.

21 And Joshua went at that time and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah and all the hill country of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.

22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of the children of Israel; only in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod did some remain.

23 So Joshua took the whole land ac-ording to all that Jehovah had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 12

1 Now these are the kings of the land whom the children of Israel struck and whose land they possessed across the Jordan toward the rising of the sun from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon and all the eastern Arabah:

2 Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the river Arnon, and from the city in the middle of the river valley, that is, half of Gilead even unto the river Jabbok, the border of the children of Ammon;

3 And the eastern Arabah unto the Sea of Chinneroth, even unto the eastern side of the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, toward Beth-jeshimoth, that is, southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;

4 And the territory of Og the king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Rephaim, who dwelt in Ashtaroth and Edrei,

5 And ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, that is, half of Gilead, to the border of Sihon the king of Heshbon.

6 Moses the servant of Jehovah and the children of Israel struck them. And Moses the servant of Jehovah gave ⁶this land as a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

7 And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck across the Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon unto Mount Halak, which goes up to Seir; and

Joshua gave ¹this land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their divisions,

8 The land that is in the hill country and in the lowland and in the Arabah and on the slopes and in the wilderness and in the Negev—the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites; the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 The king of Jericho, one;
The king of Ai, which is by Bethel,
one;

10 The king of Jerusalem, one;
The king of Hebron, one;

11 The king of Jarmuth, one;
The king of Lachish, one;

12 The king of Eglon, one;
The king of Gezer, one;

13 The king of Debir, one;
The king of Geder, one;

14 The king of Hormah, one;
The king of Arad, one;

15 The king of Libnah, one;
The king of Adullam, one;

16 The king of Makkedah, one;
The king of Bethel, one;

17 The king of Tappuah, one;
The king of Hopher, one;

18 The king of Aphek, one;
The king of ¹Lasharon, one;

19 The king of Madon, one;
The king of Hazor, one;

20 The king of Shimron-meron, one;
The king of Achshaph, one;

21 The king of Taanach, one;
The king of Megiddo, one;

22 The king of Kedesh, one;
The king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

23 The king of Dor in the highland of Dor, one;
The king of ¹Goiim of ²Gilgal, one;

24 The king of Tirzah, one.
Thirty-one kings in all.

CHAPTER 13

III. Allotting the Good Land 13:1—22:34

A. The Land Remaining to Be Possessed 13:1-7

1 Now Joshua was old and advanced in age; and Jehovah said to him, You are old and advanced in age, and very much of the land remains to be possessed.

2 This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and all that of the Geshurites,

3 From the Shihor, which is before Egypt, unto the border of Ekron on the north (this is considered to be Canaanite), with five lords of the Philistines: the Gazite and the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, and the Ekronite; and that of the Avvim

4 In the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah, which belongs to the Sidonians, unto Aphek at the border of the Amorites;

5 And the land of the Gebalites and all Lebanon toward the rising of the sun, from Baal-gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath;

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians. I Myself will drive them out before the children of Israel; nevertheless allot it to Israel as an inheritance as I have commanded you.

7 And now divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

B. The Land East of the Jordan Allotted to the Two and a Half Tribes by Moses 13:8—14:3a

8 With ¹them the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which ⁷ Lit., it. 18¹ Or, Sharon. 23¹ Or, the nations. 23² The Septuagint reads, Galilee (cf. Isa. 9:1). 8¹ Lit., him.

Moses gave to them across the Jordan on the east, as Moses the servant of Jehovah gave to them:

9 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the river Arnon, and from the city, which is in the middle of the river valley, and all the tableland from Medeba to Dibon;

10 And all the cities of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And Gilead with the territory of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon and all Bashan unto Salekah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); and Moses struck them and dispossessed them.

13 Yet the children of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites and the Maacathites, but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.

14 However to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance; the offerings of Jehovah the God of Israel by fire are their inheritance, as He had spoken to him.

15 And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families.

16 And for them the border was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the river Arnon, and from the city, which is in the middle of the river valley, and all the tableland by Medeba;

17 Heshbon and all its cities which are in the tableland: Dibon and Bamoth-baal and Beth-baal-meon

18 And Jahaz and Kedemoth and Mephath

19 And Kiriathaim and Sibmah and Zereh-shahar on the mountain of the valley

20 And Beth-peor and the slopes of Pisgah and Beth-jeshimoth;

21 That is, all the cities of the tableland and all the kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and whom Moses struck with the leaders of Midian: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon who inhabited the land.

22 And Balaam the son of Beor, who practiced divination, the children of Israel slew with the sword with those of them who were already slain.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan and its border. This is the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities with their villages.

24 And Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad, according to their families.

25 And for them the border was Jazer and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon to Aroer, which is before Rabbah;

26 And from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley Beth-haram and Beth-nimrah and Succoth and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon the king of Heshbon; the Jordan and its border to the end of the Sea of Chinnereth, across the Jordan on the east.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities with their villages.

29 And Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their families.

30 And their border was from Mahanaim and all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og the king of Bashan, and all the 'tent villages of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

30' Or, Havvoth-jair.

31 And half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the children of Machir, according to their families.

32 These are what Moses gave as inheritances in the plains of Moab across the Jordan at Jericho to the east.

33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses did not give an inheritance; Jehovah the God of Israel is their inheritance, as He had spoken to them.

CHAPTER 14

1 And these are what the children of Israel received as inheritances in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel gave to them as inheritances,

2 By the lot of their inheritance, as Jehovah commanded through Moses for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe across the Jordan;

C. No Land Allotted to the Tribe of Levi
14:3b-5

but to the Levites he did not give an inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and they gave no portion to the Levites in the land, but only cities to dwell in with their pasture lands for their cattle and their substance.

5 As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did; thus they divided the land.

D. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Judah
14:6—15:63

6 Then the children of Judah approached Joshua in Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, You know the word that Jehovah spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh-barnea.

7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me out from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I returned such a word to him as was genuinely upon my heart.

8 However my brothers who went up with me made the people's heart melt, but I fully followed Jehovah my God.

9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land on which your foot has trodden will be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, for you have fully followed Jehovah my God.

10 And now, look, Jehovah has kept me alive, as He said, for these forty-five years, since the time Jehovah spoke this word to Moses while Israel walked through the wilderness. And now, look, today I am eighty-five years old.

11 Today I am still as strong as I was on the day Moses sent me out; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for battle and for going out and coming in.

12 Now therefore give me this hill country, of which Jehovah spoke on that day, for you heard on that day that the Anakim were there with great fortified cities. It may be that Jehovah will be with me, and I will dispossess them, as Jehovah said.

13 So Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as an inheritance.

14 Therefore Hebron has become the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day because he fully followed Jehovah the God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba. (This Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim.) And the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

1 And the lot for the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was unto the border of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the south; this was the southern extreme.

2 And their southern border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the tongue-shaped peninsula that faces south;

3 And it went southward to the ascent of Akrabbim, and passed on to Zin, and went up south of Kadesh-barnea, and passed on to Hezron, and went up to Addar, and went around Karka,

4 And passed on to Azmon, and went out to the brook of Egypt; and the end of the border was at the sea. This shall be your southern border.

5 And the eastern border was the Salt Sea to the end of the Jordan. And the border on the northern side was from the tongue of the sea at the end of the Jordan.

6 And the border went up to Bethhoglah, and passed on to the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;

7 And the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and turned northward toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is south of the river valley; and the border passed on to the waters of En-shemesh; and its end was at En-rogel;

8 Then the border went up by the ¹Valley of Ben-hinnom to the south of the Jebusite slope (this is Jerusalem); and the border went to the top of the mountain that is before the Valley of Hinnom on the west, which is the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim;

9 And the border turned from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah and went to the cities of Mount Ephron; then the border turned toward Baalah (this is Kiriath-jearim);

10 And the border went around west of Baalah to Mount Seir, and passed by the northern slope of Mount Jearim (this is Chesalon), and went down to Bethshemesh, and passed on to Timnah;

11 And the border went to the slope of Ekron northward; and the border turned toward Shikkeron, and passed by Mount Baalah, and went to Jabneel; and the end of the border was at the sea.

12 And the western border was the Great Sea and its border. This is the border of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

13 And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion in the midst of the children of Judah according to the commandment of Jehovah to Joshua, that is, Kiriath-arba (Arba was the father of Anak); this is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove out the three sons of Anak from there: Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir. (Now the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher.)

16 And Caleb said, Whoever strikes Kiriath-sepher and takes it, I will give to him Achsah my daughter as wife.

17 Then Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

18 And when she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she alighted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, What do you want?

19 And she said, Give me a blessing, for you have given me land in the Negev; give me also springs of water. So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the border of Edom on the south were Kabzeel and Eder and Jagur

22 And Kinah and Dimonah and Adadah

23 And Kedesh and Hazor and Ithnan;

24 Ziph and Telem and Bealoth

25 And Hazor-hadattah and Keriath-hezron (this is Hazor);

26 Amam and Shema and Moladah

27 And Hazar-gaddah and Heshmon and Beth-pelet

28 And Hazar-shual and Beer-sheba and Biziothiah;

29 Baalah and Iim and Ezem

30 And Eltolad and Chesil and Hormah

31 And Ziklag and Madmannah and Sansannah

32 And Lebaoth and Shilhim and Ain and Rimmon: in all twenty-nine cities with their villages.

33 In the lowland: Eshtaol and Zorah and Ashnah

34 And Zanoah and En-gannim; Tappuah and Enam;

35 Jarmuth and Adullam; Socoh and Azekah

36 And Shaaraim and Adithaim and Gederah and Gederothaim: fourteen cities with their villages.

37 Zenan and Hadashah and Migdal-gad

38 And Dilean and Mizpeh and Joktheel;

39 Lachish and Bozkath and Eglon

40 And Cabbon and Lahmas and Chitlish

41 And Gederoth; Beth-dagon and Naamah and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages.

42 Libnah and Ether and Ashan

43 And Iphtah and Ashnah and Nezib

44 And Keilah and Achzib and Mare-shah: nine cities with their villages.

45 Ekron, with its 'towns and its villages;

46 From Ekron even to the sea, all that were near Ashdod, with their villages.

47 Ashdod, with its towns and its villages; Gaza, with its towns and its villages, unto the brook of Egypt and the Great Sea and its border.

48 And in the hill country: Shamir and Jattir and Socoh

49 And Dannah and Kiriath-sannah (this is Debir)

50 And Anab and Eshtemoh and Anim

51 And Goshen and Holon and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.

52 Arab and Dumah and Eshan

53 And Janum and Beth-tappuah and Aphekah

54 And Humtah and Kiriath-arba (this is Hebron) and Zior: nine cities with their villages.

55 Maon, Carmel, and Ziph; and Juttah

56 And Jezreel and Jokdeam and Zanoah;

57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.

58 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor;

59 And Maarath and Beth-anoth and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.

60 Kiriath-baal (this is Kiriath-jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

61 In the wilderness: Beth-arabah, Mid-din, and Secacah;

62 And Nibshan and the City of Salt and En-gedi: six cities with their villages.

63 But as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not dispossess them; thus the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

CHAPTER 16

E. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Joseph
16:1—17:18

1. From Jericho to Bethel and to the Sea
16:1-4

1 And the lot for the children of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho, east 45¹ Lit., daughters. So also twice in v. 47, and in 17:11, 16.

of the waters of Jericho, to the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel,

2 And went from Bethel to Luz, and passed on to the border of the Archites at Ataroth,

3 And went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Lower Beth-horon and to Gezer; and its end was the sea.

4 And the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.

2. The Land Allotted to the Children of Ephraim, the Second Son of Joseph
16:5-10

5 And the border of the children of Ephraim according to their families was thus: The border for their inheritance on the east was from Ataroth-addar to Upper Beth-horon;

6 And the border went to the sea. On the north was Michmethath, and the border went around eastward to Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it to the east of Janoah,

7 And went down from Janoah to Ataroth, then to Naarah, and reached Jericho, and went to the Jordan.

8 From Tappuah the border went westward to the brook of Kanah; and its end was the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families, 9 Together with the cities that were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 Yet they did not dispossess the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwell in the midst of Ephraim to this day and have become forced labor.

CHAPTER 17

3. The Land Allotted to Manasseh, the Firstborn of Joseph
17:1-18

1 And this was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was Joseph's firstborn. To Machir, the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, Gilead and Bashan had been given, since he was a man of war.

2 Therefore the lot was for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer and for the children of Helek and for the children of Asriel and for the children of Shechem and for the children of Hopher and for the children of Shemida; these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

3 But Zelophehad the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun and before the leaders, saying, Jehovah commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers. Therefore he gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers according to the commandment of Jehovah.

5 And ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is across the Jordan,

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. And the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the children of Manasseh.

7 And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which was opposite Shechem; and the border went south to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the border went down to the brook of Kanah. These cities to the south of the brook belonged to Ephraim, among the cities of Manasseh; and the border of Manasseh was to the north of the brook, and its end was the sea.

10 To the south was Ephraim's, and to the north was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. And they touched Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

11 And to Manasseh there belonged in Issachar and Asher, Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns (the third is Napheth).

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not dispossess these cities, but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in this land.

13 And when the children of Israel became strong, they made the Canaanites forced labor; but they did not utterly dispossess them.

14 Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, Why have you given me an inheritance of only one lot and one portion, although I am still a numerous people, whom Jehovah has thus far blessed?

15 And Joshua said to them, If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and cut out land there for yourself in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill country is not enough for us; and all the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those of Beth-shean and its towns and those in the Valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, saying,

You are a numerous people, and you have great strength; you shall not have one lot only, 18 But the hill country shall be yours. Though it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its end will be yours; for you shall dispossess the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron and though they are strong.

CHAPTER 18

F. The Land to Be Allotted to the Rest of the Seven Tribes 18:1—19:51

1. Joshua's Preparations for Allotting and Dividing the Land unto the Seven Tribes 18:1-10

1 And the whole assembly of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh, and they set up the Tent of Meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.

2 And among the children of Israel there remained seven tribes whose inheritance had not been divided to them.

3 And Joshua said to the children of Israel, How long will you be slack about going to take possession of the land that Jehovah, the God of your fathers, has given you?

4 Appoint three men for each tribe, and I will send them out. And they shall rise up and go through the land, and write a description of it with a view to its being their inheritance; and they shall come to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven portions: Judah shall stay at his border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay at their border on the north.

6 And you shall describe the land in seven portions and bring the description here to me, then I will cast lots for you here before Jehovah our God.

7 But the Levites shall have no portion among you, for the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance. And Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh received their inheritance across the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of Jehovah had given to them.

8 And the men rose up and went; and Joshua commanded those who went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it; then return to me, and I will cast lots for you before Jehovah here in Shiloh.

9 So the men went, and they passed through the land and described it by cities into seven portions in a book. Then they came to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.

10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Jehovah. And there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

2. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Benjamin 18:11-28

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came out, according to their families. And the border of their lot went between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the northern side was from the Jordan, and the border went up alongside Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward, and its end was at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And from there the border passed to Luz, on the southern side of Luz (this is Bethel); and the border went down to Ataroth-addar, at the mountain which is south of Lower Beth-horon.

14 And the border turned from there and went around the west side southward, from the mountain that is to the south of Beth-horon; and its end was at Kiriath-baal (this is Kiriath-jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west side.

15 The south side was from the limit of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went from the west and went to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah;

16 And the border went down to the limit of the mountain that is before the Valley of Ben-hinnom, which is north of the valley of the Rephaim; and it went down into the Valley of Hinnom, to the southern side of the Jebusite slope, and went down to En-rogel,

17 And turned north, and went to En-shemesh, and went to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim; and it went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben;

18 And it passed by the side before the 'Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah;

19 And the border passed by the northern side of Beth-hoglah, and the end of the border was at the northern tongue of the Salt Sea at the south end of the Jordan. This was the southern border.

20 And the Jordan borders it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families, according to its borders all around.

21 And the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-keziz

22 And Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel

23 And Avvim and Parah and Ophrah

24 And Chephar-ammoni and Ophni and Geba: twelve cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth

26 And Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozah

27 And Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah

28 And Zelah, Haeleph, and that of the Jebusite (this is Jerusalem), Gibeah, Kir-iath: fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

18' The Septuagint reads, Beth-arabah (cf. v. 22).

CHAPTER 19

3. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Simeon
19:1-9

1 And the second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon, according to their families. And their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 And they had for their inheritance Beer-sheba, or Sheba, and Moladah

3 And Hazar-shual and Balah and Ezem

4 And Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah

5 And Ziklag and Beth-marcaboth and Hazar-susah

6 And Beth-lebaoth and Sharuhem: thirteen cities with their villages.

7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan: four cities with their villages.

8 And all the villages which were around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, that is, Ramah of the Negev. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon because the portion of the children of Judah was too large for them; thus the children of Simeon received an inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

4. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Zebulun
19:10-16

10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families. And the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid;

11 And their border went up to the west, even to Maralah, and reached Dab-besheth; and it reached the brook that is before Jokneam.

12 And it turned from Sarid eastward toward the rising of the sun to the border of Chisloth-tabor, and went to Daberath and up to Japhia;

13 And from there it passed eastward toward the rising of the sun to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and went to Rimmon, where it turned to Neah;

14 And the border went ¹around from the north to Hannathon; and its end was the valley of Iphtahel, 15 With Kattath and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah and Bethlehem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

5. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Issachar
19:17-23

17 For Issachar the fourth lot came out, for the children of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their territory was Jezreel and Chesulloth and Shunem

19 And Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath

20 And Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez

21 And Remeth and En-gannim and En-haddah and Beth-pazzez;

22 And the border reached Tabor and Shahazumah and Beth-shemesh; and the end of their border was at the Jordan: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.

6. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Asher
19:24-31

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.

25 And their territory was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Achshaph 14¹ Or, around it.

26 And Allammelech and Amad and Mishal; and it reached Carmel on the west and Shihor-libnath;

27 And it turned toward the rising of the sun to Beth-dagon, and reached Zebulun and the valley of Iphtahel northward to Beth-emek and Neiel, and went to Cabul on the north

28 And Ebron and Rehob and Hammon and Kanah as far as Great Sidon;

29 And the border turned to Ramah and as far as the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah; and its end was at the sea at the region of Achzib;

30 And Ummah and Aphek and Rehob: twenty-two cities with their villages.

31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

7. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Naphtali
19:32-39

32 For the children of Naphtali the sixth lot came out, for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adami-nekeb and Jabneel unto Lakkum; and its end was the Jordan;

34 And the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor, and went from there to Hukkok, and reached Zebulun on the south, and reached Asher on the west and Judah at the Jordan toward the rising of the sun;

35 And the fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath and Chinnereth

36 And Adamah and Ramah and Hazor

37 And Kedesh and Edrei and En-hazor

38 And Iron and Migdal-el, Horem and Beth-anath and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

8. The Land Allotted to the Tribe of Dan
19:40-48

40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah and Eshtaol and Ir-shemesh

42 And Shaalabbin and Aijalon and Ithlah

43 And Elon and Timnah and Ekron

44 And Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Balath

45 And Jehud and Bene-berak and Gath-rimmon

46 And Me-jarkon and Rakkon with the border opposite Japho.

47 When the territory of the children of Dan was lost to them, the children of Dan went up and fought against Leshem; and they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword; and they took possession of it and inhabited it; and they called Leshem Dan, according to the name of Dan their father.

48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

9. The Inheritance Given to Joshua
19:49-50

49 So they finished distributing the land as inheritances according to its borders. And the children of Israel gave Joshua the son of Nun an inheritance in the midst of them;

50 According to the commandment of Jehovah they gave him the city that he asked for, that is, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built up the city and dwelt in it.

51 These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel gave as inheritances by lot in Shiloh before Jehovah at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

CHAPTER 20

G. The Cities of Refuge 20:1-9

1. For the Manslayer Who Kills a Person by Mistake and Unwittingly vv. 1-6

1 Then Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Designate the cities of refuge, concerning which I spoke to you through Moses,

3 So that the manslayer who kills a person by mistake and unwittingly may flee there. And they will be to you as a refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And he shall flee to one of these cities and stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall take him into the city to themselves and give him a place; and he shall dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursues after him, they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for he struck his neighbor unwittingly and had not hated him previously.

6 And he shall dwell in that city until he can stand before the assembly for a judgment, until the death of the high priest who is at that time; then the manslayer shall return and enter into his own city and into his own house, into the city from which he fled.

2. Three in Canaan, West of the Jordan v. 7

7 And they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and Kiriath-arba (this is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

3. Three in the Land East of the Jordan vv. 8-9

8 And across the Jordan at Jericho, to the east, they designated Bezer in the wilderness on the plain out of the tribe of Reuben and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourned among them, so that anyone who killed a person by mistake might flee there and not die at the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the assembly.

CHAPTER 21

H. The Cities with Their Pasture Lands Allotted to the Levites 21:1-42

1. Claimed by Them at Shiloh and Given to Them by Lot vv. 1-7

1 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel,

2 And they spoke to them in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, Jehovah commanded through Moses that we be given cities to dwell in with their pasture lands for our cattle.

3 So the children of Israel gave the Levites, according to the commandment of Jehovah, these cities with their pasture lands out of their inheritance:

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And to the children of Aaron the priest who were of the Levites there went by lot thirteen cities out of the tribe of Judah and out of the tribe of the Simeonites and out of the tribe of Benjamin.

5 And to the rest of the children of Kohath there went by lot ten cities out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim and out of the tribe of Dan and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh.

6 And to the children of Gershon there went by lot thirteen cities out of the families of the tribe of Issachar and out of the tribe of Asher and out of the tribe of Naphtali and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

7 To the children of Merari according to their families there went twelve cities out of the tribe of Reuben and out of the tribe of Gad and out of the tribe of Zebulun.

2. To the Families of the Kohathites and the Children of Aaron the Priest
vv. 8-19

8 So the children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as Jehovah had commanded through Moses.

9 And out of the tribe of the children of Judah and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon they gave these cities, which are here mentioned by name;

10 And they went to the children of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the children of Levi; for the first lot was theirs.

11 And they gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba was the father of Anak), which is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with its pasture lands around it.

12 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 And to the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the manslayer; and Libnah with its pasture lands

14 And Jattir with its pasture lands and Eshtemoa with its pasture lands

15 And Holon with its pasture lands and Debir with its pasture lands

16 And Ain with its pasture lands and Juttah with its pasture lands and Bethshemesh with its pasture lands: nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands, 18 Anathoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands: four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

3. To the Rest of the Children of Kohath
vv. 20-26

20 And as for the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites who remained of the children of Kohath, the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim were given.

21 And they gave them Shechem with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, the city of refuge for the manslayer; and Gezer with its pasture lands

22 And Kibzaim with its pasture lands and Beth-horon with its pasture lands: four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan: Eltekeh with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture lands, 24 Aijalon with its pasture lands, Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands: four cities.

25 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Taanach with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands: two cities.

26 All the cities for the families of the children of Kohath who remained were ten, with their pasture lands.

4. To the Children of Gershon
vv. 27-33

27 And to the children of Gershon, one of the families of the Levites, they gave, out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the manslayer; and Be-eshterah with its pasture lands: two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar: Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands, 29 Jarmuth with its pasture lands, Engannim with its pasture lands: four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands, 31 Helkath with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands: four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the manslayer; and Hammoth-dor with its pasture lands and Kartan with its pasture lands: three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities, with their pasture lands.

5. To the Children of Merari
vv. 34-40

34 And to the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, they gave, Jokneam with its pasture lands and Kartah with its pasture lands, 35 Dimnah with its pasture lands, Nahalal with its pasture lands: four cities.

36 ¹And out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer with its pasture lands and Jahaz with its pasture lands, 37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands: four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the manslayer; and Mahanaim with its pasture lands, 39 Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands: four cities in all.

40 These were all the cities for the children of Merari according to their families, which remained of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.

42 Each of these cities had its pasture lands around it; so it was with all these cities.

I. The Fulfillment of Jehovah's Promise to the Fathers of Israel
21:43-45

43 So Jehovah gave Israel all the land that He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they possessed it and dwelt in it.

44 And Jehovah gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And no one among all their enemies could stand before them; Jehovah delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 Not a word failed of all the good things that Jehovah had spoken to the house of Israel; all came to pass.

CHAPTER 22

J. The Return of the Tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the Half-tribe of Manasseh to Their Land East of the Jordan
22:1-34

1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

2 And he said to them, You have kept all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, and you have listened to my voice in all that I have commanded you.

3 You have not forsaken your brothers these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of Jehovah your God.

4 And now Jehovah your God has given your brothers rest as He promised them. And now turn and go to your tents, 36¹ Vv. 36-37 are not found in some MSS.

to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you across the Jordan.

5 However be very careful to perform the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, to love Jehovah your God and to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and to cling to Him and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 And Joshua blessed them and sent them away; and they went to their tents.

7 Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given an inheritance in Bashan, and to the other half of it Joshua gave an inheritance with their brothers across the Jordan on the west. Furthermore, when Joshua sent them away to their tents and blessed them,

8 He spoke to them, saying, Return with many riches to your tents and with very many cattle, with silver and with gold and with bronze and with iron and with very much clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.

9 So the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh went; and they departed from among the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which was in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had taken possession of according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

10 And when they came into the region of the Jordan that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there at the Jordan, an altar great in appearance.

11 And the children of Israel heard the report, which said, Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar out in front of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard this, all the assembly of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go up in battle against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead, 14 And with him ten leaders, one leader each to a fathers' house of all the tribes of Israel; and they were each the head of their fathers' houses among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they went to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead and spoke to them, saying,

16 Thus says all the assembly of Jehovah, What is this trespass that you have committed against the God of Israel in turning this day from following after Jehovah by building yourselves an altar to rebel against Jehovah this day?

17 Was the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves unto this day, though there was a plague upon the assembly of Jehovah, 18 That you have turned this day from following after Jehovah? And now, if you rebel against Jehovah this day, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole assembly of Israel.

19 But if the land of your possession is unclean, cross over into the land of the possession of Jehovah, where Jehovah's tabernacle dwells, and take a possession in the midst of us. But do not rebel against Jehovah, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of Jehovah our God.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the matter of the devoted thing? But there was wrath upon the whole assembly of Israel, and that one man did not perish alone for his iniquity.

21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The Mighty One, God Jehovah; the Mighty One, God Jehovah; He knows, and may Israel itself know, whether it was in rebellion, or whether it was in trespass against Jehovah—may You not save us today—

23 That we built an altar for ourselves to turn away from following after Jehovah; or if we did so to offer burnt offerings and meal offerings upon it or to make sacrifices of peace offerings upon it, may Jehovah Himself require it.

24 But truly we have done this for a reason and out of a concern that in the future your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with Jehovah the God of Israel?

25 For Jehovah has made the Jordan a border between us and you, O children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion in Jehovah. Thus your children would cause our children to cease fearing Jehovah.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now take action to build the altar, though not for burnt offering or for sacrifice;

27 But it will be a witness between us and between you, and between our generations after us, that we may do the service of Jehovah before Him with our burnt offerings and our sacrifices and our peace offerings, and that your children may not say in the future to our children, You have no portion in Jehovah.

28 And we said, When they say this to us and to our generations in the future, we will say, Look at the copy of the altar of Jehovah that our fathers made, though not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 Far be it from us that we would rebel against Jehovah and turn away today from following after Jehovah by building an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of Jehovah our God, which is before His tabernacle!

30 And when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the assembly and the heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it seemed good in their sight.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh, Today we know that Jehovah is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this trespass against Jehovah. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of Jehovah.

32 So Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the children of Reuben and the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel; and they brought back word to them.

33 And the matter seemed good in the sight of the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God and never spoke again of going up in battle against them to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad named the altar; for, they said, it is a witness between us that Jehovah is God.

CHAPTER 23

IV. Joshua's Departure 23:1 — 24:33

A. Joshua's Parting Word to the Elders, Heads, Judges, and Officers of Israel 23:1-16

1 And many days after Jehovah had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them and Joshua was old and advanced in age,

2 Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and their heads and their judges and their officers; and he said to them, I am old and advanced in age;

3 And you have seen all that Jehovah your God has done to all these nations because of you, for it was Jehovah your God who fought for you.

4 See, I have allotted to you all these nations that remain as an inheritance for your tribes, as well as all the nations that I cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun.

5 And Jehovah your God, He will thrust them out before you and dispossess them out of your sight; and you will possess their land, as Jehovah your God spoke to you.

6 Therefore be very strong to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, not turning away from it to the right or to the left,

7 And not going unto these nations, these that remain with you; neither shall you make mention of the names of their gods, nor cause anyone to swear by them, nor serve them, nor bow down to them;

8 But you shall cling to Jehovah your God, as you have done to this day.

9 For Jehovah has dispossessed great and strong nations because of you; but as for you, no one has stood before you to this day.

10 One man of you chases a thousand, for it is Jehovah your God who fights for you, as He has spoken to you.

11 Be very careful therefore for yourselves, that you love Jehovah your God.

12 But if you do indeed turn back and cling to the remainder of these nations, these that remain with you, and marry into them, and go among them and they among you;

13 Know for certain that Jehovah your

God will no longer dispossess these nations out of your sight, but they will become a snare and a trap to you, and a scourge in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that Jehovah your God has given you.

14 And now today I am going the way of all the earth; and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not a word has failed of all the good things that Jehovah your God spoke concerning you. All has come to pass for you; not one word of it has failed.

15 But just as all the good things that Jehovah your God spoke concerning you have come upon you, so will Jehovah cause all the evil things to come upon you, until He has destroyed you from this good land that Jehovah your God has given you.

16 When you transgress the covenant of Jehovah your God, which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down to them, the anger of Jehovah will burn against you, and you will perish quickly from the good land that He has given you.

CHAPTER 24

B. Joshua's Parting Word to All the Tribes of Israel with Their Elders, Heads, Judges, and Officers 24:1-33

1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; and he called for the elders of Israel and for their heads and for their judges and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said to all the people, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt across the River long ago, Terah the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor; and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from across the River and brought him throughout all the land of Canaan; and I multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave Jacob and Esau to Isaac. And I gave Mount Seir to Esau, that he might possess it; but Jacob and his sons went down into Egypt.

5 And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in the midst of it; and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and with horsemen unto the Red Sea.

7 And when they cried out to Jehovah, He put deep darkness between you and the Egyptians; and He brought the sea upon them and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did to Egypt. And you dwelt in the wilderness for many days.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you. And I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land; and I destroyed them before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, rose up and fought against Israel; and he sent men and called for Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

10 But I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he altogether blessed you, and I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the lords of Jericho fought against you: the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I gave them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you, and it drove them out from before you, that is, the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow.

13 And I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.

14 Now therefore fear Jehovah, and serve Him in sincerity and faithfulness; and put away the gods whom your fathers served across the River and in Egypt, and serve Jehovah.

15 And if it seems wrong in your sight to serve Jehovah, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, either the gods from across the River, whom your fathers served, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.

16 And the people answered and said, Far be it from us that we would forsake Jehovah to serve other gods;

17 For Jehovah our God is the One who brought us and our fathers out from the land of Egypt, from the slave house, and who did those great signs in our sight and preserved us in all the way that we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed;

18 And Jehovah drove out all the peoples from before us, that is, the Amorites who inhabit the land. We also will serve Jehovah, for He is our God.

19 Then Joshua said to the people, You are not able to serve Jehovah, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgression or your sins.

20 If you forsake Jehovah and serve foreign gods, He will turn and do you harm and consume you after He has done good to you.

21 And the people said to Joshua, No; but we will serve Jehovah.

22 Then Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen Jehovah on your own, to serve Him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to Jehovah the God of Israel.

24 And the people said to Joshua, Jehovah our God we will serve, and to His voice we will listen.

25 So Joshua made a covenant for the people that day, and he made a statute and an ordinance for them in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and he took a great stone and erected it there under the terebinth that was at the sanctuary of Jehovah.

27 And Joshua said to all the people, This stone here shall be as a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of Jehovah, which He has spoken to us; and it shall be as a witness against you, lest you act deceptively against your God.

28 Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

29 And after these things Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died at the age of one hundred and ten years.

30 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

31 And Israel served Jehovah throughout all the days of Joshua and throughout all the days of the elders whose days extended after Joshua's and who knew all the work of Jehovah that He had done for Israel.

32 And Joseph's bones, which the children of Israel had brought up from Egypt, were buried in Shechem, in the portion of the field that Jacob had bought from the children of Hamor the father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of money; and 'it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the 'hill of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Israel's Forsaking God, Suffering Defeat by Their Enemies, and Becoming Rotten

CHAPTER 1

I. Israel's Trusting in God
1:1 — 2:5

A. Judah's Boldness and Victory
1:1-21

1 And after the death of Joshua, the children of Israel inquired of Jehovah, saying, Who will go up first for us against the Canaanites, in order to fight against them?

2 And Jehovah said, Judah shall go up. I have now given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, and we will fight against the Canaanites; and I will go also with you into your lot. And Simeon went with him.

4 So Judah went up, and Jehovah gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they struck ten thousand of their men in Bezek.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek and fought with him; and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 And Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him and caught him, and they cut off his thumbs and his big toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off gleaned scraps under my table. As I have done, so God has repaid me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 And the children of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and they took it and struck it with the edge of the sword; and they set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who inhabited the hill country and the Negev and the lowland.

10 Then Judah went against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba.) And they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

11 And he went up from there to the inhabitants of Debir. (Now the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher.)

12 And Caleb said, Whoever strikes Kiriath-sepher and takes it, I will give to him Achsah my daughter as wife.

13 Then Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.

14 And when she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for the field. And she alighted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, What do you want?

15 And she said to him, Give me a blessing, for you have given me land in the Negev; give me also springs of water. So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16 And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up from the city of palms with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is to the south of Arad. And they went and dwelt with the people.

17 Then Judah went with Simeon his brother and struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath; and they utterly destroyed it. And they called the name of the city Hormah.

18 And Judah took Gaza and its territory and Ashkelon and its territory and Ekron and its territory.

19 And Jehovah was with Judah. And they took possession of the hill country, but they could not dispossess the inhabitants of the valley, for they had chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken; and he dispossessed the three sons of Anak from there.

21 But the Jebusites, who dwelt in Jerusalem, the children of Benjamin did not dispossess; thus the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

B. The House of Joseph
Going Up to Fight against Bethel, Jehovah Being with Them, and They Striking the People of the City with Their Sword
1:22-26

22 And the house of Joseph, they also, went up against Bethel; and Jehovah was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph spied out Bethel. (Now the name of the city was formerly Luz.)

24 And those who watched saw a man coming out of the city; and they said to him, Show us now the entrance of the city, and we will show mercy to you.

25 And he showed them the entrance of the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites; and he built a city and called its name Luz, which is its name unto this day.

C. Some Defects
1:27-36

27 And Manasseh did not dispossess Beth-shean with its towns or Taanach with its towns or the inhabitants of Dor with its towns or the inhabitants of Ibleam with its towns or the inhabitants of Megiddo with its towns, but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

28 And when Israel became strong, they made the Canaanites forced labor; but they did not utterly dispossess them.

29 And Ephraim did not dispossess the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt among them in Gezer.

30 Zebulun did not dispossess the inhabitants of Kitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them and became forced labor.

31 Asher did not dispossess the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Sidon and Ahlab and Achzib and Helbah and Aphik and Rehob;

32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites who inhabited the land, for they did not dispossess them.

33 Naphtali did not dispossess the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh or the inhabitants of Beth-anath; but they dwelt among the Canaanites who inhabited the land. Yet the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became forced labor for them.

34 And the Amorites pushed the children of Dan into the hill country, for they would not allow them to come down into the valley.

35 And the Amorites persisted in dwelling in Har-heres, in Aijalon, and in Shalbibim; but the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed so that they became forced labor.

36 And the border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

¹⁷ Lit., devoted it (i.e., to destruction).

CHAPTER 2

D. The Admonition of the Angel of Jehovah (Christ as the Acting Jehovah in the Old Testament to Take Care of Israel)
2:1-5

1 Then the Angel of Jehovah went up from Gilgal to Bochim. And He said, I caused you to go up out from Egypt, and I brought you into the land that I swore to your fathers. And I said, I will never break My covenant with you,

2 And you shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars. But you did not listen to My voice. What is this that you have done?

3 Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they will be like thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.

4 And when the Angel of Jehovah had spoken these words to all the children of Israel, the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place Bochim. And they offered to Jehovah there.

II. Israel's Forsaking of God (Comprising Their Suffering of Defeats, Their Repentance, and God's Deliverance)
2:6—16:31

A. The Reason for Israel's Forsaking of God
2:6-10

6 Now when Joshua sent the people away, each of the children of Israel went to his own inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served Jehovah throughout all the days of Joshua and throughout all the days of the elders whose days extended after Joshua's and who saw all the great work of Jehovah that He had done for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died at the age of one hundred and ten years.

9 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance, in ¹Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

10 And all that generation as well were gathered to their fathers; and another generation, who did not know Jehovah or the work that He had done for Israel, rose up after them.

B. The Cycle of the Miserable History of Israel's Forsaking of God
2:11-20

11 And the children of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and served the Baals.

12 And they forsook Jehovah, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt; and they followed after other gods from among the gods of the peoples who surrounded them; and they worshipped them and provoked Jehovah to anger.

13 And they forsook Jehovah and served Baal and the Ashtaroth.

14 Then the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He delivered them into the hands of plunderers; and they plundered them. And He sold them into the hand of their enemies around them, and they were no longer able to stand before their enemies.

15 Whenever they went out, the hand of Jehovah was against them for evil, as Jehovah had spoken and as Jehovah had sworn to them; and they were greatly distressed.

16 And Jehovah raised up judges, and they saved them out of the hands of those who plundered them.

17 Yet they did not listen to their judges either, but they went about as harlots

⁹ Some MSS read, Timnath-serah (cf. Josh. 19:50; 24:30).

after other gods and worshipped them. They turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers walked, the way of obeying the commandments of Jehovah; this they did not do.

18 And when Jehovah raised up judges for them, Jehovah was with the judge, and He saved them from the hand of their enemies throughout all the days of the judge; for Jehovah would be moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and crushed them.

19 But when the judge died, they turned and acted more corruptly than their fathers by following after other gods in order to serve them and worship them; they did not cease from any of their practices or from their stubborn way.

20 And the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel; and He said, Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers and they do not listen to My voice,

C. Jehovah's Testing of Israel
2:21 — 3:6

21 I for My part will no longer dispossess from before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died, 22 In order to test Israel through them as to whether or not they will keep the way of Jehovah by walking in ¹it, as their fathers kept it.

23 So Jehovah left these nations, not dispossessing them quickly, and did not deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER 3

1 And these are the nations that Jehovah left in order that through them He might test Israel (that is, all who had not known all the battles of Canaan),

2 But only so that the generations of the children of Israel might learn to know war, at least those who had not previously known the ¹battles:

3 The five lords of the Philistines and all the Canaanites and the Sidonians and the Hivites who dwelt on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon to the entrance of Hamath.

4 And they were for the ¹testing of Israel, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of Jehovah, which He commanded their fathers through Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

6 And they took their daughters as their wives and gave their own daughters to their sons, and they served their gods.

D. The First Cycle, through Othniel
3:7-11a

7 And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they forgot Jehovah their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.

8 Therefore the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim the king of Mesopotamia. And the children of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 Then the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up a savior for the children of Israel, who saved them, that is, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he judged Israel. And he went out to battle, and Jehovah delivered Cushan-rishathaim the king of Aram into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had rest forty years.

22¹ According to some Hebrew MSS and many ancient versions. Other MSS read, them.

2¹ Lit., them. 4¹ Lit., testing by them of Israel.

E. The Second Cycle, through Ehud and Shamgar
3:11b-31

And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 Then the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah. And Jehovah strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel because they did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

13 And he gathered the children of Ammon and Malek to himself and went and struck Israel, and they took possession of the city of palms.

14 And the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 Then the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised up a savior for them, that is, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. Now the children of Israel sent tribute to Eglon the king of Moab by him.

16 And Ehud made himself a dagger that had two edges, a cubit long. And he strapped it to his right thigh under his clothes.

17 And he presented the tribute to Eglon the king of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.)

18 And when he finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who carried the tribute.

19 But he himself returned from the sculptured idols at Gilgal and said, I have a secret message for you, O king. And he said, Hush. And all those who attended to him went out from him.

20 And when Ehud came to him, he was sitting alone in his cool upper room. And Ehud said, I have a message from God for you. And he rose up from his seat.

21 And Ehud put his left hand into his garment and took the dagger from his right thigh, and he drove it into his belly.

22 And the hilt also went in, after the blade; and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the dagger from his belly. And he went out into the courtyard.

23 Then Ehud went out onto the porch, and he closed the doors of the upper room on ¹Eglon and locked them.

24 And when he had gone out, ¹Eglon's servants came and saw that the doors of the upper room were locked; and they said, He must be relieving himself in the cool chamber.

25 And they waited until they were ashamed, but still he was not opening the doors of the upper room. Then they took the key and opened them. And there was their lord, fallen to the ground dead.

26 And Ehud escaped while they delayed, and he passed by the sculptured idols and escaped to Seirah.

27 And when he arrived, he blew the horn in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel came down with him from the hill country, and he was before them.

28 And he said to them, Follow closely after me, for Jehovah has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites; and they let no man cross over.

29 And they struck about ten thousand Moabites at that time, all stout and all valiant men; and no man escaped.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.

31 And after him there was Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck six hundred Philistines with an ox goad; and he also saved Israel.

23¹ Lit., him. 24¹ Lit., his.

CHAPTER 4

F. The Third Cycle, through Deborah
4:1 — 5:31

1 Then the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah after Ehud died.

2 And Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin the king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. And the captain of his army was Sisera, who dwelt at Harosheth-hagoyim.

3 And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, for he had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed the children of Israel severely twenty years.

4 Now Deborah was a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth. She judged Israel at that time.

5 And she would sit under the palm of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim. And the children of Israel went up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent word and called to Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali and said to him, Jehovah the God of Israel, has indeed commanded: Go and deploy your forces on Mount Tabor; and take with you ten thousand men from the children of Naphtali and from the children of Zebulun.

7 And I will draw out Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his throng, toward you at the river Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand.

8 And Barak said to her, If you will go with me, I will go; but if you do not go with me, I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with you. However there will be no glory for you on the journey you are taking, for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah rose up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up behind him; and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses. And he pitched his tent at the terebinth in Zaananim, which is near Kedesh.

12 And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam went up to Mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera called all his chariots—nine hundred iron chariots—and all the people who were with him from Harosheth-hagoyim to the river Kishon.

14 And Deborah said to Barak, Rise up, for this is the day when Jehovah will deliver Sisera into your hand. Jehovah has indeed gone out before you. So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men after him.

15 And Jehovah threw Sisera and all his chariots and all his army into confusion with the edge of the sword before Barak, and Sisera got down from his chariot and fled on foot.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim. And all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not even one was left.

17 Meanwhile, Sisera had fled on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there had been peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera; and she said to him, Turn here, my lord; turn here to me; do not be afraid. So he turned to her into her tent, and she covered him with a rug.

19 And he said to her, Give me please a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink; then she covered him.

20 And he said to her, Stand at the entrance of the tent; and if anyone comes and asks you, saying, Is there a man here? you shall say, No.

21 Then Jael the wife of Heber took a tent peg and put a hammer in her hand and went quietly to him. And she drove the peg into his temple, and it pierced through to the ground; for he was sound asleep and exhausted. And he died.

22 And Barak was at that moment pursuing Sisera when Jael came out to meet him. And she said to him, Come, and I will show you the man you are seeking. And he went with her; and there was Sisera, fallen dead with the peg in his temple.

23 So on that day God subdued Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel became heavier and heavier upon Jabin the king of Canaan until they destroyed Jabin the king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 5

(The Song of Deborah and Barak
5:1-31a)

1 Then Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

2 That the leaders took the lead in Israel,
That the people have willingly offered themselves,
Bless Jehovah.

3 Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes!
I will sing; I, to Jehovah.
I will sing praise to Jehovah
The God of Israel.

4 O Jehovah, when You went forth from Seir,
When You marched from the field of Edom,
The earth trembled, the heavens also dripped,
Indeed the clouds dripped water.

5 The mountains quaked at the presence of Jehovah,

Sinai there, at the presence of Jehovah the God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath,
In the days of Jael, the highways were not used;
And travelers went
On the roundabout paths.

7 The villages ceased to act;
They ceased in Israel;
Until ⁷I, Deborah, rose up;
Until I rose up as a mother in Israel.

8 They chose new gods;
Then there was war in their gates.
Was a shield or a spear seen
Among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is with the commanders of Israel,
Those who offered themselves willingly among the people.
Bless Jehovah!

10 Tell of it, you who ride on white donkeys,
You who sit on rich carpets,
And you who go upon the way.

11 Louder than the voice of those who distribute water among the watering places,
There they recount the righteous deeds of Jehovah,
His righteous acts toward His villages in Israel.
Then the people of Jehovah went down to the gates.

12 Awake! Awake, Deborah!
Awake! Awake, speak forth a song!
Arise, Barak;
And lead captive your captives,
son of Abinoam.

13 Then a remnant of the nobles went down;
The people of Jehovah went down with me against the mighty:

7¹ Or (as others translate), you.

- 14 From Ephraim, those who took root in Malek;
Following you, Benjamin, with your peoples;
From Machir commanders came down,
And from Zebulun those who wielded the staff of him who marshals.
- 15 And the princes in Issachar were with Deborah;
And Issachar was true to Barak;
Into the valley they were sent behind him.
Among the divisions of Reuben
There were great resolutions in heart.
- 16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds Listening to the pipings for the flocks?
In the divisions of Reuben
There were great searchings of heart.
- 17 Gilead stayed across the Jordan.
And as for Dan, why did he remain with the ships?
Asher sat at the shore of the sea
And stayed at his landings.
- 18 Zebulun was a people that despised their own lives even unto death;
And Naphtali, on the heights of the field.
- 19 The kings came; they fought.
At that time the kings of Canaan fought
In Taanach by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no gain of silver.
- 20 From heaven the stars fought;
From their courses they fought with Sisera.
- 21 The river Kishon swept them away,
The ancient river, the river
Kishon.
- March on, O my soul, with strength!
- 22 At that time the horse hooves stamped
With the prancing, the prancing of their mighty steeds.
- 23 Curse Meroz, says the Angel of
Jehovah;
Bitterly curse its inhabitants.
For they did not come to the aid of
Jehovah,
To the aid of Jehovah against the mighty.
- 24 Blessed among women shall Jael be,
The wife of Heber the Kenite; Blessed among the women in the tent shall she be.
- 25 He asked for water; she gave him milk.
In a bowl for nobles she presented him with cream.
- 26 She put her hand to the tent peg,
And her right hand to the workman's hammer;
Then she struck Sisera; she smashed
his head;
Indeed she shattered and pierced his temples.
- 27 At her feet he bowed; he fell; he lay down.
At her feet he bowed; he fell.
Where he bowed, there he fell, destroyed.
- 28 Through the window one looks forth and cries shrilly;
The mother of Sisera, through the lattice:
Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why do the tracks of his chariots delay?
- 29 The wisest of her ladies answer her,
And she herself returns an answer to herself:
- 30 Have they not found and divided the spoil?

A girl, two girls, to ¹each mighty man.
 The spoil of dyed garments to Sisera,
 The spoil of embroidered, dyed garments;
 A dyed embroidery, two embroideries,
 For the neck of the spoiler.
31 May all Your enemies so perish,
 O Jehovah.
 But may those who love Him be like the sun
 When it rises in its might.
 And the land had rest forty years.

CHAPTER 6

G. The Fourth Cycle, through Gideon
6:1—8:32

1 Then the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and Jehovah delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the children of Israel made for themselves the dens which are in the mountains as well as the caves and the strongholds.

3 And whenever Israel sowed its seed, Midian rose up with Malek and the children of the east, and went up against them.

4 And they encamped against them and destroyed the produce of the land until you come to Gaza, and they left no sustenance in Israel, or sheep or ox or donkey.

5 For they went up with their cattle and their tents and came in like a locust swarm in number; both they and their camels were without number. And they came into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of Midian. And the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah.

7 And when the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah because of Midian,

8 Jehovah sent a man who was a prophet to the children of Israel. And he said to them, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, It was I who brought you up out of Egypt and brought you out from the slave house;

9 And I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you. And I drove them out before you and gave you their land.

10 And I said to you, I am Jehovah your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you did not listen to My voice.

11 And the Angel of Jehovah came and sat under the terebinth that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while Gideon his son was beating out the wheat in the winepress in order to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him and said to him, Jehovah is with you, valiant warrior.

13 And Gideon said to Him, Please, my lord, if Jehovah is with us, then why has all this happened to us? And where are all His wondrous deeds that our fathers recount to us, saying, Did not Jehovah bring us up out of Egypt? But now Jehovah has abandoned us and delivered us into the hand of Midian.

14 Then Jehovah turned to him and said, Go in this strength of yours, and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Indeed I have sent you.

15 And he said to Him, Please, Lord, by what way can I save Israel? My clan here is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And Jehovah said to him, Surely I will be with you, and you will strike the Midianites as one man.

30¹ Lit., the head.

17 And he said to him, If now I have found favor in Your sight, perform a sign for me that it is You who are speaking with me.

18 Do not depart from here until I come to you and bring my present and set it before you. And He said, I will remain until you return.

19 So Gideon went and prepared a kid and an ephah of flour in unleavened cakes. He put the flesh in a basket and put the broth in a pot, and he brought it out to Him under the terebinth. And he presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock; and pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 And the Angel of Jehovah put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And fire came up from the rock and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And the Angel of Jehovah went from his sight.

22 And Gideon saw that He was the Angel of Jehovah. And Gideon said, Alas, O Lord Jehovah! For I have seen the Angel of Jehovah face to face.

23 And Jehovah said to him, Peace be with you. Do not be afraid; you shall not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there to Jehovah, and he called it Jehovah-shalom. To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 And that night Jehovah said to him, Take your father's bull, that is, the second bull, seven years old; and tear down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it.

26 And build an altar to Jehovah your God upon the top of this stronghold in the ordered manner. Then take that second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah that you will cut down.

27 So Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as Jehovah had told him. But because he was too afraid of his father's house and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it at night.

28 And when the men of the city rose up early in the morning, there was the altar of Baal, broken down; and the Asherah beside it was cut down. And the second bull had been offered upon the altar that had been built.

29 And they said to one another, Who has done this thing? And after they inquired and sought about, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son that he may die, for he has broken down the altar of Baal and cut down the Asherah beside it.

31 And Joash said to all who stood against him, Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? Whoever contends for him will be put to death while it is still morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself; for his altar has been broken down.

32 Therefore on that day he named ¹Gideon Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against him, for he has broken down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east gathered together, and they crossed over and encamped in the valley of Jezreel.

34 And the Spirit of Jehovah clothed Gideon; and he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called up behind him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they were also called up behind him. And he sent messengers throughout Asher and Zebulun and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.

32¹ Lit., him.

36 And Gideon said to God, If indeed You will save Israel through my hand, as You have said, 37 I am laying here a fleece of wool on the threshing floor: If there is dew on the fleece alone and it is dry on all the ground, I will know that You will save Israel through my hand, as You have said.

38 And so it happened. When he rose up early the next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung dew from the fleece, a bowlful of water.

39 Then Gideon said to God, May Your anger not burn against me, but allow me to speak only this one time. Allow me to make this test with the fleece only this one time. Let it be dry on the fleece only, and let there be dew on all the ground.

40 And God did so that night, so that it was dry on the fleece only and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER 7

1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was to their north, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And Jehovah said to Gideon, The people with you are too many for Me to deliver Midian into their hand; Israel might vaunt himself against Me, saying, My own hand has saved me.

3 Now then proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, Whoever is afraid and trembling should return and depart from ¹here. And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

4 Then Jehovah said to Gideon, The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. And he of whom I say to you, This one shall go with you, he shall go with you. And every one of whom I say to you, This one shall not go with you, he shall not go.

5 So he brought the people down to the water. And Jehovah said to Gideon, Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart; likewise everyone who bows down on his knees to drink.

6 And the number of those who lapped the water into their mouth with their hand was three hundred men, but the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water.

7 And Jehovah said to Gideon, Through the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and I will deliver Midian into your hand. But let all the other people go, each to his own place.

8 Then the people took provisions in their hand and their trumpets; and he sent all the men of Israel away, each to his own tent, but retained the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

9 And that night Jehovah said to him, Arise; go down against the camp, for I have delivered it into your hand.

10 But if you are afraid to go down, go down with Purah your young man into the camp;

11 And you will hear what they are saying. Then afterward your hands will be strengthened so that you can go down against the camp. So he went down with Purah his young man to the edge of the battle array that was in the camp.

12 Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay in the valley like a locust swarm in multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand on the seashore is in multitude.

13 And when Gideon came, at that moment a man was recounting a dream to his companion; and he said, I have just had a dream. There was this round loaf of barley bread tumbling through the camp of Midian. And it came to the tent and struck it, so that it fell and turned upside down. And the tent collapsed.

14 And his companion answered and said, This is nothing else but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. God has delivered Midian and all the camp into his hand.

15 And when Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he worshipped. And he returned to the camp of Israel and said, Arise, for Jehovah has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies; and he put trumpets into the hands of them all, as well as empty pitchers, with torches inside the pitchers.

17 And he said to them, Look at me, and do as I do. Right when I come to the edge of the camp, you shall do just as I do.

18 When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet, you also blow the trumpets around all the camp and say, For Jehovah and for Gideon!

19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch. They had just then posted the watch. And they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets and shattered the pitchers; and they held the torches in their left hands, and the trumpets were in their right hands to blow. And they cried out, A sword for Jehovah and for Gideon!

21 And each man stood in his place around the camp. Then the whole camp ran off, and they shouted and fled.

22 And they blew the three hundred trumpets, and Jehovah set each man's sword against his companion and against the whole camp. And the camp fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel were called up from Naphtali and from Asher and from all of Manasseh, and they pursued after Midian.

24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, Come down against Midian, and seize the waters against them as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan. And every man of Ephraim was called up, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.

25 And they captured two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And they slew Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the wine press of Zeeb; and they pursued Midian. And they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan.

CHAPTER 8

1 Then the men of Ephraim said to him, Why have you done this thing to us, that you did not call us when you went to battle against Midian? And they contended with him sharply.

2 And he said to them, What have I done now to compare with you? Are not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 It was into your hand that God gave the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their hostile spirit toward him subsided when he said this word.

4 Then Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over, he and the three hundred men with him, weary yet pursuing.

5 And he said to the men of Succoth, Please give us loaves of bread for the people behind me, for they are weary and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.

6 But the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your hand now, that we should give bread to your army?

7 And Gideon said, Because of this, when Jehovah does deliver Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will trample your flesh on the thorns of the wilderness and the briers.

8 Then he went up from there to Penuel and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.

9 And he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, When I return in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their camps were with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of the entire camp of the children of the east; for there had fallen one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.

11 And Gideon went up by way of the tent dwellers, east of Nobah and Jogbehah; and he struck the camp when the camp was off guard.

12 And Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued after them. And he captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and threw all the camp into confusion.

13 And when Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle from the ascent of Heres, 14 He captured a young man from among the men of Succoth and questioned him. And he wrote down for him the princes of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

15 Then he came to the men of Succoth and said, Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your hand now, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city and the thorns of the wilderness and the briers, and with them he 'trampled the men of Succoth.

17 And he broke down the tower of Penuel and slew the men of the city.

18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, What were the men whom you slew in Tabor like? And they said, As you are, so were they. Each one was like the children of a king in form.

19 And he said, They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Jehovah lives, if you had kept them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said to Jether his firstborn, Rise up; slay them. But the youth would not draw his sword, because he was fearful; for he was still a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, You rise up, and fall on us; for there is as much strength as there is man. And Gideon rose up and slew Zebah and Zalmunna. And he took the crescents that were on their camels' necks.

22 And the men of Israel said to Gideon, Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson as well; for you have saved us from the hand of Midian.

23 But Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. Jehovah will rule over you.

24 And Gideon said to them, Let me make a request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his spoil. ('The Midianites had golden earrings, for they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they said, We will willingly give it. And they spread out a garment, and each of them threw an earring from his spoil there.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand 16¹ Following v. 7. The Hebrew may be read, taught. 24¹ Lit., For they.

seven hundred shekels of gold. This was besides the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments that were upon the kings of Midian and besides the chains that were on their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an ephod with it and placed it in his city, in Ophrah. And all Israel went as harlots to it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his house.

28 So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his house.

30 And Gideon had seventy sons, the issue of his loins, for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died at a good old age, and he was buried in the tomb of Joash his father in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

H. The Fifth Cycle, through Abimelech, Tola, and Jair
8:33—10:5

33 And as soon as Gideon died, the children of Israel turned again and went as harlots after the Baals. And they made Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel did not remember Jehovah their God, who had delivered them from the hand of all their enemies all around;

35 Nor did they show mercy to the house of Jerubbaal, that is, Gideon, for all the good he had done to Israel.

CHAPTER 9

1 Then Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers; and he spoke to them and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak now in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem, What is better for you, that all the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, rule over you, or that one man rule over you? Now remember that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brothers spoke of him in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem with all these words; and their heart inclined toward Abimelech, for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith. And with it Abimelech hired worthless and wanton men, and they followed after him.

5 And he went to his father's house in Ophrah and slew his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone; but Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, was left, for he hid himself.

6 Then all the lords of Shechem and all the house of Millo gathered, and they went and made Abimelech king at the terebinth of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 And when Jotham was told, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim and lifted up his voice and called out and said to them, Listen to me, you lords of Shechem, that God may listen to you.

8 The trees once went forth to anoint a king over themselves. And they said to the olive tree, Reign over us.

9 But the olive tree said to them, Shall I leave my fatness, because of which God and men are honored by me, and go to wave over the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, You come and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree said to them, Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to wave over the trees?

12 Then the trees said to the vine, You come and reign over us.

13 But the vine said to them, Shall I leave my new wine, which cheers God and men, and go to wave over the trees?

14 So all the trees said to the bramble, You come and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said to the trees, If you are truly anointing me as king over you, come and take refuge under my shade; but if not, may fire come forth from the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon!

16 Now therefore if you have dealt truly and with integrity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt in a good way toward Jerubbaal and toward his house, and if you have dealt with him as his hands have deserved—

17 (For my father fought for you and risked his life, and he delivered you from the hand of Midian.

18 But you have risen up today against the house of my father and have slain his sons, seventy men, on one stone; and you have made Abimelech the son of his female servant king over the lords of Shechem, for he is your brother.)

19 Now if you have dealt truly and with integrity toward Jerubbaal and toward his house today, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.

20 But if not, may fire come forth from Abimelech and devour the men of Shechem and the house of Millo, and may fire come forth from the lords of Shechem and the house of Millo and devour Abimelech!

21 And Jotham ran off and fled, and he came to Beer and remained there because of Abimelech his brother.

22 And Abimelech was prince over Israel three years.

23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem, and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech,

24 So that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal ¹might be avenged and so that their blood might be put upon Abimelech their brother, who slew them, and upon the lords of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to slay his brothers.

25 And the lords of Shechem set men in ambush for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed everyone who passed by them on the way; and Abimelech was told.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brothers and went over to Shechem, and the lords of Shechem put their trust in him.

27 And they went out into the field and gathered the grapes of their vineyards and trod them, and had a festival. And they went to the house of their god and ate and drank, and they cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem; but why should we serve ¹this man?

29 But oh that this people were put in my hand, then I would remove Abimelech. And he said of Abimelech, Increase your army and come out!

30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned.

31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech in ¹Tormah, saying, Gaal the son Ebed and his brothers have now come to Shechem, and now they are stirring up the city against you.

32 And now rise up at night, you and the people with you, and wait in ambush in the field;

33 And in the morning, as soon as the sun rises, you shall rise up early and rush on the city. And right when he and the people with him come out against you, you shall do with him as you find occasion.

24¹ Lit., might come. 28¹ Lit., him. 31¹ Called Arumah in v. 41. Others understand, craftily.

34 And Abimelech and all the people with him rose up at night and waited in ambush against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And Abimelech and the people with him rose up from the ambush.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains. But Zebul said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as though they were men.

37 And Gaal spoke again and said, Look, people are coming down from the height of the land, and one company is coming by the way of the terebinth of Meonenim.

38 Then Zebul said to him, Where is your ¹boast now, that you said, Who is Abimelech that we should serve him? Is not this the people that you despised? Go out now, and fight them.

39 So Gaal went out before the lords of Shechem and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech pursued him, and ¹Gaal fled from before him. And many wounded fell, up to the entrance of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt in Arumah. And Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they could not dwell in Shechem.

42 Then on the next day the people went out into the field, and Abimelech was told.

43 And he took his people and divided them into three companies, and he waited in ambush in the field. And he looked, and there were the people coming out of the city. And he rose up against them and struck them.

44 And Abimelech and the companies that were with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, and two companies rushed upon all those who were in the field and struck them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day. And he took the city, and the people who were in it he slew; and he tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And when the lords of the tower of Shechem heard of it, they went to the stronghold of the house of El-berith.

47 And Abimelech was told that all the lords of the tower of Shechem had gathered together.

48 And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Abimelech took an ax in his hand and cut down a tree limb. And he lifted it up and put it on his shoulder, and he said to the people who were with him, What you see me doing, hurry and do as I have done.

49 So all the people also cut down each a limb. And they followed after Abimelech and set the limbs against the stronghold. And they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez; and he encamped against Thebez and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower in the middle of the city; and all the men and women and all the lords of the city fled there and shut themselves in; and they went up to the roof of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came up to the tower and fought against it. And he came near the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman threw an upper millstone upon Abimelech's head, and it cracked his skull.

54 Then he called immediately to the young man who bore his armor and said to him, Draw your sword and kill me; otherwise they will say concerning me, A woman slew him. And his young man pierced him through, and he died.

38' Lit., mouth. 40' Lit., he.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they went away, each to his own place.

56 And God repaid the evil of Abimelech, which he had done to his father by slaying his seventy brothers.

57 And God brought all the evil of the men of Shechem back upon their own heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came upon them.

CHAPTER 10

1 And after Abimelech Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, rose up to save Israel; and he dwelt in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty-three years, and he died and was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him Jair the Gileadite rose up and judged Israel twenty-two years.

4 And he had thirty sons, who rode on thirty donkeys; and they had thirty cities (they are called Havvoth-jair to this day), which were in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

1. The Sixth Cycle, through Jephthah,
Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon
10:6—12:15

6 Then the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah. And they served the Baals and the Ashtaroth and the gods of Aram and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the children of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines, and they forsook Jehovah and did not serve Him.

7 And the anger of Jehovah burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the children of Ammon.

8 And they oppressed and crushed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the children of Israel who were across the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 And the children of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah and Benjamin and the house of Ephraim; and Israel was greatly distressed.

10 Then the children of Israel cried out to Jehovah, saying, We have sinned against You, for we have forsaken our God and have served the Baals.

11 And Jehovah said to the children of Israel, Did I not save you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines?

12 And the Sidonians and Malek and ¹Maon oppressed you; and you cried out to Me, and I saved you from their hand.

13 But you forsook Me and served other gods; therefore I will not save you again.

14 Go and cry out to the gods that you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress.

15 But the children of Israel said to Jehovah, We have sinned. You do with us according to all that is good in Your sight. Only deliver us this day, we pray.

16 And they removed the foreign gods from their midst and served Jehovah. And His soul could no longer bear Israel's misery.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered together and encamped in Gilead, and the children of Israel assembled together and encamped in Mizpah.

18 And the people, that is, the princes of Gilead, said each to his companion, Who is the man who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

12¹ The Septuagint reads, Midian.

CHAPTER 11

1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor. And he was the son of a harlot, and Gilead had begotten Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bore him sons. And when the woman's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, You shall not have an inheritance in the house of our father, for you are the son of some other woman.

3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob. And worthless men collected around Jephthah, and they went out with him.

4 And after some time the children of Ammon fought with Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

6 And they said to Jephthah, Come and be our chief, and we will fight against the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Are you not the ones who hated me and drove me out from the house of my father? Why then do you come to me now that you are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, This is the reason we have turned now to you, that you would come with us and fight against the children of Ammon and be for us the head of all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you are bringing me back to fight against the children of Ammon and Jehovah delivers them up before me, will I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Let Jehovah be a Witness between us: As you have spoken, so shall we surely do.

11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them. And Jephthah spoke all his words before Jehovah in Mizpah.

12 And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What is there between me and you, that you have come to me to fight against my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon said to Jephthah's messengers, Because Israel took my land when they came up from Egypt, from the Arnon as far as Jabbok and the Jordan. Now therefore restore it peacefully.

14 And Jephthah yet again sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon.

15 And he said to him, Thus says Jephthah, Israel did not take the land of Moab nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh, 17 Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, May we please pass through your land? But the king of Edom would not hear of it. And they also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he would not allow it. So Israel remained in Kadesh.

18 And they went through the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab; and they went to the east of the land of Moab and encamped beyond the Arnon. Thus they did not go through the territory of Moab, for the Arnon is the border of Moab.

19 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon the king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, May we please pass through your land to our place?

20 But Sihon did not trust Israel to cross through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his people together and encamped in Jahaz; and he fought with Israel.

21 And Jehovah the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. And Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that land.

22 And they took possession of all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

23 So now Jehovah the God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites for the sake of His people Israel. Should you then dispossess them?

24 Will you not take possession of that which Chemosh your god has dispossessed for you? Thus we will take possession of all that Jehovah our God dispossesses for our sake.

25 And now are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he ever strive with Israel, or did he ever fight against them?

26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

27 So I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong in fighting against me. Jehovah the Judge will judge today between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 But the king of the children of Ammon would not listen to the words of Jephthah, which he sent him.

29 And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah. And he passed through Gilead and through Manasseh; and he passed on to Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed on to the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah made a vow to Jehovah, and he said, If You will really deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, 31 ¹Whoever comes out through the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the children of Ammon will be Jehovah's, and I will offer ¹him up as a burnt offering.

32 And Jephthah passed on to the children of Ammon to fight against them, and Jehovah delivered them into his hand.

33 And he struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abel-keramim, with a very great stroke. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 Then Jephthah came to his house at Mizpah, and there came his daughter out to meet him, with timbrels and with dances. Now she was an only child; he had no son or daughter besides her.

35 And when he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, Ah, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me. For I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I cannot retract it.

36 And she said to him, My father, you have opened your mouth to Jehovah; do with me according to what has gone forth from your mouth, seeing that Jehovah has executed vengeance for you on your enemies, on the children of Ammon.

37 And she said to her father, Let this thing be done for me: Let me be alone for two months that I may depart and descend upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions.

38 And he said, Go; and he sent her away for two months. And she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And at the end of two months she returned to her father, and he did with her according to the vow that he had vowed; and she had never known a man. And it became a custom in Israel

40 That each year the daughters of Israel

31¹ Or, Whatever...it.

would go to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in the year.

CHAPTER 12

1 Then the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and they crossed over to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, Why did you cross over to fight against the children of Ammon and not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you.

2 And Jephthah said to them, I and my people were in great strife with the children of Ammon; but when I called out to you, you did not save me from their hand.

3 So when I saw that there would be no help from you, I put my life in my own hand and crossed over to the children of Ammon; and Jehovah delivered them into my hand. So why have you come up against me this day to fight against me?

4 And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead together and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim because they said, You are fugitives from Ephraim, O Gilead, in the midst of Ephraim and Manasseh.

5 And the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. And when a fugitive of Ephraim said, Let me cross over, the men of Gilead would say to him, Are you an Ephraimite? And if he said, No, 6 They would say to him, Then say, Shibboleth. And he would say, Sibboleth; for he could not say it correctly. Then they would seize him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. And at that time forty-two thousand of Ephraim fell.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 Then after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons; and he sent out thirty daughters abroad and brought in thirty foreign daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 And Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

11 Then after him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

13 Then after him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode upon seventy donkeys. And he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

CHAPTER 13

J. The Seventh Cycle, through Samson
13:1—16:31

1 Then the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and Jehovah delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

2 And there was a certain man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had borne no children.

3 And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to the woman and said to her, Now you are barren and have borne no children; but you will conceive and bear a son.

4 And now be careful not to drink wine or strong drink nor to eat anything unclean;

5 For you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head, for the boy will be a Nazarite to God from the womb; and he will begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines.

40' Or, commemorate.

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came to me; and His appearance was like the appearance of an angel of God, very awesome. And I did not ask Him where He was from, nor did He tell me His name;

7 But He said to me, You shall conceive and bear a son. And now do not drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean; for the boy will be a Nazarite to God from the womb until the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah entreated Jehovah and said, Oh, Lord! Let the man of God, whom You sent, come again to us, I pray; and let Him teach us what we should do with the boy that is to be born.

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman hurried and ran off; and she told her husband and said to him, The man who came to me that day has just appeared to me.

11 And Manoah rose up and followed his wife and came to the man. And he said to Him, Are You the man who spoke to this woman? And He said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now when Your words come to pass, what rule shall the boy follow, and what shall he do?

13 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, Observe all that I spoke to this woman.

14 She is not to eat of anything that comes forth from the grapevine, nor is she to drink wine or strong drink, nor is she to eat anything unclean; she shall observe all that I commanded her.

15 And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, Let us detain You, we pray, that we may prepare a kid for You.

16 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, If you detain Me, I will not eat your food; but if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it up to Jehovah. For Manoah did not know that He was the Angel of Jehovah.

17 Then Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, What is Your name, so that when Your words come to pass, we may honor You?

18 And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Why do you ask about My name, since it is wonderful?

19 And Manoah took the kid with the meal offering and offered it up upon the rock to Jehovah; and He acted wondrously, while Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 And when the flame went up from the altar to heaven, the Angel of Jehovah went up in the flame of the altar, while Manoah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.

21 And the Angel of Jehovah did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was the Angel of Jehovah.

22 And Manoah said to his wife, We will surely die, for we have seen God.

23 But his wife said to him, If Jehovah had been pleased to kill us, He would not have taken a burnt offering and a meal offering from our hand, nor would He have shown us all these things or let us hear a thing like this at this time.

24 And the woman bore a son, and she called his name Samson. And the boy grew up, and Jehovah blessed him.

25 And the Spirit of Jehovah began to move him at ¹Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

1 And Samson went down to Timnah, and he saw a woman in Timnah from the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he went up and told his father and mother and said, I have seen a woman 25¹ Or, the camp of Dan.

in Timnah from the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me as a wife.

3 But his father and mother said to him, Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers or among all my people, that you must go and get a woman of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for she pleases me.

4 But his father and mother did not know this was of Jehovah, for He was looking for an opportunity against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines ruled over Israel.

5 So Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. And as they came to the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion roared against him.

6 And the Spirit of Jehovah rushed upon him, and he tore it apart as one might tear a kid apart with his bare hands. And he did not tell his father and mother what he had done.

7 And he went down and spoke to the woman, and she pleased Samson.

8 Then after some time, while he was returning to get her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And there it was, with a swarm of bees in the lion's body, and honey.

9 And he scraped it out into his hands and went away, eating it as he went. And he came to his father and mother and gave them some, and they ate it; but he did not tell them that he had scraped the honey from the body of the lion.

10 And his father went down to the woman; and Samson held a feast there, for so the young men used to do.

11 And when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 And Samson said to them, Let me now put forth a riddle to you. If you fully explain it to me within the seven days of the feast and find it out, I will give you thirty fine linen garments and thirty changes of clothing;

13 But if you cannot explain it to me, you shall give me thirty fine linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. And they said to him, Put forth your riddle, let us hear it.

14 And he said to them,
Out of the eater came forth food,
And out of the strong came forth sweetness.

And they could not explain the riddle after three days.

15 Then on the ¹fourth day they said to Samson's wife, Entice your husband to explain the riddle to us; otherwise we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us here in order to impoverish us? Is it not so?

16 So Samson's wife wept before him and said, You only hate me, and you do not love me: You have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, but you have not explained it to me. And he said to her, Look, I have not explained it to my own father and mother. Should I then explain it to you?

17 And she wept before him the rest of the seven days that they had the feast. But on the seventh day he explained it to her, for she pressed him. Then she explained the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before sunset,

What is sweeter than honey,
And what is stronger than a lion?

And he said to them,

If you had not plowed with my heifer,

You would not have found out my riddle.

19 Then the Spirit of Jehovah rushed upon him; and he went down to Ashkelon 15¹ Following some ancient versions; the Hebrew text reads, seventh.

and struck thirty men among them; and he took their clothing and gave the changes of clothing to those who had explained the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to his father's house.

20 And Samson's wife was given to his best man, who had been his friend.

CHAPTER 15

1 Then after some time, during the days of the wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid. And he said, Let me go into the chamber to my wife; but her father would not allow him to go in.

2 And her father said, I surely thought that you utterly hated her, so I gave her to your best man. Is not her younger sister better than she? Let her be yours instead of her.

3 Then Samson said to them, This time I will be blameless with regard to the Philistines when I do them harm.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes; and he took torches and turned the foxes tail to tail and put one torch in between every two tails.

5 Then he set the torches on fire and sent the foxes into the Philistines' standing grain and burned up the shocks and the standing grain as well as the vineyards and the olive groves.

6 And the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they said, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his best man. And the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said to them, If this is how you act, I will surely take revenge on you, and then I will stop.

8 And he struck them hip and thigh, a great slaughter. And he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

9 And the Philistines rose up and encamped in Judah, and they spread out against Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they said, We have come up to bind Samson, so that we can do to him as he has done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam; and they said to Samson, Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? Then what is this that you have done to us? And he said to them, As they have done to me, so I have done to them.

12 And they said to him, We have come down to bind you up so that we can deliver you into hand of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spoke to him, saying, No, we will only bind you and deliver you into their hand, but we certainly will not put you to death. And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

14 When he came into Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. And the Spirit of Jehovah rushed upon him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax when it burns in fire; and his bonds melted from off his hands.

15 And he found a fresh jawbone of an ass; and he stretched out his hand and took it, and struck a thousand men with it.

16 And Samson said,
With the jawbone of an ass,
A heap upon a double heap;
With the jawbone of an ass,
I have struck a thousand men dead.

17 And when he finished speaking, he cast the jawbone from his hand; and he called that place Ramath-lehi.

18 And he was very thirsty, and he called on Jehovah, saying, You have granted this great victory by the hand of Your servant. And will I now die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 But God broke open the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came forth from it. And when he drank, his spirit returned and he was revived; therefore he called the name of ¹that place En-hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

CHAPTER 16

1 And Samson went down to Gaza; and there he saw a harlot and went in unto her.

2 And this was told to the Gazites, saying, Samson has come here. So they surrounded him and set an ambush for him all night long in the gate of the city. And they were quiet all night long, saying among themselves, We will stay here until the light of morning; then we will slay him.

3 But Samson lay only until midnight; then he rose at midnight and grasped the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts, and he plucked them up along with the bar; and he put them on his shoulders and brought them up to the top of the mountain that is in front of Hebron.

4 Then after this he fell in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the lords of the Philistines came to her; and they said to her, Entice him, and find out how it is that his strength is so great, and how we can prevail against him and bind him so that we may afflict him; and we each will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 So Delilah said to Samson, Tell me please, How is it that your strength is so great, and how could you be bound so that you could be afflicted?

7 And Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven new cords that are not dried out, I will become weak and be like any other man.

8 So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven new cords that were not dried out, and she bound him with them.

9 And there was an ambush staying with her in the inner chamber; and she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he snapped the cords, as when a strand of tow is snapped when it touches fire. So his strength was not known.

10 Then Delilah said to Samson, You have just mocked me and told me lies; now tell me please, How can you be bound?

11 And he said to her, If they bind me up with new ropes with which no work has been done, I will become weak and be like any other man.

12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them; and she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And there was an ambush staying in the inner chamber. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

13 Then Delilah said to Samson, Until now you have mocked me and told me lies; tell me how you can be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web ¹and fasten them with the pin onto the wall, I will become weak and be like any other man.

14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web; and she fastened them with the pin. Then she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he awoke from his sleep and plucked up the pin of the loom and the web.

15 Then she said to him, How can you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? These three times you have mocked me and have not told me how it is that your strength is so great.

16 And after she pressed him with her words every day and urged him, his soul was tired to death.

19¹ Lit., it. 13¹ The portion beginning here and continuing through the words into the web in the next verse has been restored from the Septuagint; the Hebrew text lacks this portion.

17 And he told her all his heart and said to her, No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazarite to God from my mother's womb. If I were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become weak and be like all men.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent word and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart. And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and they brought the silver in their hand.

19 And she put him to sleep in her lap and called for a man; and she shaved off the seven locks of his head. And she began to afflict him, and his strength left ¹him.

20 Then she said, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he awoke from his sleep and said, I will go out as at other times and shake myself free. But he did not know that Jehovah had left ¹him.

21 And the Philistines grabbed him and gouged out his eyes. And they took him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze fetters; and he ground at the mill in the prison house.

22 But the hair on his head began to grow back after it had been shaved off.

23 And the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to rejoice. And they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him they praised their god, for they said, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand, even him who desolated our land, who slew many of us.

25 And when their hearts were merry, they said, Call for Samson, that he may entertain us. So they called for Samson from the prison house, and he performed before them. Then they made him stand between the pillars.

26 And Samson said to the youth who held him by his hand, Let me feel the pillars upon which the house rests, that I may rest against them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who were looking on while Samson performed.

28 And Samson called on Jehovah and said, O Lord Jehovah, remember me, I pray; and strengthen me, I pray, this one time only, O God, that I may be avenged of the Philistines at once for my two eyes.

29 And Samson grasped the two middle pillars upon which the house rested and leaned against them, one with his right hand and the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed with all his strength, and the house fell upon the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed in his death were more than those that he killed in his life.

31 Then his brothers and all his father's house went down and bore him away, and they brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the tomb of Manoah his father. Now he had judged Israel twenty years.

is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed of Jehovah be my son!

3 And he returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, I do consecrate the silver to Jehovah from my hand to my son to make an idol and a molten image. Now therefore I will return it to you.

4 And when he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the founder, who made them into a sculptured idol and a molten image. And it was in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had a house of gods; and he made an ephod and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons to become his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he was a sojourner there.

8 And the man left the city Bethlehem in Judah to dwell wherever he could find a place. And he came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he made his way.

9 And Micah said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am traveling in order to dwell wherever I can find a place.

10 And Micah said to him, Stay with me, and be a father and a priest to me; and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year and an array of clothing and your food. So the Levite went with him.

11 And the Levite was content to stay with the man; and the young man was to him like one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite; and the young man became his priest and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then Micah said, Now I know that Jehovah will prosper me, because the Levite has become my priest.

CHAPTER 18

1 In those days there was no king in Israel; and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought for themselves an inheritance to dwell in, for unto that day the lot had not fallen for them on an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

2 So the children of Dan sent from their family five men from among all of them, men of valor, from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and search it out. And they said to them, Go and search out the land. And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah; and they lodged there.

3 When they were near the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite man, so they turned aside there and said to him, Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what do you have here?

4 And he said to them, Such and such has Micah done for me; and he has hired me to be his priest.

5 And they said to him, Inquire now of God that we may know if our way on which we are going will be prosperous.

6 And the priest said to them, Go in peace; your way on which you are going is before Jehovah.

7 Then the five men left and came to Laish. And they saw the people who were in it, dwelling securely after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no one in the land who possessed authority and might humble them in anything; and they were far from the Sidonians and had nothing to do with anyone.

8 And they came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol; and their brothers said to them, What can you say?

9 And they said, Arise; and let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and it is very good. So do you sit still? Do not be slow about going and entering the land to possess it.

10 When you go, you will come to a secure people; and the land is very spacious. God has indeed delivered it into your hand, a place where nothing on earth is lacking there.

11 So six hundred men girded with weapons of war set out from there, from the family of Dan, from Zorah and Eshtaol.

12 And they went up and encamped in Kiriath-jearim in Judah. Because of this, that place is called Mahaneh-dan to this day; it is there behind Kiriath-jearim.

13 And they passed from there into the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

14 Then the five men who had gone to spy the land of Laish answered and said to their brothers, Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod and teraphim and a sculptured idol and a molten image? Now therefore consider what you should do.

15 And they turned aside there and came to the house of the young Levite man, the house of Micah; and they asked him concerning his welfare.

16 And the six hundred men of the children of Dan, girded with their weapons of war, stood at the entrance of the gate.

17 And the five men who had gone to spy the land went up and entered there to seize the sculptured idol and the ephod and the teraphim and the molten image. And the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girded with weapons of war.

18 And when these men entered the house of Micah and seized the sculptured idol and the ephod and the teraphim and the molten image, the priest said to them, What are you doing?

19 And they said to him, Quiet down; put your hand over your mouth, and go with us and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for the house of one man or for you to be a priest for a tribe and family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod and teraphim and the sculptured idol, and went into the midst of the people.

21 And they turned and departed; and they put the little ones and the livestock and the goods before them.

22 When they were some distance from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses that were near the house of Micah were gathered together; and they overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they called out to the children of Dan. And they turned and faced them and said to Micah, What is bothering you, that you have been gathered together?

24 And he said, You have taken away my gods that I have made, along with the priest, and have gone off. And what do I still have? How then can you say to me, What is bothering you?

25 And the children of Dan said, Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest men of fierce temper fall on you and you lose your life and the lives of your household.

26 And the children of Dan went their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

27 So they took that which Micah had made and the priest that had been his, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure; and they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

28 And there was no one to deliver it; for it was far from Sidon, and they had nothing to do with anyone. Now it was in the valley that is by Beth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and dwelt in it.

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, according to the name of Dan their father who had been born to Israel. However the name of the city was Laish formerly.

30 And the children of Dan erected the sculptured idol; and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of ¹Moses, he and his sons, became priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 Thus they set up the sculptured idol that Micah had made the whole time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAPTER 19

B. The Sodomitical Corruption in Their Morality 19:1-30

1. The Story of Corruption vv. 1-26

1 Now in those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a certain Levite dwelling in the far end of the hill country of Ephraim. And he took for himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

2 But his concubine went about as a harlot, and she departed from him to her father's house, to Bethlehem in Judah; and she was there for a period of four months.

3 Then her husband rose up and came after her to speak ¹to her affectionately and to bring her back, bringing with him his young man and a pair of donkeys. And she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young woman saw him, he rejoiced to see him.

4 And his father-in-law, the father of the young woman, detained him; and he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank, and they spent the night there.

5 And on the fourth day, they rose up early in the morning and got up to go. But the father of the young woman said to his son-in-law, Sustain yourself with a morsel of bread, and afterward you can go.

6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. And the father of the young woman said to the man, Will you not, I beg you, stay overnight and let your heart be merry?

7 And the man got up to go; but his father-in-law urged him, and he spent the night there again.

8 Then on the fifth day he rose up early in the morning to go; but the father of the young woman said, Sustain yourself, I beg you, and linger until the day has declined. So the two of them ate.

9 And when the man got up to go, with his concubine and his young man, his father-in-law, the father of the young woman, said to him, Look now, the day is waning toward evening; spend the night, I beg you. Look, the day is drawing to a close. Spend the night here, and let your heart be merry; then rise up early tomorrow for your journey and go ¹home.

10 But the man did not want to spend the night, so he rose up and left. And he arrived at Jebus (that is, Jerusalem); and with him were a couple of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him.

11 And when they were at Jebus, the day was far spent; and the young man said to his master, Come now, and let us turn aside toward this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it.

12 And his master said to him, We will not turn aside toward a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah.

13 And he said to his young man, Come and let us approach one of these places; and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went further; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside there to go in and spend the night in Gibeah. And he went into the city and sat in the square of the city, but no one took them into his house to lodge them.

30¹ The Hebrew text reads, Manasseh. 3¹ Lit., to her heart. 9¹ Lit., to your tent.

16 Then in the evening there came an old man out of the field from his work. Now the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was a sojourner in Gibeah. And the men of that place were Benjaminites.

17 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the wayfarer in the square of the city. And the old man said, Where are you traveling to, and where have you come from?

18 And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the far end of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah; and I am going to ¹my house, and no one takes me into his house.

19 There are both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine also for myself and your female servant and the young man who is with your servants; there is no need of anything.

20 And the old man said, Peace be with you. Just let all your needs come upon me; just do not spend the night in the square.

21 And he brought him to his house and gave his donkeys fodder; and they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

22 And while they were making their hearts merry, the men of the city, worthless men, surrounded the house, beating on the door. And they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring out the man who went into your house that we may know him.

23 And the master of the house came out to them and said to them, No, my brothers; do not do this evil thing, I beg you. Since this man has come into my house, do not commit this folly.

24 Here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. Let me bring them out, I beg you; and humble them and do to them what seems good in your sight. But to this man do not do such folly.

25 But the men did not want to listen to him; so the man took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them; and they knew her. And they abused her all night long until morning; and they let her go when the dawn broke.

26 And in the early morning the woman came and fell at the entrance of the man's house, where her lord had been until it was light.

2. The Spreading of This Story of Corruption throughout All the Territory of Israel
vv. 27-30

27 And her lord rose up in the morning and opened the doors of the house, and he went out to go on his way. And there was his concubine, fallen at the entrance of the house with her hands upon the threshold.

28 And he said to her, Get up, and let us go. But there was no answer. And he put her upon the donkey; and the man rose up and went to his place.

29 And when he came to his house, he took a knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her up limb by limb into twelve pieces; and he sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

30 And when everyone saw this, they said, No such thing has ever happened or been seen since the day the children of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt until this day. Consider it, and take counsel and speak.

CHAPTER 20

C. The Terrible Slaughter among Their Tribes
20:1—21:25

1 Then all the children of Israel went out; and the assembly gathered as one 18' Following the Septuagint; the Hebrew text reads, the house of Jehovah.

man unto Jehovah at Mizpah, from Dan as far as Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead.

2 And the leaders of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the congregation of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew the sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the children of Israel said, Tell us, How did this evil thing happen?

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman who had been murdered, answered and said, I and my concubine came to Gibeah, which is in Benjamin, to spend the night.

5 And the ¹men of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night to get me. It was me that they intended to slay, but they humbled my concubine until she died.

6 Therefore I took hold of my concubine and cut her up and sent her throughout all the land of Israel's inheritance, for they have committed wickedness and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, all you children of Israel, give your advice and counsel here.

8 And all the people rose up as one man, saying, None of us will go to our tents, nor will any of us return to our houses.

9 But now this is the thing that we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot;

10 And we will take ten men per hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred per thousand, and a thousand per ten thousand, to get provisions for the people, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may deal with them according to all the folly which they have committed in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel, knit together as one man, were gathered against the city.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the ¹tribe of Benjamin, saying, What is this evil thing that has happened among you?

13 Now therefore deliver up the worthless men who are in Gibeah, and we will kill them and put away evil from Israel. But the ¹Benjaminites would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the children of Israel.

14 And the children of Benjamin gathered together at Gibeah from their cities to go to battle with the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered on that day from the cities: twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, apart from the inhabitants of Gibeah who were numbered, seven hundred choice men.

16 Of all these people seven hundred choice men were left-handed; all these could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel were numbered apart from Benjamin: four hundred thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Israel rose up and went up to Bethel, and they inquired of God and said, Which of us shall go up first into battle with the children of Benjamin? And Jehovah said, Judah first.

19 So the children of Israel rose up in the morning and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went up into battle with Benjamin. And the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah.

21 Then the children of Benjamin came forth from Gibeah and struck down to the ground on that day twenty-two thousand men in Israel.

22 And the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and set the battle in array again in the place where they had set it in array the first day.

⁵ Or, leaders, lords. ¹² Following the Septuagint; the Hebrew text reads, tribes.

¹³ Some MSS read, children of Benjamin.

23 Now the children of Israel had gone up and wept before Jehovah into the evening; and they had inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I again approach the battle with the children of Benjamin my brother? And Jehovah had said, Go up against him.

24 And the children of Israel drew near to the children of Benjamin on the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth from Gibeah to meet them on the second day, and they struck down to the ground another eighteen thousand men among the children of Israel; all of these were ones who drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel. And they wept and sat there before Jehovah, and they fasted on that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.

27 And the children of Israel inquired of Jehovah (for the Ark of the Covenant of God was there in those days; 28 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, Shall I again go out into battle with the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And Jehovah said, Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

29 And Israel set men in ambush all around Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day and set themselves in array against Gibeah as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out to meet the people; they were drawn away from the city. And they began to strike some of the people, about thirty men of Israel, slaying them as at other times, on the highways which lead into the open field, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are stricken down before us as they were at first. And the children of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways.

33 Then all the men of Israel rose up from their places and set themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and Israel's ambush left their place at Maareh-geba.

34 And ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came against Gibeah. And the battle was fierce, but the children of Benjamin did not know that disaster was very near to them.

35 And Jehovah struck down Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day; all these were ones who drew the sword.

36 And the children of Benjamin saw that they were stricken down. Now the men of Israel had given ground to Benjamin, for they trusted in the ambush that they had set against Gibeah.

37 And the ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah; and the ambush proceeded and struck the whole city with the edge of the sword.

38 And the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city.

39 And the men of Israel turned into the battle, and Benjamin began to strike, killing about thirty men among the men of Israel; for they said, They are certainly stricken down before us as in the first battle.

40 But when the cloud began to go up from the city like a pillar of smoke, the Benjaminites looked behind them, and there was the whole city, going up in smoke to heaven.

34¹ Lit., they.

41 And the men of Israel turned; and the men of Benjamin were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was very near to them.

42 Then they turned before the men of Israel into the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and those from the cities struck them down in between.

43 They surrounded the Benjaminites, chased them, and trampled them at the resting place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the setting of the sun.

44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell; all of these were men of valor.

45 And they turned and fled into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, but the men of Israel gleaned five thousand of them; and they pursued after them as far as Gidom and struck two thousand of them.

46 So all who fell of Benjamin on that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all of these were men of valor.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled into the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they dwelt at the rock of Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel returned to the children of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city with the cattle and all that was found there; moreover all the cities that were found they set on fire.

CHAPTER 21

1 Now the men of Israel swore in Mizpah, saying, None of us shall give his daughter to a Benjaminite as a wife.

2 And the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, and they lifted up their voice and wept greatly.

3 And they said, Why, O Jehovah God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that there is one tribe missing in Israel today?

4 And in the morning the people rose early and built an altar there, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who did not come up into the congregation to Jehovah from all the tribes of Israel? For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who did not come up to Jehovah at Mizpah, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel were grieved concerning Benjamin their brother, and they said, Today a tribe has been cut down from Israel.

7 What shall we do about wives for those who remain, since we have sworn by Jehovah not to give them any of our daughters as wives?

8 And they said, Is there anyone from the tribes of Israel who did not come to Jehovah at Mizpah? Now there was no one from Jabesh-gilead who had come to the congregation at the camp.

9 For when the people were numbered, there was no one from among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 So the assembly sent twelve thousand of the valiant there and commanded them, saying, Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, including women and children.

11 And this is the thing that you shall do: Every male and every woman who has lain with a male you shall utterly destroy.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not known men by lying with a male; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which was in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole assembly sent men and spoke to the children of Benjamin, who were at the rock of Rimmon; and they proclaimed peace to them.

11' Lit., devote (i.e., to destruction).

14 And the Benjaminites returned at that time. And they gave them the women who had been kept alive from among the women of Jabesh-gilead; but there were not enough for them.

15 And the people were grieved concerning Benjamin, for Jehovah had made a breach among the tribes of Israel.

16 So the elders of the assembly said, What shall we do about wives for those who remain, since the women are destroyed from Benjamin?

17 And they said, There should be some possession for those of Benjamin who have escaped, that no tribe would be blotted out of Israel.

18 But we cannot give them any of our daughters as wives. For the children of Israel had sworn, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.

19 And they said, Behold, there is a feast of Jehovah each year in Shiloh (which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah).

20 And they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And right when you see the daughters of Shiloh coming out to dance in the dances, come out of the vineyards, and each of you shall catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh; then go into the land of Benjamin.

22 And when their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, Give them to us as a gift, for we did not take a wife in battle for each man, nor did you give them to them and thereby incur guilt for yourselves now.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so and took wives, whom they carried off, according to their number from those who danced. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed from there at that time, each man to his tribe and to his family; and they went forth from there, each man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes.

A Complete Prefigure of the Gentile Sinners' Being Brought, with Israel, God's Elect, into the Divine Inheritance through the Redemption of Christ in Their Union with Him

CHAPTER 1

I. Elimelech's Swerving from the Rest in God's Economy 1:1-2

1 Now in the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. And a man from Bethlehem in Judah went down to dwell as a sojourner in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.

2 And the man's name was Elimelech, and his wife's name was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem in Judah. And they went to the country of Moab and remained there.

II. Naomi's Returning to the Rest in God's Economy 1:3-7, 19-22

3 And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left with her two sons.

4 And they took wives for themselves from among the Moabite women. One's name was Orpah, and the second's name was Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years.

5 And both Mahlon and Chilion died, and the woman was left without her two children and her husband.

6 Then she rose up with her daughters-in-law in order to return from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that Jehovah had visited His people by giving them food.

7 So she went forth from the place where she had been, along with her two daughters-in-law; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.

III. Ruth's Choosing for Her Goal 1:8-18

8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go and return, each of you, to your mother's house. May Jehovah deal kindly with you, just as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

9 May Jehovah grant you to find rest, each of you in the house of your husband. Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice and wept.

10 And they said to her, No, we will return with you to your people.

11 And Naomi said, Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Return, my daughters, go; for I am too old to have a husband. If I said, I have hope; even if I had a husband tonight and even bore sons;

13 Would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having a husband? No, my daughters; it has been far more bitter for me than it should be for you, for the hand of Jehovah has gone forth against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

15 And she said, Your sister-in-law has now returned to her people and to her gods; return with your sister-in-law.

16 But Ruth said, Do not entreat me to leave you and turn away from following after you. For wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you dwell, I will dwell; and your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.

17 Where you die, I will die; and there will I be buried. Jehovah do so to me, and more as well, if anything but death parts me from you.

18 And when ¹Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she ceased speaking to her about it.

II. Naomi's Returning to the Rest in God's Economy (cont'd)
1:19-22

19 So the two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. And when they came to Bethlehem, all the city was stirred because of them; and the women said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said to them, Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara; for the ¹All-sufficient One has dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, but Jehovah has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, when Jehovah has ¹afflicted me and the All-sufficient One has dealt harshly with me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned from the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2

IV. Ruth's Exercising of Her Right
2:1-23

1 Now Naomi had a relative of her husband's, a man of great wealth, from Elimelech's family; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I find favor. And she said to her, Go, my daughter.

3 So she went. And she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and she happened to glean in a portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

4 And just then Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, Jehovah be with you. And they said to him, Jehovah bless you.

5 And Boaz said to his young man who was set over the reapers, Whose young woman is that?

6 And the young man who was set over the reapers answered and said, She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the country of Moab;

7 And she said, Let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. So she has come and continued since morning until now, and she has sat in the house for only a little while.

8 And Boaz said to Ruth, ¹Listen, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field, and also do not pass from here but stay close to my young women.

9 Keep your eyes on the field that they reap; follow after them. ¹I have charged my young men not to touch you. And when you are thirsty, you shall go to the vessels and drink of what the young men have drawn.

10 And she fell upon her face and bowed herself to the ground, and she said to him, Why have I found favor in your sight that you regard me, though I am a foreigner?

18¹ Lit., she. 20¹ Heb. Shaddai. So also in the next verse. 21¹ Others translate, testified against me. 8¹ Lit., Have you not heard, my daughter? 9¹ Lit., Have I not charged...?

11 And Boaz answered and said to her, All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, as well as how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people whom you did not know before.

12 May Jehovah recompense your work, and may you have a full reward from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.

13 And she said, Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me and have spoken kindly to your servant girl, though I am not like even one of your servant girls.

14 And Boaz said to her at mealtime, Come here and eat some food; and dip your morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers, and he extended some parched grain to her. And she ate and was satisfied, and she had some left.

15 And when she rose up to glean, Boaz charged his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the standing grain, and do not reproach her.

16 And also pull out some from the bundles for her, and leave it for her to glean; and do not rebuke her.

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. And she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 And she took it up and went into the city. And her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. ¹Ruth also brought out and gave to her what she had left after she had been earlier satisfied.

19 And her mother-in-law said to her, Where did you glean today, and where did you work? Blessed be he who paid such attention to you. And she told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, The name of the man whom I worked with today is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of Jehovah, whose lovingkindness has not failed for the living and for the dead. And Naomi said to her, The man is close to us; he is one of our kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He also said to me, You shall stay close by my young men who are with me until they have completed the whole harvest that I have.

22 And Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, so that others do not meet you in any other field.

23 So she stayed close to Boaz's young women and gleaned until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest, and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 3

V. Ruth's Seeking for Her Rest 3:1-18

1 And Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, My daughter, ¹I must seek some ²resting place for you, that it may go well with you.

2 And now is not Boaz our relative, with whose young women you have been? Behold, he is winnowing the barley tonight at the threshing floor.

3 Wash yourself therefore, and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes; and go down to the threshing floor. But do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

4 And when he lies down, notice the place where he lies, and go and uncover his feet, and lie down. And he will tell you what you should do.

5 And she said to her, All that you ¹say, I will do.

6 And she went down to the threshing

18¹ Lit., She. 1¹ Lit., shall I not seek...? 1² Or, security. 5¹ Some MSS read, say to me.

floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had charged her.

7 And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was merry. And he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. And she came in secretly and uncovered his feet and lay down.

8 Then at midnight the man was startled; and he turned over, and a woman was there, lying at his feet.

9 And he said, Who are you? And she said, I am Ruth, your female servant. Spread your cloak over your female servant, for you are a kinsman.

10 And he said, Blessed be you of Jehovah, my daughter. You have shown your latter kindness to be better than your first by not going after the choice young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, do not fear. All that you say, I will do for you; for all the ¹assembly of my people know that you are a worthy woman.

12 And now it is true that I am a kinsman, yet there is a kinsman closer than I.

13 Stay for the night; and in the morning if he will do the kinsman's duty, fine; let him do it. But if he is not willing to do the kinsman's duty for you, I will do it for you, as Jehovah lives. Lie down until morning.

14 And she lay at his feet until morning, then rose up before one could recognize another; for he said, Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.

15 And he said, Bring the cloak that is on you, and hold it open. And she held it open, and he measured out six measures of barley and laid it on her. And ¹he went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, How are you, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley he gave me, for he ¹said, Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.

18 And she said, Stay here, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest until he has concluded the matter today.

CHAPTER 4

VI. Ruth's Reward for God's Economy 4:1-22

1 Then Boaz went up to the gate and sat there. And just then the kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken came by. And ¹Boaz said, Turn aside and sit here, ²friend. And he turned aside and sat down.

2 And he took ten men from among the elders of the city and said, Sit here. And they sat down.

3 And he said to the kinsman, Naomi, who has returned from the country of Moab, has put up for sale the portion of the field that belonged to our brother Elimelech.

4 So I thought that I should disclose this to you and say, Buy it in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you can redeem it, redeem it; but if you cannot redeem it, tell me so that I will know; for there is no one to redeem it ahead of you, and I am after you. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then Boaz said, On the day you buy the field from Naomi's hand, ¹you must also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead man, in order to raise up the dead man's name upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, or else I will mar my 11¹ Lit., gate. 15¹ Some MSS and ancient versions read, she. 17¹ Some MSS read, said to me. 1¹ Lit., he. 1² Lit., such a one, so and so. 5¹ Following some of the ancient versions (cf. v. 10); the Hebrew text reads, you acquire it also of Ruth the Moabitess.

own inheritance. You redeem for yourself what I should redeem, for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now such was the custom formerly in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging that to establish any matter a man would draw off his sandal and give it to his neighbor; this was the way of attesting it in Israel.

8 So when the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for yourself, he drew off his sandal.

9 And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, You are witnesses today, that I buy from Naomi's hand all that was Elimelech's and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's.

10 Furthermore Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, I acquire as my own wife so that I may raise up the dead man's name upon his inheritance and the dead man's name may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today.

11 And all the people who were in the gate and the elders said, We are witnesses. May Jehovah make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, the two who built the house of Israel. And prosper in Ephrathah, and gain a name in Bethlehem.

12 And may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the seed that Jehovah gives you by this young woman.

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in unto her, and Jehovah made her conceive; and she bore a son.

14 And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be Jehovah, who has not left you today without a kinsman; and may his name be famous in Israel.

15 And he will be to you as a restorer of life and a sustainer in your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.

16 And Naomi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and she became his nurse.

17 And the women neighbors gave him a name, saying, A son has been born to Naomi; and they called his name Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

18 Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez begot Hezron, 19 And Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab,

20 And Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon, 21 And Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed, 22 And Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

FIRST SAMUEL

Subject of 1 & 2 Samuel: The Illustrations of the Way to Enjoy the God-given Good Land

CHAPTER 1

I. The History concerning Samuel

1:1—8:22

A. His Origin and Birth

1:1-20

1 Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim, from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 And he had two wives; the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other was Peninnah. Now Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up from his city year by year to worship and to sacrifice to Jehovah of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests of Jehovah, were there.

4 And when the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters.

5 But he would give a double portion to Hannah, for it was Hannah whom he loved; but Jehovah had shut up her womb.

6 And her rival provoked her bitterly to irritate her, because Jehovah had shut up her womb.

7 And so it happened year after year; when she went up to the house of Jehovah, the other provoked her this way; and she wept and would not eat.

8 And Elkanah her husband said to her, Hannah, why are you weeping, and why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?

9 Then after the eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah rose up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat at the doorpost of the temple of Jehovah.

10 And she was bitter in soul and prayed to Jehovah and wept much.

11 And she made a vow and said, O Jehovah of hosts, if You will indeed look upon the affliction of Your female servant and remember me and not forget Your female servant, but give to Your female servant a male child, then I will give him to Jehovah for all the days of his life, and no razor will come upon his head.

12 And while she continued praying a long time before Jehovah, Eli watched her mouth.

13 And Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought that she was drunk.

14 And Eli said to her, How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine from you.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord. I am a woman oppressed in spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before Jehovah.

16 Do not take your female servant for a worthless woman; for out of the greatness of my anxiety and provocation I have been speaking all this time.

17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant 7¹ Lit., she. 9¹ Some MSS read house. 16¹ Lit., daughter of Belial.

your request that you have requested from Him.

18 And she said, Let your servant find favor in your sight. And the woman went her way; and she ate, and her countenance was sad no more.

19 And they rose up early in the morning and worshipped before Jehovah; and they returned and came to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and Jehovah remembered her.

20 And in due time Hannah conceived and bore a son; and she called his name Samuel, For, she said, I asked for him of Jehovah.

B. His Youth
1:21—2:11

21 And the man Elkanah went up with all his house to offer the yearly sacrifice to Jehovah and his vow.

22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, When the child is weaned, then I will bring him up, so that he may appear before Jehovah and stay there forever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said to her, Do what is good in your sight; stay until you have weaned him. Only, may Jehovah establish His word. So the woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him.

24 And as soon as she weaned him, she brought him up with her, along with three bulls and one ephah of flour and a skin of wine; and she brought him to the house of Jehovah in Shiloh, although the child was young.

25 And they slaughtered the bull and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here by you, praying to Jehovah.

27 It was for this child that I prayed, and Jehovah has granted me my request that I requested from Him.

28 Therefore I, for my part, have ¹lent him to Jehovah; all the days that he lives, he is lent to Jehovah. And he worshipped Jehovah there.

CHAPTER 2

- 1 And Hannah prayed and said:
My heart exults in Jehovah;
My horn is exalted in Jehovah;
My mouth is enlarged against my enemies,
Because I rejoice in Your salvation.
- 2 There is none holy like Jehovah,
For there is none besides You;
Nor is there a rock like our God.
- 3 Talk no more so very proudly;
Do not let arrogance go forth from your mouth;
For Jehovah is a God of knowledge,
¹And actions are weighed by Him.
- 4 The bows of the mighty men are broken,
And those who stumbled are girded with strength.
- 5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for food,
And those who were hungry are not so any longer.
She who was barren has borne seven,
And she who had many children languishes.
- 6 Jehovah kills and makes alive;
He brings down to Sheol and brings up.
- 7 Jehovah makes poor and makes rich;
He makes low and also lifts up.
- 8 He raises the poor from the dust,
From the ash heap He lifts the needy,
That He may seat them with princes
And cause them to inherit the throne of glory.

28¹ Lit., made him a request to Jehovah.

3¹ Some MSS read, Though actions are not weighed.

For the pillars of the earth are Jehovah's,

And He has set the world upon
them.

9 He will keep the feet of His faithful ones,

But the wicked will be silenced in darkness;

For not by strength shall any man prevail.

10 Those who strive with Jehovah will be shattered;

Against them He will thunder in heaven.

Jehovah will judge the ends of the earth;

And He will give strength to His king

And exalt the horn of His anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child ministered to Jehovah before Eli the priest.

C. His Relationship with the Stale and Waning Aaronic Priesthood
2:12—7:17

1. Observing the Deterioration of the Degraded Aaronic Priesthood
2:12-26

12 Now the sons of Eli were ¹worthless men; they did not know Jehovah,

13 Nor did they regard the priests' rightful due with the people. When any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's attendant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand while the flesh was boiling,

14 And he would thrust it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or pot; all that the fork brought up, the priest took with it.
Thus they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

15 Indeed before they burned the fat, the priest's attendant would come and say to the man sacrificing, Give some flesh to roast for the priest, for he will not accept boiled flesh from you, but only raw.

16 And if the man said to him, Let them burn up the fat first, then take as much as your soul desires; he would say, No, but you shall give it now; otherwise, I will take it by force.

17 And the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah, for the men despised the offering of Jehovah.

18 And Samuel ministered before Jehovah, as a boy wearing a linen ephod.

19 And his mother would make him a little robe and bring it up to him yearly when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, May Jehovah give you seed by this woman in place of the one she requested of Jehovah; and they would go back to their place.

21 ¹And Jehovah visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before Jehovah.

22 Now Eli was very old, and he heard of all that his sons did to all Israel and how they lay with the women who were engaged in service at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

23 And he said to them, Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all this people.

24 No, my sons; for it is not a good report ¹that I hear Jehovah's people spreading.

25 If one man sins against another man,
God will arbitrate for him; but if a man sins against Jehovah, who will ¹arbitrate for him? But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for Jehovah was pleased to kill them.

12' Lit., sons of Belial. 21' Many MSS read, For. 24' Or, that I hear; you are making Jehovah's people transgress. 25' Or, pray.

26 And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favor both with Jehovah and with men.

2. Realizing God's Severe Judgment on the House of Eli
2:27—3:21

27 And a man of God came to Eli and said to him, Thus says Jehovah, 'I revealed Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt ²as slaves to Pharaoh's house.

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, and to wear the ephod before Me. And I gave the house of your father all the offerings by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Why then do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering, which I have commanded in My habitation, and honor your sons more than Me by making yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?

30 Therefore Jehovah the God of Israel declares, I surely said that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever; but now Jehovah declares, Far be it from Me; for those who honor Me I will honor, and those who spurn Me will be lightly esteemed.

31 The days are now coming when I will cut off your arm and the arm of the house of your father, so that there will not be an old man in your house.

32 And you shall see the distress of My habitation in the midst of all the good that 'I will do to Israel, and there shall not be an old man in your house forever.

33 And that man of yours whom I do not cut off from My altar shall be left to consume your eyes and to grieve your soul, and all the increase of your house shall die ¹by the swords of men.

34 And this will be the sign to you, which will come upon your two sons, upon Hophni and Phinehas: In one day both of them shall die.

35 And I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest, who will do according to what is in My heart and in My mind; and I will build him a sure house; and he will go before My anointed continually.

36 And everyone who is left of your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and for a loaf of bread, and will say, Please put me in one of the priests' offices that I may eat a morsel of bread.

CHAPTER 3

1 And the boy Samuel ministered to Jehovah before Eli. Now the word of Jehovah was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

2 And at that time Eli lay in his place, and his eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see.

3 And the lamp of God had not yet gone out. And Samuel lay in the temple of Jehovah, where the Ark of God was.

4 Then Jehovah called to Samuel. And he said, Here I am.

5 And he ran to Eli and said, Here I am, for you called me. And he said, I did not call. Go back and lie down. And he went and lay down.

6 And Jehovah called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel rose up and went to Eli and said, Here I am, for you called me. And he said, I did not call, my son. Go back and lie down.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know Jehovah, and the word of Jehovah had not yet been revealed to him.

8 Then Jehovah called Samuel again, the third time. And he rose up and went to Eli and said, Here I am, for you called me. Then Eli perceived that it was Jehovah calling the boy.

27¹ Lit., Did I reveal. 27² Some MSS omit the words as slaves. 32¹ Lit., He. 33¹ Some MSS read, as men.

9 And Eli said to Samuel, Go and lie down, and if He calls you, you shall say, Speak, O Jehovah; for Your servant is listening. And Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Then Jehovah came and stood by and called as at the other times, Samuel! Samuel! And Samuel said, Speak, for Your servant is listening.

11 And Jehovah said to Samuel, I am about to do something in Israel which will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle.

12 On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

13 For I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever because of the iniquity which he knew; for his sons brought the curse upon themselves, and he did not restrain them.

14 And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of the house of Eli shall not be expiated by sacrifice or by offering forever.

15 And Samuel lay down until the morning, when he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah. And Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

16 But Eli called Samuel and said, Samuel my son. And he said, Here I am.

17 And he said, What was the word that He spoke to you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you, and even more, if you hide from me any of the word which He spoke to you.

18 So Samuel told him everything and did not hide anything from him. And he said, He is Jehovah; let Him do what is good in His sight.

19 And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, knew that Samuel had been established as a prophet of Jehovah.

21 And Jehovah continued to appear in Shiloh, for Jehovah revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 4

3. Knowing the Misfortune of the Ark of God under the Superstition of the Degraded and Rotten Aaronic Priesthood
4:1—7:2

1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. And Israel went forth against the Philistines in battle; and they encamped near Eben-ezer, and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines arrayed themselves against Israel; and when the battle spread, Israel was struck down before the Philistines. And they slew about four thousand men of the array in the field.

3 And when the people came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why has Jehovah struck us down today before the Philistines? Let us take for ourselves the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah from Shiloh that it may come into our midst, and thus save us from the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they took up from there the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah of hosts who is enthroned between the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of God.

5 And when the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, and the earth resounded.

6 And the Philistines heard the sound of the shout and said, What does the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean? Then they found out that the Ark of Jehovah had come into their camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God has come into their camp. And they said, Woe to us! For there has never been such a thing as this before.

8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with every kind of plague in the wilderness.

9 Be strong and be men, O Philistines, lest you become servants to the Hebrews as they have been servants to you. Be men then and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and they struck Israel; and every man fled to his tent. And there was a very great slaughter, for thirty thousand foot soldiers of Israel fell.

11 And the Ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

12 And a man of Benjamin ran from the array and came to Shiloh on the same day, with his clothes torn and earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, there was Eli, sitting on his seat by the roadside watching; for his heart trembled for the Ark of God. And when the man came to tell the news to the city, the whole city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the sound of the cry, he said, What does this sound of commotion mean? And the man hurried and came and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, and he could not see.

16 And the man said to Eli, I am he who has come from the array, and I fled from the array today. And he said, How did the matter go, my son?

17 And he who brought the news answered and said, Israel fled before the Philistines, and there was a great slaughter among the people; and even your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead; and the Ark of God has been taken.

18 And when he mentioned the Ark of God, ¹Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate. And he broke his neck and died, for he was an old man and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, about to deliver; and when she heard the report that the Ark of God had been taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she bowed down and gave birth, for her pains came upon her.

20 And around the time that she died, the women who stood around her said, Do not fear, for you have borne a son. But she did not answer or pay attention.

21 And she named the child Ichabod, ¹meaning, The glory has departed from Israel, because the Ark of God had been taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory has departed from Israel, for the Ark of God has been taken.

CHAPTER 5

1 When the Philistines took the Ark of God, they brought it from Eben-ezer to Ashdod.

2 And the Philistines took the Ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon, and they set it next to Dagon.

3 And when the Ashdodites arose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face to the ground, before the Ark of Jehovah. And they took Dagon and put him back in his place.

4 And when they arose early in the morning of the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face to the ground, before the Ark of Jehovah. And Dagon's head and the palms of his hands were cut off, lying on the threshold; ¹only Dagon's trunk was left to him.

18¹ Lit., he. 21¹ Or, saying. 4¹ Following the ancient versions; the Hebrew reads, only Dagon was left to him.

5 Because of this, neither the priests of Dagon nor any who enter the house of Dagon tread upon Dagon's threshold in Ashdod to this day.

6 But the hand of Jehovah was heavy upon the Ashdodites, and He devastated them and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and its borders.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The Ark of the God of Israel cannot stay with us, for His hand is hard on us and on Dagon our god.

8 Therefore they sent for and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to themselves, and they said, What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel? And they said, Let the Ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath. And they brought the Ark of the God of Israel there.

9 Then after they brought it there, the hand of Jehovah was against the city, causing a very great panic. And He struck the men of the city, from small to great; and they broke out with tumors.

10 Then they sent the Ark of God to Ekron. But when the Ark of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought the Ark of the God of Israel around to us to kill us and our people.

11 And they sent for and gathered all the princes of the Philistines, and they said, Send away the Ark of the God of Israel; and let it return to its place, so that it does not kill us and our people. For the panic of death was throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there, 12 And the men who did not die were stricken with tumors. And the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6

1 Now the Ark of Jehovah was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, What shall we do with the Ark of Jehovah? Make known to us how we should send it forth to its place.

3 And they said, If you send away the Ark of the God of Israel, do not send it away empty, but be sure to return Him a trespass offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be made known to you why His hand has not turned away from you.

4 And they said, What is the trespass offering that we should return to Him? And they said, Five golden tumors and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague was upon you all and upon your lords.

5 Therefore you shall make images of your tumors and images of your mice that devastate the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand on you and your gods and your land.

6 Why then should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had dealt severely with them, did they not let the ¹people go, and they went?

7 So now take and prepare a new cart and two milch cows on which the yoke has never come, and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home, away from them.

8 And take the Ark of Jehovah and put it on the cart; and in a box by the side of it, place the articles of gold which you are returning to Him as a trespass offering; and send it away that it may go.

9 Then watch: If it goes up toward its own border at Beth-shemesh, it is He who has done us this great harm. But if it does not, we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.

10 And the men did so and took two milch cows and tied them to the cart and shut up their calves at home.

6¹ Lit., them.

11 And they put the Ark of Jehovah on the cart with the box and the gold mice and the images of their ¹tumors.

12 And the cows went straight in the way toward Beth-shemesh; they went on one road, lowing as they went; and they did not turn to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And when they lifted up their eyes and saw the Ark, they rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite and stood still there. And there was a great stone there. And they split up the wood of the cart and offered up the cows as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

15 Then the Levites took down the Ark of Jehovah and the box that was with it, in which were the articles of gold; and they placed them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-shemesh offered up burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to Jehovah.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines saw this, they returned to Ekron that day.

17 And these are the gold tumors that the Philistines returned to Jehovah as a trespass offering: for Ashdod, one; for Gaza, one; for Ashkelon, one; for Gath, one; for Ekron, one;

18 And the gold mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines that belonged to the five lords, both of fortified cities and country villages, as far as the ¹great stone on which they rested the Ark of Jehovah, which is there to this day, in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite.

19 And He struck the men of Beth-shemesh because they looked into the Ark of Jehovah; and He struck seventy men ¹among the people. And the people mourned because Jehovah struck the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who can stand before Jehovah, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have returned the Ark of Jehovah; come down and take it up to you.

CHAPTER 7

1 And the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the Ark of Jehovah and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill, and they consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the Ark of Jehovah.

2 And it was a long time from the day that the Ark began to abide in Kiriath-jearim, for it was twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after Jehovah.

4. Serving as a Priest and as a Judge over Israel
7:3-17

3 Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, If you are returning with all your heart to Jehovah, remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from your midst, and direct your heart to Jehovah and serve only Him; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served only Jehovah.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Jehovah for you.

6 And they gathered at Mizpah and drew water and poured it out before Jehovah, and they fasted that day. And they said there, We have sinned against Jehovah. And Samuel judged the children of Israel at Mizpah.

11' Some MSS read, hemorrhoids. So also in v. 17. 18' Some MSS read, great Abel. 19' Some MSS add, and fifty thousand men.

7 Now when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel gathered themselves at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Do not stop crying to Jehovah our God for us, so that He will save us from the hand of the Philistines.

9 And Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah. And Samuel cried out to Jehovah for Israel, and Jehovah answered him.

10 And while Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines approached for battle against Israel. And Jehovah thundered with a great voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into a panic; and they were struck down before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and they struck them as far as below Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen; and he called its name Eben-ezer and said, Thus far Jehovah has helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they no longer came into the territory of Israel. And the hand of Jehovah was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were returned to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel rescued their territory from the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went year by year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah, and he judged Israel in all those places.

17 Then he would return to Ramah, for his house was there. And he judged Israel there and built an altar to Jehovah there.

CHAPTER 8

D. The Ending of Samuel's Ministry 8:1-22

1 Now when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 And the name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second was Abijah; they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 But his sons did not follow in his ways, but turned aside after unjust gain and took bribes and perverted justice.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.

5 And they said to him, You are now old, and your sons do not follow in your ways. Appoint now for us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 But the matter displeased Samuel when they said, Give us a king to judge us. Then Samuel prayed to Jehovah.

7 And Jehovah said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people according to all that they have said to you; for it is not you whom they have rejected, but they have rejected Me from being King over them.

8 Like all the deeds that they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt to this very day by forsaking Me and serving other gods, so they do also to you.

9 Now therefore listen to their voice, but you shall solemnly warn them and declare to them the practice of the king who will reign over them.

10 So Samuel spoke all the words of Jehovah to the people, who had asked him for a king.

11 And he said, This will be the practice of the king who will reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for himself to his chariots and as his horsemen, and they will run before his chariots;

12 And he will appoint them for himself as captains of thousands and as captains of fifties, and to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war and the equipment for his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

14 And he will take your best fields and vineyards and olive groves, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will exact a tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give it to his eunuchs and servants.

16 And he will take your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys, and put them to his work.

17 He will exact a tenth of your flocks, and you will be his servants.

18 And you will cry out in that day on account of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but Jehovah will not answer you in that day.

19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, No; but there will be a king over us, 20 That we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he spoke them in the hearing of Jehovah.

22 Then Jehovah said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and appoint a king to them. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Go, each one to his city.

CHAPTER 9

II. The History concerning Saul 9:1—15:35

A. Saul's Origin 9:1-2

1 Now there was a man from Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjaminite, a man of ¹wealth.

2 And he had a son whose name was Saul, a ¹choice and handsome man; and there was not a man among the children of Israel more handsome than he; from his shoulders and up he was taller than all the people.

B. God's Anointing Saul as King 9:3—10:27

3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost; and Kish said to Saul his son, Take with you one of the servants, and rise up and go to search for the donkeys.

4 And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and he passed through the land of Shalishah; but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come, and let us return; otherwise, my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and will worry about us.

6 But he said to him, There is a man of God here in this city, and he is a man held in honor; all that he says happens without fail. Let us now go there; perhaps he will tell us about our journey that we have set out on.

7 And Saul said to his servant, But if we go, what will we bring the man? For the food is gone from our bags, and there is no present to bring the man of God. What do we have?

8 And the servant answered Saul again and said, Here in my hand is a quarter shekel of silver, and I can give it to the man of God; then he will tell us our way.

9 (Formerly in Israel a man spoke this way when he went to inquire of God, Come, and let us go to the seer; for today's prophet was formerly called a seer.)

10 Then Saul said to his servant, Well said; come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 As they went up the ascent into the city, they found some girls coming out to draw water; and they said to them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them and said, He is; there he is ahead of you. Hurry now; for he has just come to the city today, because the people have a sacrifice at the high place today.

13 Right when you enter the city, you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he is the one who blesses the sacrifice. Right after that, those who have been invited will eat. Go up now then, for you will find him right away.

14 So they went up into the city. As they came into the midst of the city, there came Samuel out toward them, going up to the high place.

15 Now Jehovah had revealed this to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, 16 At about this time tomorrow I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him ruler over My people Israel; and he will save My people from the hand of the Philistines, for I have looked upon My people because their cry has come to Me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah declared to him, Here is the man of whom I spoke to you. This man shall rule over My people.

18 And Saul approached Samuel in the gate and said, Tell me, please, where is the seer's house?

19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will send you away, and I will tell you all that is in your heart.

20 And as for your donkeys that have now been lost three days, do not even consider them; for they have been found. And for whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am I not a Benjaminite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me in this way?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them to the hall, and put them in the chief place among those who had been invited; and there were about thirty men.

23 And Samuel said to the cook, Bring the portion that I gave, concerning which I said to you, Set it by you.

24 And the cook took up the thigh and what was attached to it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Here is what has been reserved. Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you for the appointed time, when I said I was inviting the people. So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25 And when they came down from the high place to the city, he spoke with Saul upon the roof.

26 And they rose early; and around the break of dawn Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, Rise up, and I will send you away. So Saul rose up, and they both went outside, he and Samuel.

27 As they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Tell the servant to go on ahead of us—and the servant went on—but you stand here now, and I will let you hear the word of God.

CHAPTER 10

1 Then Samuel took the vial of oil and poured it upon his head, and he kissed him and said, 'Jehovah anoints you ruler over His inheritance.

2 When you depart from me today, you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, The donkeys that you went to look for have been found; and now your father has stopped worrying about the donkeys and is worried about you, saying, What shall I do about my son?

3 Then you will go on further from there and come to the terebinth of Tabor; and three men will meet you there, going up to God at Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

4 And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, and you will take them from their hand.

5 After that you will come to the ¹hill of God, where the Philistines' garrison is. And as you come to the city there, you will encounter a group of prophets coming down from the high place, preceded by harp and tambourine and pipe and lyre; and they will be prophesying.

6 And the Spirit of Jehovah will rush upon you; and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man.

7 And when these signs happen to you, do as you find occasion, for God is with you.

8 And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you to offer up burnt offerings and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. You shall wait seven days, until I come to you; then I will make known to you what you shall do.

9 And so when he turned his back to depart from Samuel, God gave him another heart. And all these signs happened that day.

10 And when they came there to the ¹hill, there was the group of prophets, coming to meet him. And the Spirit of God rushed upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And when all who had known him previously saw that now he was prophesying with the prophets, the people said one to another, What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And someone from there answered and said, And who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Saul's uncle said to him and his servant, Where did you go? And he said, To look for the donkeys; and when we saw that they were not to be found, we went to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me then what Samuel said to you.

16 And Saul said to his uncle, He told us clearly that the donkeys had been found. But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom that Samuel had spoken of.

17 Then Samuel gathered the people together to Jehovah at Mizpah.

18 And he said to the children of Israel, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.

19 But today you have rejected your God, who Himself saved you from all your calamities and distresses, and have said, 'No; but set a king over us. And now present yourselves before Jehovah according to your tribes and according to your thousands.

¹ Lit., Has not Jehovah anointed...? ⁵ Or, Gibeah-haelohim. ¹⁰ Or, Gibeah. ¹⁹ Some MSS read, to Him.

20 So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 And he brought the tribe of Benjamin near according to its families, and the family of Matri was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked of Jehovah again, Is there yet another man coming here? And Jehovah said, There he is; he has hidden himself among the baggage.

23 And they ran and took him from there. And when he stood up among the people, he was taller than all the people from his shoulders and up.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See him whom Jehovah has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people. And all the people shouted and said, Long live the king!

25 Then Samuel told the people the practice of the kingdom, and he wrote it in a book and laid it before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 And Saul also went to his house at Gibeah, and the men of valor, whose hearts God had touched, went with him;

27 But some ¹worthless men said, How can this man save us? And they despised him and brought him no present. But he kept silent.

CHAPTER 11

C. Saul's Conquest of the Ammonites 11:1-13

1 Then Nahash the Ammonite went up and encamped against Jabesh-gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you.

2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, On this condition I will make a treaty with you, that all your right eyes be gouged out; and I will make it a reproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said to him, Give us seven days' respite that we may send messengers throughout all the territory of Israel. And if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you.

4 Then the messengers went to Gibeah of Saul, and they spoke these words in the hearing of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 And Saul was just coming from the field after the oxen, and Saul said, What is wrong with the people that they weep so? And they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the Spirit of God rushed upon Saul as he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen and cut them into pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by means of the messengers, saying, Whoever does not come forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the dread of Jehovah fell upon the people, and they came forth as one man.

8 And he mustered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah were thirty thousand.

9 And they said to the messengers who had come, Thus shall you say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow you will have deliverance by the time the sun is hot. So the messengers went and told this to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 And the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us all that seems good in your sight.

11 And on the next day Saul put the people into three companies, and they came into the midst of the camp at the morning watch. And they struck Ammon until the day was hot; and those who remained were so scattered that not two of them remained together.

12 And the people said to Samuel, Who said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men that we may put them to death.

13 But Saul said, No man shall be put to death on this day, for today Jehovah has accomplished deliverance in Israel.

D. Samuel's Reminder to Israel
11:14—12:25

14 Then Samuel said to the people, Come and let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingdom.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal. And there they made Saul king before Jehovah in Gilgal, and there they sacrificed peace offerings before Jehovah, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER 12

1 And Samuel said to all Israel, I have now listened to your voice according to all that you have said to me, and I have placed a king over you.

2 And now, here is the king who goes before you. But I am old and gray, and my sons are here with you, and I have gone before you from my youth until this day.

3 Here I am; testify against me before Jehovah and before His anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe in order to blind my eyes with it? Then I will restore it to you.

4 And they said, You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from anyone's hand.

5 And he said to them, Jehovah is Witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they said, He is witness.

6 And Samuel said to the people, It is Jehovah who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand here, that I may plead with you before Jehovah concerning all the righteous acts of Jehovah, which He did to you and to your fathers.

8 When Jacob went to Egypt, and your fathers cried out to Jehovah, Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron; and they brought your fathers out from Egypt and caused them to dwell in this place.

9 But they forgot Jehovah their God, and He sold them into the hand of Sisera, the captain of Hazor's army, and into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

10 Then they cried out to Jehovah and said, We have sinned, for we have forsaken Jehovah and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; but deliver us now from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.

11 And Jehovah sent Jerubbaal and ¹Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel, and He delivered you from the hand of your enemies all around; and you dwelt securely.

12 And when you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, No; but a king will reign over us, though Jehovah your God was your King.

13 Now therefore here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have asked for. See then, Jehovah has set a king over you.

14 If you fear Jehovah and serve Him and listen to His voice and not rebel against the commandment of Jehovah, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow Jehovah your God, fine.

11' The Septuagint and other ancient versions read, Barak.

15 But if you do not listen to the voice of Jehovah, but rebel against the commandment of Jehovah, then the hand of Jehovah will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 Now therefore stand here and see this great thing that Jehovah will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to Jehovah, that He send thunder and rain; and you will know and see that your wickedness which you have done in the sight of Jehovah by asking for a king for yourselves is great.

18 And Samuel called to Jehovah, and Jehovah sent thunder and rain on that day. And all the people feared Jehovah and Samuel greatly.

19 Then all the people said to Samuel, Pray to Jehovah your God for your servants that we would not die, for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking for a king for ourselves.

20 And Samuel said to the people, Do not be afraid. You have done all this evil, yet do not turn away from following Jehovah, but serve Jehovah with all your heart.

21 And do not turn away, for your turning away would be after ¹vain idols, which cannot profit or deliver you, for they are vanity.

22 For because of His great name Jehovah will not forsake His people, for Jehovah has been pleased to make you a people for Himself.

23 Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I would sin against Jehovah by ceasing to pray for you, but I will instruct you in the good and right way.

24 Only, fear Jehovah and serve Him in truth with all your heart, for consider what great things He has done for you.

25 But if you still do wickedly, both you and your king will be consumed.

CHAPTER 13

E. Saul's Conquest of the Philistines 13:1—14:52

1 Saul ¹was... years old when he began to reign; and he reigned over Israel two years.

2 And Saul chose three thousand men from Israel for himself; and two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And the rest of the people he sent away, every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear!

4 And when all Israel heard that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines, the people gathered themselves behind Saul at Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines assembled themselves for battle with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen and people like the sand that is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and encamped in Michmash, east of Bethaven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in distress (for the people were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in thickets and among rocks and in cellars and in pits.

7 And some Hebrews crossed over the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead; but Saul was still in Gilgal, and all the people trembled behind him.

8 And he waited for seven days, until the time appointed by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal. And the people scattered from him.

21¹ Lit., vanity. 1¹ The Hebrew text lacks the exact age of Saul; the Septuagint lacks the entire verse.

9 Then Saul said, Bring the burnt offering and the peace offerings to me. And he offered up the burnt offering.

10 And just as he finished offering up the burnt offering, there came Samuel; and Saul went out to meet him and greet him.

11 And Samuel said, What have you done? And Saul said, When I saw that the people were scattered from me and that you had not come at the appointed time and that the Philistines assembled themselves at Michmash, 12 I said, Now the Philistines will come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of Jehovah. Therefore I forced myself to offer up the burnt offering.

13 Then Samuel said to Saul, You have acted foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of Jehovah your God, which He commanded you. For now Jehovah would have established your kingdom over Israel forever;

14 But now your kingdom will not continue. Jehovah has sought a man according to His heart for Himself, and Jehovah has appointed him ruler over His people; for you have not kept that which Jehovah commanded you.

15 Then Samuel rose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul mustered the people who were with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his son and the people who were with them dwelt in Geba of Benjamin, and the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 And the raiders came out from the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual;

18 And another company turned toward

Beth-horon; and another company turned toward the border that overlooks the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines had said, Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears;

20 Therefore all Israel would go down to the Philistines so that each might sharpen his plowshare or his mattock or his ax or his ¹hoe.

21 ¹And the price was two-thirds of a shekel for plowshares and for mattocks and for three-pronged forks and for axes and for setting the goads.

22 So on the day of the battle there was not a sword or spear to be found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and with Jonathan, but such were found with Saul and Jonathan his son.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

CHAPTER 14

1 Now one day Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who carried his armor, Come and let us cross over to the garrison of the Philistines that is on the other side; but he did not tell his father.

2 And Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is in Migron; and the people with him were about six hundred men,

3 Including Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of Jehovah in Shiloh, wearing an ephod; and the people did not know that Jonathan went.

4 And in the pass by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the garrison of the Philistines, there was a rocky crag on one side, and another rocky crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other was Seneh.

20' Lit., plowshare. 21' The form and meaning of the Hebrew text of this verse is uncertain.

5 The one crag rose up on the north before Michmash; and the other, on the south before Geba.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, Come and let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. Perhaps Jehovah will act on our behalf, for there is no constraint on Jehovah to save by many or by few.

7 And his armor bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart. Go to it; I am here with you according to your heart.

8 And Jonathan said, Now we will cross over to the men and disclose ourselves to them.

9 If they say this to us, Wait until we come to you; then we will stand in our place and not go up to them.

10 But if they say this, Come up to us; then we will go up, for Jehovah will have delivered them into our hand, and this will be the sign of it to us.

11 And both of them disclosed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, The Hebrews are now coming out of the holes that they hid themselves in.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer and said, Come up to us, and we will show you something. Then Jonathan said to his armor bearer, Come up after me, for Jehovah has delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan went up on his hands and feet with his armor bearer behind him; and the Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer went behind him killing them.

14 And that first slaughter that Jonathan and his armor bearer made was of about twenty men in half a furrow of an acre of land.

15 And there was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; even the garrison and the raiders were in a panic; and the earth quaked. And there came to be a ¹very great panic.

16 And Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and the multitude was just then melting away, and they were going here and there.

17 Then Saul said to the people who were with him, Call a muster, and see who has gone from us. And they called a muster, and Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said to Ahijah, Bring the ¹Ark of God here; for the ¹Ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 And while Saul spoke to the priest, the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines continued to increase. Then Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand.

20 And Saul and all the people who were with him gathered together and went into the battle. And each man's sword was against his companion; the tumult was very great.

21 And the Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and who had gone up with them into the camp all around, they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise, when all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, even they followed them closely in the battle.

23 Thus Jehovah saved Israel that day, and the battle crossed over beyond Beth-aven.

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had laid an oath on the people, saying, Cursed be the man who eats any food before the evening, when I am avenged of my enemies. So none of the people even tasted food.

13¹ Lit., they. 15¹ Lit., panic of God. 18¹ The Septuagint reads, ephod.

25 And all those from the land came upon a honeycomb, and there was honey on the surface of the ground.

26 And when the people came to the honeycomb, there was honey flowing; but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people were afraid of the oath.

27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the people with the oath; and he put forth the end of his staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and he put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

28 Then someone from among the people responded and said, Your father sternly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man who eats any food today; and so the people are faint.

29 Then Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land. Look how my eyes lit up because I tasted a bit of this honey.

30 How much more if today the people had eaten up the spoil from their enemies, which they found, for now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great.

31 Now they had struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon, and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil; and they took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood.

33 And it was reported to Saul, saying, The people are now sinning against Jehovah by eating the spoil with the blood. And he said, You have dealt treacherously. Roll a large stone to me today.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, Let each man bring his ox here to me, and each his sheep; and slay them here and eat; and do not sin against Jehovah by eating these things with the blood. And all the people brought their oxen ¹with them there that night and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar to Jehovah; it was the first altar that he built to Jehovah.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man among them. And they said, Do all that is good in your sight. But the priest said, Let us draw near to God here.

37 And Saul inquired of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel? But He did not answer him that day.

38 Then Saul said, Come here, all you chiefs of the people; and find out how this sin has happened today.

39 For as Jehovah lives, who saves Israel, even if it is with Jonathan my son, he shall surely be put to death. But there was no one among all the people who answered him.

40 And he said to all Israel, You shall be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son shall be on the other side. And the people said to Saul, Do what is good in your sight.

41 Then Saul said to Jehovah the God of Israel, Show perfectly. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him and said, I did indeed taste a bit of honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am; I must die.

44 And Saul said, God do so ¹to me and more so, for you shall surely die, Jonathan.

45 Then the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has executed this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As Jehovah lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground; for he has worked with God this day. So the people ¹rescued Jonathan so that he did not die.

34¹ Lit., in their hand. 44¹ Some MSS omit, to me.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies all around, against Moab and against the children of Ammon and against Edom and against the kings of Zobah and against the Philistines. And wherever he turned, he did them harm.

48 And he performed valiantly and struck the Amalekites and delivered Israel from the hand of those who had plundered them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi and Malchi-shua. And the names of his two daughters were these: The name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger was Michal.

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was Saul's father; and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was severe war against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man or any valiant man, he took him for himself.

CHAPTER 15

F. Saul's Disobedience in His Conquest of the Amalekites

15:1-35

1 And Samuel said to Saul, Jehovah sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the words of Jehovah.

2 Thus says Jehovah of hosts, I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they set themselves against them in the way as they came up out of Egypt.

3 Go now and strike the Amalekites; and ¹utterly destroy all that they have, and do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, oxen and sheep, camel and donkey.

4 And Saul summoned the people and mustered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to the city of the Amalekites and set an ambush in the river valley.

6 And Saul said to the Kenites, Go, depart; go down from among the Amalekites; otherwise, I will destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. And the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 Then Saul struck the Amalekites from Havilah as you go toward Shur, which is opposite Egypt.

8 And he captured Agag the king of the Amalekites alive and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings, and the lambs and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them; but everything that was despised and worthless, this they utterly destroyed.

10 And the word of Jehovah came to Samuel, saying,

11 I repent that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following Me and has not fulfilled My words. And Samuel was angry, and he cried to Jehovah all night long.

12 Then Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning. And it was told Samuel, saying, Saul went to Carmel and has now set up a monument for himself, and he has returned and passed on down to Gilgal.

45' Or, ransomed. 3' Lit., devote (i.e., to destruction). So throughout this chapter.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, Blessed are you of Jehovah! I have fulfilled the word of Jehovah.

14 And Samuel said, What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears and the lowing of oxen that I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have been brought from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen to sacrifice to Jehovah your God, and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said to Saul, Stop, and I will tell you what Jehovah spoke to me last night. And he said to him, Speak.

17 And Samuel said, Though you are small in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? And Jehovah has anointed you king over Israel.

18 And Jehovah sent you on a journey and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.

19 Why then did you not obey the voice of Jehovah, but flew upon the spoil and did that which was evil in the sight of Jehovah?

20 And Saul said to Samuel, I surely did obey the voice of Jehovah, and I went on the journey that Jehovah sent me on. And I have brought Agag the king of the Amalekites and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But of the spoil the people took sheep and oxen, the chief of those things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to Jehovah your God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said,
Does Jehovah delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices
As much as in obeying the voice of Jehovah?
Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice,
And to heed, than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination,
And insubordination is like idolatry and teraphim.
Because you have rejected the word of Jehovah,
He has also rejected you from being king.

24 And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of Jehovah and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore pardon my sin, I beg you, and return with me so that I may worship Jehovah.

26 But Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah has rejected you from being king over Israel.

27 And when Samuel turned around to go, ¹Saul seized the corner of his cloak, and it tore.

28 And Samuel said to him, Jehovah has torn the kingdom of Israel away from you today and has given it to an associate of yours, who is better than you.

29 Moreover the Eminence of Israel does not lie nor repent, for He is not a man that He should repent.

30 Then ¹Saul said, I have sinned. Honor me now, I beg you, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me so that I may worship Jehovah your God.

31 So Samuel returned after Saul, and Saul worshipped Jehovah.

32 Then Samuel said, Bring Agag the king of the Amalekites near to me. And Agag came to him cheerfully, for Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death has turned.

33 And Samuel said, Just as your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And 27¹ Lit., he. 30¹ Lit., he.

Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before Jehovah in Gilgal.

34 And Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel never again saw Saul unto the day of his death, though Samuel mourned for Saul. And Jehovah repented that He had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

III. The History concerning David 1 Sam. 16:1—2 Sam. 24:25

A. Prepared by God to Be a Man according to the Heart of God 1 Sam. 16:1—2 Sam. 1:27

1. Chosen by God 16:1-10

1 And Jehovah said to Samuel, How long will you mourn for Saul, though I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have ¹selected for Myself a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me. And Jehovah said, Take a heifer with you, and say, I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah.

3 Then call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will make known to you what you shall do. And you shall anoint for Me the one whom I name to you.

4 So Samuel did what Jehovah said and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him, and they said, Do you come peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably. I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah. Sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And when they came, he saw Eliab and said, Surely Jehovah's anointed is now before Him.

7 But Jehovah said to Samuel, Do not regard his appearance and the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For it is not how man sees that matters; for man looks on the outward appearance, but Jehovah looks on the heart.

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and had him pass before Samuel; and ¹Samuel said, Jehovah has not chosen this one either.

9 And Jesse had Shammah pass by; and he said, Jehovah has not chosen this one either.

10 And Jesse had seven of his sons pass before Samuel; and Samuel said to Jesse, Jehovah has not chosen these.

2. Trained by God in Humility 16:11

11 Then Samuel said to Jesse, Are these all the young men you have? And he said, There is still the youngest, but he is now tending the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send for him, and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.

3. Anointed 16:12-23

12 So he sent for him and brought him in. Now he was ruddy and had beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And Jehovah said, Arise; anoint him, for this is he.

13 And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers, and the Spirit of Jehovah rushed upon David from that day forward. Then Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

14 And the Spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Jehovah terrorized him.

15 And Saul's servants said to him, See now, an evil spirit from God is terrorizing you.

16 Let our lord speak. Your servants are before you; they will seek out a man who is skilled in playing the lyre. And when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it by hand, and you will be well.

17 And Saul said to his servants, Select for me a man who can play well, and bring him to me.

18 And one of the attendants answered and said, I have just seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skilled in playing and a mighty man of valor and a man of war and prudent in speech and of good presence, and Jehovah is with him.

19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send me David your son, who is among the sheep.

20 And Jesse took a donkey laden with bread and a skin of wine and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul.

21 And David came to Saul and ¹entered his service. And ²Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor bearer.

22 And Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, Let David enter my service, for he has found favor in my sight.

23 So whenever the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, David took his lyre and played it by hand, and Saul was refreshed and was well; and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER 17

4. Tested and Approved in Trusting God and Defeating Goliath 17:1-58

1 And the Philistines assembled their armies for battle, and they assembled in Socoh, which belongs to Judah. And they encamped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were assembled, and they encamped in the valley of Elah. And they set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on one mountain on one side, and Israel stood on another mountain on the other side; and the valley was between them.

4 And a champion came forth from the camps of the Philistines. His name was Goliath, from Gath, and he was six cubits and a span tall.

5 And there was a bronze helmet upon his head; and he was clothed with scaled armor, and the weight of the armor was five thousand bronze shekels.

6 And he had bronze greaves upon his legs and a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed six hundred iron shekels; and his shield bearer went before him.

8 And he stood and called out to the ranks of Israel and said to them, Why do you come out to set the battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and you, Saul's servants? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

9 If he is able to fight with me and strike me down, we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and strike him down, you will be our servants and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the ranks of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let us fight together.

11 Now when Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite from Bethlehem-judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. And the man was an old man in the days of Saul, advanced in years among men.

13 And the three oldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons who had gone into the battle were Eliab the firstborn and the 21¹ Lit., stood before him. So also in the next verse. 21² Lit., he.

second to him Abinadab and the third Shammah;

14 And David was the youngest. And the three oldest went after Saul, 15 But David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine approached morning and evening, and he presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said to David his son, Take an ephah of this parched grain for your brothers and these ten loaves, and take them quickly to your brothers' camp.

18 Also bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand; and see how your brothers are doing, and take some token from them.

19 Now Saul and they and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose early in the morning and left the sheep with a keeper. And he took up the goods and went, as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the entrenchment as the army was going forth to the battle line and shouting for the battle.

21 And Israel and the Philistines set the battle in array, array against array.

22 And David left the things he had in the hand of the keeper of the equipment, and he ran to the array and went and greeted his brothers.

23 And just as he was speaking with them, the champion, whose name was Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and he spoke according to the same words; and David heard.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from before him; and they were very afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he comes up to defy Israel. But as for the man who strikes him down, the king will make him rich with great riches; and he will give him his daughter and make the house of his father free in Israel.

26 Then David spoke to the men who were standing with him, saying, What shall be done for the man who strikes down this Philistine and turns away reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the ranks of the living God?

27 And the people spoke to him according to these words, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man who strikes him down.

28 And Eliab his oldest brother heard him speaking to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart, that you came down to see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I done now? Is there no cause?

30 And he turned around from him to another and spoke according to the same words, and the people responded to him according to the first words.

31 And when the words that David spoke were heard, they were reported to Saul; and he had him brought.

32 And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 But Saul said to David, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him, for you are but a youth and he has been a man of war since his youth.

34 And David said to Saul, Your servant has been tending his father's sheep; and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock, 35 I would go out after it and strike it and deliver the lamb from its mouth. And when it rose up against me, I would seize it by its beard and strike it and kill it.

36 Both the lion and the bear did your servant strike; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has defied the ranks of the living God.

37 And David said, Jehovah, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and may Jehovah be with you.

38 And Saul put his own garment on David, and he placed a bronze helmet on his head and put his armor on him.

39 And David girded his sword over his garment and tried to go, for he had not tried the armor. Then David said to Saul, I cannot go in these because I have not tried them. And David took them off.

40 Then he took his staff in his hand, and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook and put them into the shepherd's bag that he had, that is, in his pouch; and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and approached David, and the man who bore the shield was before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked and saw David, he scorned him; for he was but a youth and ruddy and handsome in appearance.

43 And the Philistine said to David, Am I a dog, that you come to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of heaven and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then David said to the Philistine, You come to me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come to you in the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the ranks of Israel, whom you have defied.

46 On this day Jehovah will deliver you up into my hand, and I will strike you and remove your head from you. And I will give the corpses of the camp of the Philistines to the birds of heaven and to the animals of the earth on this day. And all the earth will know that there is a God in Israel;

47 And all this congregation will know that it is not by sword or spear that Jehovah saves, for the battle is Jehovah's and He will deliver you into our hand.

48 And when the Philistine rose up and came and drew near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put forth his hand into his bag and took a stone from there. And he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.

50 Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand.

51 Then David ran and stood beside the Philistine, and he took the ¹Philistine's sword and drew it out of its sheath and made certain he was dead by striking off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their mighty man was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted and pursued the Philistines until you come to ¹Gai and to the gates of Ekron. And the Philistines lay slain along the way to Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camps.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

51¹ Lit., his. 52¹ According to the Hebrew text; the Septuagint and other ancient versions read, Gath.

55 Now when Saul saw David going forth to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner the captain of the army, Whose son is this youth, Abner? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.

56 And the king said, Inquire whose son this young man is.

57 So when David returned from striking down the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul; and the Philistine's head was in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, young man? And David said, The son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite.

CHAPTER 18

5. Persecuted and Tried by Saul 1 Sam. 18:1 — 2 Sam. 1:27

a. Jonathan's Love of David 18:1-5

1 Now when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan became knit with the soul of David; and Jonathan loved him like his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him like his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and he gave it to David, as well as his armor and even his sword and his bow and his belt.

5 And David went forth; on every mission that Saul sent him he acted prudently. Therefore Saul set him over the men of battle, and it was good in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

b. Saul's Envy of David 18:6-9

6 But when the men came home, as David returned from striking the Philistines, the women came out of all the towns of Israel singing and dancing to meet Saul the king, with tambourines and joyful songs and stringed instruments.

7 And the women sang to one another as they played, and they said,

Saul has struck down his thousands;
But David, his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very angry, for this saying displeased him. And he said, They ascribe ten thousands to David, but to me they ascribe only thousands. And what more can he have except the kingdom?

9 So Saul eyed David from that day on.

c. Saul's Device to Kill David 18:10—20:42

10 Then on the next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul; and he prophesied in the midst of the house while David played the lyre by hand, as he had day by day. And the spear was in Saul's hand.

11 Then Saul threw the spear; for he said, I will strike David even to the wall. But David fled from him twice.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, for Jehovah was with him and had departed from Saul.

13 So Saul removed him from being with him and made him the captain of a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David acted prudently in all his ¹campaigns, and Jehovah was with him.

15 And when Saul saw that he acted very prudently, he stood in awe of him.

16 And all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to David, See, my oldest daughter Merab I will give to you as wife; only be valiant for me and fight Jehovah's battles. For Saul said, Let not 14¹ Lit., ways.

my hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be a son-in-law to the king?

19 But at the time when Merab the daughter of Saul was to be given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife.

20 Now Michal the daughter of Saul loved David, and it was told Saul; and the matter pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give her to him that she may be a snare to him and that the hand of the Philistines may be upon him. Therefore Saul said to David, For the second time, you may be my son-in-law today.

22 Then Saul commanded his servants, Speak to David privately, saying, See, the king is pleased with you, and all his servants love you. So now become the king's son-in-law.

23 And Saul's servants spoke these words in David's ears. And David said, Is it such a light thing in your sight for me to become a son-in-law to the king, since I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?

24 And Saul's servants told him, saying, This is what David said.

25 Then Saul said, Thus shall you say to David, The king has no desire for a dowry but for a hundred Philistine foreskins, that he may be avenged of the king's enemies. For Saul planned to have David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 So when his servants told David these things, David was pleased to become the king's son-in-law. And when the time had not yet expired,

27 David rose up and went, he and his men; and he struck down two hundred Philistine men. And David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife.

28 And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David. And Michal the daughter of Saul loved him.

29 And Saul was even more afraid of David, and Saul was David's enemy from then on.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went forth; and as often as they went forth, David succeeded more than all the servants of Saul. So his name was very highly esteemed.

CHAPTER 19

1 And Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, took great delight in David.

2 And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father is seeking to kill you. Now therefore be on guard in the morning, and stay in some secret place, and hide yourself.

3 And I will go out and stand by my father's side in the field where you are. And I will speak about you to my father; and if I learn anything, I will tell you.

4 So Jonathan spoke well about David to Saul his father and said to him, May the king not sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been very good for you.

5 For he risked his life when he struck down the Philistine, and Jehovah accomplished a great salvation for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood by having David killed without cause?

6 And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan; and Saul swore, As Jehovah lives, he shall not be put to death.

7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

8 And there was war again. And David went out and fought against the Philistines. And he struck them with a great slaughter, and they fled from before him.

9 Then there came an evil spirit from Jehovah upon Saul, and he sat in his house with his spear in his hand while David played the lyre by hand.

10 And Saul sought to strike David even to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence. And ¹Saul struck the wall with his spear, but David fled and escaped that night.

11 Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him and kill him in the morning. And Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If you do not save your life tonight, in the morning you will be killed.

12 So Michal let David down through the window, and he went away and fled and escaped.

13 Then Michal took the teraphim and laid it in the bed. And she put a net of goats' hair on its head and covered it with clothing.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me on his bed that I may kill him.

16 And when the messengers went in, there was the teraphim in the bed with a net of goats' hair on its head.

17 Then Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go so that he has slipped away? And Michal said to Saul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?

18 So David fled and slipped away and came to Samuel at Ramah, and he told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt at Naioth.

19 Then it was told Saul, saying, David is now at Naioth in Ramah.

20 So Saul sent messengers to seize David; and when they saw the company of prophets prophesying and Samuel standing and presiding over them, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied.

21 And it was told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul again sent messengers the third time, and they also prophesied.

22 Then he himself went to Ramah. And he came to the great well that is in Secu; and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And someone said, They are now at Naioth in Ramah.

23 So he went there, toward Naioth in Ramah. And the Spirit of God came upon him as well, and he went on and prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he also stripped off his clothes and also prophesied before Samuel, and he lay naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAPTER 20

1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah and came and said to Jonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity, or what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?

2 And he said to him, Far from it! You shall not die. My father does nothing great or small that he does not ¹disclose to me. So why should my father hide this matter from me? Such would not happen.

3 Then David swore again and said, Your father fully knows that I have found favor in your sight; so he says, Do not let Jonathan know about this; otherwise, he will be grieved. But truly as Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death.

4 And Jonathan said to David, Whatever you say, I will do for you.

10' Lit., he. 2' Lit., uncover my ear. So throughout the book.

5 And David said to Jonathan, It is the new moon tomorrow, and I am to sit with the king at the meal. But let me go, and I will hide myself in the field until the following evening.

6 If your father misses me at all, you shall say, David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city, for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all his family.

7 If he says in this way, Fine; then your servant will have peace. But if he becomes angry at all, know that evil has been determined by him.

8 Deal kindly then with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of Jehovah with you. But if there is any iniquity in me, you kill me. Why then should you bring me to your father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from you! For if I knew at all that evil has been determined by my father to come upon you, would I not tell it to you?

10 Then David said to Jonathan, Who will tell me whether or not your father has responded to you harshly?

11 And Jonathan said to David, Come and let us go out into the field. And they both went out into the field.

12 And Jonathan said to David, By Jehovah, the God of Israel: When I search out my father about this time tomorrow, or on the following day, and if he is good toward David, I will surely send word to you and disclose it to you.

13 May Jehovah do so to Jonathan, and even more, if it pleases my father to do you evil, and I do not disclose it to you and send you away to go in peace. And may Jehovah be with you as He was with my father.

14 And while I am still alive, do show me the lovingkindness of Jehovah, that I may not die;

15 And never cut off your lovingkindness from my house, not even when Jehovah has cut off David's enemies to the man from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, And Jehovah will require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him, for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon; and you will be missed, for your seat will be empty.

19 And when you have waited three days, you shall go far down and come to the place where you hid yourself while all this was happening; and you shall remain at the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows to its side, as though I were shooting at a mark.

21 And just then I will send a boy, saying, Go; find the arrows. If I say to the boy, The arrows are there to this side of you; gather them; then come, for you have peace and there is no problem, as Jehovah lives.

22 But if I speak in this way to the young man, The arrows are there beyond you; then go, for Jehovah has sent you away.

23 And concerning this matter that I and you have spoken of, it is Jehovah who is between me and you forever.

24 So David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon came, the king sat at the meal to eat.

25 And the king sat on his seat as at other times, on his seat near the wall; and Jonathan rose up, and Abner sat down beside Saul, but David's place was empty.

26 But Saul said nothing that day about it, for he thought, Something has happened to him; he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And on the day after the new moon, the second day, David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, Why has the son of Jesse come neither yesterday nor today to the meal?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David asked leave of me earnestly to go to Beth-lehem.

29 And he said, Let me go, I beg you; for our family has a sacrifice in that city, and my brother commanded me to be there. So now if I have found favor in your sight, let me slip away to see my brothers. Therefore he has not come to the king's table.

30 And Saul's anger burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse is alive on the earth, you and your kingdom will not be established. Now therefore send someone and bring him to me, for he is ¹as good as dead.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, Why must he be put to death? What has he done?

33 But Saul threw his spear at him in order to strike him down. So Jonathan knew that it was determined by his father to put David to death.

34 And Jonathan rose up from the table in burning anger and did not eat any food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved about David because his father had shamed him.

35 Then in the morning Jonathan went forth to the field for the appointment with David, and a small boy was with him.

36 And he said to his boy, Run and find the arrows that I am shooting. While the boy was running, he shot the arrow beyond him.

37 And when the boy came to the place of the arrow that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called out after the boy and said, The arrow is there beyond you.

38 And Jonathan called out to the boy, Hurry up quickly; do not stay there. And Jonathan's boy gathered the arrows and came to his master.

39 And the boy knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his equipment to his boy and said to him, Go; bring them to the city.

41 And when the boy went, David rose up from his hiding place toward the south and fell on his face to the ground; and he bowed himself three times. And they kissed each other; and they wept for each other, but David more greatly.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, because both of us have sworn in the name of Jehovah, saying, May Jehovah be between me and you and between my seed and your seed forever. Then ¹David rose up and left, and Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

d. David Supplied with the Holy Bread of the Presence and with the Sword of Goliath by the Priest Ahimelech
21:1-9

1 And David went to Nob to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech came trembling to meet David and said to him, Why are you alone, and no one with you?

2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has charged me with some matter, and he said to me, Let no man know anything about the matter that I have sent you on and charged you with. So I have ¹made an appointment with my young men at such and such a place.

3 Now then what do you have ¹on

31' Lit., a son of death. 42' Lit., he. 2' Some versions translate, directed my young men to such and such a place. 3' Lit., under your hand. So also in vv. 4 and 8.

hand? Give five loaves of bread into my hand, or whatever there is to be found.

4 And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread on hand; yet there is holy bread, but only if the young men have kept themselves from women.

5 And David answered the priest and said to him, Women have indeed been kept from us, as previously when I went forth; and the vessels of the young men were holy, even if it was a common journey. How much more then today will their vessels be holy!

6 So the priest gave him what was holy, for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which was taken from before Jehovah, to be replaced by hot bread at the time it was taken.

7 Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before Jehovah. His name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of the shepherds that belonged to Saul.

8 And David said to Ahimelech, And is there not a spear or a sword here on hand? For I have brought neither my sword nor my equipment with me, for the king's matter was urgent.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take it, take it; for there is no other here but that one. And David said, There is none like it; give it to me.

e. David Fleeing from Saul and Going to Achish the King of Gath
21:10-15

10 Then David rose up and fled that day from before Saul, and he went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 But the servants of Achish said to him, Is this not David the king of the land?

Is this not him of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying,

Saul has struck down his thousands;
But David, his ten thousands?

12 And David took these words to heart and feared Achish the king of Gath greatly.

13 So he disguised his sanity in their sight and acted like a madman before them, and he made marks on the doors of the gate and let his spittle run down his beard.

14 And Achish said to his servants, Look, you see that the man is mad. Why have you brought him to me?

15 Do I lack madmen that you have brought this one to me to be a madman before me? Shall this one come into my house?

CHAPTER 22

f. David Staying in the Cave of Adullam, in Mizpeh of Moab, and in the Forest of Hereth of Judah
22:1-5

1 Then David went from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard of it, they went down to him there.

2 And everyone who was in distress and everyone who was in debt and everyone who was discontented gathered to him, and he became captain over them. And with him were about four hundred men.

3 And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, Let my father and mother go forth and be with you until I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab, and they remained with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

5 And Gad the prophet said to David,

13¹ Lit., in their hands.

Do not stay in the stronghold; depart and go into the land of Judah. So David departed and went into the forest of Hareth.

g. Saul Killing Ahimelech the Priest and His Family because of David
1 Sam. 22:6-23

6 Then Saul heard that David and the men with him had been discovered. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height; and his spear was in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.

7 And Saul said to his servants standing around him, Hear now, you Benjaminites: Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make every one of you captains of thousands and captains of hundreds,

8 That every one of you has conspired against me, so that no one discloses it to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and none of you is sorry for me or discloses it to me when my son stirs up my servant against me to ambush me as on this day?

9 Then Doeg the Edomite, who was set over Saul's servants, answered and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub at Nob.

10 And he inquired of Jehovah for him and gave him provisions, and he gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent men to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob. And all of them came to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, you son of Ahitub. And he said, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him food and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, so that he rises up against me to ambush me as on this day?

14 And Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who among all your servants is as faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law and ¹has access to your council and is honored in your house?

15 Was it just today that I began to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! May the king not impute anything to his servant nor to all my father's house, for your servant knows nothing of this matter, small or great.

16 But the king said, You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house.

17 Then the king said to the runners who were standing around him, Turn, and kill the priests of Jehovah, because their hand is also with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing and they did not disclose it to me. But the king's servants would not put forth their hand to attack the priests of Jehovah.

18 And the king said to Doeg, You turn, and attack the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests. And on that day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

19 And he struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, infants and sucklings, and oxen and asses and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub escaped, whose name was Abiathar, and he fled after David.

21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the priests of Jehovah.

22 And David said to Abiathar, I knew on that day when Doeg the Edomite was there that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for all the lives of your father's house.

14¹ Some ancient versions read, commander over your bodyguard.

23 Remain with me, and do not be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life, for you will be kept safe with me.

CHAPTER 23

h. David Defeating the Philistines and Staying in Keilah 23:1-12

1 And some told David, saying, The Philistines are now fighting against Keilah and robbing the threshing floors.

2 And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go and strike these Philistines? And Jehovah said to David, Go and strike the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said to him, Here we are, afraid here in Judah; how much more if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines!

4 So David inquired yet again of Jehovah. And Jehovah answered him and said, Rise up; go down to Keilah, for I have delivered the Philistines into your hand.

5 Then David and his men went to Keilah and fought against the Philistines and carried off their cattle and struck them down with a great slaughter. And David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 Now it so happened that when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 Then it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, God has¹ delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, because he has entered a city with gates and bars.

8 And Saul summoned all the people to battle, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 But when David learned that Saul was planning evil against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod here.

10 And David said, O Jehovah the God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah in order to destroy the city on my account.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O Jehovah the God of Israel, do tell Your servant. And Jehovah said, He will come down.

12 And David said, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And Jehovah said, They will deliver you.

i. David Remaining in the Wilderness of Ziph 23:13-28

13 So David and his men, about six hundred men, rose up and went forth from Keilah; and they went about wherever they could. And when it was told Saul that David had slipped away from Keilah, he ceased his going forth.

14 And David remained in the wilderness in strongholds, and he remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul went forth to seek his life, and David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

16 Then Jonathan the son of Saul rose up and went to David at Horesh, and he strengthened his hand in God.

17 And he said to him, Do not be afraid, for the hand of Saul my father will not find you; and you will become king over Israel, and I will be second to you; and even Saul my father knows that.

18 And the two of them made a covenant before Jehovah. And David remained in Horesh, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then some Ziphites went up to Saul

⁷ Lit., alienated.

at Gibeah, saying, David is indeed hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of the desert!

20 Now then, O king, come down, according to all your soul's desire to come down; and we will deliver him into the hand of the king.

21 And Saul said, Blessed are you of Jehovah, for you have had compassion on me.

22 Go now, and make sure once more; and find out and look into his place, where he sets foot, who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning.

23 And look about and learn of all his hiding places where he lurks, and come back to me with sure information; then I will go with you, and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they rose up and went to Ziph before Saul. And David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of the desert.

25 And Saul and his men went to seek him. And when some told David this, he went down to the rock and remained in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard of it, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on one side of the mountain, while David and his men went on the other side of the mountain. And David hurried to get away from Saul, while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men in order to capture them.

27 Then a messenger came to Saul, saying, Hurry and come, for the Philistines have raided the land.

28 So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and he went to meet the Philistines; therefore they call that place the Rock of Escape.

j. David Remaining in the Strongholds of En-gedi 23:29—24:2

29 And David went up from there and remained in the strongholds of En-gedi.

CHAPTER 24

1 And when Saul returned from following the Philistines, some told him, saying, David is now in the wilderness of En-gedi.

2 And Saul took three thousand choice men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men upon the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

k. Saul Falling into the Hand of David but David Not Killing Him
24:3-22

3 And he came to the sheepfolds along the way, and a cave was there. And Saul went in to ¹relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost part of the cave.

4 And David's men said to him, The day is here of which Jehovah said to you, I am about to give your enemy into your hand. Do then to him according to what seems good in your sight. So David rose up and cut off a corner of Saul's cloak without being noticed.

5 But afterward David's heart smote him because he had cut off a corner of Saul's cloak.

6 And he said to his men, Jehovah forbid that I should do such a thing to my lord, Jehovah's anointed, as stretch out my hand against him; for he is Jehovah's anointed.

7 So David checked his men with these words and would not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave and went on his way.

8 Then David rose up afterward and came out of the cave. And he called after ³ Lit., cover his feet.

Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and paid him homage.

9 And David said to Saul, Why do you listen to men's words that say, David now seeks your harm?

10 Just this day your eyes have seen that Jehovah gave you into my hand today in the cave. And though some told me to kill you, 'I spared you and said, I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is Jehovah's anointed.

11 Now my father, look, indeed, look at the corner of your cloak in my hand; for in that I cut off the corner of your cloak and did not kill you, know and see that there is no harm or transgression in my hand. And though I have not sinned against you, you hunt after my life in order to take it.

12 May Jehovah judge between me and you, and may Jehovah avenge me of you; but my hand will not be against you.

13 As the proverb of the ancients says, Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness; but my hand will not be against you.

14 After whom does the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog; a single flea.

15 May Jehovah then be Judge and decide between me and you. And may He see and plead my cause and release me through His judgment out of your hand.

16 And when David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to David, You are more righteous than I; for you have repaid me with good, while I have repaid you with evil.

18 And you have declared today how you did good to me, because Jehovah delivered me up into your hand, but you would not kill me.

19 For if a man finds his enemy, will he send him away safely? May Jehovah therefore reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

20 And now I indeed know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.

21 Now therefore swear to me by Jehovah that you will not cut off my seed after me and that you will not destroy my name from my father's house.

22 So David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

l. Samuel Dying 25:1a

1 Then Samuel died, and all Israel gathered together and mourned for him; and they buried him at his house in Ramah.

m. David's Dealing with Nabal and Abigail 25:1b-44

And David rose up and went down into the wilderness of Paran.

2 Now there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel. And the man was very wealthy: He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And at that time he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. And the woman had good discernment and was beautiful in appearance. But the man was hard, and he was evil in his doings; and he was a Calebite.

4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

5 So David sent ten young men; and 10' Following the ancient versions; the Hebrew text reads, it (my eye) spared you.

David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal and greet him in my name.

6 And thus shall you say, Live long; and peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.

7 Now therefore I hear that you have shearers; your shepherds have now been with us, and we have not harmed them, nor has there been anything missing from them, all the time they were in Carmel.

8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let these young men find favor in your sight, for we come in a good time. Give whatever you may have on hand to your servants and to your son David.

9 So David's young men went and spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David; then they waited.

10 But Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David, or who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who break away from their masters.

11 Shall I then take my food and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?

12 Then David's young men turned back on their way. And they returned and came and told him all these things.

13 And David said to his men, Each man gird on his sword. And each man girded on his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And they went up after David, about four hundred men. And two hundred remained with the baggage.

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, David has just sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he shouted insultingly at them.

15 But the men were very good to us; and we were not harmed, nor did we miss anything all the time we went with them when we were in the fields.

16 They were a wall to us both by night and by day all the time we were with them tending the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what you will do, because evil has been determined against our master and against all his house; for he is so worthless a man that no one can speak to him.

18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread and two skins of wine and five sheep ready dressed and five measures of parched grain and one hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and she put them on her donkeys.

19 And she said to her young men, Go on before me; I am coming right behind you. But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 And as she rode on her donkey and came down under the cover of the mountain, David and his men at that moment came down toward her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, It was certainly in vain that I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that he has; for he has repaid me evil for good.

22 May God do so to David's enemies, and even more, if I leave so much as a male child of all that he has until morning.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hurried and got down from her donkey and fell on her face before David; and she bowed herself to the ground.

24 And she fell at his feet and said, Upon me alone, my lord, be this iniquity; and let your female servant speak in your hearing, and hear the words of your female servant.

25 May my lord not take this worthless man Nabal to heart. For as his name is, so he is: Nabal is his name, and folly is with him. But I your female servant did not see my lord's young men, whom you sent.

26 And now, my lord, as Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, since Jehovah has withheld you from entering into bloodshed and from avenging yourself by your own hand, now therefore let your enemies and those who seek harm against my lord be like Nabal.

27 And now this present which your servant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord.

28 Please forgive the transgression of your female servant, for Jehovah will no doubt make a sure house for my lord, because my lord fights the battles of Jehovah; and no evil will be found in you throughout your days.

29 And though men rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, my lord's life will be bound up in the bundle of the living with Jehovah your God; and the lives of your enemies He will sling out, as from the hollow of the sling.

30 And when Jehovah has done to my lord according to all the good He has spoken concerning you and has appointed you ruler over Israel, 31 This will not be a qualm of conscience to you or a stumbling block in heart to my lord, that you shed blood without cause or that my lord has avenged himself. And when Jehovah has dealt well with my lord, may you remember your female servant.

32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me.

33 And blessed be your discretion; and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from entering into bloodshed and from avenging myself by my own hand.

34 For surely as Jehovah the God of Israel lives, who has withheld me from harming you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, indeed there would not have been left to Nabal even a male child until morning's light.

35 So David took from her hand what she brought to him. And he said to her, Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to your voice and have accepted your person.

36 And Abigail went to Nabal. And just then he was having a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, and he was extremely drunk; therefore she told him nothing, small or great, until the light of morning.

37 And in the morning, when the wine had left Nabal, his wife told him these things. And his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

38 And about ten days later Jehovah struck Nabal, and he died.

39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be Jehovah, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach at the hand of Nabal and who has withheld His servant from evil-doing; and Jehovah has returned the evil-doing of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent men to propose to Abigail, that he might take her to himself as wife.

40 And when David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to you, to take you to himself as wife.

41 And she rose up and fell on her face to the ground. And she said, Here is your female servant, as a slave to wash the feet of my lord's servants.

42 And Abigail hurried and rose up; and she rode on a donkey, with her five young women following her. And she went after the messengers of David, and she became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and both of them became his wives.

44 Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

n. Jehovah Delivering Saul into the Hand of David but David Not Killing Him 26:1-25

1 And the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, David is hiding himself on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite the desert!

2 And Saul rose up and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, with him three thousand choice men of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite the desert, by the road. And David remained in the wilderness, but he saw that Saul had come into the wilderness after him.

4 And David sent spies and knew for certain that Saul had come.

5 So David rose up and went to the place where Saul encamped. And David looked on the place where Saul and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army, lay. Now Saul was lying within the entrenchment, and the people were encamped around him.

6 And David responded and spoke to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai the son of Zeruah, the brother of Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul at the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with you.

7 So David and Abishai went to the people by night; and there lay Saul, sleeping within the entrenchment, and his spear was stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay around him.

8 And Abishai said to David. God has delivered your enemy into your hand today. Now therefore let me strike him with the spear even to the ground with one stroke, and I will not do it twice.

9 But David said to Abishai, Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against Jehovah's anointed and be guiltless?

10 And David said, As Jehovah lives, Jehovah will strike him down, or his day will come to die, or he will go down in battle and perish.

11 Jehovah forbid that I should stretch out my hand against Jehovah's anointed. Now therefore take the spear that is by his head and the water jug, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the water jug by Saul's head, and they went away. And no one saw it or knew about it, nor did anyone awake, for all of them were sleeping; for a deep sleep from Jehovah had fallen upon them.

13 And David crossed over to the other side and stood on the top of the hill far off; a great distance was between them.

14 And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Will you not answer, Abner? And Abner answered and said, Who are you that calls out to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord.

16 This thing is not good that you have done. As Jehovah lives, you are 'as good as dead because you did not guard your lord, Jehovah's anointed. Now therefore, see where the king's spear and the water jug that were by his head are.

17 And Saul recognized David's voice; and he said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?

19 Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is Jehovah who has stirred you up against me, let 16' Lit., sons of death.

Him accept an offering; but if it is the sons of men, let them be cursed before Jehovah; for they have driven me out today, so that I cannot share in Jehovah's inheritance, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore do not let my blood fall to the ground apart from the presence of Jehovah; for the king of Israel has come forth to seek a single flea, as one might hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 And Saul said, I have sinned. Return, my son David; for I will not harm you anymore, because my life was precious in your sight this day. I have indeed acted foolishly and have made a very great mistake.

22 And David answered and said, Here is the spear, O king. Let one of the young men cross over and get it.

23 And Jehovah will repay to each man his righteousness and faithfulness: Because Jehovah has delivered you into my hand today, and I would not stretch out my hand against Jehovah's anointed;

24 Then just as great as your life was in my eyes this day, so great may my life be in Jehovah's eyes that He would deliver me from all distress.

25 And Saul said to David, Blessed are you, my son David. You shall most certainly both do and prevail. And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

- o. David's Escaping to and Staying in the Land of the Philistines
27:1 — 28:2

1 And David said in his heart, I will now one day perish at the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than to escape into the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair ¹of seeking me any longer within all the territory of Israel. Thus I will escape from his hand.

2 So David rose up and crossed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, the king of Gath.

3 And David and his men remained with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each man with his household: David and his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the wife of Nabal, the Carmelite.

4 And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer sought him.

5 And David said to Achish, If now I have found favor in your sight, let me be given a place in one of the country towns; and I will dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?

6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day.

7 And the length of time that David remained in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

8 Now David and his men went up and attacked the Geshurites and the Gizzites and the Amalekites, for they were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur and unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David struck the land; and he left neither man nor woman alive but took the sheep and the oxen and the asses and the camels and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish.

10 Then Achish said, ¹Against whom have you conducted an attack today? And David said, Against the south of Judah and against the south of the Jerahmeelites and against the south of the Kenites.

11 Now David left neither man nor woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he said, Perhaps they will tell of us, saying, Thus did David do. And such was his custom as long as he dwelt in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish trusted David, saying,

¹ Lit., of me to seek me. ¹⁰ Some MSS read, Have you not; others, Where have you.

He has made himself utterly odious to his people Israel; therefore he shall be my servant forever.

CHAPTER 28

1 Then in those days the Philistines gathered their camps together for war to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, Know assuredly that you shall go out with me into the camp, you and your men.

2 And David said to Achish, This being so, you will know what your servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore I will make you my bodyguard for life.

p. Saul's Tragic Ending Pretold by Samuel 28:3-25

3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him; and they had buried him in Ramah, that is, in his own city. And Saul had the mediums and the soothsayers put out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered together, and they came and encamped in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

6 And Saul inquired of Jehovah; but Jehovah did not answer him, not by dreams or by the Urim or by the prophets.

7 Then said Saul to his servants, Seek for me a woman who is a medium that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, There is now a woman who is a medium at En-dor.

8 Then Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes. And he and two men with him went, and they came to the woman by night. And he said, Consult a departed spirit for me, and bring up to me the one whom I tell you.

9 But the woman said to him, Look, you know what Saul has done, that he has cut off the mediums and the soothsayers from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life to make me die?

10 Then Saul swore to her by Jehovah, saying, As Jehovah lives, no punishment shall happen to you for this thing.

11 So the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring up Samuel to me.

12 Now when the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul.

13 And the king said to her, Do not be afraid. But what do you see? And the woman said to Saul, I see ¹some divine being coming up out of the earth.

14 And he said to her, What is his appearance? And she said, An old man is coming up; and he is wrapped in a cloak. Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and paid him homage.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up? And Saul said, I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines wage war against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, neither through the prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.

16 And Samuel said, Why then have you inquired of me? For Jehovah has turned away from you and become your adversary.

17 And Jehovah has done for Himself just as He spoke through me, for Jehovah has torn the kingdom out from your hand and given it to an associate of yours, to David.

18 Because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah and did not execute His burning anger upon the Amalekites, therefore Jehovah has done this thing to you this day.

13¹ Or, a god; Heb. elohim.

19 And Jehovah will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me; Jehovah will also give the camp of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then immediately Saul fell his full length to the ground, and he was very afraid because of Samuel's words. And there was no strength in him, for he had not eaten food all day and all night.

21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was very troubled. And she said to him, Indeed, your servant has listened to your voice; and I have put my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.

22 Now therefore, you listen also to the voice of your servant, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way.

23 But he refused and said, I will not eat. Then his servants, as well as the woman, compelled him, and he listened to their voice; and he rose up from the ground and sat on the bed.

24 And the woman had a fattened calf in the house; and she hurried and killed it, and took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread with it.

25 And she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. And they rose up and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

q. David Sovereignly Kept Away by God from Joining the Philistines' Camp to Fight against Israel
29:1-11

1 And the Philistines gathered all their camps together at Aphek; and Israel encamped by the spring that is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; and David and his men passed on at the rear with Achish.

3 And the princes of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews doing here? And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or even these years? And I have found nothing wrong in him since the day he deserted to me to this day.

4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him. And the princes of the Philistines said to him, Make the man go back, that he may return to his place that you have assigned him, so that he does not go down with us into the battle and does not become our adversary in the battle. For with what might this man reconcile himself to his master? Will it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is this not David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying,

Saul has struck down his thousands;
But David, his ten thousands?

6 And Achish called David and said to him, As Jehovah lives, you are upright, and it is acceptable in my sight that you go forth and come in with me in the camp; for I have not found evil in you since the day you came to me to this day. But you are not acceptable to the lords.

7 Now therefore return and go in peace, so that you do not do anything displeasing to the lords of the Philistines.

8 And David said to Achish, But what have I done? And what wrong have you found in your servant since the day I began to be with you to this day, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that you are as acceptable to me as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us into the battle.

10 Now therefore rise up early in the morning with your master's servants who came with you; indeed rise up early in the morning, and when you have daylight, go.

11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30

r. David Conquering the Amalekites and Capturing Their Captives 30:1-31

1 And when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid upon the south and upon Ziklag; and they had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire.

2 And they had taken the women who were in it captive, both small and great; they had killed none, but had carried them off, and had gone on their way.

3 And David and his men came to the city; and there it was, burned with fire. And their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 And David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept until they had no strength to weep.

5 And David's two wives had been taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was very distressed because the people spoke of stoning him, for the soul of all the people was bitter, every man because of his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in Jehovah his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, Bring the ephod to me. So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I pursue after this band? Will I overtake them? And He said to him, Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will certainly deliver them.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him; and they came to the brook Besor, where those who were left stayed behind.

10 And David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to cross over the brook Besor.

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David. And they gave him food, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink.

12 And they gave him a piece of fig cake and two raisin cakes; and he ate, and his spirit returned to him; for he had eaten no food and had drunk no water for three days and three nights.

13 And David said to him, To whom do you belong and where are you from? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, the servant of an Amalekite man; and my master abandoned me because I fell sick three days ago.

14 We attacked the south of the Cherethites and what belongs to Judah and the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Can you lead me down to this band? And he said, Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hand of my master, and I will lead you down to this troop.

16 And he led him down; and there they were, spread over the whole land, eating and drinking and ¹celebrating because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

17 And David struck them from twilight until the evening of the next day; and not a man of them escaped except for four hundred young men, who rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David delivered all that the 16¹ Or, dancing.

Amalekites had taken; and David delivered his two wives.

19 And nothing was missed by them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil nor anything that they had taken; David brought everything back.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before the other cattle and of which they said, This is David's spoil.

21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow David and who had been left behind at the brook Besor. And they went forth to meet David and to meet the people who were with him; and David came near to the people and greeted them.

22 And all the wicked and worthless men among the men that had gone with David responded; and they said, Because they did not go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have delivered, except every man his wife and his children that they may lead them off and go away.

23 Then said David, You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which Jehovah has given us, who has kept us and given this band that came against us into our hand.

24 And who will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.

25 And from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 And David came to Ziklag, and he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his companions, saying, Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of Jehovah:

27 For those in Bethel, and for those in Ramoth of the south, and for those in Jattir, 28 And for those in Aroer, and for those in Siphmoth, and for those in Eshtemoa, 29 And for those in Racal, and for those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and for those in the cities of the Kenites,

30 And for those in Hormah, and for those in Bor-ashan, and for those in Athach, 31 And for those in Hebron, and for all the places where David himself and his men had gone about.

CHAPTER 31

s. Saul's End
31:1-13

1 Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines chased Saul and his sons; and the Philistines struck down Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchi-shua, Saul's sons.

3 And the battle bore heavily against Saul, and the archers ¹hit him; and he was badly wounded by the archers.

4 Then Saul said to his armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not, for he was very afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died with him.

6 So Saul and his three sons and his armor bearer, as well as all his men, died that day together.

7 And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and who were on the other side of the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they 3¹ Lit., found him.

forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And the next day the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor; and they sent them all around, throughout the land of the Philistines in order to announce the good news in the houses of their idols and to the people.

10 And they put his armor in the house of Ashtaroath; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 All the valiant men rose up and went all night and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan; and they came to Jabesh and burned them there.

13 And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

SECOND SAMUEL

CHAPTER 1

t. David's Reaction

1:1-27

1 Now after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, David remained in Ziklag two days.

2 And on the third day there came a man from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. And when he came to David, he fell to the ground and paid him homage.

3 And David said to him, Where did you come from? And he said to him, From the camp of Israel I have escaped.

4 And David said to him, What has happened? Tell me. And he said that the people had fled from the battle and that also many of the people had fallen and died and that also Saul and Jonathan his son were dead.

5 And David said to the young man that told him these things, How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?

6 And the young man that told him these things said, By chance I happened to be upon Mount Gilboa; and just then Saul leaned on his spear, and just then the chariots and horsemen pursued closely after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me; and he called to me. And I said, Here I am.

8 And he said to me, Who are you? And I said to him, I am an Amalekite.

9 Then he said to me, Stand over me, and kill me; for anguish has seized me because my life is yet wholly within me.

10 So I stood over him and put him to death, for I knew that he would not live after his fall; and I took the crown that was upon his head and the armlet that was on his arm, and I have brought them to my lord here.

11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, as did all the men who were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son and for the people of Jehovah and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 And David said to the young man who told him these things, Where are you from? And he said, I am the son of an Amalekite stranger.

14 And David said to him, How is it that you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy Jehovah's anointed?

15 Then David called one of the young men and said, Come near; fall on him. And he struck him, and he died.

16 And David said to him, Your blood be upon your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have killed Jehovah's anointed.

17 And David sang this dirge over Saul and over Jonathan his son;

18 And he commanded them to teach the children of Judah The Song of the Bow. It is now written in the book of Jashar:

19 The beauty of Israel lies slain upon your high places.

How the mighty have fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath;

Bear not the news of it in the streets of Ashkelon;

Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you,
Nor fields of heave offerings.

For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,
The shield of Saul, no more anointed with oil.

- 22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan has not turned back,
And the sword of Saul has not returned empty.
- 23 Saul and Jonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not divided.
They were swifter than eagles;
They were stronger than lions.
- 24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet with splendor,
Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.
- 25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.
- 26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; so very pleasant were you to me.
Your love to me was wonderful,
beyond the love of women.
- 27 How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER 2

6. Crowned by the People to Be the King for the Kingdom of God on the Earth
2:1—24:25
- a. Crowned by the People
2:1—5:25
- (1) Crowned by the Tribe of Judah
2:1—4:12

1 And after this David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah? And Jehovah said to him,

Go up. And David said, Where shall I go up? And He said, To Hebron.

2 So David went up there, as well as his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

3 And David brought up his men who were with him, each man with his household; and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, It is the men of Jabesh-gilead who have buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, Blessed are you of Jehovah, because you have shown this kindness to your master, to Saul, and buried him.

6 And now may Jehovah show kindness and faithfulness to you; and I also will ¹repay you for this good, because you have done this thing.

7 And now may your hands be strong, and you be valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.

8 But Abner the son of Ner, the captain of Saul's army, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Maha-naim.

9 And he made him king over Gilead and over the Ashurites and over Jezreel and over Ephraim and over Benjamin and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth the son of Saul was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. However the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 And Abner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul went forth from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

6¹ Lit., do you this good.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruah and the servants of David went forth and met them at the pool of Gibeon. And they sat down, these on the one side of the pool and those on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men arise and compete before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 And they arose and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And each seized his ¹opponent by the head, and his sword went into his ¹opponent's side; and they fell down together. And that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is at Gibeon.

17 And the battle was very severe that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were routed before the servants of David.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruah there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel. Now Asahel was swift of foot, like one of the gazelles which are in the field.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and as he went, he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from behind Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, Is that you, Asahel? And he said, It is I.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn away to your right or to your left, and seize one of the young men, and take his armor for yourself. But Asahel would not turn away from following him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn away from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I lift up my face to Joab your brother?

23 But he refused to turn away, so Abner struck him in the stomach with the end of his spear; and the spear came out behind him. And he fell down there and died in that place. And everyone who came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

24 But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner. And as the sun went down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one troop, and they stood on the top of a hill.

26 And Abner called out to Joab and said, Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? Then how long shall it be before you command the people to return from following their brothers?

27 And Joab said, As God lives, if you had not spoken, then surely the people would have gone up each one from following his brother in the morning only.

28 And Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people stood still; and they pursued after Israel no more, neither did they fight any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the Arabah. And they crossed over the Jordan and went through all the ¹Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner. And he gathered all the people together, and among David's servants there were nineteen men missing plus Asahel.

31 And the servants of David had struck down of Benjamin and among Abner's men three hundred and sixty men, who died.

32 And they took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men walked all night, and the day dawned on them at Hebron.

16¹ Lit., companion... companion's. 29¹ The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. Others translate, the morning.

CHAPTER 3

1 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; but David became continually stronger, and the house of Saul became continually weaker.

2 And in Hebron sons were born to David. His firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maachah, the daughter of Talmi the king of Geshur;

4 And the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul.

7 Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Why did you go in to my father's concubine?

8 Then Abner became very angry about the words of Ish-bosheth; and he said, Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; yet you charge me today with iniquity concerning this woman.

9 May God do so to Abner, and even more, if I do not do for David as Jehovah has sworn to him,

10 To transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba!

11 And he could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David where he was, saying, To whom shall the land belong? and saying, Make your covenant with me; and then my hand will be with you, to turn all Israel to you.

13 And David said, Fine, I will make a covenant with you; but I require one thing of you, namely, you shall not see my face, unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face.

14 Then David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver my wife Michal to me, whom I espoused for a hundred Philistine foreskins.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent men and had her taken from her husband, from Paltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went along with her to Bahurim, walking and weeping after her. But Abner said to him, Go; return. And he returned.

17 Now Abner had conferred with the elders of Israel, saying, For some time now you have been seeking for David to be king over you.

18 So do it now, for Jehovah has spoken of David, saying, By My servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin; and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David held a feast for Abner and for the men who were with him.

21 And Abner said to David, I will rise up and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you and that you may reign over all that your soul desires. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

7¹ Following many ancient versions; the Hebrew text reads, he. 13¹ Lit., he.

22 And there came the servants of David and Joab from an attack, and they brought great spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23 And when Joab and all the army that was with him came, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner has come to the king; and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.

24 Then Joab went to the king and said, What have you done? Abner has just come to you. Why is it that you have sent him away and he has gone?

25 You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, to discover your going out and your coming in, and to know everything that you do.

26 And when Joab went out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the well of Sirah, though David did not know about it.

27 And when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately. And there he struck him in the stomach, so that he died for the bloodshed of Asahel his brother.

28 Then afterward, when David heard of it, he said, I and my kingdom are innocent of the bloodshed of Abner the son of Ner before Jehovah forever.

29 May it fall on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and may there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue or who is a leper or who leans on a staff or who falls by the sword or who lacks bread!

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 And David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, Tear your clothes, and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn over Abner. And King David followed the bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented for Abner and said,

Should Abner die
As a fool dies?

34 Your hands were not bound,
Nor were your feet put into fetters.

As a man falls before ¹wicked men, you fell.

And all the people wept over him again.

35 And all the people came to make David eat food while it was still day; but David swore, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down!

36 And all the people took note of it, and it pleased them; as everything that the king did pleased all the people.

37 And all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death.

38 And the king said to his servants, Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?

39 And today I am weak, even though anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too difficult for me. May Jehovah reward the evildoer according to his evil!

CHAPTER 4

1 Now when Saul's son Ish-bosheth heard that Abner had died in Hebron, ¹he lost courage, and all Israel was dismayed.

2 And Saul's son had two men, the captains of bands. The name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the second Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin; for Beeroth is also considered to belong to Benjamin.

34¹ Lit., the sons of wickedness. 1¹ Lit., his hands weakened.

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.

4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who had crippled feet. He was five years old when the news came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel. And his nurse took him up and fled. And as she hurried to flee, he fell and was made lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and around the time of the heat of the day they came into the house of Ish-bosheth, while he was taking his noonday rest.

6 And they came into the midst of the house, as though they were taking wheat. And they stabbed him in the stomach. And Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 Now they had come into the house as he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they struck him and killed him and beheaded him. And they took his head and traveled by the way of the Arabah all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David in Hebron; and they said to the king, Here is the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life. And Jehovah has granted my lord the king to be avenged this day of Saul and of his seed.

9 Then David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress,

10 When one told me, saying, Saul is now dead! thinking he was a bearer of good news, I took hold of him and slew him in Ziklag—that was the reward I gave him for the news.

11 How much more when wicked men slay a righteous person in his own house upon his bed! And now should I not demand his blood of your hand and take you away from the earth?

12 Then David commanded his young men, and they slew them and cut off their hands and their feet and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth and buried it in the sepulcher of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER 5

(2) Crowned by All the Other Tribes
5:1-5

1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron; and they spoke, saying, Here we are; we are your bone and your flesh.

2 Even previously, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. And Jehovah said to you, You shall 'shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be ruler over Israel.

3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. And King David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah, and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign; he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

(3) Established by God as King with His Kingdom Exalted for the Sake of God's People Israel
5:6-25

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. And they spoke to David, saying, You shall not come in here: Even the blind and the lame will drive you back! (thinking, David cannot come in here.)

2' Or, feed.

7 But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whoever would strike the Jebusites, let him go up to the watercourse and strike the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul. Therefore they say, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the stronghold and called it the city of David. And David built all around from the Millo and inward.

10 And David became greater and greater; and Jehovah the God of hosts was with him.

11 And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, as well as cedar timbers and carpenters and masons; and they built David a house.

12 And David perceived that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

13 And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he came from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David.

14 And these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua and Shobab and Nathan and Solomon

15 And Ibhar and Elishua and Nepheg and Japhia

16 And Elishama and Eliada and Eliph-elet.

17 Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went down to the stronghold.

18 And the Philistines came and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

19 Then David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines?

Will You deliver them into my hand? And Jehovah said to David, Go up, for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand.

20 So David came to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there. And he said, Jehovah has broken forth upon my enemies before me like the breaking forth of a flood. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

21 And the ¹Philistines left their images there, and David and his men carried them away.

22 And the Philistines came up again and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And David inquired of Jehovah, and He said, You shall not go up; go around behind them and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.

24 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall act decisively; for then Jehovah will have gone forth before you to strike the ¹army of the Philistines.

25 And David did as Jehovah had commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines from ¹Gibeon until you come to Gezer.

CHAPTER 6

b. David's Care for God's Habitation on the Earth 6:1—7:29

(1) Taking Care of the Habitation of the Ark of God 6:1-23

1 And David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David rose up and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-judah to bring up from there the Ark of God, which is called by the Name, the name of Jehovah of hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim.

21¹ Lit., they. 24¹ Or, camp. 25¹ According to 1 Chron. 14:16 and the Septuagint; the Hebrew text reads, Geba.

3 And they set the Ark of God upon a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

4 And they brought it with the Ark of God out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before Jehovah on all manner of instruments of cypress wood, with lyres and with harps and with tambourines and with sistrums and with cymbals.

6 And when they came to Nachon's threshing floor, Uzzah reached out for the Ark of God and took hold of it; for the oxen had stumbled.

7 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him there for his 'error; and he died there by the Ark of God.

8 And David was angry because Jehovah had broken forth with an outburst upon Uzzah; and that place has been called Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of Jehovah that day; and he said, How shall the Ark of Jehovah come to me?

10 So David did not want to remove the Ark of Jehovah to himself in the city of David. But David carried it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the Ark of Jehovah remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months; and Jehovah blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

12 And it was told King David, saying, Jehovah has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he has because of the Ark of God. So David went and brought up the Ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with rejoicing.

13 And when those who bore the Ark of Jehovah had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

14 And David danced with all his might before Jehovah; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the Ark of Jehovah with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And when the Ark of Jehovah came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through a window and saw King David leaping and dancing before Jehovah; and she despised him in her heart.

17 And they brought in the Ark of Jehovah and set it in its place in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings before Jehovah.

18 And when David finished offering up the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of hosts.

19 And he apportioned to all the people, to the whole multitude of Israel, to both men and women, to each one, a cake of bread and a ¹portion of meat and a cake of raisins. And all the people went away, each to his own house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul went forth to meet David; and she said, How the king of Israel has made himself honorable today, uncovering himself today in the sight of the maids of his servants as some worthless fellow might shamelessly uncover himself!

21 And David said to Michal, It was before Jehovah, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of Jehovah, over Israel; so I played before Jehovah.

7¹ The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. 19¹ The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. Others understand, a portion of wine; others, a date cake.

22 And I will yet be more lightly esteemed than this, and I will be base in my own sight; but by the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them will I be honored.

23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child until the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

(2) Wanting to Build a House for God 7:1-29

1 And as the king dwelt in his house and Jehovah gave him rest all around from all his enemies,

2 The king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the Ark of God dwells within curtains.

3 And Nathan said to the king, All that is in your heart go and do, for Jehovah is with you.

4 And in that night the word of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying,

5 Go and say to My servant David, Thus says Jehovah, Is it you who will build Me a house for Me to dwell in?

6 For I have not dwelt in a house, since the day I brought the children of Israel up out of Egypt to this day; but I went about in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all My going about among all the children of Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?

8 And now thus shall you say to My servant David, Thus says Jehovah of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you might be ruler over My people, over Israel;

9 And I have been with you in every place that you have gone and have cut off all your enemies before you; and I will make a great name for you, like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.

10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them there, that they may dwell in their own place and be disturbed no more; and the sons of wickedness will ill-treat them no more as before,

11 Even since the time when I commanded that there be judges over My people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover Jehovah declares to you that Jehovah will make you a house.

12 When your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, which will come forth from your 'body, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 It is he who will build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

14 I will be his Father, and he will be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will strike him with the rod of men and with the stripes of the sons of men;

15 But My lovingkindness will not depart from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I put away before you.

16 And your house and your kingdom will be made sure forever before you; your throne will be established forever.

17 According to all these words and according to this whole vision did Nathan speak to David.

18 Then King David went and 'sat before Jehovah; and he said, Who am I, O Lord Jehovah, and what is my house that You have brought me this far?

19 And this was yet a small thing in Your sight, O Lord Jehovah; but You have spoken also of the house of Your servant for a great while to come; and is this the custom for man, O Lord Jehovah?

20 And what more can David say to 12¹ Lit., inward parts. 18¹ Or, remained.

You? For You know Your servant, O Lord Jehovah.

21 For Your word's sake and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness to make Your servant know it.

22 Therefore You are great, O Lord Jehovah; for there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And who is like Your people Israel, a nation unique on the earth, which God went to redeem to Himself as a people in order to make a name for Himself and to do for You what is great and awesome for Your land and before Your people, whom You have redeemed to Yourself out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 And You have established Your people Israel to be a people to You forever, and You, O Jehovah, became their God.

25 And now, O Jehovah God, confirm forever the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, and do as You have spoken.

26 And may Your name be magnified forever when men say, Jehovah of hosts is God over Israel; and the house of Your servant David will be established before You.

27 For You, O Jehovah of hosts, God of Israel, have revealed to Your servant, saying, I will build you a house; therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray this prayer to You.

28 And now, O Lord Jehovah, You are God, and Your words are true, and You have spoken this good matter to Your servant;

29 Now therefore may it please You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may be before You forever; for You, O Lord Jehovah, have spoken it. And with Your blessing may the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

CHAPTER 8

c. David's Conquest over His Enemies for the Strengthening of His Kingdom
8:1 — 10:19

(1) David's Conquests over the Philistines, Moab, Zobah, Syria, and Edom
8:1-14

1 And after this David struck the Philistines and subdued them. And David took ¹control of the chief city out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he struck Moab. And making them lie down on the ground, he measured them with a measuring line; and he measured out two lengths of them to be put to death and one full length to be kept alive. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

3 Then David struck Hadadezer the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah, when he went to recover his power at the River¹.

4 And David took from him a thousand seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And David hamstringed all the chariot horses but left enough of them for a hundred chariots.

5 And when the ¹Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer the king of Zobah, David struck twenty-two thousand men among the Syrians.

6 And David put garrisons among the Syrians of Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were with the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Betah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze.

9 Then when Toi the king of Hamath heard that David had struck down all the army of Hadadezer,

10 Toi sent Joram his son to King David to greet him and ¹congratulate him for fighting against Hadadezer and striking him down, for Hadadezer had been at war with Toi. And in ²Joram's hand were articles of silver and of gold and of bronze.

11 King David consecrated these also to Jehovah along with the silver and gold that he consecrated from all the nations that he had subdued:

12 From the ¹Syrians and from the Moabites and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines and from the Amalekites and from the spoil of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah.

13 And David made a name for himself when he returned from striking down the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, that is, eighteen thousand men.

14 And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons; and all the Edomites became servants to David. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

(2) David's Reign in Justice and Righteousness
8:15-18

15 So David reigned over all Israel, and David executed justice and righteousness for all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder.

17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Seraiah was scribe.

18 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada ¹was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were his ²chief ministers.

CHAPTER 9

(3) David Showing Kindness to Mephibosheth the Son of Jonathan
9:1-13

1 And David said, Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul, that I may show kindness to him for Jonathan's sake?

2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul, whose name was Ziba; and they called him to David. And the king said to him, Are you Ziba? And he said, I am your servant.

3 And the king said, Is there yet anyone at all of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him? And Ziba said to the king, There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet.

4 Then the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, He is just now in the house of Machir the son of Amiel in Lo-debar.

5 And King David sent men and took him from the house of Machir the son of Amiel, from Lo-debar.

6 And Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David and fell on his face and paid homage. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he said, Your servant is here.

7 And David said to him, Do not be afraid, for I will surely show kindness to you for the sake of Jonathan your father; and I will restore to you all the land of your father Saul, and you will eat food at my table continually.

8 And he paid him homage and said, What is your servant that you should look upon a dead dog like me?

9 And the king called Ziba, Saul's attendant, and said to him, All that belongs to Saul and to all his house I give to your master's son.

10 And you shall work the land for him, you and your sons and your servants; and you shall bring in the produce that your master's son may have food to eat; and Mephibosheth, your master's son, will eat food continually at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then Ziba said to the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will your servant do. And Mephibosheth, said David, shall eat at my table like one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem because he ate at the king's table continually. And he was crippled in both his feet.

CHAPTER 10

(4) David's Conquests over Ammon and Syria 10:1-19

1 And after this the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place.

2 And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent word through his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Do you really think that David is honoring your father just because he sent some men to you to comfort you? Has not David sent his servants to you in order to search out the city and to spy on it and to overthrow it?

4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved off half their beards and cut away half their garments at the buttocks, and he sent them away.

5 Now when they told this to David, he sent some to meet them, for the men were very ashamed. And the king said, Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back, then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob, twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the host of mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon went forth and set the battle in array at the entrance of the gate; but the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and of Maacah were alone in the field.

9 Now when Joab saw that there were battle lines against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men in Israel and set them in array against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he put under the charge of Abishai his brother and set them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; and if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come to help you.

12 Be strong and let us be bold for the sake of our people and for the sake of the cities of our God, and may Jehovah do what seems good in His sight.

13 So Joab and the people who were with him approached the battle against the Syrians, and the 'Syrians fled before him.

14 And the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, and they fled from before 13' Lit., they.

Abishai and entered the city. And Joab returned from the children of Ammon and entered Jerusalem.

15 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been routed before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadadezer sent word and brought forth the Syrians who were beyond the River. And they came to Helem, and Shobach the captain of the army of Hadadezer was before them.

17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel together and passed over the Jordan and came to Helem. And the Syrians set themselves in array to meet David, and they fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David slew seven hundred charioteers of the Syrians and forty thousand horsemen; and he struck Shobach the captain of their army, and he died there.

19 And when all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed by Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians were afraid to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

d. David's Indulging Sin 11:1-27

1 And at the turn of the year, at the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent out Joab and his servants with him and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem.

2 And late one afternoon David rose from his bed and went for a walk on the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful to look at.

3 And David sent and inquired about the woman. And someone said, This is none other than Bath-sheba the daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite.

4 And David sent messengers and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she had just purified herself from her uncleanness.) And she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived; and she sent word and told David and said, I am pregnant.

6 Then David sent word to Joab: Send me Uriah the Hittite. So Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And Uriah came to him, and David asked how Joab was doing and how the people were doing and how the battle was going.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house, and wash your feet. And Uriah went forth from the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king.

9 But Uriah lay down at the entrance to the king's house with all the servants of his lord and did not go down to his house.

10 And they told David, saying, Uriah did not go down to his house. Then David said to Uriah, Have you not just come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house?

11 And Uriah said to David, The ark and Israel and Judah dwell in huts, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamped in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live and your soul lives, I shall by no means do this thing!

12 And David said to Uriah, Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back. So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the following.

13 Then David invited him to eat and drink in his presence, and he made him drunk. Then in the evening he went forth to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his house.

14 Then in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Put Uriah in the forefront of the hardest battle, and withdraw from him that he may be struck down and die.

16 So when Joab 'besieged the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew the valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went forth and fought with Joab; and some of the people, some of the servants of David, fell. And Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 And Joab sent a messenger to tell David all the things concerning the battle;

19 And he commanded the messenger, saying, When you have finished telling the king all the things concerning the battle, 20 If the king's anger rises up and he says to you, Why did you go so close to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who struck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone upon him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so close to the wall? Then you shall say, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

22 So the messenger went, and he came and told David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said to David, The men prevailed against us and came out to us in the field, but we ¹drove them back to the entrance of the gate.

24 Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall, and some of the king's servants died. And your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.

25 Then David said to the messenger, Thus shall you say to Joab, Do not let this matter displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your fighting against the city and overthrow it. And encourage him.

26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was over, David sent for her and brought her to his house; and she became his wife and bore a son to him. But the thing that David did displeased Jehovah.

CHAPTER 12

e. God's Punishing Condemnation 12:1-15a

1 Then Jehovah sent Nathan to David. And he went to him and said to him, Two men lived in a city, one rich and the other poor.

2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds,

3 But the poor man had nothing but one small ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he nourished it, and it grew up together with him and his children; it ate of the morsels of his food and drank out of his own cup and lay on his bosom; indeed it was like a daughter to him.

4 And there came a traveler to the rich man. But the ¹rich man ²refused to take something from his own flock and herd to dress for the wayfarer who had come to him; but he took the poor man's ewe lamb and dressed it for the man who had come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. And he said to Nathan, As Jehovah lives, the man who has done this is ¹worthy of death;

6 And he shall restore the ewe lamb fourfold because he has done this thing and because he had no pity.

7 Then Nathan said to David, You are 16¹ Lit., watched. 23¹ Lit., were upon them. 4¹ Lit., he. 4² Lit., spared to take. 5¹ Lit., a son of death.

the man. Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul;

8 And I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if this were too little, I would have added to you such and such things.

9 Why have you despised the word of Jehovah by doing what is evil in His sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife as your wife and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword will not depart from your house forever because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.

11 Thus says Jehovah, I will now raise up trouble against you from within your house; and I will take your wives before your eyes and will give them to your companion, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For you did this secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and even before the sun.

13 And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against Jehovah. And Nathan said to David, Jehovah has also put away your sin; you will not die.

14 Nevertheless, because you have given the enemies of Jehovah much occasion to 'blaspheme Him because of this thing, the son who is born to you shall also surely die.

15 Then Nathan went to his house.

f. God's Punishing Judgment on David
12:15b—20:26

(1) The Death of the Child
Born of Uriah's Wife
12:15b-23

And Jehovah struck the child whom Uriah's wife bore to David, and he was very sick.

16 And David besought God for the child; and David fasted and went in and spent all night lying on the ground.

17 And the elders of his house stood over him to raise him from the ground; but he did not want to, nor would he eat food with them.

18 And on the seventh day the child died. And David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, While the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice; how then can we tell him that the child is dead? He will do himself some harm.

19 And David saw that his servants were whispering, and David perceived that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David rose up from the ground and washed and anointed himself and changed his clothes. And he went to the house of Jehovah and worshipped. Then he went to his house; and when he requested it, they set food before him, and he ate.

21 And his servants said to him, What is this thing that you have done? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but as soon as the child died, you rose up and ate bread.

22 And he said, While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I thought, Who knows? Jehovah may be gracious to me, and the child may live.

23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not come back to me.

(2) The Birth of Solomon
12:24-25

24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife and went in unto her and lay with her. And she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And Jehovah loved him;

14¹ Lit., contemn, or spurn.

25 And He sent word through Nathan the prophet and called his name Jedidiah for Jehovah's sake.

(3) David's Conquest over the Children of Ammon
12:26-31

26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I have fought against Rabbah; indeed I have taken the city of water.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people, and encamp against the city, and take it; otherwise I myself will take the city, and ¹it will be called by my name.

29 So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah and fought against it and took it.

30 And he took the crown of their king from off his head. And the weight of it was a talent of gold, and it had precious stones; and it was put upon David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

31 And he brought out the people who were in it and set them under saws and iron cutting tools and iron axes and made them pass through the brick kilns; and thus did he do to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

(4) The Incest of Amnon the Son of David with His Sister Tamar
13:1-22

1 And some time after this, it so happened that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so distraught that he made himself sick because of Tamar his sister; for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.

3 Now Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very crafty man.

4 And he said to him, Why are you, O son of the king, so downcast morning after morning? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said to him, Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be sick; and when your father comes to see you, tell him, Please let Tamar my sister come and give me bread to eat, and let her make me food in my sight that I may see it and eat from her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. And when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat them from her hand.

7 Then David sent word home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and make him food.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was lying down. And she took dough and kneaded it and made cakes in his sight and baked the cakes.

9 And she took the pan and ¹emptied it before him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon said, Have all the men go out from me. And all the men went out from him.

10 And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into my room so that I may eat from your hand. And Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them to Amnon her brother in his room.

11 And when she brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, Come lie with me, my sister.

28¹ Lit., my name will be called over it. 9¹ Lit., poured.

12 And she said to him, No, my brother. Do not ¹force me, for such a thing should not be done in Israel. Do not commit this folly.

13 And where will I carry my shame? And you, you will be like one of the foolish men in Israel. Now therefore, speak to the king, I beg you; for he will not withhold me from you.

14 But he would not listen to her voice. And being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred, for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Rise up and go.

16 But she said to him, Do not cause this greater wrong by sending me away, greater than the other that you have done to me. But he would not listen to her.

17 And he called his young man who served him and said, Send this woman away from me outside, and bolt the door behind her.

18 Now she had a long garment with sleeves, for the virgin daughters of the king dressed themselves in such robes. So his servant brought her outside and bolted the door behind her.

19 And Tamar put ashes upon her head and rent the long garment with sleeves that was upon her, and she put her hand on her head and went off, crying aloud as she went.

20 Then Absalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon your brother been with you? But be quiet now, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this thing to heart. And Tamar remained in her brother Absalom's house, desolate.

21 And when King David heard about all these things, he was very angry.

22 But Absalom did not speak anything good or evil to Amnon, for Absalom hated Amnon because he had forced Tamar his sister.

(5) The Murder of Amnon
by Absalom the Son of David 13:23-39

23 Then after two full years, while Absalom had sheep shearers in Baal-hazor, which is by Ephraim, Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king and said, Your servant now has sheep shearers. May the king and his servants go now with your servant.

25 But the king said to Absalom, No, my son; let us not all go, or we will be a burden to you. And he pressed him, but he would not go; yet he gave him his blessing.

26 Then Absalom said, If not, then let Amnon my brother go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with you?

27 But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 And Absalom commanded his attendants, saying, Watch now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine; and when I say to you, Strike Amnon, then kill him. Do not be afraid; is it not I who have commanded you? Be strong and valiant.

29 And Absalom's attendants did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. And all the king's sons rose up, and each mounted his mule and fled.

30 And while they were on the way, the report came to David, namely, Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them is left.

31 And the king rose up and rent his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their garments rent.

32 Then Jonadab the son of Shimeah, 12¹ Lit., humble. So throughout this chapter.

David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord think that all the young men, the sons of the king, have been killed, for Amnon alone is dead. For this has been determined ¹by Absalom since the day ²Amnon forced Tamar his sister.

33 Now therefore let my lord the king not take the matter to heart, thinking that all the king's sons are dead; for only Amnon is dead.

34 But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and there they were, a multitude of people coming from the road behind him at the side of the mountain.

35 Then Jonadab said to the king, Here come the king's sons; as your servant has said, so has it been.

36 And when he had finished speaking, there came the king's sons, and they lifted up their voice and wept. And the king and all his servants also wept exceedingly.

37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmi the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 So Absalom fled and went to Geshur. And he was there three years.

39 And David the king longed to go out to Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

(6) Joab's Device to Bring Absalom Back
14:1-24

1 And Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was set on Absalom.

2 So Joab sent word to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought from there. And he said to her, Pretend to be in mourning, and put on mourning garments, and do not anoint yourself with oil; but be like a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time.

3 And go to the king and speak with him in this way. And Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and paid him homage and said, Help, O king!

5 And the king said to her, What troubles you? And she said, Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead.

6 And your servant had two sons. And the two struggled with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them. So the one struck down the other and killed him.

7 And now the whole family has risen up against your servant, and they say, Give over that one who struck down his brother that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he has slain, even if we destroy the heir also. Thus they will quench my coal which is left without leaving to my husband a name or a remainder on the face of the earth.

8 Then the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will issue a command concerning you.

9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, O my lord the king, the iniquity be upon me and upon the house of my father, and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more.

11 And she said, May the king remember Jehovah your God, so that the avenger of blood may kill no more and they destroy not my son. And he said, As Jehovah lives, not a hair from your son shall fall to the ground.

12 Then the woman said, Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king. And he said, Speak.

32¹ Lit., by the command of Absalom. 32² Lit., he.

13 And the woman said, Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word, the king is like one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring back his banished one.

14 For we must die and are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered again. Yet God does not take away life, but devises ways that the banished one would not be cast out from Him.

15 Now therefore that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people made me afraid; and your servant said, I will now speak to the king; perhaps the king will perform his servant's request.

16 For the king will hear and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then your servant said, Let the word of my lord the king be a comfort to me, for as an angel of God is, so is my lord the king in ¹discerning good and evil; and may Jehovah your God be with you.

18 And the king answered and said to the woman, Do not hide the matter from me which I will ask of you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king speak.

19 And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, O my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or left of anything that my lord the king has said; for your servant Joab commanded me, and it is he who has put all these words in the mouth of your servant.

20 In order to change the appearance of the matter, your servant Joab did this thing; and my lord is wise, as wise as an angel of God, knowing all that there is in the land.

21 Then the king said to Joab, I will now do this thing; go therefore, and bring the young man Absalom back.

22 And Joab fell on his face to the ground and paid homage and blessed the king; and Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, O my lord the king, in that the king has granted his servant's request.

23 Then Joab rose up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, but let him not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house and did not see the king's face.

(7) Absalom's Beauty and His Children
14:25-27

25 Now there was none in Israel to be praised more greatly for his beauty than Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he cut the hair of his head (and it was at the end of each year that he cut it, for it became heavy on him and he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, according to the king's weight.

27 And to Absalom were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

(8) Absalom's Seeking to See
His Father David
14:28-33

28 And Absalom dwelt in Jerusalem for two full years and did not see the king's face.

29 Then Absalom sent for Joab so that he might send him to the king, but he would not come to him. And he sent for him yet a second time, but he would not come.

30 Then he said to his servants, See, Joab's portion of land is near mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire. So 17¹ Lit., hearing.

Absalom's servants set the portion of land on fire.

31 And Joab rose up and came to Absalom at his house; and he said to him, Why did your servants set my portion of land on fire?

32 And Absalom said to Joab, I sent for you, saying, Come now that I may send you to the king to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It would have been better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there is any iniquity in me, let him put me to death.

33 So Joab went to the king and spoke to him, and he called for Absalom. And he came to the king and bowed himself with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER 15

(9) Absalom's Revolt 15:1—19:8a

1 And after this Absalom prepared for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom would rise up early and stand beside the way into the gate; and when any man who had a cause that should have come to the king for judgment came, Absalom would call to him and say, What city are you from? And he would say, Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.

3 Then Absalom would say to him, See, your matters are good and right, but there is no one appointed by the king to hear you.

4 And Absalom would say, Oh that I were made a judge in the land, that every man who had a cause or a matter to be judged would come to me, and I would do him justice!

5 And so when any man came near to pay him homage, he would put forth his hand and take hold of him and kiss him.

6 And Absalom acted in this way to all the Israelites who came to the king for judgment. And Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And at the end of forty years Absalom said to the king, Let me go now and repay my vow, which I vowed to Jehovah in Hebron.

8 For your servant vowed a vow while I was dwelling in Geshur in Syria, saying, If Jehovah will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, I will 'worship Jehovah.

9 And the king said to him, Go in peace. So he rose up and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When you hear the sound of the trumpet, you shall say, Absalom is king in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom there went two hundred men from Jerusalem, who had been called and went 'innocently; they did not know anything.

12 And while he was offering the sacrifices, Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, a counselor of David, from his city Giloh. And the conspiracy gained strength, and the people with Absalom increased continually.

13 Then a messenger came to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Absalom.

14 And David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, Rise up, and let us flee; for none of us will escape from Absalom otherwise. Hurry and go, lest he quickly overtake us and bring harm down upon us and strike the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said to the king, In all that my lord the king chooses, here we are, your servants.

16 So the king went forth, and all his house after him. But the king left ten concubines to keep the house.

8¹ Or, serve. 11¹ Lit., in their integrity.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him; and they stopped at the last house.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why are you also going with us? Return and abide with the king, for you are a foreigner as well as an exile from your place.

20 You came just recently, so should I today make you wander with us, while I go about wherever I can? Return and take your brothers back; lovingkindness and truth be with you.

21 But Ittai answered the king and said, As Jehovah lives and as my lord the king lives, in whatever place my lord the king will be, whether for death or for life, there shall your servant most certainly be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones with him passed over.

23 And all the land wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. And the king passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward the way of the wilderness.

24 And there came Zadok also and all the Levites with him, bearing the Ark of the Covenant of God; and they set the Ark of God down, and Abiathar went up until all the people had finished passing over from the city.

25 Then the king said to Zadok, Bring the Ark of God back into the city. If I should find favor in the sight of Jehovah, He will bring me back and show me it and His habitation.

26 But if He should say thus, I am not pleased with you, let Him then do with me as it seems good in His sight.

27 And the king said to Zadok the priest, You are a seer; return to the city in peace with Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan the son of Abiathar, your two sons with you.

28 See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.

29 So Zadok and Abiathar brought the Ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

30 And David went up the ascent to the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went up, and he had his head covered and he went barefoot. And all the people who were with him each covered his own head; and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 Then someone told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, Turn, I pray, the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness, O Jehovah.

32 Then when David came to the summit, where God was worshipped, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn and with earth on his head.

33 And David said to him, If you pass over with me, you will be a burden to me.

34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, I am your servant, O king; as I was your father's servant in the past, so will I be your servant now; then you will defeat the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35 And will not Zadok and Abiathar the priests be with you there? Therefore whatever you hear from the king's house you shall tell Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 And there with them will be their two sons, Ahimaaz the son of Zadok and Jonathan the son of Abiathar; and through them you shall send to me whatever you hear.

37 So Hushai, David's friend, came to the city; and Absalom came to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

1 And when David was a little past the summit, Ziba, Mephibosheth's attendant, came to meet him with a pair of saddled asses and upon them two hundred loaves of bread and a hundred clusters of raisins and a hundred summer fruit and a skin of wine.

2 And the king said to Ziba, Why do you have these? And Ziba said, The asses are for the king's household to ride on, and the bread and the summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those who faint in the wilderness to drink.

3 And the king said, And where is your master's son? And Ziba said to the king, He is now dwelling in Jerusalem, for he said, Today the house of Israel will restore to me the kingdom of my father.

4 And the king said to Ziba, Now all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours. And Ziba said, I bow myself to you. May I find favor in your sight, O my lord the king.

5 And when King David came to Bahurim, a man of the family of the house of Saul came forth from there, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came forth, cursing as he came forth.

6 And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right and on his left.

7 And Shimei spoke thus in his cursing, Go away, go away, you man of bloodshed and ⁷worthless fellow.

8 Jehovah has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and Jehovah has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son; and now you have been taken in your own mischief, for you are a man of bloodshed.

9 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head.

10 But the king said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and if Jehovah has told him to curse David, who then can say, Why have you done so?

11 And David said to Abishai and all his servants, Now my son, who came forth from my body, seeks my life; how much more then this Benjaminite will do so. Leave him alone and let him curse, for Jehovah has told him to do so.

12 It may be that Jehovah will look on the wrong done to me and that Jehovah will repay me with good for his cursing on this day.

13 And David and his men went on their way. And Shimei went along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went; and he threw stones at him and cast dust upon him.

14 And the king and all the people who were with him arrived weary, and he refreshed himself there.

15 Meanwhile Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem; and Ahithophel was with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, Long live the king! Long live the king!

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, No; but the one whom Jehovah and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with him will I dwell.

19 Furthermore, whom should I serve?

⁷ Lit., man of Belial.

Should it not be in the presence of his son? As I served in the presence of your father, so will I be in your presence.

20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your counsel as to what we should do.

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in unto your father's concubines whom he left to keep the house, and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself abhorrent to your father; then the hands of all those who are with you will be strong.

22 So they spread a tent for Absalom upon the roof, and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 Now the counsel of Ahithophel that he gave in those days was as if one inquired of the oracle of God; all the counsel of Ahithophel was thus, both with David and with Absalom.

CHAPTER 17

1 Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight.

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed. And I will terrorize him, and all the people who are with him will flee; then I will strike down the king only.

3 And I will bring all the people back to you; the return of the whole depends on what happens to the man whom you are seeking. All the people will be at peace.

4 And the word seemed right in the sight of Absalom and in the sight of all the elders of Israel.

5 Then Absalom said, Call now for Hushai the Archite also that we may hear what he also has to say.

6 So Hushai came to Absalom; and Absalom spoke to him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken in this way. Shall we do what he says? If not, you speak.

7 And Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good.

8 Hushai said moreover, You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men and bitter in soul, like a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and your father is a man of war and will not lodge with the people.

9 He is now hidden in some pit or some other place; and when some of them fall at the beginning, whoever hears of it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who are with Absalom.

10 And even he who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt in fear; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and that those who are with him are valiant men.

11 But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together unto you, from Dan to Beersheba, like the sand that is by the sea in multitude, and that you go into battle in person.

12 Then we will come upon him in some place where he will be found, and we will light upon him as dew falls upon the ground; and we will not leave among him and among the men who are with him even one.

13 And if he should withdraw into a city, all Israel will carry ropes to that city, and we will pull it into the river, until not even a stone is found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel; for Jehovah had ordained the defeat of the good counsel of Ahithophel to the intent that Jehovah might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and thus did I counsel.

16 Now therefore send word quickly and tell David, saying, Do not lodge to-night at the ¹fords of the wilderness, but pass over by all means; otherwise, the king will be swallowed up, as well as all the people who are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying in En-rogel, and a female servant would go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David; for they could not risk being seen coming into the city.

18 But a young man saw them, and he told Absalom. And both of them went off quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it.

19 And his wife took the covering and spread it over the mouth of the well, and she strew grain over it; and the matter was unknown.

20 Then Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have crossed over the brook of water. And when they searched for them and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And after they departed, they came up out of the well and went and told King David. And they said to David, Rise up and cross quickly over the water, for thus has Ahithophel given counsel against you.

22 So David rose up with all the people who were with him, and they crossed over the Jordan; by morning's light there was not one left who had not crossed over the Jordan.

23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and rose up and went to his house in his city; and he set his house in order and hanged himself. And he died and was buried in the sepulcher of his father.

24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom set Amasa over the army, instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in unto Abigail the daughter of Nahash, Zeruiah's sister, Joab's mother.

26 And Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

27 And when David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Amiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds and basins and earthen vessels and wheat and barley and meal and parched grain and beans and lentils and other parched grain

29 And honey and butter and sheep and cheese from the herd to David and the people who were with him for them to eat; for they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

CHAPTER 18

1 Then David ¹mustered the people who were with him, and he set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent the people out, a third under the hand of Joab and a third under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, I myself will surely go forth with you also.

3 But the people said, You shall not go forth; for if we flee off, they will not care about us; and if half of us die, they will not care about us. ¹But you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore it is better for you to be available to help us from the city.

16¹ Some MSS read, plains. 1¹ Or, numbered. 3¹ Following some MSS and the Septuagint. Many MSS read, Now there are ten thousand like us.

4 And the king said to them, What seems best in your sight I will do. So the king stood at the side of the gate, and all the people went forth by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave the command to all the captains concerning Absalom.

6 And the people went forth into the field against Israel, and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.

7 And the people of Israel were struck there before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter of twenty thousand there on that day.

8 And the battle was spread there over the face of all the land, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 And Absalom happened to meet the servants of David, and Absalom was riding upon his mule. And the mule went under the tangled branches of a great ¹tree; and his head was caught in the ¹tree, and he ²was left hanging between heaven and earth while the mule that was under him went on.

10 And a certain man saw this; and he told Joab and said, I have just seen Absalom hanging from a tree.

11 And Joab said to the man who told him this, And you have just seen this. Why did you not strike him down to the ground there? For I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt.

12 And the man said to Joab, Though I would receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not put forth my hand against the son of the king; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Take care of the young man Absalom, whoever you be.

13 On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously with his life (there is nothing hidden from the king), you would have set yourself against me.

14 Then Joab said, I will not linger here with you. And he took three staves in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart while he was still alive in the midst of the tree.

15 And ten young men who carried Joab's armor surrounded Absalom and struck him, and they killed him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet; and the people returned from pursuing after Israel, for Joab restrained the people.

17 And they took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and they cast up over him a very great mound of stones. And all Israel fled, every man to his tent.

18 Now Absalom, while he was alive, had taken a pillar which was in the king's valley and raised it up for himself, for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance. And he called the pillar by his own name, and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

19 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Let me now run and announce the news to the king, that Jehovah has ¹avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said to him, You shall not be the bearer of the news this day, but you shall announce the news on another day; yet on this day you shall not announce the news, for the king's son is dead.

21 And Joab said to the Cushite, Go, tell the king what you have seen. And the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran.

22 Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, But come what may, let me also run after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why will you run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the news?

9¹ Lit., terebinth. So also in vv. 10 and 14. 9² Lit., was put. 19¹ Lit., judged him out of the hand of his enemies.

23 But come what may, he said, I will run. And he said to him, Run. And Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and passed the Cushite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up on the roof of the gate to the wall; and lifted up his eyes and looked, and there came a man running alone.

25 And the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, If he is alone, there is news in his mouth. And he continued coming and drew near.

26 Then the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called out to the gatekeeper and said, Here comes a man running alone. And the king said, This one also brings news.

27 And the watchman said, I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man and comes with good news.

28 And Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, ¹All is well; and he bowed down to the king on his face to the ground. And he said, Blessed be Jehovah your God, who has delivered up the men who have lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is all well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz said, When Joab sent the king's servant and me your servant, I saw a great commotion, but I do not know what it was.

30 And the king said, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside and stood there.

31 Just then the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, Good news for my lord the king, for today Jehovah has ¹avenged you of all who have risen up against you.

32 And the king said to the Cushite, Is all well with the young man Absalom? And the Cushite said, May the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rise up against you to harm you be like that young man!

33 And the king was badly shaken, and he went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And as he went, he spoke thus, O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you! O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER 19

1 And Joab was told: The king now weeps and mourns for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned to mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day that the king was grieved concerning his son.

3 And the people stole into the city that day as shamed people steal away when they flee in battle.

4 And the king covered his face and cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 Then Joab came to the king at his house and said, Today you have shamed the faces of all your servants, who saved your life today and the lives of your sons and daughters and the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,

6 In that you love those who hate you and hate those who love you; for you have made it clear today that princes and servants are nothing to you. But I realize today that if Absalom had lived and we all had died today, then it would have been fine in your sight.

7 Now therefore rise up; go forth and ¹comfort the hearts of your servants. For I 28¹ Lit., Peace. So also in the next verse and in v. 32. 31¹ Lit., judged you out of the hand of. 7¹ Lit., speak to the heart of.

swear by Jehovah that if you do not go forth, not a man will remain with you tonight; and that will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now.

8 So the king rose up and sat in the gate.

(10) The Peaceful Settlements in David's Kingdom after Absalom's Revolt
19:8b-43

And all the people were told, saying, The king is now sitting in the gate. And all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled, every man to his tent.

9 And all the people quarreled throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom.

10 But Absalom, whom we anointed as king over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?

11 And King David sent word to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, seeing that the word of all Israel has come to the king at his house?

12 You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring the king back?

13 And you shall say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me, and even more, if you do not become captain of the army before me continually in the place of Joab.

14 And he turned the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, and they sent word to the king, saying, Return, you and all your servants.

15 So the king returned and came to the Jordan, and Judah came to Gilgal to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite who was from Bahurim, hurried and went down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

17 And there were a thousand men with him from Benjamin; and Ziba, the attendant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him were there. And they rushed down to the Jordan before the king.

18 And the crossing was being made in order to bring the king's household over and to do whatever was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan.

19 And he said to the king, Let not my lord consider me guilty; and do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king went forth from Jerusalem, that the king should take it to heart.

20 For your servant knows that I have sinned; and now I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down, to meet my lord the king.

21 Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, for he has cursed Jehovah's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you should be an adversary to me today? Should any man in Israel be put to death today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?

23 And the king said to Shimei, You will not die. And the king swore so to him.

24 Then Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. Now he had neither taken care of his feet nor trimmed his beard nor washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he came back in peace.

25 And when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, Why did you not come with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he said, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said, I will saddle myself a donkey that I may ride on it and go with the king. For your servant is lame.

27 And ¹Ziba slandered your servant before my lord the king. But my lord the king is like an angel of God; therefore do what is good in your sight.

28 For all my father's house were but men worthy of death before my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right then do I have to cry out more to the king?

29 And the king said to him, Why speak any more of your affairs? I say that you and Ziba shall divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, Let him even take it all, since my lord the king has arrived at his house in peace.

31 Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and he crossed over the Jordan with the king, to escort him through the Jordan.

32 And Barzillai was very old, eighty years of age; and he had provided the king with food while he remained in Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said to Barzillai, Cross over with me, and I will provide you with food in Jerusalem at my side.

34 But Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

35 I am eighty years old today. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat and what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my lord the king?

36 Your servant would just cross ¹a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why then should the king reward me with such a reward?

37 Let your servant return that I may die in my city near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham, let him cross over with my lord the king; and do with him what is good in your sight.

38 And the king said, Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do with him what is good in your sight; and whatever you ¹wish for me to do, I will do for you.

39 And all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king crossed over. And the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own place.

40 So the king crossed over to Gilgal, and Chimham crossed over with him. And all the people of Judah, and half the people of Israel as well, brought the king over.

41 Then all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away and brought the king and his household over the Jordan along with the men of David with him?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, We have ten parts in the king, and in David too we have more than you. Why then have you despised us? And were we not the first to speak of bringing our king back? But the speaking of the men of Judah was ¹more prevailing than the speaking of the men of Israel.

27¹ Lit., he. 36¹ Or, for a short time. 38¹ Lit., choose (to lay) upon me. 43¹ Or, harsher, fiercer.

CHAPTER 20

(11) The Rebellion of Sheba
20:1-22

1 Now there was a ¹worthless fellow there whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite. And he blew the trumpet and said,

We have no portion in David,
Nor do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse.

Every man to his tents, O Israel!

2 And all the men of Israel went up from following David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri, but the men of Judah clung to their king, from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them under guard; and he provided for them but did not go in unto them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living like widows.

4 Then the king said to Amasa, Call the men of Judah to me in three days, and you be present here.

5 And Amasa went to call Judah, but he delayed beyond the time that ¹David appointed to him.

6 Then David said to Abishai, Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. You take servants of your lord and pursue after him; otherwise he will find himself some fortified cities and escape out of our sight.

7 So the men of Joab went out after him, along with the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men; and they went forth from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the large stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab was in military dress, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath, fastened on his loins; and when he went forward, it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my brother? And he took hold of Amasa's beard with his right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa did not notice the sword which was in Joab's hand. And ¹Joab struck him in the stomach with it and poured out his bowels onto the ground, and he did not strike him a second time; and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's young men stood by him and said, Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab.

12 And Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the people stood still. And when he saw that all who came by him were stopping, he carried Amasa off the road into the field and put a garment over him.

13 As soon as he was removed from the road, all the men went on after Joab to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And ¹Sheba went on throughout all the tribes of Israel to Abel and to Bethmaacah and unto all the Berites; and they gathered together and also went after him.

15 And they came and besieged him at Abel of Bethmaacah; and they cast up a siege mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 And a wise woman from the city cried out, Listen! Listen! Say to Joab, Come near here that I may speak to you.

17 And he came near to her; and the woman said, Are you Joab? And ¹Joab said, ¹ Lit., man of Belial. ⁵ Lit., he. ¹⁰ Lit., he. ¹⁴ Lit., he. ¹⁷ Lit., he.

I am. And she said to him, Listen to the words of your female servant. And he said, I am listening.

18 Then she spoke, saying, They used to speak in former times, saying, They shall surely ask for counsel in Abel; and thus they would end matters.

19 I am of the peaceable and faithful of Israel; you are seeking to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of Jehovah?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I would swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so, but a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, His head will immediately be thrown over the wall to you.

22 So the woman went to all the people in her wisdom; and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

(12) The Re-establishment of the Kingdom of David 20:23-26

23 Now Joab was over all the army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites,

24 And Adoram was over the forced labor, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder,

25 And Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were priests, 26 And Ira the Jairite was also a ¹chief minister to David.

CHAPTER 21

g. The Last Stage of David's Kingship 21:1—24:25

(1) David's Taking Care of the Famine for the People 21:1-14

1 And there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David ¹inquired of Jehovah. And Jehovah said, It is because of Saul and because of his house of bloodshed, for he put those Gibeonites to death.

2 So the king called for the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel but were of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel had sworn to them. But Saul had sought to slay them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah.

3 And David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And how shall I make expiation that you may bless the inheritance of Jehovah?

4 And the Gibeonites said to him, It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul and his house, and it is not for us to put any man to death in Israel. And he said, Whatever you say I will do for you.

5 Then they said to the king, The man who consumed us and who made plans against us to destroy us so that we would not remain within any of the territory of Israel,

6 Let seven men from among his sons be given to us, and we will hang them unto Jehovah in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Jehovah. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath of Jehovah that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 So the king took the two sons of 26¹ Lit., priest. See note 18² in ch. 8. 1¹ Lit., sought the face.

Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of ¹Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites. And they hanged them on the mountain before Jehovah, and the seven perished together. And they were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it on a rock for herself, from the beginning of harvest until rain from heaven fell on ¹their bodies; and she did not allow the birds of heaven to come upon them by day or the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day when the Philistines slew Saul in Gilboa.

13 So he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from there, and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged.

14 And they buried the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the grave of Kish his father; and they did all that the king had commanded. And God responded to the entreaty for the land after that.

(2) David's Conquest over the Philistines
21:15-22

15 And again the Philistines were at war with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought with the Philistines. And David became faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, who was one of the children of the giant and whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass, was girded with new weapons; and he intended to slay David.

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him and struck down the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, saying, You shall not go forth with us again into battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel.

18 Then after this there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; and Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Saph, who was one of the children of the giant.

19 And there was war with the Philistines, again at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, the Bethlehemite, slew Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also had been born to the giant.

21 And he defied Israel; and Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, slew him.

22 These four had been born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hands of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

(3) David's Thanking and Praising to God in a Song
22:1-51

1 And David spoke the words of this song to Jehovah on the day when Jehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

8¹ Following two Hebrew MSS and the Septuagint, which agree with 1 Sam. 18:19; most Hebrew MSS read, Michal. 10¹ Lit., them.

- 2 And he said:
Jehovah is my crag and my fortress and my Deliverer;
- 3 ¹My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;
My shield and the horn of my salvation, my high retreat and my refuge;
My Savior, You save me from violence.
- 4 I called upon Jehovah, who is worthy of praise,
And from my enemies I was saved.
- 5 For the waves of death encompassed
me;
The torrents of ¹destruction assailed me.
- 6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
- 7 In my distress I called upon Jehovah
And called to my God.
And He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry came to His ears.
- 8 Then the earth shook and quaked,
And the foundations of the heavens trembled and shook about,
For He was furious.
- 9 Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And fire from His mouth
devoured;
Coals blazed forth from Him.
- 10 He bowed the heavens down and descended,
And deep darkness was under His feet.
- 11 He rode upon a cherub and did fly;
He was seen upon the wings of the wind.
- 12 And He made darkness pavilions around Him:
- ¹Dark waterclouds, thick clouds of the skies.
- 13 Out of the brightness before Him
Fiery coals were kindled.
- 14 Jehovah thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered His voice.
- 15 And He sent forth arrows and scattered ¹my enemies;
Lightning bolts, and discomfited
them.
- 16 The channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the ¹habitable land were laid bare,
By the rebuke of Jehovah,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.
- 17 He reached forth from on high; He took me;
He drew me out of great waters.
- 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy
And from those who hate me, for they were too mighty for me.
- 19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But Jehovah became my support.
- 20 He brought me forth to a place broad and free;
He rescued me, for He took delight in me.
- 21 Jehovah has recompensed me
according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me.
- 22 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah
And have not acted wickedly
by turning away from my God.
- 23 For all His judgments were before
me,
And as for His statutes, I did not turn away from them.

3¹ Lit., God of my rock. 5¹ Lit., Belial. 12¹ Lit., Darkness of water. 15¹ Lit., them.
16¹ Or, world.

- 24 I was perfect toward Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
- 25 Therefore Jehovah recompensed me
according to my righteousness,
According to my cleanness in His sight.
- 26 With the faithful You show Yourself faithful,
With the perfect man You show
Yourself perfect,
- 27 With the ¹pure You show Yourself
pure,
And with the perverse You show
Yourself contrary.
- 28 And You save the afflicted people,
But Your eyes are upon the haughty that You may bring them down;
- 29 For You are my lamp, O Jehovah.
And Jehovah lights up my
darkness;
- 30 For by You I can run up against a troop;
By my God I can leap over a wall.
- 31 As for God, His way is perfect;
The word of Jehovah is tried.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
- 32 For who is God other than Jehovah,
And who is a rock except our God?
- 33 God is my strong fortress,
And He ¹makes my way perfect;
- 34 He makes ¹my feet like hinds' feet
And sets me on my high places;
- 35 He teaches my hands to wage war
So that my arms may bend a bronze bow.
- 36 And You have given me the shield of Your salvation,
- And Your condescending
gentleness has made me great.
- 37 You have broadened the places of my steps under me,
And my feet have not slipped.
- 38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them,
And I did not turn back until they were consumed.
- 39 And I devoured them and shattered them, so that they did not rise
up;
Indeed, they have fallen under my feet.
- 40 And You girded me with strength for war;
You brought down under me
those who rose up against me.
- 41 You also made my enemies turn their back to me,
And I annihilated those who hated
me.
- 42 They looked, but there was no one to save them;
They looked to Jehovah, but He did not answer them.
- 43 Then I beat them like the dust of the earth;
I pounded them, I stamped them, like the mud of the streets.
- 44 And You rescued me from the strivings of my people;
You have kept me as the head of the nations;
A people whom I have not known serves me.
- 45 Foreigners come cringing to me;
At the mere ¹hearing of a report,
they obey me;
- 46 Foreigners are discouraged
And ¹come quaking out of their fortresses.

27¹ Or, clean. 33¹ The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. We follow the text of Psa. 18:32. 34¹ Some MSS have, His feet. 45¹ Lit., hearing of the ear. 46¹ Following Psa. 18:45. The Hebrew text reads, gird themselves.

47 Jehovah lives; and blessed be my rock,
And exalted be God, the rock of my salvation,

48 The God who executes vengeance for me
And brings down peoples under
me,

49 And who brings me forth from my enemies.
Yes, You exalted me above those who rise up against me;
From the violent man You delivered me.

50 Therefore I give thanks to You among the nations, O Jehovah;
And I sing psalms to Your name.

51 ¹*It is He* who magnifies ²salvation to His king
And executes lovingkindness to His anointed,
To David and to his seed forever.

4 And He is like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds;
As when the tender grass sprouts up from the earth

At the sun's shining after a rain.
5 For is not my house so with God?
For He has made an eternal covenant with me,
Ordered in all things and secure.
For all my salvation and all my desire,
Will He not indeed make them grow?

6 But the wicked, all of them, will be Like thorns to be thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with the hand.

7 But the man who touches them
Must arm himself with an iron rod or with the shaft of a spear;
And they will be burned with fire in their place.

CHAPTER 23

(4) David's Last Words
23:1-7

1 Now these are the last words of David:

The declaration of David the son of Jesse,
And the declaration of the man who has been raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
The one lovely in the psalms of Israel.

2 The Spirit of Jehovah spoke through
me,
And His word was on my tongue.

3 The God of Israel spoke,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me,
He who rules among men
righteously,
He who rules with the fear of God.

(5) David's Mighty Men
23:8-39

8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite; he was the ¹chief of the captains; the same is Adino the Eznite, who fought against eight hundred who were slain at one time.

9 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of an Ahohite, one among the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel went away.

10 He rose up and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary; and his hand clung to the sword, and Jehovah accomplished a great salvation that day; and the people returned after him, but only to strip the slain.

51¹ Or, He is a tower of salvation. 51² Lit., salvations. 8¹ Lit., head of the three.

11 And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. Now the Philistines were gathered into a troop where there was a plot of land full of lentils, and the people fled before the Philistines.

12 But he stationed himself in the midst of the plot and defended it and struck the Philistines, and Jehovah accomplished a great salvation.

13 Now three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David at harvest time in the cave of Adullam; and the Philistine troop was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

14 Now at that time David was in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was at that time in Bethlehem.

15 And David said longingly, If only someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men burst through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate. And they carried it and brought it to David, but he would not drink it; rather he poured it out to Jehovah.

17 And he said, Far be it from me, O Jehovah, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives? Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

18 And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruah, was chief of the three. And he brandished his spear against three hundred, who were slain; and he had a name among the three.

19 He was indeed the most honored among the 'thirty, and he became their leader; but he did not attain to the three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, was great in mighty deeds. He struck the two sons of Ariel the Moabite; he also went down and struck a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

21 And he struck an Egyptian, 'an imposing man. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear out of the hand of the Egyptian and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and he had a name among the three mighty men.

23 He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem;

25 Shammah the Harodite; Elikah the Harodite;

26 Helez the Paltite; Ira the son of Ikesh the Tekoite;

27 Abiezer the Anathothite; Mebunnai the Hushathite;

28 Zalmon the Ahohite; Maharai the Netophathite;

29 Heleb the son of Baanah the Netophathite; Ittai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin;

30 Benaiah the Pirathonite; Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash;

31 Abi-albon the Arbathite; Azmaveth the Barhumite;

32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite; of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan;

33 Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam the son of Sharar the Ararite;

34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai; the son of the Maachathite; Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite;

35 Hezrai the Carmelite; Paarai the Arbite;

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah; Bani the Gadite; 19¹ The Hebrew text reads, three. 21¹ Lit., a man of appearance.

37 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai the Beerothite, the armor ¹bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah;

38 Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite;

39 Uriah the Hittite. They were thirty-seven in all.

CHAPTER 24

(6) David's Last Sin
24:1-25

1 And again the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel; and He moved David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 And the king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, Go now throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and count the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said to the king, Now may Jehovah your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king may see it. But why does my lord the king desire this thing?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the army. And Joab and the captains of the army went forth before the king to count the people of Israel.

5 And they crossed the Jordan and encamped at Aroer to the right of the city, which was in the midst of the river valley, toward Gad and unto Jazer.

6 Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi, and they came to Dan-jaan and around to Sidon.

7 And they came to the stronghold of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites, and they went on to the south of Judah at Beer-sheba.

8 And when they had gone about throughout all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave the number of the count of the people to the king. And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And David's heart smote him after he had numbered the people. And David said to Jehovah, I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, O Jehovah, put away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.

11 And when David rose up in the morning, the word of Jehovah came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying, 12 Go and speak to David, Thus says Jehovah, I am offering you three things; choose one of them for Me to do for you.

13 So Gad went to David and told him these things. And he said to him, Shall seven years of famine come upon you in your land? Or shall you flee before your adversaries for three months while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of pestilence in your land? Consider now and see what word I should return to Him who sent me.

14 And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait; let us fall into the hand of Jehovah, for His compassions are great; and do not let me fall into the hand of man.

15 So Jehovah sent a pestilence in Israel from the morning until the appointed time; and seventy thousand people died among the people from Dan to Beer-sheba.

16 And when the angel stretched forth his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Jehovah repented of the harm. And He said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough; now hold back your hand. And the angel of Jehovah was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 And David spoke to Jehovah when he saw the angel striking the people and said, It is I who have sinned, and it is I who have acted wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against the house of my father.

18 And Gad came to David on that day; and he said to him, Go up and raise up an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David went up according to Gad's word, as Jehovah had commanded.

20 And Araunah looked out and saw the king and his servants coming over toward him. And Araunah went forth and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing floor from you to build an altar to Jehovah, that the plague may be stayed among the people.

22 And Araunah said to David, May my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good in his sight. Look, the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing instruments and the yokes for the oxen for the wood—

23 All this, O king, does Araunah give to the king. Then Araunah said to the king, May Jehovah your God accept you.

24 But the king said to Araunah, No; but I will surely buy it from you for a price, and I will not offer to Jehovah my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And there David built an altar to Jehovah, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And Jehovah responded to the entreaty for the land, and the plague was stayed in Israel.

CHAPTER 1

I. The Old Age and Decease of David 1:1 — 2:11

A. Being Old and Fading Away 1:1-4

1 Now when King David was old and advanced in ¹years, they covered him with clothing, but he could not get warm.

2 So his servants said to him, Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king and serve him; and let her lie in your bosom so that my lord the king may get warm.

3 Thus they sought for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and they found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king.

4 And the young woman was very beautiful, and she served the king and ministered to him; but the king did not know her.

B. Making Solomon the Successor to His Throne 1:5-53

5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king. And he prepared a chariot and horsemen for himself and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had never displeased him by saying, Why have you done thus and thus? And he also was very handsome, and his mother bore him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest; and following Adonijah, they helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel; and he called all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the men of Judah, the servants of the king.

10 But he did not call Nathan the prophet and Benaiah and the mighty men and Solomon his brother.

11 Then Nathan spoke to Bath-sheba, Solomon's mother, saying, Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns and our lord David does not know it?

12 Now therefore come and let me give you counsel to save your life and the life of your son Solomon.

13 Go in at once to King David and say to him, Did you not, my lord O king, swear to your female servant, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Then why does Adonijah reign?

14 Just when you are there and still speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.

15 So Bath-sheba went in to the king in the chamber. And the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed and paid homage to the king. And the king said, What do you wish?

17 And she said to him, My lord, you swore by Jehovah your God to your female servant, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 But now, at this moment Adonijah reigns, and ¹you, my lord the king, know nothing of it.

19 And he has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep abundantly and has called for all the king's sons and for Abiathar the priest and for Joab the captain of the army, but he has not called for Solomon your servant.

20 And you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, that you would declare to them who will sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be counted as ¹offenders.

22 And just while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Nathan the prophet is here. And he came in before the king and paid homage to the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord the king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he has gone down today and sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep abundantly and has called for all the king's sons and for the captains of the army and for Abiathar the priest; and now they are eating and drinking before him, and they say, May King Adonijah live!

26 But he has not called for me, me your servant, and for Zadok the priest and for Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and for Solomon your servant.

27 Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not made known to your servants who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 Then King David answered and said, Call Bath-sheba to me. And she came in before the king and stood before the king.

29 And the king swore and said, As Jehovah lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, 30 Indeed as I have sworn to you by Jehovah the God of Israel, saying, Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my place; so indeed will I do this day.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the ground and paid homage to the king, and she said, May my lord King David live forever.

32 And King David said, Call Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada to me. And they came in before the king.

33 And the king said to them, Take the servants of your lord with you, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there as king over Israel; and blow the trumpet and say, May King Solomon live!

35 Then come up after him; and he shall come and sit upon my throne, and he shall reign in my place; for I have appointed him as ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, Amen! May Jehovah, the God of my lord the king, so ¹ordain!

37 As Jehovah has been with my lord the king, so may He be with Solomon; and 18¹ Some MSS read, now. 21¹ Lit., sinners. 36¹ Or, say.

may He make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.

38 So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and caused Solomon to ride upon King David's mule, and they brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the Tent of Meeting and anointed Solomon; and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, May King Solomon live!

40 And all the people went up after him; and the people were playing on pipes and rejoicing with great joy, and the land 'shook with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the invited guests with him heard it as they finished eating. And Joab heard the sound of the trumpet and said, Why is there the sound of the city in an uproar?

42 Just as he was still speaking, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, Come in; for you are a worthy man and bring good news.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Alas! Our lord King David has made Solomon king!

44 And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule.

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him as king in Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the sound that you heard.

46 And Solomon is also sitting upon the throne of the kingdom.

47 Moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord King David, saying, May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne; and the king bowed himself upon his bed.

48 And thus also did the king say, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who has given me today one to sit on my throne while my eyes may see it.

49 And all the invited guests who were with Adonijah became frightened and rose up; and they went away, each on his own way.

50 And Adonijah was afraid because of Solomon; and he rose up and went away, and he took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Now Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for he has just now taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not kill his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he is a worthy man, not a hair of his will fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die.

53 So King Solomon sent men and had him brought down from the altar. And he came and paid homage to King Solomon. And Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

CHAPTER 2

C. Giving the Final Charge to Solomon His Son

as the Successor to the Davidic Throne
2:1-9

1 When David's 'time to die drew near, he commanded Solomon his son, saying,

2 I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong therefore and be a man;

3 And keep the commandment of Jehovah your God by walking in His ways, by keeping His statutes, His commandments, and His ordinances and His testimonies 40' Lit., split. 1' Lit., days.

as they are written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn;

4 That Jehovah may establish His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, If your children take heed to their way by walking before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail—He said—to be a man upon the throne of Israel for you.

5 Furthermore you know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, by that which he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew; and he shed the blood of war in peace and put the blood of war upon his girdle around his loins and upon his sandals that are on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray-haired head go down into Sheol in peace.

7 And show mercy to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for so they drew near to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

8 And now there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a terrible curse on the day I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Jehovah, saying, I shall not kill you with the sword.

9 Now therefore do not hold him guiltless; for you are a wise man, and you will know what to do to him. And you shall bring his gray-haired head down into Sheol with blood.

D. Ceasing in His Life on Earth 2:10-11

10 And David slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David.

11 And the time that David reigned over Israel was forty years: in Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.

II. The Reign of the Kings

1 Kings 2:12—2 Kings 25:30

A. The Reign of Solomon

2:12—11:43a

1. Ending the Factors of Rebellion for the Establishment of His Kingdom 2:12-46

12 And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.

13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 Then he said, I have something to say to you. And she said, Speak.

15 And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel looked to me to reign; but the kingdom has turned and has become my brother's, for it was of Jehovah to be his.

16 Now therefore I ask one thing of you; do not refuse me. And she said to him, Speak.

17 And he said, Please tell Solomon the king—for he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Fine; I will speak to the king for you.

19 So Bath-sheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her and bowed himself before her; and he sat on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand.

20 And she said, Let me ask one small thing of you; do not refuse me. And the king said to her, Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the 5¹ Lit., put. 16¹ Lit., turn away my face. So also in vv. 17 and 20.

Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife.

22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, since he is my older brother, indeed for him and for Abiathar the priest and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Solomon swore by Jehovah saying, God do so to me, and even more, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore as Jehovah lives, who has established me and seated me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house as He has promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death today.

25 So King Solomon sent ¹Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he struck him down so that he died.

26 And to Abiathar the priest, the king said, Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are ¹worthy of death; but I will not kill you at this time, for you bore the Ark of the Lord Jehovah before David my father and you suffered affliction in all that my father suffered.

27 So Solomon thrust Abiathar out from being a priest to Jehovah, fulfilling the word of Jehovah which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 And the report came to Joab, for Joab had followed after Adonijah, though he had not followed after Absalom. And Joab fled into the Tent of Jehovah, and he took hold of the horns of the altar.

29 And when it was told King Solomon that Joab had fled into the Tent of Jehovah and that he was just then beside the altar, Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go and strike him down.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tent of Jehovah and said to him, Thus says the king, Come out. And he said, No; rather I will die here. Then Benaiah brought word to the king again, saying, Thus has Joab said, and thus has he answered me.

31 And the king said to him, Do as he has spoken, and strike him down and bury him, that you may remove the blood which Joab has shed without cause from me and from my father's house.

32 And Jehovah will return his blood upon his head because he struck down two men more righteous and better than himself and slew them with the sword, though my father David did not know of it, that is, Abner the son of Ner, the captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the captain of the army of Judah.

33 So their blood shall return upon Joab's head and upon his seed's head forever, but to David and to his seed and to his house and to his throne there shall be peace forever from Jehovah.

34 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and killed him, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put Zadok the priest in Abiathar's place.

36 Then the king sent word and called for Shimei. And he said to him, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there; and you shall not go forth from there to any place whatever.

37 For on the day that you go forth and cross over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die; your blood will be upon your own head.

38 And Shimei said to the king, This word is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 Then at the end of three years two of Shimei's servants ran off to Achish the son of Maacah, the king of Gath; and they told 25¹ Lit., through Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.

26¹ Lit., a man of death.

Shimei, saying, Your servants are now in Gath.

40 So Shimei rose up and saddled his donkey and went to Gath, unto Achish, to seek his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned.

42 So the king sent word and called for Shimei; and he said to him, Did I not make you swear by Jehovah and solemnly warn you, saying, On the day that you go forth and travel to any place whatever, know for certain that you shall surely die? And you said to me, This word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then have you not kept the oath of Jehovah and the commandment that I charged you with?

44 And the king said to Shimei, You yourself know all the evil, which your heart is conscious of, that you did to David my father; and Jehovah will return your evil upon your own head.

45 But King Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before Jehovah forever.

46 So the king gave commands to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down so that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3

2. Marrying the Daughter of the King of Egypt 3:1

1 And Solomon allied himself by marriage with Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and he took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her to the city of David until he completed the building of his house and the house of Jehovah and the wall of Jerusalem all around.

3. Seeking for God 3:2-4

2 The people however were sacrificing in the high places, for there had still not been built a house for the name of Jehovah up to those days.

3 And Solomon loved Jehovah, walking in the statutes of David his father; however he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer on that altar.

4. Seeking for Wisdom 3:5-15

5 In Gibeon Jehovah appeared to Solomon in a dream at night; and God said, Ask what I should give you.

6 And Solomon said, You have shown great lovingkindness to Your servant David my father, because he walked before You in truth and righteousness and in uprightness of heart with You; and You have kept for him this great lovingkindness and have given him a son to sit upon his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O Jehovah my God, You have made Your servant king in the place of David my father, though I am a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

8 And Your servant is in the midst of Your people, whom You have chosen, a vast people that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore to Your servant an ¹understanding heart to judge Your people and to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this ²great people of Yours?

10 And this word seemed good in the sight of the ¹Lord, that Solomon had asked for this matter.

⁹ Lit., hearing. ⁹ Lit., heavy. ¹⁰ Many MSS read, Jehovah.

11 And God said to him, Because you have asked for this matter and have not asked for ¹long life for yourself and have not asked for riches for yourself and have not asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for discernment for yourself to ²understand justice;

12 I now do according to your words. I now give you a heart of wisdom and understanding, so that there has been no one like you before you, nor will one rise up after you like you.

13 And I also give you that for which you did not ask, both riches and glory, so that there will be no one among kings like you all your days.

14 And if you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments, as David your father walked, I will extend your days.

15 Then Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he went to Jerusalem and stood before the Ark of the Covenant of ¹Jehovah, and he offered up burnt offerings and offered peace offerings and made a feast for all his servants.

5. Judging the Case of the Two Harlots' Quarreling
3:16-28

16 At that time two harlots came to the king and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I gave birth while she was in the house.

18 And on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. And we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house; only we two were in the house.

19 And this woman's son died during the night, because she lay on him.

20 So she rose up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your female servant was sleeping and laid him in her bosom, and her dead son she laid in my bosom.

21 Then when I rose up in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I examined him in the morning, that was not my son whom I had given birth to.

22 And the other woman said, No! The live one is my son, and the dead one is your son. And the first said, No! The dead one is your son, and the live one is my son. And they went on arguing like this before the king.

23 Then the king said, This one says, This is my son, the live one, and the dead one is your son; and that one says, No! The dead one is your son, and the live one is my son.

24 And the king said, Get me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the live child between the two, and give half to one and half to the other.

26 And the woman whose son was the live one said to the king (for her compassions for her son burned within), Oh, my lord, give the live child to her, and do not by any means kill him! But the other said, He shall neither be mine nor yours; divide him.

27 And the king answered and said, Give her the live child, and do not by any means kill him; she is his mother.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment that the king had exercised, and they feared the king; for they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to execute justice.

CHAPTER 4

6. The Organization of His Governmental Administration
4:1-19

1 Now King Solomon was king over all Israel.

11¹ Lit., many days. 11² Lit., hear. 15¹ Some MSS read, the Lord.

2 And these were the officials with him: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest;

3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder;

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar were high priests;

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the superintendents; and Zabud the son of Nathan was the principal officer, the king's friend;

6 And Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

7 And Solomon had twelve superintendents over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his house; each month of the year one had to provide food.

8 And these are their names: Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

9 Ben-deker, in Makaz and in Shaalvim and Beth-shemesh and Elon-beth-hanan;

10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (to him pertained Socoh and all the land of Hephher);

11 Ben-abinadab, in all the highland of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

12 Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo and all Beth-shean, which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam;

13 Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (to him pertained the villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; and to him pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

16 Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and ¹Bealoth;

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18 Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin;

19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites and Og the king of Bashan (and there was only one superintendent in that land).

7. His Prosperity under the Rich Blessing of God
4:20—5:18

20 Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand that is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

21 And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines and unto the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's provisions for one day were thirty cors of fine flour and sixty cors of meal, 23 Ten fattened oxen and twenty pastured oxen and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles and roebucks and fattened fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the area west of the River, from Tiphseh to Gaza, over all the kings west of the River; and he had peace on all sides around him.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt securely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan to Beer-sheba, throughout all Solomon's days.

26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those superintendents provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table, each in his month; they left nothing lacking.

28 And they also brought to the place where it should be, barley and straw for the horses and steeds, each according to his charge.

16¹ Or, in Aloth.

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and very much understanding and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea-shore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the children of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he became wiser than all men, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame was among all the surrounding nations.

32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

33 And he discoursed about trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that shoots forth out of the wall; he also discoursed about animals and about birds and about creeping things and about fish.

34 And they came from all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

1 Now Hiram the king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram had always loved David.

2 And Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying,

3 You know about David my father that he was not able to build a house for the name of Jehovah his God because of the warfare that his enemies surrounded him with, until Jehovah put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now Jehovah my God has given me rest all around; there is no adversary or evil occurrence.

5 And now I intend to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God according to what Jehovah spoke to David my father, saying, Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, he will build the house for My name.

6 Now therefore command that they cut for me cedars from Lebanon. And my servants will be with your servants, and I will give you payment for your servants, according to whatever you say; for you know that among us there is no one who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.

7 And when Hiram heard Solomon's words, he rejoiced greatly and said, Blessed be Jehovah this day, who has given David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, I have heard the message which you have sent me. I will do all your desire concerning cedar timber and cypress timber.

9 My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you direct me; and I will break them apart there, and you can carry them off. And you can fulfill my desire by giving food to my household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar timber and cypress timber, all that he desired.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household and twenty cors of the finest oil; this did Solomon give to Hiram year by year.

12 And Jehovah gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a ¹treaty.

13 And King Solomon levied forced labor out of all Israel, and the forced labor amounted to thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: one month they were in Lebanon, and two months they were at home. And Adoniram was over the forced labor.

12¹ Or, covenant.

15 And Solomon had seventy thousand burden bearers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountains, 16 Besides Solomon's three thousand three hundred chief officers over the work, who directed the people who did the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, in order to lay the foundation of the house with hewn stone.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites fashioned the stone and prepared the timber and the stones in order to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

8. Building the Temple of God with His Own Palaces 6:1—8:66

a. The Temple 6:1-38

1 Then in the four hundred eightieth year after the children of Israel had come forth out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of his reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv (this is the second month), Solomon began to build the house of Jehovah.

2 And the house which King Solomon built to Jehovah was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide and thirty cubits high.

3 And the portico that was before the temple of the house was twenty cubits long, across the width of the house, and ten cubits deep, in front of the house.

4 And for the house he made windows with fixed lattices.

5 And against the wall of the house he built a structure with stories all around, next to the walls of the house all around the temple and the ¹innermost sanctuary; and he made side chambers all around.

6 The lowest ¹story was five cubits wide; and the middle, six cubits wide; and the third, seven cubits wide; for he provided for outsets to the house all around the outside, so that the beams would not be inserted into the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was being built, was built of finished stone, cut at the quarry, so that neither hammer nor ax nor any iron tool was heard in the house when it was being built.

8 The door of the middle side chamber was on the right side of the house; and they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and from the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house and finished it, and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar.

10 And he built the stories against all the house, five cubits high; and the structure was held to the house by cedar timbers.

11 Then the word of Jehovah came to Solomon, saying,

12 As for this house that you are building, if you walk in My statutes and execute My ordinances and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will establish My word with you, which I spoke to David your father;

13 And I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, and I will not forsake My people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with cedar boards; from the floor of the house to the wall of the ceiling he covered them on the inside with wood. And he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

16 And he built twenty cubits of the 5¹ Lit., oracle. So throughout this chapter. 6¹ Lit., structure. So throughout this chapter.

rear part of the house with cedar boards from the floor to the walls of the ceiling; and he built it within as an innermost sanctuary, as the Holy of Holies.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before the Holy of Holies, was forty cubits long.

18 And there was cedar on the house within, carved with gourds and open flowers. It was all cedar; there was no stone showing.

19 And he prepared an innermost sanctuary in the midst of the house within, in order to put the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah there.

20 And the interior of the innermost sanctuary was twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide and twenty cubits high; and he overlaid it with pure gold, and he overlaid the altar with cedar.

21 And Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold; and he drew gold chains before the innermost sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.

22 So he overlaid all the house with gold, until all the house was complete; and the whole altar, which belonged to the innermost sanctuary, he overlaid with gold.

23 And in the innermost sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, ten cubits high.

24 And the one wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the second wing of the cherub was five cubits; ten cubits from the end of its one wing to the end of its other wing.

25 And the second cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim had one measure and one shape.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the second cherub.

27 And he put the cherubim in the midst of the inner house. And the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that the wing of the one cherub was touching the wall and the wing of the second cherub was touching the second wall; and their other wings were touching at the middle of the house, wing to wing.

28 And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house all around with engraved carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, in both the inner chamber and the outer one.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, in both the inner chamber and the outer one.

31 And for the entrance of the innermost sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were a fifth of the breadth of the wall.

32 And there were two doors of olive wood. And he carved carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers upon them, and he overlaid them with gold and spread the gold upon the cherubim and the palm trees.

33 So also he made for the entrance of the temple doorposts of olive wood, out of a fourth of the breadth of the wall, 34 And two doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door folded, and the two leaves of the second door folded.

35 And he carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers on them, and he overlaid them with gold evenly applied over the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone and a course of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid, in the month of Ziv;

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul (which is the eighth month) the house was completed in all its parts and according to all its specifications. Thus he was seven years building it.

CHAPTER 7

b. His Palaces Built in Association with God's Dwelling
7:1-12

1 And Solomon was thirteen years building his own house, and he finished all his house.

2 And he built the Lebanon Forest House, a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide and thirty cubits high, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was roofed with cedar above the forty-five beams that were upon the pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were window frames in three rows, and window was next to window in three tiers.

5 And all the doorways and doorposts had square frames, and window was next to window in three tiers.

6 And he made the portico of pillars, fifty cubits long and thirty cubits wide, with a portico before them and with pillars and a threshold before them.

7 And he made the throne portico, where he would execute judgment, the judgment portico; and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.

8 And his house that he was to dwell in, in the court to the rear of the throne portico, was of the same workmanship. He also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken as his wife, like this portico.

9 All these were of costly stones, cut according to measure, sawed with saws, within and without, from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside to the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, cut according to measure, and cedar.

12 And the great court surrounding had three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams, as did the inner court of the house of Jehovah and the portico of the house.

c. Hiram, Solomon's Workman
7:13-14

13 And King Solomon sent for Hiram and brought him from Tyre.

14 He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali whose father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; and he was full of wisdom and understanding and skill to do all kinds of work in bronze. And he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

d. The Two Bronze Pillars
7:15-22

15 And he formed the two bronze pillars; eighteen cubits was the height of ¹each pillar, and a line of twelve cubits encompassed ¹each pillar.

16 And he made two capitals of molten bronze to set upon the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the second capital was five cubits.

17 There were nets of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals that were at the top of the pillars, seven for the one capital, and seven for the second capital.

18 So he made the pillars; and there were two rows around the one network, to cover the capitals that were at the top of the ¹pomegranates. And he did the same for the second capital.

19 And the capitals that were at the top of the pillars in the portico were of lily work, four cubits high.

20 So then the capitals that were on the two pillars were above and close to the bulge that was beside the network. And there were two hundred pomegranates, in rows around ¹both capitals.

15¹ Lit., the one pillar ... the second pillar. 16¹ Many MSS and the Septuagint read, pillars.

21 And he erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. When he erected the right pillar, he called its name Jachin; and when he erected the left pillar, he called its name Boaz.

22 And at the top of the pillars was lily work. And the work on the pillars was completed.

e. The Bronze Sea with Ten Bronze Lavers
7:23-40a

23 And he made the molten sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, fully round; and it was five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it.

24 And under its brim there were knops all around, encircling it, ten to a cubit, surrounding the sea all around; the knops were cast in two rows when they were cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three facing north and three facing west and three facing south and three facing east; and the sea was upon them, and all their hindquarters were within.

26 And it was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was like the work of a cup's brim, like the flower of a lily; it held two thousand baths.

27 And he made the ten bases of bronze; one base was four cubits long and four cubits wide, and it was three cubits high.

28 And this was the work of each base: They had panels, and the panels were between frames.

29 And on the panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And above the frames was a pedestal, and below the lions and oxen there were wreaths of hanging work.

30 And each base had four bronze wheels with bronze axles. And its four feet had supports; underneath the laver the supports had been cast, with wreaths at the side of each.

31 And the mouth ¹of the laver was within this ²crown, and it rose above it by one cubit; and its mouth was round like the work of a pedestal; it was a cubit and a half across; and upon its mouth were engravings as well, and its panels were square, not round.

32 And the four wheels were underneath the panels, and the wheel axles were in the base; each wheel was a cubit and a half high.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles and their rims and their spokes and their hubs were all molten.

34 And there were four supports at the four corners of each base; its supports were part of the base.

35 And at the top of the base there was a round band half a cubit high; and at the top of the base, its stays and its panels were of one piece.

36 And on the surfaces of the stays and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, as there was space on each, with wreaths all around.

37 In this manner he made the ten bases; all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form.

38 And he made ten bronze lavers; each laver held forty baths; each laver was four cubits across; there was one laver upon every one of the ten bases.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and the sea he set on the right side of the house, on the east side at the south.

40 And Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls.

20' Lit., the second. 31' Lit., of it. 31² Or, capital.

f. Hiram's Work for Solomon
7:40b-47

Thus Hiram finished doing all the work that he was doing for King Solomon in the house of Jehovah:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were at the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were at the top of the pillars;

42 And the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;

43 And the ten bases and the ten lavers upon the bases;

44 And the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea;

45 And the pots and the shovels and the bowls; all these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of Jehovah were of burnished bronze.

46 The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because of the very great number; the weight of bronze could not be ascertained.

g. The Vessels of the Temple
7:48-51

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Jehovah: the golden altar; and the golden table upon which the bread of the Presence was put;

49 And the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right and five on the left, before the innermost sanctuary; and the flowers and the lamps and the tongs, of gold;

50 And the cups and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges, for the doors of the inner house, the Holy of Holies, and for the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.

51 Thus all the work that King Solomon did in the house of Jehovah was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had sanctified, the silver and the gold and the vessels, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 8

h. The Dedication of the Temple
8:1-66

(1) The Tabernacle Being Merged with the Temple
vv. 1-11

1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' houses of the children of Israel, before King Solomon in Jerusalem in order to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah from the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves before King Solomon at the feast in the month of Ethnaim, which is the seventh month.

3 And when all the elders of Israel came, the priests took up the Ark;

4 And they brought up the Ark of Jehovah and the Tent of Meeting and all the holy vessels that were in the tent; and the priests and Levites brought them up.

5 And King Solomon and all the assembly of Israel, who had assembled before him and were with him before the Ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen which could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the innermost sanctuary of the house, into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the cherubim.

7 For the cherubim had their wings spread out over the place of the Ark, and the cherubim covered the Ark and its poles overhead.

8 And the poles extended out so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the Holy Place before the innermost sanctuary, but they were not seen outside; and they are there to this day.

9 There was nothing in the Ark except the two stone tablets, which Moses placed there at Horeb when Jehovah made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the priests came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the house of Jehovah;

11 And the priests were not able to stand and minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.

(2) Solomon's Blessing and Declaration to the People
vv. 12-21

12 Then Solomon said, Jehovah has said that He would dwell in deep darkness.

13 I have surely built You a lofty house, a place for You to dwell in forever.

14 And the king turned about and blessed all the congregation of Israel while all the congregation of Israel stood.

15 And he said, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to David my father and fulfilled it with His hand, saying, 16 Since the day when I brought My people Israel out from Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name that it might be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel.

17 And it was on David my father's heart to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel;

18 But Jehovah said to David my father, Because it was on your heart to build a house for My name, you have done well that it was on your heart;

19 However you will not build the house, but your son, who will come forth from your loins, he will build the house for My name.

20 And Jehovah has established His word which He spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit upon the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and I have built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.

21 And there I have set a place for the Ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah, which He made with our fathers when He brought them out from the land of Egypt.

(3) Solomon's Prayer
vv. 22-53

22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel and spread his hands toward heaven.

23 And he said, O Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no god like You, in heaven above or on the earth below, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

24 You who have kept with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him; indeed You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled with Your hand this day.

25 And now, O Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your children keep their way by walking before Me as you have walked before Me.

26 Now therefore, O God of Israel, may Your word that You spoke to Your servant David my father be confirmed.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens are not able to contain You, how much less this house which I have built.

28 Yet have regard to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, and listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today;

29 That Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, My name will be there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place.

30 And listen to the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear then in Your dwelling place in the heavens; and when You hear, forgive.

31 If a man sins against his neighbor and ¹is made to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house;

32 Then hear in the heavens and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked by bringing his way on his head and justifying the righteous by giving to him according to his righteousness.

33 When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they turn to You and confess Your name and pray and make supplication to You in this house;

34 Then hear in the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

35 When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them;

36 Then hear in the heavens and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel; indeed teach them the good way in which they should walk, and bring rain upon Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

37 If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, swarming locust or consuming locust, if their enemy besieges them in the land of their ¹cities, whatever plague, whatever sickness there is;

38 Whatever prayer, whatever supplication, which will be made by any man of all Your people Israel, each knowing the plague of his own heart, when he spreads out his hands toward this house;

39 Then hear in the heavens Your dwelling place, and forgive and act and render to each man according to all his ways, whose heart You know; for You, You alone know the hearts of all the children of men;

40 That they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

41 And also concerning the foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel but comes from a distant country for the sake of Your name

42 (For they will hear about Your great name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house;

43 Then hear in the heavens Your dwelling place, and act according to all that the foreigner calls upon You for, that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and that they may fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

44 If Your people go out to battle against their enemy by the way which You have sent them, and they pray to Jehovah toward the city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name;

45 Then hear their prayer and their supplication in the heavens and maintain their cause.

46 If they have sinned against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and deliver them up to the enemy, so that they are carried away captive unto the land of the enemy, far away or nearby;

31¹ Or, utters a curse. 37¹ Lit., gates.

47 But if they take it to heart in the land where they were carried captive, and they repent and make supplication to You in the land of those who carried them away captive, saying, We have sinned and committed iniquity and acted wickedly;

48 And if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who have carried them captive, and they pray to You toward their land that You have given to their fathers, the city that You have chosen, and the house that I have built for Your name;

49 Then hear their prayer and their supplication in the heavens Your dwelling place and maintain their cause,

50 And forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You, and grant them compassion in the sight of those who lead them captive, that they might have compassion on them

51 (For they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out from Egypt, from the midst of an iron furnace);

52 That Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel to listen to them whenever they call upon You.

53 For You have separated them from all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke through Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out from Egypt, O Lord Jehovah.

(4) Solomon's Further Blessing to the People
vv. 54-61

54 And when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to Jehovah, he rose up from before the altar of Jehovah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread toward the heavens.

55 And he stood and blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be Jehovah, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. Not one word of all His good promises which He spoke through Moses His servant has failed.

57 May Jehovah our God be with us, as He was with our fathers; let Him not forsake us nor abandon us, 58 That He may incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers.

59 And let these words of mine, with which I made supplication to Jehovah, be near to Jehovah our God day and night to maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel 'as each day requires;

60 That all the peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah is God; there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments as on this day.

(5) Solomon and the People Offering a Vast Quantity of Sacrifices to God
vv. 62-64

62 And the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before Jehovah.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to Jehovah: twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. Thus the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Jehovah.

64 On that day the king sanctified the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah, for there he offered the burnt offering and the meal offering and the fat of peace offerings because the bronze altar which was before Jehovah was too small to receive the burnt offering and the meal offering and the fat of peace offerings.

(6) Solomon and His People
Holding a Feast for Fourteen Days
vv. 65-66

65 And Solomon held a feast at that time and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days and seven more days, fourteen days in all.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and happy in heart for all the goodness which Jehovah had done to David His servant and to Israel His people.

CHAPTER 9

9. The Highest Peak of Solomon's Glory
among the Nations
9:1—10:29

a. Jehovah's Acceptance of His Prayer and Jehovah's Promise to Establish His Throne Forever
9:1-9

1 And when Solomon had finished building the house of Jehovah and the king's house and everything that Solomon desired to make,

2 Jehovah appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

3 And Jehovah said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication which you have made before Me; I have sanctified this house which you have built by putting My name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there continually.

4 And as for you, if you walk before Me, as David your father walked, with a perfect and upright heart by observing all that I have commanded you and keep My statutes and My ordinances,

5 Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised to David your father, saying, You will not lack a man on the throne of Israel.

6 But if you or your sons indeed turn away from following Me and do not keep My commandments and My statutes, which I have put before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

7 Then I will cut Israel off from the face of the land which I have given them, and the house which I have sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all the peoples.

8 And this house will become 'heaps, and everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss and say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land and to this house?

9 And they will say, Because they forsook Jehovah their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods and worshipped them and served them; therefore Jehovah brought all this evil upon them.

b. His Alliance with Hiram
9:10-14

10 And at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the king's house, 11 Since Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar wood and with cypress wood and with gold, according to all that he desired, King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they did not please him.

13 And he said, What are these cities

8' According to some ancient versions; the Hebrew text reads, exalted.

which you have given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul, as it is unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

c. Building Further Cities
9:15-24

15 Now this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon levied to build the house of Jehovah and his own house and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor and Megiddo and Gezer.

16 (Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it with fire and had slain the Canaanites who lived in the city and given it as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon.)

17 And Solomon rebuilt Gezer and lower Beth-Horon,

18 And Baalath and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

19 And all the storage cities that Solomon had, even the cities for chariots, and the cities for horsemen and what Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion.

20 All of the people that were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children who were left after them in the land whom the children of Israel were not able to destroy utterly, Solomon levied as forced labor, as they are unto this day.

22 But Solomon did not make slaves of the children of Israel; for they were the men of war and his servants and his officers and his captains and the officers over his chariots and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people doing the work.

24 As soon as Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David into her house which ¹Solomon had built for her, he built the Millo.

d. His Offerings Three Times a Year
9:25

25 And three times a year Solomon offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built to Jehovah, and he burned incense with them on the altar which was before Jehovah. Thus he finished the house.

e. Building a Navy with Hiram's Cooperation
9:26-28

26 King Solomon also built ships in Ezion-geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent his servants in the ships, sailors who knew the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they went to Ophir and took four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there and brought it to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

f. The Queen of Sheba Coming to Pay
Her Honor to Him and Listen to
His Words of Wisdom
10:1-10, 13

1 And the queen of Sheba had heard of Solomon's fame in connection with the name of Jehovah, and she came to test him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very large retinue, with camels bearing spices and with very much gold and precious stones. And when she came to Solomon, she spoke all that was on her heart to him.

3 And Solomon ¹answered every matter of hers; there was nothing hidden from the king that he did not answer her.

24¹ Lit., he. 3¹ Lit., declared to her (twice).

4 And when the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the house that he had built

5 And the food of his table and the seating of his servants and the service and apparel of his ministers and his cupbearers and his burnt offerings that he offered up at the house of Jehovah, there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my land concerning your deeds and your wisdom is true,

7 But I did not believe the words until I came and my own eyes saw. And indeed the half was not told to me; your wisdom and prosperity far exceed the report that I heard.

8 Happy are your men! Happy are these your servants, who attend you continually and hear your wisdom!

9 Blessed be Jehovah your God, who has delighted in you and set you upon the throne of Israel. Because Jehovah loves Israel forever, he has made you king to execute justice and righteousness.

10 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold and a very great store of spices and some precious stones; never again did so great an abundance of spices come as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

g. Hiram's Fleet Bringing Precious Goods for the Temple of God and Solomon's Palace
10:11-12

11 Moreover Hiram's fleet, which carried gold from Ophir, brought a great many almug trees and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug trees a 'banister for the house of Jehovah and for the king's house, and lyres and harps for the singers; such almug trees have not come nor have been seen again to this day.

f. The Queen of Sheba Coming to Pay
Her Honor to Him and Listen to
His Words of Wisdom (cont'd)
10:13

13 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked for, besides that which King Solomon gave her from his bounty. And she returned and went to her own land, she and her servants.

h. Enriched with the Tribute by the Kings of the Nations and the Tariff
on the Traders and Merchants
10:14-25

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

15 Besides that which came through the traders and through the traffic of the merchants and through all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land.

16 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; he put six hundred shekels of gold upon each large shield.

17 And he made three hundred smaller shields of beaten gold; he put three minas of gold upon each smaller shield. And the king put them in the Lebanon Forest House.

18 And the king made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with the finest gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was rounded at its back; and there were armrests on either side next to the place of the seat, and two lions stood next to the armrests.

20 And twelve lions stood there upon the six steps on either side. Nothing like it had ever been made in any kingdom.

21 And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the Lebanon Forest House were of pure gold; none were of silver, which was not considered as anything in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a fleet from Tarshish as well as Hiram's fleet. Once every three years the fleet from Tarshish came bearing gold and silver and ivory and apes and peacocks.

23 And King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in wealth and in wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they each brought their tribute, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and robes and weapons and spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

i. Building a Defense of Chariots and Cavalry
10:26-29

26 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen together; and he had a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

(h. Enriched with the Tribute by the Kings of the Nations and the Tariff
on the Traders and Merchants—cont'd)
10:27

27 And the king caused silver to be as plentiful as stones in Jerusalem; and cedars, like the sycamores that are in the lowlands.

(i. Building a Defense of Chariots and Cavalry—cont'd)
10:28-29

28 And the horses that Solomon had came from Egypt and from Kue; the king's traders bought them from Kue at a fixed price.

29 A chariot ¹could be imported from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver and a horse for a hundred and fifty shekels, and thus they brought them out to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria by their own means.

CHAPTER 11

10. The Tragedy of Israel's History 11:1-43a

a. Solomon's Fall vv. 1-8

1 But King Solomon loved many foreign women in addition to Pharaoh's daughter—Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,

2 From among the nations concerning which Jehovah had said to the children of Israel, You shall not go among them, nor shall they come among you, for they will surely turn your heart after their gods. Solomon clung to these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred princess wives and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away.

4 And when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect toward Jehovah his God like the heart of David his father.

5 And Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and after Milcom the detestable thing of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and did not fully follow Jehovah as David his father had done.

7 Then Solomon built a high place to Chemosh the detestable thing of Moab in the mountain that is before Jerusalem and to Molech the detestable thing of the children of Ammon.

8 And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

29¹ Lit., went up and came out.

b. God's Chastisement
vv. 9-40

(1) God Becoming Angry with Solomon and Determining to Tear the Kingdom
Away from Him and Give It to His Servant
(the Division of the Kingdom of Israel)
vv. 9-13

9 So Jehovah became angry with Solomon because his heart turned away from Jehovah the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice,

10 And who had commanded him concerning this very matter, not to go after other gods; but he did not keep that which Jehovah had commanded.

11 And Jehovah said to Solomon, Because 'you have done this and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

12 However I will not do it in your days, because of David your father; I will tear it out of your son's hand.

13 But I will not tear the whole kingdom away from you; I will give one tribe to your son because of David My servant and because of Jerusalem, which I have chosen.

(2) The Actions of God's Chastisements
vv. 14-40

14 And Jehovah raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 Now when David was in Edom and Joab the captain of the army went up to bury the slain, he struck down all the males in Edom;

16 For Joab and all Israel remained there for six months, until he had cut down every male in Edom.

17 But Hadad fled, he and some Edomite men from among his father's servants with him, and went into Egypt; and Hadad was a young boy then.

18 Thus they arose from Midian and went to Paran, and they took men from Paran with them and went to Egypt, to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, who gave him a house and appointed him a portion of food and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found so much favor in the sight of Pharaoh that Pharaoh gave him the sister of his wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen, as his wife.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, and Tahpenes weaned him in Pharaoh's house, and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among Pharaoh's sons.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart that I may go to my own land.

22 But Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked while with me that now you are seeking to go to your own land? And he said, Nothing; only let me depart.

23 And God raised up another adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord, Hadadezer the king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men to himself and became the captain of the band when David slew those of Zobah; and they went to Damascus and dwelt there; and they reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon in addition to the evil that Hadad did; and he abhorred Israel and reigned over Syria.

26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, also a widow, lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the reason he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon was 11' Lit., this is with you.

building the Millo, closing up the breach of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was an able man; and Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, so he set him over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

29 And at that time Jeroboam went forth from Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the way. And ¹Ahijah was wearing a new garment, and the two of them were alone in the field.

30 And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him and tore it into twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces for yourself; for thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, I am now tearing the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and giving the ten tribes to you

32 (But the one tribe will be his because of My servant David and because of Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel), 33 Because they have forsaken Me and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and Chemosh the god of Moab and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon and have not walked in My ways by doing what is upright in My sight and by keeping My statutes and My ordinances as David his father did.

34 But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him leader all the days of his life because of David My servant, whom I chose and who kept My commandments and My statutes.

35 Yet I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give it to you, that is, the ten tribes;

36 And to his son I will give one tribe, that My servant David may have a lamp always before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put My name.

37 And I will take you, and you will reign according to all that your soul desires; and you will be king over Israel.

38 And if you listen to all that I command you and walk in My ways and do what is upright in My sight by keeping My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did, I will be with you and will build you a lasting house, as I built for David; and I will give you Israel.

39 And I will afflict the seed of David because of this, but not forever.

40 Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam rose up and fled into Egypt to Shishak the king of Egypt; and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

c. Solomon's Decease after Reigning over All Israel for Forty Years
vv. 41-43a

41 And the rest of the acts of Solomon and all that he did as well as his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father.

B. The Reigns of Rehoboam over Judah and of Jeroboam over Israel
11:43b—14:31a

1. Rehoboam Continuing the Reign after Solomon
11:43b

And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 12

2. Rehoboam Suffering the Division of the Kingdom and Losing Ten Tribes
12:1-24

1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

29¹ Lit., he.

2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon; and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;

3 And they sent word to him and called him), Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Your father made our yoke hard. Now therefore make the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he put upon us lighter, and we will serve you.

5 And he said to them, Go away for another three days, then return to me. And the people went away.

6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the elders who attended Solomon his father while he was alive, saying, What counsel do you give me to return as an answer to this people?

7 And they spoke to him, saying, If today you will be a servant to this people and serve them and answer them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants always.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders with which they counseled him and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who attended him.

9 And he said to them, What counsel do you give me that we may return an answer to this people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us?

10 And the young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus shall you say to this people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must make it lighter on us; thus shall you speak to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke upon you, I will increase your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had spoken, saying, Return to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered the people harshly; and he forsook the counsel of the elders that they had given him

14 And spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will increase your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was of Jehovah that He might establish His word which Jehovah had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people returned an answer to the king, saying, What portion do we have in David? Neither do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel. Now see to your own house, O David. And Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to get up into his chariot and flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel has rebelled against the house of David since that day.

20 And when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent word to him and called him to the assembly; and they made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.

21 And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand choice warriors, to wage war with the house of Israel in order to return the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came to She-maiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people, saying,

24 Thus says Jehovah, You shall not go up and wage war with your brothers the children of Israel. Every man return to his house; for this matter is of Me. So they listened to the word of Jehovah and returned and went their way according to the word of Jehovah.

3. The Apostasy of Jeroboam 12:25-33

25 Then Jeroboam built up Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and he dwelt in it; and he went forth from there and built up Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.

27 If this people go up to make sacrifices in the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, the heart of this people will return to their lord, to Rehoboam the king of Judah; and they will slay me and return to Rehoboam the king of Judah.

28 And the king took counsel and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!

29 And he set one in Bethel, and he put the other one in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin; and the people went to worship the one as far as Dan.

31 And he made a house of high places and appointed priests from among the people who were not from the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he ¹went up to the altar; he did likewise at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.

33 And he went up to the altar that he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day, in the eighth month, that is, the month he had devised in his own heart; and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel and went up to the altar to burn incense.

CHAPTER 13

4. God's Judgment on the Altar at Bethel Made by Jeroboam 13:1-32

1 And at that moment there came a man of God from Judah by the word of Jehovah to Bethel while Jeroboam was standing at the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried out against the altar by the word of Jehovah and said, Altar, O altar, thus says Jehovah: Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name; and he will sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and men's bones will they burn upon you.

3 And he gave a sign that day, saying, This is the sign that Jehovah has spoken: The altar here will be torn apart, and the ashes that are upon it will be poured out.

4 And when the king heard the word of the man of God that he cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from over the altar, saying, Lay hold of him! And his hand, which he had stretched out against him, withered, and he could not draw it back to himself.

5 And the altar was torn apart, and the 32' Or, offered up (sacrifices) on the altar. So also in the next verse.

ashes were poured forth from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the word of Jehovah.

6 And the king responded and said to the man of God, Entreat Jehovah your God, I beg you, and intercede for me that my hand may be restored to me. And the man of God entreated Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored to him as it had been formerly.

7 Then the king said to the man of God, Come home with me, and have something to eat; and I will give you a gift.

8 But the man of God said to the king, If you gave me half your household, I would not go with you; and I will not eat food nor drink water in this place;

9 For thus was I commanded by the word of Jehovah, saying, You shall not eat food nor drink water, nor shall you return by the way that you came.

10 So he went by another way and did not return by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 Now there was a certain old prophet dwelling in Bethel. And his ¹sons came and related to him all the things that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words that he had spoken to the king, they also related to their father.

12 And their father said to them, Which way did he go? Now his sons had seen which way the man of God, who came from Judah, had gone.

13 And he said to his sons, Saddle the donkey for me. So they saddled the donkey for him, and he rode on it.

14 And he went after the man of God and found him sitting under a terebinth. And he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 And he said to him, Come home with me, and eat some food.

16 But he said, I cannot return with you and go with you; neither will I eat food nor drink water with you in this place.

17 For I was told by the word of Jehovah, You shall not eat food nor drink water there, nor shall you return by going on the way that you came there.

18 And the old man said, I also am a prophet like you, and an angel has spoken to me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Bring him back with you to your house that he may eat food and drink water. He lied to him.

19 So he returned with him and ate food in his house and drank water.

20 And while they were sitting at the table, the word of Jehovah came to the prophet who brought him back;

21 And he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says Jehovah, Because you have rebelled against the word of Jehovah and did not keep the command that Jehovah your God commanded you, 22 But returned and ate food and drank water in the place concerning which He said to you, Do not eat food and do not drink water; your corpse shall not come to the grave of your fathers.

23 And after he had eaten food and had drunk water, the old man saddled the donkey for him, that is, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And as he went, a lion met him on the way and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood beside it; the lion stood beside the corpse also.

25 And some men soon passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road and the lion standing beside the corpse, and they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, It is the man of God, who rebelled against the word of Jehovah; and Jehovah has given him to the lion, which tore him apart and killed him, according to the word of Jehovah which He spoke to him.

27 Then he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the donkey for me; and they saddled it.

28 And he went and found his corpse thrown on the road and the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse; the lion had not eaten the corpse, nor had it torn the donkey apart.

29 And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God and laid it on the donkey and brought it back; and it ¹was brought to the city of the old prophet for mourning and for burial.

30 And he laid his corpse in his own grave and mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

31 And after he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; beside his bones lay my bones.

32 For the word that he cried out by the word of Jehovah against the altar that is in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria shall surely come to pass.

5. The Further Apostasy of Jeroboam
13:33-34

33 After this matter Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but he again made priests for the high places from among the people; whoever desired it, he consecrated to be priests of the high places.

34 And this matter became a sin to the house of Jeroboam, so as even to cut it off and destroy it from the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

6. Ahijah's Prophecy concerning the Tragic Ending of Jeroboam
14:1-18

1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became ill.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Rise up now, and disguise yourself so that no one will recognize that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there; it is he who spoke concerning me, that I should be king over this people.

3 And take in your hand ten loaves and some cakes and a cruse of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so; that is, she rose up and went to Shiloh, and she came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were fixed because of his age.

5 But Jehovah said to Ahijah, The wife of Jeroboam has now come to seek a word from you concerning her son, for he is ill. Thus and thus shall you speak to her. And it will be that when she comes in, she will pretend to be another woman.

6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she entered through the door, he said, Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another woman? For I have a hard message for you.

7 Go and tell Jeroboam, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, Because I exalted you from among the people and made you ruler over My people Israel,

8 And I tore away the kingdom from the house of David and gave it to you; and yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, doing only what was upright in My sight,

9 But you have done more evil than all who were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods and idols, so as to provoke Me to anger; and you have cast Me behind your back—

29¹ Lit., came.

10 Because of this then, I am now bringing evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and I will cut off from Jeroboam every male, bond and free, in Israel; and I will sweep up after the house of Jeroboam as a man might sweep up dung until it is all gone.

11 Him of Jeroboam's who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and him who dies in the field, the birds of heaven will eat; for Jehovah has spoken it.

12 Rise up then, and go to your house: When your feet enter the city, the child will die.

13 And all Israel will mourn for him and bury him, for he alone of Jeroboam's will go into the grave, because in him some good thing toward Jehovah the God of Israel was found among the house of Jeroboam.

14 And Jehovah will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam this day ¹and even now.

15 And Jehovah will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and He will uproot Israel out of this good land, which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they made their Asherahs, provoking Jehovah to anger.

16 And He will give Israel up on account of the sins of Jeroboam, by which he sinned and by which he caused Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife rose up and departed, and she came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the boy died.

18 And all Israel buried him and mourned for him according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

7. Jeroboam Reigning over the Ten Tribes of Israel, and His Life Being Ended by the Severe Punishment of God
14:19-20

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he waged war and how he reigned, they are there written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers. And Nadab his son reigned in his place.

8. Rehoboam Enthroned and Reigning over Judah
14:21-24

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city where Jehovah had chosen, out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

22 And Judah did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and provoked Him to jealousy because of the sins which they committed, above all the sins which their fathers had committed.

23 And they also built for themselves high places and pillars and Asherahs on every high hill and under every flourishing tree, 24 And there were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They acted according to all the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.

9. Rehoboam Defeated and Robbed by the King of Egypt
14:25-28

25 Then in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

14' Lit., and what? Even now.

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house; indeed he took away all. And he took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and committed them into the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

28 And whenever the king went into the house of Jehovah, the guards carried them and returned them to the guardroom.

10. Rehoboam Fighting with Jeroboam Continually and Being Buried in the City of David
14:29-31a

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

C. The Reign of Abijam over Judah
14:31b—15:8a

And Abijam his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 15

1 And in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God like the heart of David his father.

4 Yet for David's sake Jehovah his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, raising up his son after him and establishing Jerusalem;

5 Because David did what was upright in the sight of Jehovah and did not turn aside from anything that He had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 And the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David.

D. The Reign of Asa over Judah
15:8b-24

And Asa his son reigned in his place.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king in Judah.

10 And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did what was upright in the sight of Jehovah, as David his father had done.

12 And he put away the male cult prostitutes out of the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And he also removed Maacah his mother from being queen mother because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. And Asa cut down her abominable image and burned it at the brook Kidron.

14 But the high places were not removed; otherwise the heart of Asa was perfect with Jehovah all his days.

15 And he brought into the house of Jehovah the things his father had sanctified and the things he sanctified, silver and gold and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha the king of Israel went up against Judah; and he built Ramah to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa the king of Judah.

18 And Asa took all the silver and gold that was left among the treasures of the house of Jehovah as well as the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hands of his servants. And King Asa sent them forth to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying, 19 There is an alliance between me and you, between my father and your father. I am now sending you a present of silver and gold; go and break your alliance with Baasha the king of Israel, so that he goes away from me.

20 And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the captains of forces that he had against the cities of Israel, and he struck Ijon and Dan and Abel-beth-maacah and all Chinneroth with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And when Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; no one was exempt. And they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had built it; and King Asa built with these Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Yet in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

E. The Reign of Nadab over Israel 15:25-31

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa the king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and walked in the way of his father and in his sin by which he caused Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him down in Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

28 And Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa the king of Judah, and he reigned in his place.

29 And as soon as he became king, he struck down all the house of Jeroboam; he left to Jeroboam not one who had breath, until he had destroyed them, according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, 30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he committed and by which he caused Israel to sin, because of his provocation by which he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger.

31 And the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

F. The Reign of Baasha over Israel 15:32—16:7

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years.

34 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin by which he caused Israel to sin.

CHAPTER 16

1 And the word of Jehovah came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 Because I exalted you out of the dust and made you a leader over My people Israel, yet you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have caused My people Israel to sin, thereby provoking Me to anger by their sins;

3 I am now sweeping up after Baasha and after his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 Him of Baasha' who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and him who dies in the field, the birds of heaven will eat.

5 And the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 And Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son reigned in his place.

7 Moreover through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani the word of Jehovah came against Baasha and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Jehovah, provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands and by being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck ¹it down.

G. The Reign of Elah over Israel
16:8-14

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa the king of Judah Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, the captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. While he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah,

10 Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah; and he reigned in his place.

11 And as soon as he began to reign, just as he sat on his throne, he struck down all the house of Baasha; there was not a male left to him, neither kinsman nor friend.

12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, 13 Because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they committed and by which they caused Israel to sin, thereby provoking Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their ¹idols.

14 And the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

H. The Reign of Zimri over Israel
16:15-20

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa the king of Judah Zimri began to reign for seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And when the people who were encamped there heard it said, Zimri has conspired and even struck down the king, all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up, and all Israel with him, from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And when Zimri saw that the city had been taken, he went up to the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire and died, 19 Because of his sins that he committed by doing what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, walking in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he did, causing Israel to sin.

7¹ Or, him. 13¹ Or, vanities. So also in v. 26.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy that he conspired, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

I. The Reign of Omri over Israel
16:21-28a

21 At that time the people of Israel were divided into two: Half of the people went after Tibni the son of Ginath, making him king, and half after Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath; and Tibni died, and Omri began to reign.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa the king of Judah Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years; he reigned six years in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built upon the hill and called the name of the city that he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

25 And Omri did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and was more evil than all who were before him.

26 And he went in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sin by which he caused Israel to sin, thereby provoking Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their idols.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri that he did and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 And Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria.

J. The Reign of Ahab over Israel
16:28b—22:40

1. Beginning to Reign over Israel
16:28b-29

And Ahab his son reigned in his place.

29 And Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa the king of Judah. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

2. Doing What Was Evil
in the Eyes of Jehovah
More Than All Who Were before Him
16:30-33

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, more than all who were before him.

31 And as if it were a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took as his wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal the king of the Sidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshipped him.

32 And he raised up an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made the Asherah. And Ahab did more to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who had been before him.

3. In His Days Jericho Being Rebuilt, Bringing In the Curse Prophesied
16:34

34 In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of Abiram his firstborn, and he set up its gates at the cost of Segub his youngest son, according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke through Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

4. God's Dealing with Ahab through Elijah the Prophet
17:1—19:9a

a. Shutting Up the Heavens from Rain
17:1-24

1 And Elijah the Tishbite, from among the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Jehovah the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain during these years, except by my word.

(1) God Sending Elijah to Live on Water from the Brook and on Food Brought by Ravens
vv. 2-7

2 And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,

3 Go from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, which is before the Jordan.

4 And you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.

5 And he went and did according to the word of Jehovah; that is, he went and stayed by the brook Cherith, which is before the Jordan.

6 And the ravens would bring him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook.

7 Then after a while the brook dried up, for there had been no rain in the land.

(2) God Sending Elijah to a Widow to Feed Him
vv. 8-24

(a) Elijah Miraculously Providing Meal and Oil for the Widow, instead of Being Fed by Her
vv. 8-16

8 And the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,

9 Rise up and go to Zarephath, which belongs to Zidon, and stay there. I have just commanded a widow there to keep you fed.

10 And he rose up and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the entrance of the city, a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, I beg you, bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And she went to get it. Then he called to her and said, I beg you, bring me a piece of bread in your hand.

12 And she said, As Jehovah your God lives, I have nothing baked, but only a handful of meal in a barrel and a little oil in a jar; and I am now gathering a few sticks that I may go and prepare it for me and my son, that we may eat it and die.

13 And Elijah said to her, Do not fear. Go, do as you have said. But make me a little cake out of it first, and bring it out to me; then make something for yourself and for your son afterward.

14 For thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, The barrel of meal will not give out, nor will the jar of oil fail, until the day that Jehovah sends rain upon the face of the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the word of Elijah. And she and he and her house ate for many days.

16 The barrel of meal did not give out, nor did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of Jehovah, which He had spoken through Elijah.

(b) Elijah Raising Up the Widow's Dead Son
vv. 17-24

17 Then after these things the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; and his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said to Elijah, What have I done to you, O man of God, that you have come to me to recall my iniquity and kill my son?

19 And he said to her, Bring me your son. And he took him out of her bosom and carried him up into the upper chamber where he was staying, and he laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried to Jehovah and said, Jehovah, my God, have You also brought evil upon the widow, to whom I am a guest, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to Jehovah and said, Jehovah, my God, I beg You, let this child's soul come into him again!

22 And Jehovah listened to the voice of Elijah; and the child's soul came into him again, and he lived.

23 And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, See, your son is alive.

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that you are a man of God and that the word of Jehovah in your mouth is truth.

CHAPTER 18

b. Opening Up the Heaven to Rain 18:1-46

(1) God Sending Elijah to Ahab vv. 1-2

1 Then after many days the word of Jehovah came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, present yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the face of the earth.

2 And Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. And the famine was severe in Samaria.

(2) Ahab Meeting Elijah through Obadiah vv. 3-16

3 And Ahab called for Obadiah, who was over his house. (Now Obadiah feared Jehovah greatly.)

4 And when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Jehovah, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and kept them fed with bread and water.)

5 And Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we will find grass to keep the horses and the mules alive and not lose some of the animals.

6 And they divided the land between them in order to pass through it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And while Obadiah was on the way, Elijah met him at that moment; and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, Is it indeed you, my lord Elijah?

8 And he said to him, It is I. Go and say to your lord, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What sin have I committed, that you give your servant into the hand of Ahab to put me to death?

10 As Jehovah your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom that my lord has not sent men into in order to seek you; and when they said, He is not here, he had an oath taken from the kingdom or nation that they had not found you there.

11 And now you say, Go and say to your lord, Elijah is here.

12 And it will happen that when I go away from you, the Spirit of Jehovah will carry you off, I know not where; and when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will slay me, although I your servant have feared Jehovah since my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of Jehovah, that I hid a hundred of Jehovah's prophets by fifties in a cave and kept them fed with bread and water?

14 And now you say, Go and say to your lord, Elijah is here; and he will slay me.

15 Then Elijah said, As Jehovah of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will present myself to him today.

16 Then Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and he told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

(3) The Test on Mount Carmel to Prove Who the Real God Is vv. 17-40

17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Is that you, the troubler of Israel?

18 And he said, I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah and have gone after the Baals.

19 And now send word, and gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel, as well as the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent word to all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets together unto Mount Carmel.

21 Then Elijah came near to all the people and said, How long will you go hopping between two opinions? If Jehovah is God, follow Him; but if Baal is, follow him. And the people did not answer him a word.

22 And Elijah said to the people, I alone am left as a prophet of Jehovah, but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bulls. And let them choose one bull for themselves and cut it in pieces and put it on the wood, but let them apply no fire; and I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood, and I will apply no fire.

24 Then call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Jehovah; and the God who answers by fire, He will be God. And all the people answered and said, The word seems good.

25 And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose one bull for yourselves, and prepare it first, for there are many of you. And call on the name of your god, but apply no fire.

26 So they took the bull which had been given them and prepared it; and they called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, O Baal, answer us! But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they leaped around the altar that had been made.

27 Then at noon Elijah mocked them and said, Cry out with a loud voice, for he is a god; for he is meditating or has wandered off or is on a journey. Perhaps he is asleep and will awake.

28 And they cried out with a loud voice and cut themselves, according to their custom, with swords and spears until blood gushed out all over them.

29 And when noon had past, they prophesied until the time of the offering up of the meal offering; but there was no voice nor any that answered nor any attention paid.

30 Then Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of Jehovah which was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob (to whom the word of Jehovah came, saying, Israel shall be your name);

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of Jehovah, and he made a trench around the altar, with a capacity of two measures of seed.

33 And he arranged the wood and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. And he said, Fill four jars with water, and pour the water on the burnt offering and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it a second time. And they did it a second time. And he said, Do it a third time. And they did it a third time.

35 And the water went around the altar, and he filled the trench also with water.

36 Then at the time of the offering up of the meal offering, Elijah the prophet came near and said, O Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and that I have done all these things by Your word.

37 Answer me, O Jehovah; answer me, that this people may know that You, O Jehovah, are God and that You have turned their heart back again.

38 And the fire of Jehovah fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw this, they fell on their faces and said, Jehovah—He is God! Jehovah—He is God!

40 And Elijah said to them, Seize the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape! And they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon and slaughtered them there.

(4) The Great Downpour of Rain
vv. 41-46

41 Then Elijah said to Ahab, Go up; eat and drink, for there is the sound of an abundance of rain.

42 And Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he bowed down on the earth and put his face between his knees.

43 And he said to his attendant, Go up now; look toward the sea. And he went up and looked and said, There is nothing. And he said seven times, Go back.

44 And at the seventh time the attendant said, Now there is a cloud, small as a man's hand, coming up out of the sea. And Elijah said, Go up and say to Ahab, Prepare a chariot and go down, so that the rain does not stop you.

45 And in the meantime the heavens became black with clouds, and there was wind and a great rain. And Ahab mounted his chariot and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of Jehovah was upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

c. Elijah Being Threatened by Jezebel, the Wife of Ahab
19:1-9a

1 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and all about how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, The gods do so to me and even more, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them!

3 And because he ¹was afraid, he rose up and went away for his life; and he came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his attendant there.

4 And he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a certain broom shrub; and he requested for himself that he might die and said, It is enough; now, O Jehovah, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.

5 And he lay down and slept under the broom shrub. And suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, Rise up and eat.

6 And he looked, and there at his head was a cake, baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. And he ate and drank, and lay down again.

7 And the angel of Jehovah came again the second time and touched him and said, Rise up and eat; for the journey is too great for you.

8 And he rose up and ate and drank, and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

9 And there he went into a cave and lodged there.

5. Jehovah's Commission to Elijah in His Discouragement
19:9b-18

And at that time the word of Jehovah came to him; and He said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah?

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and slain Your prophets with the sword; and I alone am left, and they seek to take my life.

11 And He said, Go out, and stand upon the mountain before Jehovah. And suddenly Jehovah passed by, and a great, strong wind rent the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before Jehovah—Jehovah was not in the wind. And after the wind, an earthquake—Jehovah was not in the earthquake.

³ Some MSS read, saw (this).

12 And after the earthquake, a fire—Jehovah was not in the fire. And after the fire, ¹a gentle, quiet voice.

13 And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And then a voice came to him and said, What are you doing here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and slain Your prophets with the sword; and I alone am left, and they seek to take my life.

15 And Jehovah said to him, Go; return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when you come there, anoint Hazael as king over Syria;

16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint as king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

17 And him who escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and him who escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill.

18 Yet I have left Myself seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed unto Baal and every mouth that has not kissed him.

6. Elijah Finding Elisha and Gaining Him to Follow Him and Replace Him
19:19-21

19 And he went from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat. And he was plowing with twelve yokes before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah went over to him and threw his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, Let me kiss my father and my mother, and I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?

21 And he returned from him and took the yoke of oxen and slaughtered them; and he boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen and gave it to the people, and they ate. And he rose up and went after Elijah and ministered to him.

CHAPTER 20

7. Dealing with Ben-hadad the King of Syria
20:1-43

1 And Ben-hadad the king of Syria assembled all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, as well as horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Samaria and fought against it.

2 And he sent messengers to the city to Ahab the king of Israel and said to him, Thus says Ben-hadad, 3 Your silver and your gold are mine; your best wives and children also are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, As you say, my lord the king, I and all that I have are yours.

5 And the messengers came again and said, Thus speaks Ben-hadad, saying, I sent word to you, saying, You shall give me your silver and your gold and your wives and your children;

6 But tomorrow at this time I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and your servants' houses; and whatever is pleasant in your sight, they will put in their hand and take away.

7 And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, Look now, and see how this man seeks trouble; for he sent word to me for my wives and my children and my silver and my gold; and I did not deny him.

12¹ Or, a sound of gentle stillness.

8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen to him, nor shall you give consent.

9 And he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do. And the messengers departed and brought word back to him.

10 And Ben-hadad sent word to him and said, The gods do so to me and even more, if the dust of Samaria will provide even a handful for all the people who follow me!

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him who puts on his armor boast like him who takes it off.

12 And when he heard this word, as he and the kings in the tents were drinking, he said to his servants, Set yourselves in position. And they set themselves in position against the city.

13 Then at that moment a certain prophet approached Ahab the king of Israel and said, Thus says Jehovah, Have you seen all this great multitude? I am now delivering it into your hand today, and you will know that I am Jehovah.

14 And Ahab said, Through whom? And he said, Thus says Jehovah, Through the attendants of the leaders of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? And He said, You.

15 And he numbered the attendants of the leaders of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he numbered all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon; and Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the tents, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him.

17 And the attendants of the leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-hadad sent out men, and they told him, saying, Some men have come forth from Samaria.

18 And he said, If they have come forth for peace, take them alive; or if they have come forth for war, take them alive.

19 But these had come forth from the city, the attendants of the leaders of the provinces and the army that followed them.

20 And each man struck down his ¹opponent; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went forth and struck down the horses and chariots, and he struck down the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet approached the king of Israel and said to him, Go; strengthen yourself, and consider and see what you should do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their gods are gods of the mountains; therefore they were stronger than we. But if we fight against them in the plain, we will surely be stronger than they.

24 So do this: Remove the kings, each from his place, and put governors in their places.

25 And you number an army, like the army that you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain. We will surely be stronger than they. And he listened to their voice and did so.

26 And at the return of the year Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight with Israel.

²⁰ Lit., man.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered and supplied with food, and they went to meet them. And the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Syrians filled the land.

28 And the man of God approached and spoke to the king of Israel and said, Thus says Jehovah, Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is a God of the mountains, but He is not a God of the valleys, I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand; and you will know that I am Jehovah.

29 And they camped, one army against the other, for seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined, and the children of Israel struck down a hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day.

30 And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on the twenty-seven thousand of them who were left. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city, hiding from one room to another.

31 And his servants said to him, Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. We beg you, let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will preserve your life.

32 And they girded sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, I beg you, preserve my life. And he said, Is he still alive? He is my brother.

33 And the men were looking for some sign and quickly caught what came from him; and they said, Ben-hadad is your brother. And he said, Go and bring him. And Ben-hadad came forth to him, and he brought him up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said to him, The cities that my father took from your father I will restore; and you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. And I, said Ahab, will send you away with this treaty. So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain one of the sons of the prophets said to his companion by the word of Jehovah, Strike me. But the man refused to strike him.

36 Then he said to him, Because you have not listened to the voice of Jehovah, as soon as you depart from me, the lion will strike you down. And when he had departed from him, the lion found him and struck him down.

37 Then he found another man and said, Strike me. And the man struck him violently and wounded him.

38 And the prophet departed and waited for the king by the way, and he disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

39 And when the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and then a man turned aside and brought another man to me and said, Guard this man; if he is missing at all, your life will be for his life, or you will pay a talent of silver.

40 And because your servant was doing things here and there, he got away. And the king of Israel said to him, So be your judgment; you have determined it yourself.

41 Then he quickly took the bandage away from over his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets.

42 And he said to him, Thus says Jehovah, Because you have released out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people.

43 And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and vexed, and he came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

8. Taking Naboth's Vineyard by Force in Injustice
21:1-29

1 And after these things, it so happened that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, alongside the palace of Ahab the king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden; for it is nearby, alongside my house. And I will give you in its place a better vineyard than it; or if it seems good to you, I will give you its value in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, Jehovah ¹forbid that I give the inheritance of my fathers to you!

4 And Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word that Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and would eat no food.

5 And Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, Why is your spirit so sullen that you will not eat any food?

6 And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it; and he said, I will not give you my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said to him, Do you now exercise sovereignty over Israel? Rise up, eat some food, and let your heart be glad: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 And she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and she sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who dwelt with Naboth in his city.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth at the head of the people.

10 And put two ¹worthless fellows before him, and they shall testify against him, saying, You cursed God and the king. Then carry him out, and stone him that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did according to the instructions that Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth at the head of the people.

13 And the two worthless fellows came and sat before him; and the ¹worthless men testified against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth cursed God and the king. And they carried him out of the city and stoned him with stones, and he died.

14 And they sent word to Jezebel, saying, Naboth has been stoned and is dead.

15 And when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Rise up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive but dead.

16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it.

17 And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Rise up and go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel, who is in Samaria. He is now in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

19 And you shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Jehovah, Have you killed and also taken possession? Then you shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Jehovah, In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick up your blood also.

3¹ Lit., forbid me it. 10¹ Lit., men, sons of Belial. 13¹ Lit., men of Belial.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, my enemy? And he said, I have found you because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of Jehovah.

21 I am now bringing evil upon you, and I will take away your posterity and will cut off from Ahab every male, bond and free, in Israel;

22 And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah because of the provocation by which you have provoked Me to anger and caused Israel to sin.

23 And concerning Jezebel, Jehovah also spoke, saying, The dogs will eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.

24 Him of Ahab's who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and him who dies in the field, the birds of heaven will eat.

25 (Indeed there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of Jehovah because Jezebel his wife urged him on.

26 And he acted very abominably in going after idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.)

27 And when Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth upon his flesh and fasted; and he lay in sackcloth and went about carefully.

28 And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before Me? Because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the evil upon him in his days; in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house.

CHAPTER 22

9. His Miserable Ending 22:1-40

1 And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 Then in the third year Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and yet we keep quiet without taking it out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me into battle at Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I will be as you are; my people will be as your people; my horses, as your horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Ask today, I beg you, for the word of Jehovah.

6 And the king of Israel assembled the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain? And they said, Go up, and the ¹Lord will give it into the king's hand.

7 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not yet another prophet of Jehovah here, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil. It is Micaiah the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called a certain officer and said, Quickly bring Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, on the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

6¹ Many MSS read, Jehovah.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron; and he said, Thus says Jehovah, With these you will push the Syrians until you have destroyed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and succeed; for Jehovah will deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, See, the words of the prophets, being of one accord, seem good to the king. Let your word, I beg you, be like the word of one of them, and speak good.

14 And Micaiah said, As Jehovah lives, that which Jehovah says to me, that will I speak.

15 And when he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain? And he said to him, Go up, and succeed; for Jehovah will deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Jehovah?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master; let each of them return to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you that he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And Micaiah said, Hear therefore the word of Jehovah, I saw Jehovah sitting upon His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him, on His right hand and on His left.

20 And Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said after this manner, and another said after that manner.

21 And there came forth a certain spirit and stood before Jehovah and said, I will entice him.

22 And Jehovah said unto him, How? And he said, I will go forth and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall entice him and surely prevail. Go forth, and do so.

23 So now Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets, and Jehovah has spoken evil concerning you.

24 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah approached and struck Micaiah upon the cheek and said, Which way did the Spirit of Jehovah pass from me to speak to you?

25 And Micaiah said, You will see on that day when you go from room to room to hide yourself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son.

27 And you shall say, Thus says the king, Put this man in prison, and feed him with the bread of affliction and with the water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If you return in peace at all, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, O peoples, all of you!

29 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle; but you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

31 And the king of Syria commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but with the king of Israel only.

32 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely this is the king of Israel. And they turned against him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And when the captains of the chariots perceived that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a man drew a bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate. And the king of Israel said to his charioteer, Turn your hand, and drive me out of the camp; for I am wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot before the Syrians, and he died in the evening; and the blood of the wound ran out into the hollow of the chariot.

36 And the cry went throughout the army at the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own land!

37 And the king died and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And someone washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked his blood, where the harlots bathed, according to the word of Jehovah, which he had spoken.

39 And the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house that he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 And Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

K. The Reign of Jehoshaphat over Judah
22:41-50

41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab the king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of Jehovah. Nevertheless the high places were not removed; the people offered sacrifices and burned incense still on the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat and his might that he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remainder of the male cult prostitutes, which were left in the days of his father Asa, he put away from out of the land.

47 And there was no king in Edom; a deputy was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish go to Ophir for gold; but they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.

49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat was not willing.

50 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

L. The Reign of Ahaziah over Israel
1 Kings 22:51—2 Kings 1:18

51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah; and he reigned two years over Israel.

52 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

53 And he served Baal and worshipped him and provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

SECOND KINGS

L. The Reign of Ahaziah over Israel (cont'd) 1:1-18

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber which was in Samaria and became ill. And he sent messengers and said to them, Go and inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I will recover from this sickness.

3 But the Angel of Jehovah said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise; go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus says Jehovah, You shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you shall surely die. And Elijah departed.

5 And when the messengers returned to him, he said to them, Why have you returned?

6 And they said to him, A man came up to meet us and said to us, Go and return to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus says Jehovah, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send men to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.

7 And he said to them, What sort of man was he who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?

8 And they said to him, A hairy man, and he was girded with a leather girdle around his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 And he sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. And the captain went up to him, and there he was, sitting on the top of the hill. And he said to him, O man of God, the king says, Come down!

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty. Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

11 And again the king sent another captain of fifty with his fifty. And the captain answered and said to him, O man of God, thus says the king, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said to them, If I am the man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13 And again the king sent a captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up; and he came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and he entreated him and said to him, O man of God, may my soul and the soul of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.

14 Already fire has come down from heaven and consumed the first two captains of fifty and their fifties; and now may my soul be precious in your sight.

15 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Elijah, Go down with him; do not be afraid of him. And he rose up and went down with him to the king.

16 Then he said to him, Thus says Jehovah, Because you sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron—was it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word?—therefore you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.

17 And he died according to the word of Jehovah which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, because he had no son.

18 And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER 2

M. The Rapture of Elijah 2:1-18

1 And when Jehovah was about to take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said to Elisha, Stay here, for Jehovah has sent me as far as Bethel. And Elisha said, As Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel.

3 Then the sons of the prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, Do you know that Jehovah will take away your master from over your head today? And he said, I too know it; be silent.

4 And Elijah said to him, Elisha, stay here, for Jehovah has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, Do you know that Jehovah will take away your master from over your head today? And he said, I too know it; be silent.

6 And Elijah said to him, Stay here, for Jehovah has sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So the two of them went on.

7 And fifty men from the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle and wrapped it together and struck the water; and it parted to this side and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

9 And when they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I should do for you before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, Let a double portion of your spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, so will it be to you; but if not, it will not be so.

11 And as they went on and talked, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared; and they separated the two of them. And Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 And Elisha saw it and cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen! And he did not see him anymore. And he grasped his clothes and tore them in two pieces.

13 And he picked up Elijah's mantle, which had fallen from him, and returned and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

14 And he took Elijah's mantle, which had fallen from him, and struck the water and said, 'Where is Jehovah, the God of Elijah? And when he also struck the water, it parted to this side and that, and Elisha crossed over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho opposite him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha. And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said to him, Here with your servants are fifty strong men; let them go and seek your master, lest the Spirit of 14' Or, Where is Jehovah, the God of Elijah, even He? And when he struck the water....

Jehovah has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley. And he said, You shall not send them.

17 But when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send them. So they sent fifty men, who searched for three days but did not find him.

18 And they returned to him while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, Did I not say to you, Do not go?

N. Elisha's Ministry of Grace
2:19-25

1. Healing the Bad Water of Jericho
vv. 19-22

19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, The location of the city is good, as my lord can see; but the water is bad, and the land is barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went out to the source of the water and threw salt there; and he said, Thus says Jehovah, I have healed this water; there will not be any more death or barrenness from there.

22 So the water has been healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha, which he spoke.

2. Cursing the Mocking Boys
vv. 23-25

23 And he went up from there to Bethel. And as he was going up on the way, some little boys came out from the city and mocked him and said to him, Go up, baldhead; go up, baldhead.

24 And he turned around and looked at them and cursed them in the name of Jehovah. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two children among them.

25 And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

O. The Reign of Jehoram over Israel
3:1-27

1 Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years.

2 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, but not as his father and his mother had done, for he put away the pillar of Baal, which his father had made.

3 Yet he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, by which he caused Israel to sin; he did not turn away from ¹them.

4 Now Mesha the king of Moab was a sheep breeder, who would pay as tribute to the king of Israel ¹one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

5 And when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And King Jehoram went forth from Samaria on that day and mustered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to Moab to fight? And he said, I will go up: I will be as you are; my people will be as your people; my horses, as your horses.

8 And he said, By which way shall we go up? And he said, By the way of the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of Edom set out, and they circled about on a journey of seven days. And there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! Jehovah has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there no

3¹ Lit., it. 4¹ Or, the wool of one hundred thousand lambs and one hundred thousand rams.

prophet of Jehovah here, by whom we may inquire of Jehovah? And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of Jehovah is with him. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What do I have in this that concerns you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No; for Jehovah has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Elisha said, As Jehovah of hosts, before whom I stand, lives, were it not that I regard Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not even look at you or see you.

15 But now bring me a musician. And as the musician played, the hand of Jehovah came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus says Jehovah, Make this valley trenches, all trenches!

17 For thus says Jehovah, You will not see wind, nor will you see rain; but that valley will be filled with water, and you will drink, as will your cattle and your animals.

18 And this is but a small thing in the sight of Jehovah, for He will deliver Moab into your hand.

19 And you will strike every fortified city and every choice city, and every good tree you will fell, and all the springs of water you will stop, and every fine portion of land you will mar with stones.

20 And in the morning, at about the time of the offering up of the meal offering, there came water from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 Now when all Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, any of those old enough to strap on armor and upward were called out; and they stationed themselves at the border.

22 And when they rose up early in the morning, the sun shone on the water; and the Moabites saw the water before them as red as blood.

23 And they said, This is blood; the kings have no doubt fought against themselves, and each has struck down his companion. Now therefore to the spoil, O Moab!

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them. And they went among them and struck down the Moabites.

25 And they overturned the cities, and on every fine portion of land each man threw his stone and filled it up, and every spring of water they stopped, and every good tree they felled. Only at Kir-hareseth did they leave stones standing, but the slingers encircled it and struck it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle went hard against him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew the sword, in order to break through to the king of Edom; but they were not able to do it.

27 So he took his firstborn son, who was to reign in his place, and offered him up as a burnt offering upon the wall. And great wrath came upon Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their land.

P. Elisha's Ministry of Grace (cont'd)
4:1—6:7

1. Calling the Things Not Being as Being 4:1-17, 42-44

1 Now a certain woman from among the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared Jehovah. And the creditor has come to take my two children to himself as servants.

2 And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in your house? And she said, Your servant has nothing at all in the house, except a jar of oil.

3 And he said, Go and borrow vessels outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels, and not just a few.

4 Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and each one you fill set aside.

5 So she went away from him and shut the door behind herself and her sons; and they brought the vessels to her, and she poured out into them.

6 And when she had filled the vessels, she said to her son, Bring me another vessel. But he said to her, There is no other vessel. And the oil stopped.

7 And she went and told the man of God. And he said, Go and sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons can live off the rest.

8 And one day Elisha was passing through Shunem; and there was a wealthy woman there, who compelled him to have a meal. So whenever he passed through, he would turn aside and have a meal there.

9 And she said to her husband, Now I know that this man who continually passes through unto us is a holy man of God.

10 Let us make a little walled upper room and put a bed and a table and a chair and a lamp for him; and when he comes to us, he can turn aside there.

11 Then one day he came there, and he turned aside into the upper room and lay down there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his attendant, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, Say to her, You have gone to all this trouble for us; what can be done for you? Should you be spoken of to the king or to the captain of the army? And she said, I dwell in the midst of my people.

14 And he said, What then can be done for her? And Gehazi said, Indeed she has no son, and her husband is old.

15 Then he said, Call her. And he called her, and she stood at the door.

16 And he said, At this time ¹next year you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not deceive your servant.

17 And the woman conceived and bore a son at that time the next year, as Elisha had told her.

2. Resurrecting the Dead 4:18-37

18 And when the child grew up, one day he went out to his father among the reapers;

19 And he said to his father, My head! My head! And he said to his attendant, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had carried him in and brought him to his mother, the child lay upon her lap until noon, then died.

21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and she shut the door behind him and went out.

22 Then she called her husband and said, Send me one of the attendants and one of the donkeys that I may run to the man of God and return.

23 And he said, Why will you go to him today? It is neither the new moon nor the Sabbath. But she said, It will be fine.

24 Then she saddled the donkey and said to her attendant, Urge the beast, and do not restrain the ride for me unless I tell you.

25 So she went. And she came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her at a distance, he said to Gehazi his attendant, That is the Shunammite over there.

26 Run now to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child? And she said, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God on the mountain, she clung to his feet. And Gehazi approached to pull her away, but the man of God said, Leave her alone; for she is bitter in soul, and Jehovah has hidden the matter from me and has not told me about it.

28 And she said, Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, Do not mislead me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not respond to him. And lay my staff upon the face of the boy.

30 And the mother of the boy said, As Jehovah lives and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he rose up and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them and set the staff upon the boy's face, but there was no sound or reaction. Therefore he returned to meet him and told him, saying, The boy has not awakened.

32 And when Elisha went into the house, there was the dead boy, laid out on his bed.

33 And he went in and shut the door behind the two of them, and he prayed to Jehovah.

34 Then he got up and lay on the child, and he put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his palms on his palms; and he stretched himself over him, and the flesh of the child became warm.

35 And he got down and walked about in the house once to and fro. Then he got up and stretched himself over him, and the boy sneezed seven times. Then the boy opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi and said, Call that Shunammite. So he called her. And when she came to him, he said, Take up your son.

37 And she came and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground. And she took up her son and went out.

3. Nullifying the Poison of the Wild Gourds with Flour
4:38-41

38 Then Elisha returned to Gilgal, and there was a famine in the land. And the sons of the prophets sat before him. And he said to his attendant, Put on the big pot, and boil some stew for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs. And he found a wild vine and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds. And he came and cut them up into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

40 And they poured out the stew for the men to eat. And while they were eating some of the stew, they cried out and said, O man of God, there is ¹poison in the pot. And they were not able to eat it.

41 And he said, Then bring some flour. And he threw it into the pot and said, Pour it out for the people that they may eat. And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

(1. Calling the Things Not Being as Being—cont'd
4:42-44)

42 Then a man came from Baal-shalishah and brought to the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And Elisha said, Give it to the people that they may eat.

40¹ Or, death.

43 And his ¹servant said, How can I set this before a hundred people? And he said, Give it to the people that they may eat; for thus says Jehovah, They shall eat and have some left.

44 So he set it before them; and they ate, and there was some left, according to the word of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 5

4. Healing Leprosy 5:1-27

1 Now Naaman, the captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man in the sight of his master and highly respected, because by him Jehovah had given deliverance to Syria. But the man, though a mighty man of valor, was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out in bands and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel, and she waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said to her mistress, If only my master were ¹with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy.

4 And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, Thus and thus did the girl who is from the land of Israel say.

5 Then the king of Syria said, Go ¹then, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went and took ²with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold and ten changes of clothes.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read: And now, when this letter comes to you, I am sending Naaman my servant to you, that you may cure him of his leprosy.

7 And when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, Am I God to put to death and to give life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Therefore consider now and see how he seeks an occasion against me.

8 And when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 And Naaman came with his horses and his chariot and stood at the entrance of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be ¹restored; and you shall be clean.

11 But Naaman became furious and went away and said, I thought, He will surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of Jehovah his God, and wave his hand over the place and cure the leper.

12 Are not the ¹Abana and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near and spoke to him and said, My father, had the prophet told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, Wash and be clean?

14 So he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times according to the word of the man of God. And his flesh was restored to be like the flesh of a little boy, and he was clean.

15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him and said, Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except with Israel. And now, please accept a ¹present from your servant.

16 But he said, As Jehovah lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing. And Naaman urged him to take it, but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, Then if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth, for your servant will no more offer burnt offerings and sacrifices to other gods, but to Jehovah only.

18 In this matter may Jehovah pardon your servant: When my master goes into the house of Rimmon to bow down there and leans on my arm, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may Jehovah pardon your servant in this matter.

19 And he said to him, Go in peace. And when he had gone from him a little way, 20 Gehazi, the attendant of Elisha the man of God said, Now my master has spared Naaman this Syrian by not receiving from his hand that which he brought. As Jehovah lives, I will run after him and take something from him.

21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he alighted from the chariot to meet him and said, Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Now at this moment two young men from among the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim; please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.

23 And Naaman said, Please take two talents. And he urged him and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothes, and gave them to two of his attendants; and they carried them before him.

24 And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house. And he sent the men away, and they departed.

25 And he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where have you come from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant has not gone anywhere.

26 And he said to him, Did not my heart go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive silver and to receive clothing and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male servants and female servants?

27 Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cleave to you and to your seed forever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

CHAPTER 6

5. Floating the Ax Head Fallen into the Waters with a Wooden Stick 6:1-7

1 Then the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, The place here where we dwell before you is too narrow for us.

2 Let us go to the Jordan and each take a beam from there, and let us make for ourselves a place there, where we may dwell. And he said, Go.

3 And someone said, Please go with your servants. And he said, I will go.

4 And he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down the trees.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the 'ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, Alas, my master! It was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick and threw it there and made the iron float.

7 And he said, Take it up for yourself. And he stretched out his hand and took it.

5¹ Lit., iron.

Q. The Reign of Jehoram over Israel
(cont'd)
6:8—8:15

1. Ben-hadad the King of Syria
Waging War against Israel
6:8-23

8 Now the king of Syria waged war against Israel. And he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall my camp be.

9 And the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you do not pass such a place, for the Syrians are going down there.

10 And the king of Israel sent word to the place that the man of God told him about. ¹So the king alerted the ²place and put it on guard not merely once or twice.

11 And the heart of the king of Syria was enraged over this matter. And he called his servants and said to them, Tell me, which of us sides with the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words which you speak in your bedroom.

13 And he said, Go and see where he is, that I may send for him and seize him. And it was told him, saying, He is in Dothan.

14 And he sent horses and chariots and a massive army there. And they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 And the ¹servant of the man of God rose early and went out, and there it was: an army with horses and chariots surrounding the city. And his attendant said to him, Alas, my master! What shall we do?

16 And he said, Do not fear, for they who are with us are more than they who are with them.

17 And Elisha prayed and said, O Jehovah, open his eyes that he may see. And Jehovah opened the eyes of the attendant, and he saw: The mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18 And when the ¹Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to Jehovah and said, Strike this nation with blindness. And He struck them with blindness according to Elisha's word.

19 Then Elisha said to them, This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. And he brought them to Samaria.

20 And when they came to Samaria, Elisha said, O Jehovah, open the eyes of these men that they may see. And Jehovah opened their eyes and they saw that they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, Shall I strike them? Shall I strike them, my father?

22 And he said, You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive by your sword and your bow? Set bread and water before them, and let them eat and drink and go back to their master.

23 Then he prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria no longer came into the land of Israel.

2. Ben-hadad the King of Syria
Besieging Samaria
6:24—7:20

24 And after this Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria; and they besieged it until the head of a donkey was sold for eighty pieces of silver and a fourth part of a kab of doves' dung was sold for five pieces of silver.

26 And once, as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, 'Help me, my lord O king.

27 And he said, If Jehovah does not help you, from where shall I help you? From the threshing floor or the wine-press?

28 And the king said to her, What is your trouble? And she said, This woman said to me, Give up your son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.

29 So we boiled my son and ate him. And on the next day I said to her, Give up your son that we may eat him; but she hid her son.

30 And when the king heard the woman's words, he tore his clothes. And as he passed by upon the wall, the people could see that he had sackcloth upon his flesh underneath.

31 And he said, God do so to me, and even more, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today.

32 Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king had sent a man from before him. Before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Do you see that this son of a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? When the messenger comes, see that you shut the door and 'hold the door closed against him. Surely the sound of his master's feet is behind him.

33 While he was still talking with them, the 'king came down to him and said, This evil is from Jehovah; why should I wait for Jehovah any longer?

CHAPTER 7

1 And Elisha said, Hear the word of Jehovah: Thus says Jehovah, At about this time tomorrow a seah of fine flour will be sold for a shekel and two seahs of barley will be sold for a shekel in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then the captain on whose arm the king leaned answered the man of God and said, Even if Jehovah made windows in heaven, could this thing happen? And he said, Your eyes shall indeed see it, but you shall not eat from it.

3 Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. And they said to one another, Why are we sitting here until we die?

4 If we say, Let us enter the city, the famine is in the city and we will die there; but if we sit here, we will also die. Now therefore let us go and 'desert to the camp of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will die.

5 So they rose up in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians. And when they came to the edge of the camp of the Syrians, there was not a man there.

6 Now the Lord had made the camp of the Syrians hear the sound of chariots and the sound of horses, the sound of a great army; and each man said to his brother, Now the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to come against us.

7 And they rose up and fled in the twilight, and they abandoned their tents and their horses and their donkeys, indeed the whole camp just as it was, and fled for their lives.

8 So when these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they entered one tent and began to eat and drink. And they took silver and gold and clothing from there, and went and hid them. And they went back and entered another tent and took things from there and went and hid them.

26¹ Lit., Save. So also in the next verse (twice). 32¹ Lit., press him with the door. 33¹ Others read, messenger. 4¹ Lit., fall.

9 Then they said to one another, We are not doing right. This day is a day of good tidings, and we remain silent. If we delay until the morning's light, our iniquity will find us out. Now therefore, come and let us go and tell the king's household.

10 So they went and called out to the gatekeepers of the city and told them saying, We went to the camp of the Syrians, and there was not a man there nor even the sound of a man; but the horses were tied, and the donkeys were tied, and the tents were left as they were.

11 And the gatekeepers proclaimed it and told the king's household within.

12 And the king rose up in the night and said to his servants, I will tell you what the Syrians have done to us: They know that we are hungry; and they have gone out from the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out from the city, we will take them alive; and into the city we will go.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some men take five of the remaining horses that are left ¹in the city—they are like all the multitude of Israel which remain ¹in the city; they are like all the multitude of Israel which have perished—and let us send them and see.

14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the ¹army of Syria, saying, Go and see.

15 And when they went after them toward the Jordan, all the way was full of garments and equipment that the Syrians had thrown off in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king.

16 And the people went forth and plundered the camp of the Syrians. And a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, according to the word of Jehovah.

17 Now the king had appointed the captain on whose arm he leaned to have charge of the gate; and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king had come down to him.

18 So just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two seahs of barley will be sold for a shekel and a seah of fine flour will be sold for a shekel at about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria;

19 And the captain had answered the man of God and said, Even if Jehovah made windows in heaven, could this thing happen? and the man of God had said, Your eyes shall indeed see it, but you shall not eat from it;

20 So it happened to him; for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

CHAPTER 8

3. Elisha Telling of a Seven-year Famine Ordered by God 8:1-6

1 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, Rise up, and you and your household go and dwell wherever you can; for Jehovah has called for a famine, and it will also come upon the land for seven years.

2 So the woman rose up and did according to the word of the man of God. And she and her household went and dwelt in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

3 And at the end of the seven years the woman returned from the land of the Philistines. And she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and her land.

4 And the king was talking to Gehazi the attendant of the man of God, saying, Recount to me all the great things that Elisha has done.

5 And while Gehazi was telling the 13¹ Lit., in her. 14¹ Or, camp.

king how Elisha had restored the dead boy to life, there came the woman whose son he had restored to life, crying to the king for her house and her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And the king asked the woman, and she recounted it to him. And the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, Restore all that was hers and all the produce of her land from the day that she left the country until now.

4. Elisha's Friendly Contact with Ben-hadad the King of Syria
8:7-15

7 And Elisha went to Damascus. And Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick. And it was told him, saying, The man of God has come here.

8 And the king said to Hazael, Take a gift ¹with you, and go to meet the man of God; and inquire of Jehovah through him, saying, Will I recover from this sickness?

9 So Hazael went to meet him; and he took a gift ¹with him, even all good things of Damascus, forty camel loads. And he came and stood before him and said, Your son Ben-hadad the king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Will I recover from this sickness?

10 And Elisha said to him, Go and ¹say to him, You shall certainly recover; however Jehovah has shown me that he shall certainly die.

11 And he fixed his gaze and stared at him until he was ashamed. Then the man of God began to weep.

12 And Hazael said, Why are you weeping, my lord? And he said, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their choice young men you will slay with the sword, and their little ones you will dash to pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open.

13 And Hazael said, But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha said, Jehovah has shown me that you will be king over Syria.

14 And he went from Elisha and came to his master. And his master said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And he said, He told me that you shall certainly recover.

15 But on the next day he took the heavy covering over Ben-hadad and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

R. The Reign of Jehoram over Judah
8:16-24a

16 Now in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, while Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, began to reign.

17 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel and as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife; and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

19 But Jehovah would not destroy Judah, because of David His servant, as He had promised him that for his sake He would provide a lamp for his children always.

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they installed a king over themselves.

21 So Joram crossed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him. And he rose up at night and struck the Edomites all around him and the captains of the chariots, but his people fled to their tents.

8¹ Lit., in your hand. 9¹ Lit., in his hand. 10¹ Some MSS read, say, You shall certainly not recover.

22 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, as it is to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

S. The Reign of Ahaziah over Judah
8:24b-29

And Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, began to reign.

26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri the king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab; for he was a son-in-law to the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to fight with Hazael the king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead. And the Syrians struck Joram.

29 And Joram the king returned to heal in Jezreel of his wounds that the Syrians had inflicted on him in Ramah when he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was sick.

CHAPTER 9

T. The Reign of Jehu over Israel
9:1—10:36

1 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

2 And when you arrive there, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi; and go in and make him rise up from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room.

3 Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, Thus says Jehovah, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door and flee, and do not delay.

4 So the young man, the prophet's attendant, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, there the captains of the army were sitting. And he said, I have a word for you, O captain. And Jehu said, To which one of all of us? And he said, To you, O captain.

6 And he rose up and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, I have anointed you king over the people of Jehovah, over Israel.

7 And you shall strike the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of My servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah at the hand of Jezebel.

8 And the whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond and free, in Israel;

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah;

10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the lot of Jezreel, and there will be none to bury her. Then he opened the door and fled.

11 And when Jehu came out to the servants of his master, someone said to him, Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you? And he said to them, You know the man and his ranting.

12 And they said, That is a lie; please tell us. And he said, Thus and thus he said to me, saying, Thus says Jehovah, I have anointed you king over Israel.

13 Then they moved quickly; and every man took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps; and they blew the trumpet and said, Jehu is king!

14 And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael the king of Syria, 15 But Jehoram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought Hazael the king of Syria). And Jehu said, If this is your desire, let no fugitive depart from the city and go and tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode off in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying ill there. And Ahaziah the king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17 And the watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel and saw Jehu's multitude as he came, and he said, I see a multitude. And Jehoram said, Take a horseman, and send him to meet them; and let him say, Is there peace?

18 So the horseman went to meet him and said, Thus says the king, Is there peace? And Jehu said, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me. And the watchman reported, saying, The messenger went to them but did not return.

19 And he sent out a second horseman; and he came to them and said, Thus says the king, Is there peace? And Jehu said, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me.

20 And the watchman reported, saying, He went to them but did not return; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, because he drives furiously.

21 And Jehoram said, Yoke the chariot!

And someone yoked his chariot. And Jehoram the king of Israel and Ahaziah the king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu; and they found him in the lot of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, Is there peace, Jehu? And he said, What peace can there be, so long as the harlotries and sorceries of Jezebel your mother are so many?

23 And Jehoram turned the ¹reins and tried to flee. And he said to Ahaziah, Treachery, Ahaziah!

24 And Jehu ¹drew his bow with full strength and struck Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow went through his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

25 And Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, Take him up, and throw him in the lot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, and Jehovah ¹uttered this oracle against him:

26 Surely I have seen the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday, declares Jehovah; and I will repay you in this lot, declares Jehovah. And now, take him up and throw him in the lot, according to the word of Jehovah.

27 And Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this and fled toward the garden house; and Jehu pursued after him and said, Strike him too in his chariot. So they struck him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.

30 And Jehu came to Jezreel; and Jezebel heard of it. And she put paint on 23¹ Lit., his hands. 24¹ Lit., filled his hand with the bow. 25¹ Or, laid this burden upon him.

her eyes and adorned her head, and she looked out the window.

31 And as Jehu entered the gate, she said, Is all well, Zimri, you murderer of your master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window and said, Who is on my side? Who? And two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

33 And he said, Throw her down. And they threw her down. And some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her.

34 And he came in, and ate and drank, and said, Attend now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter.

35 But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than her skull and her feet and the palms of her hands.

36 And they returned and reported it to him. And he said, This is the word of Jehovah, which He spoke through His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the lot of Jezreel the dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel;

37 And the corpse of Jezebel will be like dung upon the surface of the field in the lot of Jezreel, so that they will not say, This is Jezebel.

CHAPTER 10

1 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria, and Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of the children of Ahab, saying,

2 Now then, when this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons,

3 Look for the best and fittest of your master's sons, and set him on the throne of his father, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they feared very greatly and said, If the two kings could not stand before him, how then can we stand before him?

5 And he who was over the household and he that was over the city and the elders and the guardians of the children sent word to Jehu, saying, We are your servants; all that you say to us, we will do. We will not make anyone king. What is good in your sight, do.

6 Then he wrote a letter to them a second time, saying, If you are mine and listen to my voice, take the heads of the sons of your master, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time. Now the king's sons, seventy men, were with the great men of the city, who had brought them up.

7 And when the letter reached them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered them, seventy men; and they placed their heads in baskets and sent them to him in Jezreel.

8 And the messenger came and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.

9 And in the morning he went out and stood and said to all the people, You are righteous. I conspired against my master and have killed him; but who struck all these?

10 Know therefore that nothing of the word of Jehovah, which Jehovah spoke concerning the house of Ahab, shall fall to the earth; for Jehovah has done that which He spoke through His servant Elijah.

11 So Jehu killed all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, until he left him no one remaining.

12 Then he rose up and departed and came into Samaria. And while he was at the 'shepherds' meeting place on the way, 31¹ Lit., his. 6¹ Lit., the men of the sons of your master. 12¹ Or, Beth-eked of the shepherds.

13 Jehu came upon the brothers of Ahaziah the king of Judah; and he said, Who are you? And they said, We are the brothers of Ahaziah, and have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive and slew them, forty-two men, at the pit of the ¹meeting place; and he left not one of them remaining.

15 And when he departed from there, he came upon Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he ¹greeted him and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab said, It is. And Jehu said, If it is, give me your hand. And Jehu gave him his hand and took him up to himself into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Jehovah. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he struck all who were left to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much.

19 Now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be missing. For I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal. Whoever is missing will not live. But Jehu acted in subtlety, in order that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent word throughout all Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came; and there was not one left who did not come. And they came to the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.

22 And he said to the one who was over the wardrobe, Bring out garments for all the worshippers of Baal. And they brought out the garments to them.

23 And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab came to the house of Baal; and he said to the worshippers of Baal, Search and see that none of the servants of Jehovah are here with you; only the worshippers of Baal should be here.

24 And they came to offer sacrifice and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside; and he had said, He who allows any of the men to escape whom I bring into your hands ¹will give up his life instead.

25 And when he finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the ¹guards and to the captains, Go in and slay them; let no one get out. And they struck them with the edge of the sword. And the guards and the captains threw them out, and they went to the ²inner room of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought out the pillars of the house of Baal and burned them.

27 And they broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal and made it a latrine, as it is to this day.

28 Thus Jehu eradicated Baal from Israel.

29 However as regards the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ¹by which he caused Israel to sin, Jehu did not turn away from them, that is, the golden calves which were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And Jehovah said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes and have dealt with the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

14¹ Or, Beth-eked. 15¹ Lit., blessed. 24¹ Lit., his life will be for his life. 25¹ Lit., runners. So throughout the book. 25² Lit., city. 29¹ Or, who caused Israel to sin. So also in v. 31.

31 But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart; he did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, by which he caused Israel to sin.

32 In those days Jehovah began to cut away portions of land in Israel, and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel 33 From the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of Arnon, both Gilead and Bashan.

34 And the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.

36 Now the time which Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

CHAPTER 11

U. The Reign of Athaliah over Judah 11:1-16

1 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and destroyed all the royal seed.

2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the sons of the king who were to be killed; ¹she put him and his nurse into the bedchamber. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not killed.

3 And he was with her, hidden in the house of Jehovah, for six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

4 Then in the seventh year Jehoiada sent word and gathered the captains of the hundreds over the Carites and over the guards and brought them to him at the house of Jehovah. And he made a covenant with them and put them under an oath in the house of Jehovah, then showed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do: A third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall keep watch over the king's house;

6 And another third shall keep watch in the gate of Sur; and another third shall keep watch at the gate behind the guards. You shall keep watch over the house for a defense.

7 And the two divisions of you, all who go off duty on the Sabbath, shall keep watch over the house of Jehovah for the king.

8 And you shall surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the ranks shall be put to death; and you shall be with the king in his goings and comings.

9 And the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded them. And each took his men, those who came on duty on the Sabbath with those who went off duty on the Sabbath; and they came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And the priest gave the spears and shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah, to the captains of the hundreds.

11 And the guards stood, each man with his weapons in his hand, from the right flank of the house to the left flank of the house, by the altar and by the house, to guard the king all around.

12 And he brought the king's son out and gave him the crown and the ¹testimony. And they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, Long live the king!

13 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she went to the people at the house of Jehovah.

2¹ Following 2 Chron. 22:11. The Hebrew text lacks, she put. 12¹ Or, insignia.

14 And she looked, and there was the king, standing by the pillar, according to the custom, with captains and their trumpets near the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew the trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, Treason! Treason!

15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds who had been set over the army and said to them, Bring her out between the ranks, and anyone who follows her kill with a sword; for the priest said, She shall not be killed in the house of Jehovah.

16 And they made way for her, and she went to the house of the king through the horses' entrance and was killed there.

V. The Reign of Joash (Jehoash)
over Judah
11:17—12:21

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people that they would be Jehovah's people, and also between the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and broke it down: The altars to him and his images they shattered to pieces, and they slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of Jehovah.

19 And ¹Jehoiada gathered the captains of the hundreds and the Carites and the guards and all the people of the land. And they brought the king down from the house of Jehovah and came by way of the guard gate to the house of the king, and he sat upon the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; for they had slain Athaliah with the sword at the house of the king.

21 Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

CHAPTER 12

1 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Jehoash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the sanctified things which goes into the house of Jehovah—the money of everyone who passes through the numbering, the money of each person's assessment, and all the money that comes up in the heart of anyone to bring into the house of Jehovah—

5 Let the priests take, each man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair what is broken in the house, wherever anything is found broken.

6 But as of the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not repaired what was broken in the house.

7 So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the priests and said to them, Why have you not been repairing what is broken in the house? Now therefore take no more money from your acquaintances, but deliver it for what is broken in the house.

8 And the priests agreed that they would neither take money from the people nor repair what was broken in the house.

9 Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid, and he put it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Jehovah. And the priests who guarded the threshold put all the money that came into the house of Jehovah into it.

19¹ Lit., he.

10 And whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest would go up and bind the money that came into the house of Jehovah in bags and count it.

11 And they would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and these would pay it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of Jehovah, 12 And to the masons and to the stone hewers and for the purchase of timber and hewn stone, to repair what was broken in the house of Jehovah, and for any other outlay to repair the house.

13 But there were no cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, or any vessels of gold or any vessels of silver prepared for the house of Jehovah out of the money that was brought into the house of Jehovah;

14 For they gave it all to those who did the work, who repaired the house of Jehovah with it.

15 And they did not ask for an accounting from the men into whose hands they had given the money to use for doing the work, for these worked faithfully.

16 The money from the trespass offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of Jehovah; it was the priests'.

17 At that time Hazael the king of Syria went up and fought against Gath and took it. And Hazael set his face to go up toward Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash the king of Judah took all the sanctified things which Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers the kings of Judah, had sanctified and his own sanctified things and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah and the house of the king; and he sent it to Hazael the king of Syria. And he went up from Jerusalem.

19 And the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants rose up and formed a conspiracy. And they struck Joash down in the house of Millo, on the way that leads down to Silla.

21 And it was Jozacar the son of Shi-meath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, who struck him down; and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 13

W. The Reign of Jehoahaz over Israel 13:1-9a

1 In the twenty-third year of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah and followed after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat ¹by which he caused Israel to sin; he did not turn away from them.

3 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel; and He gave them continually into the hand of Hazael the king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael.

4 (And Jehoahaz entreated Jehovah; and Jehovah listened to him, for He saw the oppression of Israel, for the king of Syria oppressed them.)

5 And Jehovah gave Israel a ¹deliverer, and they went out from under the hand of Syria; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as they had before.

6 However they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, by which he caused Israel to sin, but walked ² Or, who caused Israel to sin. So also in vv. 6 and 11. ⁵ Or, savior.

in them. And also the Asherah remained standing in Samaria.)

7 For he left to Jehoahaz of the people not more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Syria destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

8 And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria.

X. The Reign of Jehoash (Joash) over Israel
13:9b-25

And Joash his son reigned in his place.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash the king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, by which he caused Israel to sin; he walked in them.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did and his might with which he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 Now when Elisha was ill with his illness by which he eventually died, Joash the king of Israel went down to him and wept over ¹him and said, My father! My father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!

15 And Elisha said to him, Take a bow and arrows; and he took a bow and arrows to him.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, ¹Grasp the bow; and he grasped the bow. And Elisha put his hands over the hands of the king, 17 And he said, Open the window toward the east; and he opened it. And Elisha said, Shoot; and he shot. And he said, Jehovah's arrow of ¹victory, an arrow of victory against Syria; for you will strike Syria in Aphek until you have consumed it.

18 And he said, Take the arrows; and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike the ground; and he struck the ground three times then stopped.

19 And the man of God became angry with him and said, You should have struck it five or six times; then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed them. But now you shall strike Syria only three times.

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites would invade the land at the coming in of the new year.

21 And it so happened that as the people were burying a man, they saw a band; and they cast the man into the grave of Elisha. And as soon as the man ¹touching the bones of Elisha, he came to life and stood up on his feet.

22 And Hazael the king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 But Jehovah was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned to them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and He would not destroy them; and He has not cast them from His presence until now.

24 And Hazael the king of Syria died, and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his place.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz retook the cities out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael that he had taken 14¹ Lit., his face. 16¹ Lit., Make your hand ride over the bow. 17¹ Or, salvation; deliverance. 21¹ Lit., went and touched.

in war out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father; Joash struck him three times and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER 14

Y. The Reign of Amaziah over Judah 14:1-22

1 In the second year of Joash the son of Joahaz, the king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, began to reign.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, yet not like David his father; he did according to all that Joash his father had done.

4 However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

5 And when the kingdom was established in his hand, he struck down his servants who had struck down his father the king.

6 But the children of the murderers he did not put to death, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, in which Jehovah commanded, saying, Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He struck ten thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt; and he captured Sela in battle and called the name of it Joktheel, as it is to this day.

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, Come, let us ¹confront each other.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent word to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thornbush that was in Lebanon sent word to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as his wife; but a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thornbush.

10 You have surely struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glorify yourself, but remain in your home. Why should you stir up trouble so that you and Judah with you fall?

11 But Amaziah would not listen; so Jehoash the king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah the king of Judah ¹confronted each other in Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

12 And Judah was defeated before Israel, and they fled, each man to his tent.

13 And Jehoash the king of Israel captured Amaziah the king of Judah the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah in Beth-shemesh; and he came to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and silver and all the vessels that were found in the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house as well as hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 And the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did and his might and how he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, 8¹ Lit., see each other's face. 11¹ Lit., saw each other's face.

are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 And they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; and they sent men after him to Lachish, and they killed him there.

20 And they brought him on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

22 It was he who built Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah the king slept with his fathers.

Z. The Reign of Jeroboam over Israel
14:23-29

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, the king of Israel, began to reign in Samaria; he reigned forty-one years.

24 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ¹by which he caused Israel to sin.

25 He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of Jehovah the God of Israel, which He spoke through His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was of Gath-hepher.

26 For Jehovah saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter, for there was neither bond nor free left, nor was there anyone to help Israel.

27 And Jehovah did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven but saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did and his might, how he warred and how he restored for Israel

Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. And Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 15

AA. The Reign of Azariah (Uzziah)
over Judah
15:1-7

1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Azariah the son of Amaziah, the king of Judah, began to reign.

2 He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

4 However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

5 And Jehovah struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death; and he dwelt in a separate house. And Jotham, the king's son, was over the household, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Jotham his son reigned in his place.

BB. The Reign of Zechariah over Israel
15:8-12

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned six months.

24¹ Or, who caused Israel to sin.

9 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, as his fathers had done; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, 'by which he caused Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him down before the people. So he killed him and reigned in his place.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zechariah are there written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of Jehovah which He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel; and it was so.

CC. The Reign of Shallum over Israel
15:13-15

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah the king of Judah, and he reigned one month in Samaria.

14 And Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah and came to Samaria. And he struck down Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him. And he reigned in his place.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum and the conspiracy which he formed are there written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

DD. The Reign of Menahem over Israel
15:16-22a

16 Then Menahem struck Tiphshah and all who were in it and its borders from Tirzah; because they did not open to him, he struck it; all its pregnant women he ripped open.

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel; he reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, by which he caused Israel to sin, throughout all his days.

19 Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that 'he would support his efforts to keep the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the great men of wealth, each one man giving fifty shekels of silver, so that he could give it to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria returned and did not stay there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers.

EE. The Reign of Pekahiah over Israel
15:22b—16:26

And Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned two years.

24 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, by which he caused Israel to sin.

25 And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him. And he struck him down, along with Argob and Arieah, in Samaria in the palace of the king's house; and with him were fifty men from among the Gileadites. So he killed him and reigned in his place.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did are there written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

9' Or, who caused Israel to sin. So also in vv. 18, 24, and 28. 19' Lit., his hand would be with him to keep.

FF. The Reign of Pekah over Israel
15:27-31

27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twenty years.

28 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, by which he caused Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah the king of Israel Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria came and took Ijon and Abel-beth-maacah and Janoah and Kedesh and Hazor and Gilead and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them away captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah formed a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and he struck him down and killed him and reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did are there written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

GG. The Reign of Jotham over Judah
15:32-38a

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, the king of Judah, began to reign.

33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah.

36 And the rest of the acts of Jotham that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days Jehovah began to send Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah.

38 And Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father.

CHAPTER 16

HH. The Reign of Ahaz over Judah
15:38b—16:20

And Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, the king of Judah, began to reign.

2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the sight of Jehovah his God, as David his father had done,

3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel; and he even caused his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places and on the hills and under every flourishing tree.

5 Then Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to battle. And they besieged Ahaz, but they were not able to fight with him.

6 At that time Rezin the king of Syria restored Elath to Syria and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath and have dwelt there to this day.

7 And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son; come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against me.

8 And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria listened to him. And the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and he took it and carried the people of it away captive to Kir. And he killed Rezin.

10 And King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria at Damascus, and he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the form of the altar and the pattern of it, according to all its workmanship.

11 And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent him from Damascus. Urijah the priest made it that way before King Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached the altar and offered upon it.

13 And he burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings upon the altar.

14 And the bronze altar which was before Jehovah, he brought forward from the front of the house, from between his altar and the house of Jehovah, and put it by the side of his altar on the north.

15 And King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering and his meal offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their meal offering and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 And Urijah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz had commanded.

17 And King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases and removed the laver from off them; and he took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it and put it upon a pavement of stone.

18 And the covered way for use on the Sabbath, which they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, he removed from the house of Jehovah because of the king of Assyria.

19 And the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 17

II. The Reign of Hoshea over Israel 17:1-41

1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz the king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel; he reigned for nine years.

2 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, but not like the kings of Israel that had been before him.

3 Against him Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up, and Hoshea became his servant and rendered presents to him.

4 But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt and did not send up a present to the king of Assyria as he had from year to year. And the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.

5 And the king of Assyria invaded the whole land, and he went up against Samaria and besieged it three years.

6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away into Assyria; and he placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 And this happened because the children of Israel sinned against Jehovah their

God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and had feared other gods;

8 And they walked in the statutes of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the children of Israel and those of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel secretly did things against Jehovah their God that were not right; and they built high places in all their cities for themselves, from the watchmen's tower to the fortified city.

10 And they set up for themselves pillars and Asherahs on every high hill and under every flourishing tree;

11 And there they burned incense in all the high places, as did the nations that Jehovah had carried away from before them, and they did wicked things to provoke Jehovah to anger;

12 And they served idols, concerning which Jehovah had said to them, You shall not do this thing.

13 And Jehovah testified against Israel and against Judah through all the prophets and all the seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways; and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets.

14 But they would not hear; and they stiffened their necks, which became like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in Jehovah their God.

15 And they rejected His statutes and His covenant, which He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies, which He had testified unto them; and they followed vanity and became vain, and went after the nations that were around them, concerning whom Jehovah had charged them not to act like them.

16 And they forsook all the commandments of Jehovah their God and made for themselves molten images, that is, two calves; and they made an Asherah and worshipped all the host of heaven; and they served Baal.

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through fire and practiced divination and enchantments; and they sold themselves to do what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, in order to provoke Him to anger.

18 Therefore Jehovah was very angry with Israel, and He removed them out of His sight; nothing remained except the tribe of Judah.

19 Judah also did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God but walked in the statutes of Israel, which they had made.

20 And Jehovah rejected all the seed of Israel; and He afflicted them and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

21 For He tore Israel from the house of David. Now they had made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king, and Jeroboam drove Israel away from following Jehovah and made them commit a great sin.

22 And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them, 23 Until Jehovah removed Israel from His sight, as He had said through all His servants the prophets. And Israel was carried away from their own land to Assyria; as it is unto this day.

24 And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon and from Cuthah and from Avva and from Hamath and from Sepharvaim, and made them dwell in the cities of Samaria in place of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities.

25 And when they began dwelling there, they did not fear Jehovah, so Jehovah sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

26 And they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations that you have carried away and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the God of the land; therefore He has sent lions among them, and now they are killing them because they do not know the custom of the God of the land.

27 And the king of Assyria gave a command, saying, Take there one of the priests whom you have carried away from there; and let ¹him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the custom of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and he taught them how to fear Jehovah.

29 And every nation made gods of their own and put them in the houses of the high places that the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they dwelt.

30 And the people of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the people of Cuth made Nergal, and the people of Hamath made Ashima, 31 And the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared Jehovah; and they made for themselves from all their classes priests for the high places, who offered sacrifices for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared Jehovah but served their own gods after the custom of the nations, from which they had been carried away.

34 Unto this day they have done according to their former customs: They do not fear Jehovah; nor do they act according to their statutes and their ordinances, nor according to the law and commandment that Jehovah commanded the sons of Jacob, whom He named Israel.

35 And Jehovah had made a covenant with them and commanded them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow down to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them.

36 But Jehovah alone, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him shall you fear, and Him shall you worship, and to Him shall you sacrifice.

37 And the statutes and the ordinances and the law and the commandment which He wrote out for you, you shall be certain to do forever; and you shall not fear other gods.

38 And you shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you, neither shall you fear other gods;

39 But you shall fear Jehovah your God, and He will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 But they did not listen but acted according to their former customs.

41 So these nations feared Jehovah but served their graven images, as well as their children and their children's children; as their fathers had done, so they have done unto this day.

CHAPTER 18

JJ. The Reign of Hezekiah over Judah 18:1—20:21

1. Hezekiah's Prosperity 18:1-8

1 And in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, the king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, the king of Judah, began to reign.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.

²⁷ Lit., them.

3 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done.

4 He removed the high places and broke down the pillars and cut down the Asherah and broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the children of Israel had burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in Jehovah the God of Israel, so that after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any among those who were before him.

6 And he clung to Jehovah; he did not turn away from following after Him but kept His commandments, which Jehovah commanded Moses.

7 And Jehovah was with him; everywhere he went, he prospered. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him.

8 He struck the Philistines as far as Gaza and its borders, from the watchmen's tower to the fortified city.

2. The Invasion of the Assyrians
18:9—19:37

a. The Invasion under Shalmaneser the King of Assyria
18:9-12

9 And in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, the king of Israel, Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they took it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria and settled them in Halah and by the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes;

12 For they would not listen to the voice of Jehovah their God but transgressed His covenant, that is, all that Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded; and they would not listen to it nor do it.

b. The Attacking and Challenging of Sennacherib the King of Assyria with Insult and Blasphemy
18:13—19:37

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib the king of Assyria went up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them.

14 And Hezekiah the king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying; I have sinned; withdraw from me. I will bear whatever you impose upon me. And the king of Assyria imposed upon Hezekiah the king of Judah a levy of three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house.

16 At that time Hezekiah stripped the doors of the temple of Jehovah and the posts that Hezekiah the king of Judah had overlaid, and he gave them to the king of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great force. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they came up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the road to the Fuller's Field.

18 And they called out to the king. And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

19 And Rab-shakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What is this confidence in which you trust?

20 You say (but it is a ¹vain word), There is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?

21 You now have put your trust in the staff of this broken reed, in Egypt, in that which, if a man should lean on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it; so is Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to all who trust in him.

22 And if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God; is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship only before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore give pledges to my master, the king of Assyria; and I will give you two thousand horses, if indeed you are able to set the riders on them.

24 How then can you ¹refuse one official of the least of my master's servants and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

25 Have I now come up apart from Jehovah against this place to destroy it? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

26 And Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah and Shebnah and Joah said to Rab-shakeh, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, because we understand it; and do not speak with us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are upon the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said to them, Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?

28 And Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language and spoke and said, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus says the king, Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, because he is not able to deliver you out of ¹my hand.

30 Neither let Hezekiah cause you to trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria, Make ¹your peace with me, and come out to me; and let each eat from his own vine and each from his own fig tree, and let each drink the waters of his own cistern, 32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live and not die. So do not listen to Hezekiah when he tries to persuade you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us.

33 Have any of the gods of the nations delivered at all their land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? And have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

35 Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

36 But the people were silent and did not answer him a word, because of the commandment of the king that said, You shall not answer him.

37 Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

20' Lit., a word of the lips. 24' Lit., turn away the face from. 29' Many MSS read, his. 31' Lit., a blessing.

CHAPTER 19

1 And when King Hezekiah heard, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of Jehovah.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, who had covered themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of affliction and rebuke and contempt, for children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.

4 It may be that Jehovah your God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which Jehovah your God has heard. Therefore lift up a prayer for the remnant which is left.

5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall you say to your master, Thus says Jehovah, Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

7 Indeed, I will put a spirit in him, so that he will hear a report and return to his land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 And Rab-shakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, because he had heard that the king had departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard a report about Tirhakah the king of Ethiopia, which said, He has now come forth to make war with you. And he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah the king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Indeed, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. And will you be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations whom my fathers have destroyed delivered them: Gozan and Haran and Rezep and the children of Eden, who were in Telassar?

13 Where are the king of Hamath and the king of Arpad and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena and Ivvah?

14 And Hezekiah took the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and Hezekiah went up to the house of Jehovah and spread it before Jehovah.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah and said, O Jehovah, God of Israel, who dwells between the cherubim, You, You alone, are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth; You made the heavens and the earth.

16 Incline Your ear, O Jehovah, and hear; open Your eyes, O Jehovah, and see; and listen to the words of Sennacherib, who has sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Truly, O Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, 18 And have cast their gods into the fire, because they were not gods but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; so they destroyed them.

19 And now, O Jehovah our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, O Jehovah, are God.

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, Because you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard.

21 This is the word which Jehovah has spoken concerning him:

The virgin daughter of Zion
Has despised you and laughed at
you;

- The daughter of Jerusalem
Has shaken her head behind you.
- 22 Whom have you reproached and reviled?
Against whom have you lifted up your voice
And lifted up your eyes haughtily?
Against the Holy One of Israel.
- 23 By your messengers you have reproached the Lord,
And you have said, In the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the sides of Lebanon;
And I have cut down its tall cedars,
And the choicest of its cypresses;
And I have entered into its farthest lodging place,
And ¹its luxuriant forest.
- 24 I have dug
And have drunk foreign waters,
And with the sole of my feet I have dried up
All the rivers of ¹Egypt.
- 25 Have you not heard
That long ago I did it
And that from the days of old I had formed it?
Now I have brought it to pass,
That you should destroy fortified cities
And make them into ruinous heaps.
- 26 Therefore their inhabitants were short of ¹strength;
They were dismayed and felt ashamed;
They were like vegetation of the field
And green shoots of tender grass, Like grass which grows on the housetops
- And is scorched before it has grown up.
- 27 But I know your sitting down,
And your going out and your coming in,
And your raging against Me.
- 28 Because your raging against Me
And your arrogance have come up into My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose,
And My bridle in your lips;
And I will turn you back on the way by which you came.
- 29 And this shall be the sign to you:
This year you shall eat that which grows up of itself, and in the second year that which shoots up from the same, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 30 And the remnant of those who have escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward.
- 31 For a remnant will go forth out of Jerusalem, and from Mount Zion those who have escaped. The zeal of Jehovah ¹of hosts will perform this.
- 32 Therefore thus says Jehovah concerning the king of Assyria,
He shall not come to this city,
Nor shoot an arrow there;
Neither shall he come against it with a shield
And build up a mound against it.
- 33 By the way on which he came,
By the same shall he return,
And into this city he shall not come,
Declares Jehovah.
- 34 And around this city I will put an enclosure,
To save it,
For My own sake,
And for the sake of David, My servant.

23¹ Or, the forest of its fruitful field.

24¹ Or, besieged places. 26¹ Lit., hand.

35 And that night an angel of Jehovah went out and struck the Assyrians' camp, a hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when they rose up early in the morning, all of them were dead corpses.

36 Then Sennacherib the king of Assyria departed and ¹went back to dwell in Nineveh.

37 And as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer ¹his sons struck him down with the sword; and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 20

3. The Healing of Jehovah 20:1-11

1 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill; and Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and said to him, Thus says Jehovah, Put your house in order, for you are about to die and will not live.

2 And he turned his face to the wall and prayed to Jehovah, saying,

3 Now, O Jehovah, please remember how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart and have done what is good in Your sight. And Hezekiah wept many tears.

4 And Isaiah had not gone out of the middle ¹court when the word of Jehovah came to him, saying,

5 Return and speak to Hezekiah the leader of My people, Thus says Jehovah, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. I will now heal you: On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah;

6 And I will add to your ¹life fifteen years; and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will put an enclosure around this city for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant.

7 And Isaiah said, Bring a cake of figs. And they brought it and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What will be the sign that Jehovah will heal me and that I will go up to the house of Jehovah on the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This will be the sign from Jehovah to you, that Jehovah will do this thing which He has spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?

10 And Hezekiah said, It is an easy matter for the shadow to go down ten steps. No; rather let the shadow go backward ten steps.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried to Jehovah; and He brought the shadow on the steps, which had descended on the steps of Ahaz, ten steps backward.

4. The Failure of Hezekiah 20:12-19

12 At that time ¹Berodach-baladan the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, because he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah listened to them and showed them all ¹his treasury, the silver and the gold, and the spices and the fine oil, and his armory and everything which was found among his treasures; there was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And from where have they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a distant land, from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah said, They have seen everything that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.

36¹ Lit., went and returned and dwelt. 37¹ Some MSS omit, his sons. 4¹ Lit., city. 6¹ Lit., days. 12¹ Some MSS read, Merodach-baladan. 13¹ Lit., the house of his precious things.

16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Jehovah:

17 The days are now coming when everything that is in your house and that your fathers have laid up as a treasure unto this day will be carried away to Babylon; nothing will be left, says Jehovah.

18 And they will take away some of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will beget, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Jehovah which you have spoken is good. He said moreover, Indeed there will be peace and truth in my days.

5. Hezekiah Bringing Water into the City and His End
20:20-21a

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought the water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers.

CHAPTER 21

KK. The Reign of Manasseh
20:21b—21:18a

And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hephzibah.

2 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah had dispossessed from before the children of Israel.

3 And he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed, and he raised up altars to Baal and made an Asherah, as Ahab the king of Israel had done; and he worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, concerning which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem will I put My name.

5 And he built altars to all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of Jehovah.

6 And he caused his son to pass through fire and practiced soothsaying and enchantments, and appointed mediums and spiritists; he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah beyond measure, provoking Him to anger.

7 And he put the engraved image of the Asherah that he had made in that house concerning which Jehovah had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

8 And I will no longer cause the foot of Israel to wander away from the land that I gave their fathers, if only they will be certain to act according to all that I have commanded them and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them.

9 But they would not listen, and Manasseh led them astray to do more evil than the nations which Jehovah had destroyed from before the children of Israel.

10 And Jehovah spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasseh the king of Judah has done these abominations and has done more evil than all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has caused Judah also to sin with his idols;

12 Therefore thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, I am now bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah that both ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.

13 And over Jerusalem I will stretch the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a pan, wiping it and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done what is evil in My sight and have provoked Me to anger since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even to this day.

16 And Manasseh also shed very much innocent blood, until he filled Jerusalem with it from one end to another, besides his sin by which he caused Judah to sin, doing what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

17 And the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did and his sin which he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza.

LL. The Reign of Amon
21:18b-26a

And Amon his son reigned in his place.

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had done.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father had walked, and he served the idols that his father had served and worshipped them;

22 And he forsook Jehovah, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of Jehovah.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and they killed the king in his own house.

24 But the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon. And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

25 And the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his grave in the garden of Uzza.

MM. The Reign of Josiah
21:26b—23:30a

And Josiah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 22

1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah and walked in all the way of David his father and did not turn to the right or to the left.

3 In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Jehovah, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest and have him sum up the money that is brought to the house of Jehovah, which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of those who do the work, who have the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and let them deliver it to those who do the work who are in the house of Jehovah, for the repair of what was broken in the house,

6 To the carpenters and the builders and the masons, and for the purchase of timber and hewn stones to repair the house.

7 But do not ask them for an accounting of the money delivered into their hand, for they work faithfully.

8 Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said, Your servants have emptied out the money which was found in the house and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who have the oversight of the house of Jehovah.

10 And Shaphan the scribe reported to the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book. And Shaphan read it aloud before the king.

11 And when the king heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiyah the priest and Ahikam the son of Shaphan and Achbor the son of Micaiah and Shaphan the scribe and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

13 Go; inquire of Jehovah for me and for the people and for all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for the anger of Jehovah which is kindled against us is great, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book by doing according to all that is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiyah the priest and Ahikam and Achbor and Shaphan and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, the keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter), and they spoke to her.

15 And she said to them, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel: Tell the man who has sent you to me,

16 Thus says Jehovah, I am now bringing evil to this place and upon its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read;

17 Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands. Therefore My anger is kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall you say to him: Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, regarding the words which you have heard, 19 Because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Jehovah when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you, declares Jehovah.

20 Therefore I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought back word to the king.

CHAPTER 23

1 Then the king sent men, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up to the house of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were with him, as well as the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great; and he read aloud, in their hearing, all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found in the house of Jehovah.

3 And the king stood beside the pillar and made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, so as to establish the words of this covenant which were written in this book. And all the people stood with the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiyah the high priest and the priests of the second order and the doorkeepers to bring out of the temple of Jehovah all the vessels that were made for Baal and for Asherah and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel.

5 And he did away with the idol priests, whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and the areas surrounding Jerusalem, as well as those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought the Asherah from the house of Jehovah out of Jerusalem to the brook Kidron and burned it in the brook Kidron and ground it to dust and cast its dust on the graves of the children of the people.

7 He also broke down the houses of the cult prostitutes which were in the house of Jehovah, where the women were weaving ¹hangings for the Asherah.

8 Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates which were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on one's left at the gate of the city.

9 However the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no one could make his son or his daughter pass through fire to Molech.

11 And he did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Jehovah, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the officer, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars which were on the roof at the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Jehovah, the king tore down; and he removed them quickly from there and cast their dust into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places which were before Jerusalem, which were on the right of the mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built to Ashtoreth, the detestable thing of the Sidonians, and to Chemosh, the detestable thing of Moab, and to Milcom, the abomination of the children of Ammon, the king defiled.

14 And he broke in pieces the pillars and cut down the Asherahs and filled their places with human bones.

15 And furthermore the altar which was at Bethel, the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down. And he burned the high place and beat it into dust and burned the Asherah.

16 Then Josiah turned and saw the graves which were there in the mountain, and he sent men and took the bones from the graves and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of Jehovah, which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

17 Then he said, What is this monument which I see? And the men of the city said to him, It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar in Bethel.

18 And he said, Let him rest; let no man move his bones. So they left his bones alone with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

19 And Josiah also removed all the houses of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel made, provoking Jehovah to anger, 7¹ Or, tents; lit., houses.

and did to them according to all that he had done in Bethel.

20 And all the priests of the high places who were there he slaughtered on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people saying, Hold the Passover to Jehovah your God according to all that is written in this book of the covenant.

22 Surely no Passover like this had been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and of the kings of Judah.

23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held to Jehovah in Jerusalem.

24 And moreover Josiah utterly removed the mediums and the soothsayers and the teraphim and the idols and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Jehovah.

25 And before him there was no king like him who turned to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might according to all the law of Moses, and after him no one has risen up like him.

26 However Jehovah did not turn from His great burning anger with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations by which Manasseh provoked Him.

27 And Jehovah said, I will remove Judah also from My sight, as I have removed Israel. And I will cast off this city which I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name will be there.

28 And the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In his days Pharaoh Neco, the king of Egypt, went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. And King Josiah went out to meet him; and when ¹Pharaoh Neco saw him at Megiddo, he killed him.

30 And his servants drove him dead in a chariot from Megiddo and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave.

NN. The Reign of Jehoahaz
23:30b-33

And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in the place of his father.

31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah.

32 And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

OO. The Beginning of the Reign of Jehoiakim
23:34—24:6a

34 And Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And he took Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt, and he died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the silver according to Pharaoh's word. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, from each man according to his estimation, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Zebidah, the daughter of Pediah from Rumah.

29¹ Lit., he.

37 And he did what was evil in the eyes of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And Jehovah sent against him bands of the Chaldeans and bands of the Syrians and bands of the Moabites and bands of the children of Ammon; and He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Jehovah, which He spoke through his servants the prophets.

3 Surely it was at the command of Jehovah that this came to pass against Judah, to remove them out of His sight because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,

4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and Jehovah would not forgive.

5 And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers.

PP. The Reign of Jehoiachin
24:6b-9; 25:27-30

And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

7 And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem.

9 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father had done.

QQ. Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon
Taking Jerusalem
24:10-16

10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came against the city while his servants were besieging it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his servants and his captains and his 'eunuchs; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house. And he cut in pieces all the golden vessels which Solomon the king of Israel had made in Jehovah's temple, as Jehovah had said.

14 And he carried away into exile all Jerusalem and all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

15 And he carried Jehoiachin away into exile to Babylon; and the king's mother and the king's wives and his eunuchs and the leading men of the land, he carried away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the seven thousand men of valor and the one thousand craftsmen and smiths, all mighty men fit for war, even these the king of Babylon carried away into exile to Babylon.

12' Or, officials. So also in v. 15.

RR. The Reign of Zedekiah
24:17—25:21

17 Then the king of Babylon made ¹Jehoiachin's uncle Mattaniah king in his place, and he changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah.

19 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For it was through the anger of Jehovah that this came to pass in Jerusalem and in Judah until He cast them out from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

1 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came, he and his whole army, against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around.

2 So the city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

3 On the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine was so severe within the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4 Then the city was breached, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, while the Chaldeans were all around the city; and the king went on the way toward the Arabah.

5 And the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

6 And they seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment upon him.

7 And they slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes then put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.

8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (this was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguard, the servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

9 And he burned the house of Jehovah and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every large house he burned with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the bodyguard broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

11 And the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the multitude, Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard carried away into exile.

12 But the captain of the bodyguard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and field workers.

13 And the Chaldeans broke in pieces the bronze pillars, which were in the house of Jehovah, and the bases and the bronze sea, which were in the house of Jehovah. And they carried their bronze to Babylon.

14 And they took away the pots and the shovels and the snuffers and the spoons and all the bronze vessels with which they ministered.

15 And the captain of the bodyguard took away the firepans and the bowls: that which was of gold, for its gold, and that which was of silver, for its silver.

16 As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of Jehovah, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

17' Lit., his.

17 The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a bronze capital was upon it; and the height of the capital was three cubits; and a network and pomegranates were upon the capital all around, all of bronze; and the second pillar was like these with a network.

18 And the captain of the bodyguard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest and the three doorkeepers.

19 And from the city he took one ¹eunuch, who was overseer of the men of war, and five ²men from the king's inner circle who were found in the city, and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

20 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon in Riblah.

21 And the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath; so Judah was carried away into exile out of its land.

SS. The Governing of Gedaliah
25:22-26

22 And for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon left behind, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan over them.

23 And when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, that is, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and Johanan the son of Kareah and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah swore to them and their men and said to them, Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you.

25 In the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, came with ten men with him; and they struck down Gedaliah and he died. And they did the same to the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces rose up and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

PP. The Reign of Jehoiachin (cont'd)
25:27-30

27 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evil-merodach the king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, ¹released Jehoiachin the king of Judah from prison.

28 And he spoke with him kindly and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon.

29 And Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes and ate his food in his presence continually all the days of his life.

30 And for his allowance, a continual allowance was given to him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

CHAPTER 4

1 The sons of Judah: Perez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur and Shobal.

2 And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath; and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites.

3 And these were the sons of the father of Etam: Jizreel and Ishma and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazzelelponi;

4 And Penuel the father of Gedor and Ezer the father of Hushah; these were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

5 And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

6 And Naarah bore him Ahuzzam and Hopher and Temeni and Haahashtari; these were the sons of Naarah.

7 And the sons of Helah: Zereth, ¹Izhar, and Ethnan.

8 And Koz begot Anub and Zobebah and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

9 And Jabez was held in more honor than his brothers; and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bore him with pain.

10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, Oh that You would richly bless me and enlarge my border, and that Your hand would be with me, and that You would so keep me from evil that it would not grieve me! And God caused what he had requested to come to pass.

11 And Chelub the brother of Shuah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

12 And Eshton begot Bethrapha and Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir-nahash; these were the men of Recah.

13 And the sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah; and the ¹son of Othniel: Hathath.

14 And Meonothai begot Ophrah; and Seraiah begot Joab the father of ¹Gerharsim, for they were craftsmen.

15 And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam; and the ¹son of Elah: ²Kenaz.

16 And the sons of Jehallelel: Ziph and Ziphah, Tiria and Asareel.

23 These were the potters and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gedarah; they dwelt there with the king for his work.

3. The Genealogy of Simeon 4:24-43

24 The sons of Simeon: Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul;

25 Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son.

26 And the sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son;

27 And Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many sons; neither did all their family multiply like the sons of Judah.

28 And they dwelt at Beer-sheba and Moladah and Hazar-shual,

29 And at Bilhah and at Ezem and at Tolad

30 And at Bethuel and at Hormah and at Ziklag

31 And at Beth-marcaboth and at Hazar-susim and at Beth-biri and at Shaaraim.

These were their cities until the reign of David.

32 And their villages were Etam and Ain, Rimmon and Tochen and Ashan, five cities;

33 As well as all their villages which were around these cities, as far as Baal. These were their dwelling places and their genealogical enrollment.

34 And Meshobab and Jamlech and Josphah the son of Amaziah

35 And Joel and Jehu the son of Joshiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel,

36 And Elioenai and Jaakobah and Jeshohaiah and Asaiah and Adiel and Jesimiel and Benaiah

37 And Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—

38 These mentioned by name were leaders in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

39 And they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found rich and good pasture and a spacious and quiet and peaceful land, for they who had formerly dwelt there were of Ham.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah the king of Judah, and struck their tents and the Meunim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly, as they are to this day; and they have dwelt in place of them; for there was pasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them from among the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having at their head Pelatiah and Neariah and Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi;

43 And they struck down the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped; and they have dwelt there to this day.

CHAPTER 5

4. The Genealogy of Reuben
5:1-10

1 And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; but he was not to be enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright,

2 For Judah prevailed among his brothers, and from him was the leader, but the birthright was Joseph's) —

3 The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son,

5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

6 Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-pilneser the king of Assyria carried away captive; he was the leader of the Reubenites.

7 And his brothers by their families, in the genealogical enrollment of their generations, were: Jeiel the chief and Zechariah.

8 And Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal-meon;

9 And he dwelt on the east as far as the entrance to the wilderness from the river Euphrates; for their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the days of Saul they waged war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the east side of Gilead.

5. The Genealogy of Gad
5:11-17

11 And the children of Gad dwelt opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah.

12 Joel was the head and Shapham the next, then Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brothers according to their fathers' houses were Michael and Meshulam and Sheba and Jorai and Jacan and Zia and Eber, seven.

14 These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz:

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was the head of their fathers' house.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan and in its towns and in all the pasture lands of Sharon as far as their limits.

17 All these were enrolled in genealogies in the days of Jotham the king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the king of Israel.

6. An Insertion concerning the Children of Reuben, the Gadites, and the Half-tribe of Manasseh
5:18-26

18 The children of Reuben and the Gadites and half the tribe of Manasseh were among the valiant men, men who carried shield and sword, and drew the bow and were skillful in war—forty-four thousand seven hundred sixty ready for war.

19 And they waged war with the Hagarites and Jetur and Naphish and Nodab;

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, as well as all who were with them; for they cried out to God in the battle, and He was entreated for them because they trusted in Him.

21 And they took their livestock: their fifty thousand camels, and two hundred fifty thousand sheep, and two thousand donkeys, as well as one hundred thousand¹ people.

22 For many fell down slain, for the war

21¹ Lit., souls of men.

was of God. And they dwelt in their place until the captivity.

23 And the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land, from Bashan as far as Baal-hermon and Senir and Mount Hermon; they were many.

24 And these were the heads of their fathers' houses: Ephraim and Ishi and Eliel and Azriel and Jeremiah and Hodaviah and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses.

25 But they trespassed against the God of their fathers, and went as harlots after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them.

26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul the king of Assyria and the spirit of Tilgath-pilneser the king of Assyria; and He carried them away, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah and Habor and Hara and to the river Gozan, where they are to this day.

CHAPTER 6

7. The Genealogy of Levi 6:1-81

1 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

2 And the sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel.

3 And the children of Amram: Aaron and Moses and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

4 Eleazar begot Phinehas; Phinehas begot Abishua,

5 And Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki begot Uzzi,

6 And Uzzi begot Zerachiah, and Zerachiah begot Meraioth;

7 Meraioth begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub,

8 And Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Ahimaaz,

9 And Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan,

10 And Johanan begot Azariah (it was he who served as priest in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem);

11 And Azariah begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub,

12 And Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Shallum,

13 And Shallum begot Hilkiyah, and Hilkiyah begot Azariah, 14 And Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak, 15 And Jehozadak went into captivity when Jehovah carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

17 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei.

18 And the sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel.

19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. And these are the families of Levi according to their fathers:

20 Of Gershon: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeatherai his son.

22 The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, 23 Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, 24 Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziyah his son, and Shaul his son.

25 And the sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth.

26 As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, 27 Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

28 And the sons of Samuel: the first-born ¹Joel and Abijah.

28¹ The Hebrew text reads, Vashni; or, and the second.

29 The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzza his son, 30 Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of Jehovah after the Ark was at rest.

32 And they ministered before the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting with singing until Solomon built the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem; and they attended to their service according to their order.

33 And these are they who attended and their sons: Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,

34 The son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, 35 The son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 The son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37 The son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 The son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel;

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand: Asaph, the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea, 40 The son of Michael, the son of Baa-seiah, the son of Malchijah, 41 The son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiyah,

42 The son of Ethan, the son of Zim-mah, the son of Shimei, 43 The son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

44 And their brothers the sons of Merari were on the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch,

45 The son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiyah, 46 The son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, 47 The son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 And their brothers the Levites were given to all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 And Aaron and his sons ¹made offerings upon the altar of burnt offering and upon the altar of incense for all the work of the Holy of Holies and in order to make expiation for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 And these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son,

51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son,

52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

54 And these are their dwelling places according to their encampments, within their borders. To the sons of Aaron, to the family of the Kohathites (for to them did the lot come):

55 And they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah and its pasture lands surrounding it;

56 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

57 And to the children of Aaron they gave the ¹city of refuge, Hebron; and Libnah and its pasture lands, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa and its pasture lands,

58 And Hilen and its pasture lands, Debir and its pasture lands, 59 And Ashan and its pasture lands, and Beth-shemesh and its pasture lands;

60 And out of the tribe of Benjamin: Geba and its pasture lands, and Alemeth and its pasture lands, and Anathoth and its pasture lands. All their cities were thirteen cities, according to their families.

49¹ Lit., offered in smoke. 57¹ Lit., cities.

61 And to the rest of the children of Kohath were given by lot out of the family of the tribe, out of the half-tribe, half of Manasseh, ten cities.

62 And to the children of Gershom, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar and out of the tribe of Asher and out of the tribe of Naphtali and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

63 To the children of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben and out of the tribe of Gad and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

64 And the children of Israel gave the cities and their pasture lands to the Levites.

65 And they gave by lot those cities which were mentioned by name out of the tribe of the children of Judah and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin.

66 And some of the families of the children of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

67 And they gave them the ¹city of refuge Shechem and its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, and Gezer and its pasture lands, 68 And Jokmeam and its pasture lands, and Beth-horon and its pasture lands,

69 And Aijalon and its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon and its pasture lands;

70 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner and its pasture lands, and Bileam and its pasture lands, for the rest of the families of the children of Kohath.

71 To the children of Gershom were given out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan and its pasture lands, and Ashtaroth and its pasture lands;

72 And out of the tribe of Issachar:

Kedesh and its pasture lands, Daberath and its pasture lands,

73 And Ramoth and its pasture lands, and Anem and its pasture lands;

74 And out of the tribe of Asher: Mashal and its pasture lands, and Abdon and its pasture lands,

75 And Hukok and its pasture lands, and Rehob and its pasture lands;

76 And out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee and its pasture lands, and Hammon and its pasture lands, and Kiriathaim and its pasture lands.

77 To the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono and its pasture lands, and Tabor and its pasture lands;

78 And on the other side of the Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness and its pasture lands, and Jahzah and its pasture lands,

79 And Kedemoth and its pasture lands, and Mephaath and its pasture lands;

80 And out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead and its pasture lands, and Mahanaim and its pasture lands, 81 And Heshbon and its pasture lands, and Jazer and its pasture lands.

CHAPTER 7

8. The Genealogy of Issachar 7:1-5

1 And the sons of Issachar were Tola and Puah, Jashub and Shimron, four.

2 And the sons of Tola: Uzzi and Rephaiah and Jeriel and Jahmai and Ibsam and Shemuel, the heads of their fathers' houses. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

3 And the sons of Uzzi: Izrahiah; and the sons of Izrahiah: Michael and Obadiah 67¹ Lit., cities.

and Joel and Isshiah; all five of them were chief men.

4 And with them by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were bands for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons.

5 And their brothers among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of valor, enrolled by genealogy, in all eighty-seven thousand.

9. The Genealogy of Benjamin
7:6-12; 8:1-40

6 The sons of Benjamin: Bela and Becher and Jediael, three.

7 And the sons of Bela: Ezbon and Uzzi and Uzziel and Jerimoth and Iri, five; they were the heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, and were enrolled by genealogy, twenty-two thousand thirty-four.

10 And the ¹son of Jediael: Bilhan; and the sons of Bilhan: Jeush and Benjamin and Ehud and Chenaanah and Zethan and Tarshish and Ahishahar.

11 All these were the sons of Jediael, according to the heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand two hundred, ready for the service of war.

12 And Shuppim and Huppim, the children of Ir; Hushim, the ¹son of Aher.

10. The Genealogy of Naphtali
7:13

13 The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel and Guni and Jezer and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

11. The Genealogy of Manasseh
7:14-19

14 The sons of Manasseh: Asriel, whom his Syrian concubine bore; she bore Machir the father of Gilead.

15 And Machir took a wife, the sister of Huppim and Shuppim; and the name of their sister was Maachah. And the name of the second son was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.

16 And Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17 And the ¹son of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

18 And his sister Hamolecheth bore Ishhod and Abiezer and Mahlah.

19 And the sons of Shemidah were Ahian and Shechem and Likhi and Aniam.

12. The Genealogy of Ephraim
7:20-29

20 And the sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah and Bered his son and Tahath his son and Eleadah his son and Tahath his son

21 And Zabad his son and Shuthelah his son and Ezer and Elad. And the men of Gath who had been born in the land slew them; because they came down to take their cattle.

22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him.

23 And he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah, for it was when misfortune was in his house.

24 And his daughter was Sheerah; and she built lower and upper Beth-horon and Uzzen-sheerah.

25 And Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph and Telah his son and Tahan his son,

26 Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, 27 Nun his son, Joshua his son.

28 And their possession and dwelling places were Bethel and its villages, and Naaran to the east, and Gezer to the west and its villages, and Shechem and its villages as far as to ¹Ayyah and its villages.

29 And ¹in the hands of the children of Manasseh were Beth-shean and its villages, Taanach and its villages, Megiddo and its villages, Dor and its villages. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

13. The Genealogy of Asher
7:30-40

30 The sons of Asher: Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriah; and Serah was their sister.

31 And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel, who is the father of Birzaith.

32 And Heber begot Japhlet and Shomer and Hotham and Shua their sister.

33 And the sons of Japhlet: Pasach and Bimhal and Ashvath; these are the sons of Japhlet.

34 And the sons of Shemer: Ahi and Rohgah and Jehubbah and Aram.

35 And the sons of his brother Helem: Zophah and Imna and Shelesh and Amal.

36 The ¹sons of Zophah: Suah and Harnepher and Shual and Beri and Imrah, 37 Bezer and Hod and Shamma and Shilshah and Ithran, and Beera.

38 And the sons of Jether: Jephunneh and Pispah and Ara.

39 And the sons of Ulla: Arah and Haniel and Rizia.

40 All these were the sons of Asher, the heads of fathers' houses, choice and mighty men of valor, chiefs of the princes. And the number of them enrolled by genealogy for the service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

CHAPTER 8

9. The Genealogy of Benjamin (cont'd)
8:1-40

1 And Benjamin begot Bela his first-born, Ashbel the second, and Aharah the third,

2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

3 And Bela had sons: Addar and Gera and Abihud

4 And Abishua and Naaman and Ahoah

5 And Gera and Shephuphan and Huram.

6 And these are the sons of Ehud (these were the heads of fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba; and they carried them away to Manahath, 7 Namely, Naaman and Ahijah and Gera; he carried them into exile); and he begot Uzza and Ahihud.

8 And Shaharaim begot children in the field of Moab after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives.

9 And he begot by Hodesh his wife: Jobab and Zibia and Mesha and Malcham

10 And Jeuz and Sachia and Mirmah; these were his sons, the heads of fathers' houses.

11 And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal.

12 And the sons of Elpaal: Eber and Misham and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod and its villages;

13 And Beriah and Shema, who were heads of fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon; they drove away the inhabitants of Gath.

14 And Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth,

15 And Zebadiah and Arad and Eder

16 And Michael and Ishpah and Joha were the sons of Beriah.

17 And Zebadiah and Meshullam and Hizki and Heber

28¹ Many MSS read, Azzah. 29¹ Or, along the borders of. 36¹ Lit., son.

18 And Ishmerai and Izliah and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

19 And Jakim and Zichri and Zabdi

20 And Elienai and Zillethai and Eliel

21 And Adaiiah and Beraiah and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

22 And Ishpan and Eber and Eliel

23 And Abdon and Zichri and Hanan

24 And Hananiah and Elam and Anthothijah

25 And Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

26 And Shamsherai and Shehariah and Athaliah

27 And Jaareshiah and Elijah and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.

28 These were heads of fathers' houses, according to their generations, chief men; these dwelt in Jerusalem.

29 And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, and his wife's name was Maachah;

30 And his firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur and Kish and Baal and Nadab

31 And Gedor and Ahio and Zecher.

32 And Mikloth begot Shimeah. And these also dwelt opposite their brothers in Jerusalem, with their brothers.

33 And Ner begot Kish; and Kish begot Saul; and Saul begot Jonathan and Malchishua and Abinadab and Esh-baal.

34 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal; and Merib-baal begot Micah.

35 And the sons of Micah: Pithon and Melech and Tarea and Ahaz.

36 And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah begot Alemeth and Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza; 37 And Moza begot Binea; Rapha was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

38 And Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah and Obadiah and Hanan; all these were sons of Azel.

39 And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.

40 And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers; and they had many children and grandchildren, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

CHAPTER 9

14. The Genealogy of the Returned Children of Israel

9:1-44

1 So all Israel was enrolled by genealogy, and they are now written in the book of the kings of Israel; and Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their unfaithfulness.

2 Now the first ones to dwell in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants.

3 And some of the children of Judah and some of the children of Benjamin and some of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh dwelt in Jerusalem:

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah;

5 And of the Shilonites: Asaiah the first-born and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their brothers, six hundred ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham: and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

9 And their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six; all these men were heads of fathers' houses according to their fathers' houses.

2¹ Or, Nethinim.

10 And of the priests: Jedaiah and Jehoiarib and Jachin;

11 And Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah; and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal; and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the gatekeepers: Shallum and Akkub and Talmon and Ahiman and their brothers. Shallum was the chief, 18 Being stationed until then at the king's gate on the east. These were the gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service as keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers had been over the camp of Jehovah, keepers of the entrance.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past; Jehovah was with him.

21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

22 All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds were two hundred twelve. These were enrolled by genealogy in their villages; David and Samuel the seer appointed them because of their faithfulness.

23 So they and their sons had charge of the gates of the house of Jehovah, the house of the tent, as guards.

24 On the four sides were the gatekeepers, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brothers in their villages were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them:

26 For the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were faithful and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God.

27 And they spent the night around the house of God because the charge of the watch was upon them; and they had charge of opening it morning by morning.

28 And some of them had charge of the vessels of service; for these were counted when they were brought in, and they were counted when they were taken out.

29 And some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests prepared the compounding of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was entrusted with the things that were baked in pans.

32 And some of their brothers from the sons of the Kohathites were over the rows of bread, to prepare them every Sabbath.

33 And these are the singers, heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, who dwelt in the chambers and were free from other service, for they were employed in their work day and night.

34 These were heads of fathers' houses of the Levites according to their generations, chief men; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 And in Gibeon there dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah;

36 And his firstborn son Abdon and Zur and Kish and Baal and Ner and Nadab 37 And Gedor and Ahio and Zechariah and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begot Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brothers in Jerusalem, opposite their brothers.

39 And Ner begot Kish; and Kish begot Saul; and Saul begot Jonathan and Malchishua and Abinadab and Eshbaal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Meribbaal; and Merib-baal begot Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah: Pithon and Melech and Tahrea ¹and Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begot Jarah; and Jarah begot Alemeth and Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza;

43 And Moza begot Binea, and Rephiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael and Sheariah and Obadiah and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

CHAPTER 10

II. The History concerning the Kings over All Israel

1 Chron. 10:1—2 Chron. 9:31a

A. Saul's End 10:1-14

1 And the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines chased Saul and his sons; and the Philistines struck down Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, Saul's sons.

3 And the battle bore heavily against Saul, and the archers ¹hit him; and he was wounded by the archers.

4 Then Saul said to his armor bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not, for he was very afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died.

6 So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And the next day the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and they sent them all around, throughout the land of the Philistines in order to announce the good news to their idols and to the people.

10 And they put his armor in the house of their gods, and they fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

11 And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 All the valiant men rose up and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to Jabesh and buried their bones under the terebinth at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

13 So Saul died on account of his unfaithfulness which he committed against Jehovah, because of the word of Jehovah which he did not keep, and also because he asked the counsel of a medium, inquiring of it.

14 And he did not inquire of Jehovah;

41¹ Cf. 8:35. 3¹ Lit., found him.

therefore He killed him and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER 11

B. The Reign of David 11:1—29:30

1. Crowned and Established as King 11:1-9

1 Then all Israel gathered themselves to David at Hebron, saying, Here we are, your bone and your flesh.

2 Even previously, when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. And Jehovah your God said to you, It is you who shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be ruler over My people Israel.

3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. And David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah, and they anointed David king over Israel according to the word of Jehovah spoken by Samuel.

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, that is, Jebus; and the Jebusites were the inhabitants of the land there.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You shall not come in here. But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David.

6 And David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first will be the chief and the captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

7 So David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city all around, from the Millo even unto the surrounding area, and Joab ¹repaired the rest of the city.

9 And David became greater and greater, and Jehovah of hosts was with him.

2. His Mighty Men 11:10—12:40

10 And these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of Jehovah concerning Israel.

11 And these are the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he brandished his spear against three hundred, and they were slain at one time.

12 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite; he was among the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and the Philistines gathered themselves there for battle, and there was a plot of land full of barley there; and the people fled before the Philistines.

14 But they stationed themselves in the midst of the plot and delivered it and struck the Philistines, and Jehovah accomplished a great salvation.

15 Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David in the cave of Adullam while the army of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 Now at that time David was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem at that time.

17 And David said longingly, If only someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!

18 And the three burst through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate. And they carried it and brought it to David, but David would not drink it; rather he poured it out to Jehovah.

19 And he said, Far be it from me,

⁸ Lit., revived.

before my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who went at the risk of their lives? For at the risk of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

20 And Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the three. And he brandished his spear against three hundred, who were slain; and he had a name among the three.

21 He was indeed honored among the two of the ¹thirty, and he became their leader; but he did not attain to the three.

22 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, was great in mighty deeds. He struck the two sons of Ariel the Moabite; he also went down and struck a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

23 And he struck an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits tall. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like a weaver's beam, but he went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear out of the hand of the Egyptian and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and he had a name among the three mighty men.

25 He was indeed more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

26 And the mighty men of the armies were: Asahel the brother of Joab; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem;

27 Shammoth the ¹Harodite; Helez the Pelonite;

28 Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; Abiezer the Anathothite;

29 Sibbecai the Hushathite; Ilai the Ahohite;

30 Maharai the Netophathite; Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite;

31 Ithai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin; Benaiah the Pirathonite;

32 Hurai from the brooks of Gaash; Abiel the Arbathite;

33 Azmaveth the Baharumite; Eliahba the Shaalbonite;

34 Of the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite;

35 Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite; Eliphai the son of Ur;

36 Hephher the Mecherathite; Ahijah the Pelonite;

37 Hezro the Carmelite; Naarai the son of Ezbai;

38 Joel the brother of Nathan; Mibhar the son of Hagri;

39 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai the Beerothite, the armor bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah;

40 Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite;

41 Uriah the Hittite; Zabab the son of Ahlai;

42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him;

43 Hanan the son of Maacah and Joshaphat the Mithnite;

44 Uzzia the Ashterathite; Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite;

45 Jedaiel the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite;

46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, and Ithma the Moabite;

47 Eliel and Obed and Jaasiel the Mezo-baite.

CHAPTER 12

1 Now these are those who came to David at Ziklag while he was still hidden away because of Saul the son of Kish, and they were among the mighty men who helped him in battle.

21¹ The Hebrew text reads, three. 27¹ Following 2 Sam. 23:25; the Hebrew reads, Hararite.

2 They drew the bow, and with both right and left hands they could sling stones and shoot arrows with the bow; they were from among the brothers of Saul from Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite;

4 And Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty and over the thirty; and Jeremiah and Jahaziel and Johanan and Jozabad the Gederathite

5 Eluzai and Jerimoth and Bealiah and Shemariah and Shephathiah the Haruphite;

6 Elkanah and Isshiah and Azarel and Joezer and Jashobeam, the Korahites;

7 And Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And some of the Gadites separated themselves unto David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men fit for the service of war, who could wield shield and spear and whose faces were like the faces of lions; and they were as swift as gazelles upon the mountains:

9 Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

14 These from among the sons of Gad were heads of the army; he who was least was equal to a hundred, and the greatest to a thousand.

15 These are the ones who crossed over the Jordan in the first month, when it overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all those of the valleys, to the east and to the west.

16 And some of the children of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold.

17 And David went out to meet them; and he responded and said to them, If you have come to me in peace in order to help me, my heart will be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, though there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers see and reprove.

18 Then the Spirit ¹came upon Amasai, the head of the thirty, and he said,

We are yours, O David,

And are with you, O son of Jesse.

Peace, peace be with you,

And peace with those who help you;

For your God helps you.

And David received them and made them heads of the troops.

19 And some from Manasseh fell away to David when he came with the Philistines for battle against Saul. (But they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines, upon deliberation, sent him away, saying, He will fall back to his master Saul at the cost of our heads.)

20 As he went to Ziklag, some fell away to him: Adnah and Jozabad and Jediahel and Michael and Jozabad and Elihu and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were from Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains of the army.

22 Indeed day by day they came to David to help him, until there was a great ¹army, like the army of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war and came to David at Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul unto him according to the word of Jehovah:

18¹ Lit., clothed Amasai. 22¹ Or, camp (twice).

24 The children of Judah who carried shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred, armed for war;

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand one hundred;

26 Of the children of Levi, four thousand six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the house of Aaron; and with him were three thousand seven hundred;

28 As well as Zadok, a young mighty man of valor; and from his father's house, twenty-two captains;

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand; for until that time the greater part of them kept their allegiance to the house of Saul;

30 And of the children of Ephraim, twenty thousand eight hundred mighty men of valor, men of renown in their fathers' houses;

31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, men who understood the times that they might know what Israel should do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their command;

33 Of Zebulun, those who were able to go forth in war, who could set the battle in array with all the equipment of war, were fifty thousand, and they helped David without a double heart;

34 And of Naphtali, one thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty-seven thousand;

35 And of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

36 And of Asher, those who were able to go forth in war, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand;

37 And on the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all the equipment of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand.

38 All these, men of war who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel as well were of one heart to make David king.

39 And they were there with David for three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had provided for them.

40 Moreover those near them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses and on camels and on mules and on oxen—provisions of flour, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine and oil, and oxen and sheep, in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13

3. Taking Care of the Habitation of the Ark of God 13:1 — 16:43

1 And David took counsel with the captains of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader.

2 And David said to all the congregation of Israel, If it seems good to you, and it is from Jehovah our God, let us send far and wide to our brothers who remain in all the land of Israel and to the priests and the Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may gather themselves to us.

3 And let us bring back the Ark of our God to ourselves, for we did not inquire of it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so, for the matter was right in the sight of all the people.

5 And David gathered all Israel together from the Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath to bring the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

6 And David went up with all Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which is Judah's, to bring up from there the Ark of God, of Jehovah, who sits enthroned between the cherubim, which is called by the Name;

7 And they set the Ark of God upon a new cart from the house of Abinadab, and Uzzah and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their strength, even with songs and with lyres and with harps and with tambourines and with cymbals and with trumpets.

9 And when they came to Chidon's threshing floor, Uzzah stretched out his hand to take hold of the Ark; for the oxen had stumbled.

10 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah, and He struck him because he stretched out his hand to the Ark; and he died there before God.

11 And David was angry because Jehovah had broken forth with an outburst upon Uzzah, and he called that place Perez-uzzah, as it is to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the Ark of God to myself?

13 So David did not remove the Ark to himself to the city of David, but he carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the Ark of God remained with the house of Obed-edom in his house three months, and Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that he had.

CHAPTER 14

1 And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, as well as cedar timbers and masons and carpenters to build a house for him.

2 And David perceived that Jehovah had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

3 And David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David begot more sons and daughters.

4 And these are the names of those who were born, whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua and Shobab and Nathan and Solomon

5 And Ibhar and Elishua and Elpelet

6 And Nogah and Nepheg and Japhia

7 And Elishama and Beeliada and Eliphelet.

8 Now when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

10 Then David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand? And Jehovah said to him, Go up, and I will deliver them into your hand.

11 And they went up to Baal-perazim, and David struck them there. And David said, God has broken forth upon my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of a flood. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

12 And they left their gods there; and David gave the order, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines made yet another raid in the valley.

14 And David inquired again of God, and God said to him, You shall not go up after them; go around behind them, and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.

15 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle; for God will have gone forth before you to strike the ¹army of the Philistines.

15¹ Or, camp. So also in v. 16.

16 And David did as God had commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even unto Gezer.

17 And David's fame went forth among all the lands, and Jehovah put the fear of him upon all the nations.

CHAPTER 15

1 And David made houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

2 Then David said, None should bear the Ark of God except the Levites, for Jehovah has chosen them to bear the Ark of Jehovah and to minister to Him forever.

3 So David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem in order to bring up the Ark of Jehovah to its place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David gathered the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the leader, and his brothers, one hundred twenty;

6 Of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the leader, and his brothers, two hundred twenty;

7 Of the sons of Gershon, Joel the leader, and his brothers, one hundred thirty;

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the leader, and his brothers, two hundred;

9 Of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the leader, and his brothers, eighty;

10 Of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader, and his brothers, one hundred twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests and the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah and Joel, Shemaiah and Eliel and Amminadab;

12 And he said to them, You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because you did not bring it up the first time, Jehovah our God broke forth upon us; for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves in order to bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel.

15 And the sons of the Levites bore the Ark of God as Moses had commanded, according to the word of Jehovah, upon their shoulders with the poles upon them.

16 And David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brothers as singers with musical instruments—harps, lyres, loud-sounding cymbals—to raise sounds of joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brothers of the second order: Zechariah, ¹and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Unni, Eliab and Benaiah and Maaseiah and Mattithiah and Eliphelehu and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom and Jeiel, the doorkeepers.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound aloud with bronze cymbals;

20 And Zechariah and Aziel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Unni and Eliab and Maaseiah and Benaiah with harps set to alamothe;

21 And Mattithiah and Eliphelehu and Mikneiah and Obed-edom and Jeiel and Azariah were appointed to lead with lyres set to ¹sheminith.

18¹ Some MSS add, Ben. 21¹ Or, the octave.

22 And Chenaniah, the leader of the Levites, was over the song; he instructed about the song, because he was skillful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the Ark.

24 And Shebaniah and Joshaphat and Nethanel and Amasai and Zechariah and Benaiah and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the Ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the Ark.

25 So David and the elders of Israel and the captains of thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah from the house of Obed-edom with rejoicing.

26 And because God helped the Levites who bore the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a fine linen robe, as were all the Levites who bore the Ark and the singers and Chenaniah, the song leader of the singers; and David had on a linen ephod.

28 So all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah with shouting and with the sound of the horn and with trumpets and with cymbals, sounding aloud with harps and lyres.

29 And when the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah came to the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through a window and saw King David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16

1 And they brought the Ark of God and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David finished offering up the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah.

3 And he apportioned to everyone of Israel, to both men and women, to each one, a cake of bread and a portion of meat and a cake of raisins.

4 And he appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the Ark of Jehovah and to commemorate and thank and praise Jehovah the God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief; and second to him Zechariah; Jeiel and Shemiramoth and Jehiel and Mattithiah and Eliab and Benaiah and Obed-edom and Jeiel, with harps and with lyres; and Asaph sounding aloud with cymbals;

6 And Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

7 On that day, at that time, David first ordained the giving of thanks to Jehovah by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.

8 Give thanks to Jehovah; call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples.

9 Sing to Him; sing psalms to Him;
Muse upon all His wondrous deeds.

10 Glory in His holy name;
Let the heart of those who seek Jehovah rejoice.

11 Seek Jehovah and His strength;
Seek His face continually.

12 Remember His wondrous deeds, which He has done,
His signs and the judgments of
His mouth,

13 O seed of Israel His servant,
O children of Jacob, His chosen ones.

14 He is Jehovah our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.

15 Remember His covenant forever,
The word that He commanded to a thousand generations,

16 The covenant that He made with Abraham,
And His oath unto Isaac.

- 17 And He confirmed it unto Jacob as a statute, Unto Israel as an eternal covenant,
- 18 Saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan,
The portion of your inheritance;
- 19 When you were men few in number,
Indeed very few and strangers in the ¹land;
- 20 And they went about from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people.
- 21 He allowed no man to oppress them;
Indeed He rebuked kings for their sake.
- 22 Saying, Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.
- 23 Sing to Jehovah all the earth;
Proclaim His salvation from day to day.
- 24 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wondrous deeds among all the peoples.
- 25 For Jehovah is great and much to be praised,
And He is to be feared above all gods.
- 26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But Jehovah made the heavens.
- 27 Majesty and splendor are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.
- 28 Ascribe to Jehovah, O families of the peoples, Ascribe to Jehovah, glory and strength;
- 29 Ascribe to Jehovah the glory of His name;

Bring an offering, and come before Him.

Worship Jehovah in holy splendor;

- 30 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
Indeed the world has been established; it will not be moved;

- 31 Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, Jehovah reigns!

- 32 Let the sea and its fullness roar;
Let the field and all that is in it exult;

- 33 Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy
Before Jehovah, for He is coming To judge the earth.

- 34 Give thanks to Jehovah, for He is good,
For His lovingkindness is forever;

- 35 And say, Save us, O God of our salvation;
And gather us and deliver us out of the nations,
That we may give thanks to Your holy name,
That we may glory in Your praise.

- 36 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel,
From eternity to eternity.

And all the people said, Amen, and praised Jehovah.

37 So there before the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah he left Asaph and his brothers to minister before the Ark continually, as every day's work dictated;

38 As well as Obed-edom and his sixty-eight ¹relatives, with Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun and Hosah as gatekeepers;

39 And Zadok the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of Jehovah in the high place which was at Gibeon, 19¹ Lit., it. 38¹ Lit., brothers.

40 To offer up burnt offerings to Jehovah upon the burnt offering altar continually every morning and every evening, according to all that was written in the law of Jehovah, which He commanded Israel.

41 And with them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those who had been chosen, who had been mentioned by name, to give thanks to Jehovah, for His lovingkindness endures forever.

42 And with them were Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those who were to sound aloud and with instruments for the songs of God, and the sons of Jeduthun were to be at the gate.

43 And all the people, each one, departed to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER 17

4. Wanting to Build a House for God 17:1-27

1 And as David dwelt in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah dwells under curtains.

2 And Nathan said to David, All that is in your heart do, for God is with you.

3 And in that night the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and say to David My servant, Thus says Jehovah, It will not be you who builds Me a house to dwell in.

5 For I have not dwelt in a house, since the day I brought up Israel to this day; but I have been from tent to tent and from tabernacle to tabernacle.

6 In all My going about among all Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?

7 And now thus shall you say to My servant David, Thus says Jehovah of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you might be ruler over My people Israel;

8 And I have been with you in every place that you have gone and have cut off all your enemies before you; and I will make a name for you, like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.

9 And I will appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them there, that they may dwell in their own place and be disturbed no more; and the sons of wickedness will waste them away no more as before,

10 Even since the time when I commanded that there be judges over My people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I declare to you that Jehovah will build you a house.

11 When your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, which will be from your sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

12 It is he who will build a house for Me, and I will establish his throne forever.

13 I will be his Father, and he will be My son; and My lovingkindness I will not take from him, as I took it away from him who was before you.

14 And I will set him in My house and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.

15 According to all these words and according to this whole vision did Nathan speak to David.

16 Then King David went and ¹sat before Jehovah; and he said, Who am I, O Jehovah God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far?

16¹ Or, remained.

17 And this was a small thing in Your sight, O God; but You have spoken of the house of Your servant for a great while to come; and You have regarded me according to the custom for a man of high degree, O Jehovah God.

18 What more can David add to say to You concerning this honoring of Your servant? For You know Your servant.

19 O Jehovah, for Your servant's sake and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness to make known all these great things.

20 O Jehovah, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And who is like Your people Israel, a nation unique on the earth, which God went to redeem to Himself as a people in order to make for Yourself a name of greatness and awesomeness to drive out nations from before Your people, whom You have redeemed out of Egypt?

22 And You have made Your people Israel to be a people to You forever, and You, O Jehovah, became their God.

23 And now, O Jehovah, may the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as You have spoken.

24 And may Your name be established and magnified forever when men say, Jehovah of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel; and the house of David Your servant will be established before You.

25 For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant, that You will build him a house; therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You.

26 And now, O Jehovah, You are God, and You have spoken this good matter concerning Your servant;

27 Now therefore You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may be before You forever; for You, O Jehovah, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.

CHAPTER 18

5. His Conquests

18:1 — 20:8

- a. Over the Philistines, Moab, Zobah, Syria, and Edom
18:1-17

1 And after this David struck the Philistines and subdued them. And David took Gath and her villages out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he struck Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

3 Then David struck Hadadezer the king of Zobah at Hamath, when he went to establish his power at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him one thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And David hamstrung all the chariot horses but left enough of them for a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer the king of Zobah, David struck twenty-two thousand men among the Syrians.

6 And David put garrisons among the Syrians of Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David and brought tribute. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Tibhath and Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze, with which Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the vessels of bronze.

9 Then when Tou the king of Hamath heard that David had struck down all the army of Hadadezer the king of Zobah,

10 He sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and congratulate him for fighting against Hadadezer and striking him down, for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou. And Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and of silver and of bronze.

11 King David consecrated these also to Jehovah along with the silver and gold that he had carried from all the nations: from the Edomites and from the Moabites and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines and from the Amalekites.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down the Edomites in the Valley of Salt, that is, eighteen thousand men.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. And Jehovah preserved David wherever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel and executed justice and righteousness for all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was scribe.

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were chief at the king's side.

CHAPTER 19

b. Over Ammon and Syria 19:1 — 20:3

1 And after this Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

2 And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Do you really think that David is honoring your father just because he sent to you some men to comfort you? Have not his servants come to you in order to search out and to overthrow and to spy on the land?

4 So Hanun took David's servants and shaved them and cut away half their garments at the hips, and he sent them away.

5 Now when they went and told David about the men, he sent some to meet them, for the men were very ashamed. And the king said, Stay in Jericho until your beards grow back, then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia and from the Syrians of Maacah and from Zobah.

7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered together from their cities and came to the battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the host of mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon went forth and set the battle in array at the entrance of the city, but the kings who had come were alone in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that there were battle lines against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice men in Israel and set them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he put under the charge of Abishai his brother, and they arrayed themselves against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; and if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you.

13 Be strong and let us be bold for the sake of our people and for the sake of the cities of our God, and may Jehovah do what seems good in His sight.

14 So Joab and the people who were with him approached the battle against the Syrians, and the ¹Syrians fled before him.

15 And the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, and they also fled from before Abishai his brother and entered the city. And Joab entered Jerusalem.

16 Now when the Syrians saw that they had been routed before Israel, they sent messengers and brought forth the Syrians who were beyond the River with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer before them.

17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel together and passed over the Jordan and came to them and set his men in array against them. When David set his men in array to meet the Syrians in battle, they fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David slew seven thousand charioteers of the Syrians and forty thousand footmen, and he put Shophach the captain of the army to death.

19 And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been routed before Israel, they made peace with David and served him. So the Syrians were not willing to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 20

1 Then at the time of the turn of the year, at the time when kings go forth to battle, Joab led the army and devastated the land of the children of Ammon. And he went and besieged Rabah while David remained in Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rabah and overthrew it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and in it were precious stones; and it was put upon David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

3 And he brought out the people who were in it and hewed them with saws and iron cutting tools and axes, and thus did David do to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

c. Over the Philistines 20:4-8

4 Then after this a war arose with the Philistines at Gezer; and Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Sippai, one of the children of the giants; and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

6 And again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all; and he also had been born to the giant.

7 And he defied Israel; and Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

8 These had been born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David and by the hands of his servants.

CHAPTER 21

6. His Last Sin 21:1-30

1 And Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the captains of the people, Go and count Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring the results to me, that I may know their number.

3 And Joab said, May Jehovah add to 14¹ Lit., they.

His people a hundred times as many as they are. But, O my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why does my lord request this? Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed over Joab, and Joab went forth and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to David. And all Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah was four hundred seventy thousand men who drew the sword.

6 But he did not number Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abhorrent to Joab.

7 And this matter displeased God, and He struck Israel.

8 And David said to God, I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing; but now put away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.

9 And Jehovah spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and speak to David, saying, Thus says Jehovah, I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, that I may do it to you.

11 So Gad went to David and said to him, Thus says Jehovah, Take for yourself

12 Either three years of famine, or three months to be swept away before your adversaries, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or three days of the sword of Jehovah, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Jehovah destroying throughout all the territory of Israel. And now see what word I should return to Him who sent me.

13 And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait; let me fall into the hand of Jehovah, for His compassions are very great; and do not let me fall into the hand of man.

14 So Jehovah sent a pestilence in Israel, and seventy thousand people of Israel fell.

15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was destroying it, Jehovah saw and repented of the harm. And He said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now hold back your hand. And the angel of Jehovah was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of Jehovah standing between the earth and the heavens, with his drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, covered with sackcloth, fell on their faces.

17 And David said to God, Was it not I who ordered the numbering of the people? And it is I who have sinned and acted very wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against the house of my father, but not against Your people that they should be plagued.

18 And the angel of Jehovah commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and raise up an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at Gad's word, which he spoke in the name of Jehovah.

20 And Ornan turned back and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves; and Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David. And he went forth from the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the ground.

22 And David said to Ornan, Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to Jehovah. For the full price you shall give it to me, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said to David, Take it; and may my lord the king do whatever seems good in his sight. Look, I have given the oxen for the burnt offerings and the threshing instruments for the wood and the wheat for the meal offering—all this I give.

24 But King David said to Ornan, No; but I will surely buy it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for Jehovah and offer up burnt offerings that cost me nothing.

25 So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the site.

26 And there David built an altar to Jehovah, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And he called on Jehovah, and He answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And Jehovah commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

29 And the tabernacle of Jehovah, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering at that time were in the high place at Gibeon.

30 And David was not able to go before it to inquire of God because he was terrified of the sword of the angel of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 22

7. His Preparations for the Building of the Temple of God 22:1-19

1 Then David said, This is the house of Jehovah God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David ordered the gathering of the sojourners who were in the land of Israel. And he appointed masons to hew the wrought stones for the building of the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the clasps; and bronze in abundance, without weight;

4 And cedar trees without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought cedar trees in vast quantity to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built to Jehovah must be exceedingly great in fame and glory throughout all lands; I will therefore make preparations for it. So David prepared an abundance before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son and commanded him to build a house for Jehovah the God of Israel.

7 And David said to ¹Solomon, My son, as for me, it was on my heart to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God.

8 But the word of Jehovah came to me, saying, You have shed blood abundantly and have waged great wars. You shall not build a house for My name, for you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.

9 Behold, a son will be born to you. He will be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies around him, for Solomon will be his name, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel throughout his days.

10 It is he who will build a house for My name; and he will be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.

11 Now, my son, may Jehovah be with you; and may you prosper and build the house of Jehovah your God, as He has spoken concerning you.

12 Only, let Jehovah give you insight and understanding, and let Him give you charge over Israel that you may keep the law of Jehovah your God;

13 Then you will prosper if you are certain to perform the statutes and ordinances with which Jehovah charged Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and be bold; do not be afraid or dismayed.

7¹ Some read, Solomon his son, As for me,....

14 Now then in my affliction I have prepared for the house of Jehovah one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver and bronze and iron without weight, for it is in abundance; and timber and stone I have prepared; and you may add to these.

15 And with you there are workmen in abundance, masons and workers in stone and wood and all manner of men who are skillful in every kind of work.

16 To the gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no number. Arise and do it, and may Jehovah be with you.

17 And David commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 18 Indeed Jehovah your God is with you. And He has given you rest all around. For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah and before His people.

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek after Jehovah your God; and arise and build the sanctuary of Jehovah God, in order to bring the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah and all the holy vessels of God to the house that is to be built for the name of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 23

8. His Arrangement of the Order of the Services of the Priests and the Levites 23:1 — 26:32

a. Making Solomon His Son
King over Israel
23:1

1 Now when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

b. The Divisions of the Services of the Levites
23:2-32

2 And he gathered all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites.

3 And the Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward; and their number, head by head and man by man, was thirty-eight thousand.

4 Of these twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of Jehovah, and six thousand were officers and judges,

5 And four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand were to praise Jehovah with the instruments that I have made for praising, said David.

6 And David formed them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief and Zetham and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth and Haziël and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Ladan.

10 And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they became a father's house in one reckoning.

12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated that he might sanctify the most holy things forever, he and his sons, by burning incense before Jehovah, by ministering to Him, and by blessing in His name forever.

14 And as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer.

16 The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

18 The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief.

19 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief and Isshiah the second.

21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died and had no sons, only daughters; and their brothers the sons of Kish took them as their wives.

23 The sons of Mushi: Mahli and Eder and Jeremoth, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' houses, the heads of the fathers' houses of those who had been counted, by the number of names, head by head, who did the work for the service of the house of Jehovah, from twenty years old and upward.

25 For David said, Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to His people, and He will dwell in Jerusalem forever;

26 And also the Levites need not carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service.

27 For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered from twenty years and upward.

28 For their station was alongside the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Jehovah in the courts and in the chambers and in the purifying of all the holy things, that is, the work of the service of the house of God;

29 And for the rows of bread and the fine flour of the meal offering and the unleavened wafers and what is baked in the pan and what is mixed with oil and all measures of quantity and size;

30 And to stand morning by morning to thank and praise Jehovah, and likewise in the evening;

31 And to offer all the burnt offerings to Jehovah, according to the number ordained for them, on the Sabbaths, at the new moons, and on the appointed feasts, continually before Jehovah;

32 And they were to keep the charge of the Tent of Meeting and the charge of the sanctuary and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers for the service of the house of Jehovah.

CHAPTER 24

c. The Ordering of the Priests in Twenty-four Divisions 24:1-19

1 And the divisions of the sons of Aaron were these: the sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

3 And David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar divided them according to their offices in their service.

4 Since more chief men were found among the sons of Eleazar than the sons of Ithamar, they were divided thus: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight.

5 And they were divided by lot, each like the others; for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God, both from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, from among the Levites, recorded them in the presence of the king and the leaders and Zadok the priest and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites, one fathers' house being drawn for Eleazar and one drawn for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzes,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

17 The twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, 18 The twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

19 These were their offices in their service for coming into the house of Jehovah according to the arrangement given to them by Aaron their father, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

d. The Rest of the Levites
Casting Lots for Their Duty
24:20-31

20 And of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.

21 Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief.

22 Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

23 And the sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 The sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir.

25 The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah.

26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Jaaziah: Beno.

27 The sons of Merari: of Jaaziah were Beno and Shoham and Zaccur and Ibri.

28 Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Of Kish: the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.

30 And the sons of Mushi: Mahli and Eder and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

31 These likewise cast lots even as their brothers the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king and Zadok and Ahimelech and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites, the head of the fathers' houses even as his younger brother.

CHAPTER 25

e. Setting Apart Some of the Sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun into Twenty-four Divisions for Singing 25:1-31

1 Moreover David and the leaders of the army set apart for the service some of the sons of Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. And the ¹list of those who did the work according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur and Joseph and Nethaniah and Asharelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied under the king's direction.

3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun:

Gedaliah and Zeri and Jeshaiiah ¹and Shimei and Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun with the lyre, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising Jehovah.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth;

5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer, for ¹exalting His power with the words of God; and God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were under the direction of their father for song in the house of Jehovah, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God, Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the direction of the king.

7 And the number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to Jehovah, all of whom were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight.

8 And they cast lots for their duties, all alike, the small as well as the great, the teacher as well as the student.

9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph; the second to Gedaliah, he and his brothers and his sons, twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

11 The fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

15 The eighth to Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

16 The ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

17 The tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

18 The eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

19 The twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

20 For the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

21 For the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

22 For the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

23 For the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

24 For the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

25 For the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

26 For the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

27 For the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

28 For the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

29 For the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

30 For the twenty-third to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

31 For the twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

CHAPTER 26

f. The Divisions of the Doorkeepers 26:1-19

1 For the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³ Following the Septuagint and one Hebrew MS. Most MSS do not have the words and Shimei. ⁵ Lit., lifting up the horn.

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.

4 And Obed-edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third and Sacar the fourth and Nethanel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him.

6 And to Shemaiah his son were sons born, who ruled over the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor.

7 The sons of Shemaiah: Othni and Rephael and Obed and Elzabad, whose brothers, Elihu and Semachiah, were valiant men.

8 All these were among the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brothers, men of strength able for the service, sixty-two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen.

10 And Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief (for although he was not the firstborn, his father made him chief),

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen.

12 To these divisions of the doorkeepers, the chief men, were given duties like those of their brothers, to minister in the house of Jehovah.

13 And they cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate.

14 And the lot for the east fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a counselor with insight, they cast lots; and his lot went out for the north.

15 For Obed-edom it went out for the south; and for his sons it went out for the storehouse.

16 For Shuppim and Hosah it went out for the west, by the gate of Shallecheth on the ascending road. Guard corresponded to guard.

17 On the east: six Levites; on the north: four a day; on the south: four a day; and for the storehouse: two by two;

18 At the ¹colonnade to the west: four at the road and two at the ¹colonnade.

19 These were the divisions of the doorkeepers, from the sons of the Korahites and from the sons of Merari.

g. Assigning Some of the Levites to Keep the Treasures of the House of God and of the Dedicated Gifts
26:20-28

20 And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God and over the treasures of the dedicated gifts.

21 The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' houses belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli.

22 The sons of Jehieli: Zetham and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the house of Jehovah.

23 Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites, 24 Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures.

25 And his brothers: From Eliezer came Rehabiah his son and Jeshaiiah his son and Joram his son and Zichri his son and Shelomoth his son.

26 This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated gifts, which David the king and the heads of the fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds and the captains of the army, had dedicated;

27 Out of the spoil won in battles they dedicated these to repair the house of Jehovah.

18¹ The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain.

28 And all that Samuel the seer and Saul the son of Kish and Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and whoever had dedicated anything, was under the hand of Shelomoth and his brothers.

h. Appointing Some of the Levites to the Outward Duties over Israel, as Officers and Judges
26:29-32

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to the outward duties over Israel, as officers and judges.

30 Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan to the west for all the business of Jehovah, and for the service of the king.

31 Of the Hebronites, Jerijah was chief. (As for the Hebronites, in the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made according to their generations by fathers' houses, and among them mighty men of valor were found at Jazer-gilead.)

32 And his brothers, men of valor, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made overseers over the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

CHAPTER 27

9. The Officers in the Administration of David's Government
27:1-34

a. The Officers Who Served the King
vv. 1-15

1 And these are the children of Israel by their number, the heads of fathers' houses, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all the matters of the divisions that came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year; for every division there were twenty-four thousand.

2 Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

3 He was from the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month.

4 And over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite and his division, with Mikloth being the leader; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

5 The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah the chief, the son of Jehoiada the priest; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

6 This is that Benaiah who was the mighty man of the thirty and who was over the thirty; and in his division was Ammizabad his son.

7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

8 The fifth for this fifth month was the captain Shamhuth the Izrahite and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesht the Tekoite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

10 The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, from the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, from the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, from the Benjamites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

13 The tenth for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, from the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, from the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

b. The Captains Who Ruled over the Twelve Tribes and the House of Aaron
vv. 16-24

16 And over the tribes of Israel were these: for the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri, the leader; for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah;

17 For Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for Aaron, Zadok;

18 For Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

19 For Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel;

20 For the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah;

21 For the other half of Manasseh, in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

22 For Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David did not take the number of those from twenty years old and under, because Jehovah had said He would increase Israel like the stars of heaven.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah had begun to number them but did not finish; and because of this, wrath came upon Israel. Nor was the number put into the account in the chronicles of King David.

c. The Officers over the King's Treasures and the Overseers of the King's Property
vv. 25-31

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel; and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages and in the towers was Jonathan the son of Uziah;

26 And over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub;

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite; and over the produce of the vineyards in the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite;

28 And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal-hanan the Gederite; and over the oil stores was Joash;

29 And over the cattle that grazed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the cattle that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai;

30 And over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite; and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite; and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite.

31 All these were the overseers of the property that belonged to King David.

d. David's Counselors, Teachers, Friends, and the Captain of His Army
vv. 32-34

32 In addition, Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons;

33 And Ahithophel was the king's counselor; and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend;

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then Abiathar; and the captain of the king's army was Joab.

CHAPTER 28

10. Assembling All the Leaders of Israel at Jerusalem
28:1 — 29:25a. His Address to the Assembly
28:1-8

1 And David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel: the leaders of the tribes, and the leaders of the divisions who served the king, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the overseers of all the property and cattle of the king and of his sons, with the eunuchs and the mighty men, indeed all the mighty men of valor.

2 And David the king rose to his feet and said, Hear me, my brothers and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah and for the footstool of our God, and I prepared materials for building it.

3 But God said to me, You shall not build a house for My name, for you are a man of war and have shed blood.

4 But Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all my father's house to be king over Israel forever; for He chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah the house of my father, and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me, making me king over all Israel.

5 And out of all my sons—for Jehovah has given me many sons—He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of Jehovah over Israel.

6 And He said to me, Solomon your son, he shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.

7 And I will establish his kingdom forever, if he is resolute in doing My commandments and My ordinances, as on this day.

8 And now in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Jehovah, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek after all the commandments of Jehovah your God in order that you may possess the good land and leave it as an inheritance forever to your children after you.

b. Charging Solomon His Son to Serve God and to Build the Temple of God
28:9-21

9 And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve Him with your whole heart and with a willing soul, for Jehovah searches all the hearts and understands every imagination of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you away forever.

10 See now that Jehovah has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary—be strong and do it.

11 Then David gave Solomon his son the pattern of the portico of the temple and its buildings and its storehouses and its upper rooms and its inner rooms and the building for the propitiation cover;

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of Jehovah, and for all the chambers around, and for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated gifts;

13 And for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Jehovah, and for all the vessels of the service of the house of Jehovah;

14 And for the gold, by weight of the gold for all the vessels of each kind of service; for all the vessels of silver, by weight for all the vessels for each kind of service;

15 And for the weight of the lampstands of gold and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and for the weight of the lampstands of silver, by weight for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the service of each kind of lampstand;

16 And for the gold, by weight for the tables of the rows of bread for each table, and for the silver for the tables of silver;

17 And for the flesh hooks and the basins and the cups, of pure gold; and for the bowls of gold, by weight for each bowl; and for the bowls of silver, by weight for each bowl;

18 And for the incense altar of refined gold, by weight; and gold for the figure of the chariot, that is, the cherubim, spreading out their wings and covering the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah.

19 All this, said David, has He made clear by a writing from the hand of Jehovah upon me, all the details of the pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and be bold and do it; do not be afraid or dismayed, for Jehovah God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you until the completion of all the work for the service of the house of Jehovah.

21 And here are the divisions of priests and Levites for all the service of the house of God, and with you in all the work will be every willing man with wisdom for any service; also the leaders and all the people will be wholly at your command.

CHAPTER 29

c. His Preparation for the Building of the Temple of God Stirring Up the Leaders of Israel to Willingly Offer Their Gifts
29:1-9

1 And David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon my son, he alone whom God has chosen, is young and tender, and the work is great because the palace is not for man but for Jehovah God.

2 And as much as was in my power I have prepared for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold and the silver for the things of silver and the bronze for the things of bronze and the iron for the things of iron and the wood for the things of wood, onyx stones and inlaid stones, stones of antimony and variegated stones, and every kind of precious stone and marble stones in abundance.

3 Furthermore, because I set my affection on the house of my God, and since I have a private treasure of gold and silver, I give it for the house of my God over and above all that I have prepared for this holy house:

4 Three thousand talents of gold, from the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the houses,

5 Gold for the things of gold and the silver for the things of silver and for all the work by the hands of the craftsmen. And who will offer willingly, consecrating himself today to Jehovah?

6 And the leaders of the fathers' houses and the leaders of the tribes of Israel and the captains of thousands and of hundreds with the overseers of the king's work offered willingly;

7 And they gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And those with whom gems were found gave them to the treasure of the house of Jehovah through Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced because they offered willingly; for with their whole heart they offered willingly to Jehovah. And David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

19' Or, works. 5' Lit., filling his hand.

d. His Blessing to Jehovah in the Sight of All the Assembly
29:10-20a

10 And David blessed Jehovah in the sight of all the assembly. And David said, You are blessed, O Jehovah, God of Israel our Father, from eternity to eternity.

11 Yours is the greatness and the power and the splendor and the victory and the majesty, indeed all that is in heaven and on earth; Yours, O Jehovah, is the kingdom, and You are exalted as Head over all.

12 Both riches and glory proceed from You, and You rule over all. In Your hand are power and might, and it is in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name.

14 But who am I, and who are my people, that we should have strength to offer so willingly in this way? For all things are from You, and from Your hand we have given to You.

15 For we are strangers before You and sojourners, as were all our fathers; our days upon earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope.

16 O Jehovah our God, as for all this abundance that we have prepared for building You a house for Your holy name, it is from Your hand, and all is Yours.

17 I know also, O my God, that You try the heart and take pleasure in uprightness. I, in the uprightness of my heart, have offered willingly all these things; and now I have seen with joy Your people, who are present here, offering willingly to You.

18 O Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of Your people's heart and establish their heart toward You.

19 And to Solomon my son give a wholeness of heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, and to do all and build the palace for which I have prepared these things.

20 Then David said to all the assembly, Bless Jehovah your God.

e. The Reaction of All the Assembly
29:20b-25

And all the assembly blessed Jehovah, the God of their fathers; and they bowed down and paid homage to Jehovah and the king.

21 And they offered sacrifices to Jehovah and offered up burnt offerings to Jehovah on the morning after that day—one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 And they ate and drank before Jehovah on that day with great joy. And they made Solomon the son of David king a second time and anointed him as ruler for Jehovah and Zadok as priest.

23 And Solomon sat upon the throne of Jehovah as king in place of David his father and prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the leaders and mighty men and also all the sons of King David submitted themselves to Solomon the king.

25 And Jehovah magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel and bestowed upon him a royal majesty that had never been on any king before him over Israel.

11. Ceasing His Life on Earth
29:26-30

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the time which he reigned over Israel was forty years; in Hebron he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three.

28 And David died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

29 And the acts of David the king, the first and the last, are there written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer and in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet and in the chronicles of Gad the seer, 30 With all his reign and his might and the times that befell him and Israel and all the kingdoms of the lands.

SECOND CHRONICLES

CHAPTER 1

C. The Reign of Solomon 1:1—9:31a

1. Seeking for Wisdom 1:1-12

1 And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him and magnified him exceedingly.

2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds and to the judges and to every leader of all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.

3 And Solomon and all the assembly with him went up to the high place that was in Gibeon, for the Tent of Meeting of God was there, which Moses the servant of Jehovah had made in the wilderness.

4 However David had brought up the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

5 And the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there before the tabernacle of Jehovah, and Solomon and the assembly inquired at it.

6 And Solomon went up there before Jehovah to the bronze altar, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and he offered upon it one thousand burnt offerings.

7 During that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, Ask what I should give you.

8 And Solomon said to God, You have shown great lovingkindness to David my father and have made me king in his place.

9 And now, O Jehovah God, may Your promise to David my father be fulfilled, for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

10 Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?

11 Then God said to Solomon, Because this is on your heart and you have not asked for riches, wealth, or honor, nor for the life of those who hate you, nor have you even asked for ¹long life, but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself so that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king;

12 Wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and riches and wealth and honor I will give you, such as no kings who were before you have had, nor any after you will have.

2. His Prosperity under the Rich Blessing of God 1:13—2:18

13 Then Solomon came to Jerusalem ¹from the high place that was in Gibeon, from the Tent of Meeting; and he reigned over Israel.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen together; and he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king caused silver and gold to be as plentiful as stones in Jerusalem; and cedars, like the sycamores that are in the lowlands.

16 And the horses that Solomon had came from Egypt and from Kue; the king's 11¹ Lit., many days. 13¹ Following the Septuagint and the Vulgate; the Hebrew text reads, to.

traders bought them from Kue at a fixed price.

17 And they could ¹import from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver and a horse for one hundred fifty shekels, and thus they brought them out to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria by their own means.

CHAPTER 2

1 Now Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of Jehovah and ¹his royal palace.

2 And Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens and eighty thousand men as stonecutters in the mountains and three thousand six hundred men to oversee them.

3 And Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As you did to David my father, in that you sent him cedars to build a house for him to dwell in, so do for me.

4 I am now about to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God to sanctify to Him, for the burning of fragrant incense before Him and the arranging of the rows of bread continually and the offering up of burnt offerings in the morning and in the evening, on Sabbaths and on new moons and on the appointed feasts of Jehovah our God, this being an ordinance for Israel forever.

5 And the house which I am building will be great; for greater is our God than all the gods.

6 But who is able to build Him a house? For the heavens and the heaven of heavens is not able to contain Him. And who am I, that I should build Him a house, except to burn incense before Him?

7 So now send me a man, skillful in working with gold and with silver and with bronze and with iron and with purple and crimson and blue cloth, and who knows how to make engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father prepared.

8 Send me timber of cedar, cypress, and algum from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut the timber of Lebanon. And now my servants will be with your servants, 9 To prepare for me timber in abundance; for the house which I am building will be great and wonderful.

10 And now I will give to your servants, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand cors of crushed wheat and twenty thousand cors of barley and twenty thousand baths of wine and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 And Hiram the king of Tyre answered by letter, sending it to Solomon, saying, Because Jehovah loves His people, He has made you king over them.

12 Hiram also said, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given King David a wise son ¹endowed with discernment and understanding, who will build a house for Jehovah and his royal palace.

13 And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Hiram-abi, 14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, whose father is a man of Tyre, who knows how to work in gold and in silver and in bronze and in iron, in stones and in wood, in purple, in blue cloth, and in fine linen and in crimson cloth and who knows how to make all kinds of engraving, and to fashion any design which is given to him, to work with your skillful men and the skillful men of my lord David your father.

15 And now let my lord send to his servants the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine of which he spoke;

17¹ Lit., bring up and cause to go out. 1¹ Lit., a house for his kingdom. So also in v. 12. 12¹ Lit., who knows. So also in v. 13.

16 And we will cut whatever timber you need from Lebanon and bring it to you on rafts by sea to Joppa, and you can bring it up to Jerusalem.

17 And Solomon numbered all the men who were sojourners who were in the land of Israel after the census which David his father had made of them, and they found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.

18 And he appointed seventy thousand of them as burden bearers and eighty thousand as stonecutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

CHAPTER 3

3. Building the Temple of God with His Own Palaces 3:1 — 7:10

a. The Temple 3:1-14, 16

1 And Solomon began to build the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where He had appeared to David his father, at the place that David prepared, on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

3 And these are the foundations which Solomon laid to build the house of God. The length in cubits, according to the former standard, was sixty cubits, and it was twenty cubits wide.

4 And the portico that was at the front was as long as the width of the house, twenty cubits; and its height was one hundred twenty cubits. And he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he overlaid with cypress wood, and he overlaid it with fine gold and put palm trees and chains on it.

6 And he adorned the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim.

7 And he overlaid the house—the beams, the thresholds, and its walls and its doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

8 And he made the house of the Holy of Holies; its length, across the width of the house, was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold, and the upper chambers he overlaid with gold.

10 And he made two cherubim of sculptured work in the house of the Holy of Holies, and they overlaid them with gold.

11 And the wingspan of the cherubim was twenty cubits; the wing of one, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, touched the wing of the other cherub.

12 And the wing of the other cherub, of five cubits, touched the wall of the house, and its other wing, of five cubits, was attached to the wing of the ¹first cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubim were spread out twenty cubits in length; and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.

14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and crimson cloth and fine linen, and he put cherubim upon it.

b. The Two Bronze Pillars 3:15, 17

15 And at the front of the house he made two pillars, thirty-five cubits high; and the capital that was on the top of each was five cubits high.

12¹ Lit., other.

a. The Temple (cont'd)
3:16

16 And he made chains in the innermost sanctuary and set them on the tops of the pillars, and he made one hundred pomegranates and put them on the chains.

b. The Two Bronze Pillars (cont'd)
3:17

17 And he erected the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right and one on the left; and he called the name of the one on the right Jachin and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

CHAPTER 4

c. The Bronze Altar
4:1

1 And he made an altar of bronze; its length was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits, and its height was ten cubits.

d. The Bronze Sea with the Ten Bronze Lavers
4:2-6

2 And he made the molten sea, ten cubits from brim to brim, fully round; and it was five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it.

3 And under it there were figures of oxen all around, encircling it, ¹for ten cubits, surrounding the sea all around; the oxen were cast in two rows when they were cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three facing north and three facing west and three facing south and three facing east; and the sea was upon them, and all their hindquarters were within.

5 And it was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was like the work of a cup's brim, like the flower of a lily; it could hold three thousand baths.

6 And he made ten basins in which to wash, to rinse the things for the burnt offering, and he set five on the right and five on the left; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

e. The Vessels of the Temple
4:7-8

7 Then he made the ten golden lampstands according to the ordinance for them, and he put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.

8 And he made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left; and he made one hundred golden bowls.

f. The Courts
4:9-10

9 And he made the court of the priests and the great court and the doors of the court, and he overlaid their doors with bronze.

10 And he put the sea on the right side of the house, on the east side southward.

g. Hiram's Work for Solomon
4:11—5:1

11 And Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. Thus Hiram finished doing the work that he was doing for King Solomon in the house of God:

12 The two pillars and the bowls and the two capitals that were at the top of the pillars and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were at the top of the pillars;

13 And the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.

14 He also made the bases, and he made the basins upon the bases;

15 And the one sea and the twelve oxen under it.

16 And the pots and the shovels and the 3¹ Or, ten to a cubit.

forks and all their vessels that Hiram-abi made for King Solomon for the house of Jehovah were of burnished bronze.

17 The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.

18 And Solomon made all these vessels in great number, for the weight of bronze could not be ascertained.

19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God: the golden altar; and the tables upon which the bread of the Presence was put;

20 And the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold to burn according to their ordinance before the innermost sanctuary;

21 And the flowers and the lamps and the tongs, of gold, of purest gold;

22 And the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and the firepans, of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its innermost doors for the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.

CHAPTER 5

1 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of Jehovah was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had sanctified, even the silver and the gold and all the vessels, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

h. The Dedication of the Temple
5:2—6:42

(1) The Tabernacle Being Merged with the Temple
5:2-14

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' houses of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem in order to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah from the city of David, which is Zion.

3 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves before the king at the feast, which is in the seventh month.

4 And when all the elders of Israel came, the Levites took up the Ark.

5 And they brought up the Ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; the priests and Levites brought them up.

6 And King Solomon and all the assembly of Israel, who had assembled before him before the Ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen which could not be counted or numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the innermost sanctuary of the house, into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the cherubim.

8 And the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the Ark, and the cherubim covered the Ark and its poles overhead.

9 And the poles extended out, so that the ends of the poles could be seen coming out from the Ark before the innermost sanctuary, but they were not seen outside; and they are there to this day.

10 There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets, which Moses put there at Horeb when Jehovah made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt.

11 And when the priests came out of the Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves without regard to their divisions), 12 All the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers clothed in fine linen, with cymbals and with harps and lyres, were standing east of the altar; and one hundred twenty priests who blew the trumpets were with them.

13 And when the trumpeters and the singers were one to make themselves heard with one voice in praising and in giving thanks to Jehovah, and when they lifted up their voice with trumpets and with cymbals and with musical instruments in praise to Jehovah, saying, For He is good, for His lovingkindness is forever; then the house, the house of Jehovah, was filled with a cloud.

14 And the priests were not able to stand and minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of God.

CHAPTER 6

(2) Solomon's Blessing and Declaration to the People 6:1-11

1 Then Solomon said, Jehovah has said that He would dwell in deep darkness.

2 Yet I have built You a lofty house, even a place for You to dwell in forever.

3 And the king turned about and blessed all the congregation of Israel while all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to David my father and fulfilled it with His hands, saying,

5 Since the day when I brought My people out from the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name that it might be there; nor did I choose a man to be a ruler over My people Israel;

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.

7 And it was on David my father's heart to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel;

8 But Jehovah said to David my father, Because it was on your heart to build a house for My name, you have done well that it was on your heart;

9 However you will not build the house, but your son, who will come forth from your loins, he will build the house for My name.

10 And Jehovah has established His word which He spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit upon the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and I have built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.

11 And there I have set the Ark, in which is the covenant of Jehovah, which He made with the children of Israel.

(3) Solomon's Prayer 6:12-42

12 Then he stood before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel and spread out his hands.

13 Now Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long and five cubits wide and three cubits high and had put it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it. Then he knelt on his knees in front of all the congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward the heavens.

14 And he said, O Jehovah, God of Israel, there is no god like You, in heaven or on earth, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart;

15 You who have kept with Your servant David my father that which You have promised him; indeed You have spoken with Your mouth and have fulfilled with Your hand this day.

16 And now, O Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your children keep their way by walking in My law as you have walked before Me.

17 Now therefore, O Jehovah, God of Israel, may Your word that You spoke to Your servant David be confirmed.

18 But will God indeed dwell with man on the earth? Behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens are not able to contain You, how much less this house which I have built.

19 Yet have regard to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O Jehovah my God, and listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You;

20 That Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, toward the place of which You have said that You would put Your name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place.

21 And listen to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear then from Your dwelling place, from the heavens; and when You hear, forgive.

22 If a man sins against his neighbor and ¹is made to take an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this house;

23 Then hear from the heavens and act and judge Your servants, repaying the wicked by bringing his way on his head and justifying the righteous by giving to him according to his righteousness.

24 And if Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they turn and confess Your name and pray and make supplication before You in this house;

25 Then hear from the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

26 When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them;

27 Then hear in the heavens and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel; indeed teach them the good way in which they should walk, and bring rain upon Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

28 If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, swarming locust or consuming locust, if their enemies besiege them in the land of their ¹cities, whatever plague, and whatever sickness there is;

29 Whatever prayer, whatever supplication, which will be made by any man or by all Your people Israel, each knowing his own plague and his own pain, when he spreads out his hands toward this house;

30 Then hear from the heavens Your dwelling place, and forgive and render to each man according to all his ways, whose heart You know; for You, You alone know the hearts of the children of men;

31 That they may fear You to walk in Your ways all the days that they live in the land which You have given to our fathers.

32 And also concerning the foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel but comes from a distant country for the sake of Your great name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this house;

33 Then hear from the heavens, from Your dwelling place, and act according to all that the foreigner calls upon You for, that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and that they may fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

34 If Your people go out to battle against their enemies by the way which You have sent them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name;

35 Then hear their prayer and their supplication from the heavens, and maintain their cause.

36 If they have sinned against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them and deliver them up to the enemy, so that they are carried away captive unto a land, far away or nearby;

22¹ Or, utters a curse. 28¹ Lit., gates.

37 But if they take it to heart in the land where they were carried captive, and they repent and make supplication to You in the land of those who carried them away captive, saying, We have sinned and committed iniquity and acted wickedly;

38 And if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and they pray toward their land that You have given to their fathers, and the city that You have chosen, and to the house that I have built for Your name;

39 Then hear their prayer and their supplications from the heavens, from Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

40 Now, O my God, may Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.

41 And now arise, O Jehovah God, to Your resting place,
You and the Ark of Your strength.
Let Your priests, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation,
And let Your saints rejoice in what is good.

42 O Jehovah God, do not turn away the face of Your anointed one, Remember Your lovingkindness to David Your servant.

CHAPTER 7

(4) The Glory of Jehovah Filling the House
7:1-3

1 And when Solomon had finished praying, the fire came down from heaven and devoured the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the house.

2 And the priests were not able to enter the house of Jehovah, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.

3 And all the children of Israel, seeing the fire coming down and the glory of Jehovah upon the house, bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground and worshipped and thanked Jehovah, saying, For He is good; for His lovingkindness endures forever.

(5) Solomon and the People Offering a Vast Quantity of Sacrifices to God
7:4-7

4 And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.

5 And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. Thus the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests stood at their posts and the Levites with the musical instruments of Jehovah, which David the king had made for praising Jehovah (for His lovingkindness endures forever) whenever David praised with them. And the priests sounded the trumpets opposite them, and all Israel was standing.

7 And Solomon sanctified the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah, for there he offered the burnt offering and the fat of peace offerings because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering and the meal offering and the fat.

(6) Solomon and His People Holding a Feast for Fourteen Days
7:8-10

8 And Solomon held a feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

9 And on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they held the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast seven days;

10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, rejoicing and happy in heart for the goodness that Jehovah had shown to David and to Solomon and to Israel His people.

4. The Highest Peak of His Glory
among the Nations
7:11—9:28

a. Jehovah's Acceptance of His Prayer and Jehovah's Promise to Establish His Throne Forever
7:11-22

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of Jehovah and the king's house; and all that had come up in Solomon's heart to do in the house of Jehovah and in his own house he successfully accomplished.

12 And Jehovah appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him, I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, 14 And My people, ¹who are called by My name, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways; then I will hear from heaven and forgive their sin and heal their land.

15 Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer from this place.

16 For now I have chosen and have sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart will be there continually.

17 And as for you, if you walk before Me, as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you and keep My statutes and My ordinances;

18 Then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, You will not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments that I have put before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them;

20 Then I will pluck them out of My land which I have given them, and this house, which I have sanctified for My name, I will cast out of My sight and make it a proverb and a byword among all the peoples.

21 And concerning this house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and say, Why has Jehovah done this to this land and to this house?

22 And they will say, Because they forsook Jehovah, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods, and they worshipped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this evil upon them.

CHAPTER 8

b. His Alliance with Hiram
8:1-2

1 And at the end of the twenty years in which Solomon had built the house of Jehovah and his own house,

2 ¹He built the cities which Hiram had given to ¹him and settled the children of Israel there.

c. Building Further Cities
8:3-11

3 Then Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and overcame it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath.

5 And he built upper Beth-horon and lower Beth-horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars,

6 And Baalath and all the storage cities

¹⁴ Lit., over whom My name is called. ² Lit., Solomon.

that Solomon had, even all the cities for the chariots, and the cities for the horsemen and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion.

7 All the people who were left of the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel,

8 From their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not destroyed utterly, these Solomon levied as forced labor, as they are unto this day.

9 But Solomon did not make slaves of the children of Israel for his work, for they were the men of war and the officers over his captains and the officers over his chariots and his horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of the officers of King Solomon, two hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

11 Then Solomon brought up Pharaoh's daughter from the city of David into the house which he had built for her; for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David the king of Israel, for the places where the Ark of Jehovah has entered are holy.

d. His Offerings,
Daily and at the Appointed Feasts
8:12-16

12 Then Solomon offered up burnt offerings to Jehovah on the altar of Jehovah which he had built before the portico, 13 Even as required daily, offering them up according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths and on the new moons and on the appointed feasts three times in a year, at the Feast of Unleavened Bread and at the Feast of Weeks and at the Feast of Tabernacles.

14 And according to the ordinance of David his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their charges to praise and to minister before the priests even as required daily, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate; for thus was the commandment of David the man of God.

15 And they did not turn aside from the commandment of the king concerning the priests and the Levites concerning any matter and concerning the treasuries.

16 So all the work of Solomon was carried out, from the day of the foundation of the house of Jehovah even until its completion. Thus the house of Jehovah was finished.

e. His Navy and the Cooperation with Hiram
8:17-18

17 Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and to Eloth on the shore of the sea, in the land of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent him ships by his servants, and servants who knew the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir and took four hundred fifty talents of gold from there and brought it to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 9

f. The Queen of Sheba Coming to Pay Him Honor and to Listen to
His Words of Wisdom
9:1-9, 12

1 And the queen of Sheba had heard of Solomon's fame, and she came to Jerusalem with a very large retinue and with camels bearing spices and much gold and precious stones to test Solomon with hard questions. And when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him all that was on her heart.

2 And Solomon ¹answered every matter of hers, and there was nothing hidden from Solomon that he did not answer her.

2¹ Lit., declared to her (twice).

3 And when the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon and the house that he had built

4 And the food of his table and the seating of his servants and the service and apparel of his ministers and his cupbearers and their apparel and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Jehovah, there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my land concerning your deeds and your wisdom is true,

6 But I did not believe their words until I came and my own eyes saw. And indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me, and you exceed the report that I heard.

7 Happy are your men! And happy are these your servants, who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom!

8 Blessed be Jehovah your God, who has delighted in you and set you upon His throne as king for Jehovah your God. Because your God loves Israel to establish them forever, He has placed you as king over them to execute justice and righteousness.

9 And she gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold and a very great store of spices and precious stones, and there had never been spices like those which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

g. Hiram's Servants Bringing Precious Goods for the Temple of God and Solomon's Palace
9:10-11

10 Moreover Hiram's servants and Solomon's servants who brought gold from Ophir brought alnum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the alnum trees steps for the house of Jehovah and for the king's house and lyres and harps for the singers; such as these had not been seen before in the land of Judah.

f. The Queen of Sheba Coming to Pay Him Honor and to Listen to
His Words of Wisdom (cont'd)
9:12

12 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatever she asked for, besides that which she brought to the king. And she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants.

h. Enriched with the Tribute
by the Kings of the Nations and the Tariff
on the Traders and Merchants
9:13-24, 26-27

13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold,

14 Besides that which was brought by the traders and the merchants and by all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land, who brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; he put six hundred shekels of beaten gold upon each large shield.

16 And he made three hundred smaller shields of beaten gold; he put three hundred shekels of gold upon each smaller shield. And the king put them in the Lebanon Forest House.

17 And the king made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And the throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to the throne, and there were armrests on either side next to the place of the seat, and two lions stood next to the armrests.

19 And twelve lions stood there upon the six steps on either side. Nothing like it had ever been made in any kingdom.

20 And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the Lebanon Forest House were of pure gold; silver was considered as nothing in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king had a fleet which went to Tarshish with Hiram's servants. Once every three years the fleet from Tarshish came bearing gold and silver and ivory and apes and peacocks.

22 And King Solomon excelled all the kings of the earth in wealth and in wisdom.

23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

24 And they each brought their tribute, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and robes, weapons and spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

i. Building a Defense of Chariots and Cavalry
9:25, 28

25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots; and twelve thousand horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

h. Enriched with the Tribute
by the Kings of the Nations and the Tariff
on the Traders and Merchants (cont'd)
9:26-27

26 And he was the ruler over all the kings from the River unto the land of the Philistines and unto the border of Egypt.

27 And the king caused silver to be as plentiful as stones in Jerusalem, and cedars, like the sycamores that are in the lowlands.

i. Building a Defense of Chariots and Cavalry (cont'd)
9:28

28 And they brought horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all the lands.

5. His Decease after Reigning over All Israel for Forty Years
9:29-31a

29 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, the first and the last, are they not written in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father.

III. The History concerning the Kings of Judah
9:31b—36:23

A. The Reign of Rehoboam
9:31b—12:16a

1. Continuing the Reign after Solomon
9:31b

And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 10

2. Suffering the Division of the Kingdom and Losing Ten Tribes
10:1—11:4

1 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from Solomon the king; and Jeroboam returned from Egypt;

3 And they sent word to him and called him), Jeroboam and all of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Your father made our yoke hard. Now therefore make the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke that he put upon us lighter, and we will serve you.

5 And he said to them, Go away for another three days, then return to me. And the people went away.

6 Then King Rehoboam took counsel with the elders who attended Solomon his father while he was alive, saying, What counsel do you give me to return as an answer to this people?

7 And they spoke to him, saying, If you will be good to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants always.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders with which they counseled him and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who attended him.

9 And he said to them, What counsel do you give me that we may return an answer to this people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten the yoke that your father put upon us?

10 And the young men who grew up with him spoke with him, saying, Thus shall you say to the people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you must make it lighter on us; thus shall you say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke upon you, I will increase your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had spoken, saying, Return to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them harshly; and King Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the elders

14 And spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, I will make your yoke heavy, and I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was of God that Jehovah might establish His word which He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people returned an answer to the king, saying, What portion do we have in David? Neither do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each one to your tents, O Israel.

Now see to your own house, O David. And all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, and the children of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to get up into his chariot and flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel has rebelled against the house of David until this day.

CHAPTER 11

1 And when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he gathered the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand choice warriors, to wage war with Israel in order to return the kingdom to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus says Jehovah, You shall not go up and wage war with your brothers. Every man return to his house; for this matter is of Me. So they listened to the words of Jehovah and returned from going against Jeroboam.

3. Reigning over Judah and Benjamin
11:5-23

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem and built cities for defense in Judah.

6 He built Bethlehem and Etam and Tekoa

7 And Beth-zur and Soco and Adullam

8 And Gath and Mareshah and Ziph

9 And Adoraim and Lachish and Azekah

10 And Zorah and Aijalon and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities.

11 And he strengthened the fortresses and put commanders in them, as well as stores of food and oil and wine, 12 And in every city, shields and spears; and he made them exceedingly strong. And Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.

13 And the priests and the Levites who had been throughout all Israel presented themselves to him out of all their territory;

14 For the Levites abandoned their pasture lands and their property and went to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons cast them out so that they could not function as priests to Jehovah.

15 And he appointed priests for himself for the high places and for the goats and the calves that he had made.

16 And those from all the tribes of Israel who set their hearts to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came after them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

17 And they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

18 And Rehoboam took to himself for his wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse.

19 And she bore him sons: Jeush and Shemariah and Zaham.

20 And after her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah and Attai and Ziza and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines. (For he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief prince, the leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king.

23 And he acted wisely and dispersed all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities; and he gave them food in abundance and sought many wives for them.

CHAPTER 12

4. Defeated and Robbed by the King of Egypt 12:1-12

1 And when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and when it was strong, he and all Israel with him forsook the law of Jehovah.

2 Then in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had been unfaithful to Jehovah,

3 With one thousand two hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people who came with him from Egypt were without number: Libyans, Sukkiim, and Cushites.

4 And he captured the fortified cities which belonged to Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

5 And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who were gathered in Jerusalem because of Shishak; and he said to them, Thus says Jehovah, You have forsaken Me, so I also have forsaken you, delivering you into the hand of Shishak.

6 So the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, Jehovah is righteous.

7 And when Jehovah saw that they had humbled themselves the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; I will not destroy them, but I will give them a little deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak;

8 For they will become his servants that they may know the difference between serving Me and serving the kingdoms of the lands.

9 And Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house; indeed he took away all. And he took away the shields of gold that Solomon had made.

10 And King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and committed them into the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And whenever the king went into the house of Jehovah, the guards came and carried them and returned them to the guardroom.

12 And when he humbled himself, the anger of Jehovah turned away from him, and He did not destroy them completely; and also things in Judah were good.

5. Fighting with Jeroboam of Israel and Being Buried in the City of David
12:13-16a

13 So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city where Jehovah had chosen, out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

14 And he did what was evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek Jehovah.

15 And the acts of Rehoboam, the first and the last, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer according to the genealogical records? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.

B. The Reign of Abijah
12:16b—14:1a

And Abijah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 13

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Micaiah, the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah began the battle with an army of valiant men of war, four hundred thousand choice men. And Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

4 And Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:

5 Do you not know that Jehovah the God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, to him and to his sons, by a covenant of salt?

6 But Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his lord.

7 And worthless men, just ¹scoundrels, gathered around him and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender in heart and could not withstand them.

8 And now you think that you can withstand the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David because you are a great multitude and with you are the golden calves that Jeroboam made as gods for you.

9 Have you not cast out the priests of Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites? And you made for yourselves priests like those of the peoples of other lands, so that anyone who comes to ¹consecrate himself with a bull of the herd and seven rams becomes a priest of what are not gods.

10 But as for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken Him; and the priests who minister to Jehovah are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites are in their work.

11 And they offer in smoke to Jehovah burnt offerings morning by morning and evening by evening as well as fragrant incense, and they set the rows of bread upon the pure table, and they care for the golden lampstand and its lamps that it may burn evening by evening; for we keep the charge of Jehovah our God, but you have forsaken Him.

12 And here with us is God at our head and His priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound out against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah, the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed.

13 Now Jeroboam had sent an ambush around to come up from behind them. So they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, the battle was right on them, before and behind; and they cried out to Jehovah, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

15 And the men of Judah shouted; and when the men of Judah shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people struck a great blow on them, so that five hundred thousand choice men from Israel fell slain.

18 Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel and its villages, and Jeshanah and its villages, and Ephron and its villages.

20 And Jeroboam never regained power during the days of Abijah; but Jehovah struck him, and he died.

21 And Abijah grew stronger; and he took to himself fourteen wives and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah and his ways and his words are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER 14

1 And Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David.

C. The Reign of Asa 14:1b—16:14

And Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

2 And Asa did what was good and upright in the sight of Jehovah his God;

3 For he removed the foreign altars and the high places and smashed the pillars and hewed down the Asherahs,

4 And he commanded Judah to pursue Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and perform the law and the commandment.

5 And from all the cities of Judah he removed the high places and the incense altars. And the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 And he built fortress cities in Judah; for the land was quiet and there was no war against him during those years, because Jehovah had given him rest.

7 For he said to Judah, Let us build these cities and put around them walls with towers, gates, and bars. The land is still before us because we have pursued Jehovah our God; we have pursued Him, and He has given us rest all around. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who bore shields and spears and of two hundred eighty thousand from Benjamin who bore hand shields and drew bows; all these were mighty men of valor.

9 And Zerah the Cushite went out to them with an army of one million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Mareshah.

10 And Asa went out before him and set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa called out to Jehovah his God and said, O Jehovah, there is none besides You to help us, between the mighty and those without strength. Help us, O Jehovah our God, for we trust in You, and in Your name we have come against this multitude. O Jehovah, You are our God; do not let mortal man prevail against You.

12 And Jehovah struck the Cushites before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushites fled.

13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them as far as Gerar; and so many of the Cushites fell that ¹they could not recover, for they were shattered before Jehovah and before His ²army. And they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they struck all the cities surrounding Gerar, for the fear of Jehovah was upon them. And they plundered all the cities, for there was much plunder in them.

15 And they also struck the cattle tents and carried away sheep in abundance and camels, and they returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 15

1 And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.

2 And he went out to meet Asa and said to him, Hear me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin: Jehovah is with you while you are with Him; and if you pursue Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.

3 Now for a long time Israel has been without the true God and without a teaching priest and without law.

4 But in their distress they turned to Jehovah the God of Israel and sought Him, and He was found by them.

5 For in those times there was no peace to him who went out or to him who came in, for great afflictions were upon all the inhabitants of the lands.

6 For they were crushed, nation against nation and city against city, for God afflicted them with every distress.

7 But you be strong and do not let your hands fail, for there is reward for your labor.

8 And when Asa heard these words, that is, the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he strengthened himself and put away the detestable things from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had taken in the hill country of Ephraim. And he restored the altar of Jehovah, which was before the portico of Jehovah.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin and the sojourners with them from Ephraim and Manasseh and Simeon, for many from Israel threw in their lot with him when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves at Jerusalem in the third month in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they sacrificed to Jehovah on that day from the spoil they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to pursue Jehovah, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul, 13 And covenanted that anyone who did not pursue Jehovah the God of Israel would be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

13¹ Or, there was none left alive to them. 13² Lit., camp.

14 And they swore to Jehovah with a loud voice and with shouting and with trumpets and with horns.

15 And all Judah rejoiced over the oath, for with all their heart they swore and with all their desire they sought Him. And He was found by them, and Jehovah gave them rest all around.

16 And he also removed Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, from being queen mother because she had made for Asherah an abominable image; and Asa cut down her abominable image and crushed it to powder and burned it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places were not taken away from Israel; otherwise Asa's heart was perfect all his days.

18 And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had sanctified and that he had sanctified—silver and gold and vessels.

19 And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

CHAPTER 16

1 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha the king of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah that he might prevent anyone from going out or coming to Asa the king of Judah.

2 And Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the king's house and sent them to Ben-hadad the king of Syria who was dwelling in Damascus, saying,

3 There is an alliance between me and you as there was between my father and your father. I am now sending you silver and gold; go, break your alliance with Baasha the king of Israel, so that he goes away from me.

4 And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa. And he sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they struck Ijon and Dan and Abel-maim and all the ¹store cities of Naphtali.

5 And when Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.

6 And Asa the king took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had built it, and built Geba and Mizpah with them.

7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa the king of Judah and said to him, Because you have trusted in the king of Syria and have not trusted in Jehovah your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand.

8 Were not the Cushites and the Lubim a large host, with a very great abundance of chariots and horsemen? And because you trusted in Jehovah, He gave them into your hands.

9 For the eyes of Jehovah run to and fro throughout all the earth to strengthen those whose heart is perfect toward Him. You have acted foolishly in this matter; hence from this time on you will have wars.

10 Then Asa became angry with the seer and put him in ¹prison in stocks, for he was in a rage against him because of this matter. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

11 And the acts of Asa, the first and the last, are there written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet; his disease was very severe, yet even in his disease he pursued not Jehovah but the physicians.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers and died in the forty-first year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own grave, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. And they laid him in the resting place, which he had filled with various kinds of spices blended in the perfumer's art, and they made a very great burning for him.

4¹ Lit., storehouses of the cities. 10¹ Lit., the house of stocks.

CHAPTER 17

D. The Reign of Jehoshaphat 17:1—21:1a

1 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and he strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he put forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that Asa his father had taken.

3 And Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the former ways of David his father; and he did not pursue the Baals

4 But pursued the God of his father and walked in His commandments and did not do as Israel had done.

5 Therefore Jehovah established the kingdom in his hand. And all Judah gave tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had riches and honor in abundance.

6 And his heart was exalted in the ways of Jehovah; and even more, he removed the high places and the Asherahs from Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-hail and Obadiah and Zechariah and Nethanel and Micaiah to teach in the cities of Judah;

8 And with them he sent the Levites Shemaiah and Nethaniah and Zebadiah and Asahel and Shemiramoth and Jehonathan and Adonijah and Tobijah and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them, Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, having the book of the law of Jehovah; and they went around all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.

10 And the fear of Jehovah was upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, and they waged no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines would bring presents to Jehoshaphat and silver as tribute; even the Arabians would bring him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

12 And Jehoshaphat grew exceedingly great, and he built fortresses and store cities in Judah.

13 And he conducted many works in the cities of Judah and had men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem.

14 And this was the muster of them according to their fathers' house: of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor;

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand;

16 And next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who offered willingly himself to Jehovah, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

17 And of Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;

18 And next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred eighty thousand armed for war.

19 These were those who served the king, besides those whom the king had put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

CHAPTER 18

(The Miserable Ending of Ahab the King of Israel 18:1-34)

1 And Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor, and he allied himself in marriage with Ahab.

2 And after a number of years he came down to Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered sheep and oxen in abundance for him and for the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up against Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And ¹Jehoshaphat said to him, I will be as you are; my people will be as your people; we will be with you in battle.

4 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Ask today, I beg you, for the word of Jehovah.

5 And the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain? And they said, Go up, and God will give it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not yet another prophet of Jehovah here, that we might inquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he prophesies no good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 Then the king of Israel called a certain officer and said, Quickly bring Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, sitting on the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, Thus says Jehovah, With these you will push the Syrians until you have destroyed them.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and succeed; for Jehovah will deliver it into the king's hand.

12 And the messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, See, the words of the prophets, being of one accord, seem good to the king. So let your word, I beg you, be like one of them, and speak good.

13 And Micaiah said, As Jehovah lives, that which my God says, that will I speak.

14 And when he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I refrain? And he said, Go up, and succeed; for they will be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Jehovah?

16 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master; let each of them return to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell you that he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil?

18 And Micaiah said, Hear therefore the word of Jehovah, I saw Jehovah sitting on His throne and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and His left.

19 And Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab the king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said after this manner, and another said after that manner.

20 And there came forth a certain spirit and stood before Jehovah and said, I will entice him. And Jehovah said unto him, How?

21 And he said, I will go forth and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall entice him and surely prevail. Go forth, and do so.

22 So now Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, and Jehovah has spoken evil concerning you.

³ Lit., he.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah approached and struck Micaiah upon the cheek and said, Which way did the Spirit of Jehovah pass from me to speak to you?

24 And Micaiah said, You will see on that day when you go from room to room to hide yourself.

25 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son.

26 And you shall say, Thus says the king, Put this man in prison, and feed him with the bread of affliction and with the water of affliction until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If you return in peace at all, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, O peoples, all of you!

28 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle; but you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into the battle.

30 And the king of Syria commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but with the king of Israel only.

31 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, This is the king of Israel. And they surrounded him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cried out. And Jehovah helped him, and God diverted them from him.

32 And when the captains of the chariots perceived that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

33 And a man drew a bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate. And the king of Israel said to his charioteer, Turn your hand, and drive me out of the camp; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day; and the king of Israel was propped up in his chariot before the Syrians until the evening, and he died at the time of the setting of the sun.

CHAPTER 19

1 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in Jerusalem in peace.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him; and he said to King Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked and love those who hate Jehovah? Because of this matter wrath has come upon you from Jehovah.

3 Nevertheless there are some good things found in you, for you have purged the Asherahs out of the land and have set your heart to pursue God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem. And he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

5 And he set up judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And he said to the judges, Consider what you are doing, for you judge not for man but for Jehovah, and He is with you in pronouncing judgment.

7 Now therefore let the fear of Jehovah be upon you; be careful how you act, for there is no iniquity with Jehovah our God, nor respect of persons, nor the taking of bribes.

8 And also in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat set up some of the Levites and priests and heads of the fathers' houses in Israel for the judgment of Jehovah and for disputes. And they came back to Jerusalem.

9 And he commanded them, saying,

Thus shall you do in the fear of Jehovah, faithfully and with a perfect heart.

10 And for every dispute that comes to you from among your brothers who dwell in their cities, whether concerning bloodshed or concerning law or commandment, statute or ordinance, you shall warn them, so that they are not guilty before Jehovah and so that wrath does not come upon you and your brothers. Thus shall you act, and you will not be guilty.

11 And now Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters concerning Jehovah; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, is over you in all matters concerning the king. And the Levites will serve before you as officers. Be strong and take action, and may Jehovah be with the good.

CHAPTER 20

1 Then after this the children of Moab and the children of Ammon and with them some of the ¹Meunim came against Jehoshaphat for battle.

2 And some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, A great multitude has come upon you from beyond the sea, from Syria; and they are now in Hazazon-tamar (this is En-gedi).

3 And Jehoshaphat was afraid and set his face to pursue Jehovah, and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves to seek help from Jehovah; indeed out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek Jehovah.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Jehovah, before the new court;

6 And he said, O Jehovah, the God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? And are You not ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? And in Your hand is strength and might, and there is no one who can stand against You.

7 Did You not, O our God, dispossess the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and give it forever to the seed of Abraham Your friend?

8 And they have dwelt in it and built in it for You a sanctuary for Your name, saying,

9 If evil comes upon us, the sword or judgment or pestilence or famine, we will stand before this house and before You—for Your name is in this house—and cry unto You in our affliction, You will hear and save.

10 And now at this moment the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not destroy them—

11 At this moment they are rewarding us by coming to cast us out of Your possession, which You gave us as a possession.

12 O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no strength before this great multitude that is coming against us, and we do not know what to do; but our eyes are upon You.

13 And all Judah stood before Jehovah with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly;

15 And he said, Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus says Jehovah to you, Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours but God's.

16 Tomorrow go down against them.

¹ Following the Septuagint (cf. 26:7; 1 Chron. 4:41); the Hebrew reads, Ammonites.

They are coming up at the ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the river valley before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 It is not for you to fight in this battle. Station yourselves; stand and see the salvation of Jehovah among you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid nor dismayed. Tomorrow go out to meet them, for Jehovah is with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before Jehovah to worship Jehovah.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites, rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an exceedingly loud voice.

20 And they rose up early in the morning and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa. And as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood up and said, Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in Jehovah your God, and you will be established; believe in His prophets, and you will succeed.

21 And when he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed them to sing to Jehovah and give thanks in holy array as they went out before the army and say, Give thanks to Jehovah, for His loving-kindness endures forever.

22 And when they began to shout in song and to praise, Jehovah set ambushes for the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who were coming out against Judah; and they were struck.

23 And the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to absolutely destroy and demolish them; and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every man helped to destroy his neighbor.

24 And Judah came to the wilderness watchtower and looked upon the multitude; and there they were, fallen corpses on the ground, and no one escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take the spoil of them as plunder, they found among them in abundance both possessions and corpses and precious vessels, and stripped these for themselves, more than they could carry. And they spent three days taking spoil, for there was much.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah (for there they blessed Jehovah; therefore they have called the name of that place the valley of Beracah to this day).

27 And they turned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, to go back to Jerusalem with rejoicing; for Jehovah had caused them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with harps and lyres and trumpets, to the house of Jehovah.

29 And the fear of Jehovah was upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought with the enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his God had given him rest all around.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah; he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign. And he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of his father Asa and did not turn away from it, doing what was right in the sight of Jehovah.

33 However the high places were not removed, nor as yet did the people set their heart after the God of their fathers.

34 And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the first and the last, are there written in the chronicle of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is ¹inserted in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 Then after this, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah joined himself to Ahaziah the king of Israel; he acted wickedly in so doing.

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion-geber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Jehovah has destroyed your works. And the ships were shattered and were unable to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER 21

1 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David.

E. The Reign of Jehoram 21:1b-20

And Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

2 And he had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah and Jehiel and Zechariah and Azariahu and Michael and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat the king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them many gifts of silver and gold and precious things, along with fortified cities in Judah; but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, for he was the firstborn.

4 And when Jehoram rose up over the kingdom of his father and strengthened himself, he slew all his brothers with the sword as well as the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel and as the house of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter was his wife; and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

7 But Jehovah would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant He had made with David and since He had promised him that He would provide a lamp for him and for his children always.

8 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they installed a king over themselves.

9 So Jehoram crossed over with his captains and all his chariots with him. And he rose up at night and struck the Edomites all around him and the captains of the chariots.

10 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, as it is to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, for he had forsaken Jehovah, the God of his fathers.

11 He also made high places in the hill country of Judah and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit harlotries and led Judah astray.

12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says Jehovah, the God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father and in the ways of Asa the king of Judah

13 But have walked in the way of the kings of Israel and caused Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit harlotries, as the house of Ahab committed harlotries, and also have slain your brothers, those of your father's house, who were better than you,

14 Jehovah is now striking your people and your children and your wives and all your possessions with a great plague;

15 And you yourself will be ¹severely ill with a disease of your bowels, to the point that your bowels will come out day by day because of the illness.

34¹ Or, taken up. 15¹ Lit., in great illnesses.

16 And Jehovah stirred up the spirit of the Philistines and Arabians who are next to the Cushites against Jehoram.

17 And they came up against Judah and broke through into it and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house as well as his sons and his wives; and no son was left to him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this, Jehovah struck him in his bowels with the incurable illness.

19 And in the course of time, at the end of two years, his bowels came out because of the illness, and he died with severe illnesses. And his people did not make a burning for him, like the burning they had made for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he departed with no one's regret; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

CHAPTER 22

F. The Reign of Ahaziah 22:1-9

1 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men who had come up to the camp with the Arabians had slain all the older sons; so Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah reigned.

2 Ahaziah was ¹twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his counselor in acting wickedly.

4 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his own destruction.

5 He walked also in their counsel and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab the king of Israel to battle against Hazael the king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead. And the Syrians struck Joram,

6 And he returned to heal in Jezreel because of the wounds that they had inflicted on him in Ramah when he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And ¹Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was sick.

7 Now the downfall of Ahaziah was of God, because he went to Joram. And when he arrived, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, he found the captains of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers serving Ahaziah; and he slew them.

9 And he sought for Ahaziah, and they caught him; for he had been hiding in Samaria. And they brought him to Jehu and killed him. And they buried him, for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who pursued Jehovah with all his heart. And the house of Ahaziah did not have the strength to retain the kingdom.

G. The Reign of Athaliah 22:10—23:15

10 And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and ¹destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah.

2¹ According to 2 Kings 8:26 and some ancient versions. The text of 2 Chronicles reads, forty-two years. 6¹ According to 2 Kings 8:29. The text of 2 Chronicles reads, Azariah. 10¹ According to some Hebrew MSS and 2 Kings 11:1. Other MSS read, and she spoke to.

11 But Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the sons of the king who were being killed. And she put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest—for she was the sister of Ahaziah—hid him from Athaliah, so that she could not kill him.

12 And he was with them, hidden in the house of God, for six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER 23

1 Then in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and took the captains of the hundreds—Azariah the son of Jeroham and Ishmael the son of Johanan and Azariah the son of Obed and Maa-seiah the son of Adaiah and Elishaphat the son of Zichri—into a covenant with him.

2 And they went around in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And ¹Jehoiada said to them, Now, the king's son shall reign, as Jehovah spoke concerning the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that you shall do: A third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be the doorkeepers;

5 And another third shall keep watch in the king's house, and another third shall keep watch in the Gate of the Foundation, and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of Jehovah.

6 But let no one come into the house of Jehovah except the priests and the ministering Levites; they can come because they are holy; but all the people shall keep the charge of Jehovah.

7 And the Levites shall surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever enters the house shall be put to death; and you shall be with the king in his comings and goings.

8 And the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded them. And each took his men, those who came on duty on the Sabbath with those who went off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the divisions.

9 And Jehoiada the priest gave the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of God, to the captains of the hundreds.

10 And he set all the people, each man with his javelin in his hand, from the right flank of the house to the left flank of the house, by the altar and by the house, to guard the king all around.

11 And they brought the king's son out and put the crown on him and gave him the ¹testimony, and they made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and they said, Long live the king!

12 Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she went to the people at the house of Jehovah.

13 And she looked, and there was the king, standing by the pillar at the entrance, with the captains and their trumpets near the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced and blew the trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were leading the praise. And Athaliah tore her clothes and said, Treason! Treason!

14 And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of the hundreds who had been set over the army and said to them, Bring her out between the ranks, and anyone who follows her shall be killed with a sword; for the priest said, They shall not kill her in the house of Jehovah.

3¹ Lit., he. 11¹ Or, insignia.

15 And they made way for her, and she went to the king's house through the entrance of the horses' gate; and they killed her there.

H. The Reign of Joash
23:16—24:27a

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king that they would be Jehovah's people.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal and broke it down: The altars to him and his images they broke up, and they slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 And Jehoiada placed officers of the house of Jehovah under the ¹authority of the Levitical priests whom David had apportioned over the house of Jehovah, to offer up the burnt offerings of Jehovah, as was written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, according to the order of David.

19 And he set the doorkeepers at the doors of the house of Jehovah so that no one would enter who was unclean in any respect.

20 And ¹Jehoiada gathered the captains of the hundreds and the nobles and the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought the king down from the house of Jehovah. And they went through the upper gate to the king's house and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

CHAPTER 24

1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Joash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took two wives for himself, and he begot sons and daughters.

4 Now after this it came up in Joash's heart to restore the house of Jehovah.

5 And he gathered the priests and Levites and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and collect from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year; and you shall do the matter quickly. But the Levites did not act quickly.

6 So the king called for Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him, Why have you not required of the Levites to bring from Judah and from Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses the servant of Jehovah on the congregation of Israel for the Tent of Testimony?

7 For the sons of the wicked Athaliah had broken up the house of God and even used the holy things of the house of Jehovah for the Baals.

8 And the king gave orders, and they made a chest and put it outside, by the gate of the house of Jehovah.

9 And they made a proclamation in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the tax levied by Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the officers and all the people rejoiced, and they brought their taxes and cast them into the chest until they had finished.

11 And whenever the chest was brought to the king's officer by the Levites, and whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money, the king's scribe and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and take it and return it to its place. They did so daily, and they collected a large amount of money.

18¹ Lit., hand. 20¹ Lit., he.

12 And the king and Jehoiada would give it to those who did the work of service of the house of Jehovah, and they would hire stone hewers and carpenters to restore the house of Jehovah, and also to the workers in iron and bronze to repair the house of Jehovah.

13 And those who did the work worked, and the restoration work progressed in their hands; and they restored the house of God to its proper proportions and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada and made with it vessels for the house of Jehovah, vessels for service and for offering up burnt offerings, and cups and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered up burnt offerings in the house of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 And when Jehoiada became old and full of days, he died; and he was one hundred thirty years old when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David with the kings, because he had done well in Israel and with God and His house.

17 And after the death of Jehoiada the captains of Judah came and bowed down to the king; then the king listened to them.

18 And they forsook the house of Jehovah, the God of their fathers, and they served the Asherahs and the idols; so wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this guilt of theirs.

19 And He sent prophets to them to bring them back to Jehovah; and they testified to them, but they did not pay attention.

20 Then the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, Thus says God, Why do you transgress the commandments of Jehovah, so that you do not prosper? For you have forsaken Jehovah, and He has forsaken you.

21 So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they stoned him to death in the court of the house of Jehovah.

22 Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had shown him, and he slew his son; and when he died he said, May Jehovah see and avenge!

23 And at the turn of the year the army of the Syrians came up against him and came to Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.

24 Although the army of the Syrians had come with a small number of men, Jehovah delivered into their hand a very great army, because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

25 And when they went from him—for they left him in great sickness—his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest and slew him on his bed; and he died, and they buried him in the city of David. However they did not bury him among the tombs of the kings.

26 Now those who conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

27 And concerning his sons and the many oracles against him and his laying the foundations of the house of Jehovah, indeed these things are written in the record of the book of the kings.

I. The Reign of Amaziah
24:27b—25:28

And Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 25

1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem.

2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, but not with a perfect heart.

3 And when the kingdom was firmly in his control, he slew those servants who had struck down his father the king;

4 But their children he did not put to death, but acted according to what is written in the law in the book of Moses, where Jehovah commanded, saying, Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

5 And Amaziah gathered Judah together and arranged them according to the fathers' houses, by captains of thousands and by captains of hundreds, throughout all Judah and Benjamin. And he numbered them from twenty years old and upward and found them to be three hundred thousand chosen men able to go out to war, who could handle spear and shield.

6 He also hired from Israel one hundred thousand mighty men of valor for one hundred talents of silver.

7 But a man of God came to him, saying, O king, do not let the army of Israel go out with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel, not with any of the children of Ephraim.

8 Rather go by yourself and do it; be strong for the battle. Otherwise God will cast you down before your enemies, for in God there is power to help or cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, And what shall be done with the hundred talents of silver, which I have given to the company of Israel? And the man of God said, Jehovah can give you much more than this.

10 So Amaziah separated them (the company that had come to him from Ephraim) and let them go to their own place. And their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned to their place in fierce anger.

11 And Amaziah strengthened himself and led forth his people. And he went to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand of the children of Seir;

12 And the children of Judah captured ten thousand alive. And they brought them to the top of Sela and cast them down from the top of Sela, so that all of them were dashed to pieces.

13 But the men of the company whom Amaziah had sent back from going into battle with him raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon; and they struck down three thousand of them and took much spoil.

14 And after Amaziah came from striking the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir and set them up as his gods; and he worshipped before them and burned incense to them.

15 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Amaziah; and He sent a prophet to him and said to him, Why do you seek after the gods of the people who did not deliver their own people from your hand?

16 And when he spoke to him, the ¹king said to him, Have we made you a counselor to the king? Stop; why should you be struck down? So the prophet stopped and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, for you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.

17 Then Amaziah the king of Judah took counsel and sent word to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, Come, let us ¹confront each other.

18 And Joash the king of Israel sent word to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thornbush that was in Lebanon sent word to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as his wife; but a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thornbush.

16¹ Lit., he. 17¹ Lit., see each other's face.

19 You say that you have just struck Edom, and your heart exalts you to glorify yourself. Remain now in your home; why should you stir up trouble so that you and Judah with you fall?

20 But Amaziah would not listen, for it was of God, so that He might deliver them into his hand, for they had sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Jehoash the king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah the king of Judah ¹confronted each other in Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.

22 And Judah was defeated before Israel, and they fled, each man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah the king of Judah the son of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz in Beth-shemesh, and he brought him to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and silver and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom and the treasures of the king's house as well as hostages, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel.

26 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, are they not there, written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 And from the time that Amaziah turned away from following Jehovah, they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; and they sent men after him to Lachish, and they killed him there.

28 And they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

CHAPTER 26

J. The Reign of Uzziah 26:1-23a

1 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah.

2 It was he who built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jechiliah, from Jerusalem.

4 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that Amaziah his father had done.

5 And he set himself to seek after God during the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God; and as long as he sought after Jehovah, God caused him to prosper.

6 And he went out and waged war against the Philistines. And he broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod, and he built cities in the vicinity of Ashdod and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabians who dwelt in Gur-baal and against the Meunim.

8 And the Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah; and his fame went as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

9 And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate and at the Valley 21¹ Lit., saw each other's face.

Gate and at the Angle, and he fortified them.

10 And he built towers in the wilderness and hewed out many cisterns, for he had much cattle, both in the lowlands and in the plain; he had farmers and vine-dressers in the hills and in the fruitful fields, for he loved the soil.

11 Furthermore Uzziah had an army of soldiers that went out to war in companies according to the number of their muster done by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of heads of fathers' houses, of mighty men of valor, was two thousand six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army force of three hundred seven thousand five hundred who could make war with mighty power to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them, for all the army, shields and spears and helmets and body armor and bows and sling stones.

15 And in Jerusalem he made machines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and at the corners for shooting with arrows and great stones. And his fame went out far abroad, for he was marvelously helped until he was strong.

16 But when he had become strong, his heart became uplifted, to his own destruction. And he trespassed against Jehovah his God and went into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the incense altar.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with ¹Azariah were eighty priests of Jehovah who were valiant men.

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king and said to him, It does not belong to you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but to the priests, the sons of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed and there will be no ¹honor for you from Jehovah God.

19 Then Uzziah became angry, and in his hand was a censer for burning incense. And when he became angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the house of Jehovah beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there he was, leprous on his forehead; and they rushed him out of there, and he himself also hurried out to go out, for Jehovah had stricken him.

21 So Uzziah the king was a leper until the day of his death; and he dwelt in a separate house as a leper, for he was cut off from the house of Jehovah. And Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote down the rest of the acts of Uzziah, the first and the last.

23 And Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field which belonged to the kings, for they said, He is a leper.

K. The Reign of Jotham
26:23b—27:9a

And Jotham his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 27

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah according to all that his father Uzziah had done; only he did not enter into the temple of Jehovah. Yet the people still acted corruptly.

¹⁷ Lit., him. ¹⁸ Or, glory.

3 He built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah and built much on the wall of the Ophel.

4 And he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.

5 And he fought with the king of the children of Ammon and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him that same year one hundred talents of silver and ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. This much did the children of Ammon pay him also in the second and third years.

6 So Jotham became strong, because he ordered his ways before Jehovah his God.

7 And the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways are there written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David.

L. The Reign of Ahaz
27:9b—28:27a

And Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 28

1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do what was right in the sight of Jehovah as David his father had done,

2 But he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and even made molten images for the Baals.

3 And he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom and caused his children to pass through fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every flourishing tree.

5 Therefore Jehovah his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him and carried away captive from him a great multitude. And they brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, and he struck a great blow on him.

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew one hundred twenty thousand in Judah on one day, all of them valiant men, because they had forsaken Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah, the king's son, and Azrikam, the ruler of the house, and Elkanah, who was second to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters of their brothers, and also plundered much spoil from them; and they brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of Jehovah was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out to meet the army that was coming to Samaria and said to them, Now, because Jehovah, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has given them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven.

10 And now you intend to subjugate the children of Judah and Jerusalem as your male and female slaves. Is there not even with you anything but 'trespasses against Jehovah your God?

11 Now therefore listen to me, and return the captives that you have carried away captive from among your brothers, for the burning anger of Jehovah is upon you.

10¹ Or, guilt.

12 Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan and Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum and Amasa the son of Hadlai, rose up against those coming from the war;

13 And they said to them, You shall not bring the captives here, for you intend to bring a trespass against Jehovah upon us to add to our sins and our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is burning anger upon Israel.

14 So the soldiers left the captives and the plunder before the leaders and all the assembly.

15 And those men who have been mentioned by name rose up and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them. And they clothed them and gave them sandals and fed them and gave them something to drink, and they anointed them and carried all the feeble among them on asses and brought them to Jericho, the city of palms, to their brothers. And they returned to Samaria.

16 At that time King Ahaz sent word to the kings of Assyria to help him, 17 For again the Edomites came and struck Judah and carried away captives.

18 And the Philistines raided the cities of the lowlands and the south of Judah and took Beth-shemesh and Aijalon and Gederoth and Soco with its villages and Timnah with its villages and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there.

19 For Jehovah humbled Judah on account of Ahaz the king of Israel, for he cast off restraint in Judah and trespassed greatly against Jehovah.

20 And Tilgath-pilneser the king of Assyria came against him and distressed him and did not strengthen him.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion of the house of Jehovah and of the house of the king and the officials and gave it to the king of Assyria, but it did not help him.

22 And at the time of his distress, he added to his trespass against Jehovah, this same King Ahaz;

23 For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which had struck him, for he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, to them will I sacrifice, so that they will help me. But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God and cut the vessels of the house of God into pieces, and he shut up the doors of the house of Jehovah and made himself altars in every corner in Jerusalem.

25 And in every city of Judah he made high places for burning incense to other gods and provoked Jehovah, the God of his fathers, to anger.

26 Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, the first and the last, are there written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Israel.

M. The Reign of Hezekiah 28:27b—32:33a

1. Restoring the House of Jehovah and Bringing Out the Impurity from the Holy Place
28:27b—29:36

And Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 29

1 Hezekiah began to reign at the age of twenty-five years, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

13' Or, guilt.

2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them at the east square.

5 And he said to them, Listen to me, you Levites: Sanctify yourselves now, and sanctify the house of Jehovah, the God of your fathers; and bring out the impurity from the holy place.

6 For our fathers were unfaithful and did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah our God, and they forsook Him and turned their faces from the dwelling place of Jehovah, and they turned their backs on Him.

7 They also shut up the doors of the portico and extinguished the lamps; and they did not burn the incense, nor did they offer up the burnt offering in the holy place to the God of Israel.

8 Therefore the wrath of Jehovah was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He made them an object of horror, astonishment, and hissing, as you see with your own eyes.

9 For indeed, our fathers fell by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are captives because of this.

10 Now it is on my heart to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel, that His burning anger may turn away from us.

11 My sons, do not now be negligent, for Jehovah has chosen you to stand before Him to minister to Him and to be His ministers and burn incense.

12 Then the Levites rose up: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, from among the sons of the Kohathites; and from among the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;

14 And of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brothers together and sanctified themselves. And they went in, according to the command of the king by the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the house of Jehovah.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of Jehovah to cleanse it; and they brought out into the court of the house of Jehovah all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah, and the Levites took it to carry it outside to the brook Kidron.

17 And they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify the house, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the portico of Jehovah; then they sanctified the house of Jehovah for eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king and said, We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah: the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels and the table of the rows of bread with all its vessels.

19 And all the vessels that King Ahaz cast out during his reign when he trespassed we have prepared and sanctified, and they are now before the altar of Jehovah.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose up early and gathered all the leaders of the city and went up to the house of Jehovah.

21 And they brought seven bulls and seven rams and seven lambs and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah.

6¹ Or, tabernacle.

And he ordered the sons of Aaron, the priests, to offer them up on the altar of Jehovah.

22 So they slaughtered the cattle, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar; then they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar, and they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

23 Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them.

24 And the priests slaughtered them and offered their blood as a sin offering upon the altar to make expiation for all Israel, for the king had commanded the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

25 And he set the Levites in the house of Jehovah with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres in the way David and Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet had commanded, for the commandment was from Jehovah through His prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests, with the trumpets.

27 And Hezekiah ordered the offering up of the burnt offering at the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of Jehovah began also, as well as the trumpets with the accompaniment of the instruments of David the king of Israel.

28 And the whole congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters trumpeted—all this until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when the offering was finished, the king and all who were found with him bowed down and worshipped.

30 And Hezekiah the king and the leaders commanded the Levites to praise Jehovah with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they praised with rejoicing and bowed down and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah responded and said, Now you ¹have consecrated yourselves to Jehovah; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of Jehovah. So the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who were willing in heart brought burnt offerings.

32 And the number of burnt offerings that the congregation brought was seventy cattle, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for burnt offering to Jehovah.

33 And the things consecrated were six hundred cattle and three thousand sheep;

34 However the priests were too few and could not flay all the burnt offerings, so their brothers the Levites aided them until the work was finished and until the rest of the priests had sanctified themselves, for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in sanctifying themselves.

35 And besides the abundance of burnt offerings there were also the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. So the service of the house of Jehovah was established.

36 And Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced over what God had prepared for the people, for the thing had happened so suddenly.

CHAPTER 30

2. Recovering the Passover 30:1—31:1

1 And Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh telling them to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem to hold the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel.

2 For the king and his officers and all the congregation in Jerusalem had taken 31¹ Lit., have filled your hands.

counsel to hold the Passover in the second month,

3 Because they could not hold it at that time, for the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number nor had the people gathered to Jerusalem.

4 And the matter seemed right in the sight of the king and in the sight of all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to send a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, telling them to come to hold the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel in Jerusalem; for they had not held it ¹for a long time, as it was decreed in writing.

6 And as the king had commanded, the runners went with the letters from the hand of the king and his officers throughout all Israel and Judah, saying, You children of Israel, return to Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And do not be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against Jehovah, the God of their fathers, so that He made them a desolation, as you now see.

8 Do not now be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; ¹yield to Jehovah, and come to His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve Jehovah your God, that His burning anger may turn away from you.

9 For when you turn to Jehovah, your brothers and your children will find compassion before those who led them captive and will return to this land, for Jehovah your God is gracious and compassionate, and will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.

10 So the runners passed from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless some men from Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

12 Moreover the hand of God was on Judah, giving them one heart to perform the commandment of the king and the officers by the word of Jehovah.

13 And many people gathered at Jerusalem to hold the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they removed all the incense altars and threw them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they slaughtered the passover sacrifice on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah.

16 And they stood at their station after their custom, according to the law of Moses, the man of God: The priests sprinkled the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves; therefore the Levites were charged with slaughtering the passover sacrifices for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Jehovah.

18 For a great number of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh and Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the passover otherwise than as prescribed; for Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, May Jehovah the Good expiate for everyone

19 Who has prepared his heart to seek after God, after Jehovah, the God of his fathers, even though he is not according to the rules of purification for the sanctuary.

5¹ Or, in great number. 8¹ Lit., give the hand to.

20 And Jehovah heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel who were found at Jerusalem held the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah day by day, with loud instruments played to Jehovah.

22 And Hezekiah ¹spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed themselves well-skilled in their service to Jehovah, and so they ate the food of the appointed feast for seven days, sacrificing sacrifices of peace offerings and extolling Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

23 And the whole congregation took counsel to hold the feast another seven days, and they held the feast those seven days with rejoicing.

24 For Hezekiah the king of Judah contributed one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep to the congregation, and the leaders contributed one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep to the congregation, and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah with the priests and the Levites and all the congregation who came from Israel and the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and dwelt in Judah rejoiced, 26 And there was great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon the son of David, the king of Israel, there had not been the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the Levitical priests rose up and blessed the people; and their voice was heard and their prayer went up to His sanctuary, to heaven.

CHAPTER 31

1 And when all this was finished, all Israel who were found in the cities of Judah went out and broke down the pillars and hewed down the Asherahs and pulled down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh until they destroyed them all. And all the children of Israel returned to their cities, each man to his own possessions.

3. Setting the Services of the Priests and the Levites in Order 31:2-21

2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites by their divisions, each of the priests and the Levites according to his service, for the burnt offering and for the peace offerings, to minister and give thanks and praise in the gates of the ¹temple of Jehovah.

3 Also he appointed the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, the morning and evening burnt offerings and the burnt offerings of the Sabbaths and the new moon and the appointed feasts, as written in the law of Jehovah.

4 And he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to the law of Jehovah.

5 And when the commandment went out, the children of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of the grain and of the new wine and of the fresh oil and of the honey and of all the produce of the field; and they brought the tithe of everything in abundance.

6 And the children of Israel and Judah who dwelt in the cities of Judah also brought the tithe of the herd and of the flock and the tithe of the dedicated things, which had been dedicated to Jehovah their God, and laid them heap upon heap.

7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and in the seventh month they finished.

22¹ Lit., spoke to the heart of. So also in 32:6. 2¹ Lit., camps.

8 And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed Jehovah and His people Israel.

9 And Hezekiah inquired of the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps;

10 And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, spoke to him and said, Since the time that the people began to bring the contributions into the house of Jehovah, there has been eating and satisfaction and an abundance left over, for Jehovah has blessed His people and this great amount is left over.

11 Then Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storechambers in the house of Jehovah, and they prepared them.

12 And they brought in the contribution and the tithe and dedicated things faithfully. And Conaniah the Levite was ruler over them, and Shimei his brother was second, 13 And Jehiel and Azariah and Nahath and Asahel and Jerimoth and Jozabad and Eliel and Ismachiah and Mahath and Benaiah were overseers under Conaniah and Shimei his brother by appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imna the Levite, the gatekeeper on the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the contributions of Jehovah and the most holy things.

15 And under him were Eden and Miniamin and Jeshua and Shemajah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, serving faithfully in the cities of the priests, to distribute the portion to their brothers by divisions, great and small alike, 16 Except for those who were enrolled by genealogy, males from three years old and upward, all who went to the house of Jehovah for their day-to-day duties, for their service in their offices by their divisions.

17 Now concerning the enrollment of the priests by genealogy, it was by their fathers' houses; and that of the Levites of those twenty years old and upward was by their offices in their divisions.

18 And the enrollment by genealogy included all their little ones, their wives, and their sons and daughters, the whole congregation of them; for they sanctified themselves faithfully in holiness.

19 And for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the pasture lands of their cities, in each and every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were enrolled by genealogy among the Levites.

20 And Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and upright and faithful before Jehovah his God.

21 And in every work that he began in service to the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandment, to seek after his God, he did it with all his heart and prospered.

CHAPTER 32

4. Building a Defense against the Invasion of the Assyrians 32:1-23

1 After these things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib the king of Assyria came and entered Judah. And he encamped against the fortified cities and intended to break into them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that his face was set to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his officers and mighty men to stop the water of the fountains that were outside the city, and they helped him.

4 So many people gathered together and stopped all the fountains and the brook that flowed through the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find an abundance of water?

5 And he took courage and built up all the wall that was broken down and erected towers on it and built another wall outside; and he strengthened the Millo in the city of David and made weapons and shields in abundance.

6 And he set battle captains over the people and gathered them to himself in the square at the gate of the city. And he encouraged them, saying,

7 Be strong and be bold; do not be afraid or dismayed because of the king of Assyria or because of all the multitude that is with him, for there is Someone greater with us than with him:

8 With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is Jehovah our God to help us and to fight our battles. And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah the king of Judah.

9 After this Sennacherib the king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem—now he was before Lachish and all his forces were with him—to Hezekiah the king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus says Sennacherib the king of Assyria, In what are you trusting, that you remain in a siege in Jerusalem?

11 Is not Hezekiah trying to persuade you to give yourselves up to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Was it not the same Hezekiah who took away His high places and His altars and who commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Before one altar you shall worship, and upon it shall you burn incense?

13 Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands at all able to deliver their land out of my hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers destroyed who could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God would be able to deliver you out of my hand?

15 Now therefore do not let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, and do not believe him; for there is no god of any nation or kingdom who was able to deliver his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand!

16 And his servants said still more against Jehovah God and against Hezekiah His servant.

17 And he wrote letters to cast contempt on Jehovah the God of Israel and to speak against Him, saying, Like the gods of the nations of the lands that did not deliver their people out of my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people out of my hand.

18 And they cried out in a loud voice in the Jews' language against the people of Jerusalem who were upon the wall in order to frighten them and terrify them, so that they might take the city.

19 And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem as they had against the gods of the peoples of the land, the work of men's hands.

20 But Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed about this, and they cried out to heaven.

21 And Jehovah sent an angel, who annihilated all the mighty men of valor and the leaders and the captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he entered the house of his god, some of those who had come forth from his bowels felled him there with the sword.

22 Thus Jehovah saved Hezekiah and 5¹ Following some ancient versions; the Hebrew reads, erected on the towers.

the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria and out of the hand of everyone, and He ¹protected them on all sides.

23 And many brought gifts to Jehovah at Jerusalem and precious things to Hezekiah the king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all the nations thereafter.

5. His Illness and Recovery
32:24-26

24 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill, and he prayed to Jehovah. And He spoke to him and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah did not respond according to the benefit ¹he had received, for his heart was ²proud; therefore wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Jehovah did not come again upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

6. His Prosperity and End
32:27-33a

27 Now Hezekiah had very much wealth and honor, and he made for himself treasuries for silver and gold and precious stones and for spices and shields and all kinds of valuable goods, 28 As well as storehouses for produce of grain and new wine and fresh oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and flocks in sheepfolds.

29 And he ¹built cities and acquired many flocks and herds, for God had given him very many possessions.

30 And it was this Hezekiah who stopped the upper spring of the water of Gihon and directed it down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.

31 So also in the matter of the envoys of the princes of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the wonders that had happened in the land, God forsook him only to test him and know all that was in his heart.

32 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his deeds of faithfulness are there written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper part of the tombs of David's sons; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him when he died.

N. The Reign of Manasseh
32:33b—33:20a

And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 33

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

2 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations whom Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.

3 And he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had torn down; and he raised up altars to the Baals and made Asherahs, and he worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, concerning which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem will My name be forever.

5 And he built altars to all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of Jehovah.

6 And he caused his children to pass through fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and practiced soothsaying and enchantments and sorcery, and appointed mediums and spiritists; he did what was 22¹ Lit., guided. 25¹ Lit., upon him. 25² Lit., lifted up. 29¹ Lit., made for himself.

evil in the sight of Jehovah beyond measure, provoking Him to anger.

7 And he put the engraved image of the idol that he had made in the house of God, concerning which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;

8 And I will no longer remove the foot of Israel from the land that I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will be certain to do all that I have commanded them according to all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given through Moses.

9 And Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray to do more evil than the nations which Jehovah had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they would not listen.

11 Therefore Jehovah brought upon them the captains of the army which belonged to the king of Assyria, and they took Manasseh captive with hooks and bound him in bronze fetters and took him to Babylon.

12 And in his distress he entreated Jehovah his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 And he prayed to Him, and He was entreated by him and heard his supplication; and He brought him back to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Jehovah indeed was God.

14 And afterward he built an outer wall for the city of David on the west side of the Gihon in the valley even to the entrance of the Fish Gate, and he surrounded the Ophel with it and raised it very high. And he put the valorous captains in all the fortified cities in Judah.

15 And he removed the foreign gods and the idol from the house of Jehovah and all the altars that he had built on the mount of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem, and he cast them out of the city.

16 And he restored the altar of Jehovah, and he sacrificed on it sacrifices of peace offerings and thank offerings; and he commanded Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless the people still sacrificed at the high places but did so to Jehovah their God.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and his prayer to his God and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel are there written among the records of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also and how God was entreated by him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up the Asherahs and the idols before he humbled himself are there written among the records of ¹Hozai.

20 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his house.

O. The Reign of Amon 33:20b-25a

And Amon his son reigned in his place.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had done. And Amon sacrificed to all the idols that Manasseh his father had made and served them.

23 And he did not humble himself before Jehovah as Manasseh his father had humbled himself, but this Amon multiplied trespass.

24 And his servants conspired against him and killed him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land struck

19¹ Or, the seers.

down all those who had conspired against King Amon.

P. The Reign of Josiah
33:25b—35:27

And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

CHAPTER 34

1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah and walked in the ways of David his father and did not turn to the right or to the left.

3 And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of David his father. And in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places and the Asherahs and the idols and the molten images.

4 And they tore down the altars to the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars that were set upon them he hewed down; and the Asherahs and the idols and the molten images he shattered and ground them to dust and scattered it upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

5 And he burned the bones of the priests upon their own altars and so purged Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around,

7 He also tore down the altars and beat the Asherahs and idols into dust, and he hewed down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

8 And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphat the son of Azariah and Maaseiah the governor of the city and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder to repair the house of Jehovah his God.

9 And they came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the doorkeepers, had collected from the hands of Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 And they delivered it into the hand of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and those who did the work, who worked in the house of Jehovah, used it to mend and repair the house.

11 And they gave it to the carpenters and the builders for the purchase of hewn stones and timber for couplings and to make beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully, and the overseers over them were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise; and the Levites who were all skilled in musical instruments

13 Were over the burden bearers and supervised all who did the work from task to task; and some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

14 And when they brought out the money that had been brought into the house of Jehovah, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of Jehovah given through Moses.

15 And Hilkiah responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan brought the book to the king and in addition brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to the hand of your servants they are doing.

17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and into the hand of those who do the work.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe reported to the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has given me a book. And Shaphan read aloud in it before the king.

19 And when the king heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah and Ahikam the son of Shaphan and Abdon the son of Micah and Shaphan the scribe and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, 21 Go; inquire of Jehovah for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book that has been found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that has been poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Jehovah by doing according to all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah and those whom the king had commanded went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they spoke to her to that effect.

23 And she said to them, Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel: Tell the man who sent you to me, 24 Thus says Jehovah, I am now bringing evil upon this place and upon its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book that they have read aloud before the king of Judah.

25 Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.

26 But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall you say to him: Thus says Jehovah the God of Israel, regarding the words which you have heard,

27 Because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants and humbled yourself before Me and tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you, declares Jehovah.

28 I will then gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace; and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place and upon its inhabitants. And they brought word back to the king.

29 And the king sent word and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up to the house of Jehovah, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites and all the people, both great and small; and he read aloud, in their hearing, all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found in the house of Jehovah.

31 And the king stood up where he was and made a covenant before Jehovah to walk after Jehovah and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and with all his soul by performing the words of the covenant which were written in this book.

32 And he made all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin ¹enter into the covenant. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah removed all the abominations out of all the lands that belonged to the children of Israel, and he made all who were found in Israel serve Jehovah their God; throughout his days they did not turn from following after Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

32¹ Lit., stand.

CHAPTER 35

1 And Josiah held the Passover to Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the passover sacrifice on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of Jehovah.

3 And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were sanctified to Jehovah, Put the holy Ark into the house that Solomon the son of David, the king of Israel, built; it shall no longer be the burden on your shoulders. Now serve Jehovah your God and His people Israel,

4 And prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses by your divisions according to what David the king of Israel wrote and according to the document of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place for the groups of the fathers' houses of your brothers, the 'common people, and let each division of Levites stand for a portion of a father's house.

6 And slaughter the passover sacrifice, and sanctify yourselves and prepare your brothers to act according to the word of Jehovah given through Moses.

7 And Josiah contributed to the common people lambs and kids from the flock, all for the passover offerings, to all who were found there, thirty thousand animals in number, and three thousand cattle; these were from the king's possessions.

8 And his officers contributed a free-will offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites; Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock and three hundred cattle.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, contributed to the Levites for the passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the command of the king.

11 And they slaughtered the passover sacrifices; and while the priests sprinkled the blood that they received from their hand, the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the groups of the fathers' houses of the common people to offer to Jehovah, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle.

13 And they roasted the passover in fire according to the ordinance, and they boiled the holy offerings in pots and in cauldrons and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the common people.

14 And afterward they provided for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites provided for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David and Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun the king's seer. And the gatekeepers were at each gate; they did not need to turn from their service, for their brothers the Levites provided for them.

16 Thus all the service of Jehovah was prepared that same day, in order to hold the Passover and offer up burnt offerings upon the altar of Jehovah according to the command of King Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel who were found there held the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

5¹ Lit., children of the people. So also in vv. 7, 12, and 13.

18 And a Passover like that had never been held in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, nor did any of the kings of Israel hold such a Passover as was held by Josiah and the priests and the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were found there and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was held.

20 After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco the king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him.

21 And Neco sent messengers to him, saying, What have I to do with you, O king of Judah? I have not come up against you today but against the house with which I am at war, and God has commanded me to hurry. Refrain for your own sake from interfering with God, who is with me, and He will not destroy you.

22 But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but he disguised himself so that he might fight with him; and he did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God but came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Take me away, for I have been wounded severely.

24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and put him in the chariot of his second-in-command, and they brought him to Jerusalem; and he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah. And all the male singers and female singers speak of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, for they have made it a custom in Israel; and they are there written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his good deeds according to what is written in the law of Jehovah

27 And his acts, first and last, are there written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER 36

Q. The Reign of Jehoahaz 36:1-3

1 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem.

2 Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem and imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

R. The Reign of Jehoiakim 36:4-5, 8a

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother and carried him away to Egypt.

5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God.

S. Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon Carrying the Vessels of the Temple into Babylon 36:6-7, 10a

6 Against him Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up and bound him in bronze fetters to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried away some of the vessels of the house of Jehovah to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon.

R. The Reign of Jehoiakim (cont'd) 36:8a

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and his abominations which he did 20¹ Lit., house. 21¹ Lit., he.

and that which was found against him are there written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

T. The Reign of Jehoiachin
36:8b-9

And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

S. Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon Carrying the Vessels of the Temple
36:10a

10 And at the turn of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent men and brought him to Babylon with the precious vessels of the house of Jehovah.

U. The Reign of Zedekiah
36:10b-13

And he made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did what was evil in the sight of Jehovah his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet whose speaking was from the mouth of Jehovah.

13 And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart from turning to Jehovah the God of Israel.

14 Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people acted exceedingly 15 And Jehovah, the God of their fathers, sent word to them 'day after day through His messengers because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words and scoffed at His prophets until the wrath of Jehovah rose up against His people, until there was no remedy.

vv. 17-20a

17 Therefore He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on old man or feeble; He delivered them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burned down the house of God; and they broke down the wall of Jerusalem and burned down all its palaces with fire, and all its precious vessels were given up to destruction.

The Return of the Children of Israel from Their Captivity and the Rebuilding of the House of God as the Initiation of God's Recovery among His Elect for His Testimony on the Earth according to His Economy

CHAPTER 1

I. The Return of the Captivity under the Kingly Leadership of Zerubbabel
1:1 — 6:22

A. The Decree of Cyrus the King of Persia
1:1-4

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus the king of Persia, so that the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus the king of Persia; and he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus says Cyrus the king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth has Jehovah the God of heaven given to me; and He has charged me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him; and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and let him build the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—He is God—who is in Jerusalem.

4 And everyone who is left, in whatever place he sojourns, let the men of his place support him with silver and with gold and with goods and with cattle, besides the freewill offering for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem.

B. The Response of the Heads of the Fathers' Houses of Judah and Benjamin,
the Priests, and the Levites
1:5-6

5 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites rose up, even everyone whose spirit God had stirred up to go up to build the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with cattle and with precious things, besides all that was offered willingly.

C. The Cooperation of King Cyrus
1:7-11

7 Also King Cyrus brought out the vessels of the house of Jehovah, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his gods;

8 And Cyrus the king of Persia had them brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer and had them enumerated to Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah.

9 And this was their number: thirty gold dishes, one thousand silver dishes, twenty-nine knives,

10 Thirty gold bowls, four hundred ten silver bowls of a different kind, and one thousand other vessels.

11 There were five thousand four hundred vessels of gold and silver in all. Sheshbazzar brought up all of them with those of the captivity who were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 2

D. The Number of the Returned Captives 2:1-67

1 Now these were the children of the province who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each man to his city.

2 These came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

3 The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two.

4 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy-two.

5 The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy-five.

6 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred twelve.

7 The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.

8 The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty-five.

9 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred sixty.

10 The children of Bani, six hundred forty-two.

11 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-three.

12 The children of Azgad, one thousand two hundred twenty-two.

13 The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-six.

14 The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty-six.

15 The children of Adin, four hundred fifty-four.

16 The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight.

17 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty-three.

18 The children of Jorah, one hundred twelve.

19 The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty-three.

20 The children of Gibbar, ninety-five.

21 The children of Bethlehem, one hundred twenty-three.

22 The men of Netophah, fifty-six.

23 The men of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight.

24 The children of Azmaveth, forty-two.

25 The children of Kiriath-arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty-three.

26 The children of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one.

27 The men of Michmas, one hundred twenty-two.

28 The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty-three.

29 The children of Nebo, fifty-two.

30 The children of Magbish, one hundred fifty-six.

31 The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four.

32 The children of Harim, three hundred twenty.

33 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty-five.

34 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five.

35 The children of Senaah, three thousand six hundred thirty.

36 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy-three.

37 The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two.

38 The children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven.

39 The children of Harim, one thousand seventeen.

40 The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy-four.

41 The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred twenty-eight.

43 The temple servants: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth, 44 The children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon, 45 The children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub.

46 The children of Hagab, the children of Shamlai, the children of Hanan, 47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah, 48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, 49 The children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai, 50 The children of Asnah, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephisim,

52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, 53 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah, 54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

55 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Has-sophereth, the children of Peruda, 56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel,

58 All the temple servants and the children of Solomon's servants were three hundred ninety-two.

59 And these were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not give evidence of their fathers' houses nor their 'descendants, whether they were of Israel:

60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two.

61 And of the children of the priests: the children of Hobaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife from among the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name.

62 These sought their registry among those who were enrolled by genealogy, but they were not found; therefore they were considered defiled and were excluded from the priesthood.

63 And the governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things until a priest stood up with Urim and Thummim.

64 The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, 65 Besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven; and they had two hundred male singers and female singers.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred-twenty.

59' Lit., seed.

E. The Willing Offering for the House of Jehovah
2:68-70

68 And some of the heads of fathers' houses, when they came to the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to restore it on its foundation.

69 The priests gave to the treasury of the work, according to their ability, sixty-one thousand darics of gold and five thousand minas of silver and one hundred priestly garments.

70 So they and the Levites and some of the people and the singers and the gatekeepers and the temple servants and all Israel dwelt in their cities.

CHAPTER 3

F. The Rebuilding of the Altar of God
3:1-6a

1 And when the seventh month came, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up, along with his brothers the priests and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, and they built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings upon it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set up the altar upon its bases, for fear was upon them because of the peoples of the lands; and they offered burnt offerings on it to Jehovah, burnt offerings of the morning and evening.

4 And they held the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number according to the ordinance as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward they offered the continual burnt offering and the offerings of the new moons and of all the appointed feasts of Jehovah that were sanctified and of everyone who offered willingly a free-will offering to Jehovah.

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer up burnt offerings to Jehovah; however the foundation of the temple of Jehovah had not yet been laid.

3:6b-13

7 They also gave money to the stone hewers and to the carpenters, and food and drink and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa according to the authorization granted them by Cyrus the king of Persia.

8 Now in the second year after they came to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those who came out of captivity to Jerusalem began by appointing the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have oversight over the work of the house of Jehovah.

9 Then Jeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, as one man, with Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, and with the sons of Henadad and their sons and their brothers the Levites, to have oversight over the workmen in the house of God.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Jehovah, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Jehovah 'according to the directions of David the king of Israel.

11 And they sang to one another in praising and giving thanks to Jehovah, saying, 10¹ Lit., by the hand.

For He is good, for His lovingkindness is forever upon Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised Jehovah, because the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, the old men who had seen the first house, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes; and many shouted aloud for joy, 13 So that the people could not discern the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

CHAPTER 4

H. The Frustration 4:1-24

1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel,

2 They drew near to Zerubbabel and to the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God as you do, and we have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon the king of Assyria, who brought us up here.

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Israel said to them, You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to Jehovah the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah and troubled them in building.

5 And they hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus the king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius the king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his companions wrote to Artaxerxes the king of Persia; and the script of the letter was written in Aramaic and translated into Aramaic.

8 ¹Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows

9 (Then Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the judges, and the officials, the Tarpelites, the Persians, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is the Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations, whom the great and noble Osnappar carried into exile and settled in the city of Samaria and in the rest of the province beyond the River, wrote. And now

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent to him): To Artaxerxes the king, from your servants the men beyond the River. And now

12 Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem; they are rebuilding the rebellious and evil city and are finishing the walls and have repaired the foundations.

13 Now let it be known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will not pay tribute, taxes, or tolls; and in the end it will cause damage to the kings.

14 Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not fitting for us to see the king's dishonor, we therefore have sent this letter to inform the king, 8¹ From here through 6:18 the text is in Aramaic, not in Hebrew.

15 So that a search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers, and you may find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city and one that causes damage to kings and provinces and that they have stirred up sedition within it in times past; for which reason this city was laid waste.

16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, then you will have no portion beyond the River.

17 Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their companions who dwelt in Samaria and in the rest of the province beyond the River: Greetings. And now 18 The letter which you sent to us has been read before me in translation.

19 And a decree has been issued by me, and a search has been made; and it was found that this city in times past has risen against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it,

20 And that there have been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the lands beyond the River; and tribute, taxes and tolls were paid to them.

21 Now make a decree to stop these men, so that this city is not rebuilt until a decree is made by me.

22 And take care not to be negligent in this. Why should damage grow to the detriment of the kings?

23 Then when the copy of King Artaxerxes's letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews and stopped them by force and power.

24 So the work of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem, ceased; and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius the king of Persia.

CHAPTER 5

I. The Continual Rebuilding Work through the Encouragement and Help of the Prophecies of Haggai and Zechariah 5:1-2

1 Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

2 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God, which is in Jerusalem; and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

J. The Confirmation of the Decree of Darius the King of Persia 5:3—6:12

3 At the same time Tattenai the governor beyond the River and Shethar-bozenai and their companions came to them and spoke to them in this way, Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this wall?

4 Then we told them accordingly what the names of the men were who were constructing this building.

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them, until a report went to Darius; and then an answer was returned by letter concerning it.

6 This is the copy of the letter that Tattenai the governor beyond the River and Shethar-bozenai and his companions the officials, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king;

7 They sent a report to him in which was written as follows, To Darius the king, all peace.

8 Let it be known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is being built with ¹large stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work is being conducted with diligence and prospers in their hands.

9 Then we asked those elders, speaking to them in this way, Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this wall?

10 We also asked them their names in order to inform you, so that we might write down the names of the men who were at their head.

11 And they returned us an answer in this way, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

12 But because our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to anger, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the people away to Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, King Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And also the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought into the temple of Babylon, these King Cyrus took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were given to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

15 And he said to him, Take these vessels, go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt in its place.

16 Then the same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem; and since that time even until now it has been under construction and has not yet been finished.

17 Now therefore if it seems good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there in Babylon, to see whether it is the case that a decree was made by King Cyrus for the building of this house of God in Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this.

CHAPTER 6

1 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were stored in Babylon.

2 And a scroll was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, and on it this was written as a record:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: Let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices; and let its foundations be raised, its height being sixty cubits, and its width sixty cubits,

4 With three layers of large stones, and one layer of timber; and let the expenses be given out of the king's house.

5 And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought again to the temple which is in Jerusalem, to its place; and you shall put them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tattenai the governor beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and your companions the officials, in the province beyond the River, keep far away from there.

7 Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.

8 Moreover I make a decree concerning what you are to do for these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: From the property of the king, even the tribute of the province beyond the River, expenses are to be given in full to these men that the work not cease.

9 And whatever is needed, young bulls and rams and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are in Jerusalem, let it be given to them day by day without fail,

10 That they may offer ¹incense to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree that whoever alters this word, timber shall be pulled out from his house, and he shall be lifted up and impaled on it, and his house shall be made a dunghill on account of this.

12 And may the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who put forth their hand to alter this or to destroy this house of God, which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made a decree; let it be carried out with all diligence.

K. The Completion of the Rebuilding of the House of God
6:13-15

13 Then Tattenai the governor beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and their companions, carried out everything with all diligence according to what Darius the king had sent order to do.

14 And the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and according to the decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes the king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

L. The Dedication of the Rebuilt House of God
6:16-18

16 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And they offered for the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

18 And they set the priests in their courses and the Levites in their divisions for the service of God, which is in Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

M. The Keeping of the Passover by the Children of the Captivity
6:19-22

19 And the children of the captivity held the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

20 For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure. Then they slaughtered the passover for all the children of the captivity and for their brothers the priests and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel who returned from the captivity and all who had separated themselves from the defilement of the nations of the land to join them, to seek Jehovah the God of Israel, ate the passover

22 And held the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for Jehovah had made them joyful and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

10¹ Lit., restful, soothing offerings.

CHAPTER 7

II. The Return of the Captivity under the Priestly Leadership of Ezra 7:1 — 10:44

A. The Return of the Captivity under Ezra
7:1 — 8:36

1. The Beginning of the Return through the Request of Ezra to the King
7:1-10

1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zeremiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest;

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a scribe skilled in the law of Moses, which Jehovah the God of Israel had given; and the king granted him all his request according to the hand of Jehovah his God upon him.

7 Some of the children of Israel and some of the priests, and the Levites and the singers and the gatekeepers and the temple servants also went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king;

9 For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of Jehovah and to do it and to teach His statutes and ordinances in Israel.

2. The Decree of Artaxerxes the King of Persia to Ezra
7:11-28

11 Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commandments of Jehovah and of His statutes for Israel:

12 ¹Artaxerxes, the king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace. And now 13 I make a decree that any of the people of Israel and their priests and the Levites in my kingdom who offer themselves willingly to go to Jerusalem may go with you.

14 Inasmuch as you have been sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of your God, which is in your hand,

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have offered willingly to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

16 As well as all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, who offered willingly for the house of their God, which is in Jerusalem;

17 With this money therefore you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings; and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, you may do according to the will of your God.

19 And the vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem.

12' From here through 7:26 the text is in Aramaic, not in Hebrew.

20 And the rest of the needs for the house of your God, which you have occasion to provide, you may provide for it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers who are in the province beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, requires of you, it shall be done with all diligence, 22 Up to one hundred talents of silver and up to one hundred cors of wheat and up to one hundred baths of wine and up to one hundred baths of oil and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven. For why should wrath come upon the kingdom of the king and his sons?

24 We also inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, taxes, or tolls upon any of the priests and Levites, the singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, or servants of this house of God.

25 And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are in the province beyond the River, all those who know the laws of your God; and teach anyone who does not know them.

26 And everyone who will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed upon him with all diligence, whether to death or to banishment or to confiscation of goods or to imprisonment.

27 Blessed be Jehovah, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this into the king's heart, to beautify the house of Jehovah, which is in Jerusalem,

28 And has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the mighty officers of the king. And I was strengthened according to the hand of Jehovah my God upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel leading men to go up with me.

CHAPTER 8

3. The Genealogical Enrollment of Those Who Returned from Captivity 8:1-20

1 Now these are the heads of their fathers' houses and the genealogical enrollment of those who went up with me from Babylon in the reign of Artaxerxes the king:

2 Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush.

3 Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him one hundred fifty males were enrolled by genealogy.

4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah; and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel; and with him three hundred males.

6 And of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males.

8 And of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males.

9 Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah; and with him one hundred sixty males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred ten males.

13 And of the sons of Adonikam, the last ones; and these are their names: Eliph-elet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males.

14 And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava, and we camped there three days. When I observed the people and the priests, I found none of the sons of Levi there.

16 Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, leading men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers.

17 And I sent them to Iddo the leading man at the place Casiphia; and I told them what to say to Iddo and his brothers the temple servants at the place Casiphia, namely, to bring ministers to us for the house of our God.

18 And according to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; namely, Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen men;

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jesh-aiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty;

20 And of the temple servants, whom David and the leaders had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred twenty temple servants—all of them were mentioned by name.

4. Ezra's Proclamation of a Fast
Before They Left Babylon
8:21-23

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God to seek from Him a straight way for ourselves and for our little ones and for all our possessions.

22 For I was ashamed to ask for troops and horsemen from the king to help us against the enemy in the way because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is for good upon all those who seek Him, but His power and His wrath is against all those who forsake Him.

23 So we fasted and sought our God for this, and He was entreated by us.

5. Ezra's Provision for the Offerings for the House of God
8:24-30

24 Then I set apart twelve of the leading men of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them,

25 And weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the heave offering for the house of our God, which the king and his counselors and his princes, and all Israel there present had offered.

26 I weighed out into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver and one hundred silver vessels of one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold

27 And twenty bowls of gold of one thousand darics, and two vessels of fine polished bronze as precious as gold.

28 And I said to them, You are holy to Jehovah, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Jehovah, the God of your fathers.

29 Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers' houses of Israel at Jerusalem in the chambers of the house of Jehovah.

30 So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the 17' Lit., I put words in their mouths to say.

gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

6. The Journey and Arrival of the Returned Captivity
8:31-34

31 Then we set out from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from people set in ambush on the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem and remained there three days.

33 And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed out in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinhas; and with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui.

34 Everything was numbered and weighed, and all its weight was recorded at that time.

7. The Offerings to God
by the Returned Captivity
8:35

35 The children of those who had been carried away, who came out of captivity, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve male goats for a sin offering, all as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

8. The Returned Captivity's Delivery of the King's Decrees to the King's Satraps and to the Governors beyond the River
8:36

36 And they delivered the king's decrees to the king's satraps and to the governors beyond the River, and these supported the people and the house of God.

CHAPTER 9

B. The Purification of the Returned Captives
from the Defilement of Foreign Wives
9:1 — 10:44

1. Initiated by the Officials of the Returned Captives
9:1-2

1 Now when these things had been completed, the officials approached me, saying, The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken some of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands; indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this unfaithfulness.

2. Ezra's Reaction
9:3-15

3 And when I heard about this matter, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled out hair from my head and my beard, and sat down appalled.

4 Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of those of the captivity was gathered to me, and I sat appalled until the evening meal offering.

5 And at the time of the evening meal offering I rose up from my affliction, even with my garment and my robe torn, and I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to Jehovah my God.

6 And I said, O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God; for our iniquities have multiplied over our head, and our guilt has increased up to the heavens.

7 Since the days of our fathers up to this day we have been exceedingly guilty; and because of our iniquities we, our kings and our priests, have been delivered up into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to shamefacedness, as it is this day.

8 And now for a brief moment favor has been shown by Jehovah our God to leave us a remnant to escape and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we are slaves, yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage but has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to raise up the house of our God and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, 11 Which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, The land which you are entering to possess is a land unclean with the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations, with which they have filled it from one end to another, and with their defilement.

12 Now therefore do not give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters for your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.

13 And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve and have given us those who have escaped as this,

14 Shall we again break your commandments and intermarry with the peoples that do these abominations? Will You not be angry with us until You have consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor any who escape?

15 O Jehovah the God of Israel, You are righteous; for we have been left a remnant of those who have escaped, as it is this day. Here we are before You in our guilt, although none can stand before You because of this.

CHAPTER 10

3. The Congregation's Reaction 10:1-5

1 Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and throwing himself down before the house of God, a very large gathering of men and women and children was gathered together to him out of Israel; for the people wept very bitterly.

2 And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We have acted unfaithfully against our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives and those born of them according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the law.

4 Arise, for the matter is your responsibility, but we are with you; be strong, and do it.

5 Then Ezra arose and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel swear that they would do according to this word; so they swore.

4. The Final Decision 10:6-44

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he ate no bread and drank no water, for he was mourning because of the unfaithfulness of those of the captivity.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem;

8 And that whoever did not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his possessions should be forfeited, and he himself should be separated from the congregation of the captivity.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month, and all the people sat in the open square in front of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, You have acted unfaithfully and have married foreign women to increase the guilt of Israel.

11 Now therefore make confession to Jehovah the God of your fathers, and do His will, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign women.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, It is so; we must do as you have said.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside; neither is this a task for one day or two, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter.

14 Let our leaders represent the whole congregation, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times and with them the elders of every city and their judges, until the fierce anger of our God is turned away from us on account of this matter.

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' houses were set apart according to their fathers' houses, all of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they finished with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.

18 And among the sons of the priests who had married foreign women there were found of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah and Eliezer and Jarib and Gedaliah.

19 And they ¹pledged that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

20 And of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah.

22 And of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 And of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 And of the singers: Eliashib. And of the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 And of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

26 And of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah.

19¹ Lit., gave their hand.

27 And of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

28 And of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai.

29 And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth.

30 And of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

31 And of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah.

33 Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei.

34 Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu,

38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,

39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,

42 Shallum, Amariah, Joseph.

43 Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Matithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, and Joel, Benaiah.

44 All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

NEHEMIAH

Subject:

The Rebuilding of the Wall of the City of Jerusalem as a Continual Recovery among God's Elect for His Testimony for the Accomplishment of His Economy

CHAPTER 1

I. The Rebuilding of the City of Jerusalem under Nehemiah

1:1 — 7:73

A. The Report of the Condition of Jerusalem

1:1-3

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachabiah. Now in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in Susa the capital,

2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and some men from Judah; and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped, who were left from the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

3 And they said to me, The remnant who are left from the captivity there in the province are in an exceedingly bad state and reproach, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates have been burned with fire.

B. Nehemiah's Prayer by Fasting

1:4-11

4 And when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and I mourned for some days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, I beseech You, O Jehovah the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with those who love Him and keep His commandments:

6 Let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant, which I pray before You now day and night, concerning the children of Israel, Your servants, while I confess the sins of the children of Israel that we have sinned against You. Indeed, I and the house of my father have sinned;

7 We have been most corrupt toward You and have not kept the commandments and the statutes and the ordinances that You commanded Moses Your servant.

8 Remember now the word that You commanded Moses Your servant, saying, If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;

9 But if you return to Me and keep My commandments and perform them, though your outcasts are under the ends of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause My name to dwell.

10 Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand.

11 I beseech You, O Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and to the prayer of Your servants, who take delight in fearing Your name; and cause Your servant to prosper today, and grant him to find compassion before this man. Now I was cupbearer to the king.

CHAPTER 2

C. The King's Favor in Giving Permission to Nehemiah

2:1-8

1 Then in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, while wine was being set before him, I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence.

2 And the king said to me, Why is your face sad, since you are not ill? This is nothing other than sadness of heart. Then I was greatly frightened.

3 And I said to the king, May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the 'place of my fathers' graves, lies in waste and its gates are consumed with fire?

4 And the king said to me, What do you request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said to the king, If it please the king and if your servant has found favor before you, that you would send me to Judah to the city of my fathers' graves that I may rebuild it.

6 And the king said to me (and the queen was sitting beside him), How long will your going be, and when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me, and I gave him a date.

7 Then I said to the king, If it please the king, let letters be given to me for the governors beyond the River, so that they will let me pass through until I come to Judah;

8 And a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the Park, which belongs to the king, so that he would give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace that belongs to the house and for the wall of the city and for the house that I will be entering. And the king gave these to me according to the good hand of my God, which was upon me.

D. Nehemiah's Journey to Jerusalem and His Personal Observation
2:9-16

9 So I went to the governors beyond the River and gave them the king's letters.

And the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen.

10 And when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite servant heard of this, it displeased them greatly that a man had come seeking the good of the children of Israel.

11 Thus I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

12 And I arose at night, I and some few men with me. And I told no man what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. And there was no animal with me except the animal I rode on.

13 And I went out at night by the Valley Gate, toward the Jackals' Spring and the Dung Gate, and inspected the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down and whose gates had been consumed with fire.

14 Then I passed on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, but there was no place for the animal under me to pass through.

15 And I went up at night by the brook and inspected the wall, and turned back and went in by the Valley Gate and so returned.

16 And the rulers did not know where I had gone or what I had been doing; and I had not as yet told it to the Jews and the priests and the nobles and the rulers and the rest who were to do the work.

E. The Rebuilding of the Wall of Jerusalem
2:17-20

17 Then I said to them, You see the bad state we are in, that Jerusalem lies in waste and its gates are burned with fire. Come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a reproach.

18 And I told them about the hand of my God, which was good upon me, and also about the king's words, which he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise up and build; and they strengthened their hands for the good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite servant and Geshem the Arabian heard of it, they mocked us and despised us; and they said, What is this thing that you will do? Will you rebel against the king?

20 And I answered them and said to them, The God of heaven Himself will make us prosper; therefore we His servants will rise up and build. But you have no portion nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3

F. A Record of the Building of the Wall 3:1-32

1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and erected its doors; even as far as the Tower of the Hundred they consecrated it and as far as the Tower of Hananel.

2 And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3 And the sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate: They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

4 And next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. And next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. And next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs.

5 And next to them the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles would not put their necks to the service of their ¹Lord.

6 And Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate: They laid its beams and set up its doors and its bolts and its bars.

7 And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite with the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah made repairs to the throne of the governor beyond the River.

8 Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. And next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem even unto the broad wall.

9 And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.

10 And next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, opposite his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.

11 Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashtub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section, including the Tower of the Furnaces.

12 And next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs, he and his daughters.

13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate: They built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, as well as one thousand cubits of the wall to the Dung Gate.

14 And Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth-haccherem repaired the Dung Gate: He built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

15 And Shallum the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate: He built it and covered it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, as well as the wall of the Pool of Shelah by the King's Garden, even to the stairs that go down from the City of David.

16 After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Bethzur, made repairs, from a place opposite the Sepulchres of David and as far as the pool that was made and as far as the House of the Mighty Men.

⁵ Or, masters.

17 After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.

18 After him their brothers, under Bavvai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs.

19 And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, opposite the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai diligently repaired another section, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him the priests, the men from the plain, made repairs.

23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs opposite their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house.

24 After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, then to the corner.

25 Palal the son of Uzai made repairs from in front of the turning of the wall, and on the tower that projects out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him was Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

26 (Now the temple servants dwelt on the Ophel, as far as the point opposite the Water Gate on the east, and the tower that projects out.)

27 After him the Tekoites repaired another section, opposite the great tower that projects out and to the wall of the Ophel.

28 Above the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each one opposite his own house.

29 After them Zadok the son of Immer made repairs opposite his own house. And after him Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

30 After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired a second section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs, opposite his quarters.

31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Muster Gate and as far as the ascent of the corner.

32 And between the ascent of the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

CHAPTER 4

G. The Frustration of the Enemy 4:1-23

1 And when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he became angry and was greatly enraged; and he mocked the Jews.

2 And he spoke to his brothers and the army of Samaria and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the dust heaps, though they are burned?

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, Even their stone wall that they are building, if a fox were to go up on it, he would breach it.

4 Hear, O our God, for we are despised; and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them as spoil in the land of captivity;

5 And do not cover their iniquity and do not let their sin be blotted out before You, for they made provocations before the builders.

6 So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

7 And when Sanballat and Tobiah and the Arabians and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites heard that the restoration of the walls of Jerusalem was advancing, that the breaches were beginning to be closed up, they became very angry;

8 And all of them conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and cause confusion in it.

9 But we prayed to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

10 And Judah said,
The strength of the burden bearers fails,
And the debris is great;
And we are not able
To build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They will not know, nor even see, until we come into their midst and slay them and cause the work to stop.

12 And when the Jews who dwelt near them came, they said to us ten times, They will come up against us from all the places that you turn to.

13 So I set men in the lowest places behind the wall, on the exposed areas, and I set the people by families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And when I saw the situation, I rose up and said to the nobles and the rulers and the rest of the people, Do not be afraid of them; remember the great and awesome Lord, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And when our enemies heard that their counsel was known to us and that God frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each man to his work.

16 And from that day half of my servants labored in the work, and half of them held the spears and the shields and the bows and the armor; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 Those who built the wall and those who carried burdens took the loads with one hand doing the work and with the other holding a weapon.

18 And as for the builders, each had his sword strapped to his side, and so they built; and he who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

19 And I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, each far from the other.

20 In whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather yourselves to us there. Our God will fight for us.

21 So we labored in the work; and half of them held spears from the start of dawn until the stars came out.

22 I also said to the people at that time, Let every man and his servant spend the nights inside Jerusalem so that they may be a guard for us by night and work by day.

23 So neither I nor my brothers nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes; ¹each had his weapon at his right hand.

CHAPTER 5

H. The Settlement of the Interior Problem 5:1-19

1. The People's Complaint concerning the Nobles' and Rulers' Imposing Interest on the People vv. 1-5

1 And there was a great cry of the people and their wives against their brothers the Jews,

2 For there were some who said, With our sons and our daughters we are many;

23¹ The Hebrew text is obscure.

therefore we must get grain that we may eat and live.

3 And there were some who said, We have pledged our fields and our vineyards and our houses that we might get grain in this famine.

4 And there were some who said, We have borrowed money against our fields and our vineyards for the king's tribute.

5 Yet now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children; and now we are bringing our sons and daughters into bondage as slaves. And some of our daughters have already been brought into bondage; and it is not in our power to deliver them, for our fields and vineyards belong to others.

2. Nehemiah's Rebuke and Resolution vv. 6-13

6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 And when I had considered this matter in my heart, I rebuked the nobles and the rulers and said to them, You men are charging interest, each man against his brother! And I set a great assembly against them.
